579. Registration cards.

Where a registration authority<sup>1</sup> assigns a registration mark<sup>2</sup> to a visiting vehicle<sup>3</sup>, the authority must issue to the person who brought that vehicle into Great Britain<sup>4</sup> a registration card<sup>5</sup> containing such particulars as the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> may direct<sup>7</sup>.

Certain provisions relating to registration and licensing of vehicles<sup>8</sup> apply in relation to a registration card as they apply in relation to a registration book but with the substitution of references to the registration authority for the references to the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup>.

Whenever a visiting vehicle in respect of which a registration card has been issued<sup>10</sup> is sold or transferred, and is removed to a country outside the United Kingdom, or is destroyed, then the holder of the registration card must surrender it to a registration authority<sup>11</sup> informing the authority of the reason for the transfer and, in a case where that vehicle has been sold or transferred, of the name of the new owner and of his address, if any, in the United Kingdom<sup>12</sup>. The registration authority (where other than the Secretary of State) to whom a registration card is so surrendered must forward it to the Secretary of State and inform him of the date of surrender and of the reason for that surrender<sup>13</sup>.

2 As to registration marks see PARAS 563-576 ante.

The Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Regulations 1971, SI 1971/450, have been revoked and replaced by the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2742 (as amended) (see PARA 529 et seq ante), reg 13 of which deals with the issue of replacement registration documents (see PARA 532 ante), but which contain no provisions as to defacement or mutilation.

580. Excise licences.

A person who has brought a visiting vehicle<sup>1</sup>, which is not an exempted vehicle<sup>2</sup>, into Great Britain<sup>3</sup> must apply for an excise licence<sup>4</sup> for that vehicle<sup>5</sup>.

581. Assigned registration marks.

The provisions imposing requirements as to the form of registration marks<sup>1</sup> apply to an exempted vehicle<sup>2</sup> as if the reference within those provisions to any registration mark<sup>3</sup> which is required to be fixed on a vehicle<sup>4</sup> included a reference to the assigned registration mark<sup>5</sup>; and the provisions as to the fixing of registration plates<sup>6</sup> apply to an exempted vehicle as if it were a vehicle registered before 1 October 1938<sup>7</sup>.

The provisions which impose requirements as to the form of registration marks do not apply as respects a registration mark<sup>8</sup> if the corresponding requirements of the law under which, or the authority by whom, the registration mark was issued are complied with<sup>9</sup>. Such a registration mark<sup>10</sup> need not be exhibited at the front of the vehicle if that is not required by the law under which, or the authority by whom, the registration mark was issued<sup>11</sup>.

At the back of an exempted vehicle on which is exhibited a registration mark<sup>12</sup> there must be exhibited so as to be clearly distinguishable a nationality sign<sup>13</sup> indicating the country under the law of which the registration mark was issued<sup>14</sup>. However, no nationality sign need be shown on an exempted vehicle in a case where the visitor's registration document is a registration certificate specifying the registered letter and number allotted to the vehicle under the system<sup>15</sup>.

The provisions relating to trailers<sup>16</sup> apply to any trailer drawn by an exempted vehicle as if reference to the registration mark were references to the registration mark displayed by an exempted vehicle<sup>17</sup>. However, in a case where: (1) the registration mark to be displayed by the exempted vehicle consists of no letters or numerals other than Roman letters or ordinary European numerals or both<sup>18</sup>; and (2) the trailer has been brought temporarily into Great Britain<sup>19</sup> by a person resident outside the United Kingdom<sup>20</sup>, a registration mark issued to the trailer under the law of a country outside the United Kingdom<sup>21</sup> may be displayed at the back of the trailer instead of the registration mark to be displayed by the exempted vehicle<sup>22</sup>.

When an exempted vehicle which must carry a nationality sign<sup>23</sup> is drawing one or more trailers, the nationality sign must be carried in like manner at the back of the trailer or rearmost trailer<sup>24</sup>. However, a trailer carrying a registration mark<sup>25</sup> must carry a nationality sign indicating the country under the law of which that registration mark was issued to the trailer instead of any other nationality sign indicating the country under the law of which a registration mark was issued to the exempted vehicle<sup>26</sup>.

(2) LADEN WEIGHT

584. Maximum permitted laden weight of a vehicle.

The laden weight of a vehicle of a class specified in heads (1) to (17) below must not exceed the maximum permitted laden weight specified<sup>1</sup>; and the maximum permitted laden weight of a vehicle first used<sup>2</sup> before 1 June 1973 which falls in head (1) or head (2) below must not be less than would be the case if the vehicle fell in head (9) below<sup>3</sup>:

- 1046 (1) in the case of a wheeled<sup>4</sup> heavy motor car<sup>5</sup> or motor car<sup>6</sup> which is not described in head (2), (3), (5) or (6) below and which complies with the relevant braking requirement<sup>7</sup>, the maximum permitted laden weight is as determined in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>8</sup>;
- 1047 (2) in the case of a wheeled heavy motor car or motor car which is not described in head (3), (5) or (6) below, which complies with the relevant braking requirement and in which every driving axle not being a steering axle is fitted with twin tyres<sup>9</sup> and either every driving axle is fitted with road friendly suspension<sup>10</sup> or no axle has an axle weight<sup>11</sup> exceeding 9,500 kilograms, the maximum permitted laden weight is as determined in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>12</sup>;
- 1048 (3) in the case of a wheeled heavy motor car or motor car, not being an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>13</sup>, which forms part of an articulated vehicle<sup>14</sup> and which complies with the relevant braking requirement, the maximum permitted laden weight is as determined in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>15</sup>;
- 1049 (4) in the case of a wheeled trailer, including a composite trailer<sup>16</sup>, but not including a semi-trailer, which is drawn by a motor tractor<sup>17</sup>, heavy motor car or motor car which complies with the relevant braking requirement, other than a

- trailer described in head (7), (8), (9) or (12) below, the maximum permitted laden weight is as determined in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>18</sup>;
- 1050 (5) in the case of an articulated bus<sup>19</sup>, the maximum permitted laden weight is 27,000 kilograms<sup>20</sup>;
- 1051 (6) in the case of a wheeled agricultural motor vehicle, the maximum permitted laden weight is as determined in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>21</sup>, subject to a maximum of 24,390 kilograms<sup>22</sup>;
- 1052 (7) in the case of a balanced agricultural trailer<sup>23</sup>, which is not described in head (9), (12) or (16) below, the maximum permitted laden weight is as determined in accordance with the relevant statutory provisions<sup>24</sup>, subject to a maximum of 18,290 kilograms<sup>25</sup>;
- 1053 (8) in the case of an unbalanced agricultural trailer<sup>26</sup> which is not described in head (9), (12) or (17) below, the maximum permitted laden weight is 18,290 kilograms inclusive of the weight imposed by the trailer on the drawing vehicle<sup>27</sup>;
- 1054 (9) in the case of a wheeled trailer manufactured on or after 27 February 1977 and fitted with brakes which automatically come into operation on the overrun of the trailer, whether or not it is fitted with any other brake, except an agricultural trailer which is being drawn by an agricultural motor vehicle, which complies with the specified requirements<sup>28</sup> and of which the brakes can be applied either by the driver of the drawing vehicle or by some other person on that vehicle or on the trailer, the maximum permitted laden weight is 3,500 kilograms<sup>29</sup>;
- 1055 (10) in the case of a wheeled heavy motor car or motor car not described in head (1), (3), (5) or (6) above, with not more than four wheels, the maximum permitted laden weight is 14,230 kilograms, with more than four but not more than six wheels, 20,330 kilograms and, with more than six wheels, 24,390 kilograms<sup>30</sup>;
- 1056 (11) in the case of a wheeled trailer not described in head (4), (7), (8), (9) above or head (12) below having less than six wheels, and not forming part of an articulated vehicle, and an agricultural trailed appliance<sup>31</sup>, the maximum permitted laden weight is 14,230 kilograms<sup>32</sup>;
- 1057 (12) in the case of a trailer manufactured before 27 February 1977 and having no brakes other than a parking brake and brakes which come into operation on the overrun of the trailer, the maximum permitted laden weight is 3,560 kilograms<sup>33</sup>;
- 1058 (13) in the case of a wheeled locomotive<sup>34</sup>, not described in head (6) above, which is equipped with suitable and sufficient springs between each wheel and the vehicle's frame and with a pneumatic tyre<sup>35</sup> or a tyre of soft or elastic material fitted to each wheel, the maximum permitted laden weight is, if having less than six wheels, 22,360 kilograms, if having six wheels, 26,420 kilograms, and, if having more than six wheels, 30,490 kilograms<sup>36</sup>;
- 1059 (14) in the case of a track-laying<sup>37</sup> locomotive with resilient material interposed between the rims of the weight-carrying rollers and the road so that the weight of the vehicle, other than that borne by any wheels and the portion of the track in contact with the road, is supported by the resilient material, the maximum permitted laden weight is 22,360 kilograms<sup>38</sup>;
- 1060 (15) in the case of a locomotive not described in head (6), (13) or (14) above, the maximum permitted laden weight is 20,830 kilograms<sup>39</sup>;
- 1061 (16) in the case of a track-laying heavy motor car or motor car, the maximum permitted laden weight is 22,360 kilograms<sup>40</sup>; and
- 1062 (17) in the case of a track-laying trailer, the maximum permitted laden weight is 13,210 kilograms<sup>41</sup>.

The maximum total weight of all trailers, whether laden or unladen, drawn at any one time by a locomotive must not exceed 44,000 kilograms<sup>42</sup>.

Nothing in head (1) or head (2) above prevents a vehicle from being used on a road<sup>43</sup> if: (a) a plating certificate in respect of the vehicle was in force immediately before 1 January 1993<sup>44</sup>; and (b) the laden weight of the vehicle does not exceed the weight shown in that certificate as being the weight not to be exceeded in Great Britain<sup>45</sup>.

1 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 75(1). Nothing in reg 75 (as amended) is to be taken to prohibit the use of a vehicle in circumstances where the maximum authorised weight for the vehicle, for any vehicle combination of which the vehicle forms part and for any axle of the vehicle, as determined in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Authorised Weight) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/3111 (amended by SI 2000/3224; SI 2001/1125), is not exceeded: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 79A (added by SI 1998/3112). USE OF VEHICLES/(2) LADEN WEIGHT/585. Maximum permitted laden weight of a vehicle and trailer, other than an articulated vehicle.

585. Maximum permitted laden weight of a vehicle and trailer, other than an articulated vehicle.

The total laden weight of a motor vehicle<sup>1</sup> and the trailer<sup>2</sup> or trailers, other than semi-trailers, drawn by it must not, in a case specified in heads (1) to (8) below, exceed the specified maximum permitted train weight<sup>3</sup>:

- 1063 (1) in the case of a wheeled<sup>4</sup> trailer which is drawn by a wheeled motor tractor<sup>5</sup> or heavy motor car<sup>6</sup> (not being in any case an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>7</sup>), where the combination has a total of four axles and is being used for international transport and the drawing vehicle is a vehicle which was first used<sup>8</sup> on or after 1 April 1973 and complies with the relevant braking requirement<sup>9</sup>, the maximum permitted train weight is 35,000 kilograms<sup>10</sup>;
- 1064 (2) in the case of a wheeled trailer which is drawn by a wheeled motor tractor, heavy motor car or motor car<sup>11</sup> (not being in any case an agricultural motor vehicle), where the combination has a total of four axles and the following conditions are satisfied in relation to the drawing vehicle: (a) it was first used on or after 1 April 1973; (b) it complies with the relevant braking requirement; (c) every driving axle not being a steering axle is fitted with twin tyres<sup>12</sup>; and (d) every driving axle is fitted with road friendly suspension<sup>13</sup>, the maximum permitted train weight is 35,000 kilograms<sup>14</sup>;
- 1065 (3) in the case of a wheeled trailer which is drawn by a wheeled motor tractor, heavy motor car or motor car (not being in any case an agricultural motor vehicle), where the combination has a total of five or more axles and the following conditions are satisfied in relation to the drawing vehicle: (a) it was first used on or after 1 April 1973; (b) it complies with the relevant braking requirement; (c) every driving axle not being a steering axle is fitted with twin tyres; and (d) either every driving axle is fitted with road friendly suspension or no axle has an axle weight<sup>15</sup> exceeding 8,500 kilograms, the maximum permitted train weight is 38,000 kilograms<sup>16</sup>;
- 1066 (4) in the case of a wheeled trailer, not being part of a combination described in head (1), (2) or (3) above which is drawn by a wheeled motor tractor, heavy motor car or motor car (not being in any case an agricultural motor vehicle), where the trailer is fitted with power-assisted brakes which can be operated by the driver<sup>17</sup> of the drawing vehicle and are not rendered ineffective by the non-rotation of its engine and the drawing vehicle is equipped with a warning device so placed as to be readily visible to the driver of the vehicle and which is capable of indicating any impending failure of, or deficiency in, the vacuum or pressure system, the maximum permitted train weight is 32,520 kilograms<sup>18</sup>;
- 1067 (5) in the case of a wheeled trailer which is of a specified description<sup>19</sup> drawn by a wheeled motor tractor, heavy motor car or motor car (not being in any case an agricultural motor vehicle), the drawing vehicle being a vehicle which was first used

- on or after 1 April 1973 and complies with the relevant braking requirement, the maximum permitted train weight is 29,500 kilograms<sup>20</sup>;
- 1068 (6) in the case of a wheeled agricultural motor vehicle drawing a wheeled unbalanced agricultural trailer<sup>21</sup>, if the distance between the rearmost axle of the trailer and the rearmost axle of the drawing vehicle does not exceed 2.9 metres, the maximum permitted train weight is 20,000 kilograms<sup>22</sup>;
- 1069 (7) in the case of a wheeled trailer or trailers drawn by a wheeled motor tractor, heavy motor car, motor car or agricultural motor vehicle, not being a combination of vehicles mentioned in heads (1) to (6) above, the maximum permitted train weight is 24,390 kilograms<sup>23</sup>; and
- 1070 (8) in the case of a track-laying<sup>24</sup> trailer drawn by a motor tractor, heavy motor car or motor car, whether wheeled or track-laying, and a wheeled trailer drawn by a track-laying vehicle being a motor tractor, heavy motor car or motor car, the maximum permitted train weight is 22,360 kilograms<sup>25</sup>.

586. Maximum permitted laden weight of an articulated vehicle.

The laden weight of an articulated vehicle<sup>1</sup> of a class specified in heads (1) and (2) below, other than an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>2</sup>, an agricultural trailer<sup>3</sup> or an agricultural trailed appliance<sup>4</sup>, must not exceed the weight specified in relation to that vehicle<sup>5</sup>:

- 1071 (1) in the case of an articulated vehicle which complies with the relevant braking requirement<sup>6</sup>, the maximum permitted laden weight is that specified in the relevant statutory provisions<sup>7</sup>; and
- 1072 (2) in the case of an articulated vehicle which does not comply with the relevant braking requirement, the maximum permitted laden weight is, if the trailer has less than four wheels, 20,330 kilograms, and, if the trailer has four wheels or more, 24,390 kilograms<sup>8</sup>.

587. Maximum permitted wheel and axle weights.

The weight transmitted to the road by one or more wheels<sup>1</sup> of a vehicle mentioned in heads (1) to (4) below, in the case of wheeled<sup>2</sup> heavy motor cars<sup>3</sup>, motor cars<sup>4</sup> and trailers<sup>5</sup> which comply with the relevant braking requirement<sup>6</sup> and wheeled agricultural motor vehicles<sup>7</sup>, agricultural trailers<sup>8</sup> and agricultural trailed appliances<sup>9</sup> and, where appropriate<sup>10</sup>, buses<sup>11</sup>, must not exceed the specified maximum permitted weight<sup>12</sup>:

1074 (2) in the case of two wheels in line transversely otherwise than as mentioned in head (1) above, the maximum permitted weight is 9,200 kilograms<sup>16</sup>;

1075 (3) in the case of more than two wheels in line transversely, the maximum permitted weight is, in the case of a vehicle manufactured before 1 May 1983 where the wheels are on one axle of a group of closely spaced axles<sup>17</sup>, 10,170 kilograms, and, in the case of a vehicle manufactured on or after 1 May 1983, 10,170 kilograms, and, in any other case, 11,180 kilograms<sup>18</sup>; and

The weight transmitted to the road by one or more wheels of a vehicle mentioned in heads (a) to (c) below, in the case of wheeled heavy motor cars, motor cars and trailers which do not fall within heads (1) to (4) above, must not exceed the specified maximum permitted weight<sup>20</sup>:

1077 (a) in the case of more than two wheels transmitting weight to a strip of the road surface on which the vehicle rests contained between two parallel lines at

- right angles to the longitudinal axis of the vehicle, the maximum permitted weight is, where the lines are less than 1.02 metres apart, 11,180 kilograms, where the lines are 1.02 metres or more apart but less than 1.22 metres apart, 16,260 kilograms, and where the lines are 1.22 metres or more apart but less than 2.13 metres apart, 18,300 kilograms<sup>21</sup>;
- 1078 (b) in the case of two wheels in line transversely, the maximum permitted weight is 9,200 kilograms<sup>22</sup>; and
- 1079 (c) in the case of one wheel, where no other wheel is in the same line transversely, the maximum permitted weight is 4,600 kilograms<sup>23</sup>.

The weight transmitted to the road by one or more wheels of a vehicle as mentioned in heads (i) and (ii) below, in the case of wheeled locomotives<sup>24</sup>, must not exceed the specified maximum permitted weight<sup>25</sup>:

- 1080 (i) in the case of two wheels in line transversely, except in the case of a road roller, or a vehicle with not more than four wheels first used before 1 June 1955, the maximum permitted weight is 11,180 kilograms<sup>26</sup>; and
- 1081 (ii) in the case of any two wheels in the case of a wheeled locomotive having not more than four wheels first used before 1 June 1955, not being a road roller or an agricultural motor vehicle which is not driven at more than 20 miles per hour, the maximum permitted weight is three-quarters of the total weight of the locomotive<sup>27</sup>.

The weight transmitted to the road by one or more wheels of a vehicle as mentioned in heads (A) to (C) below, in the case of track-laying<sup>28</sup> vehicles, must not exceed the specified maximum permitted weight<sup>29</sup>:

- 1082 (A) in the case of the weight of a heavy motor car, motor car or trailer transmitted to any strip of the road surface on which the vehicle rests contained between two parallel lines 0.6 metre apart at right angles to the longitudinal axis of the vehicle, the maximum permitted weight is 10,170 kilograms<sup>30</sup>;
- 1083 (B) in the case of two wheels in line, the maximum permitted weight is, for heavy motor cars or motor cars with two wheels, 8,130 kilograms, and, for heavy motor cars or motor cars with more than two wheels, 7,630 kilograms<sup>31</sup>; and
- 1084 (C) in the case of one wheel, where no other wheel is in the same line transversely, on a heavy motor car or a motor car, the maximum permitted weight is 4,070 kilograms<sup>32</sup>.

13 For the meaning of 'wide tyre' see PARA 297 note 14 ante; and for the meaning of 'pneumatic tyre' see PARA 271 note 11 ante.

14 Is calculated in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 78(5).

In the case of an articulated bus, or, subject to reg 78(4), of a bus first used before 1 April 1988, the laden weight, for the purposes of reg 75 (as amended) (see PARA 584 ante), and the weight transmitted to the road surface by wheels of the vehicle, for the purposes of reg 78(1), Table Pt I items 1, 2 (item 1 as amended) (see heads (1) and (2) in the text), is to be calculated with reference to the vehicle when it is complete and fully equipped for service with: (1) a full supply of water, oil and fuel; and (2) weights of 63.5 kg for each person (including crew): (a) for whom a seat is provided in the position in which he may be seated; and (b) who may by or under any enactment be carried standing, the total of such weights being reasonably distributed in the space in which such persons may be carried, save that in the case of a bus, not being an articulated bus, only the number of such persons exceeding eight is to be taken into account: reg 78(3) (amended by SI 1992/2016). The weights for the purposes referred to in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 78(3) (as amended) may, in the case of a bus to which reg 78(3) (as amended) applies, be calculated in accordance with reg 78(5) instead of reg 78(3) (as amended): reg 78(4). For the meaning of 'articulated bus' see PARA 271 note 6 ante.

In the case of a bus first used on or after 1 April 1988, the weights for the purposes referred to in reg 78(3) (as amended) are to be calculated with reference to the vehicle when it is complete and fully equipped for service with: (i) a full supply of water, oil and fuel; (ii) a weight of 65 kg for each person (including crew): (A) for whom a seat is provided, in the position in which he may be seated; and (B) who may by or under any enactment be carried standing, the total of such weights being reasonably distributed in the space in which such persons may be so carried, save that in the case of a bus, not being an articulated bus, only the number of such persons exceeding four is to be taken into account; (iii) all luggage space within the vehicle but not within the passenger compartment loaded at the rate of 100 kg per square metre or 10 kg per person mentioned in head (ii) supra, whichever is the less; and (iv) any area of the roof of the vehicle constructed or adapted for the storage of luggage loaded with a uniformly distributed load at the rate of 75 kg per square metre: reg 78(5).

Regulation 75 (as amended) does not apply to a two axle bus if its laden weight as calculated in accordance with reg 75(5) does not exceed 17,000 kg, and the distance between the two axles is at least 3 metres: reg 78(6) (added by SI 1992/2016).

16 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 78(1), (2)(a), Table Pt I item 2.

17 A reference to axles being closely-spaced is a reference to: (1) two axles (not being part of a group of axles falling within head (2) or head (3) infra) which are spaced at a distance apart of not more than 2.5 metres; (2) three axles (not being part of a group of axles falling within head (3) infra) the outermost of which are spaced at a distance apart of not more than 3.25 metres; or (3) four or more axles the outermost of which are spaced at a distance apart of not more than 4.6 metres, the number of axles for these purposes being determined in accordance with ibid reg 3(8) (as amended) (see PARA 279 note 13 ante); and a reference to any particular number of closely-spaced axles is to be construed accordingly: reg 3(8A) (added by SI 1992/2016).

588. Maximum permitted weights for certain closely-spaced axles.

Where (1) a wheeled<sup>1</sup> motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> which complies with the relevant braking requirement<sup>3</sup>; (2) a wheeled trailer<sup>4</sup> which is drawn by such a motor vehicle<sup>5</sup>; or (3) an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>6</sup>, an agricultural trailer<sup>7</sup> or an agricultural trailed appliance<sup>8</sup>, is of a specified description<sup>9</sup> and has two closely-spaced axles<sup>10</sup>, the total weight transmitted to the road surface by all the wheels<sup>11</sup> of those axles must not exceed the maximum permitted weight<sup>12</sup>.

Where such a vehicle is of a specified description<sup>13</sup> and has three closely-spaced axles, the total weight transmitted to the road surface by all the wheels of those axles must not exceed the specified weight<sup>14</sup>.

Where such a vehicle is fitted with four or more closely-spaced axles, the weight transmitted to the road surface by all the wheels of those axles must not exceed 24,000 kilograms<sup>15</sup>.

Nothing in the above provisions<sup>16</sup> applies so as to prevent a vehicle first used<sup>17</sup> before 1 June 1973 from being used on a road at a weight as respects those axles at which it could otherwise be used<sup>18</sup>; and nothing in those provisions prevent a vehicle from being used on a road<sup>19</sup> if:

- 1085 (a) a plating certificate<sup>20</sup> in respect of the vehicle was in force immediately before 1 January 1993<sup>21</sup>; and
- 1086 (b) no axle has an axle weight<sup>22</sup> exceeding the weight shown in that certificate as being the weight not to be exceeded in Great Britain<sup>23</sup> for that axle<sup>24</sup>.

589. Over-riding weight restrictions.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> a vehicle<sup>3</sup>:

- 1087 (1) being a goods vehicle<sup>4</sup> or a bus<sup>5</sup> fitted with a plate<sup>6</sup>, but for which no plating certificate<sup>7</sup> has been issued, if any of the weights shown on the plate is exceeded<sup>8</sup>;
- 1088 (2) for which a plating certificate has been issued, if any of the weights shown in the plating certificate<sup>9</sup> is exceeded<sup>10</sup>; or
- 1089 (3) being an agricultural trailed appliance<sup>11</sup> required to be fitted with a plate<sup>12</sup>, if the maximum gross weight<sup>13</sup> is exceeded<sup>14</sup>.

Where any two or more axles<sup>15</sup> are fitted with a compensating arrangement<sup>16</sup> the sum of the weights shown for them in the plating certificate must not be exceeded; and in a case where a plating certificate has not been issued the sum of the weights referred to must be that shown for the said axles in the plate<sup>17</sup>.

Where both a train weight<sup>20</sup> and a maximum train weight are shown in a plating certificate<sup>21</sup> issued for a motor vehicle<sup>22</sup>, head (2) above in so far as it relates to train weights does not apply to the motor vehicle if: (a) the motor vehicle is a wheeled<sup>23</sup> heavy motor car<sup>24</sup> drawing a wheeled trailer<sup>25</sup> and the requirements relating to drawbar combinations<sup>26</sup> are for the time being fulfilled<sup>27</sup>; or (b) the motor vehicle is comprised in an articulated vehicle<sup>28</sup> and the specified requirements<sup>29</sup> are for the time being fulfilled<sup>30</sup>, and the train weight of the motor vehicle does not exceed the maximum train weight shown in the certificate<sup>31</sup>.

Nothing in the provisions relating to maximum weight<sup>32</sup> permits any such weight as is mentioned above to be exceeded and nothing in the above provisions permits any weight prescribed by the provisions relating to maximum weight in relation to the vehicle in question to be exceeded<sup>33</sup>.

Heads (1) to (3) above do not apply where a vehicle is used on a road before 1 January 2000 if:

- 1090 (i) the vehicle is fitted with a plate<sup>34</sup> and the maximum gross weight and the maximum weight for any axle of the vehicle are not exceeded<sup>35</sup>; or
- 1091 (ii) there is in force a plating certificate for the vehicle that was issued before 1 January 1999 and the design weight<sup>36</sup> of the vehicle is not exceeded<sup>37</sup>; and
- 1092 (iii) in either case the maximum authorised weight for the vehicle, maximum authorised weight for a combination of which the vehicle forms part and maximum authorised weight for any axle of the vehicle<sup>38</sup> are not exceeded<sup>39</sup>.

(3) DIMENSIONS OF LADEN VEHICLES

590. Restrictions on use of vehicles carrying wide or long loads.

No load is to be carried on a vehicle so that the overall width<sup>1</sup> of the vehicle together with the width of any lateral projection<sup>2</sup> or projections of its load exceeds 4.3 metres<sup>3</sup>.

No load is to be carried on a vehicle so that the load has a lateral projection or projections on either side exceeding 305 millimetres or the overall width of the vehicle and of any lateral projection or projections of its load exceeds 2.9 metres<sup>4</sup>. However, this prohibition does not apply to the carriage of loose agricultural produce not baled or crated, or an indivisible load<sup>5</sup> in certain circumstances<sup>6</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'overall width' see PARA 274 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'lateral projection', in relation to a load carried by a vehicle, means that part of the load which extends beyond a side of the vehicle: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 81(a). The width of any lateral projection must be measured between longitudinal planes passing through the extreme projecting point of the vehicle on that side on which the projection lies and that part of the projection furthest from that point: reg 81(b). The extreme projecting point of a vehicle is the point from which the overall width of the vehicle is calculated in accordance with the definition of overall width contained in reg 3(2) (see PARA 274 ante): reg 81(i). For the meaning of 'longitudinal plane' see PARA 274 note 1 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'indivisible load' see PARA 271 note 34 ante.

6 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(2) proviso (amended by SI 1991/2125). The circumstances are: (1) that it is not reasonably practicable to comply with the requirement in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(2), and the conditions specified in reg 82(2), Sch 12 paras 1, 5 (Sch 12 para 1 amended, and Sch 12 para 5 added, by SI 1991/2125) are complied with; and (2) that, where the overall width of the vehicle together with the width of any lateral projection or projections of its load exceeds 3.5 metres, the conditions specified in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, Sch 12 para 2 are complied with: reg 82(2) proviso (as so amended).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(3) DIMENSIONS OF LADEN VEHICLES/591. Loads resting on vehicles.

591. Loads resting on vehicles.

Where a load is carried so that its weight rests on a vehicle or vehicles, the specified length<sup>1</sup> must not exceed 27.4 metres<sup>2</sup>.

A load must not be carried so that its weight is borne by a vehicle or vehicles if either:

- 1093 (1) the specified length<sup>3</sup> exceeds 18.65 metres<sup>4</sup>; or
- 1094 (2) the load is borne by a trailer or trailers and the specified length<sup>5</sup> exceeds 25.9 metres<sup>6</sup>, unless the specified conditions<sup>7</sup> are complied with<sup>8</sup>.

1 The length so specified is: (1) where the weight of the load is borne by a single vehicle, the overall length of the vehicle together with the length of any forward and rearward projection of the load; (2) where the weight of the load is borne by a motor vehicle and one trailer, whether or not forming an articulated vehicle, the overall length of the trailer together with the length of any projection of the load in front of the foremost point of the trailer and of any rearward projection of the load; and (3) in any other case, the overall length of all the vehicles which bear the weight of the load, together with the length of any distance between them and of any forward or rearward projection of the load: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(5) (amended by SI 1991/2125). For the meaning of 'overall length' see PARA 272 ante. For the meanings of 'motor vehicle' and 'trailer' see PARA 210 ante; and for the meaning of 'articulated vehicle' see PARA 271 note 6 ante.

For these purposes, 'forward projection' and 'rearward projection': (a) in relation to a load carried in such a manner that its weight is borne by only one vehicle, mean respectively that part of the load which extends beyond the foremost point of the vehicle and that part which extends beyond the rearmost point of the vehicle; (b) in relation to a load carried in such a manner that part of its weight is borne by more than one vehicle, mean respectively that part of the load which extends beyond the foremost point of the foremost vehicle by which the load is carried except where the context otherwise requires and that part of the load which extends beyond the rearmost point of the rearmost vehicle by which the load is carried; and (c) in relation to any special appliance or apparatus, mean respectively that part of the appliance or apparatus which, if it were deemed to be a load carried by the vehicle, would be a part of a load extending beyond the foremost point of the vehicle and that part which would be a part of a load extending beyond the rearmost point of the vehicle; and references in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82 (as amended) and Sch 12 (as amended) to a forward projection or to a rearward projection in relation to a vehicle are to be construed accordingly: reg 81(d) (amended by SI 1991/2125). For the purposes of the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 81(d) (as amended), 'vehicle' does not include any special appliance or apparatus or any part which is a forward projection or a rearward projection: reg 81(e). Without prejudice to reg 81(e), the foremost or, as the case may be, the rearmost point of a vehicle is the foremost or rearmost point from which the overall length of the vehicle is calculated in accordance with the definition of overall length contained in reg 3(2) (see PARA 272 ante): reg 81(j). References to a special appliance or apparatus, in relation to a vehicle, are references to any crane or other special appliance or apparatus fitted to the vehicle which is a permanent or essentially permanent fixture: reg 81(c).

References to the distance between vehicles, in relation to vehicles carrying a load, are references to the distance between the nearest points of any two adjacent vehicles by which the load is carried, measured when the longitudinal axis of each vehicle lies in the same vertical plane; and, in determining, for these purposes, the nearest point of two vehicles, any part of either vehicle designed primarily for use as a means of attaching the one vehicle to the other and any fitting designed for use in connection with any such part is to be disregarded: reg 81(f).

4 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(4)(a) (reg 82(4) substituted by SI 1991/2125).

5 The length so specified is the overall length of the combination of vehicles, together with the length of any forward or rearward projection of the load: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(6). For these purposes, references to a combination of vehicles, in relation to a motor vehicle which is drawing one or more trailers, are references to the motor vehicle and the trailer or trailers drawn by it, including any other motor vehicle which is used for the purpose of assisting in the propulsion of the trailer or the trailers on the road: reg 81(g). The overall length of a combination of vehicles is to be taken as the distance between the foremost point of the drawing vehicle comprised in the combination and the rearmost point of the rearmost vehicle comprised in it, measured when the longitudinal axis of each vehicle comprised in the combination lies in the same vertical plane: reg 81(h).

6 Ibid reg 82(4)(b) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

USE OF VEHICLES/(3) DIMENSIONS OF LADEN VEHICLES/592. Vehicles, other than straddle carriers, carrying loads or fitted with special appliances or apparatus.

592. Vehicles, other than straddle carriers, carrying loads or fitted with special appliances or apparatus.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> a vehicle, not being a straddle carrier<sup>3</sup>, carrying a load or fitted with a special appliance or apparatus<sup>4</sup> if the load, appliance or apparatus has a forward projection<sup>5</sup> of a specified length<sup>6</sup>, or rearward projection of a specified length<sup>7</sup>, unless the specified conditions<sup>8</sup> are complied with<sup>9</sup>.

4 For the meaning of 'special appliance or apparatus' see PARA 591 note 1 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'forward projection' see PARA 591 note 1 ante.

6 The length is specified in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(7), Table col 2. For these purposes, the length of any forward projection or of any rearward projection is to be measured between transverse planes passing: (1) in the case of a forward projection, through the foremost point of the vehicle and that part of the projection furthest from that point; and (2) in the case of a rearward projection, through the rearmost point of the vehicle and that part of the projection furthest from that point: reg 81(e). For the purposes of reg 81(e), 'vehicle' does not include any special appliance or apparatus or any part which is a forward projection or a rearward projection: reg 81(e). ### 593. Straddle carriers.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> a straddle carrier<sup>3</sup> carrying a load if<sup>4</sup>:

1095 (1) the load has a rearward projection<sup>5</sup> exceeding 1 metre, unless the specified conditions<sup>6</sup> are met<sup>7</sup>;

1096 (2) the load has a forward projection exceeding 2 metres or a rearward projection exceeding 3 metres<sup>8</sup>; or

1097 (3) the overall length<sup>9</sup> of the vehicle together with the length of any forward projection and of any rearward projection<sup>10</sup> of its load exceeds 12.2 metres<sup>11</sup>.

Head (1) above does not apply to a vehicle being used in passing from one part of private premises to another part or to other private premises in the immediate neighbourhood<sup>12</sup>; and heads (2) and (3) above do not apply to a vehicle being used in such a way if the vehicle is not being driven at a speed exceeding 12 miles per hour, and, where the overall length of the vehicle together with the length of any forward projection and of any rearward projection of its load exceeds 12.2 metres, the specified conditions<sup>13</sup> are complied with<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'causes or permits' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.

6 The conditions are specified in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 82(8), Sch 12 para 4. Where another vehicle is attached to that end of a vehicle from which a projection extends, then, for the purposes of any requirement in reg 82 (as amended) to comply with Sch 12 para 3 or 4, that projection is to be treated as a forward or rearward projection only if, and to the extent that it extends beyond the foremost point or, as the case may be, the rearmost point, of that other vehicle, measured when the longitudinal axis of each vehicle lies in the same vertical plane: reg 82(9). #### 594. Agricultural, horticultural or forestry implements.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> an agricultural, horticultural or forestry implement rigidly, but not permanently, mounted on a wheeled<sup>3</sup> agricultural motor vehicle<sup>4</sup>, agricultural trailer<sup>5</sup> or agricultural trailed appliance<sup>6</sup>, whether or not part of its weight is supported by one or more of its own wheels<sup>7</sup> if:

- 1098 (1) the overall width<sup>8</sup> of the vehicle together with the lateral projection of the implement exceeds 2.55 metres<sup>9</sup>; or
- 1099 (2) the implement projects more than 1 metre forwards or rearwards of the vehicle<sup>10</sup>.

This restriction does not apply in a case where: (a) part of the weight of the implement is supported by one or more of its own wheels<sup>11</sup>; and (b) the longitudinal axis of the greater part of the implement is capable of articulating in the horizontal plane in relation to the longitudinal axis of the rear portion of the vehicle<sup>12</sup>.

(4) TRAILERS AND SIDECARS

596. Restrictions on vehicles drawing trailers.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> a wheeled<sup>3</sup> vehicle of a class specified in one of heads (1) to (8) below drawing a trailer<sup>4</sup>, otherwise than as specified below<sup>5</sup>:

- 1100 (1) a straddle carrier must not draw a trailer on a road<sup>6</sup>;
- 1101 (2) an invalid carriage must not draw a trailer on a road<sup>7</sup>;
- 1102 (3) an articulated bus must not draw a trailer on a road<sup>8</sup>;
- 1103 (4) a bus<sup>9</sup>, not being an articulated bus or a minibus<sup>10</sup>, is permitted to draw one broken down bus where no person other than the driver is carried in either vehicle, or one trailer<sup>11</sup>;
- 1104 (5) a locomotive<sup>12</sup> is permitted to draw three trailers<sup>13</sup>;
- 1105 (6) a motor tractor<sup>14</sup> is permitted to draw one trailer or two trailers if neither is laden<sup>15</sup>;
- 1106 (7) a heavy motor car<sup>16</sup> or a motor car<sup>17</sup> not described in head (1), (3) or (4) above is permitted to draw two trailers if one of them is a towing implement<sup>18</sup> and part of the other is secured to and either rests on or is suspended from that implement, or one trailer in any other case<sup>19</sup>;
- 1107 (8) an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>20</sup> is permitted to draw:

115. (a) in respect of trailers other than agricultural trailers<sup>21</sup> and agricultural trailed appliances<sup>22</sup>, such trailers as are permitted under head (5), (6) or (7) above, as the case may be; or

116. (b) in respect of agricultural trailers and agricultural trailed appliances, two unladen agricultural trailers, or one agricultural trailer and one agricultural trailed appliance, or two agricultural trailed appliances<sup>23</sup>.

For the purposes of heads (5), (6) and (7) above an unladen articulated vehicle<sup>24</sup>, when being drawn by another motor vehicle<sup>25</sup> because it has broken down, is to be treated as a single trailer<sup>26</sup>; and a towed roller used for the purposes of agriculture, horticulture or forestry and consisting of several separate rollers is to be treated as one agricultural trailed appliance<sup>27</sup>.

No track-laying<sup>28</sup> motor vehicle which exceeds 8 metres in overall length<sup>29</sup> is to draw a trailer other than a broken down vehicle which is being drawn in consequence of the breakdown<sup>30</sup>.

597. Trailers drawn by motor cycles.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> a motor cycle<sup>3</sup>:

- 1108 (1) drawing behind it more than one trailer<sup>4</sup>;
  - 1109 (2) drawing behind it any trailer carrying a passenger<sup>5</sup>;
  - 1110 (3) drawing behind it a trailer with an unladen weight<sup>6</sup> exceeding 254 kilograms<sup>7</sup>;
  - 1111 (4) with not more than two wheels<sup>8</sup>, without a sidecar, and with an engine capacity which does not exceed 125 cubic centimetres, drawing behind it any trailer<sup>9</sup>; or
  - 1112 (5) with not more than two wheels, without a sidecar and with an engine capacity exceeding 125 cubic centimetres, drawing behind it any trailer unless<sup>10</sup>:
- 59
- 117. (a) the trailer has an overall width<sup>11</sup> not exceeding 1 metre<sup>12</sup>;
  - 118. (b) the distance between the rear axle<sup>13</sup> of the motor cycle and the rearmost part of the trailer does not exceed 2.5 metres<sup>14</sup>;
  - 119. (c) the motor cycle is clearly and indelibly marked in a conspicuous and readily accessible position with its kerbside weight<sup>15</sup>;
  - 120. (d) the trailer is clearly and indelibly marked in a conspicuous and readily accessible position with its unladen weight<sup>16</sup>; and
  - 121. (e) the laden weight of the trailer does not exceed 150 kilograms or two-thirds of the kerbside weight of the motor cycle, whichever is the less<sup>17</sup>.
- 60

The provisions of heads (2), (4) and (5) above do not apply if the trailer is a broken down motor cycle and one passenger is riding it<sup>18</sup>.

598. Trailers drawn by agricultural motor vehicles.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used on a road<sup>2</sup>:

- 1113 (1) a wheeled<sup>3</sup> agricultural motor vehicle<sup>4</sup> drawing one or more wheeled trailers<sup>5</sup> if the weight of the drawing vehicle is less than a quarter of the weight of the trailer or trailers, unless the brakes fitted to each trailer<sup>6</sup> are operated directly by the service braking system<sup>7</sup> fitted to the motor vehicle<sup>8</sup>;
- 1114 (2) any motor vehicle drawing an agricultural trailer<sup>9</sup> of which more than 35 per cent of the weight is borne by the drawing vehicle or the gross weight<sup>10</sup> exceeds 14,230 kilograms, unless it is fitted<sup>11</sup> with brakes<sup>12</sup>; or
- 1115 (3) an agricultural trailer manufactured on or after 1 December 1985 which is drawn by a motor vehicle first used<sup>13</sup> on or after 1 June 1986 unless the brakes fitted to the trailer<sup>14</sup> can be applied progressively by the driver<sup>15</sup> of the drawing vehicle, from his normal driving position and while keeping proper control of that vehicle, using a means of operation mounted on the drawing vehicle or automatically come into operation on the over-run of the trailer<sup>16</sup>.

600. Use of secondary coupling on trailers.

No person is to use or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used on a road<sup>2</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> drawing one trailer<sup>4</sup> if the trailer:

- 1116 (1) is a trailer which was first used on or after 1 April 1983<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1117 (2) is not fitted with a device which is designed to stop the trailer automatically in the event of the separation of the main coupling while the trailer is in motion<sup>6</sup>, unless the prescribed requirements are met in relation to the motor vehicle and trailer<sup>7</sup>. The requirements so prescribed, in relation to a motor vehicle drawing a trailer, are that a secondary coupling is attached to the motor vehicle and trailer in such a way that, in the event of the separation of the main coupling while the trailer is in motion, the drawbar of the trailer would be prevented from touching the ground and there would be some residual steering of the trailer<sup>8</sup>.

Nor is any person to use or cause or permit to be used on a road a motor vehicle drawing one trailer if:

- 1118 (a) the trailer is a trailer which was first used on or after 1 April 1983<sup>9</sup>;
- 1119 (b) the trailer is fitted with a device which is designed to stop the trailer automatically in the event of the separation of the main coupling while the trailer is in motion<sup>10</sup>;
- 1120 (c) the operation of the device in those circumstances depends on a secondary coupling linking the device to the motor vehicle<sup>11</sup>; and
- 1121 (d) the trailer is not also fitted with a device which is designed to stop the trailer automatically in those circumstances in the absence of such a secondary coupling<sup>12</sup>, unless the secondary coupling is attached to the motor vehicle and trailer in such a way that, in the event of the separation of the main coupling while the trailer is in motion, the device of the kind referred to in heads (b) and (c) above fitted to the trailer would stop the trailer<sup>13</sup>.

No person is to use or cause or permit to be used on a road any light passenger vehicle<sup>14</sup> first used<sup>15</sup> on or after 1 August 1998 in respect of which an EC certificate of conformity has effect unless any mechanical coupling device<sup>16</sup> which is attached to it complies with the relevant technical and installation requirements<sup>17</sup> and is duly marked<sup>18</sup>. For these purposes, in a case where a vehicle is drawing a trailer a mechanical coupling device is not to be regarded as being attached to that vehicle if it forms part of the trailer<sup>19</sup>.

UPDATE

600 Use of secondary coupling on trailers

NOTES 16, 18--Directive 94/20 replaced with effect from 1 November 2014: European Parliament and EC Council Regulation 661/2009 (OJ L200, 31.7.2009, p 1).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(4) TRAILERS AND SIDECARS/601. Unbraked trailers.

601. Unbraked trailers.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> an unbraked wheeled<sup>3</sup> trailer<sup>4</sup>, other than an agricultural trailer<sup>5</sup> and certain other specified trailers<sup>6</sup>, if its laden weight exceeds its maximum gross weight<sup>7</sup> or it is drawn by a vehicle of which the kerbside weight<sup>8</sup> is less than twice the sum of the unladen weight of the trailer and the weight of any load which the trailer is carrying<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'causes or permits' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.

602. Leaving trailers at rest.

- 7 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 89 (amended by SI 1996/3033).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(4) TRAILERS AND SIDECARS/603. Passengers in trailers.

603. Passengers in trailers.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, on a road<sup>2</sup> any trailer<sup>3</sup> for the carriage of passengers for hire or reward<sup>4</sup>. That prohibition does not apply, however, in respect of a wheeled<sup>5</sup> trailer which is, or is carrying, a broken down motor vehicle<sup>6</sup> if the trailer is drawn at a speed not exceeding 30 miles per hour and, where the trailer is, or is carrying, a broken down bus<sup>7</sup>, it is attached to the drawing vehicle by a rigid draw bar<sup>8</sup>.

No person is to use, or cause or permit to be used, on a road a wheeled trailer in which any person is carried and which is a living van<sup>9</sup> having either less than four wheels or four wheels consisting of two close-coupled<sup>10</sup> wheels on each side<sup>11</sup>. This prohibition does not apply, however, in respect of a trailer which is being tested by its manufacturer, a person by whom it has been, or is being, repaired or a distributor of, or dealer in, trailers<sup>12</sup>.

10 'Close-coupled', in relation to wheels on the same side of a trailer, means fitted so that at all times while the trailer is in motion they remain PARALLEL to the longitudinal axis of the trailer, and the distance between the centres of their respective areas of contact with the road surface does not exceed 1 metre: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 3(2), Table.

604. Attachment of sidecars.

Every sidecar fitted to a motor cycle<sup>1</sup> must be so attached that its wheel<sup>2</sup> is not wholly outside the space between transverse planes<sup>3</sup> passing through the extreme projecting points at the front and at the rear of the motor cycle<sup>4</sup>.

605. Use of sidecars.

No person is to use or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used on a road<sup>2</sup> any two-wheeled<sup>3</sup> motor cycle<sup>4</sup> registered on or after 1 August 1981, not being a motor cycle brought temporarily into Great Britain<sup>5</sup> by a person resident abroad<sup>6</sup>, if there is a sidecar attached to the right (or off) side of the motor cycle<sup>7</sup>.

USE OF VEHICLES/(5) USE OF MOTOR VEHICLES FOR THE CARRIAGE OR HAULAGE OF DANGEROUS GOODS/606. Additional braking requirements for motor vehicles carrying or hauling dangerous goods.

(5) USE OF MOTOR VEHICLES FOR THE CARRIAGE OR HAULAGE OF DANGEROUS GOODS

606. Additional braking requirements for motor vehicles carrying or hauling dangerous goods.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> for the carriage or haulage of dangerous goods<sup>3</sup> on a road<sup>4</sup> if it is a specified vehicle<sup>5</sup> and: (1) its maximum gross weight<sup>6</sup> exceeds 16,000 kilograms<sup>7</sup>; or (2) it is drawing a trailer<sup>8</sup> which has a maximum total design axle weight<sup>9</sup> exceeding 10,000 kilograms<sup>10</sup>, unless the vehicle meets the prescribed requirements<sup>11</sup>.

- 1 As to the meaning of 'causes or permits' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.
- 2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.
- 3 For these purposes, a reference to dangerous goods is a reference to a load comprising explosives of such type and in such quantity that it could not be carried by road in a single transport unit of Type I and II without there being a contravention of the restrictions set out in the European Agreement concerning the international carriage of dangerous goods by road ('ADR') and protocol of signature done at Geneva on 30 September 1957, Annex B marginal note 11 401, as read with marginal note 11 402: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 93A(8), (10) (reg 93A added by SI 1996/3133). The ADR Annex B marginal note 11 402 has effect, however, with the omission of the words 'in conformity with the prohibitions of mixed loading contained in 11 403'; and 'transport unit of Type I or II' means a transport unit of Type I or a transport unit of Type II as defined in Annex B marginal note 11 204: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 93A(9) (as so added).
- 4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 le a vehicle within the meaning of EEC Council Directive 70/156 on the approximation of the laws of the member states relating to the type-approval of motor vehicles and their trailers (OJ L42, 23.2.70, p 1) (as amended).

6 For the meaning of 'maximum gross weight' see PARA 271 note 27 ante.

(6) USE OF GAS PROPULSION SYSTEMS AND GAS-FIRED APPLIANCES

607. Use of gas propulsion systems.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used:

1122 (1) on a road<sup>2</sup> a vehicle with a gas<sup>3</sup> propulsion system unless the whole of such system is in a safe condition<sup>4</sup>;

1124 (3) on a road a vehicle which is propelled by gas unless the gas container in which such fuel is stored is on the motor vehicle<sup>6</sup>, and not on any trailer<sup>7</sup>, and in the case of an articulated vehicle<sup>8</sup> on the portion of the vehicle to which the engine is fitted<sup>9</sup>.

5 Ibid reg 94(2). For these purposes, and for the purposes of reg 95 (see PARA 608 post), 'liquefied petroleum gas' means: (1) butane gas in any phase which meets the requirements contained in the specification of commercial butane and propane issued by the British Standards Institution under the number BS 4250: 1975 and published on 29 August 1975 (see now BS 4250: 1997 published on 15 October 1997); (2) propane gas in any phase which meets the requirements contained in the said specification; or (3) any mixture of such butane gas and such propane gas: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 94(4).

608. General requirements as to use of gas-fired appliances.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used:

1125 (1) in or on a vehicle on a road<sup>2</sup> any gas-fired appliance<sup>3</sup> unless the whole of such appliance and the gas system attached to it is in an efficient and safe condition<sup>4</sup>;

1126 (2) in any gas-fired appliance in or on a vehicle on a road any fuel except liquefied petroleum gas<sup>5</sup>;

1127 (3) in or on a vehicle on a road any gas-fired appliance unless the vehicle is so ventilated that<sup>6</sup>:

122. (a) an ample supply of air is available for the operation of the appliance<sup>7</sup>;

123. (b) the use of the appliance does not adversely affect the health or comfort of any person using the vehicle<sup>8</sup>; and

124. (c) any unburnt gas is safely disposed of to the outside of the vehicle<sup>9</sup>; and

1128 (4) on a road a vehicle in or on which there is:

63

125. (a) one gas-fired appliance unless the gas-supply for such appliance is shut off at the point where it leaves the container or containers at all times when the appliance is not in use<sup>10</sup>;

126. (b) more than one gas-fired appliance each of which has the same supply of gas unless the gas supply for such appliances is shut off at the point where it leaves the container or containers at all times when none of such appliances is in use<sup>11</sup>; or

127. (c) more than one gas-fired appliance each of which does not have the same supply of gas unless each gas supply for such appliances is shut off at the point where it leaves the container or containers at all times when none of such appliances which it supplies is in use<sup>12</sup>.

USE OF VEHICLES/(6) USE OF GAS PROPULSION SYSTEMS AND GAS-FIRED APPLIANCES/609. Use of gas-fired appliances when a vehicle is in motion.

609. Use of gas-fired appliances when a vehicle is in motion.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be used, in any motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> or trailer<sup>3</sup>, other than a vehicle constructed or adapted for the conveyance of goods under controlled temperatures<sup>4</sup>, while the vehicle is in motion on a road<sup>5</sup>, any gas-fired appliance<sup>6</sup> except:

- 1129 (1) a gas-fired appliance which is fitted to engineering plant<sup>7</sup> while the plant is being used for the purposes of the engineering operations for which it was designed<sup>8</sup>;
- 1130 (2) a gas-fired appliance which is permanently attached to a bus<sup>9</sup>, provided that any appliance for heating or cooling the interior of the bus for the comfort of the driver and any passengers does not expose a naked flame on the outside of the appliance<sup>10</sup>; or
- 1131 (3) in any other vehicle, a refrigerating appliance or an appliance which does not expose a naked flame on the outside of the appliance and which is permanently attached to the vehicle and designed for the purpose of heating any part of the interior of the vehicle for the comfort of the driver and any passengers<sup>11</sup>.

No person is to use, or cause or permit to be used, in any motor vehicle or trailer which is in motion on a road any gas-fired appliance unless it is fitted with a valve which stops the supply of gas to the appliance if the appliance fails to perform its function and causes gas to be emitted<sup>12</sup>.

611. Stopping engine when stationary.

The driver<sup>1</sup> of a vehicle must, when the vehicle is stationary, stop the action of any machinery attached to, or forming part of, the vehicle so far as may be necessary for the prevention of noise or of exhaust emissions<sup>2</sup>. This requirement does not apply:

- 1132 (1) when the vehicle is stationary owing to the necessities of traffic<sup>3</sup>;
- 1133 (2) so as to prevent the examination or working of the machinery where the examination is necessitated by any failure or derangement of the machinery or where the machinery is required to be worked for a purpose other than driving the vehicle<sup>4</sup>; or 1134 (3) in respect of a vehicle propelled by gas<sup>5</sup> produced in plant carried on the vehicle, to such plant<sup>6</sup>.

612. Use of audible warning instruments.

No person is to sound, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be sounded, any horn<sup>2</sup>, gong, bell or siren<sup>3</sup> fitted to or carried on a vehicle which is<sup>4</sup>:

- 1135 (1) stationary on a road<sup>5</sup>, at any time, other than at times of danger due to another moving vehicle on or near the road<sup>6</sup>, except where a reversing alarm<sup>7</sup> is sounded when the vehicle to which it is fitted is about to move backwards and its engine is running or in respect of a boarding aid alarm<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1136 (2) in motion on a restricted road<sup>9</sup>, between 11.30 pm and 7.00 am in the following morning<sup>10</sup>.

No person is to sound, or cause or permit to be sounded, on a road any reversing alarm or boarding aid alarm<sup>11</sup> fitted to a vehicle<sup>12</sup>:

- 1137 (a) unless the vehicle is a goods vehicle<sup>13</sup> which has a maximum gross weight<sup>14</sup> not less than 2,000 kilograms, a bus<sup>15</sup>, engineering plant<sup>16</sup>, a refuse vehicle<sup>17</sup> or a works truck<sup>18</sup>; or
- 1138 (b) if the sound of the alarm is likely to be confused with a sound emitted in the operation of an established<sup>19</sup> pedestrian crossing<sup>20</sup>.

No person is to sound, or cause or permit to be sounded, a gong, bell, siren or two-tone horn<sup>21</sup>, fitted to or otherwise carried on a vehicle, whether it is stationary or not<sup>22</sup>.

Nothing in the above provisions<sup>23</sup> prevents the sounding of:

- 1139 (i) an instrument or apparatus fitted to, or otherwise carried on, a vehicle at a time when the vehicle is being used for fire and rescue authority<sup>24</sup>, ambulance<sup>25</sup>, police<sup>26</sup> or other specified purposes<sup>27</sup> and it is necessary or desirable to do so either to indicate to other road users the urgency of the purposes for which the vehicle is being used, or to warn other road users of the presence of the vehicle on the road<sup>28</sup>; or

- 1140 (ii) a horn (not being a two-tone horn), bell, gong or siren to raise alarm as to the theft or attempted theft of the vehicle or its contents or, in the case of a bus, to summon help for the driver, the conductor or an inspector<sup>29</sup>.

Notwithstanding the above provisions<sup>30</sup>, a person may, between 12 pm and 7 pm, sound or cause or permit to be sounded an instrument or apparatus, other than a two-tone horn, fitted to or otherwise carried on a vehicle, being an instrument or apparatus designed to emit a sound for the purpose of informing members of the public that the vehicle is conveying goods for sale if, when the apparatus or instrument is sounded, it is sounded only for that purpose<sup>31</sup>.

613. Emission of excessive noise from motor cycles.

No person may, in the course of carrying on a business, supply<sup>1</sup> or offer or agree to supply or expose or have in his possession for the purpose of supplying an exhaust system for a motor cycle<sup>2</sup>, or a silencer, or any component other than a silencer or fixing, for such a system, unless the system, silencer or component complies with such requirements as may be prescribed by regulations<sup>3</sup> made by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> and, as respects such a system or silencer, the requirements of the regulations as to packaging, labelling and the provision of accompanying instructions are complied with<sup>5</sup>.

The regulations made by the Secretary of State for these purposes must be such as he considers necessary for preventing the supply of exhaust systems, silencers and components which are likely to result in motor cycles to which they are fitted emitting excessive noise; and those regulations may<sup>6</sup>: (1) prescribe requirements by reference to any British Standard specification, any regulations made under the provisions relating to the regulation of construction, weight equipment and use of vehicles<sup>7</sup>, any Community instrument or any other instrument issued by an international authority<sup>8</sup>; and (2) make different provision for different cases<sup>9</sup>. Before making any such regulations the Secretary of State must consult such representative organisations as he thinks fit<sup>10</sup>.

Exemptions from these provisions or any requirements imposed under them may be conferred by regulations made by the Secretary of State or, in the case of an exemption applying to a particular person, by a notice in writing given by him to that person<sup>11</sup>.

Any person who contravenes these provisions is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup>. Where the commission by any person of such an offence is due to the act or default of some other person, the other person is guilty of the offence and may be charged with and convicted of the offence whether or not proceedings are taken against the first-mentioned person<sup>13</sup>. It is not a defence to a charge of committing such an offence that the accused took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid committing the offence<sup>14</sup>. Where such an offence which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>15</sup>.

NOTE 3--SI 1995/2370 amended: SI 2008/1277.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(8) AVOIDANCE OF DANGER/614. Maintenance and use of vehicle so as not to be a danger.

(8) AVOIDANCE OF DANGER

614. Maintenance and use of vehicle so as not to be a danger.

A motor vehicle<sup>1</sup>, every trailer<sup>2</sup> drawn by it and all parts and accessories of such vehicle and trailer must at all times be in such condition, and the number of passengers carried<sup>3</sup> by such vehicle or trailer, the manner in which any passengers are carried in or on such vehicle or trailer, and the weight, distribution, packing and adjustment of the load of such vehicle or trailer must at all times be such that no danger is caused or is likely to be caused to any person in or on the vehicle or trailer or on a road<sup>4</sup>.

The load carried by a motor vehicle or trailer must at all times be so secured, if necessary by physical restraint other than its own weight, and be in such a position, that neither danger nor nuisance is likely to be caused to any person or property by reason of the load or any part of it falling or being blown from the vehicle or by reason of any other movement of the load or any part of it in relation to the vehicle<sup>5</sup>.

No motor vehicle or trailer is to be used for any purpose for which it is so unsuitable as to cause or be likely to cause danger or nuisance to any person in or on the vehicle or trailer or on a road<sup>6</sup>.

No person is to use, or cause or permit<sup>7</sup> to be used, on a road:

- 1141 (1) a vehicle displaying the rectangular plate for a low platform trailer<sup>8</sup> or anything resembling such a plate at a speed exceeding 40 miles per hour<sup>9</sup>; or
- 1142 (2) a vehicle displaying the rectangular plate for a restricted speed vehicle<sup>10</sup> or anything resembling such a plate at a speed exceeding 50 miles per hour<sup>11</sup>.

2 For the meaning of 'trailer' see PARA 210 ante.

3 The provisions of the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 100, with regard to the number of passengers carried do not apply to a vehicle to which the Public Service Vehicles (Carrying Capacity) Regulations 1984, SI 1984/1406 (see PARA 1174 post) apply: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 100(1) proviso.

4 Ibid reg 100(1). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante. As to the question of what amounts to a load, it has been observed that loads, particularly in the countryside of England, can take many strange and unexpected forms, and a large dog could possibly be capable of amounting to one of those forms: see Simpson v Vant [1986] RTR 247 at 251, DC, per Nolan J.

5 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 100(2). Where a load is knocked off a vehicle it has fallen from the vehicle and, in order to decide whether the securing of the load was sufficient, it is necessary to consider the nature of the load, its positioning, the way it was secured and the nature of the journey: Walker-Trowbridge Ltd v DPP [1992] RTR 182, DC (where a vat strapped to the deck of a trailer hit the underside of a bridge and fell off the trailer). See also Young v DPP [1992] RTR 194, DC.

7 As to the meaning of 'causes or permits' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.

8 Is the rectangular plate described in the definition of 'low platform trailer'. 'Low platform trailer' means a trailer fitted with tyres with a rim diameter size code of less than 20 and displaying a rectangular plate which: (1) is at least 225 mm wide and at least 175 mm high; and (2) bears two black letters 'L' on a white ground each at least 125 mm high and 90 mm wide with a stroke width of 12 mm: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 3(2), Table (definition added by SI 1990/1981). For the meaning of 'rim diameter size code' see PARA 295 note 10 ante.

9 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 100A(1) (reg 100A added by SI 1990/1981).

10 Is the rectangular plate described in the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 3(2), Sch 13 (added by SI 1990/1981). 'Restricted speed vehicle' means a vehicle displaying at its rear a '50' plate in accordance with the requirements of the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, Sch 13 (added by SI 1990/1981): Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 3(2), Table (definition added by SI 1990/1981).

11 Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 100A(2) (as added: see note 9 supra).

615. Parking in darkness.

No person is, except with the permission of a police officer in a uniform<sup>1</sup>, to cause or permit<sup>2</sup> any motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> to stand on a road<sup>4</sup> at any time between sunset and sunrise unless the near side of the vehicle is as close as may be to the edge of the carriageway<sup>5</sup>. That requirement does not apply, however, in respect of any motor vehicle:

- 1143 (1) being used for fire and rescue authority<sup>6</sup>, ambulance<sup>7</sup> or police<sup>8</sup> purposes or for defence purposes (including civil defence purposes)<sup>9</sup> if compliance with that requirement would hinder or be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the purpose for which it is being used on that occasion<sup>10</sup>;
- 1144 (2) being used in connection with any building operation or demolition, the repair of any other vehicle, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, repair or reconstruction of any road or the laying, erection, alteration or repair in or near to any road of any sewer, main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity, of any electronic communication apparatus<sup>11</sup> or of the apparatus of any electric transport undertaking, if, in any such case, compliance with that requirement would hinder or be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the purpose for which it is being used on that occasion<sup>12</sup>;
- 1145 (3) on any road in which vehicles are allowed to proceed in one direction only<sup>13</sup>;
- 1146 (4) standing on a part of a road set aside for the parking of vehicles or as a stand for hackney carriages<sup>14</sup> or as a stand for buses<sup>15</sup> or as a place at which such vehicles may stop for a longer time than is necessary for the taking up and setting

- down of passengers where compliance with that requirement would conflict with the provisions of any order, regulations or byelaws governing the use of such part of a road for that purpose<sup>16</sup>; or
- 1147 (5) waiting to set down or pick up passengers in accordance with regulations made or directions given by a chief officer of police<sup>17</sup> in regard to such setting down or picking up<sup>18</sup>.

620. Reversing.

No person is to drive<sup>1</sup>, or cause or permit<sup>2</sup> to be driven, a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> backwards on a road<sup>4</sup> further than may be requisite for the safety or reasonable convenience of the occupants of the vehicle or other traffic, unless it is a road roller or is engaged in the construction, maintenance or repair of the road<sup>5</sup>.

621. Leaving motor vehicle unattended.

No person is to leave, or cause or permit<sup>1</sup> to be left, on a road<sup>2</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> which is not attended by a person licensed to drive it unless the engine is stopped and any parking brake<sup>4</sup> with which the vehicle is required to be equipped is effectively set<sup>5</sup>. The requirement as to the stopping of the engine does not apply, however, in respect of a vehicle<sup>6</sup>:

- 1148 (1) being used for ambulance<sup>7</sup>, fire and rescue authority<sup>8</sup> or police<sup>9</sup> purposes<sup>10</sup>;

1149 (2) in such a position and condition as not to be likely to endanger any person or property and engaged in an operation which requires its engine to be used to drive machinery forming part of, or mounted on, the vehicle and used for purposes other than driving the vehicle or to maintain the electrical power of the batteries of the vehicle at a level required for driving that machinery or apparatus<sup>11</sup>.

622. Securing of suspended implements.

Where a vehicle is fitted with any apparatus or appliance designed for lifting and part of the apparatus or appliance consists of a suspended implement, the implement must at all times while the vehicle is in motion on a road<sup>1</sup> and when the implement is not attached to any load supported by the appliance or apparatus be so secured either to the appliance or apparatus or to some part of the vehicle that no danger is caused or is likely to be caused to any person on the vehicle or on the road<sup>2</sup>.

623. Television sets.

No person is to drive<sup>1</sup>, or cause or permit<sup>2</sup> to be driven, a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> on a road<sup>4</sup>, if the driver<sup>5</sup> is in such a position as to be able to see, whether directly or by reflection, a television receiving apparatus<sup>6</sup> or other cinematographic apparatus used to display anything other than information<sup>7</sup>:

- 1150 (1) about the state of the vehicle or its equipment<sup>8</sup>;
- 1151 (2) about the location of the vehicle and the road on which it is located<sup>9</sup>;
- 1152 (3) to assist the driver to see the road adjacent to the vehicle<sup>10</sup>; or
- 1153 (4) to assist the driver to reach his destination<sup>11</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 As to the meaning of 'causes or permits' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

6 For these purposes, 'television receiving apparatus' means any cathode ray tube carried on a vehicle and on which there can be displayed an image derived from a television broadcast, a recording or a camera or computer: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 109(2). The proper test to be applied is not whether the equipment is capable of receiving an outside signal, but whether it was designed to do so: Target Travel (Coaches) Ltd v Roberts [1986] RTR 120, DC.

624. Use of mobile telephones.

No person is to drive<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> on a road<sup>3</sup> if he is using a hand-held<sup>4</sup> mobile telephone or a hand-held device of a specified<sup>5</sup> kind<sup>6</sup>. No person is to cause or permit any other person to drive a motor vehicle on a road while that other person is using a hand-held mobile telephone or a hand-held device of a specified kind<sup>7</sup>. No person is to supervise a holder of a provisional licence<sup>8</sup> if the person supervising is using a hand-held mobile telephone or a hand-held device of a specified kind at a time when the provisional licence holder is driving a motor vehicle on a road<sup>9</sup>.

A person does not contravene any of these provisions if, at the time of the alleged contravention:

- 1154 (1) he is using the telephone or other device to call the police, fire, ambulance or other emergency service on 112 or 999;
 1155 (2) he is acting in response to a genuine emergency; and 1156 (3) it is unsafe or impracticable for him to cease driving in order to make the call (or, in relation to the supervision of a provisional licence holder<sup>10</sup>, for the provisional licence holder to cease driving while the call was being made)<sup>11</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 A mobile telephone or other device is to be treated as hand-held if it is, or must be, held at some point during the course of making or receiving a call or performing any other interactive communication function: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 110(6)(a) (reg 110 added by SI 2003/2695). 'Interactive communication function' includes the following: (1) sending or receiving oral or written messages; (2) sending or receiving facsimile documents; (3) sending or receiving still or moving images; and (4) providing access to the internet: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 110(6)(c) (as so added).

5 Ie a device, other than a two-way radio, which performs an interactive communication function by transmitting and receiving data: ibid reg 110(4) (as added: see note 4 supra). 'Two-way radio' means any wireless telegraphy apparatus which is designed or adapted: (1) for the purpose of transmitting and receiving spoken messages; and (2) to operate on any frequency other than 880 MHz to 915 MHz, 925 MHz to 960 MHz, 1710 MHz to 1785 MHz, 1805 MHz to 1880 MHz, 1900 MHz to 1980 MHz or 2110 MHz to 2170 MHz; and 'wireless telegraphy' has the same meaning as in the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949 s 19(1) (see TELECOMMUNICATIONS AND BROADCASTING vol 45(1) (2005 Reissue) PARA 227): Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 110(6)(d), (e) (as so added).

6 Ibid reg 110(1) (as added: see note 4 supra).

7 Ibid reg 110(2) (as added: see note 4 supra). As to the specified kind of device see note 5 supra.

8 For these purposes, a person supervises the holder of a provisional licence if he does so pursuant to a condition imposed on that licence holder prescribed under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 97(3)(a) (grant of provisional licence) (see PARA 464 ante): Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 110(6)(b) (as added: see note 4 supra). For the meaning of 'provisional licence' see PARA 445 note 27 ante.

9 Ibid reg 110(3) (as added: see note 4 supra).

10 Ie in the case of an alleged contravention of ibid reg 110(3)(b).

11 Ibid reg 110(5) (as added: see note 4 supra). As to the offence of breaching these requirements see PARA 264 ante.

625. Using vehicle in dangerous condition etc.

If a person uses, or causes or permits<sup>1</sup> another to use, a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> or trailer<sup>3</sup> on a road<sup>4</sup> when:

- 1157 (1) the condition of the motor vehicle or trailer, or of its accessories or equipment<sup>5</sup>;
- 1158 (2) the purpose for which it is used<sup>6</sup>;
- 1159 (3) the number of passengers carried by it, or the manner in which they are carried<sup>7</sup>; or
- 1160 (4) the weight, position or distribution of its load, or the manner in which it is secured<sup>8</sup>, is such that the use of the motor vehicle or trailer involves a danger of injury to any person, he is guilty of an offence<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'causes or permits' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'trailer' see PARA 210 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 40A(a) (s 40A added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 8(1)). The question of whether there is a danger for the purposes of this provision is a matter of fact in any particular case, including the nature of the road: DPP v Potts [2000] RTR 1, DC (an agricultural vehicle was being driven along a road with movable arms lowered). The use of agricultural vehicles authorised under the Motor Vehicles (Authorisation of Special Types) General Order 1979, SI 1979/1198 (see now the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 44; the Road Vehicles (Authorisation of Special Types) (General) Order 2003, SI 2003/1998; and PARAS 376-377 ante), with the effect that the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 40A (as added) is disapplied, may still be prosecuted under ss 1, 2 (as substituted) (see PARAS 963-964 post) in certain circumstances: R v Marchant [2003] EWCA Crim 2099, [2004] 1 All ER 1187.

7 Ibid s 40A(c) (as added: see note 5 supra).

8 Ibid s 40A(d) (as added: see note 5 supra).

9 Ibid s 40A (as added: see note 5 supra). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale if the offence is committed in respect of a goods vehicle or a vehicle adapted to carry more than eight passengers, or to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale in any other case; disqualification is discretionary; endorsement is obligatory if committed within three years of a previous conviction of the offender under s 40A (as added), and discretionary in any other case; and 3 penalty points may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2; and the Road Safety Act 2006 s 25(1)). An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 40A (as added) of using a vehicle in a dangerous condition is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3 (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 112). As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. ## (9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES

(i) Seat Belts

A. ADULTS

626. Wearing of seat belts by adults.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations requiring, subject to such exceptions as may be prescribed<sup>2</sup>, persons who are driving<sup>3</sup> or riding in motor vehicles<sup>4</sup> on a road<sup>5</sup> to wear seat belts of such description as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>. Regulations so made requiring the wearing of seat belts by persons riding in motor vehicles do not apply to children under the age of 14 years<sup>7</sup>.

Such regulations:

- 1161 (1) may make different provision in relation to different classes of vehicles<sup>8</sup>, different descriptions of persons and different circumstances<sup>9</sup>;
- 1162 (2) may authorise the wearing of a seat belt approved under the law of a member state other than the United Kingdom<sup>10</sup>;
- 1163 (3) must include exceptions for:
  - 65 128. (a) the driver of or a passenger in a motor vehicle constructed or adapted for carrying goods<sup>11</sup>, while on a journey which does not exceed the prescribed distance and which is undertaken for the purpose of delivering or collecting any thing<sup>12</sup>;
  - 129. (b) the drivers of vehicles while performing a manoeuvre which includes reversing<sup>13</sup>; and
  - 130. (c) any person holding a valid certificate signed by a medical practitioner to the effect that it is inadvisable on medical grounds for him to wear a seat belt<sup>14</sup>;
- 66 1164 (4) must include an exception for any person holding a certificate to the like effect as that mentioned in head (3)(c) above which was issued in a member state other than the United Kingdom and which, under the law of that state, is valid for purposes corresponding to those of these provisions<sup>15</sup>;
- 1165 (5) may make any prescribed exceptions subject to such conditions as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>; and 1166 (6) may prescribe cases in which a fee of a prescribed amount may be charged on an application for any certificate required as a condition of any prescribed exception<sup>17</sup>.

A person who drives or rides in a motor vehicle in contravention of regulations so made is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>; but, notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law, no person other than the person actually committing the contravention is guilty of an offence by reason of the contravention<sup>19</sup>.

If the holder of any such certificate as is referred to in head (3) or head (4) above is informed by a constable<sup>20</sup> that he may be prosecuted for such an offence, he is not in proceedings for that offence entitled to rely on the exception afforded to him by the certificate unless<sup>21</sup>:

- 1167 (i) it is produced to the constable at the time he is so informed<sup>22</sup>;
- 1168 (ii) it is produced within seven days after the date on which he is so informed, or as soon as is reasonably practicable, at such police station as he may have specified to the constable<sup>23</sup>; or
- 1169 (iii) where it is not produced at such police station, it is not reasonably practicable for it to be produced there before the day on which the proceedings are commenced<sup>24</sup>.

1171 (2) riding in a front or rear seat<sup>6</sup> of a motor vehicle (other than a two-wheeled motor cycle with or without a sidecar)<sup>7</sup>, must wear an adult belt<sup>8</sup>.

1 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 5(2) (reg 5 substituted by SI 2006/1892).

2 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'motor cycle' see PARA 214 ante.

5 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 5(1)(a) (as substituted: see note 1 supra).

6 For these purposes, 'seat' includes any part designed for the accommodation of one adult of a continuous seat designed for the accommodation of more than one adult: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(8); definition applied by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(1). 'Rear seat' in relation to a vehicle means a seat not being the driver's seat, a seat alongside the driver's seat or a specified passenger seat: reg 2(1). 'Specified passenger seat' means: (1) in the case of a vehicle which has one forward-facing front seat alongside the driver's seat, that seat, and in the case of a vehicle which has more than one such seat, the one furthest from the driver's seat; or (2) if the vehicle normally has no seat which is the specified passenger seat under head (1) supra, the forward-facing front seat for a passenger which is foremost in the vehicle and furthest from the driver's seat, unless there is a fixed partition separating that seat from the space in front of it alongside the driver's seat: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(8); definition applied by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(1).

7 Ibid reg 5(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 1 supra).

8 Ibid reg 5(1) (as substituted: see note 1 supra). This is expressed to be subject to regs 6-10 (as amended). As to exemptions see PARA 628 post.

For these purposes, 'adult belt' means a seat belt in respect of which one or more of the following requirements is satisfied (reg 2(4)), namely that:

- 150 (1) it is a three-point belt which has been marked in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(7) (as amended) (see PARA 335 ante) (Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(4)(a));
- 151 (2) it is a lap belt which has been so marked (reg 2(4)(b));
- 152 (3) it is a seat belt that falls within the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(4)(c)(i) or (ii) (as amended) (see PARA 335 ante) (Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(4)(c));
- 153 (4) it is a seat belt fitted in a vehicle and comprised in a restraint system: (a) of a type which has been approved by an authority of another member state for use by all persons who are either aged 13 years or more or of 150 cm or more in height; and (b) in respect of which, by virtue of such approval, the requirements of the law of another member state corresponding to the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176 (as amended) would be met were it to be worn by persons who are either aged 13 years or more or of 150 cm or more in height when travelling in that vehicle in that state (reg 2(4)(d) (amended by SI 2006/1892)).

'Lap belt' means a seat belt which passes across the front of the wearer's pelvic region and which is designed for use by an adult; and 'three point belt' means a seat belt which restrains the upper and lower parts of the torso, includes a lap belt, is anchored at not less than three points and is designed for use by an adult: Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(8); applied by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(1). 'Restraint system' means a system combining a seat fixed to the structure of the vehicle by appropriate means and a seat belt for which at least one anchorage point is located on the seat structure: reg 2(1).

628. Exemptions.

The requirement for adults to wear adult belts<sup>1</sup> does not apply to<sup>2</sup>:

- 1172 (1) a person holding a medical certificate<sup>3</sup>;

- 1173 (2) the driver of or a passenger in a motor vehicle constructed or adapted for carrying goods, while on a journey which does not exceed 50 metres and which is undertaken for the purpose of delivering or collecting any thing<sup>4</sup>;
- 1174 (3) a person driving a vehicle while performing a manoeuvre which includes reversing<sup>5</sup>;
- 1175 (4) a qualified driver<sup>6</sup> who is supervising the holder of a provisional licence<sup>7</sup> while that holder is performing a manoeuvre which includes reversing<sup>8</sup>;
- 1176 (5) a person by whom a test of competence to drive is being conducted<sup>9</sup> and whose wearing of a seat belt would endanger himself or any other person<sup>10</sup>;
- 1177 (6) a person driving or riding in a vehicle while it is being used for fire and rescue authority<sup>11</sup> or police<sup>12</sup> purposes or for carrying a person in lawful custody (a person who is being so carried being included in this exemption)<sup>13</sup>;
- 1178 (7) a person driving or riding in a vehicle while it is being used for Serious Organised Crime Agency purposes<sup>14</sup>;
- 1179 (8) the driver of a licensed taxi<sup>15</sup> while it is being used for seeking hire, or answering a call for hire or carrying a passenger for hire, or a private hire vehicle<sup>16</sup> while it is being used to carry a passenger for hire<sup>17</sup>;
- 1180 (9) a person riding in a vehicle, being used under a trade licence<sup>18</sup>, for the purpose of investigating or remedying a mechanical fault in the vehicle<sup>19</sup>;
- 1181 (10) a disabled person who is wearing a disabled person's belt<sup>20</sup>; or
- 1182 (11) a person riding in a vehicle while it is taking part in a procession organised by or on behalf of the Crown<sup>21</sup>.

Without prejudice to head (11) above, the requirement for adults to wear adult belts does not apply to a person riding in a vehicle which is taking part in a procession held to mark or commemorate an event if either<sup>22</sup>: (a) the procession is one commonly or customarily held in the police area<sup>23</sup> or areas in which it is being held<sup>24</sup>; or (b) notice in respect of the procession was duly given<sup>25</sup>. Nor does the requirement for adults to wear adult belts apply to:

- 1183 (i) a person driving a vehicle if the driver's seat<sup>26</sup> is not provided with an adult belt<sup>27</sup>;
- 1184 (ii) a person riding in the front of a vehicle if no adult belt is available<sup>28</sup> for him in the front of the vehicle<sup>29</sup>; or
- 1185 (iii) a person riding in the rear of a vehicle if no adult belt is available for him in the rear of the vehicle<sup>30</sup>.

The requirement for a person riding in a front or rear seat of a motor vehicle to wear an adult belt<sup>31</sup> does not apply to a person riding in a small or large bus<sup>32</sup>: (A) which is being used to provide a local service<sup>33</sup> in a built-up area<sup>34</sup>; or (B) which is constructed or adapted for the carriage of standing passengers and on which the operator<sup>35</sup> permits standing<sup>36</sup>.

2    Ibid reg 6(1).

3    Ibid reg 6(1)(a). 'Medical certificate', in relation to a person driving or riding in a vehicle, means: (1) a valid certificate signed by a medical practitioner to the effect that it is inadvisable on medical grounds for him to wear a seat belt; or (2) a valid certificate to such effect issued by the authority having power to issue such a certificate under the law of another member state corresponding to the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176 (as amended): reg 2(1), Sch 1 Pt I para 1. A certificate is not, however, to be regarded as a medical certificate in relation to a person driving or riding in a vehicle for these purposes unless it specifies its period of validity and bears the prescribed symbol shown in Sch 1 Pt II: Sch 1 Pt I para 2 (amended by SI 2006/1892). The Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, Sch 1 Pt I para 2 (as amended) does not apply in relation to a certificate issued before 1 January 1995: Sch 1 Pt I para 3.

629. Availability of seat belts.

In relation to a person aged 14 years or more riding in a vehicle<sup>1</sup>:

1186 (1) if any front seat<sup>2</sup> in the vehicle, other than the driver's seat, is provided with an adult belt<sup>3</sup>, that belt is to be regarded as being available for him in the front of the vehicle unless the requirements set out in heads (i) to (vii) below<sup>4</sup> are satisfied in relation to that person, that seat and that belt<sup>5</sup>; and

- 1187 (2) if any rear seat in the vehicle is provided with an adult belt, that belt is to be regarded as being available for him in the rear of the vehicle unless the requirements set out in heads (i) to (vii) below<sup>6</sup> are satisfied in relation to that person, that seat and that belt<sup>7</sup>.

In relation to a child<sup>8</sup> riding in a vehicle<sup>9</sup>:

- 1188 (a) if any front seat in the vehicle, other than the driver's seat, is provided with an appropriate seat belt<sup>10</sup>, that belt is to be regarded as an appropriate seat belt available for him in the front of the vehicle unless the requirements set out in heads (i) to (vii) below<sup>11</sup> are satisfied in relation to that child, that seat and that belt<sup>12</sup>; and
- 1189 (b) if any rear seat in a vehicle is provided with an appropriate seat belt, that belt is to be regarded as an appropriate seat belt available for him in the rear of the vehicle unless the requirements set out in heads (i) to (vii) below<sup>13</sup> are satisfied in relation to that child, that seat and that belt<sup>14</sup>.

The requirements are satisfied in relation to a particular person ('the person in question') and a particular seat ('the relevant seat') provided with a particular seat belt ('the relevant belt') if<sup>15</sup>:

- 1190 (i) another person is wearing the relevant belt<sup>16</sup>;
- 1191 (ii) a child is occupying the relevant seat and wearing a child restraint<sup>17</sup> which is an appropriate child restraint for that child<sup>18</sup>;
- 1192 (iii) another person, being a person holding a medical certificate<sup>19</sup>, is occupying the relevant seat<sup>20</sup>;
- 1193 (iv) a disabled person, not being the person in question, is occupying the relevant seat and wearing a disabled person's belt<sup>21</sup>;
- 1194 (v) by reason of his disability, it would not be practicable for the person in question to wear the relevant belt<sup>22</sup>;
- 1195 (vi) the person in question is prevented from occupying the relevant seat by the presence of a child restraint which could not readily be removed without the aid of tools<sup>23</sup>; or
- 1196 (vii) the relevant seat is specially designed so that: (A) its configuration can be adjusted in order to increase the space in the vehicle available for goods or personal effects<sup>24</sup>; and (B) when it is so adjusted, the seat cannot be used as such<sup>25</sup>, and the configuration is adjusted in the manner described in head (A) above and it would not be reasonably practicable for the goods and personal effects being carried in the vehicle to be so carried were the configuration not so adjusted<sup>26</sup>.

1 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(9), Sch 2 para 1.

2 As to the meaning of 'seat' see PARA 627 note 6 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'adult belt' see PARA 627 note 8 ante.

4 I.e. the requirements of the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, Sch 2 para 3: see the text and notes 15-26 infra.

5 Ibid Sch 2 para 1(a).

6 See note 4 supra.

7 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, Sch 2 para 1(b).

8 'Child' means person under the age of 14 years: ibid reg 2(3).

9 Ibid Sch 2 para 2.

10 'Seat belt' includes a child restraint (see note 17 infra); and references to wearing a seat belt are to be construed accordingly: ibid reg 2(1). For these purposes, a seat belt is appropriate: (1) in relation to a small child, if it is a child restraint of a description prescribed for a child of his height and weight by reg 8 (as amended) (see PARA 635 post); (2) in relation to a large child, if it is a child restraint of a description prescribed for a child of his height and weight by reg 8 (as amended) (see PARA 635 post) or an adult belt; or (3) in relation to a person aged 14 years or more, if it is an adult belt: reg 2(8) (substituted by SI 2006/1892). 'Large child' means a child who is not a small child; and 'small child' means a child who is: (a) aged under 12 years; and (b) under 135 cm in height: Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, reg 2(3) (amended by SI 2006/1892).

11 See note 4 supra.

13 See note 4 supra.

14 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, Sch 2 para 2(b).

15 Ibid Sch 2 para 3. Schedule 2 para 3 has effect in relation to reg 10(5) (see PARA 636 post) as if Sch 2 paras 3(a)-(d) (see heads (i)-(iv) in the text) were omitted: Sch 2 para 4.

16 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(a).

17 A child restraint is to be regarded as provided for a seat for these purposes if: (1) it is fixed in such a position that it can be worn by an occupier of that seat; or (2) it is elsewhere in or on the vehicle but it could readily be fixed in such a position without the aid of tools and it is not being worn by a child for whom it is appropriate and who is occupying another seat: ibid Sch 2 para 8.

'Child restraint' means a seat belt or other device in respect of which the following requirements are satisfied, namely that: (a) it is a seat belt or any other description of restraining device for the use of a child which is: (i) designed either to be fitted directly to a suitable anchorage or to be used in conjunction with an adult seat belt and held in place by the restraining action of that belt; and (ii) marked in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(7) (as amended) (see PARA 335 ante); or (b) it is a seat belt consisting of or comprised in a restraint system fitted in a relevant vehicle ('the vehicle in question'), being a restraint system: (i) of a type which has been approved by an authority of another member state for use by a child; and (ii) in respect of which, by virtue of such approval, the requirements of the law of that state corresponding to the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176 (as amended) would be met were it to be worn by a child when travelling in the vehicle in question in that state: reg 2(1).

18 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(b). Schedule 2 para 3(b) does not apply unless the presence of the other person renders it impracticable for the person in question to wear the relevant belt: Sch 2 para 5.

19 For the meaning of 'medical certificate' see PARA 628 note 3 ante.

20 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176, Sch 2 para 3(c).

21 Ibid Sch 3 para 3(d). Schedule 2 para 3(d) does not apply unless the presence of the other person renders it impracticable for the person in question to wear the relevant belt: Sch 2 para 5. For the meaning of 'disabled person's belt' see PARA 628 note 20 ante.

22 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(e).

23 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(g). Schedule 2 para 3(g) does not apply if the person in question is a child and the child restraint is appropriate for him: Sch 2 para 7.

24 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(h)(i).

25 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(h)(ii).

26 Ibid Sch 2 para 3(h).

1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(i) Seat Belts/A. ADULTS/630.
Requirement to notify bus passengers to wear seat belts.

630. Requirement to notify bus passengers to wear seat belts.

The operator<sup>1</sup> of a bus<sup>2</sup> in which any of the passenger seats<sup>3</sup> are equipped with seat belts must take all reasonable steps to ensure that every passenger is notified that he is required to wear a seat belt at all times when he is in a seat equipped with a seat belt and the bus is in motion<sup>4</sup>. For these purposes, a passenger may be notified only by one or more of the following means<sup>5</sup>:

- 1197 (1) an official announcement<sup>6</sup>, or an audio-visual presentation, made when the passenger joins the bus or within a reasonable time of his doing so<sup>7</sup>;
- 1198 (2) a sign prominently displayed at each passenger seat equipped with a seat belt<sup>8</sup>.

The notification requirement does not apply in relation to a bus: (a) which is being used to provide a local service<sup>9</sup> in a built-up area<sup>10</sup>; or (b) which is constructed or adapted for the carriage of standing passengers and on which the operator permits standing<sup>11</sup>.

An operator who fails to comply with the notification requirement is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup>. Where such an offence which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or any person who was purporting to act in such a capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>13</sup>.

1 'Operator', in relation to a bus, means: (1) the owner of the bus; or (2) if the bus is in the possession of any other person under an agreement for hire, hire-purchase, conditional sale, loan or otherwise, that person: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15B(7) (s 15B added by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, regs 2, 4).

2 For the meaning of 'bus' see PARA 631 note 8 post; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15B(7) (as added: see note 1 supra).

3 'Passenger seat', in relation to a bus, means any seat other than the driver's seat: ibid s 15B(7) (as added: see note 1 supra).

4 Ibid s 15B(1) (as added: see note 1 supra).

5 Ibid s 15B(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

6 For these purposes, 'official announcement' means an announcement by the driver of the bus, by a conductor or courier or by a person who is a group leader in relation to any group of persons who are passengers on the bus: ibid s 15B(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

7 Ibid s 15B(2)(a) (as added: see note 1 supra).

9 Ie within the meaning of the Transport Act 1985: see PARA 1177 post.

10 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15B(6)(a) (as added: see note 1 supra). For these purposes, a local service is provided in a built-up area if the entire route used by that service consists of restricted roads: s 15B(6) (as so added). 'Restricted road' means a road that is restricted for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 81 (ignoring any direction under s 82(2)(b)) or would be so restricted but for a direction under s 82(2)(a) or an order under s 84(1) (see PARAS 847-848 post): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15B(7) (as so added).

11 Ibid s 15B(6)(b) (as added: see note 1 supra).

12 Ibid s 15B(4) (as added: see note 1 supra). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry added by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, regs 6, 8(b)). USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(i) Seat Belts/B. CHILDREN/631. Restriction on carrying children not wearing seat belts in motor vehicles.

B. CHILDREN

631. Restriction on carrying children not wearing seat belts in motor vehicles.

Except as provided by regulations<sup>1</sup>, where a child under the age of 14 years is in the front<sup>2</sup> of a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup>, a person must not without reasonable excuse drive<sup>4</sup> the vehicle on a road<sup>5</sup> unless the child is wearing a seat belt<sup>6</sup> in conformity with regulations<sup>7</sup>. Where (1) a child is in the front of a motor vehicle other than a bus<sup>8</sup>; (2) the child is in a rear-facing child restraining device; and (3) the passenger seat where the child is placed is protected by a front air bag, a person must not without reasonable excuse drive the vehicle on a road unless the air bag is deactivated<sup>9</sup>.

If a person drives a motor vehicle in contravention of these prohibitions, he is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

Except as provided by regulations:

1199 (1) where:

131. (a) a child under the age of three years is in the rear of a motor vehicle<sup>11</sup>; or

132. (b) a child of or over that age but under the age of 14 years is in the rear of a motor vehicle and any seat belt is fitted in the rear of that vehicle<sup>12</sup>,

1200 a person must not without reasonable excuse drive the vehicle on a road unless the child is wearing a seat belt in conformity with regulations<sup>13</sup>;

1201 (2) where:

133. (a) a child who is under the age of 12 years and less than 150 centimetres in height is in the rear of a passenger car<sup>14</sup>;

134. (b) no seat belt is fitted in the rear of the passenger car<sup>15</sup>; and

135. (c) a seat in the front of the passenger car is provided with a seat belt but is not occupied by any person<sup>16</sup>,

1202 a person must not without reasonable excuse drive the passenger car on a road<sup>17</sup>.

If a person drives a motor vehicle in contravention of head (1) or head (2) above, he is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>.

Provision may be made by regulations:

- 1203 (i) excepting from the prohibition in the above provisions<sup>19</sup> children of any prescribed<sup>20</sup> description, vehicles of a prescribed class<sup>21</sup> or the driving of vehicles in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>22</sup>;
- 1204 (ii) defining in relation to any class of vehicle what part of the vehicle is to be regarded as the front of the vehicle for the above purposes<sup>23</sup> or as the rear of the vehicle for the above purposes<sup>24</sup>; and
- 1205 (iii) prescribing for the above purposes<sup>25</sup> the descriptions of seat belt to be worn by children of any prescribed description and the manner in which such seat belt is to be fixed and used<sup>26</sup>.

Regulations made for the purposes of head (1) or head (2) above: (A) must include an exemption for any child holding a valid certificate signed by a medical practitioner to the effect that it is inadvisable on medical grounds for him to wear a seat belt<sup>27</sup>; and (B) must include an exemption for any child holding a certificate to the like effect which was issued in any member state other than the United Kingdom and which, under the law of that state, is valid for purposes corresponding to those of these provisions<sup>28</sup>, but the regulations may make either of those exemptions subject to such conditions as may be prescribed<sup>29</sup>.

If the driver of a motor vehicle is informed by a constable<sup>30</sup> that he may be prosecuted for an offence<sup>31</sup>, he is not in proceedings for that offence entitled to rely on an exception afforded to a child by a certificate<sup>32</sup> unless it is produced to the constable at the time he is so informed, or it is produced within seven days after the date on which he is so informed, or as soon as is reasonably practicable, at such police station as he may have specified to the constable, or, where it is not produced at such police station, it is not reasonably practicable for it to be produced there before the day on which the proceedings are commenced<sup>33</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'regulations' means regulations made by the Secretary of State under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15 (as amended): s 15(9) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1988 (Amendment) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3105, reg 3(7)). See notes 7, 13, 14 infra. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 Every part of the vehicle forward of the transverse vertical plane passing through the rearmost part of the driver's seat is to be regarded as the front of the vehicle; and accordingly no part of the vehicle to the rear of that plane is to be regarded as being in the front of the vehicle: Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 4(1), (2). Where a vehicle has a deck which is above the level of the driver's head when he is in the normal driving position, no part of the vehicle above that level is to be regarded as being in the front of the vehicle: reg 4(1), (3).

4 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

6 For these purposes, 'seat belt' includes any description of restraining device for a child; and any reference to wearing a seat belt is to be construed accordingly: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(9).

7 Ibid s 15(1). In exercise of this power the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31 (amended by SI 2006/2213) have been made. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 243 ante.

8 For these purposes, 'bus' means a motor vehicle that: (1) has at least four wheels; (2) is constructed or adapted for the carriage of passengers; (3) has more than eight seats in addition to the driver's seat; and (4) has a maximum design speed exceeding 25 kmph: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(9) (definition added by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, regs 2, 3(4)).

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(1A) (added by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, reg 3(1)). For these purposes, the reference to the air bag being deactivated includes a reference to the case where the air bag is designed or adapted in such a way that it cannot inflate enough to pose a risk of injury to a child travelling in a rear-facing child restraining device in the seat in question: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(9A) (added by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, reg 3(5)). The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(9A) (as added) refers to 'subsection (1)', but it is submitted that this should be a reference to s 15(1A) (as added).

10 Ibid s 15(2) (amended by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, reg 3(2)). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) (Amendment) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1892, regs 6, 8(a)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(2) of breaching the restriction on carrying children in the front of vehicles or in a rear-facing child restraint in the front seat with an active air bag is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post. The Secretary of State may make payments to police authorities in relation to the prevention, detection and enforcement of offences under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(2) (as amended): see the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 s 155.

12 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(3)(b) (as substituted: see note 11 supra).

13 Ibid s 15(3) (as substituted: see note 11 supra). In exercise of this power the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176 (as amended) have been made: see PARAS 635-636 post. As to provision corresponding to the Road Traffic Act s 15(3) (as substituted) in relation to Northern Ireland see the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Rear Seat Belts by Children) Act 1988 s 2 (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 3 para 38).

14 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(3A)(a) (s 15(3A) added by the Road Traffic Act 1988 (Amendment) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3105, reg 3). In exercise of this power the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/176 (as amended) have been made: see PARAS 635-636 post. For these purposes, 'passenger car' means a motor vehicle which: (1) is constructed or adapted for use for the carriage of passengers and is not a goods vehicle; (2) has no more than eight seats in addition to the driver's seat; (3) has four or more wheels; (4) has a maximum design speed exceeding 25 kmph; and (5) has a maximum laden weight not exceeding 3.5 tonnes: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(9) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1988 (Amendment) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3105, reg 3). 'Maximum laden weight' has the meaning given by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 86(1), Sch 6 Pt IV (see PARA 851 note 21 post): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(9) (as so amended). For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

15 Ibid s 15(3A)(b) (as added: see note 14 supra).

16 Ibid s 15(3A)(c) (as added: see note 14 supra).

17 Ibid s 15(3A) (as added: see note 14 supra).

18 Ibid s 15(4) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1988 (Amendment) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3105, reg 3). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I (amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 24).

An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(4) (as amended) of breaching the restriction on carrying children in the rear of vehicles is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 3 (entry amended by the Fixed Penalty Offences Order 1992, SI 1992/345, art 2).

The Secretary of State may make payments to police authorities in relation to the prevention, detection and enforcement of offences under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(4) (as amended): see the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 s 155.

USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(i) Seat Belts/B. CHILDREN/632. Seat belts to be worn by children in the front of a vehicle.

632. Seat belts to be worn by children in the front of a vehicle.

For a child<sup>1</sup> of any particular height and weight travelling in the front of a particular vehicle, other than a two-wheeled motor cycle<sup>2</sup> with or without a sidecar, the description of seat belt<sup>3</sup> to be worn by him is<sup>4</sup>:

1206 (1) if he is a small child<sup>5</sup>, a child restraint<sup>6</sup> of a description specified in head (a) or (b) below<sup>7</sup>;

1207 (2) if he is a large child<sup>8</sup>, a child restraint of a description specified in head (a) below or an adult belt<sup>9</sup>.

The descriptions of seat belt are:

- 1208 (a) a child restraint with the required marking<sup>10</sup> if the marking indicates that it is suitable for his weight and either indicates that it is suitable for his height or contains no indication as respects height<sup>11</sup>;
- 1209 (b) a child restraint which would meet the corresponding requirements<sup>12</sup> of the law of another member state were it to be worn by that child when travelling in that vehicle in that state<sup>13</sup>.

2 For the meaning of 'motor cycle' see PARA 214 ante.

3 In the description of seat belt prescribed for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(1): see PARA 631 ante. For these purposes, 'seat belt' includes a child restraint (see note 6 infra); and references to wearing a seat belt are to be construed accordingly: Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 2(1).

4 Ibid regs 5(1), 6.

5 'Small child' means a child who is aged under 12 years and under 135 cm in height: ibid reg 2(3) (amended by SI 2006/2213).

6 'Child restraint' means a seat belt or other device in respect of which the following requirements are satisfied, namely that: (1) it is a seat belt or any other description of restraining device for the use of a child which is: (a) designed either to be fitted directly to a suitable anchorage or to be used in conjunction with an adult belt and held in place by the restraining action of that belt; and (b) marked in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(7) (as amended) (see PARA 335 ante); or (2) it is a seat belt consisting of or comprised in a restraint system fitted in a vehicle, being a restraint system: (a) of a type which has been approved by an authority of another member state for use by a child; and (b) in respect of which, by virtue of such approval, the requirements of the law of that state corresponding to the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31 (as amended) would be met were it to be worn by a child when travelling in that vehicle in that state: reg 2(5) (amended by SI 2006/2213). 'Restraint system' means a system combining a seat fixed to the structure of the vehicle by appropriate means and a seat belt for which at least one anchorage point is located on the seat structure: Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 2(1).

A seat is to be regarded as provided with a child restraint if a child restraint is: (i) fixed in such a position that it can be worn by an occupier of that seat; or (ii) elsewhere in or on the vehicle but it could readily be fixed in such a position without the aid of tools, and is not being worn by a child for whom it is appropriate and who is occupying another seat: reg 2(8).

7 Ibid reg 5(1)(a).

8 'Large child' means a child who is not a small child: ibid reg 2(3).

9 Ibid reg 5(1)(c). For exemptions see PARA 633 post. 'Adult belt' means a seat belt in respect of which one or more of the following requirements is satisfied, namely that: (1) it is a three-point belt which has been marked in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(7) (as amended) (see PARA 335 ante); (2) it is a lap belt which has been so marked; (3) it is a seat belt that falls within reg 47(4)(c)(i) or (ii) (see PARA 335 ante); (4) it is a seat belt fitted in a vehicle and comprised in a restraint system: (a) of a type which has been approved by an authority of another member state for use by all persons who are either aged 13 years or more or of 150 cm or more in height; and (b) in respect of which, by virtue of such approval, the requirements of the law of another member state corresponding to the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31 (as amended) would be met were it to be worn by persons who are either aged 13 years or more or of 150 cm or more in height when travelling in that vehicle in that state: reg 2(4) (amended by SI 2006/2213). For the meanings of 'three-point belt' and 'lap belt' see PARA 627 note 11 ante; definitions applied by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 2(1).

10 In the marking required under the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(7) (as amended): see PARA 335 ante.

631-636 Children

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(i) Seat Belts/B. CHILDREN/633. Exemptions.

633. Exemptions.

The prohibition on carrying children not wearing seat belts in the front of motor vehicles<sup>1</sup> does not apply in relation to:

- 1210 (1) a small child<sup>2</sup> aged three years or more who is riding in a bus and is wearing an adult belt<sup>3</sup> if an appropriate seat belt<sup>4</sup> is not available<sup>5</sup> for him in the front or rear of the vehicle<sup>6</sup>;
- 1211 (2) a child for whom there is a medical certificate<sup>7</sup>; or
- 1212 (3) a disabled child who is wearing a disabled person's belt<sup>8</sup>.

Nor does the prohibition on carrying children not wearing seat belts in motor vehicles apply in relation to a child riding in a bus:

- 1213 (a) which is being used to provide a local service<sup>10</sup> in a built-up area<sup>11</sup>; or
- 1214 (b) which is constructed or adapted for the carriage of standing passengers and on which the operator<sup>12</sup> permits standing<sup>13</sup>.

The prohibition does not apply in relation to a large child<sup>14</sup> if no appropriate seat belt is available for him in the front of the vehicle<sup>15</sup>.

1 ie the prohibition in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 15(1): see PARA 631 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'small child' see PARA 632 note 5 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'adult belt' see PARA 632 note 9 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'seat belt' see PARA 632 note 3 ante. For these purposes, a seat belt is appropriate: (1) in relation to a small child, if it is a child restraint of a description prescribed for a child of his height and weight by the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 5 (as amended) (see PARA 632 ante); (2) in relation to a large child, if it is a child restraint of a description prescribed for a child of his height and weight by reg 5 (as amended) or an adult belt; or (3) in relation to a person aged 14 years or more, if it is an adult belt: reg 2(9) (substituted by SI 2006/2213).

5 As to the availability of seat belts see PARA 634 post.

6 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 7(1)(a) (reg 7(1) substituted by SI 2006/2213). As to the front of a vehicle see PARA 631 note 2 ante.

7 Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 7(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 6 supra). For these purposes, 'medical certificate', in relation to a person driving or riding in a vehicle, means: (1) a valid certificate signed by a medical practitioner to the effect that it is inadvisable on medical grounds for him to wear a seat belt; or (2) a valid certificate to such effect issued by the authority having power to issue such a certificate under the law of another member state corresponding to the Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31 (as amended): reg 2(1), Sch 1 Pt I para 1. A certificate is not to be regarded as a medical certificate in relation to a person driving or riding in a vehicle for these purposes unless: (a) it specifies its period of validity and bears the prescribed symbol shown in Sch 1 Pt II; or (b) the person is aged under 14 years: Sch 1 Pt I para 2 (amended by SI 2006/2213). The Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, Sch 1 Pt I para 2 (as amended) does not apply in relation to a certificate issued before 1 January 1995: Sch 1 Pt I para 3.

8 Ibid reg 7(1)(c). For the meaning of 'disabled person's belt' see PARA 628 note 20 ante; definition applied by reg 2(1).

9 For the meaning of 'motor car' see PARA 212 ante.

634. Availability of seat belts.

- 1215 (1) if any front seat<sup>2</sup> in the vehicle, other than the driver's seat, is provided with an appropriate seat belt<sup>3</sup>, that belt is to be regarded as being available for him in the front of the vehicle unless the following requirements<sup>4</sup> are satisfied in relation to that child, that seat and that belt<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1216 (2) if any rear seat<sup>6</sup> in the vehicle is provided with an appropriate seat belt, that belt is to be regarded as being available for him in the rear of the vehicle unless the following requirements<sup>7</sup> are satisfied in relation to that child, that seat and that belt<sup>8</sup>.

The requirements are satisfied in relation to a particular child ('the child in question') and a particular seat ('the relevant seat') provided with a particular seat belt ('the relevant belt') if<sup>9</sup>:

- 1217 (a) another person is wearing the relevant belt<sup>10</sup>;
- 1218 (b) another child is occupying the relevant seat and wearing a child restraint<sup>11</sup> which is an appropriate child restraint for that child<sup>12</sup>;
- 1219 (c) another person, being a person holding a medical certificate<sup>13</sup>, is occupying the relevant seat<sup>14</sup>;
- 1220 (d) a disabled person, not being the child in question, is occupying the relevant seat and wearing a disabled person's belt<sup>15</sup>;
- 1221 (e) by reason of his disability, it would not be practicable for the child in question to wear the relevant belt<sup>16</sup>;
- 1222 (f) the child in question is prevented from occupying the relevant seat by the presence of a child restraint which could not readily be removed without the aid of tools<sup>17</sup>; or
- 1223 (g) the relevant seat is specially designed so that: (i) its configuration can be adjusted in order to increase the space in the vehicle available for goods or personal effects<sup>18</sup>; and (ii) when it is so adjusted the seat cannot be used as such<sup>19</sup>, and the configuration is adjusted in the manner described in head (i) above and it would not be reasonably practicable for the goods and personal effects being carried in the vehicle to be so carried were the configuration not so adjusted<sup>20</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'child' see PARA 632 note 1 ante.

2 'Front seat', in relation to a vehicle, means a seat which is wholly or partially in the front of the vehicle: Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 2(1). As to the front of a vehicle see PARA 631 note 2 ante.

3 As to when a seat belt is appropriate see PARA 633 note 4 ante. A seat is to be regarded as provided with an adult belt if an adult belt is fixed in such a position that it can be worn by an occupier of that seat: ibid reg 2(6). A seat is not to be regarded as provided with an adult belt if the belt: (1) has an inertia reel mechanism which is locked as a result of the vehicle being, or having been, on a steep incline; or (2) does not comply with the requirements of the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 48 (as amended) (see PARA 336 ante): Motor Vehicles (Wearing of Seat Belts by Children in Front Seats) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/31, reg 2(7). For the meaning of 'adult belt' see PARA 632 note 9 ante.

636. Exemptions.

The prohibitions on carrying children not wearing seat belts in the rear of motor vehicles<sup>1</sup> do not apply in relation to:

- 1230 (1) a child<sup>2</sup> for whom there is a medical certificate<sup>3</sup>;
- 1231 (2) a small child<sup>4</sup> aged under three years who is riding in a licensed taxi<sup>5</sup> or licensed hire car<sup>6</sup>, if no appropriate seat belt<sup>7</sup> is available for him<sup>8</sup> in the front or rear of the vehicle<sup>9</sup>;
- 1232 (3) a small child aged three years or more who is riding in a licensed taxi, a licensed hire car or a small bus<sup>10</sup> and wearing an adult belt<sup>11</sup> if an appropriate seat belt is not available for him in the front or rear of the vehicle<sup>12</sup>;
- 1233 (4) a small child aged three years or more who is wearing an adult belt and riding in a passenger car<sup>13</sup> or light goods vehicle<sup>14</sup> where the use of child restraints<sup>15</sup> by the child occupants of two seats in the rear of the vehicle prevents the use of an appropriate seat belt for that child and no appropriate seat belt is available for him in the front of the vehicle<sup>16</sup>;
- 1234 (5) a small child who is riding in a vehicle being used for the purposes of the police, security or emergency services to enable the proper performance of their duty<sup>17</sup>;
- 1235 (6) a small child aged three years or more who is wearing an adult belt and who, because of an unexpected necessity, is travelling a short distance in a passenger car or light goods vehicle in which no appropriate seat belt is available for him<sup>18</sup>; or
- 1236 (7) a disabled child who is wearing a disabled person's belt<sup>19</sup> or whose disability makes it impracticable to wear a seat belt where a disabled person's belt is unavailable to him<sup>20</sup>.

The prohibition on carrying children not wearing seat belts in the rear of motor vehicles where a seat belt is fitted in the rear<sup>21</sup> does not apply to:

- 1237 (a) a child aged under three years riding in a rear seat of a small bus<sup>22</sup>;

- 1238 (b) a small child aged three years or more riding in a rear seat of a small bus if neither an appropriate seat belt<sup>23</sup> nor an adult belt is available for him in the front or rear of the vehicle<sup>24</sup>;
- 1239 (c) a large child<sup>25</sup> in any vehicle if no appropriate seat belt is available for him in the rear of the vehicle<sup>26</sup>;
- 1240 (d) a child riding in a small bus: (i) which is being used to provide a local service<sup>27</sup> in a built-up area<sup>28</sup>; or (ii) which is constructed or adapted for the carriage of standing passengers and on which the operator<sup>29</sup> permits standing<sup>30</sup>.

The prohibition on carrying small children not wearing seat belts in the rear of motor vehicles<sup>31</sup> does not apply in relation to a child if no appropriate seat belt is available for him in the front of the vehicle<sup>32</sup>.

(ii) Safety Equipment for Children

638. Safety equipment for children in motor vehicles.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations prescribing (by reference to shape, construction or any other quality) types of equipment<sup>2</sup> that are recommended as conducive to the safety in the event of accident of prescribed<sup>3</sup> classes of children in prescribed classes<sup>4</sup> of motor vehicles<sup>5</sup>; and such regulations may make different provision in relation to different circumstances<sup>6</sup>.

Such regulations may make provision for securing that, when equipment of a type prescribed by the regulations is sold or offered for sale as equipment which is so conducive<sup>7</sup>:

- 1245 (1) appropriate information is provided in relation to it in such manner as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>; and
- 1246 (2) inappropriate information is not provided in relation to it<sup>9</sup>.

Except in such circumstances as may be prescribed, if a person sells, or offers for sale, or lets on hire or offers to let on hire, equipment of any description for which a type is so prescribed as equipment which is so conducive and that equipment is not of a type so prescribed or is sold or offered for sale in contravention of regulations so made, he is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

Except in such circumstances as may be prescribed, if a person sells, or offers for sale, or lets on hire or offers to let on hire, equipment of any description for which a type is so prescribed as equipment conducive to the safety in the event of accident of children not of a class prescribed in relation to equipment of that type or of children in motor vehicles not of a class prescribed in relation to equipment of that type, he is guilty of an offence<sup>11</sup>.

A person is not, however, to be convicted of an offence under the above provisions<sup>12</sup> in respect of the sale or offer for sale or letting on hire or offer to let on hire of equipment if he proves that it was sold or, as the case may be, offered for sale for export from Great Britain<sup>13</sup>.

638 Safety equipment for children in motor vehicles

NOTES--Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in this paragraph are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(iii) Protective Headgear/639.
Wearing of protective headgear.

(iii) Protective Headgear

639. Wearing of protective headgear.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations requiring, subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the regulations, persons driving<sup>2</sup> or riding (otherwise than in sidecars) on motor cycles<sup>3</sup> of any class<sup>4</sup> specified in the regulations to wear protective headgear of such description as may be so specified<sup>5</sup>; and such regulations may make different provision in relation to different circumstances<sup>6</sup>. A requirement imposed by regulations so made does not apply to any follower of the Sikh religion while he is wearing a turban<sup>7</sup>.

A person who drives or rides on a motor cycle in contravention of regulations so made is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>. However, notwithstanding any enactment or rule of law, no person other than the person actually committing the contravention is guilty of an offence by reason of the contravention unless the person actually committing the contravention is a child under the age of 16 years<sup>9</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'motor cycle' see PARA 214 ante.

4 As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante.

5 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 16(1). In exercise of this power the Motor Cycles (Protective Helmets) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1807 (amended by SI 2000/1488) have been made. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 243 ante.

Every person driving or riding (otherwise than in a side-car) on a motor bicycle when on a road must wear protective headgear: Motor Cycles (Protective Helmets) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1807, reg 4(1). This does not apply to any person driving or riding on a motor bicycle if it is a mowing machine, or it is for the time being propelled by a person on foot: reg 4(2). For these purposes, 'motor bicycle' means a two-wheeled motor cycle, whether or not having a sidecar attached, and where the distance measured between the centre of the area of contact with the road surface of any two wheels of a motor cycle is less than 460 mm, those wheels are to be counted as one wheel; and 'protective headgear' means a helmet which: (1) either bears a marking applied by its manufacturer indicating compliance with the specifications contained in one of the British Standards (whether or not as modified by any amendment) mentioned in reg 4, Sch 2, or is of a type manufactured for use by persons on motor cycles which by virtue of its shape, material and construction could reasonably be expected to afford to the wearer a degree of protection from accidental injury similar to or greater than that provided by a helmet of a type prescribed by reg 5; (2) if worn with a chin cup attached to or held in position by a strap, is provided with an additional strap (to be fastened under the wearer's jaw) for securing the helmet to the head; and (3) is securely fastened to the head by means of straps provided for that purpose; and 'strap' includes any fastening device: reg 4(2).

A non-traditional, two-wheel design motor cycle which has enhanced safety features including a roof, seat belts and side-protection safety bars which may be said to be driven in, rather than on, is a motor cycle whose rider is required to wear protective headgear: DPP v Parker [2004] EWHC 1248 (Admin), [2005] RTR 16.

7 Ibid s 16(2).

8 Ibid s 16(4). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 16 of breaching regulations relating to protective headgear for motor cycle drivers and passengers is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post. Failure to wear a helmet may constitute contributory negligence: Hilder v Associated Portland Cement Manufacturers Ltd [1961] 3 All ER 709, [1961] 1 WLR 1434.

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 16(4). As to the application of s 16 to vehicles and persons in the public service of the Crown see PARA 205 ante.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(iii) Protective Headgear/640. Protective helmets for motor cyclists.

640. Protective helmets for motor cyclists.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations prescribing, by reference to shape, construction or any other quality, types of helmet<sup>2</sup> recommended as affording protection to persons on or in motor cycles<sup>3</sup>, or motor cycles of different classes<sup>4</sup>, from injury in the event of accident<sup>5</sup>.

If a person sells or offers for sale, or lets on hire or offers to let on hire, a helmet as a helmet for affording protection to persons on or in motor cycles and the helmet is neither of a type so prescribed nor of a type authorised under regulations so made and sold or offered for sale or let on hire or offered for let on hire subject to any conditions specified in the authorisation, he is guilty of an offence<sup>6</sup>. A person is not, however, to be convicted of such an offence in respect of the sale or offer for sale or letting on hire or offering to let on hire of a helmet if he proves that it was sold or, as the case may be, offered for sale for export from Great Britain<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'helmet' includes any head-dress: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 17(5).

3 For the meaning of 'motor cycle' see PARA 214 ante.

4 As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante.

5 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 17(1). In exercise of this power the Motor Cycles (Protective Helmets) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1807 (amended by SI 2000/1488) have been made. See PARA 639 note 5 ante. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 243 ante.

6 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 17(2). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post. It is no defence to prove that the helmet was only for use off the road: see Losexis Ltd v Clarke (1983) Times, 10 May, DC.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(9) PROTECTIVE MEASURES/(iii) Protective Headgear/641. Authorisation of head-worn appliances for use on motor cycles.

641. Authorisation of head-worn appliances for use on motor cycles.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations prescribing, by reference to shape, construction or any other quality, types of appliance of any description<sup>2</sup> as authorised for use by persons driving<sup>3</sup> or riding, otherwise than in sidecars, on motor cycles<sup>4</sup> of any class<sup>5</sup> specified in the regulations<sup>6</sup>. Such regulations may impose restrictions or requirements with respect to the circumstances in which appliances of any type prescribed by the regulations may be used and may make different provision in relation to different circumstances<sup>7</sup>.

If a person driving or riding on a motor cycle on a road<sup>8</sup> uses an appliance of any description for which a type is so prescribed<sup>9</sup> and that appliance is not of a type so prescribed or is otherwise used in contravention of regulations so made, he is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

If a person sells, offers for sale or lets on hire or offers to let on hire an appliance of any such description as is authorised for use by persons on or in motor cycles, or motor cycles of any class, and that appliance is not of a type so prescribed as authorised for such use, he is guilty of an offence<sup>11</sup>.

A person is not, however, to be convicted of an offence under the above provisions in respect of the sale or offer for sale or hire or offer to let on hire of an appliance if he proves that it was sold or, as the case may be, offered for sale for export from Great Britain<sup>12</sup>.

(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS

642. Drivers to comply with traffic directions.

Where a constable<sup>1</sup> or traffic officer<sup>2</sup> is for the time being engaged in the regulation of traffic in a road<sup>3</sup>, a person driving<sup>4</sup> or propelling a vehicle who neglects or refuses: (1) to stop the vehicle<sup>5</sup>; or (2) to make it proceed in, or keep to, a particular line of traffic<sup>6</sup>, when directed to do so by the constable or traffic officer in the execution of his duty is guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>.

Where a traffic survey of any description is being carried out on or in the vicinity of a road<sup>8</sup> and a constable or traffic officer gives to a person driving or propelling a vehicle a direction: (a) to stop the vehicle<sup>9</sup>; (b) to make it proceed in, or keep to, a particular line of traffic<sup>10</sup>; or (c) to proceed to a particular point on or near the road on which the vehicle is being driven or propelled<sup>11</sup>, being a direction given for the purposes of the survey (but not a direction requiring any person to provide any information for the purposes of a traffic survey)<sup>12</sup>, the person is guilty of an offence if he neglects or refuses to comply with the direction<sup>13</sup>. The power to give such a direction for the purposes of a traffic survey must be so exercised as not to cause any unreasonable delay to a person who indicates that he is unwilling to provide any information for the purposes of the survey<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 35 (as amended) also has effect where a constable's powers are exercised by a community support officer (see the Police Reform Act 2002 s 38(6), Sch 4 para 12(2)), or by persons accredited for the purposes of a community safety accreditation scheme (see s 41(3), Sch 5 para 9), for the purposes of escorting a vehicle or trailer carrying a load of exceptional dimensions. 7 Ibid s 35(1) (amended by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 6(2)(a)). At the date at which this volume states the law the amendment made by the Traffic Management Act 2004 is in force only in relation to England.

A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary if an offence is committed in respect of a motor vehicle by failure to comply with a direction of a constable or traffic warden; endorsement is obligatory if so committed; and 3 penalty points may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 35 (as amended) of failure to comply with traffic directions is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. ### 642-650 Duties of Drivers

Certain persons or endorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS/643. Drivers to comply with traffic signs.

643. Drivers to comply with traffic signs.

Where a traffic sign<sup>1</sup>, being a sign: (1) of the prescribed<sup>2</sup> size, colour and type<sup>3</sup>; or (2) of another character authorised by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>, has been lawfully placed on or near a road<sup>5</sup>, a person driving<sup>6</sup> or propelling a vehicle who fails to comply with the indication given by the sign is guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>.

A traffic sign is not to be treated for these purposes as having been lawfully placed unless either:

1247 (a) the indication given by the sign is an indication of a statutory<sup>8</sup> prohibition, restriction or requirement<sup>9</sup>; or

1248 (b) it is expressly provided by or under any provision of the enactments relating to traffic<sup>10</sup> that these provisions are to apply to the sign or to signs of a type of which the sign is one<sup>11</sup>, and, where the indication mentioned in head (a) above is of the general nature only of the prohibition, restriction or requirement to which the sign relates, a person is not to be convicted of failure to comply with the indication unless he has failed to comply with the prohibition, restriction or requirement to which the sign relates<sup>12</sup>.

Where a traffic survey of any description is being carried out on or in the vicinity of a road, the above provisions apply to a traffic sign by which a direction is given: (i) to stop a vehicle<sup>13</sup>; (ii) to make it proceed in, or keep to, a particular line of traffic<sup>14</sup>; or (iii) to proceed to a particular point on or near the road on which the vehicle is being driven or propelled<sup>15</sup>, being a direction given for the purposes of the survey (but not a direction requiring any person to provide any information for the purposes of the survey)<sup>16</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 post; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 192(1). As to traffic signs see PARA 830 et seq post.

2 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 205 note 6 ante.

3 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(1)(a).

4 Ie under the provisions in that behalf of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 830 et seq post): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(1)(b). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

6 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

7 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(1). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary if the offence is committed in respect of a motor vehicle by failure to comply with an indication given by a sign specified for these purposes in regulations made under s 36; endorsement is obligatory if so committed; and 3 penalty points may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36 (as amended) of failure to comply with traffic signs is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; as to disqualification see PARA 1057 et seq post; as to endorsement see PARA 1080 et seq post; as to penalty points see PARA 1048 et seq post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

For these purposes, a traffic sign placed on or near a road is deemed: (1) to be of the prescribed size, colour and type, or of another character authorised by the Secretary of State under the provisions in that behalf of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984; and (2) subject to the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(2) (see the text and notes 8-12 infra), to have been lawfully so placed, unless the contrary is proved: s 36(3).

Regulations made by the Secretary of State may specify any traffic sign for the purposes of the entry in the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 col 5 relating to offences under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36 (as amended): s 36(5) (amended by the Secretary of State for the Environment, Transport and the Regions Order 1997, SI 1997/2971, art 6(1), Schedule para 10); Transfer of Functions (Road Traffic) Order 1999, SI 1999/3143, art 2(2). The Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002, SI 2002/3113 (as amended) (see PARA 830 et seq post) have been made under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(5) (as amended).

The Secretary of State may make payments in respect of the whole or any part of the expenditure of a public authority in relation to the prevention or detection of offences under s 36(1) which consist in the failure to comply with an indication given by a light signal that vehicular traffic is not to proceed or any enforcement action or proceedings in respect of such offences or any alleged such offences: Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 s 38(1), (2)(e). As to such payments see further PARA 758 post.

644. Directions to pedestrians.

Where a constable<sup>1</sup> in uniform or a traffic officer<sup>2</sup> is for the time being engaged in the regulation of vehicular traffic in a road<sup>3</sup>, a person on foot who proceeds across or along the carriageway in contravention of a direction to stop given by the constable or traffic officer in the execution of his duty, either to persons on foot or to persons on foot and other traffic, is guilty of an offence<sup>4</sup>.

A constable may require a person committing such an offence to give his name and address; and, if that person fails to do so, he is guilty of an offence<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 37 (as amended) also has effect where a constable's powers are exercised by a community support officer (see the Police Reform Act 2002 s 38(6), Sch 4 para 12(2)), or by persons accredited for the purposes of a community safety accreditation scheme (see s 41(3), Sch 5 para 9), for the purposes of escorting a vehicle or trailer carrying a load of exceptional dimensions. As to community safety accreditation schemes generally see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 532 et seq.

2 As to traffic officers see PARA 863 et seq post.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 37 (amended by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 6(3)). At the date at which this volume states the law the amendment made by the Traffic Management Act 2004 is in force only in relation to England.

A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 2). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

5 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 169. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 1 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I.

642-650 Duties of Drivers

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS/645. Stopping and furnishing particulars after accident.

645. Stopping and furnishing particulars after accident.

Where, owing to the presence of a mechanically propelled vehicle<sup>1</sup> on a road<sup>2</sup> or other public place, an accident<sup>3</sup> occurs by which<sup>4</sup>:

1249 (1) personal injury is caused to a person other than the driver<sup>5</sup> of that mechanically propelled vehicle<sup>6</sup>; or

1250 (2) damage is caused:

142. (a) to a vehicle<sup>7</sup> other than that mechanically propelled vehicle or a trailer<sup>8</sup> drawn by that mechanically propelled vehicle<sup>9</sup>; or

143. (b) to an animal<sup>10</sup> other than an animal in or on that mechanically propelled vehicle or a trailer drawn by that mechanically propelled vehicle<sup>11</sup>; or

144. (c) to any other property constructed on, fixed to, growing in or otherwise forming part of the land on which the road or place in question is situated or land adjacent to such land<sup>12</sup>, the driver of the mechanically propelled vehicle must stop and, if required to do so by any person having reasonable grounds for so requiring, give his name and address and also the name and address of the owner<sup>13</sup> and the identification marks of the vehicle<sup>14</sup>. If for any reason<sup>15</sup> the driver of the mechanically propelled vehicle does not give his name and address as required, he must report the accident<sup>16</sup>. A person who fails to comply with these requirements<sup>17</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>.

If, in a case where head (1) above applies the driver of a motor vehicle<sup>19</sup>, other than an invalid carriage<sup>20</sup>, does not at the time of the accident produce a certificate of insurance or security or other evidence<sup>21</sup> to a constable or to some person who, having reasonable grounds for so doing, has required him to produce it, the driver must report the accident and produce such a certificate or other evidence<sup>22</sup>. To comply with a duty under the above provisions to report an accident or to produce a certificate of insurance or security, or other evidence, the driver must do so at a police station or to a constable and as soon as is reasonably practicable<sup>23</sup> and, in any case, within 24 hours of the occurrence of the accident<sup>24</sup>. A person who fails to comply with such a duty is guilty of an offence<sup>25</sup>, but he is not to be convicted by reason only of a failure to produce a certificate or other evidence if, within seven days after the occurrence of the accident, the certificate or other evidence is produced at a police station that was specified by him at the time when the accident was reported<sup>26</sup>.

1 As to the meaning of 'mechanically propelled vehicle' see PARA 211 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante. There must be some direct connection between the motor vehicle and the happening of the accident: see Quelch v Phipps [1955] 2 QB 107, [1955] 2 All ER 302, DC (where a bus driver was held to be under a duty to report an accident in which a passenger fell off the bus). See also Redman v Taylor [1975] Crim LR 348, DC (where a car left the road, collided with a gate pillar on private land and the accident was held to have occurred owing to the presence of that motor vehicle on the road).

3 'Accident' means an unintended occurrence which has an adverse physical result: R v Morris [1972] 1 All ER 384, [1972] 1 WLR 228, CA, per Sachs LJ.

4 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 72; and the Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/726, reg 2(6)).

5 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

6 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(1)(a) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 72).

7 A bicycle is a vehicle: Ellis v Nott-Bower (1896) 60 JP 760, DC.

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(1)(b)(i) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 72).

10 For these purposes, 'animal' means horse, cattle, ass, mule, sheep, pig, goat or dog: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(8).

11 Ibid s 170(1)(b)(ii).

12 Ibid s 170(1)(b)(iii) (amended by the Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/726, reg 2(6)).

13 For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante.

14 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(2) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 72). This provision creates only one offence, comprising two elements (the failure to stop, and the failure to give particulars), and, if either element is not complied with, the offence is committed: North v Gerrish (1959) 123 JP 313, DC; DPP v Bennett [1993] RTR 175, DC. The information must be given by the driver personally and not by his agent: Lee v Knapp [1967] 2 QB 442, [1966] 3 All ER 961, DC. The driver is under no obligation to inquire as to the owner of a parked car damaged in the collision: Mutton v Bates [1984] RTR 256, (1983) 147 JP 459. The driver's duty is to stop immediately at the point in the road where the accident occurred, or as near to it as is safely possible: Hallinan v DPP (1999) 163 JP 651, DC. Whether there is a failure to stop is a question of fact and degree, taking into account all the circumstances of the case: McDermott v DPP (1996) 161 JP 244, DC (offence committed where driver drove on for 80 yards before returning to the scene of the accident). See also Cawthorn v DPP [2000] RTR 45, DC. The requirements of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170 (as amended) may be met if a driver gives the name and address of his solicitor: see DPP v McCarthy (1999) 163 JP 585.

For the purpose of determining whether a motor vehicle was or was not being driven in contravention of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143 (as amended) (see PARA 937 post) on any occasion when the driver was required under s 170 (as amended) to produce such a certificate of insurance or security, or other evidence, as is mentioned in s 165(2)(a) (see PARA 648 head (a) post), the owner of the vehicle must give such information as he may be required, by or on behalf of a chief officer of police, to give: s 171(1). For these purposes, 'owner', in relation to a vehicle which is the subject of a hiring agreement, includes each party to the agreement: s 171(3). If a person fails to comply with the requirement of s 171(1), he is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale: s 171(2); Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 171 (as amended) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(b).

15 The obligation to report arises if for any reason the driver has not given the information, whether it was required of him or not: Peek v Towle [1945] 1 KB 458, [1945] 2 All ER 611, DC.

17 In the requirements of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(2), (3) (as amended): see the text and notes 13-16 supra.

18 Ibid s 170(4). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or to both; disqualification is discretionary; endorsement is obligatory; and 5-10 penalty points may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2). As to disqualification see PARA 1057 et seq post; as to endorsement see PARA 1080 et seq post; and as to penalty points see PARA 1048 et seq post. As to the general power of arrest without a warrant in relation to any offence see the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984 s 24 (as substituted); and CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 924.

21 In such as is mentioned in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165(2)(a): see PARA 648 post.

22 Ibid s 170(5) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 72). The provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(5)-(7) (as amended) do not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(b).

23 'As soon as reasonably practicable' means precisely what it says; the limit of 24 hours does not entitle a driver to wait up to that period before reporting: Bulman v Bennett [1974] RTR 1, DC.

24 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(6). See also note 22 supra. There is no need to report the accident if s 170(2) (as amended) has been complied with: Green v Dunn [1953] 1 All ER 550, DC. Reporting the accident to a detective constable in the capacity of personal friend rather than as police officer is not enough: Mutton v Bates [1984] RTR 256, (1983) 147 JP 459. Although the driver is personally known to persons at the scene of the accident, he is nevertheless under a duty to report the accident: R v Kingston upon Thames Crown Court, ex p Scarll [1990] Crim LR 429, DC.

25 A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I.

26 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170(7) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 72). See also note 22 supra. Ignorance of the accident is a defence: Harding v Price [1948] 1 KB 695, [1948] 1 All ER 283, DC; Selby v Chief Constable of Avon and Somerset [1988] RTR 216, DC. However, subject to this, the duty to report is absolute, and failure to report is not excused by the fact that the police may have been informed of the accident by other means: Dawson v Winter (1932) 149 LT 18, DC. See also DPP v Hay [2005] EWHC 1395 (Admin), [2006] RTR 32 (obligation to comply with requirements of Road Traffic Act 1988 s 170 (as amended) not negated by police attendance and defendant's conveyance to hospital).

646. Stopping when required by constable.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

8 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 163(3). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale if the offence is committed by a person driving a mechanically propelled vehicle and level 3 on the standard scale if it is committed by a person riding a cycle: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 27). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 163 (as amended) of failing to stop a vehicle on being so required by a constable in uniform is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

642-650 Duties of Drivers

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS/647. Production of driving licence to constable.

647. Production of driving licence to constable.

Any of the following persons:

- 1251 (1) a person driving<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> on a road<sup>3</sup>;
- 1252 (2) a person whom a constable<sup>4</sup> or vehicle examiner<sup>5</sup> has reasonable cause to believe to have been the driver<sup>6</sup> of a motor vehicle at a time when an accident occurred owing to its presence on a road<sup>7</sup>;
- 1253 (3) a person whom a constable or vehicle examiner has reasonable cause to believe to have committed an offence in relation to the use of a motor vehicle on a road<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1254 (4) a person who supervises the holder of a provisional licence<sup>9</sup> while the holder is driving a motor vehicle on a road, or whom a constable or vehicle examiner has reasonable cause to believe was supervising the holder of a provisional licence while driving, at a time when an accident occurred owing to the presence of the vehicle on a road or at a time when an offence is suspected of having been committed by the holder of the provisional licence in relation to the use of the vehicle on a road<sup>10</sup>, must, on being so required by a constable or vehicle examiner, produce his licence<sup>11</sup> and its counterpart<sup>12</sup> for examination, so as to enable the constable or vehicle examiner to ascertain the name and address of the holder of the licence, the date of issue, and the authority by which they were issued<sup>13</sup>. A person so required by a constable to produce his licence must in prescribed circumstances<sup>14</sup>, on being so required by the constable, state his date of birth<sup>15</sup>.

If (a) the Secretary of State<sup>16</sup> has revoked a licence<sup>17</sup> or revoked or suspended<sup>18</sup> a large goods vehicle driver's licence<sup>19</sup> or a passenger-carrying vehicle driver's licence<sup>20</sup> or served notice requiring the delivery of a licence to him<sup>21</sup>; and (b) the holder of the licence fails to deliver it and its counterpart to the Secretary of State or the traffic commissioner<sup>22</sup>, as the case may be<sup>23</sup>, a constable or vehicle examiner may require him to produce the licence and its counterpart, and, on their being produced, may seize them and deliver them to the Secretary of State<sup>24</sup>.

Where a constable has reasonable cause to believe that the holder of a licence, or any other person, has knowingly made a false statement for the purpose of obtaining the grant of the licence, the constable may require the holder of the licence to produce it and its counterpart to him<sup>25</sup>.

Where a constable to whom a provisional licence has been produced by a person driving a motor bicycle has reasonable cause to believe that the holder was not driving it as part of the training being provided on a training course for motor cyclists<sup>26</sup>, the constable may require him to produce the prescribed certificate of completion of a training course for motor cyclists<sup>27</sup>.

Where a person has been required<sup>28</sup> to produce a licence and its counterpart to the court and fails to do so, a constable may require him to produce them and, on their being produced, may seize them and deliver them to the court<sup>29</sup>.

If a person required under the above provisions to produce a licence and its counterpart or to state his date of birth or to produce his certificate of completion of a training course for motor cyclists fails to do so he is guilty of an offence<sup>30</sup>. A person is not guilty of such an offence where he is required on any occasion under the above provisions to produce a licence and its counterpart<sup>31</sup> and he:

- 1255 (i) produces on that occasion a current receipt for the licence and its counterpart<sup>32</sup> and, if required to do so, produces the licence and its counterpart in person immediately on their return at a police station that was specified on that occasion<sup>33</sup>; or
- 1256 (ii) within seven days after that occasion produces such a receipt in person at a police station that was specified by him on that occasion and, if required to do so, produces the licence and its counterpart in person immediately on their return at that police station<sup>34</sup>.

In proceedings against any person for the offence of failing to produce a licence and its counterpart or, as the case may be, a certificate of completion of a training course for motor cyclists, it is a defence for him to show<sup>35</sup> that:

- 1257 (A) within seven days after the production of his licence and its counterpart or, as the case may be, certificate was required, he produced them or it in person at a police station that was specified by him at the time their or its production was required<sup>36</sup>; or
- 1258 (B) he produced them or it in person there as soon as was reasonably practicable<sup>37</sup>; or
- 1259 (C) it was not reasonably practicable for him to produce them or it there before the day on which the proceedings were commenced<sup>38</sup>.

Where, in accordance with the above provisions, a person has stated his date of birth to a constable, the Secretary of State may serve on that person a notice in writing<sup>39</sup> requiring him to provide the Secretary of State with such evidence in that person's possession or obtainable by him as the Secretary of State may specify for the purpose of verifying that date, and, if his name differs from his name at the time of his birth, with a statement in writing specifying his name at that time; and a person who knowingly fails to comply with such a notice is guilty of an offence<sup>40</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1)(a). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. A person authorised for the purpose by a traffic commissioner appointed under the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 (see PARA 1132 et seq post), may, on production if so required of his authority, exercise in the case of goods vehicles or passenger-carrying vehicles of any prescribed class all such powers as are, under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1) or (3) (as amended), exercisable by a constable: s 166 (substituted by the Road Traffic (Driver Licensing and Information Systems) Act 1989 s 7, Sch 3 para 20; and amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 70). For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante. For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 205 note 6 ante.

For the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164 (as amended), an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(5) (see PARA 868 post) may provide for the discharge of certain functions by traffic wardens and, if such an order is made, references to a constable in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1), (2), (6) (as amended) include references to a traffic warden: see the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(1), (2)(c)(iii) (as amended); and PARA 868 post. References in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1), (2), (6) (as amended) to a constable or police constable include references to a traffic warden only where: (1) the traffic warden has reasonable cause to believe that an offence has been committed by causing a vehicle, or any part of it, to stop in contravention of regulations made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 25 (see PARA 778 post) or that an offence has been committed in contravention of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 22 (as amended) (see PARA 999 post) (leaving vehicles in dangerous positions); or (2) the traffic warden is employed to perform functions in connection with the custody of vehicles removed from a road or land in the open air in pursuance of regulations made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99 (as amended) (see PARA 870 post) or from a parking place in pursuance of a street parking place order, and he has reasonable cause to believe that an offence has been committed in respect of a vehicle by its obstructing a road, or waiting, or being left or parked, or being loaded or unloaded, in a road: Functions of Traffic Wardens Order 1970, SI 1970/1958, art 3(4) (substituted by SI 1993/1334).

5 For these purposes, 'vehicle examiner' means an examiner appointed under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 66A (as added and amended) (see PARA 698 post): s 164(11) (substituted by the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/1974, reg 2, Sch 1 para 30(3)).

6 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

7 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 68(2)).

8 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1)(c) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 68(2)).

9 For the meaning of 'provisional licence' see PARA 445 note 27 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(11) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

10 Ibid s 164(1)(d) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 68(2)).

11 For these purposes, 'licence' means a licence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 Pt III (ss 87-109) (as amended) (see PARA 442 et seq ante), a Northern Ireland licence or a Community licence: s 164(11) (as substituted (see note 5 supra); and amended by the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003 s 91(1), Sch 5 paras 17, 27(b)(i)). For the meaning of 'Community licence' see PARA 415 note 16 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(11) (as so substituted).

12 For the meaning of 'counterpart' see PARA 415 note 19 ante; definition applied by ibid s 164(11) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 ss 10(12), 59, Sch 3 paras 2, 26(1), (8) so as to remove the reference to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

13 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 68(2); and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, reg 2(1), Sch 1 para 9). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 para 26(2), (3), Sch 7 so as to remove the reference to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

As to a constable's powers to seize immediately vehicles where the driver fails to produce a valid licence see PARA 649 post. As to the retention and disposal of vehicles so seized see PARA 650 post.

14 The circumstances so prescribed are: (1) where that person fails to produce forthwith for examination his licence on being required to do so by a police constable under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164 (as amended); (2) where, on being so required, that person produces a licence: (a) which the police constable in question has reason to suspect was not granted to that person, was granted to that person in error or contains an alteration in the particulars entered on the licence (other than as described in head (b) infra) made with intent to deceive; or (b) in which the driver number has been altered, removed or defaced; or (3) where that person is a person specified in s 164(1)(d) (as amended) (see head (4) in the text) and the police constable has reason to suspect that he is under 21 years of age: Motor Vehicles (Driving Licences) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2864, reg 83(1).

For these purposes, 'driver number' means the number described as the driver number in the licence: reg 83(2). For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 205 note 6 ante.

15 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(2) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 68(3)).

21 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(3)(a) (substituted by the Road Traffic (Driver Licensing and Information Systems) Act 1989 s 7, Sch 3 para 18(a); and amended by the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/1974, Sch 1 para 30(2)(a); and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1420, reg 14). Such notice is served in pursuance of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 99C (as added) (see PARA 475 ante) or s 115A (as added) (see PARA 497 ante). As from a day to be appointed, the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(3)(a) is further amended by the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003 Sch 5 para 27(a)(i), (ii) so as to add a reference to where a person is required to deliver his licence and its counterpart to the Secretary of State under the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003 s 63, and to notice requiring the delivery of a licence to him in pursuance of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 109B (as added) (see PARA 484 ante). Section 164(3)(a) is further prospectively amended, as from a day to be appointed, by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 para 26(2), Sch 7 so as to remove the reference to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day or days had been appointed.

22 As to traffic commissioners see PARA 493 et seq ante.

23 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(3)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic (Driver Licensing and Information Systems) Act 1989 Sch 3 para 18(a); the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, Sch 1 para 9; the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/1974, Sch 1 para 30(2)(b); and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/1420, reg 14). A licence and its counterpart must be delivered in pursuance of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 92 (as amended) (see PARA 455 ante), s 93 (as amended) (see PARA 456 ante), s 99 (as amended) (see PARA 468 ante), s 99C (as added) (see PARA 475 ante), s 115A (as added) (see PARA 497 ante) or s 118 (as substituted and amended) (see PARA 500 ante), as the case may be. As from a day to be appointed, the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(3)(b) is further amended by the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003 Sch 5 para 27(a)(iii) so as to add a reference to where a licence and its counterpart are delivered in pursuance of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 109B (as added) or the Crime (International Co-operation) Act 2003 s 63. The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(3)(b) is further prospectively amended, as from a day to be appointed, by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 para 26(2), Sch 7 so as to remove the reference to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day or days had been appointed.

24 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(3) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 68(4); and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, Sch 1 para 9). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is further amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 para 26(2), (4), Sch 7 so as to remove the references to the counterpart.

25 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(4) (amended by the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, Sch 1 para 9).

26 For the meaning of 'training course for motor cyclists' see PARA 451 note 17 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(11) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 2000 s 260, Sch 29 paras 1, 5(1), (5) so as to remove the reference to this definition.

27 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(4A) (added by the Road Traffic (Driver Licensing and Information Systems) Act 1989 Sch 3 para 18(b)). For the meaning of 'prescribed certificate of completion' see PARA 451 note 16 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(11) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 2000 Sch 29 para 5(5) so as to remove the reference to this definition.

As from a day to be appointed, the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(4A) is substituted by the Transport Act 2000 Sch 29 para 5(2) so as to provide that if regulations make provision for the evidencing of the successful completion of driver training courses or of a person's being within the exemption specified in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 99ZA(2) (as added), or any exemption provided by virtue of s 99ZA(3) (as added) (see PARA 485 ante), a person driving on a road a motor vehicle which he is not authorised so to drive without having successfully completed such a course, or would not be authorised so to drive apart from the exemption, may be required by a constable to produce prescribed evidence of the successful completion by him of such a course or of his being within the exemption. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

28 le under the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 26 (as substituted and amended) (see PARA 1046 post) or s 27 (as amended) (see PARA 1047 post), the Child Support Act 1991 s 40B (as added) (see CHILDREN AND YOUNG PERSONS vol 5(3) (2008 Reissue) PARA 559), the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 s 40 (as amended) or the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 s 146 or s 147 (as amended) (see SENTENCING AND DISPOSITION OF OFFENDERS vol 92 (2010) PARAS 313-314). As from a day to be appointed, the reference to the Crime (Sentences) Act 1997 s 40 (as amended) is replaced by a reference to the Criminal Justice Act 2003 s 301: see s 304, Sch 32 Pt 1 para 51. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

29 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(5) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 68(5); the Powers of Criminal Courts (Sentencing) Act 2000 s 165(1), Sch 9 para 117; the Child Support, Pensions and Social Security Act 2000 s 16(4); and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, Sch 1 para 9). As to the prospective amendment of this provision by the Criminal Justice Act 2003 see note 28 supra. As from a day to be appointed, the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(5) is further amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 para 26(2), (5), Sch 7 so as to remove references to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

30 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(6) (amended by the Road Traffic (Driver Licensing and Information Systems) Act 1989 Sch 3 para 18(c); the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 48, 83, Sch 4 para 68(6), Sch 8; and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, Sch 1 para 9). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is further amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 paras 2, 26, Sch 7 so as to remove the reference to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2; and the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, reg 2(2), Sch 2 para 27(c); and prospectively amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 paras 30, 63(1), (3), Sch 7). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 post.

As from a day to be appointed, the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(6) is further amended by the Transport Act 2000 Sch 29 para 5(3) so as to replace the requirement to produce a certificate of completion of a training course for motor cyclists with the requirement to produce prescribed evidence of the successful completion by him of a driver training course or of his being within an exemption. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

31 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(7) (amended by the Driving Licences (Community Driving Licence) Regulations 1990, SI 1990/144, Sch 1 para 9). This provision is further amended, as from a day to be appointed, by the Road Safety Act 2006 Sch 3 para 26(2) (6), Sch 7 so as to remove references to the counterpart. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

642-650 Duties of Drivers

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS/648. Giving of names and addresses and production of insurance or security and test certificates.

648. Giving of names and addresses and production of insurance or security and test certificates.

Any of the following persons:

- 1260 (1) a person driving<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> (other than an invalid carriage<sup>3</sup>) on a road<sup>4</sup>; or
- 1261 (2) a person whom a constable<sup>5</sup> or vehicle examiner<sup>6</sup> has reasonable cause to believe to have been the driver<sup>7</sup> of a motor vehicle (other than an invalid carriage) at a time when an accident occurred owing to its presence on a road or other public place<sup>8</sup>; or
- 1262 (3) a person whom a constable or vehicle examiner has reasonable cause to believe to have committed an offence in relation to the use on a road of a motor vehicle (other than an invalid carriage)<sup>9</sup>, must, on being so required by a constable or vehicle examiner, give his name and address and the name and address of the owner<sup>10</sup> of the vehicle and produce the following documents for examination<sup>11</sup>. The documents are:

- 1263 (a) the relevant certificate of insurance<sup>12</sup> or certificate of security<sup>13</sup>, or such other evidence that the vehicle is not or was not being driven without compulsory insurance or security<sup>14</sup> as may be prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State<sup>15</sup>;
- 1264 (b) in relation to a vehicle requiring an obligatory test certificate<sup>16</sup>, a test certificate issued in respect of the vehicle<sup>17</sup>; and 1265 (c) in relation to a goods vehicle the use of which on a road without a plating certificate<sup>18</sup> or goods vehicle test certificate<sup>19</sup> is an offence<sup>20</sup>, any such certificate issued in respect of that vehicle or any trailer<sup>21</sup> drawn by it<sup>22</sup>.

A person who fails to comply with a requirement under the above provisions is guilty of an offence<sup>23</sup>. A person is not, however, to be convicted of such an offence by reason only of failure to produce any certificate or other evidence if in proceedings against him for the offence he shows that<sup>24</sup>: (i) within seven days after the date on which the production of the certificate or other evidence was required, it was produced at a police station that was specified by him at the time when its production was required<sup>25</sup>; or (ii) it was produced there as soon as was reasonably practicable<sup>26</sup>; or (iii) it was not reasonably practicable for it to be produced there before the day on which the proceedings were commenced<sup>27</sup>.

A person:

- 1266 (A) who supervises the holder of a provisional licence<sup>28</sup> while the holder is driving on a road a motor vehicle (other than an invalid carriage)<sup>29</sup>; or
- 1267 (B) whom a constable or vehicle examiner has reasonable cause to believe was supervising the holder of such a licence while driving, at a time when an accident occurred owing to the presence of the vehicle on a road or at a time when an offence is suspected of having been committed by the holder of the provisional licence in relation to the use of the vehicle on a road<sup>30</sup>, must, on being so required by a constable or vehicle examiner, give his name and address and the name and address of the owner of the vehicle<sup>31</sup>. A person who fails to comply with such a requirement is guilty of an offence<sup>32</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'invalid carriage' see PARA 215 ante.

4 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165(1)(a). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. A person authorised for the purpose by a traffic commissioner appointed under the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 (see PARA 1132 et seq post) may, on production if so required of his authority, exercise in the case of goods vehicles or passenger-carrying vehicles of any prescribed class all such powers as are, under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended), exercisable by a constable: s 166 (substituted by the Road Traffic (Driver Licensing and Information Systems) Act 1989 s 7, Sch 3 para 20; and amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 70). As to traffic commissioners see PARA 1139 post. For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante. For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 205 note 6 ante.

For the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended), an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(5) (see PARA 868 post) may provide for the discharge of certain functions by traffic wardens and, if such an order is made, references to a constable in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended) include references to a traffic warden: see the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(1), (2)(c)(iv) (as amended); and PARA 868 post.

7 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

11 Ibid s 165(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 69(1), (2)). The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2) (b). The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended), in so far as it provides for the production of test certificates and the giving of names and addresses, applies to a person in connection with a vehicle to which s 47 (as amended) (see PARA 657 post) applies notwithstanding that he or the driver is or was at any material time a person in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(6). The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165(1) (as amended), in so far as it provides for the production of any certificate mentioned in s 165(2)(c) (see head (c) in the text), applies to a person in connection with a goods vehicle so mentioned notwithstanding that he or the driver is or was at any time a person in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(7).

12 Ie within the meaning of the Road Traffic Act 1988 Pt VI (ss 143-162) (as amended): see PARA 947 post.

13 Ie within the meaning of ibid Pt VI (as amended): see PARA 947 post.

14 Ie in contravention of ibid s 143 (as amended): see PARA 937 post. For the purpose of determining whether a motor vehicle was or was not being driven in contravention of s 143 (as amended) on any occasion when the driver was required under s 165(1) (as amended) to produce such a certificate of insurance or security, or other evidence, as is mentioned in s 165(2)(a) (see head (a) in the text), the owner of the vehicle must give such information as he may be required, by or on behalf of a chief officer of police, to give: s 171(1). For these purposes, 'owner', in relation to a vehicle which is the subject of a hiring agreement, includes each party to the agreement: s 171(3). If a person fails to comply with the requirement of s 171(1), he is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale: s 171(2); Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

642-650 Duties of Drivers

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

648 Giving of names and addresses and production of insurance or security and test certificates

NOTE 15--SI 1972/1217 further amended: SI 2010/1115.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS/649. Power to seize vehicles driven without licence or insurance.

649. Power to seize vehicles driven without licence or insurance.

Where any of the following conditions are satisfied, namely that:

- 1268 (1) a constable in uniform requires<sup>1</sup> a person to produce his licence and its counterpart<sup>2</sup> for examination, the person fails to produce them, and the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> is or was being driven by the person without a valid licence<sup>4</sup>;
- 1269 (2) a constable in uniform requires<sup>5</sup> a person to produce evidence that a motor vehicle is not or was not being driven without insurance<sup>6</sup>, the person fails to produce such evidence, and the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the vehicle is or was being so driven<sup>7</sup>;
- 1270 (3) a constable in uniform requires<sup>8</sup> a person driving a motor vehicle to stop the vehicle, the person fails to stop the vehicle, or to stop the vehicle long enough, for the constable to make such lawful enquiries as he considers appropriate, and the constable has reasonable grounds for believing that the vehicle is or was being driven without a valid licence or without insurance<sup>9</sup>,

the constable may:

- 1271 (a) seize the vehicle<sup>10</sup> and remove it;

- 1272 (b) enter, for the purpose of exercising a power falling within head (a) above, any premises, other than a private dwelling house<sup>11</sup>, on which he has reasonable grounds for believing the vehicle to be;
- 1273 (c) use reasonable force, if necessary, in the exercise of any power conferred by head (a) or head (b) above<sup>12</sup>.

Before seizing the motor vehicle, the constable must warn the person by whom it appears that the vehicle is or was being driven that he will seize it if the person does not either produce his licence and its counterpart immediately<sup>13</sup>, or provide him immediately with evidence that the vehicle is not or was not being driven without insurance<sup>14</sup>, as the case may be<sup>15</sup>. But the constable is not required to give such a warning if the circumstances make it impracticable for him to do so<sup>16</sup>.

If the constable is unable to seize the vehicle immediately because the person driving the vehicle has failed to stop as requested or has driven off, he may seize it at any time within the period of 24 hours beginning with the time at which the condition in question is first satisfied<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision as to the removal and retention of motor vehicles seized under the above provisions and the release or disposal of such motor vehicle<sup>18</sup>; and the powers conferred on a constable above are exercisable only at a time when such regulations are in force<sup>19</sup>.

17 Ibid s 165A(7) (as added: see note 2 supra).

18 Ibid s 165B(1) (as added: see note 2 supra). Regulations under s 165B(1) (as added) may, in particular, make provision: (1) for the giving of notice of the seizure of a motor vehicle under s 165A (as added) to a person who is the registered keeper, the owner or the driver of that vehicle; (2) for the procedure by which a person who claims to be the registered keeper or the owner of a motor vehicle seized under s 165A (as added) may seek to have it released; (3) for requiring the payment, by the registered keeper, owner or driver of the vehicle, of fees, charges or costs in relation to the removal and retention of such a motor vehicle and to any application for its release; (4) as to the circumstances in which a motor vehicle seized under s 165A (as added) may be disposed of; (5) as to the destination: (a) of any fees or charges payable in accordance with the regulations; (b) of the proceeds (if any) arising from the disposal of a motor vehicle seized under s 165A (as added); (6) for the delivery to a local authority, in circumstances prescribed by or determined in accordance with the regulations, of any motor vehicle seized under s 165A (as added): s 165B(2) (as so added). For these purposes, 'local authority' means, in relation to England, a county council, the council of a district comprised in an area for which there is no county council, a London borough council, the Common Council of the City of London, or Transport for London, and, in relation to Wales, the council of a county or county borough; and 'registered keeper', in relation to a motor vehicle, means the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165B(5) (as so added). The regulations must provide that a person who would otherwise be liable to pay any fee or charge under the regulations is not liable to pay it if he was not driving the motor vehicle at the time in question, and he did not know that the vehicle was being driven at that time, had not consented to its being driven and could not, by the taking of reasonable steps, have prevented it from being driven: s 165B(3) (as so added). The regulations may make different provision for different cases: s 165B(4) (as so added). ### 642-650 Duties of Drivers

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/6. USE OF VEHICLES/(10) DUTIES OF DRIVERS/650. Retention and disposal of seized motor vehicles.

650. Retention and disposal of seized motor vehicles.

A relevant motor vehicle<sup>1</sup> must be passed into and remain in the custody of a constable or other person authorised<sup>2</sup> by the chief officer of the police force for the area in which the vehicle was seized ('the authorised person') until the authorised person permits it to be removed from his custody by a person appearing to him to be the registered keeper<sup>3</sup> or owner<sup>4</sup> of the vehicle, or until it has been disposed of<sup>5</sup>. While the vehicle is in the custody of the authorised person, the authorised person is under a duty to take such steps as are reasonably necessary for its safe-keeping<sup>6</sup>.

A constable, on seizing a vehicle<sup>7</sup>, must give a seizure notice<sup>8</sup> to the driver of the vehicle being seized unless the circumstances make it impracticable for him to do so<sup>9</sup>. The authorised person must, as soon as he is able after a relevant motor vehicle has been taken into his custody, take such steps as are reasonably practicable to give a seizure notice to the person who is the registered keeper and to the owner, where that appears to be someone different, of that vehicle, except where : (1) the authorised person is satisfied that a seizure notice has already been given by a constable to the registered keeper and to the owner, where that appears to be someone different, of the vehicle; or (2) the vehicle has been released from the authorised person's custody<sup>10</sup>.

If, before a relevant motor vehicle is disposed of by an authorised person, a person: (a) satisfies the authorised person that he is the registered keeper<sup>11</sup> or the owner<sup>12</sup> of that vehicle; (b) pays to the authorised person such a charge in respect of its seizure and retention as is payable<sup>13</sup>; and (c) produces at a police station specified in the seizure notice a valid certificate of insurance<sup>14</sup> covering his use of that vehicle and a valid licence<sup>15</sup> authorising him to drive it, the authorised person must permit him to remove the vehicle from his custody<sup>16</sup>.

The authorised person may, in such manner as he thinks fit, dispose of the vehicle at any time if: (i) where the registered keeper and owner of the vehicle appear to be the same person, that person fails to comply with any requirement in a seizure notice given to him, or the authorised person was not able, having taken such steps as were reasonably practicable, to give a seizure notice to that person; or (ii) where the registered keeper and owner appear to be different: (A) where a seizure notice was given to both of those persons, neither the registered keeper nor the owner of the vehicle comply with all requirements in that seizure notice; (B) where the authorised person was only able, having taken such steps as were reasonably practicable, to give a seizure notice to one of those persons, that person failed to comply with any requirement in that seizure notice; or (C) the authorised person was not able, having taken such steps as were reasonably practicable, to give a seizure notice to either the registered keeper or the owner<sup>17</sup>.

1 'Relevant motor vehicle' means a motor vehicle which has been seized and removed under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165A (as added) (see PARA 649 ante): Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 2.

2 Ie authorised under ibid reg 3: see the text to notes 5, 6 infra.

3 'Registered keeper', in relation to a motor vehicle, means the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994: Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 2.

4 'Owner' includes: (1) the person by whom, according to the records maintained by the Secretary of State in connection with any functions exercisable by him by virtue of the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994, the vehicle is kept and used; (2) in relation to a vehicle which is the subject of a hiring agreement or a hire-purchase agreement, the person entitled to possession of the vehicle under the agreement: Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 2.

6 Ibid reg 3(2).

7 Ie under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165A (as added): see PARA 649 ante.

8 As to content and service requirements for seizure notices see the Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 4(3)-(5).

9 Ibid reg 4(1).

10 Ie released under ibid reg 5 (see the text to note 16 infra): reg 4(2).

11 In determining whether he is satisfied that a person who claims to be the registered keeper of a relevant motor vehicle is in fact the relevant keeper, an authorised person must refer to the register maintained by the Secretary of State under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 Pt II (ss 21-28A) (as amended) (see PARAS 519-523, 544 ante): Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, regs 2, 5(4).

12 In determining whether he is satisfied that a person who claims to be the owner of a relevant motor vehicle is in fact the owner, an authorised person must consider such documentary evidence as that person may supply him: ibid reg 5(3).

13 The charge payable is, in respect of the vehicle's seizure, £105; and, in respect of retention, £12 for each period of 24 hours or a part thereof during which vehicle is in the custody of the authorised person: ibid reg 6(1). Each period of 24 hours is calculated from noon on the first day after seizure during which the place at which the vehicle is stored is open for the claiming of vehicles before noon: reg 6(2). A person who would otherwise be liable to pay such a charge is not liable to pay if he was not driving the vehicle at the time it was seized and he did not know that the vehicle was being driven at that time, had not consented to its being driven and could not, by the taking of reasonable steps, have prevented it from being driven: reg 5(5).

14 'Certificate of insurance' is to be construed in accordance with the Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 147(1), 161(2) (see PARA 947 post): Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 2.

15 'Valid licence' means a licence to drive a motor vehicle granted under the Road Traffic Act 1988 Pt III (ss 87-109C) (as amended) (see PARA 442 et seq ante), a Community licence (see PARA 415 note 16 ante), an exchangeable licence (see PARA 445 note 26 ante) or a Northern Ireland driving licence: Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 2.

16 Ibid reg 5(1). Where a person satisfies heads (a) and (b) in the text but cannot satisfy head (c) in the text, and nominates for this purpose a third person who produces a valid certificate of insurance covering that person's use of that vehicle and a valid driving licence authorising that person to drive that vehicle, the authorised person must permit that person to remove the vehicle from his custody: reg 5(2).

17 Ibid reg 7(1). The authorised person may not dispose of the vehicle: (1) during the period of 14 days starting with the date on which the vehicle was seized; (2) if that period has expired, until after the date specified in the seizure notice; or (3) otherwise, during the period of seven working days starting with the date on which the vehicle is claimed under reg 5 (see the text to note 16 supra): reg 7(2). 'Working days' is to be taken to exclude Saturdays, Sundays, Christmas Day, Good Friday and any day which is a bank holiday under the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971 (see TIME vol 97 (2010) PARA 321): Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, reg 2.

As to the application of the net proceeds of a motor vehicle disposed of by means of sale in pursuance of the Road Traffic Act 1988 (Retention and Disposal of Seized Motor Vehicles) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/1606, see reg 8.

7. DRIVER INFORMATION SYSTEMS

651. Meaning of driver information systems.

Driver information is information, including guidance and warnings, of use to the drivers of motor vehicles relating to routes for or the position of their vehicles or traffic conditions; and the term 'route guidance' is to be construed accordingly<sup>1</sup>. However, the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> may by order prescribe descriptions of information which are not to be driver information<sup>3</sup>.

A driver information system is a system for the collection, storage and processing of data<sup>4</sup> from which driver information is derived<sup>5</sup>, or a system for the transmission of data from which driver information is derived, by means of apparatus<sup>6</sup> situated otherwise than in motor vehicles to motor vehicles equipped to receive the transmissions<sup>7</sup>, or a system for both of these<sup>8</sup>. However, data is not collected unless it is collected from motor vehicles whether or not also from other sources<sup>9</sup>. A person operates a driver information system if, otherwise than as an employee, he collects, stores and processes data from which driver information is derived<sup>10</sup>, or transmits such data to motor vehicles<sup>11</sup>. A person operates a driver information system in relation to public roads<sup>12</sup> if he collects data from or, as the case may be, transmits data to, motor vehicles on public roads<sup>13</sup>.

652. Requirement for licence to operate a driver information system.

No person may operate a driver information system<sup>1</sup> in relation to public roads<sup>2</sup> unless he is authorised to do so by a licence granted to him by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>. However, the Secretary of State may, by order, direct that this requirement<sup>4</sup> does not apply to any description of driver information system specified in the order, and the description of a system may be framed by reference to any of its characteristics, its effects or any other circumstances<sup>5</sup>.

Any person who operates<sup>6</sup> a driver information system in contravention of this provision<sup>7</sup> commits an offence<sup>8</sup>.

652 Requirement for licence to operate a driver information system

NOTE 5--See also the Wireless Telegraphy (Vehicle Based Intelligent Transport Systems) (Exemption) Regulations 2009, SI 2009/65, made under the Wireless Telegraphy Act 2006 s 8(3).

653. Operator's licence.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may grant a licence to operate<sup>2</sup> a driver information system<sup>3</sup> in any area in England or Wales, and such a licence is referred to as an 'operator's licence'<sup>4</sup>. More than one operator's licence may be granted for the same area but an operator's licence is not assignable<sup>5</sup>. An operator's licence may authorise the operation of all or only one or more descriptions of driver information system and may authorise the transmission of data<sup>6</sup> from which route guidance is derived to the drivers of motor vehicles of all or only one or more classes, or its collection from motor vehicles of all or only one or more classes<sup>7</sup>.

An operator's licence must be in writing and must specify<sup>8</sup> the scope of the authority given and the area within which the licence holder may operate<sup>9</sup>.

An operator's licence remains, unless revoked, suspended or surrendered, in force for the period specified in the licence<sup>10</sup>. An operator's licence is granted on such terms and subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State considers appropriate and he may<sup>11</sup>: (1) with the consent of the licence holder, attach new conditions or vary any of the terms or conditions<sup>12</sup>; or (2) without the consent of the licence holder, attach new conditions designed to prevent danger to the public or vary any such condition<sup>13</sup>. An operator's licence may include a term requiring the rendering to the Secretary of State of a payment on the grant of the licence, or payments during the currency of the licence, or both, of such amount or amounts as may be determined by or under the licence<sup>14</sup>. The conditions subject to which an operator's licence is granted may include, in particular<sup>15</sup>:

- 1274 (a) specifying the classes or descriptions of public road<sup>16</sup> or any particular public road in, upon, under, over, along or across which system apparatus<sup>17</sup> may or may not be installed<sup>18</sup>;
- 1275 (b) specifying the classes or descriptions of public road or any particular public road which may or may not be included in route guidance<sup>19</sup> to drivers or to the drivers of specified classes of motor vehicles, or specifying the circumstances in which the roads or road may be included or excluded<sup>20</sup>;
- 1276 (c) specifying the classes of motor vehicles to whose drivers route guidance may or may not be given or the circumstances in which it may or may not be given to such drivers<sup>21</sup>;
- 1277 (d) regulating the size, shape or other characteristics of system apparatus<sup>22</sup>;
- 1278 (e) regulating the charges that may be made by the licence holder to drivers or other persons for receiving data transmitted by a driver information system<sup>23</sup>;
- 1279 (f) requiring the licence holder to furnish to the Secretary of State such information relating to motor vehicles or traffic conditions derived from data which is or has been stored in the driver information system by the licence holder as the Secretary of State requires and authorising the Secretary of State to make such use, including the sale, of the information as he thinks fit<sup>24</sup>;
- 1280 (g) requiring the licence holder to keep such records relating to the operation of the system as the Secretary of State specifies and to permit persons authorised by the Secretary of State to inspect the records and make copies or extracts from them<sup>25</sup>;
- 1281 (h) authorising the Secretary of State to disclose the roads permitted to be included in route guidance under the licence to persons appearing to him to be affected<sup>26</sup>;
- 1282 (i) requiring the licence holder to disclose the roads included in route guidance under the licence to persons requesting the information on payment (if required) of a charge not exceeding such amount as may be specified in the licence<sup>27</sup>.

654. Sanctions for operating outside licence area or for breach of licence conditions.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may at any time revoke or suspend an operator's licence<sup>2</sup> on the ground that<sup>3</sup> the licence holder's operations have extended beyond the area in which the licence authorised him to operate<sup>4</sup>, or there has been a breach of any condition of the licence<sup>5</sup>.

However, the Secretary of State must not revoke or suspend a licence for breach of a condition unless he is satisfied<sup>6</sup> that owing to: (1) the frequency of the breach of conditions<sup>7</sup>; (2) the intentional nature of the breach<sup>8</sup>; or (3) the danger to the public involved in the breach<sup>9</sup>, the licence should be revoked or suspended<sup>10</sup>. Where the Secretary of State revokes a licence he may, if it appears to him to be expedient to do so, direct that the revocation is a provisional revocation which will not take effect until a future date<sup>11</sup>. Where the Secretary of State gives such a direction he may either make final the revocation or withdraw it<sup>12</sup>. An operator's licence suspended under these provisions is of no effect during the time of suspension<sup>13</sup>.

If a condition attached to an operator's licence is broken, the holder of the licence commits an offence<sup>14</sup>. It is a defence for a person charged with such an offence to prove that he took all reasonable precautions and exercised all due diligence to avoid a breach of that condition<sup>15</sup>.

655. Power to install apparatus etc.

The holder of an operator's licence<sup>1</sup> has power to do all or any of the following<sup>2</sup>:

- 1283 (1) install system apparatus<sup>3</sup> in, upon, under, over, along or across a public road<sup>4</sup>;
- 1284 (2) inspect, maintain, adjust, repair, alter, renew or remove any system apparatus so installed<sup>5</sup>; and
- 1285 (3) execute any works requisite for or incidental to the purposes of any works falling within head (1) or head (2) above, including for those purposes breaking up or opening a public road, tunnelling or boring under a public road and breaking up or opening a sewer, drain or tunnel<sup>6</sup>.

The powers so conferred<sup>7</sup> are not exercisable by fixing system apparatus to a traffic sign<sup>8</sup>. The powers conferred are not exercisable<sup>9</sup>:

- 1286 (a) by fixing system apparatus to a structure or attachment to a structure belonging to another person or authority<sup>10</sup>; or
- 1287 (b) by making use, for the purpose of installing system apparatus, of an existing cable, duct or installation of any description (whether under ground or not) belonging to another person or authority<sup>11</sup>, without the written consent of that other person or authority<sup>12</sup>. A local authority<sup>13</sup> has power to give its consent upon such terms, including such terms as to payment, as it thinks appropriate<sup>14</sup>. The powers conferred are to be so exercised as to comply with any regulations made by the Secretary of State relating to the situation or manner of installation of system apparatus of any description<sup>15</sup>.

Subject to any terms or conditions of the licence<sup>16</sup>, the licence holder, if so required by the highway authority<sup>17</sup>: (i) must remove any system apparatus which at the expiry of the licence remains in any land, whether or not vested in the authority, comprised in or lying under a public road, and must restore the land to its condition before the system apparatus was installed there<sup>18</sup>; or (ii) must reimburse the authority the expenses incurred in doing so<sup>19</sup>.

Provision is also made for the application of certain Acts to licence holders<sup>20</sup>, and, in relation to undertakers' works, for notice of proposed works<sup>21</sup>, counter notices<sup>22</sup>, the execution of works<sup>23</sup> and penalties<sup>24</sup>.

(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES

(i) Motor Vehicles

A. REQUIREMENT FOR TEST CERTIFICATE

657. Prohibition of use of vehicles without test certificates.

A person who uses on a road<sup>1</sup> at any time, or causes or permits to be so used, a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> to which these provisions apply<sup>3</sup>, and as respects which no test certificate<sup>4</sup> has been issued within the appropriate period<sup>5</sup> before that time, is guilty of an offence<sup>6</sup>. This provision does not apply to vehicles of such classes<sup>7</sup> as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>. The Secretary of State may by regulations exempt<sup>9</sup> the use of vehicles for such purposes as may be prescribed<sup>10</sup>, and in any such area as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>.

A test certificate issued in respect of a vehicle within the period of one month ending immediately before the date on which the above provisions first apply to the vehicle must be treated for those purposes as if issued at the end of that period<sup>12</sup>. Where within the appropriate period after a test certificate is issued or treated for those purposes as issued, but not earlier than one month before the end of that period, a further test certificate is issued as respects the same vehicle, the further certificate must be treated for those purposes as if issued at the end of the appropriate period<sup>13</sup>. Where the particulars contained in a test certificate in accordance with regulations<sup>14</sup> include a date of expiry falling later, but not more than one month later, than the end of the appropriate period after the date on which it is issued, the certificate is deemed to have been issued in respect of the same vehicle as an earlier test certificate, and the date on which it was issued is deemed to have been a date falling within the last month of the appropriate period after the date on which that earlier certificate was issued or treated for those purposes as issued; and any date of expiry contained in a test certificate is deemed to have been entered in accordance with the specified regulations unless the contrary is proved<sup>15</sup>.

The motor vehicles to which these provisions apply<sup>16</sup> at any time are: (1) those first registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>17</sup> or any corresponding earlier legislation, not less than three years<sup>18</sup> before that time<sup>19</sup>; and (2) those which, having a date of manufacture<sup>20</sup> not less than three years before that time, have been used on roads (whether in Great Britain<sup>21</sup> or elsewhere) before being so registered<sup>22</sup>, being, in either case, motor vehicles other than goods vehicles which are required by regulations<sup>23</sup> to be submitted for a goods vehicle test<sup>24</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 See the text and notes 16-23 infra.

4 For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 post.

5 In the Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 47, 48 (as amended), the 'appropriate period' means a period of 12 months or such shorter period as may be prescribed: s 47(1). For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 660 note 5 post.

6 Ibid s 47(1). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding: (1) level 4 on the standard scale, in the case of a vehicle adapted to carry more than eight passengers; and (2) level 3 on the standard scale, in any other case: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47 (as amended) is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3 (entry added by the Fixed Penalty Offences Order 2003, SI 2003/1253, art 2(3)(a)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post; as to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. The Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 11 (as amended) (evidence by certificate as to driver, user or owner), s 12(1) (proof, in summary proceedings, of identity of driver of vehicle) (see PARAS 1035-1036 post) apply to this offence: s 1(4), Sch 1. 15 Ibid s 48(3). The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the issue, in such circumstances as may be prescribed, of a certificate of temporary exemption in respect of a public service vehicle adapted to carry more than eight passengers, exempting that vehicle from the provisions of s 47(1) for such period as may be specified in the certificate: s 48(4). For the meaning of 'public service vehicle' see PARA 1136 post; definition applied by s 85 (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4). In relation to any public service vehicle so adapted the provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 48(1A), (2), (3) (s 48(1A) as added) have effect as if for 'one month' (in each place) there were substituted 'two months' (s 48(5)(a) (amended by the Deregulation (Motor Vehicles Tests) Order 1996, SI 1996/1700, art 2(3))); and the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 48(3) has effect as if for 'last month' there were substituted 'last two months' (s 48(5)(b)).

16 Ie subject to ibid s 47(3), (5).

17 See CUSTOMS AND EXCISE vol 12(3) (2007 Reissue) PARA 717 et seq.

18 The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument direct that the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47(2) is to have effect with the substitution for three years (in both places) of such other period (not being more than ten years) as may be specified in the order: s 47(9). An order under s 47(9) does not have effect unless approved by resolution of each House of Parliament: s 47(9). At the date at which this volume states the law no such order had been made.

For the purpose of spreading the work of issuing certificates in contemplation of a change in the length of the appropriate period, or the length of the period specified in s 47(2)(a), (b) (and whether for the purposes of s 47 or s 66 (see PARA 675 post), the order or, as the case may be, regulations changing the length of that period may be made so as to come into operation on different days as respects vehicles first registered under any of the enactments mentioned in s 47(2) at different times: s 48(1).

19 Ibid s 47(2)(a) (s 47(2) amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 24(2)). As respects a vehicle being:

1289 (2) a taxi (as defined in the Transport Act 1980 s 64(3) (as amended) (see PARA 1473 note 1 post)), being a vehicle licensed to ply for hire; or

1290 (3) an ambulance, that is to say, a motor vehicle which is constructed or adapted, and primarily used, for the carriage of persons to a place where they will receive, or from a place where they have received, medical or dental treatment, and which, by reason of design, marking or equipment is readily identifiable as a vehicle so constructed or adapted, head (1) in the text has effect as if for the period of three years there were substituted a period of one year: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47(3). For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

20 For the purposes of ibid s 47 (as amended) the date of manufacture of a vehicle must be taken to be the last day of the year during which its final assembly is completed, except where after that day modifications are made to the vehicle before it is sold or supplied by retail, and in that excepted case must be taken to be the last day of the year during which the modifications are completed: s 47(8).

21 For the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 205 note 3 ante.

22 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47(2)(b) (as amended: see note 19 supra). For the purposes of head (2) in the text there must be disregarded the use of a vehicle before it is sold or supplied by retail (s 47(4)(a) (s 47(4) substituted by the Finance Act 1994 s 5, Sch 2 paras 25, 29)), and the use of a vehicle to which a motor dealer has assigned a mark under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 24 (see PARA 564 ante) before it is registered by the Secretary of State under s 21(2) (as amended) (see PARA 519 ante) (Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47(4)(b) (as so substituted; and amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 24(2))).

- 165 (12) a vehicle provided for police purposes<sup>14</sup>;
- 166 (13) a vehicle provided for the purposes of the Serious Organised Crime Agency<sup>15</sup>;
- 167 (14) any of certain vehicles imported into Great Britain for military purposes<sup>16</sup>;
- 168 (15) a vehicle currently licensed or tested in Northern Ireland<sup>17</sup>;
- 169 (16) an electrically propelled goods vehicle the design gross weight of which does not exceed 3,500 kilograms<sup>18</sup>;
- 170 (17) any of certain hackney carriages or cabs<sup>19</sup>;
- 171 (18) a private hire car<sup>20</sup> licensed by a local authority<sup>21</sup>;
- 172 (19) an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>22</sup>;
- 173 (20) certain street cleaning and refuse collection vehicles<sup>23</sup>;
- 174 (21) a goods vehicle the design gross weight of which does not exceed 3,500 kilograms in respect of which a goods vehicle test certificate was issued between 1 February 1990 and 17 March 1991, while that certificate is valid<sup>24</sup>;
- 175 (22) a tramcar<sup>25</sup>; and
- 176 (23) a trolley vehicle which is not an auxiliary trolley vehicle<sup>26</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>27</sup> may by regulations provide for the issue in prescribed circumstances of a certificate of temporary exemption in respect of a public service vehicle<sup>28</sup> adapted to carry more than eight passengers, exempting the vehicle from this prohibition for a specified period<sup>29</sup>.

1     le the prohibition contained in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47 (as amended): see PARA 657 ante. For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante. For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 post.

2     Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(i)-(iii). For the meanings of 'heavy locomotive', 'light locomotive' and 'motor tractor' see PARAS 216-217 ante.

3     Ibid reg 6(1)(iv). For the meaning of 'track laying' see PARA 267 note 3 ante; definition applied by reg 3(1) (amended by SI 1998/1672).

4     Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(v) (amended by SI 1991/253). For these purposes, 'goods vehicle' means a motor vehicle constructed or adapted for use for the carriage of goods or burden of any description including a living van but excluding a dual-purpose vehicle (as defined in PARA 271 note 28 ante), a motor caravan and a play bus: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition amended by SI 1983/1434). 'Living van' means a vehicle (whether mechanically propelled or not) used as living accommodation by one or more persons and also used for the carriage of goods or burden not needed by those persons for their residence in the vehicle; 'motor caravan' means a motor vehicle (not being a living van) constructed or adapted for the carriage of passengers and their effects and containing, as permanently installed equipment, the facilities reasonably necessary to enable the vehicle to provide mobile living accommodation for its users; and 'play bus' means a motor vehicle which was originally constructed to carry more than 12 passengers but which has been adapted primarily for the carriage of playthings for children (including articles required in connection with the use of those things): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (amended by SI 1982/1477).

'Design gross weight' means: (1) in the case of a vehicle equipped with a Ministry plate, the weight shown thereon as the design weight, or, if no weight is so shown thereon, the weight shown thereon as the weight not to be exceeded in Great Britain; (2) in the case of a vehicle which is not equipped with a Ministry plate, but which is equipped with a plate in accordance with the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 66 (as amended) (see PARA 364 ante), the maximum gross weight shown on the plate in respect of Sch 8 Pt I item 7; and (3) in any other case, the weight which the vehicle is designed or adapted not to exceed when in normal use and travelling on a road laden: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 1991/253). For the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 205 note 3 ante.

5 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(vi). For the meanings of 'articulated vehicle' and 'articulated bus' see PARA 271 note 6 ante; definitions applied by reg 3(1) (amended by SI 1998/1672).

6 See the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(vii) (substituted by SI 1995/1457).

10 Ibid reg 6(1)(x)(ii).

11 Ibid reg 6(1)(xi), which refers to a vehicle, temporarily in Great Britain, displaying a registration mark mentioned in what is now the Motor Vehicles (International Circulation) Regulations 1985, SI 1985/610, reg 5 (see PARA 578 ante), a period of 12 months not having elapsed since the vehicle was last brought into Great Britain.

12 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xii).

13 Ibid reg 6(1)(xiii). For the meaning of 'vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters' see PARA 268 note 11 ante; definition applied by reg 6(1)(xiii).

14 Ibid reg 6(1)(xiv). Such a vehicle must be maintained in a workshop approved by the Secretary of State, and be a vehicle provided by a police authority or the Receiver for the Metropolitan Police District: reg 6(1)(xiv). As to police authorities generally see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 139 et seq.

15 Ibid reg 6(1)(xivA) (added by SI 2006/594). As to the Serious Organised Crime Agency see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 430 et seq.

16 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xv), which refers to vehicles to which what is now the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47(2)(b) (see PARA 657 ante) applies, which are owned by or in the service of the naval, military or air forces of Her Majesty raised in the United Kingdom and used for naval, military or air force purposes.

18 Ibid reg 6(1)(xvii) (amended by SI 1991/253).

19 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xviii), which is expressed to be subject to reg 6(4) (see note 21 infra), and which refers to a hackney carriage or cab in respect of which there is in force a licence to ply for hire under the Metropolitan Public Carriage Act 1869 or the Town Police Clauses Act 1847 or any similar local statutory provision.

20 'Private hire car' means a motor vehicle which is not a vehicle licensed to ply for hire under the statutory or local statutory provisions applicable to hackney carriages (see note 18 supra) but which is kept for the purpose of being let out for hire with a driver for the carrying of passengers in such circumstance that it does not require to be licensed to ply for hire under those provisions: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(5).

21 Ibid reg 6(1)(xix) (amended by SI 2003/1113). These exemptions for hackney carriages and private hire cars do not obtain unless: (1) the authority which issued the licence ('the licensing authority') holds a certificate issued by the Secretary of State evidencing that he is satisfied that the issue of the licence is subject to the vehicle first passing an annual test relating to the prescribed statutory requirements (defined in PARA 660 post); and (2) where a hackney carriage or cab was first used more than one year before the licence was issued or a private hire car was first used more than three years before the licence was issued, the licensing authority also issued to the licensee a certificate recording that on the date on which the certificate was issued that authority was, as a result of a test, satisfied that the prescribed statutory requirements were satisfied: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(4) (amended by SI 2003/1113). 'Test' means an examination of a vehicle in relation to the prescribed statutory requirements conducted by a person appointed to act as an inspector under what is now the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45 (see PARA 660 post), or acting on behalf of a person so authorised, or by a person on behalf of a police authority: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(5) (definition amended by SI 1983/1434).

22 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xx) (added by SI 1985/45). For the meaning of 'agricultural motor vehicle' see PARA 271 note 28 ante; definition applied by reg 3(1) (amended by SI 1985/45; SI 1998/1672).

23 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xxi) (added by SI 1991/253), which refers to a motor vehicle constructed and not merely adapted for the purpose of street cleansing or the collection or disposal of refuse or the collection or disposal of the contents of gullies and which is either: (1) a three-wheeled vehicle; or (2) a vehicle which: (a) is incapable by reason of its construction of exceeding a speed of 20 mph on the level under its own power; or (b) has an inside track width of less than 810 mm.

24 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xxii) (added by SI 1991/253).

25 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 6(1)(xxiv) (added by SI 1992/1217). ### 659. Exemption from vehicle tests for certain purposes or in certain areas.

The prohibition on using or causing or permitting the use on a road of certain motor vehicles in respect of which no test certificate is in force<sup>1</sup> does not apply to the use of a vehicle:

- 177 (1) for the purpose of submitting it by previous arrangement for, or bringing it away from, an examination<sup>2</sup>;
- 178 (2) in the course of an examination, for the purpose of taking it to, or bringing it away from, any place where part of the examination is to be or has been carried out, or of carrying out any part of the examination, where the person using it is either an examiner<sup>3</sup>, a ministry inspector<sup>4</sup> or an inspector appointed by a designated council<sup>5</sup>, or is a person acting under the personal direction of such an examiner, inspector or council<sup>6</sup>;
- 179 (3) where a test certificate is refused on an examination, for the purpose of delivering it by previous arrangement at, or bringing it away from, a place where work is to be or has been done on it to remedy the defects<sup>7</sup> or for the purpose of delivering it, by towing it, to a place where it is to be broken up<sup>8</sup>;
- 180 (4) for any purpose for which the vehicle is authorised to be used on roads by an order<sup>9</sup> in respect of a special vehicle not complying with construction and use regulations<sup>10</sup>;
- 181 (5) where the vehicle has been imported into Great Britain, for the purpose of driving it from its point of arrival to a place of residence of the owner or driver<sup>11</sup>;
- 182 (6) where the vehicle has been abandoned or illegally, obstructively or dangerously parked<sup>12</sup>;
- 183 (7) where the vehicle has been detained or seized by a police constable, for police purposes connected with the detention or seizure<sup>13</sup>;
- 184 (8) where the vehicle has been removed, detained, seized or condemned as forfeited under customs and excise legislation, for any purpose authorised by an officer of revenue and customs<sup>14</sup>;
- 185 (9) for the purpose of testing the vehicle by a motor trader<sup>15</sup> to whom a trade licence<sup>16</sup> has been issued, during the course of or after completion of repairs carried out to it by him<sup>17</sup>;
- 186 (10) on any island in any area mainly surrounded by water, being an island or area from which motor vehicles cannot conveniently be driven to a road in any other part of Great Britain because there is no bridge, tunnel, ford or other way suitable for the passage of the vehicle<sup>18</sup>;
- 187 (11) where, in relation to a public service vehicle, in cases of accident, fire, epidemic, severe weather, failure in the supply of essential services or other unexpected happening, a certificate of temporary exemption has been granted<sup>19</sup>.

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/660. Tests of satisfactory condition of vehicles.

B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE

660. Tests of satisfactory condition of vehicles.

The following provisions apply to motor vehicles<sup>1</sup> other than goods vehicles<sup>2</sup> which are required by regulations<sup>3</sup> to be submitted for a vehicle test and have effect for the purpose of ascertaining whether the following requirements are complied with<sup>4</sup>, namely, the prescribed<sup>5</sup> statutory requirements<sup>6</sup> relating to the construction and condition of motor vehicles or their accessories or equipment<sup>7</sup> and the requirement that the condition of motor vehicles should not be such that their use on a road<sup>8</sup> would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>9</sup>. The Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for the examination of vehicles submitted for examination under this provision<sup>10</sup>, and for the issue, where it is found on such an examination that the requirements mentioned above are complied with, of a test certificate that at the date of the examination the requirements were complied with in relation to the vehicle<sup>11</sup>. Examinations for these purposes must be carried out by:

- 188 (1) persons, not being officers of the Secretary of State, authorised for those purposes by the Secretary of State ('authorised examiners')<sup>12</sup>;
- 189 (2) nominated testers<sup>13</sup>;
- 190 (3) as from a day to be appointed, any authorised inspector or approved assistant<sup>14</sup>;
- 191 (4) vehicle examiners<sup>15</sup>; or
- 192 (5) inspectors appointed by any council designated for these purposes<sup>16</sup>, being the council of a county, district or London borough or the Common Council of the City of London, and approved by the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>.

Where a test certificate is refused, the person carrying out the examination must issue a notification of the refusal stating the grounds of the refusal, and a person aggrieved by the refusal or the grounds of the refusal may appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>18</sup>. On any such appeal the Secretary of State must cause a further examination to be made and either issue a test certificate or issue a notification of the refusal stating the grounds of the refusal<sup>19</sup>. For the purposes of their functions under these provisions the Secretary of State or a council designated for these purposes may provide and maintain stations where such examinations may be carried out, and apparatus for carrying out such examinations<sup>20</sup>.

The Secretary of State may provide, or make arrangements for the provision of, courses of instruction in connection with the carrying out of examinations under these provisions, and may charge prescribed fees in respect of attendance on such courses<sup>21</sup>. The Secretary of State must maintain, or cause to be maintained, records containing such particulars as he thinks fit of vehicles submitted for examination under these provisions, and the carrying out of and the results of the examinations<sup>22</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

4 Ibid s 45(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 52(2)).

5 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85. As from a day to be appointed, this provision is renumbered as s 85(1) by virtue of the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

6 In its application to vehicles in which recording equipment is required by the Community Recording Equipment Regulation art 3 to be installed and used, the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45 (as amended) has effect as if any reference to prescribed statutory requirements relating to the construction and condition of motor vehicles or their accessories or equipment included a reference to the prescribed requirements of so much of the Community Recording Equipment Regulation as relates to the installation of recording equipment and the seals to be fixed to such equipment: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(8). 'The Community Recording Equipment Regulation' means EC Council Regulation 3821/85 (OJ L370, 31.12.85, p 8) on recording equipment in road transport (as amended) as it has effect in accordance with EEC Commission Regulation 3314/90 (OJ L318, 17.11.90, p 20); EEC Commission Regulation 3688/92 (OJ L374, 22.12.92, p 12); EC Commission Regulation 2479/95 (OJ L256, 26.10.95, p 8); EC Commission Regulation 1056/97 (OJ L154, 12.6.1997, p 21); EC Council Regulation 2135/98 (OJ L274, 9.10.1998, p 1); EC Commission Regulation 1360/2002 (OJ L207, 5.8.2002, p 1); the Act concerning the conditions of accession of the Czech Republic, the Republic of Estonia, the Republic of Cyprus, the Republic of Latvia, the Republic of Lithuania, the Republic of Hungary, the Republic of Malta, the Republic of Poland, the Republic of Slovenia and the Slovak Republic and the adjustments to the Treaties on which the European Union is founded (OJ L236, 23.9.2003, p 33); European Parliament and Council Regulation 1882/2003 (OJ L284, 31.10.2003, p 1); EC Commission Regulation 432/2004 (OJ L71, 10.3.2004, p 3); and European Parliament and Council Regulation 561/2006 (OJ L102, 11.4.2006, p 1) (see PARAS 1384-1387 post); Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (definition substituted by the Passenger and Goods Vehicles (Community Recording Equipment Regulation) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/3276, reg 2(1), (2)(d)).

The prescribed statutory requirements are those specified in relation to the various classes of vehicle to which the regulations apply (see PARA 661 post), set out in the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 4, Sch 2 (reg 4 amended by SI 1991/253; SI 1991/2229; SI 1998/1672; and the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, Sch 2 substituted by SI 1991/2229; and amended by SI 1992/3160; SI 1998/1672; SI 2002/488; SI 2003/1698; SI 2007/506).

8 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(1)(b) (as amended: see note 4 supra).

10 Ibid s 45(2)(a). As to the contents of such regulations see PARA 662 post.

11 Ibid s 45(2)(b). As to the forgery of test certificates see s 173 (as amended); and PARA 1012 post. If a person issues a test certificate which is to his knowledge false in a material particular he is guilty of an offence: s 175. As from a day to be appointed, this provision is substituted, and renumbered as s 175(1), by the Transport Act 1982 s 24(1), but without affecting the nature of this offence. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry prospectively amended by Transport Act 1982 s 24(3)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

12 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(3)(a). As to the authorisation procedure of examiners see PARA 663 post. Any person who, with intent to deceive, falsely represents himself to be a person entitled under s 45 (as amended) to carry out examinations of vehicles under that provision is guilty of an offence: s 177 (substituted by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 9(2)). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I.

13 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(3)(za) (added by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 1(1)(a)). 'Nominated tester' means an individual nominated by and acting under the supervision of an authorised examiner, and approved by the Secretary of State: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(3)(za) (as so added).

14 Ibid s 45(3)(aa). This provision is added, as from a day to be appointed, by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(2) (a) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I para 4); and amended by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 7, Schedule para 2(a). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. References in any provision of the Road Traffic Act 1988 Pt II (ss 40A-86) (as amended) to an authorised inspector are references to a person authorised by the Secretary of State under the Transport Act 1982 s 8 (as amended) (see PARA 699 post) to exercise the function to which that provision relates: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85(2). This provision is added, as from a day to be appointed, by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

16 le including for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 662 post).

17 Ibid s 45(3)(c) (substituted by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 1(1)(b)). As to applications for designation see PARA 663 post. See further PARA 246 ante; and LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 1 et seq; LONDON GOVERNMENT.

19 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(5). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 21(1) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I para 10) so as to add a requirement that the further examination be made by an officer of the Secretary of State appointed by him for the purpose. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

20 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6).

As from a day to be appointed, and without prejudice to any existing power of the Secretary of State to determine the premises at which examinations may be carried out, the Secretary of State may designate premises as stations where examinations of vehicles of any description subject to examination may be carried out; regulations under s 45 (as amended) may require or authorise examinations of vehicles of any description specified in the regulations to be carried out at premises for the time being so designated: Transport Act 1982 s 10(12) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I para 4). As to the requirement for the Secretary of State to consult before taking decisions relating to the designation of testing stations under the Transport Act 1982 see s 15(1), (2)(f), (5). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

21 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6A) (s 45(6A), (6B) added by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 1(3)). Any sum received by the Secretary of State in pursuance of this provision must be paid into the Consolidated Fund: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 84(4). As to the Consolidated Fund see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 711 et seq; PARLIAMENT vol 78 (2010) PARA 1028 et seq.

Classification of vehicles for purposes of vehicle testing.

661. Classification of vehicles for purposes of vehicle testing.

For the purposes of examinations<sup>1</sup>, vehicles are divided into the following classes<sup>2</sup>:

- 193 (1) Class I: light motor bicycles<sup>3</sup>;
- 194 (2) Class II: motor bicycles<sup>4</sup>;
- 195 (3) Class III: light motor vehicles<sup>5</sup> other than motor bicycles<sup>6</sup>;
- 196 (4) Class IV: motor cars and heavy motor cars<sup>7</sup> not being vehicles falling within Classes III, IVA, V, VA, VI, VIA or VII<sup>8</sup>;
- 197 (5) Class IVA: minibuses<sup>9</sup>, not being vehicles within Classes III, V, VA, VI or VIA, in respect of which any forward-facing seat is fitted with a relevant seat belt<sup>10</sup>;
- 198 (6) Class V: motor vehicles not being vehicles within Class VA which are: (a) large passenger-carrying vehicles<sup>11</sup>; (b) public service vehicles of a specified type<sup>12</sup> which are constructed or adapted to carry more than 12 seated passengers; and (c) play buses<sup>13</sup>;
- 199 (7) Class VA: other motor vehicles<sup>14</sup> which are: (a) large passenger-carrying vehicles; (b) public service vehicles of a specified type<sup>15</sup> which are constructed or adapted to carry more than 12 seated passengers; and (c) play buses, in respect of which any forward-facing seat is fitted with a relevant seat belt<sup>16</sup>;
- 200 (8) Class VI: public service vehicles, other than those of a specified type<sup>17</sup>, not being vehicles within Class VIA<sup>18</sup>;
- 201 (9) Class VIA: other public service vehicles<sup>19</sup>, other than those of a specified type<sup>20</sup>, in respect of which any forward-facing seat<sup>21</sup> is fitted with a relevant seat belt<sup>22</sup>;
- 202 (10) Class VII: goods vehicles of which the design gross weight<sup>23</sup> is more than 3,000 kilograms but does not exceed 3,500 kilograms<sup>24</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'examination' see PARA 659 note 2 ante.

2 The classes are set out in the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(1) (as amended). Save as excepted by reg 6 (as amended) (see PARAS 658-659 ante), the regulations apply to every vehicle falling within these classes: reg 5(2).

3 Ibid reg 5(1). 'Light motor bicycle' means a motor bicycle of which the engine cylinder capacity does not exceed 200 cc; and 'motor bicycle' means a two-wheeled motor cycle (see PARA 639 note 5 ante), whether with or without a sidecar: reg 3(1).

4 Ibid reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1982/814).

5 'Light motor vehicle' means a motor vehicle with three wheels the unladen weight of which does not exceed 450 kg: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition amended by SI 1991/1525).

6 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1982/814).

7 For the meaning of 'motor car' see PARA 212 ante; and for the meaning of 'heavy motor car' see PARA 213 ante.

8 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1998/1672).

9 In minibuses other than vehicles to which the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(4) (as amended) applies. For the meaning of 'minibus' see PARA 317 note 2 ante; definition applied by reg 3(1) (amended by SI 1998/1672).

The Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(4) applies to vehicles, in respect of which: (1) a certificate of initial fitness has been issued on or after 1 August 1998; or (2) one or more forward-facing seats are fitted with a relevant seat belt, which, when so equipped, are of a type of vehicle in respect of which the Secretary of State is satisfied that the vehicle manufacturer holds: (a) an approval issued by or on behalf of the approval authority of an EEA state confirming compliance with the installation requirements of Community Directives 77/541 (OJ L220, 29.8.77, p 95), 82/319 (OJ L139, 19.5.82, p 17), 90/628 (OJ L341, 6.12.90, p 1) or 96/36 (OJ L178, 17.7.96, p 15); and (b) either: (i) an approval issued by or on behalf of the approval authority of an EEA state confirming compliance with the technical and installation requirements of Community Directives 76/115 (OJ L024, 30.1.76, p 6), 81/575 (OJ L209, 29.7.81, p 30), 82/318 (OJ L139, 19.5.82, p 9), 90/629 (OJ L341, 6.12.90, p 14) or 96/38 (OJ L187, 26.7.96, p 95); or (ii) an approval issued by or on behalf of the competent authority of a contracting state confirming compliance with the technical and installation requirements of ECE Regulation 14, 14.02 or 14.03: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(4) (added by SI 1998/1672). 'Approval authority' has the same meaning as in Community Directive 70/156 (OJ L42, 23.2.70, p 1); 'contracting state' means a state which is a party to the International Agreement; 'the International Agreement' means the Agreement concerning the adoption of uniform conditions of approval for motor vehicle equipment and parts and reciprocal recognition thereof concluded at Geneva on 20 March 1958 (Geneva, 20 March 1958; TS7 (1965); Cmnd 2535) (as amended) to which the United Kingdom is a party; 'EEA state' means a state which is a contracting party to the EEA Agreement; 'EEA Agreement' means the Agreement on the European Economic Area signed at Oporto on 2 May 1992 (Oporto, 2 May 1992; EC 7 (1992); Cm 2073) as adjusted by the Protocol signed at Brussels on 17 March 1993 (Brussels, 17 March 1993; EC 2 (1993); Cmnd 2183): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(5) (added by SI 1998/1672). As to the meaning of 'the ECE Regulation' see PARA 270 note 2 ante; and as to the meaning of 'Community Directive' see PARA 270 note 1 ante. For the meaning of 'certificate of initial fitness' see PARA 1141 post; definition applied by the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(5) (as so added). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

10 Ibid reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1998/1672). 'Relevant seat belt' means a seat belt, not being a disabled person's belt or a child restraint, which: (1) is fitted other than as required by the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47 (as amended) (see PARA 335 ante); and (2) on or after 1 August 1998 either: (a) has not undergone an examination and been found to comply with the applicable prescribed statutory requirements; or (b) has undergone an examination and been found so to comply but is fitted in a vehicle in respect of which no test certificate has been issued to the effect that that is the case: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(5) (as added: see note 9 supra). 'Seat belt', 'child restraint' and 'disabled person's belt' have the meanings assigned by the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(8) (see PARAS 627 notes 6, 8, 628 note 20 ante): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (amended by SI 1998/1672). For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 ante.

11 'Large passenger-carrying vehicle' means a motor vehicle which is constructed or adapted to carry more than 12 seated passengers in addition to the driver and which is not a public service vehicle: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1). For the meaning of 'public service vehicle' see PARA 1136 post; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4).

12 The public service vehicles so specified are public service vehicles which may lawfully be used on a road in the absence of a certificate of initial fitness by virtue of: (1) the Transport Act 1985 s 23(7) (as amended) (bus being used to provide a community bus service) (see PARA 1186 post); (2) the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 s 46 (as amended) (school bus belonging to a local education authority and being used to provide free school transport and carrying as fare-paying passengers persons other than those for whom the free school transport is provided, and a school bus being used, when it is not being used to provide free school transport, to provide a local bus service) (see PARA 1176 post); or (3) the Transport Act 1985 s 21(2) (small bus used under a permit granted under s 19) (see PARA 1183 post): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(3) (amended by SI 1984/1162; SI 1988/1894; SI 1998/1672).

13 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1998/1672). For the meaning of 'play bus' see PARA 658 note 4 ante.

14 In other than vehicles to which the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(4) (as added) applies: see note 9 supra.

- 15 le specified in ibid reg 5(3) (as amended): see note 12 supra.
- 16 Ibid reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1998/1672).
- 17 le specified in the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(3) (as amended): see note 12 supra.
- 18 Ibid reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1998/1672).
- 19 le other than vehicles to which the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(4) (as added) applies: see note 9 supra.
- 20 le specified in ibid reg 5(3) (as amended): see note 12 supra.
- 21 'Forward-facing seat' has the meaning assigned by the Road Vehicles (Construction and Use) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1078, reg 47(8) (see PARAS 627 notes 6, 8, 628 note 20 ante): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition amended by SI 1998/1672).
- 22 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 5(1) (entry substituted by SI 1998/1672).
- 23 For the meaning of 'design gross weight' see PARA 658 note 4 ante.

661 Classification of vehicles for purposes of vehicle testing

NOTE 9--Directives 76/115, 77/541 replaced with effect from 1 November 2014: European Parliament and EC Council Regulation 661/2009 (OJ L200, 31.7.2009, p 1).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/662. Content of regulations as to vehicle testing.

662. Content of regulations as to vehicle testing.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the statutory provisions as to vehicle testing<sup>2</sup>, and for prescribing anything authorised by those provisions<sup>3</sup> to be prescribed<sup>4</sup>.

Such regulations may in particular make provision as to:

- 203 (1) the authorisation of examiners, the nomination and approval of nominated testers, the appointment and approval of inspectors and the designation of councils<sup>5</sup>;
- 204 (2) the imposition of conditions to be complied with by the persons referred to in head (1) above<sup>6</sup>;
- 205 (3) the circumstances in which a person ceases to be an authorised examiner, a nominated tester or an inspector or in which a council ceases to be designated<sup>7</sup>;
- 206 (4) the manner in which, conditions under which and apparatus with which examinations are carried out, the maintenance of that apparatus in an efficient state, and the inspection of premises at which and apparatus with which examinations are being, or are to be, carried out<sup>8</sup>;
- 207 (5) the supervision of examinations and of the premises at which examinations are carried out<sup>9</sup>;
- 208 (6) the manner in which applications may be made for the examination of vehicles, the manner in which and time within which appeals may be brought against refusal to issue a test certificate<sup>10</sup>, the information to be supplied and documents to be produced on such an application, examination or appeal, the fees to be paid on such an application or appeal, and the repayment of the whole or part of the fee paid on such an appeal where it appears to the Secretary of State that there were substantial grounds for contesting the whole or part of the decision appealed against<sup>11</sup>;
- 209 (7) the form of, and particulars to be contained in, test certificates and notifications of the refusal of test certificates and the conditions which must be satisfied before such certificates and notifications may be issued<sup>12</sup>;
- 210 (8) the issue of duplicates or copies of test certificates and the fees to be paid on applications for such duplicates or copies<sup>13</sup>;
- 211 (9) the correction of errors in test certificates<sup>14</sup>;
- 212 (10) the charges to be paid by authorised examiners, designated councils or approved testing authorities to the Secretary of State in connection with: (a) the issue of test certificates or notifications of the refusal of test certificates; (b) the issue of duplicates or copies of test certificates; and (c) the correction of errors in test certificates<sup>15</sup>;
- 213 (11) the keeping by authorised examiners and designated councils and, in the case of examinations carried out by authorised inspectors or approved assistants, by approved testing authorities of registers of test certificates in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars, and the inspection of such registers by such persons and in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>;
- 214 (12) the keeping of records by authorised examiners, designated councils and approved testing authorities and the providing by them of returns and information to the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>;
- 215 (13) requiring the Secretary of State to make available for use by prescribed persons any particulars contained in the records of vehicles and examinations<sup>18</sup> on payment, in prescribed cases, of a fee of such amount as appears to the Secretary of State to be reasonable in the circumstances of the case<sup>19</sup>;
- 216 (14) the sale of particulars contained in, or information derived from, those records: (a) to such persons as the Secretary of State thinks fit; and (b) for such price and on such other terms, and subject to such restrictions, as he thinks fit, if those particulars do not (or that information does not) identify the premises at which any examination was carried out or any person concerned with the carrying out of the examination<sup>20</sup>, and such regulations may make different provision in relation to different cases or classes of cases and contain such incidental, supplemental or transitional provisions or savings as the Secretary of State thinks fit<sup>21</sup>.

Regulations made under these provisions<sup>22</sup> may include provision for the purpose of securing that private-sector examinations<sup>23</sup> are properly carried out in accordance with the regulations, including provision for the supervision or review of private-sector examinations by persons authorised for the purpose by or under the regulations<sup>24</sup>. Regulations may also require the carrying out of examinations at designated testing stations<sup>25</sup>.

At the date at which this volume states the law no regulations had been made under s 45, but, by virtue of the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 2(2) and the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2) (b) (see STATUTES vol 44(1) (Reissue) PARA 1303), the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694 (amended by SI 1982/814; SI 1982/1477; SI 1982/1715; SI 1983/1434; SI 1984/1126; SI 1985/45; SI 1985/1923; SI 1988/989; SI 1988/1894; SI 1989/1694; SI 1991/253; SI 1991/455; SI 1991/1525; SI 1991/2229; SI 1991/2791; SI 1992/566; SI 1992/1217; SI 1993/3011; SI 1995/1457; SI 1995/2438; SI 1996/1751; SI 1997/81; SI 1997/1679; SI 1998/1672; SI 1999/2199; SI 2000/1432; SI 2000/2322; SI 2001/1648; SI 2001/3330; SI 2002/488; SI 2002/1698; SI 2003/1113; SI 2003/1698; SI 2003/1815; SI 2004/1879; SI 2005/1832; SI 2005/2341; SI 2006/1998; SI 2006/2680) have effect for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45 (as amended).

5 Ibid s 46(1)(a) (s 46 substituted by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 2).

6 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 46(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). The conditions which may be imposed by virtue of s 46(1)(b) (as substituted) include conditions: (1) relating to the successful completion of courses of instruction provided under s 45(6A) (as added) (see PARA 660 text and note 21 ante); and (2) requiring the payment of prescribed fees to the Secretary of State in respect of applications for, or the continuation of, the Secretary of State's authorisation, approval or designation: s 46(2) (as so substituted).

7 Ibid s 46(1)(c) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

8 Ibid s 46(1)(d) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

9 Ibid s 46(1)(e) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). The provision which may be made by virtue of s 46(1)(e) (as substituted) includes provision: (1) requiring supervision to be provided by individuals who are nominated by authorised examiners, designated councils or approved testing authorities, in respect of particular premises, and are approved by the Secretary of State (referred to as 'nominated supervisors'); (2) as to the imposition of conditions (including conditions described in note 6 supra) to be complied with by any nominated supervisor; and (3) as to the circumstances in which a person ceases to be a nominated supervisor: s 46(3) (as so substituted). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(2)(d) (amended by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 7, Schedule para 2(c)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

12 Ibid s 46(1)(g) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

13 Ibid s 46(1)(h) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

14 Ibid s 46(1)(i) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

15 Ibid s 46(1)(j) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(2)(aa) (added by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 Schedule para 2(b)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. The provision which may be made by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 46(1)(j) (as substituted) includes provision requiring: (1) the making to the Secretary of State at prescribed times of payments, of such amounts as may be determined by him in accordance with the regulations, on account of charges that may become payable; and (2) where forms for test certificates and notifications of the refusal of test certificates are supplied by the Secretary of State, the payment to him of charges for the supply of such forms, and for the repayment, in prescribed circumstances, of such payments received by the Secretary of State: s 46(4) (as so substituted). Any sum received by the Secretary of State in pursuance of this provision must be paid into the Consolidated Fund: s

84(4). As to the Consolidated Fund see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 711 et seq; PARLIAMENT vol 78 (2010) PARA 1028 et seq.

16 Ibid s 46(1)(k) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(2)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 Schedule para 2(c)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

17 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 46(1)(l) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(2)(c) (amended by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 Schedule para 2(c)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

NOTES 1-4, 6, 11, 13, 15, 18-20--See the Department for Transport (Fees) Order 2009, SI 2009/711 (amended by SI 2009/1885), which specifies for the purposes of the Finance (No 2) Act 1987 s 102(3) the functions to be taken into account in the determination of the fees to be fixed by the Secretary of State.

NOTE 4--SI 1981/1694 further amended: SI 2008/1461, SI 2009/643, SI 2009/802.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/663. Authorised examiners, designated councils, etc.

663. Authorised examiners, designated councils, etc.

An application by:

- 217 (1) an individual nominated by an authorised examiner<sup>1</sup>, for approval as a nominated tester<sup>2</sup>;
- 218 (2) an individual, for approval as an inspector; or
- 219 (3) a person, for authorisation as an authorised examiner, must be made on a form supplied or approved by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>. An application by a council for designation<sup>4</sup> must be made on a form supplied or approved by the Secretary of State, and must be signed by the proper officer<sup>5</sup>.

The Secretary of State may, after making such investigations and carrying out such inspections as he thinks fit, by an instrument in writing approve, authorise or designate (as the case may be) a person by whom such an application has been made<sup>6</sup>. The Secretary of State may at any time, by an instrument in writing, authorise any other person, other than an officer of the Secretary of State, to carry out examinations<sup>7</sup>.

An approval is subject to prescribed conditions<sup>8</sup> ('the approval conditions') and to such other conditions as may be specified in the approval<sup>9</sup>, and every authorisation is subject to prescribed conditions<sup>10</sup> ('the general authorisation conditions')<sup>11</sup>. The authorisation of an examiner who is not an individual is subject (in addition to the general authorisation conditions) to prescribed conditions<sup>12</sup> ('the corporate authorisation conditions') and to such other conditions as may be specified in the authorisation<sup>13</sup>, and the authorisation of an examiner who is an individual is subject (in addition to the general authorisation conditions) to prescribed conditions<sup>14</sup> ('the individual authorisation conditions') and to such other conditions as may be specified in the authorisation<sup>15</sup>. The designation of a council is subject to prescribed conditions<sup>16</sup> ('the designation conditions') and to such other conditions as may be specified in the designation<sup>17</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State is minded not to approve, authorise or designate a person by whom, or on whose behalf, an application is made ('the applicant'), he must give notice to the applicant to that effect<sup>18</sup>. The applicant (or any person acting on his behalf) may, within 14 days from the date of such notice, make to the Secretary of State, at the address specified in the notice, written representations to the effect that the applicant should be approved, authorised or designated (as the case may be)<sup>19</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'authorised examiner' see PARA 660 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'nominated tester' see PARA 660 note 13 ante.

3 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 7(1) (reg 7 substituted by SI 2003/1113). The application must be signed: (1) where the applicant is a partnership or company, by a person duly authorised in that behalf; (2) in any other case, by the applicant; and (3) where it relates to approval as a nominated tester, also: (a) by the authorised examiner by whom the applicant is nominated; or (b) where that authorised examiner is a partnership or company, by a person duly authorised in that behalf: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 7(2) (as so substituted). The application must be sent to the Secretary of State at such office of VOSA as he may direct: reg 7(3) (as so substituted). Where a person who wishes to apply for authorisation as an authorised examiner proposes to carry out examinations at more than one place and the Secretary of State so requires, the applicant must make such additional applications as the Secretary of State may, by notice to the applicant, require: reg 7(4) (as so substituted). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. 'VOSA' means the Vehicle and Operator Services Agency: reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2003/1113).

4 Ie for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45 (as amended), s 46 (as substituted and amended): see PARAS 660, 662 ante.

5 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 7A(1) (reg 7A added by SI 2003/1113). 'Proper officer', in relation to a designated council in England or Wales, has the meaning given by the Local Government Act 1972 s 270(3) (see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 431): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2003/1113). The application must be sent to the Secretary of State at the office of VOSA for the area which includes that of the council by which the application is made: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 7A(2) (as so added).

6 Ibid reg 8(1) (reg 8 substituted by SI 2003/1113).

7 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8(2) (as substituted: see note 6 supra). For the meaning of 'examination' see PARA 659 note 2 ante.

8 Ie the conditions set out in ibid reg 8A (as added). These conditions are that the person to whom the approval relates:

1291 (1) must not carry out any examination: (a) unless he has successfully completed a course of instruction in the carrying out of examinations provided under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6A) (as added) (see PARA 660 text and note 21 ante); (b) at a particular vehicle testing station, unless by electronic communication or notice to the Secretary of State, at the office of VOSA for the area in which that testing station is situated, he has informed the Secretary of State of his intention to carry out examinations at that testing station (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8A(a) (reg 8A added by SI 2003/1113));

1292 (2) where the approval is expressed to be limited to examinations of a specified class of motor vehicle or of a specified description, must not carry out examinations in relation to any other class of motor vehicle or description of examination (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8A(b) (as so added));

1293 (3) must carry out examinations using such methods and to such standards as have been notified to him by the Secretary of State (reg 8A(c) (as so added)); and 1294 (4) if the Secretary of State so requires, must attend further courses of instruction, or otherwise satisfy the Secretary of State of his competence to continue to carry out examinations (reg 8A(d) (as so added)).

'Vehicle testing station' means premises at which the Secretary of State has authorised an examiner to carry out examinations, premises provided by a designated council or the Secretary of State for carrying out examinations, or premises for the time being designated by the Secretary of State under the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 s 8(3) (as amended) (see PARA 1142 post): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition substituted by SI 1997/81). For the meaning of 'designated council' see PARA 659 note 5 ante.

9 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8(3) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

10 Ie the conditions set out in ibid reg 8B (as added). These conditions are that the authorised examiner:

1295 (1) must comply with any limitation as to: (a) the class of motor vehicle that may be examined; (b) the type of examination that may be carried out; or (c) the vehicle testing station at which examinations may be carried out, to which the authorisation is expressed to be subject (reg 8B(a) (reg 8B added by SI 2003/1113));

1296 (2) unless he is himself to carry out the examination, must not cause or permit an examination to be carried out at any vehicle testing station at which he is authorised to carry out examinations by a person other than: (a) a nominated tester approved by the Secretary of State to carry out examinations at that testing station; or (b) a section 66A examiner (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8B(b) (as so added));

1297 (3) must, as regards each of the vehicle testing stations at which he is authorised to carry out examinations, by electronic communication or notice to the Secretary of State, at the office of VOSA for the area in which the testing station is situated, inform the Secretary of State: (a) of the names of the individuals who are nominated testers at that testing station; and (b) the name of any such individual who ceases to act in that capacity (reg 8B(c) (as so added));

1298 (4) must ensure that every test certificate resulting from an examination carried out at any of its testing stations is signed by the person who carried out the examination or by such other person as the Secretary of State may in any particular case direct (reg 8B(d) (as so added));

- 1299 (5) must ensure that every notice of the refusal of a test certificate resulting from an examination carried out at any of its testing stations is signed by the person who carried out the examination (reg 8B(e) (as so added));
- 1300 (6) must comply with any direction of the Secretary of State as to the individuals by whom: (a) examinations may not be carried out; or (b) test certificates or notices of the refusal of a test certificate may not be signed (reg 8B(f) (as so added));
- 1301 (7) must, at each vehicle testing station at which he is authorised to carry out examinations, supervise the carrying out of examinations by the nominated testers authorised to carry out examinations at that testing station (reg 8B(g) (as so added));
- 1302 (8) must, subject to reg 8F (as added), so long as the authorisation is in force, display in a conspicuous place outside the vehicle testing station at which he is authorised to carry out examinations a sign of the size, colour and type shown in the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002, SI 2002/3113, Sch 4 diagram 864.1 (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8B(h) (as so added));
- 1303 (9) must, so long as the authorisation is in force, display at each vehicle testing station at which he is authorised to carry out examinations, in some conspicuous place and so as to be legible by persons submitting vehicles for examination at that testing station: (a) the authorisation in which that testing station is specified; and (b) a list of the names of the individuals for the time being approved or authorised by the Secretary of State to carry out examinations at that testing station (reg 8B(i) (as so added)); and
- 1304 (10) after not less than three clear days' notice given to the authorised examiner by the Secretary of State, must make available: (a) any vehicle testing station at which he is authorised to carry out examinations; and (b) the apparatus at that testing station with which examinations are carried out, for the purpose of the carrying out by a section 66A examiner of any examination or the investigation of a complaint as to the result of an examination (whether or not the examination was carried out at that testing station (reg 8B(j) (as so added))).

'Section 66A examiner' means an examiner appointed under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 66A (as added and amended) (see PARA 698 post): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 3(1) (definition added by SI 2003/1113). For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 ante.

A sign: (i) exhibited outside a vehicle testing station immediately before 1 June 2003; and (ii) of the size, colour and type shown in the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 1994, SI 1994/1519, Sch 4 diagram 864 ('a vehicle testing station sign'), is, for the purposes of the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8B(h) (as added) and reg 8E(g) (as added), to be treated as a vehicle testing station sign so long as it continues to be exhibited outside the vehicle testing station outside which it was exhibited immediately before 1 June 2003 and to comply with the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 1994, SI 1994/1519, as if those regulations had not been revoked: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8F (added by SI 2003/1113).

11 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8(4) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

12 Ie the conditions set out in ibid reg 8C (as added). These conditions are:

- 1305 (1) the authorised examiner must, so long as the authorisation is in force, secure: (a) where the examiner is a company, that at least one of its directors or senior managers has successfully completed a course of instruction in the functions of authorised examiners, provided under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6A) (as added) (see PARA 660 ante); and (b) where the examiner is persons in partnership, that at least one of the partners has successfully completed such a course (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8C(a) (reg 8C added by SI 2003/1113));
- 1306 (2) where the authorised examiner is persons in partnership and there is a change in the firm's constitution, it must inform the Secretary of State, at the office of VOSA for the area in which its testing station is situated, of the particulars of the change within seven days of the effective date of the change (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8C(b) (as so added)); and
- 1307 (3) where the authorised examiner is a company and a person becomes, or ceases to be: (a) the secretary of the company; (b) a director; or (c) a senior manager to whom the description mentioned in head (1)(a) supra applies, it must inform the Secretary of State, at the office of

VOSA for the area in which its testing station is situated, of the occurrence of that event, and of the identity of the person or persons concerned, within seven days of the occurrence of the event (reg 8C(c) (as so added)).

13 Ibid reg 8(5) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

14 Ie the conditions set out in ibid reg 8D (as added). These conditions are that the individual to whom the authorisation relates:

1308 (1) must not carry out any examination: (a) unless he has successfully completed a course of instruction in the carrying out of examinations provided under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6A) (as added) (see PARA 660 ante); (b) at a particular vehicle testing station, unless by electronic communication to the Secretary of State, at the office of VOSA for the area in which that testing station is situated, or by such other means as the Secretary of State may from time to time require, he has informed the Secretary of State of his intention to carry out examinations at that testing station (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8D(a) (reg 8D added by SI 2003/1113));

1309 (2) must, within seven days of entering into a partnership with a view to carrying on at his vehicle testing station a business comprising the carrying out of examinations, inform the Secretary of State, at the office of VOSA for the area in which his vehicle testing station is situated, of his entry into partnership and of the identity of the other members of the firm (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8D(b) (as so added)); and 1310 (3) must complete a course of instruction in the functions of authorised examiners provided under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6A) (as added) (see PARA 660 ante) (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8D(c) (as so added)).

15 Ibid reg 8(6) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

16 Ie the conditions set out in ibid reg 8E (as added). These conditions are that the council:

1311 (1) must comply with any limitation as to: (a) the class of motor vehicle that may be examined; (b) the type of examination that may be carried out; or (c) the vehicle testing station at which examinations may be carried out, to which the designation is expressed to be subject (reg 8E(a) (reg 8E added by SI 2003/1113));

1312 (2) must not cause or permit examinations to be carried out at any of its vehicle testing stations: (a) by a person other than an inspector or a section 66A examiner; or (b) unless at least one individual (who may be an inspector), employed by the council, has completed a course of instruction in the functions of designated councils under the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694 (as amended), provided under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(6A) (as added) (see PARA 660 ante) (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8E(b) (as so added));

1313 (3) must, as regards each of its vehicle testing stations, by electronic communication or notice to the Secretary of State, at the office of VOSA for the area in which the testing station is situated, inform the Secretary of State: (a) of the names of the inspectors appointed by the council to carry out examinations at that testing station; and (b) of the revocation of the appointment of any such inspector (reg 8E(c) (as so added));

1314 (4) must secure that every test certificate resulting from an examination carried out at any of its testing stations is signed by the person who carried out the examination or by such other person as the Secretary of State may in any particular case direct (reg 8E(d) (as so added));

1315 (5) must secure that every notice of the refusal of a test certificate resulting from an examination carried out at any of its testing stations is signed by the person who carried out the examination (reg 8E(e) (as so added));

1316 (6) must comply with any direction of the Secretary of State as to the individuals by whom examinations may not be carried out or test certificates or notices of the refusal of a test certificate may not be signed (reg 8E(f) (as so added));

1317 (7) must, subject to reg 8F (as added) (see note 10 supra), so long as the designation remains in force, display in a conspicuous place outside the vehicle testing station to which the designation relates, a sign of the size, colour and type shown in the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002, SI 2002/3113, Sch 4 diagram 864.1 (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 8E(g) (as so added));

1318 (8) must, so long as the designation remains in force, display at each vehicle testing station to which the designation relates, in some conspicuous place and so as to be legible by persons submitting vehicles for examinations at that testing station: (a) the designation in which that testing station is specified; and (b) a list of the names of the inspectors for the time being approved by the Secretary of State to carry out examinations at that testing station (reg 8E(h) (as so added)); and 1319 (9) after not less than three clear days' notice given to the council by the Secretary of State, must make available: (a) any vehicle testing station to which the council's designation relates; and (b) the apparatus at that testing station with which examinations are carried out, for the purpose of the carrying out by a section 66A examiner of any examination or the investigation of a complaint as to the result of an examination (whether or not the examination was carried out at that testing station) (reg 8E(i) (as so added)).

17 Ibid reg 8(7) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/664. Cessation of authorisation, designation etc.

664. Cessation of authorisation, designation etc.

An individual ceases to be an authorised examiner<sup>1</sup>: (1) if he dies; (2) if he is adjudged bankrupt; (3) if he becomes a patient within the meaning of Part VII of the Mental Health Act 1983<sup>2</sup>; (4) if he has not attended a course of instruction<sup>3</sup> when required by the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> to attend such a course; (5) if he has attended such a course when so required but has failed to complete it successfully; or (6) if he notifies the Secretary of State that he no longer wishes to be an authorised examiner<sup>5</sup>. Persons in partnership cease to be an authorised examiner if the firm is dissolved or if they notify the Secretary of State that they no longer wish to be an authorised examiner<sup>6</sup>. A company ceases to be an authorised examiner if: (a) in relation to the company, a winding-up order is made, a resolution for voluntary winding-up is passed, a receiver or manager of the company's undertaking is appointed or the taking of possession by or on behalf of the holders of any debenture secured by a floating charge, or of any property of the company comprised in or subject to the charge, occurs; or (b) the secretary of the company notifies the Secretary of State that the company no longer wishes to be an authorised examiner<sup>7</sup>.

A council ceases to be designated if the proper officer<sup>8</sup> notifies the Secretary of State that the council no longer wishes to be designated<sup>9</sup>.

An individual ceases to be a nominated tester<sup>10</sup>: (i) if he dies, if he becomes a patient within the meaning of Part VII of the Mental Health Act 1983, or if he has not attended a course of instruction when required by the Secretary of State to attend such a course or has attended such a course when so required but has failed to complete it successfully; (ii) as regards the carrying out of examinations<sup>11</sup> at a particular vehicle testing station, if his nomination is revoked in relation to that testing station; (iii) if he notifies the Secretary of State that he no longer wishes to be a nominated tester<sup>12</sup>.

An individual ceases to be an inspector: (A) if he dies, if he becomes a patient within the meaning of Part VII of the Mental Health Act 1983, or if he has not attended a course of instruction when required by the Secretary of State to attend such a course or has attended such a course when so required but has failed to complete it successfully; (B) as regards the carrying out of examinations at a particular vehicle testing station, if his appointment is revoked in relation to that testing station; (C) if he notifies the Secretary of State that he no longer wishes to be an inspector<sup>13</sup>.

The Secretary of State may at any time give to an authorised examiner, designated council, inspector or nominated tester a notice which states that from such date as is specified in the notice<sup>14</sup>, unless the notice is cancelled before that date, the person is to cease to be an authorised examiner, an inspector or a nominated tester; or that the person is to cease to be an authorised examiner, inspector or nominated tester (as the case may be) in respect of such vehicle testing stations as may be specified in the notice; or that the council is to cease to be designated or is to cease to be designated in respect of such vehicle testing stations as may be specified in the notice<sup>15</sup>. The notice must also state that within 14 days from the date of the notice, the person to whom the notice relates (or any person acting on his behalf) may make to the Secretary of State, at an address specified in the notice, written representations to the effect, as the case may be, that the person should not cease to be, or should again become, an authorised examiner, nominated tester or inspector, or that the council should not cease to be, or should again be, designated<sup>16</sup>. Where such a notice has been given, and has not been cancelled, the person to whom it relates ceases or, as the case may be, ceases to the specified extent to be an authorised examiner, nominated tester or inspector or the council to which it relates ceases or, as the case may be, ceases to the specified extent to be designated, on the date specified in the notice<sup>17</sup>.

If an authorisation of an examiner, the appointment of an inspector or the nomination of a nominated tester ceases to have effect or the designation of a council is revoked, the person or council must deliver to the Secretary of State, at such place and within such period as the Secretary of State may by notice or electronic communication<sup>18</sup> specify or, if the Secretary of State by notice or electronic communication so requires, permit the collection, from such premises as may be specified in the notice or communication, of certain documents and apparatus<sup>19</sup>.

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/665. Applications for and carrying out of examinations.

665. Applications for and carrying out of examinations.

An application for an examination<sup>1</sup> may be made to an authorised examiner<sup>2</sup>, a designated council<sup>3</sup> or the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>, by arrangement<sup>5</sup>. An authorised examiner, a section 66A examiner, an inspector and a nominated tester are not under any obligation to carry out an examination of a motor vehicle where: (1) the applicant does not on request produce the registration book relating to the vehicle or other evidence as to its first use or manufacture, and the chassis or serial number and identification number where appropriate<sup>6</sup>; (2) the vehicle or any part of it or any of its equipment is so dirty as to render an examination unreasonably difficult<sup>7</sup>; (3) the examination cannot with the facilities or apparatus available be completed without the vehicle being driven and it is not fit to be driven to such extent as may be necessary for the examination, either for want of fuel or oil or for any other reason<sup>8</sup>; (4) things not part of the vehicle's equipment or accessories are required to be removed or secured before its examination and are not removed or secured<sup>9</sup>; (5) fees payable in advance are not so paid<sup>10</sup>; (6) in the case of a Class VI or Class VIA vehicle<sup>11</sup>: (a) the vehicle is not submitted for examination at the time and date fixed for the examination; (b) the driver of the vehicle is requested to remain in it or its vicinity throughout the examination, to drive it, to operate its controls, to remove or refit its panels or to open or close its doors and he declines to do so; or (c) wheelchair restraining devices are not installed in the vehicle at the time it is submitted for examination<sup>12</sup>; (7) the vehicle emits substantial quantities of avoidable smoke<sup>13</sup>; (8) a proper examination of the vehicle cannot readily be carried out as a consequence of any door, tailgate, boot lid, engine cover, fuel cap or other device designed to be capable of being readily opened, being locked or otherwise fixed so that it cannot be readily opened<sup>14</sup>; (9) the condition of the vehicle is such that, in the opinion of the examiner, inspector or nominated tester, a proper examination of the vehicle would involve a danger of: (a) injury to any person; or (b) damage to the vehicle or any other property<sup>15</sup>; (10) in the case of certain vehicles<sup>16</sup>, the exhaust system has been so altered that the examiner, inspector or nominated tester is not able, with the facilities and apparatus available to him at the place at which the examination would otherwise be carried out, to determine whether certain statutory provisions<sup>17</sup> apply to the vehicle<sup>18</sup>; (11) the vehicle: (a) does not have a registration mark, vehicle identification number, chassis number or serial number; or (b) has one or more of those marks and numbers, but none of them is legible or such one or more as is legible is in a script other than English<sup>19</sup>; or (12) an examiner, inspector or nominated tester is not able to open and examine recording equipment fitted to the vehicle in accordance with the Community Recording Equipment Regulation<sup>20</sup>.

Where in the course of an examination it is found that there are such defects in the construction or condition of a vehicle or its equipment or accessories that to carry out a braking test<sup>21</sup> would be likely to cause danger to any person or damage to the vehicle or any other property, the braking test need not be carried out but the rest of the examination must be completed<sup>22</sup>.

An authorised examiner or designated council, as the case may be, has the same responsibility for loss of or damage to the vehicle, its equipment or accessories in connection with the carrying out of the examination or while the vehicle is in the custody of the examiner or council, and for loss of or damage to other property or personal injury (whether fatal or not) arising out of the use of the vehicle in connection with the examination, as would rest on a person who, with the same facilities for examination, had undertaken for payment to accept the custody of the vehicle and to carry out the examination under a contract making no express provision as to the incidence of liability<sup>23</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'examination' see PARA 659 note 2 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'authorised examiner' see PARA 660 ante. As to the manner of application see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(2), Table (amended by SI 2003/1113). An authorised examiner or a designated council may not examine a vehicle in Class VI or Class VIA (as to which see PARA 661 ante): Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(2) (amended by SI 1998/1672). For the meaning of 'vehicle testing station' see PARA 663 note 8 ante. For the meaning of 'examination' see PARA 659 note 2 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'designated council' see PARA 659 note 5 ante.

4 Application for examination of a vehicle in Class VI or Class VIA must be in writing to the Secretary of State: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(1) (amended by SI 1989/1694; SI 1998/1672). However, this does not apply if the application is for the re-examination of a vehicle within 28 days of the previous examination: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(1A) (added by SI 1989/1694; and amended by SI 1998/1672). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

5 See the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(1), (2), Table (as amended: see notes 2, 4 supra). Authorised examiners and designated councils must ensure that examinations are carried out as soon as possible (see reg 12(3) (amended by SI 2003/1113)) and that records are made of appointments (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(4) (amended by SI 2003/1113)). Authorised examiners, inspectors, nominated testers and section 66A examiners (see PARA 698 post) may carry out examinations even though the provisions of the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12(1)-(4) (as amended) have not been complied with: reg 12(5) (amended by SI 1995/2438; SI 2003/1113). For the meaning of 'section 66A examiner' see PARA 663 note 10 ante. Nothing in the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 12 (as amended) entitles an authorised examiner or a nominated tester to examine a vehicle of a class not specified in his authorisation, or obliges a designated council or an inspector to examine a vehicle not falling within a type which it has notified the Secretary of State as a type which will be examined by its inspectors: reg 12(6) (amended by SI 2003/1113). As to the fees payable, which in some circumstances may be remitted, see reg 20 (amended by SI 1984/1126; SI 1989/1694; SI 1991/1525; SI 1992/1609; SI 1992/3160; SI 1995/2438; SI 1997/81; SI 1998/1672; SI 2001/3330; SI 2002/488; SI 2002/1698; SI 2003/1113; SI 2003/1815; SI 2004/1879; SI 2005/2341; SI 2006/1998; SI 2006/2680; SI 2007/506; SI 2007/1161).

Where a motor vehicle has been submitted for an examination to be carried out by an examiner appointed under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 66A (as added) (see PARA 698 post), the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 14(1) (as amended) applies with modifications so as to confer liability on the Secretary of State: see reg 14(1A) (added by SI 1995/2438; and substituted by SI 2003/1113).

A person submitting a vehicle for examination or having an interest in it must not be requested or required to accept any responsibility or give any release or indemnity in respect of such loss, damage or injury, other than loss of or damage to the vehicle, its equipment or accessories after the time when the vehicle ought to have been removed by him or loss, damage or injury arising out of the carrying out at his request of repairs or replacements: see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 14(2), (3) (amended by SI 2003/1113). References to an examination include references to a further examination; references to a period while a vehicle is in the custody of a designated council include references to a period while it is in the control or care of an inspector; and references to a period while a vehicle is in the custody of the Secretary of State include references to any period while a vehicle is in the control or care of a section 66A examiner: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 14(4) (amended by SI 1995/2438; SI 2003/1113).

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/666. Result of examinations.

666. Result of examinations.

The person by whom an examination<sup>1</sup> is to be carried out must, before carrying out the examination: (1) satisfy himself that there is available to him a supply of the relevant forms<sup>2</sup> sufficient to enable the result of the examination to be recorded<sup>3</sup>; and (2) by electronic communication<sup>4</sup> enter in the electronic record<sup>5</sup>: (a) his intention to carry out the examination; (b) the registration mark (if any) of the vehicle that he intends to examine; and (c) the vehicle identification number, chassis number or serial number of the vehicle<sup>6</sup>.

As soon as reasonably practicable after completing an examination, the person by whom it was carried out: (i) must, by electronic communication, enter in the electronic record, as the circumstances require, either that the prescribed statutory requirements<sup>7</sup> are complied with in relation to the vehicle<sup>8</sup> or that the prescribed statutory requirements are not complied with in relation to the vehicle<sup>9</sup>; (ii) must, by electronic communication, make such other entries in the electronic record as the record requires to be made or, where he has caused those entries to be made, confirm them<sup>10</sup>; (iii) may, by electronic communication, make such other entries in the electronic record as the record allows to be made, and, where he has caused entries to be so made, he must confirm them<sup>11</sup>; and (iv) must issue the test certificate<sup>12</sup> or, as the case may be, the notice of the refusal of a test certificate, generated by the system supporting the electronic record and such other documents as the Secretary of State may from time to time require to be issued<sup>13</sup>.

Where the person carrying out the examination does not carry out a braking test<sup>14</sup>, as soon as reasonably practicable, he: (A) must by electronic communication, enter in the electronic record that the prescribed statutory requirements have not been shown to be met in relation to the vehicle; (B) must by electronic communication make such other entries in the electronic record as the record requires to be made or, where he has caused those entries to be made, confirm them; (C) may, by electronic communication, make such other entries in the electronic record as the record allows to be made, and, where he has caused entries to be so made, he must confirm them; (D) must issue the notice of the refusal of a test certificate generated by the system supporting the electronic record and such other documents as the Secretary of State may from time to time require to be issued<sup>15</sup>.

7 As to the prescribed statutory requirements see PARA 660 note 6 ante.

8 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 15(2)(a)(i) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). An entry in the electronic record that the prescribed statutory requirements are complied with in relation to a vehicle must not be made unless the authorised examiner or, as the case may be, the designated council at whose vehicle testing station the examination of the vehicle was carried out has paid to the Secretary of State the sum of £1.71: reg 25(1) (substituted by SI 2003/1113; and amended by SI 2006/2680). For the meaning of 'authorised examiner' see PARA 660 ante; for the meaning of 'designated council' see PARA 659 note 5 ante; and for the meaning of 'vehicle testing station' see PARA 663 note 8 ante. Every authorised examiner and every designated council must make such payments to the Secretary of State in anticipation of charges that may become payable by them under the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 25(1) (as substituted and amended) as will, in the opinion of the examiner or council, ensure that the requirements of reg 15(1)(a) (as substituted) are capable of being met as regards examinations at each of their vehicle testing stations: reg 25(2) (substituted by SI 2003/1113; and amended by SI 2003/1698). As to particulars of payments see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 25(3) (substituted by SI 2003/1113). Charges for apparatus, etc connected with the electronic record are payable: see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 25A, Sch 3 (both added by SI 2003/1113; and amended by SI 2003/1698).

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 45(4) (amended by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 1(2)); Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 15(2)(a)(ii) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). As to failure to gain access to the electronic record see note 6 supra. As soon as the electronic record becomes available for use, a person who has complied with the requirements mentioned in reg 15(3) (as substituted) (see note 6 supra) must, by electronic communication, confirm the entries required to be made by reg 15(2)(a) and (b) (as substituted) (see heads (i), (ii) in the text), confirm any other entries that may have been made, and may, by electronic communication, make such other entries in the electronic record as the record allows to be made: reg 15(5) (as so substituted).

10 Ibid reg 15(2)(b) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

11 Ibid reg 15(2)(c) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

12 For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 ante.

13 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 15(2)(d) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). Where documents cannot be generated by the system supporting the electronic record, the person carrying out the examination must issue a test certificate on form VT20 or VT20W or, as the circumstances require, a notice of the refusal of a test certificate, on form VT30 or VT30W: reg 15(4) (as so substituted). Where reg 15(4) (as substituted) applies, the authorised examiner or designated council at whose vehicle testing station the examination was carried out, or the Secretary of State: (1) if required to do so by the person by whom the vehicle was submitted for examination; (2) on production by that person of the certificate or notice (as the case may be) issued to him in accordance with reg 15(4) (as substituted); and (3) if satisfied that no examination under reg 15 (as substituted) or reg 18 (as amended) (see PARA 667 post) has been carried out in relation to the vehicle since that to which the certificate or notice relates, must supply to him, free of charge, the test certificate or, as the case may be, the notice of the refusal of a test certificate generated by the system supporting the electronic record: reg 15(6) (as so substituted).

A test certificate must be signed by the person by whom the examination was carried out or such other person as the Secretary of State may in any particular case direct (reg 15(7) (as so substituted)), and a notice of the refusal of a test certificate (including a notice issued in the circumstances mentioned in reg 16 (as amended): see the text to notes 14-15 infra) must be signed by the person by whom the examination was carried out (reg 15(8) (as so substituted)). Where a test certificate or notice of the refusal of a test certificate bears a facsimile, by whatever process reproduced, of the signature of a section 66A examiner, the certificate or notice is to be treated as duly signed for the purposes of reg 15(7) or (8) (as substituted): reg 15(9) (as so substituted). For the meaning of 'section 66A examiner' see PARA 663 note 10 ante.

If a test certificate has been lost or defaced, an application for a duplicate certificate may be made at the vehicle testing station from which the original certificate was obtained, at any other vehicle testing station, or at any office of VOSA, at any time before the end of the period of 18 months beginning with the date on which the examination to which the certificate relates was carried out and on the furnishing of prescribed information by the applicant: see reg 23(1), (2) (reg 23 substituted by SI 2003/1113). For the meaning of 'VOSA' see PARA 663 note 3 ante. The person to whom such application is made, upon tracing sufficient particulars of the certificate to which the application relates to enable a duplicate to be issued and on being paid the fee of £10, must issue a certificate marked 'Duplicate', which has the same effect as the original: see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 23(3) (as so substituted; and amended by SI 2005/1832). A duplicate need not be signed by the person who carried out the examination as the result of which the original certificate was obtained: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 23(4) (as so substituted).

The Trade Descriptions Act 1968 (see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES) does not apply to the contents of a certificate or notification: Wycombe Marsh Garages Ltd v Fowler [1972] 3 All ER 248, [1972] 1 WLR 1156, DC. Examiners owe a contractual duty to the owner of a vehicle to carry out the test with reasonable skill and care, and the issue of a test certificate imports a warranty that the requirements of the regulations are complied with: Artingstoll v Hewen's Garages Ltd [1973] RTR 197.

14 For the meaning of 'braking test' see PARA 665 note 21 ante.

15 See the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 16(1) (amended by SI 1995/2438; SI 2003/1113); and the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 16(2) (substituted by SI 2003/1113). As to failure of the electronic system see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 16(2A)-(2D) (added by SI 2003/1113).

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST AND ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATE/667. Appeal against refusal of test certificate.

667. Appeal against refusal of test certificate.

A person to whom notification of the refusal of a test certificate<sup>1</sup> has been issued and who is aggrieved<sup>2</sup> by the refusal or the grounds of the refusal may appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> on a form approved by him<sup>4</sup> and sent to any office of VOSA<sup>5</sup> within 14 days from the date of the notice<sup>6</sup>. On the appeal the Secretary of State must cause a further examination to be made<sup>7</sup>. As soon as reasonably practicable after the appeal is made the Secretary of State must send<sup>8</sup> to the appellant a notice stating the place at which the examination will occur<sup>9</sup> and the time at which it will start<sup>10</sup>. Save as otherwise permitted by the Secretary of State, the examination must not take place unless the appellant submits the vehicle at the time and place specified<sup>11</sup>, produces to the examiner the notice of refusal<sup>12</sup> and the registration document relating to the vehicle or other sufficient evidence of the date of its first registration or first manufacture<sup>13</sup> and gives the examiner such information as he reasonably requires relating to any event which may have affected the vehicle or its equipment or accessories since the date of the notice of refusal<sup>14</sup>. When the examiner completes the examination he must make appropriate entries in the electronic record<sup>15</sup> or issue to the appellant a test certificate or a notice of the refusal of the test certificate, stating the grounds of refusal<sup>16</sup>.

These provisions do not apply where a notification of refusal of a test certificate has been issued following an examination for the purpose of an appeal<sup>17</sup>.

The fees payable on appeals are prescribed<sup>18</sup>.

The provisions of reg 13(1)(b)-(d) (as substituted) and reg 16 (as amended) (see PARA 665 ante) apply to examinations for the purposes of an appeal with appropriate modifications: see reg 18(4) (amended by SI 1995/2438; SI 2003/1113). A test certificate issued under the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 18 (as amended) must be signed by the person by whom the examination was carried out or such other person as the Secretary of State may in any particular case direct (reg 18(6) (substituted by SI 2003/1113)); and a notice of the refusal of a test certificate must be signed by the person by whom the examination was carried out (Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 18(6A) (added by SI 2003/1113)).

17 Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 18(7). This has the effect of preventing further appeal.

18 See ibid reg 21 (amended by SI 2003/1113). The fees payable on appeal are the same as the fees payable for examinations (see the Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 20(1) (as substituted and amended); and PARA 665 note 5 ante); reg 21(1). The fee must be paid at the same time as the appeal is made and if it is not so paid the Secretary of State is not obliged to deal with the appeal: reg 21(2). In some circumstances the fees may be remitted: see reg 21(3), (4).

Where a vehicle has been submitted for an examination<sup>1</sup> at a vehicle testing station<sup>2</sup> of an authorised examiner, a designated council<sup>3</sup> or the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>, the person by whom the vehicle has been so submitted must, save as may otherwise be permitted by the examiner, designated council or the Secretary of State, as the case may be, cause it to be removed from the custody<sup>5</sup> of the examiner, council or the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>:

- 220 (1) where an appointment or arrangement has been made for the carrying out of the examination on a particular day and the examination has been completed on or before that day, before the end of the second day after that day<sup>7</sup>; or
- 221 (2) in any other case, before the end of the second day after the day on which the person submitting the vehicle for examination is given notice (whether in writing or not): (a) that the examination has been carried out; or (b) in a case where the examination is not carried out<sup>8</sup>, that he is to remove the vehicle from such custody<sup>9</sup>.

1 References to an examination include references to a further examination where the vehicle remains in the custody of an authorised examiner, designated council or the Secretary of State for that further examination to be carried out: Motor Vehicles (Tests) Regulations 1981, SI 1981/1694, reg 17(2)(a) (amended by SI 2003/1113). ## 670. Records and returns.

Authorised examiners<sup>1</sup>, designated councils<sup>2</sup>, inspectors and nominated testers<sup>3</sup> must, by electronic communication<sup>4</sup> in the electronic record<sup>5</sup>, or in such other form and by such other means as the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> may from time to time specify, record such particulars as may be so specified<sup>7</sup>. Where the electronic record is temporarily inaccessible for the purpose of recording particulars, the particulars must be recorded in such other form and by such other means as the Secretary of State may specify<sup>8</sup>; and where particulars are so recorded, appropriate entries must be made or, as the Secretary of State may require, be confirmed, in the electronic record as soon as reasonably practicable after it has become accessible<sup>9</sup>. Records (other than the electronic record) must be kept for a period sufficient to ensure that, upon an inspection<sup>10</sup>, particulars of any matter recorded within the period of 18 months preceding the date of the inspection are available for inspection<sup>11</sup>.

A person authorised in that behalf by the Secretary of State may, in accordance with the terms of his authorisation, correct an error in the records or in any test certificate<sup>12</sup>. The person by whom a correction is made must, if appropriate, make an entry in the electronic record to reflect the correction and, where the correction is of an error in a test certificate, supply to the person who furnishes the certificate containing the error, the test certificate (as corrected) generated by the system supporting the electronic record<sup>13</sup>.

674. Records of vehicle examinations.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may use the information contained in records: (1) maintained in relation to vehicle testing<sup>2</sup>; or (2) maintained in relation to functions exercisable under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>3</sup>: (a) to check the accuracy of records<sup>4</sup>; and (b) where appropriate, to amend or supplement information contained in those records<sup>5</sup>. The Secretary of State may also use the information contained in records falling within head (2) above for the purpose of promoting compliance with the requirement to hold a test certificate<sup>6</sup>. These provisions do not limit any other powers of the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>.

Any statement<sup>8</sup> contained in a document<sup>9</sup> purporting to be: (i) a part of the records referred to in head (1) above; or (ii) a copy<sup>10</sup> of a document forming part of those records; or (iii) a note of any information contained in those records, and to be authenticated by a person authorised to do so by the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup>, is admissible in any proceedings as evidence of any fact stated in it with respect to the issue of a test certificate in respect of a vehicle, and the date of issue of such a certificate, to the same extent as oral evidence of that fact is admissible in the proceedings<sup>12</sup>.

674-676 Records of vehicle examinations ... Prohibition of use of vehicles without plating certificates or test certificates

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(i) Motor Vehicles/C. TESTS AS REQUIREMENT FOR EXCISE LICENCE/675. Regulations prohibiting the grant of excise licences for certain vehicles except on compliance with certain conditions.

C. TESTS AS REQUIREMENT FOR EXCISE LICENCE

675. Regulations prohibiting the grant of excise licences for certain vehicles except on compliance with certain conditions.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations provide that where an application is made for a licence under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>2</sup> for a vehicle<sup>3</sup> the licence must not be granted unless one of the following conditions is satisfied<sup>4</sup>. Those conditions are that:

- 222 (1) there is produced such evidence as may be prescribed<sup>5</sup> of the granting of an effective test certificate<sup>6</sup> or (if it is so prescribed) there is produced such a certificate or the Secretary of State is provided with a copy of it<sup>7</sup>;
- 223 (2) the records<sup>8</sup> provide evidence of the granting of an effective test certificate<sup>9</sup>;
- 224 (3) there is made such a declaration as may be prescribed that the vehicle is not intended to be used during the period for which the licence is to be in force except for a prescribed purpose<sup>10</sup> or in a prescribed area<sup>11</sup>; or
- 225 (4) in the case of an application relating to certain vehicles<sup>12</sup>, the owner of the vehicle declares in writing the year in which the vehicle was manufactured<sup>13</sup>, and the specified period<sup>14</sup> from the date of manufacture has not expired<sup>15</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations provide that where an application is made for a licence under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 for a goods vehicle<sup>16</sup> or for a vehicle of any class<sup>17</sup>, the licence must not be granted unless specified requirements are satisfied<sup>18</sup>. Such regulations may be made so as to apply to such classes only of vehicles as may be specified in the regulations<sup>19</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed, the Secretary of State may by regulations provide, in relation to vehicles required to be examined and certified by regulations relating to the examination and certification of motor vehicles modified to enable them to be propelled using fuel stored under pressure<sup>20</sup>, that the first licence for such a vehicle under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 for a period after the requirement applies to the vehicle is to be granted only if evidence is provided that a certificate has been issued in accordance with those regulations<sup>21</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 See PARA 443 et seq ante.

3 I.e. a vehicle to which the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47 (as amended) (see PARA 657 ante) applies: s 66(1)(a) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 24(1)). In the case of a vehicle to which the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47 applies by virtue of s 47(2)(b) (see PARA 657 text and note 22 ante), it must appear from the application that the vehicle has been used on roads (whether in Great Britain or elsewhere) before the date of the application: s 66(1)(b). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante. For the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 205 note 3 ante.

4 Ibid s 66(1). As to regulations having effect under s 66 see note 19 infra.

5 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 660 note 5 ante.

6 'Effective test certificate' means, in relation to an application for a licence for a vehicle, a test certificate relating to the vehicle and issued within the appropriate period before the date on which the licence is to come into force: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 66(9). For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 ante. For the meaning of 'appropriate period' see PARA 657 note 5 ante; definition applied by virtue of s 66(9).

7 Ibid s 66(2)(a).

8 I.e. the records maintained under ibid s 45(6B) (as added): see PARA 660 text and note 22 ante.

9 Ibid s 66(2)(aa) (added by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 5).

10 I.e. prescribed under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 47(6): see PARA 657 ante.

11 Ibid s 66(2)(b). As to prescribed areas see s 47(7); and PARA 657 ante.

12 I.e. any vehicle to which ibid s 47 (as amended) applies by virtue of s 47(2)(b): see note 3 supra.

13 For these purposes, the date of manufacture of a vehicle is to be taken to be the last day of the year during which its final assembly is completed, except where after that day modifications are made to the vehicle before it is sold or supplied by retail; and in that excepted case must be taken to be the last day of the year during which the modifications are completed: ibid s 66(8).

14 'Specified period' means the period for the time being specified in ibid s 47(2)(a), (b) (see PARA 657 ante): s 66(9).

15 Ibid s 66(2)(c). For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante.

16 I.e. a vehicle to which ibid s 53(2) (see PARA 676 post) applies. For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

17 I.e. a class of vehicle to which ibid s 63(1) (see PARA 700 post) applies.

18 Ibid s 66(3) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 Sch 3 para 24(1)). The requirements referred to in the text are those of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 66(4), (5) or (6).

The requirements of s 66(4) are that:

- 1320 (1) on any application, after the relevant date (within the meaning of s 53(2): see PARA 676 note 7 post), for a licence for a vehicle to which s 53(2) applies, there is produced evidence that an effective goods vehicle test certificate is in force for the vehicle (s 66(4)(a));

- 1321 (2) on the first application, after the day appointed by regulations made by virtue of s 63(1) (see PARA 700 post), for a licence for a vehicle of any class to which those regulations apply, there is produced evidence that there is or are one or more certificates in force for the vehicle under ss 54-58 (as amended) (see PARAS 702-706 post) from which it appears that the vehicle complies with all the relevant type approval requirements prescribed by those regulations (s 66(4)(b)).

'Effective goods vehicle test certificate' means, in relation to an application for a licence for a vehicle, a goods vehicle test certificate relating to the vehicle which will be in force on the date on which the licence is to come into force: s 66(9). For the meaning of 'goods vehicle test certificate' see PARA 679 post. For the meaning of 'type approval requirements' see PARA 702 post. In relation to any application referred to in s 66(3) the requirement set out in s 66(4)(b) (see head (2) supra) must be taken to be satisfied if there is produced evidence that an EC certificate of conformity has effect with respect to the vehicle: s 66(4A) (added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, reg 16, Sch 2 para 4). For the meaning of 'EC certificate of conformity' see PARA 700 note 11 post.

The requirements of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 66(5) are that there is made such a declaration as may be prescribed that the vehicle is not intended to be used during the period for which the licence is to be in force except for a purpose or in an area prescribed under s 53(5)(a) (see PARA 676 post) or s 63(5) (see PARA 700 post): s 66(5).

The requirements of s 66(6) are that there is produced in respect of the vehicle a certificate of temporary exemption issued by virtue of s 53(5)(b) (see PARA 676 post) or s 63(5)(c) (see PARA 700 post) which exempts that vehicle from the provisions of s 53(2) (see PARA 676 post) or s 63(1) (see PARA 700 post), as the case may be, for a period which includes the date on which the licence is to come into force: s 66(6).

19 Ibid s 66(7). At the date at which this volume states the law the following regulations had effect under s 66: (1) the Motor Vehicles (Evidence of Test Certificates) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/1896; (2) the Goods Vehicles (Evidence of Test Certificates) Regulations 2004, SI 2004/2577; (3) the Motor Vehicles (Type Approval for Goods Vehicles) (Great Britain) Regulations 1982, SI 1982/1271, reg 19 (substituted by SI 1996/3014); (4) the Motor Vehicles (Type Approval) (Great Britain) Regulations 1984, SI 1984/981, reg 14 (substituted by SI 1996/3015); and (5) the Motor Vehicles (Approval) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/25 (amended by SI 2004/623).

20 le under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 41(2A)(a) (prospectively added): see PARA 260 ante.

21 Ibid s 66(7A) (prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 56(1), (5)). At the date at which this volume states the law no day had been appointed for the commencement of this provision.

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

675 Regulations prohibiting the grant of excise licences for certain vehicles except on compliance with certain conditions

NOTE 19--SI 2001/25 further amended: SI 2009/815.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(ii) Goods Vehicles/A. REQUIREMENT FOR TEST CERTIFICATE/676. Prohibition of use of vehicles without plating certificates or test certificates.

(ii) Goods Vehicles

A. REQUIREMENT FOR TEST CERTIFICATE

676. Prohibition of use of vehicles without plating certificates or test certificates.

If any person at any time on or after the relevant date<sup>1</sup> uses on a road<sup>2</sup> a goods vehicle of a class<sup>3</sup> required by regulations<sup>4</sup> to have been submitted for examination for plating, or causes or permits to be used on a road a goods vehicle of such a class, and at that time there is no plating certificate<sup>5</sup> in force for the vehicle, he is guilty of an offence<sup>6</sup>. If any person at any time on or after the relevant date<sup>7</sup> uses on a road a goods vehicle of a class required by such regulations to have been submitted for a goods vehicle test, or causes or permits to be used on a road a goods vehicle of such a class, and at that time there is no goods vehicle test certificate<sup>8</sup> in force for the vehicle, he is guilty of an offence<sup>9</sup>.

Any person who uses a goods vehicle on a road, or causes or permits a goods vehicle to be so used, when an alteration has been made to the vehicle or its equipment which is required by such regulations to be, but has not been, notified to the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup> (or, as from a day to be appointed, the prescribed testing authority<sup>11</sup>) is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup>. In any proceedings for such an offence, it is a defence to prove that the alteration was not specified in the relevant plating certificate in accordance with such regulations<sup>13</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations exempt from all or any of the above provisions the use of goods vehicles for such purposes or in such an area as may be prescribed<sup>14</sup>, and make provision for the issue in respect of a vehicle in such circumstances as may be prescribed of a certificate of temporary exemption exempting that vehicle from the provisions prohibiting use without a testing certificate or plating certificate<sup>15</sup> for such period as may be specified in the certificate<sup>16</sup>.

1 In the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53(1), 'relevant date', in relation to any goods vehicle, means the date by which it is required by the regulations to be submitted for examination for plating: s 53(1). In Pt II (ss 40A-86) (as amended), 'examination for plating' means an examination under regulations under s 49 (see PARA 679 post) for the purpose of determining plated particulars for a goods vehicle: s 49(4). In Pt II (as amended), 'plated particulars' means such particulars as are required to be marked on a goods vehicle in pursuance of regulations under s 41 (see PARA 260 ante) by means of a plate: s 41(7). For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 As to the classes of vehicle to which these provisions apply see PARA 677 post.

4 In the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 679 post): see s 53(1).

5 For the meaning of 'plating certificate' see PARA 679 post.

6 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53(1). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post. Section 11 (as amended) (evidence by certificate as to driver, user or owner), s 12(1) (proof, in summary proceedings, of identity of driver of vehicle) (see PARAS 1035-1036 post) apply to this offence, and that referred to in note 12 infra: s 1(4), Sch 1.

7 For these purposes, 'relevant date' means, in relation to any goods vehicle, the date by which it is required by the regulations to be submitted for its first goods vehicle test: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53(2). 'Goods vehicle test' means an examination under regulations under s 49 (as amended) for the purpose of ascertaining whether any prescribed construction and use requirements, or the requirement that the condition of the vehicle is not such that its use on a road would involve a danger of injury to any person are complied with in the case of a goods vehicle: s 49(4) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 54(4)). For the meaning of 'construction and use requirements' see PARA 261 note 1 ante.

8 For the meaning of 'goods vehicle test certificate' see PARA 679 post.

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53(2). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I.

10 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

11 'Prescribed testing authority' means such approved testing authority as may be prescribed: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (definition prospectively added by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I para 17(b)).

12 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53(3). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(7)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I para 4) so as to add the reference to the prescribed testing authority. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I. See also note 6 supra.

13 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53(4).

14 Ibid s 53(5)(a). For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 660 note 5 ante.

15 Ie ibid s 53(1), (2) (see the text and notes 1-9 supra).

16 Ibid s 53(5)(b).

At the date at which this volume states the law the Goods Vehicles (Plating and Testing) Regulations 1988, SI 1988/1478, Pt VIII (regs 44-46) (amended by SI 1990/448; SI 1997/82; SI 2000/1433; SI 2002/487; SI 2003/1816), have effect under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 53.

The prohibition on using or causing or permitting the use on a road of certain goods vehicles in respect of which no test certificate is in force<sup>1</sup> does not apply to the use of a vehicle:

- 232 (1) for the purpose of submitting it by previous arrangement for, or bringing it away from, an examination<sup>2</sup>;
- 233 (2) where a test certificate is refused on an examination, for the purpose of delivering it by previous arrangement at, or bringing it away from, a place where work is to be or has been done on it to remedy the defects<sup>3</sup> or for the purpose of delivering it, by towing it, to a place where it is to be broken up<sup>4</sup>;
- 234 (3) when unladen, for the purpose of being driven or drawn by a vehicle driven under a trade licence<sup>5</sup>;
- 235 (4) for the purpose of being driven or drawn where it was imported (or first imported) into Great Britain after arrival in Great Britain on the journey from the place where it has arrived in Great Britain to a place where it is to be kept by the person importing the vehicle or by any other person on whose behalf the vehicle was imported<sup>6</sup>;
- 236 (5) for any purpose for which the vehicle is authorised to be used on roads by an order<sup>7</sup> in respect of a special vehicle not complying with construction and use regulations<sup>8</sup>;
- 237 (6) for any purpose connected with its seizure or detention by a constable<sup>9</sup>;
- 238 (7) where the vehicle has been abandoned or illegally, obstructively or dangerously parked<sup>10</sup>;
- 239 (8) on any island in any area mainly surrounded by water, being an island or area from which motor vehicles cannot conveniently be driven to a road in any other part of Great Britain because there is no bridge, tunnel, ford or other way suitable for the passage of the vehicle<sup>11</sup>;
- 240 (9) where, in exceptional circumstances, a certificate of temporary exemption has been granted<sup>12</sup>.

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(1) ISSUE OF TEST CERTIFICATES/(ii) Goods Vehicles/B. CONDUCT OF TEST/679. Tests of satisfactory condition of goods vehicles and determination of plated weights, etc.

B. CONDUCT OF TEST

679. Tests of satisfactory condition of goods vehicles and determination of plated weights, etc.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations<sup>2</sup> make provision for the examination of goods vehicles<sup>3</sup> of any prescribed<sup>4</sup> class<sup>5</sup>:

- 241 (1) for the purpose of selecting or otherwise determining plated weights<sup>6</sup> or other plated particulars<sup>7</sup> for goods vehicles of that class<sup>8</sup>; or
- 242 (2) for the purpose of ascertaining whether any prescribed construction and use requirements<sup>9</sup> (whether relating to plated particulars or not) are complied with in the case of goods vehicles of that class<sup>10</sup>; or
- 243 (3) for the purpose of ascertaining whether the condition of the vehicle is such that its use on a road<sup>11</sup> would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>12</sup>, or for any of those purposes<sup>13</sup>. In particular the regulations may make provision:

- 244 (a) for the determination, according to criteria or by methods prescribed by or determined under the regulations, of the plated particulars for a goods vehicle (including its plated weights), on an examination of the vehicle for the purpose, and for the issue on such an examination, except as provided by regulations made by virtue of head (c) below, of a certificate (a 'plating certificate') specifying those particulars<sup>14</sup>;
- 245 (b) for the issue, for a goods vehicle which has been found on examination for the purpose to comply with the prescribed construction and use requirements and the requirement that the condition of the vehicle is not such that its use on a road would involve a danger of injury to any person, of a certificate (a 'goods vehicle test certificate') stating that the vehicle has been found so to comply<sup>15</sup>; and
- 246 (c) for the refusal of a goods vehicle test certificate for a goods vehicle which is so found not to comply with those requirements and for requiring a written notification to be given of any such refusal, and of the grounds of the refusal, and for the refusal of a plating certificate where a goods vehicle test certificate is refused<sup>16</sup>.

Without prejudice to the above<sup>17</sup>, such regulations may:

- 247 (i) require or authorise goods vehicles to which the regulations apply to be submitted for examination under the regulations<sup>18</sup> and, in particular,
  - 75 145. (A) require any such vehicle to be submitted for a goods vehicle test<sup>19</sup> at periodic intervals<sup>20</sup>;
  - 146. (B) require or authorise any such vehicle to be submitted for re-examination on the making of any prescribed alteration to it or its equipment and, for the purpose of determining whether any such re-examination is necessary, require any such alteration to be notified to the Secretary of State or, as from a day to be appointed, the prescribed testing authority<sup>21</sup>; and
  - 147. (C) require any such vehicle to be submitted for examination or re-examination for any purpose of plating or certification<sup>22</sup>;
- 76 248 (ii) as from a day to be appointed, require the payment of a fee on any notification of any alteration to a vehicle or its equipment which is required by the regulations to be notified to the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority<sup>23</sup>;
- 249 (iii) authorise any examination under the regulations to be carried out by or under the direction of a vehicle examiner<sup>24</sup> or, as from a day to be appointed, an authorised inspector<sup>25</sup>;
- 250 (iv) prescribe the conditions subject to which vehicles will be accepted for such examination<sup>26</sup> and, without prejudice to that,
  - 77 148. (A) authorise any person by whom an examination of the vehicle<sup>27</sup> is carried out to drive<sup>28</sup> the vehicle, whether on a road or elsewhere<sup>29</sup>; and
  - 149. (B) require that a driver<sup>30</sup> of a vehicle so examined is, except so far as permitted to be absent by the person carrying out the examination, present throughout the whole of the examination and drives the vehicle when directed to do so, and operates the controls in accordance with any directions given to him, by that person<sup>31</sup>;

78

- 251 (v) require the plating certificate for any vehicle to which the regulations apply to specify any alteration to the vehicle or its equipment which is required by the regulations to be notified to the Secretary of State or, as from a day to be appointed, the prescribed testing authority<sup>32</sup>;
- 252 (vi) authorise the amendment of a plating certificate or the issue of a different plating certificate on the re-examination of any vehicle<sup>33</sup>;
- 253 (vii) provide for the period of validity of goods vehicle test certificates<sup>34</sup>;
- 254 (viii) specify the manner in which, and the time before or within which, applications may be made for the examination of vehicles under the regulations or appeals may be brought<sup>35</sup> and the information to be supplied and documents to be produced on any such application, examination or appeal<sup>35</sup>;
- 255 (ix) make provision as to the fees to be paid on any such application or appeal and as to the repayment of the whole or part of any fee paid on such an appeal where it appears to the Secretary of State that there were substantial grounds for contesting the whole or part of the determination appealed from<sup>37</sup>;
- 256 (x) make provision as to the form of, and particulars to be contained in, plating certificates and goods vehicle test certificates and notifications of the refusal of the latter certificates<sup>38</sup>;
- 257 (xi) provide for the issue of replacements for plates marked with plated particulars, plating certificates and goods vehicle test certificates which have been lost or defaced and for the payment of a fee for their issue<sup>39</sup>;
- 258 (xii) exempt prescribed classes of vehicles from all or any of the provisions of the regulations either generally or in prescribed circumstances<sup>40</sup>;
- 259 (xiii) make different provision for different cases<sup>41</sup>.

Regulations may also be made as to appeals against determinations made on such examinations<sup>42</sup>; and, as from a day to be appointed, for the carrying out and supervision of private sector examinations<sup>43</sup>, and the carrying out of examinations at designated testing stations<sup>44</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed, the Secretary of State must maintain, or cause to be maintained, records containing such particulars as he thinks fit of goods vehicles submitted for examination<sup>45</sup>, and the carrying out of and the results of the examinations<sup>46</sup>.

683 Appeals

NOTE 2--SI 1988/1478 reg 25 further amended: SI 2008/1460.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(i) Roadside Tests/684. Testing of condition of vehicles on roads.

(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES

(i) Roadside Tests

684. Testing of condition of vehicles on roads.

An authorised examiner<sup>1</sup> may test<sup>2</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> on a road<sup>4</sup> for the purpose of: (1) ascertaining whether the following requirements are complied with as respects the vehicle<sup>5</sup>, namely: (a) the construction and use requirements<sup>6</sup>; and (b) the requirement that the condition of the vehicle<sup>7</sup> is not such that its use on a road would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>8</sup>; and (2) bringing to the notice of the driver<sup>9</sup> any failure to comply with those requirements<sup>10</sup>. For the purpose of testing a vehicle the examiner may require the driver to comply with his reasonable instructions, and may drive<sup>11</sup> the vehicle<sup>12</sup>. A vehicle cannot be required to stop for a test except by a constable in uniform, a community support officer, a person accredited for the purposes of a community safety accreditation scheme or a traffic warden<sup>13</sup>.

On the examiner proceeding to test a vehicle, the driver may elect that the test must be deferred and carried out at a time and place to be fixed<sup>14</sup>. However, where it appears to a constable that, by reason of an accident having occurred owing to the presence of the vehicle on a road, it is requisite that a test should be carried out forthwith, he may require it to be so carried out and, if he is not to carry it out himself, may require that the vehicle must not be taken away until the test has been carried out<sup>15</sup>. Further, where in the opinion of a constable the vehicle is apparently so defective that it ought not to be allowed to proceed without a test being carried out, he may require the test to be carried out forthwith<sup>16</sup>.

If a person obstructs an authorised examiner acting under the provisions described above, or fails to comply with a requirement of those provisions<sup>17</sup>, he is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>.

- 1324 (1) a person appointed as an examiner under s 66A (as added) (see PARA 698 post) (s 67(4)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 10(4), (5), 83, Sch 8));
- 1325 (2) a person appointed to examine and inspect public carriages for the purposes of the Metropolitan Public Carriage Act 1869 (see PARA 1478 et seq post) (Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67(4)(c));
- 1326 (3) a person appointed to act for the purposes of s 67 (as amended) by the Secretary of State (s 67(4)(d));
- 1327 (4) a constable authorised so to act by or on behalf of a chief officer of police (s 67(4)(e) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 8)); and
- 1328 (5) a person appointed by the police authority for a police area to act, under the directions of the chief officer of police, for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67 (as amended) (s 67(4)(f)).

A person mentioned in heads (1)-(3) and (5) supra must produce his authority to act for the purposes of s 67 (as amended) if required to do so: s 67(5). As to police authorities and police areas see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 136 et seq. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

Where the issue is whether it was proved that a particular function of a vehicle was defective, the evidence of a police constable may be received even though he is not an authorised examiner: Stoneley v Richardson [1973] RTR 229, DC, where a constable had been able to push the defendant's car along a road with the handbrake fully applied.

2 In the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67 (as amended) and Sch 2 (as amended) (see PARA 685 post), 'test' includes 'inspect' or 'inspection', as the case may require: s 67(10)(a).

3 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67(1)(a) (substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 10(2)).

6 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67(1)(a)(i) (as substituted: see note 5 supra). For the meaning of 'construction and use requirements' see PARA 261 note 1 ante.

7 In ibid s 67 (as amended) and Sch 2 (as amended) (see PARA 685 post), references to a vehicle include references to a trailer drawn by it: s 67(10)(b). For the meaning of 'trailer' see PARA 210 ante.

8 Ibid s 67(1)(a)(ii) (as substituted: see note 5 supra).

9 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

10 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67(1)(b). The Secretary of State may give information about vehicles or persons obtained from tests carried out under s 67 (as amended) to the competent authorities in other member states: see the Road Vehicles (Testing) (Disclosure of Information) (Great Britain) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2426.

11 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

14 See the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67(6). This does not apply where, under s 67(7) or (8), the test is required to be carried out forthwith: s 67(6). Times and places for tests are fixed in accordance with Sch 2 (as amended) (see PARA 685 post), the provisions of which apply accordingly: see s 67(6). It appears that the option to elect for a deferred test is conferred on the driver alone, and the examiner need not tell the driver of the option: Brown v McIndoe 1963 SLT 233.

16 Ibid s 67(8).

17 Or ibid Sch 2 (as amended) (see PARA 685 post).

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(i) Roadside Tests/685. Deferred tests of condition of vehicles.

685. Deferred tests of condition of vehicles.

Where the driver<sup>1</sup> is the owner<sup>2</sup> of a vehicle, he may at the time of electing that a test is to be deferred<sup>3</sup>:

- 260 (1) specify a period of seven days within which the deferred test is to take place, being a period falling within the next 30 days, disregarding any day on which the vehicle is outside Great Britain<sup>4</sup>; and
- 261 (2) require that the deferred test is to take place on premises then specified by him where the test can conveniently be carried out or that it is to take place in such area in England, being a county district or Greater London, in such county or county borough in Wales, or in such area in Scotland<sup>5</sup>, as he may specify at that time<sup>6</sup>.

When the driver is not the owner of the vehicle he must inform the examiner of the name and address of the owner of the vehicle and the owner must be afforded an opportunity of specifying such a period, and such premises or area<sup>7</sup>.

Where under these provisions a period has been specified within which the deferred test is to be carried out, the time for carrying it out must be such time within that period as may be notified<sup>8</sup>, being a time not earlier than two days after the giving of the notification<sup>9</sup>. Where no such period has been specified, the time for carrying out the deferred test must be such time as may be notified, being a time not earlier than seven days after the giving of the notification<sup>10</sup>. Where premises have been specified under these provisions for carrying out the deferred test, and the test can conveniently be carried out on those premises, it must be carried out there<sup>11</sup>; where this does not apply, the place for carrying out the deferred test must be such place as may be notified with the notification of the time for the carrying out of the test, and where an area has been so specified the place must be a place in that area<sup>12</sup>. Notwithstanding these provisions, the time and place for the carrying out of the deferred test may be varied by agreement between an authorised examiner<sup>13</sup> and the owner of the vehicle<sup>14</sup>.

The owner of the vehicle must produce it, or secure its production, at the time and place fixed for the carrying out of the deferred test<sup>15</sup>.

If a person fails to comply with a requirement of the provisions described above, he is guilty of an offence<sup>16</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

2 References in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67, Sch 2 (as amended) to the owner of a vehicle are references to the owner of the vehicle at the time at which the election is made under s 67(6) (see PARA 684 ante) that the test should be deferred: Sch 2 para 5(1). For the meaning of 'owner' generally see PARA 207 ante. For the meaning of 'vehicle' see PARA 684 note 7 ante. For the purposes of Sch 2 (as amended):

1329 (1) subject to head (2) infra, if at the time at which that election is made the vehicle is in the possession of a person under a hire-purchase agreement or hiring agreement, that person is to be deemed to be the owner of the vehicle to the exclusion of any other person (Sch 2 para 5(2)(a));

1330 (2) if at that time the vehicle is being used under an international circulation permit, the person to whom the permit was issued is to be deemed to be the owner of the vehicle to the exclusion of any other person (Sch 2 para 5(2)(b)).

686. Inspection of public passenger vehicles and goods vehicles.

A vehicle examiner<sup>1</sup> may: (1) at any time, on production if so required of his authority, inspect any vehicle to which these provisions<sup>2</sup> apply and for that purpose detain the vehicle during such time as is required for the inspection<sup>3</sup>; and (2) at any time which is reasonable, having regard to the circumstances of the case, enter any premises on which he has reason to believe that such a vehicle is kept<sup>4</sup>. These provisions apply to: (a) goods vehicles<sup>5</sup>; (b) public service vehicles<sup>6</sup>; and (c) motor vehicles<sup>7</sup> which are not public service vehicles but are adapted to carry more than eight passengers, but head (2) above does not apply in relation to vehicles within head (c) above or in relation to vehicles used to carry passengers for hire or reward only under specified permits<sup>8</sup>.

The above power to inspect a vehicle includes power to test it and to drive<sup>9</sup> it for the purpose of testing it<sup>10</sup>. A person who intentionally obstructs<sup>11</sup> an examiner in the exercise of his powers is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup>. A vehicle examiner or a constable in uniform may at any time require any person in charge of a vehicle to which this provision applies and which is stationary on a road<sup>13</sup> to proceed with the vehicle for the purpose of having it inspected to any place where an inspection can be suitably carried out (not being more than five miles from the place where the requirement is made)<sup>14</sup>. A person in charge of a vehicle who refuses or neglects to comply with a requirement so made is guilty of an offence<sup>15</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'vehicle examiner' see PARA 698 post.

2 I.e. the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68 (as substituted). Section 68 (as substituted) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(b).

3 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(1)(a) (s 68 substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 11). As from a day to be appointed, an authorised inspector may exercise the powers given by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(1)(a) (as substituted) in relation to any vehicle brought to the place of inspection in pursuance of a direction under s 68(4) (as so substituted): s 68(1) (as so substituted; and prospectively amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(6) (amended by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 146, Sch 14). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(1) (as so substituted) is also purportedly amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 19(3) so as to refer to the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(3), but it is submitted that the context requires the reference to be to s 68(4). For the meaning of 'authorised inspector' see PARA 660 note 14 ante.

4 Ibid s 68(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). The Secretary of State may give information about vehicles or persons obtained from inspections carried out under s 68 (as substituted) to the competent authorities in other member states: see the Road Vehicles (Testing) (Disclosure of Information) (Great Britain) Regulations 2002, SI 2002/2426. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

7 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

8 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(6) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). The permits referred to in the text are permits granted under the Transport Act 1985 s 19 or s 22 (use of vehicles by educational and other bodies) (see PARAS 1183, 1185 post).

9 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

10 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(2) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

11 Obstruction can be anything which makes the examiner's job more difficult: see Hinchcliffe v Sheldon [1955] 3 All ER 406, [1955] 1 WLR 1207, DC (obstruction of constable). Standing by and doing nothing is probably not obstruction unless there is a legal duty to act: see Swallow v LCC [1916] 1 KB 224, DC (refusal to assist where no obligation to do so); cf Rice v Connolly [1966] 2 QB 414, [1966] 2 All ER 649, DC. Note, however, that the provisions under which these cases were decided, and from which the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68 is derived, did not refer to 'intentional' obstruction.

12 Ibid s 68(3) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

13 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

14 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 68(4) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq.

15 Ibid s 68(5) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 83, Sch 8). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

684-697 Specific Powers to Test Vehicles

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(ii) Inspections and Prohibitions/B. PROHIBITIONS/688. Power to prohibit driving of unfit vehicles.

B. PROHIBITIONS

688. Power to prohibit driving of unfit vehicles.

If on any inspection of a vehicle<sup>1</sup> it appears to a vehicle examiner<sup>2</sup> or authorised inspector<sup>3</sup> that, owing to any defects in the vehicle, it is, or is likely to become, unfit for service, he may prohibit the driving<sup>4</sup> of the vehicle on a road<sup>5</sup>: (1) absolutely; (2) for one or more specified purposes; or (3) except for one or more specified purposes<sup>6</sup>. If on any inspection of a vehicle<sup>7</sup> it appears to an authorised constable<sup>8</sup> that, owing to any defects in the vehicle, driving it (or driving it for any particular purpose or purposes or for any except one or more particular purposes) would involve a danger of injury to any person, he may prohibit the driving of the vehicle on a road: (a) absolutely; (b) for one or more specified purposes; or (c) except for one or more specified purposes<sup>9</sup>.

Such a prohibition comes into force as soon as the notice referred to below<sup>10</sup> has been given<sup>11</sup> if it is imposed by an authorised constable<sup>12</sup>, or in the opinion of the vehicle examiner or authorised inspector imposing it the defects in the vehicle in question are such that driving it, or driving it for any purpose within the prohibition, would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>13</sup>. Otherwise, such a prohibition comes into force<sup>14</sup> at such time not later than 10 days from the date of the inspection as seems appropriate to the vehicle examiner or authorised inspector imposing the prohibition, having regard to all the circumstances<sup>15</sup>. A prohibition continues in force until it is removed<sup>16</sup>.

A person imposing such a prohibition must forthwith give notice in writing of the prohibition to the person in charge of the vehicle at the time of the inspection<sup>17</sup>:

- 262 (i) specifying the defects which occasioned the prohibition<sup>18</sup>;
- 263 (ii) stating whether the prohibition is on all driving of the vehicle or driving it for one or more specified purposes or driving it except for one or more specified purposes (and, where applicable, specifying the purpose or purposes in question)<sup>19</sup>; and
- 264 (iii) stating whether the prohibition is to come into force immediately or at the end of a specified period<sup>20</sup>.

Where such a notice has been given, any vehicle examiner or authorised inspector or authorised constable may grant an exemption in writing for the use of the vehicle in such manner, subject to such conditions and for such purpose as may be specified in the exemption<sup>21</sup>. Where such a notice has been given, any vehicle examiner or authorised inspector or authorised constable may by endorsement on the notice vary its terms and, in particular, alter the time at which the prohibition is to come into force or suspend it if it has come into force<sup>22</sup>.

Driving a vehicle in contravention of a prohibition to drive unfit vehicles, or causing or permitting a vehicle to be driven in contravention of such a prohibition is an offence<sup>23</sup>.

1     Ie under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 41 (as amended) (see PARA 260 ante), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 660 ante), s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 679 ante), s 61 (as amended) (see PARA 711 post), s 67 (as amended) (see PARA 684 ante), s 68 (as substituted) (see PARA 686 ante) or s 77 (see PARA 696 post).

4     For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante. Any reference in the Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 69-72 (as amended) to the driving of a vehicle is, in relation to a trailer, a reference to the driving of the vehicle by which the trailer is drawn: s 73(3). For the meaning of 'trailer' see PARA 210 ante.

5     For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

6     Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69(1) (s 69 substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 12). The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69 (as substituted) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(b).

The references in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69(1), (3)(b), (4), (7) (as substituted) to authorised inspectors are added as from a day to be appointed by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(3) (substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 19). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

Where it appears to a person giving such a notice that the vehicle concerned is, by virtue of the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 s 5 (see PARA 1332 post), authorised to be used under an operator's licence, he must as soon as practicable take steps to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of the traffic commissioner by whom the licence was issued, and the holder of the licence if he is not in charge of the vehicle at the time when the notice is given: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 73(1) (substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 56(2); and amended by the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 s 60(1), Sch 7 para 12(1)). For the meaning of 'operator's licence' see PARA 653 ante; definition applied by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 73(4) (amended by the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 s 60(1), Sch 7 para 12(3)).

Where it appears to the person giving the notice that the vehicle is authorised to be used under two or more operators' licences:

1331 (1) if those licences were granted by different traffic commissioners, his duty under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 73(1) (as substituted) may be discharged by taking steps to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of any one of those commissioners (s 73(1ZA)(a) (s 73(1ZA) added by the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 Sch 7 para 12(2)));

1332 (2) if those licences are held by different persons and none of those persons is in charge of the vehicle at the time when the notice is given, his duty may be discharged by taking steps to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of any one of those persons (Road Traffic Act 1988 s 73(1ZA)(b) (as so added)); and

1333 (3) if those licences are held by different persons and any of those persons is in charge of the vehicle at the time when the notice is given, no steps need be taken under that provision to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of the others (s 73(1ZA)(c) (as so added)).

Where it appears to a person giving such a notice that the vehicle concerned is used under a PSV operator's licence, he must as soon as practicable take steps to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of the traffic commissioner by whom the PSV operator's licence was granted for the vehicle, and the holder of the licence if he is not in charge of the vehicle at the time when the notice is given: s 73(1A) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 56(2)). For the meaning of 'PSV operator's licence' see PARA 1136 note 7 post; definition applied by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 73(4) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 18, Sch 4 para 56(4)).

In a case not within the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 73(1) (as substituted) or s 73(1A) (as added), a person giving such a notice must as soon as practicable take steps to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of the owner of the vehicle if he is not in charge of it at the time when the notice is given: s 73(1B) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 56(2)). For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante.

As from a day to be appointed, the Road Safety Act 2006 s 11(3), Sch 4 (see PARA 1127 et seq post) makes provision about the immobilisation of vehicles the driving of which has been prohibited under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69 (as substituted) and about their removal and disposal: s 73(5) (added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 12(3)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

As to the forgery of notices under this provision see the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 173 (as amended); and PARA 1012 post.

Section 73 (as amended) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2) (b).

18 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69(6)(a) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

684-697 Specific Powers to Test Vehicles

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(ii) Inspections and Prohibitions/B. PROHIBITIONS/690. Power to prohibit driving of overloaded vehicles.

690. Power to prohibit driving of overloaded vehicles.

The following provisions apply where a goods vehicle<sup>1</sup>, or a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> adapted to carry more than eight passengers, has been weighed in pursuance of a requirement to be weighed<sup>3</sup>, and it appears to: (1) a vehicle examiner<sup>4</sup>; (2) a person authorised with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>5</sup> to act for these purposes by a highway authority<sup>6</sup> other than the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>; or (3) a constable authorised to act for those purposes by or on behalf of a chief officer of police<sup>8</sup>, that the limit imposed by construction and use requirements<sup>9</sup> with respect to any description of weight which is applicable to that vehicle has been exceeded or would be exceeded if it were used on a road<sup>10</sup>, or that, by reason of excessive overall weight or excessive axle weight on any axle, driving<sup>11</sup> the vehicle would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>12</sup>.

The person to whom it so appears may, whether or not a notice of prohibition<sup>13</sup> is given, give notice in writing to the person in charge of the vehicle prohibiting the driving of the vehicle on a road<sup>14</sup> until that weight is reduced to that limit or, as the case may be, so that it is no longer excessive<sup>15</sup>, and official notification<sup>16</sup> has been given to whoever is for the time being in charge of the vehicle that it is permitted to proceed<sup>17</sup>. That person may also by direction in writing require the person in charge of the vehicle to remove it (and, if it is a motor vehicle drawing a trailer<sup>18</sup>, also to remove the trailer) to such place and subject to such conditions as are specified in the direction; and the prohibition does not apply to the removal of the vehicle or trailer in accordance with that direction<sup>19</sup>.

Driving a vehicle in contravention of such a prohibition, or causing or permitting a vehicle to be driven in contravention of such a prohibition, or failure to comply within a reasonable time with a direction, is an offence<sup>20</sup>.

9. (a) solely for the purpose of submitting it by previous arrangement for a specified time on a specified date for an inspection by a vehicle examiner or authorised constable with a view to the removal of the prohibition (Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, reg 3(1)(a));

10. (b) solely for the purpose of submitting it by previous arrangement for a specified time on a specified date for an inspection by a vehicle examiner with a view to the removal of the prohibition and the issue of either a test certificate or a goods vehicle test certificate (reg 3(1)(b));

10

11. (c) in the course of an inspection with a view to the removal of a prohibition (reg 3(1)(c)); or

11

12. (d) within three miles from where it is being, or has been, repaired solely for the purpose of its test or trial with a view to the removal of a prohibition (reg 3(1)(d));

1335 (2) where a prohibition has been imposed with a direction under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69A(3) (as added) (see PARA 689 ante), the driving of the vehicle on a road solely for the purpose of submitting it by previous arrangement at a specified time for an examination under s 45(3) (see PARA 660 ante) with a view to obtaining a test certificate or bringing it away from such an examination (Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, reg 3(2));

1336 (3) where: (a) a prohibition has been imposed with a direction under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69A(3) (as added) (see PARA 689 ante); and (b) a relevant test certificate has been issued, the driving of the vehicle on a road to a police station with a view to the prohibition being removed under the Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, reg 4(3) (removal by a person authorised by or on behalf of a chief officer of police) (reg 3(3)).

684-697 Specific Powers to Test Vehicles

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(ii) Inspections and Prohibitions/B. PROHIBITIONS/692. Removal of prohibitions.

692. Removal of prohibitions.

Subject to the following provisions, a prohibition on the driving of unfit vehicles or overloaded goods vehicles<sup>1</sup> may be removed by any vehicle examiner<sup>2</sup> or authorised constable<sup>3</sup> or authorised inspector<sup>4</sup> if he is satisfied that the vehicle is fit for service<sup>5</sup>. A person aggrieved<sup>6</sup> by the refusal of a vehicle examiner or authorised constable or authorised inspector to remove a prohibition may, within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner, appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>. The Secretary of State may make such order on the appeal as he thinks fit<sup>8</sup>. Where a vehicle examiner or authorised constable or authorised inspector removes a prohibition, he must forthwith give notice of the removal to the owner<sup>9</sup> of the vehicle<sup>10</sup>.

The Secretary of State may require the payment of fees, in accordance with prescribed scales and rates, for the inspection of a vehicle with a view to the removal of a prohibition; and payment of fees may be required to be made in advance<sup>11</sup>. The Secretary of State may make regulations for prescribing anything which may be prescribed under this provision and for regulating the procedure, and fees payable, on appeals to him<sup>12</sup>.

The Secretary of State may provide and maintain official testing stations where inspections of goods vehicles for the purposes of the provisions described above in relation to goods vehicles may be carried out, and may provide and maintain the apparatus for carrying out such inspections<sup>13</sup>.

1   le a prohibition under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69 (as substituted) (see PARA 688 ante) or s 70 (as amended) (see PARA 690 ante). For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

2   For the meaning of 'vehicle examiner' see PARA 698 post.

3   'Authorised constable' means a constable authorised to act for these purposes by or on behalf of a chief officer of police: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72(10) (s 72 substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 15). As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

4   For the meaning of 'authorised inspector' see PARA 660 note 14 ante.

5   Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72(1) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). The references in s 72(1), (5), (7) to authorised inspectors are added, as from a day to be appointed, by the Transport Act 1982 s 20 (substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 20)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

If the prohibition has been imposed with a direction under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69A(1) or (2) (as added) (see PARA 689 ante), the prohibition cannot be removed unless and until the vehicle has been inspected in accordance with the direction: s 72(2) (as so substituted). If the prohibition has been imposed with a direction under s 69A(3) (as added) (see PARA 689 ante), s 72(1) (as substituted; prospectively amended) does not apply; but the prohibition must be removed, by such person as may be prescribed, if (and only if) any prescribed requirements relating to the inspection of the vehicle and the issue and production of a test certificate have been complied with: s 72(3) (as so substituted). For the meaning of 'test certificate' see PARA 660 ante. For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 660 note 5 ante. For the prescribed requirements see the Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, reg 4.

If the prohibition has been imposed with a direction under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 69A(4) (as added) (see PARA 689 ante), the prohibition cannot be removed unless and until any prescribed requirements relating to the inspection of the vehicle have been complied with: s 72(4) (as so substituted). For the prescribed requirements see the Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, reg 5.

The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72 (as substituted) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(b).

6   As to persons aggrieved see JUDICIAL REVIEW vol 61 (2010) PARAS 656, 664.

For the procedure on appeal see the Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, reg 6. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

8   Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72(6) (as substituted: see note 3 supra).

9   For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante.

10 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72(7) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). As to the prospective amendment of this provision see note 5 supra. A person giving such notice to the owner of a vehicle must as soon as practicable take steps to bring the contents of the notice to the attention of any other person who was the person to whom the previous notice under s 69(6) (see PARA 688 text and note 17 ante) or s 70(2) (see PARA 690 text and note 14 ante) was given and who was then the owner of the vehicle, or to whose attention the contents of the previous notice were brought under this provision: s 73(1C) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 56(2)).

11 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72(8)(a) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). The Secretary of State must ensure that all the scales and rates prescribed for the purposes of s 72(8) (as substituted) are reasonably comparable with, in the case of goods vehicles, the fees charged by virtue of s 51(1)(h) (see PARA 679 ante) in respect of periodic examination (s 72(8)(b)(i) (as so substituted)), and in the case of other vehicles, the fees charged by virtue of s 46(c) (sic) (see PARA 662 ante) (s 72(8)(b)(ii) (as so substituted)).

12 Ibid s 72(9) (as substituted: see note 3 supra). See the regulations mentioned in notes 5, 7 supra. As to fees see the Road Vehicles (Prohibition) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1285, regs 7, 8 (both amended by SI 1997/83). Any sum received by the Secretary of State in pursuance of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 72(9) (as substituted) must be paid into the Consolidated Fund: s 84(4). ### (iii) Operator's Duty to Inspect Goods Vehicles

693. Operators' duty to inspect, and keep records of inspections of, goods vehicles.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations<sup>2</sup> requiring the operator<sup>3</sup> for the time being of a goods vehicle to which the regulations apply to secure:

265 (1) the carrying out by a suitably qualified person (including the operator if so qualified) of an inspection of the vehicle for the purpose of ascertaining whether the following requirements are complied with<sup>4</sup>, namely:

150. (a) the construction and use requirements<sup>5</sup> with respect to any prescribed matters, being requirements applicable to the vehicle<sup>6</sup>; and

151. (b) the requirement that the condition of the vehicle is not such that its use on a road<sup>7</sup> would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>8</sup>; and
- 80
- 266 (2) the making and authentication of records of such matters relating to any such inspection as may be prescribed, including records of the action taken to remedy any defects discovered on the inspection<sup>9</sup>, and providing for the preservation of such records for a prescribed period not exceeding 15 months and their custody and production during that period<sup>10</sup>. Such regulations may apply to all goods vehicles or to goods vehicles of such classes as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>, require the inspection of goods vehicles under the regulations to be carried out at such times, or before the happening of such events, as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>, and make different provision for different cases<sup>13</sup>.

Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of such regulations is guilty of an offence<sup>14</sup>.

Vehicles not to be sold in unroadworthy condition or altered so as to be unroadworthy.

(iv) Unroadworthy Vehicles and Defective Parts

694. Vehicles not to be sold in unroadworthy condition or altered so as to be unroadworthy.

Subject to certain exceptions<sup>1</sup> no person may supply<sup>2</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> or trailer<sup>4</sup> in an unroadworthy condition<sup>5</sup>. Subject to the same exceptions no person may alter a motor vehicle or trailer so as to render its condition such that the use of it on a road in that condition would be unlawful by virtue of any provision made as respects the construction, weight or equipment of vehicles<sup>6</sup> or would involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>7</sup>. A person who supplies or alters a motor vehicle or trailer in contravention of the above provisions, or causes or permits it to be so supplied or altered, is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>.

However, a person may not be convicted of such an offence if he proves that: (1) it was supplied or altered, as the case may be, for export from Great Britain<sup>9</sup>; or (2) he had reasonable cause to believe that the vehicle or trailer would not be used on a road in Great Britain, or would not be so used until it had been put into a condition in which it might lawfully be so used<sup>10</sup>.

Nothing in these provisions affects the validity of a contract or any rights arising under a contract<sup>11</sup>.

1    le subject to the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 75(6) (as amended) and s 75(7): see the text and notes 9-11 infra.

2    'Supply' includes sell, offer to sell or supply, and expose for sale: ibid s 75(2). See also British Car Auctions Ltd v Wright [1972] 3 All ER 462, [1972] 1 WLR 1519, DC (car auctioneers do not offer for sale).

The defence under head (2) in the text does not apply in relation to a person who, in the course of a trade or business:

1337 (1) exposes a vehicle or trailer for sale, unless he also proves that he took all reasonable steps to ensure that any prospective purchaser would be aware that its use in its current condition on a road in Great Britain would be unlawful (Road Traffic Act 1988 s 75(6A)(a) (s 75(6A) added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 16(5))); or

1338 (2) offers to sell a vehicle or trailer, unless he also proves that he took all reasonable steps to ensure that the person to whom the offer was made was aware of that fact (Road Traffic Act 1988 s 75(6A)(b) (as so added)).

11 Ibid s 75(7). It would appear also that these provisions do not give a purchaser a right of action: see Badham v Lambs Ltd [1946] KB 45, [1945] 2 All ER 295 (decided under corresponding earlier legislation).

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(iv) Unroadworthy Vehicles and Defective Parts/695. Fitting and supply of defective or unsuitable vehicle parts.

695. Fitting and supply of defective or unsuitable vehicle parts.

If any person fits a vehicle part<sup>1</sup> to a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle part to be fitted to a vehicle, in such circumstances that the use of the vehicle on a road<sup>2</sup> would, by reason of that part being fitted to the vehicle, involve a danger of injury to any person or constitute a contravention of or failure to comply with any of the construction and use requirements<sup>3</sup>, he is guilty of an offence<sup>4</sup>. However, a person may not be convicted of such an offence if he proves that the vehicle to which the part was fitted was to be exported from Great Britain<sup>5</sup>, or that he had reasonable cause to believe that that vehicle would not be used on a road in Great Britain<sup>6</sup>, or that it would not be so used until it had been put into a condition in which its use on a road would not constitute a contravention of or a failure to comply with any of the construction and use requirements and would not involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>7</sup>.

If a person supplies<sup>8</sup> a vehicle part or causes or permits a vehicle part to be supplied, and has reasonable cause to believe that the part is to be fitted to a motor vehicle<sup>9</sup>, or to a vehicle of a particular class, or to a particular vehicle, he is guilty of an offence if that part could not be fitted to a motor vehicle or, as the case may require, to a vehicle of that class or of a class to which the particular vehicle belongs, except in such circumstances that the use of the vehicle on a road would, by reason of that part being fitted to the vehicle, constitute a contravention of or failure to comply with any of the construction and use requirements or involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>10</sup>. A person may not be convicted of such an offence in respect of the supply of a vehicle part if he proves that the part was supplied for export from Great Britain<sup>11</sup>, or that he had reasonable cause to believe that it would not be fitted to a vehicle used on a road in Great Britain<sup>12</sup>, or it would not be so fitted until it had been put into such a condition that it could be fitted otherwise than in such circumstances that the use of the vehicle on a road would, by reason of that part being fitted to the vehicle, constitute a contravention of or failure to comply with any of the construction and use requirements or involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>13</sup>.

An authorised examiner<sup>14</sup> may at any reasonable hour enter premises where, in the course of a business, vehicle parts are fitted to vehicles or are supplied and test and inspect any vehicle or vehicle part found on those premises<sup>15</sup> for the purpose of ascertaining whether: (1) a vehicle part has been fitted to the vehicle in such circumstances that the use of the vehicle on a road would, by reason of that part being fitted to the vehicle, constitute a contravention of or failure to comply with any of the construction and use requirements or involve a danger of injury to any person<sup>16</sup>; or (2) the vehicle part could not be supplied for fitting to a vehicle used on roads in Great Britain without the commission of an offence described above relating to the supply of vehicle parts<sup>17</sup>. For the purpose of testing a motor vehicle and any trailer<sup>18</sup> drawn by it the authorised examiner may drive<sup>19</sup> it and for the purpose of testing a trailer may draw it with a motor vehicle<sup>20</sup>. Any person who obstructs an authorised examiner acting under these powers is guilty of an offence<sup>21</sup>.

Nothing in the above provisions affects the validity of a contract or of any rights arising under a contract<sup>22</sup>.

1 'Vehicle part' means any article which is a motor vehicle part, within the meaning of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 80 (see PARA 714 note 3 post), and any other article which is made or adapted for use as part of, or as part of the equipment of, a vehicle which is intended or adapted to be used on roads but which is not a motor vehicle within the meaning of s 80 (see PARA 714 note 2 post): s 85.

684-697 Specific Powers to Test Vehicles

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(2) SPECIFIC POWERS TO TEST VEHICLES/(v) Weighing of Vehicles/697. Weighing of motor vehicles.

(v) Weighing of Vehicles

697. Weighing of motor vehicles.

Subject to any regulations made by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup>, an authorised person<sup>2</sup> may, on production of his authority, require the person in charge of a motor vehicle<sup>3</sup> to allow the vehicle or any trailer<sup>4</sup> drawn by it to be weighed, either laden or unladen, and the weight transmitted to the road<sup>5</sup> by any parts of the vehicle or trailer in contact with the road to be tested, and for that purpose, to proceed to a weighbridge or other machine for weighing vehicles<sup>6</sup>.

For the purpose of enabling a vehicle or a trailer drawn by it to be weighed or a weight to be tested in accordance with regulations under the above provision, an authorised person may require the person in charge of the vehicle to drive<sup>7</sup> the vehicle or to do any other thing in relation to the vehicle or its load or the trailer or its load which is reasonably required to be done for that purpose<sup>8</sup>. If at the time when the requirement is made the vehicle is more than five miles<sup>9</sup> from the weighbridge or other machine, and the weight is found to be within the limits authorised by law, the highway authority on whose behalf the requirement is made must pay, in respect of loss occasioned, such amount as in default of agreement may be determined by a single arbitrator agreed upon by the parties or, in default of agreement, appointed by the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>. If a person in charge of a motor vehicle refuses or neglects to comply with any such requirement, or obstructs an authorised person in the exercise of his functions under this provision, he is guilty of an offence<sup>11</sup>.

An authorised person may not require the person in charge of the motor vehicle to unload the vehicle or trailer, or to cause or allow it to be unloaded, for the purpose of its being weighed unladen<sup>12</sup>.

Regulations may make provision with respect to the manner in which a vehicle or trailer is to be weighed or a weight is to be tested as mentioned above, and the limits within which, unless the contrary is proved, any weight determined by a weighbridge or other machine for weighing vehicles is to be presumed to be accurate for the purposes of any provision made by or under the Road Traffic Act 1988 or by or under any other enactment relating to motor vehicles or trailers, and the regulations may make different provision in relation to vehicles of different classes, in relation to different types of weighbridges and other machines, and in relation to different circumstances<sup>13</sup>.

Where a motor vehicle or trailer is weighed under the provisions described above, a certificate of weight must be given to the person in charge of the vehicle, and the certificate so given exempts the motor vehicle and the trailer, if any, from being weighed so long as it is during the continuance of the same journey carrying the same load<sup>14</sup>. On production of his authority a vehicle examiner<sup>15</sup> or any of the Secretary of State's officers authorised by him in that behalf may at any time exercise with respect to the weighing of goods vehicles<sup>16</sup>, public service vehicles<sup>17</sup>, and vehicles which are not public service vehicles but are adapted to carry more than eight passengers, all such powers with respect to the weighing of motor vehicles and trailers as are exercisable as described above<sup>18</sup> by an authorised constable<sup>19</sup>.

If, for the purposes of or in connection with the determination of any weight in relation to a vehicle which is brought to a weighbridge or other machine, an authorised person or a person exercising powers by virtue of the above provision drives a vehicle or does any other thing in relation to a vehicle or its load or a trailer or its load, or requires the driver<sup>20</sup> of a vehicle to drive it in a particular manner or to a particular place or to do any other thing in relation to a vehicle or its load or a trailer or its load, neither he nor any person complying with such a requirement is liable for any damage to or loss in respect of the vehicle or its load or the trailer or its load unless it is shown that he acted without reasonable care<sup>21</sup>.

3 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'trailer' see PARA 210 ante.

5 In the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 78, 'road' includes any land which forms part of a harbour or which is adjacent to a harbour and is occupied wholly or partly for the purposes of harbour operations: s 78(8)(a). For the meaning of 'harbour' see the Harbours Act 1964 s 57(1); and PORTS AND HARBOURS vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 611 (definition applied by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 78(8)). For the meaning of 'harbour operations' see the Harbours Act 1964 s 57(1); and PORTS AND HARBOURS vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 605 (definition applied by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 78(8)).

7 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

8 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 78(2).

9 The Secretary of State may by order designate areas in Great Britain where this provision is to have effect, in such cases as may be specified by the order, with the substitution for five miles of a greater distance so specified: ibid s 78(7). Such an order must be made by statutory instrument subject to annulment by a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 78(7). Such orders are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. For the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 205 note 3 ante.

10 Ibid s 78(6). See further the text and note 19 infra.

11 Ibid s 78(3). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post. Section 11 (as amended) (evidence by certificate as to driver, user or owner), s 12(1) (proof, in summary proceedings, of identity of driver of vehicle) (see PARAS 1035-1036 post) apply to this offence: s 1(4), Sch 1.

12 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 78(4).

13 Ibid s 78(5). At the date at which this volume states the law the Weighing of Motor Vehicles (Use of Dynamic Axle Weighing Machines) Regulations 1978, SI 1978/1180 (modified by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 9(2)), have effect under these provisions.

14 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 79(1). A certificate in the prescribed form which purports to be signed by an authorised person (within the meaning of s 78: see note 2 supra) or by a person exercising powers by virtue of s 79(2) (as amended) (see the text and notes 15-19 infra), and states, in relation to a vehicle identified in the certificate, any weight determined in relation to that vehicle on the occasion of its being brought to a weighbridge or other machine in pursuance of a requirement under s 78(1) (see the text and notes 1-6 supra), is evidence of the matter so stated: s 79(4). For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 660 note 5 ante. For the prescribed form see the Weighing of Motor Vehicles (Use of Dynamic Axle Weighing Machines) Regulations 1978, SI 1978/1180, reg 5, Schedule.

15 For the meaning of 'vehicle examiner' see PARA 698 post.

16 For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

17 For the meaning of 'public service vehicle' see PARA 1136 post; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4).

At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

UPDATE*698-699 Examiners and Inspectors

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/8. TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(3) EXAMINERS AND INSPECTORS/699. Approved testing authorities, authorised inspectors and approved assistants.

699. Approved testing authorities, authorised inspectors and approved assistants.

The following provisions take effect as from a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> may authorise any person, unless he is the holder of a goods vehicle operator's licence<sup>3</sup> or a PSV operator's licence<sup>4</sup>, to conduct a business known as a 'vehicle testing business' consisting of or including the exercise by any person in the course of that business of any of certain testing and surveillance functions under the Road Traffic Act 1988<sup>5</sup>, the Road Traffic (Foreign Vehicles) Act 1972<sup>6</sup> and the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981<sup>7</sup> concerned with the testing of goods and other vehicles and related matters<sup>8</sup>. A person so authorised is known as an 'approved testing authority'<sup>9</sup>.

The Secretary of State may also authorise any individual (known as an 'authorised inspector') to exercise all or any of these testing and surveillance functions in the course of a vehicle testing business<sup>10</sup>; and may authorise any individual (known as an 'approved assistant') to act under the directions of an authorised inspector for the purposes of or in connection with the inspector's exercise of any of the testing and surveillance functions<sup>11</sup>.

Any such authorisation so granted is subject to such conditions or limitations as the Secretary of State may at any time notify in writing to the person authorised<sup>12</sup>, and an authorisation to carry on a vehicle testing business or a notification<sup>13</sup> extending the testing and surveillance functions which may be exercised<sup>14</sup> may not be given unless a document giving the required notice<sup>15</sup> of the proposal to do so has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament<sup>16</sup>.

Without the consent of the person authorised, the Secretary of State may not withdraw any such authorisation except for breach of any condition<sup>17</sup> attached to it<sup>18</sup> or, in the case of an authorised inspector or approved assistant, for misconduct or incompetence or other reasonable cause<sup>19</sup>.

Regulations<sup>20</sup> may be made for the proper carrying out and supervision of private sector examinations<sup>21</sup>.

<sup>2</sup> As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

<sup>4</sup> See the Transport Act 1982 s 8(2) (amended by the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act 1995 s 60(1), Sch 7, PARA 8). Any authorisation granted ceases if the person subsequently becomes the holder of a goods vehicle operator's licence or a PSV operator's licence: Transport Act 1982 s 8(2). As to PSV operators' licences see PARA 1163 et seq post.

5 The following functions under the Road Traffic Act 1988 are specified: (1) any determination under construction and use regulations under s 41 (as amended) (see PARA 260 ante) of the suitability for operation in any particular manner (in terms of construction or design) of any public service vehicle; (2) the carrying out or supervision of examinations and the issue or refusal of test certificates under regulations under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 660 ante); (3) the issue of certificates of temporary exemption under regulations under s 48(4); (4) the carrying out or supervision of examinations and the issue or refusal of certificates under regulations under s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 679 ante); (5) the issue of certificates of temporary exemption under regulations under s 53(5)(b) (see PARA 676 text and notes 15-16 ante); (6) the carrying out or supervision of, or the making of any requirement with respect to, the examination of a vehicle under regulations under s 61 (as amended) (see PARA 711 post); (7) the cancellation, suspension or amendment, on any such examination, of any certificate of conformity or Minister's approval certificate; (8) the power of entry, inspection and detention of vehicles under s 68 (as substituted and amended) (see PARA 686 ante) in relation to a vehicle brought to the place of inspection on the direction of a vehicle examiner or a constable under s 68(3); and (9) the functions of imposing and removing prohibitions under s 69 (as substituted and amended), s 69A (as added and amended), s 70 (as amended) and s 72 (as substituted and amended) on the driving of vehicles, except those under s 70(2) (see PARAS 688-690, 692 ante): Transport Act 1982 s 9 (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I paras 2, 3; and the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 48, 83, Sch 4 para 18, Sch 8).

6 The following functions under the Road Traffic (Foreign Vehicles) Act 1972 are specified: any functions under ss 1, 2, so far as exercisable in, or on the removal or remedying of, any of the circumstances mentioned in s 1(2)(a) or (in relation to a contravention of any provision of, or of regulations under, the Road Traffic Act 1988) in the Road Traffic (Foreign Vehicles) Act 1972 s 1(2)(b) (see PARA 1644 post): Transport Act 1982 s 9.

7 The following functions under the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 are specified: (1) the carrying out or supervision of examinations and the issue or refusal of certificates of initial fitness for the purposes of s 6(1)(a) under regulations under s 6(1A) (prospectively added and amended) (see PARA 1141 note 6 post); (2) the carrying out or supervision of examinations and the issue or refusal of type conformity certificates under s 10 (as amended) (see PARA 1143 post); (3) the carrying out or supervision of examinations under regulations made under s 20(2A) (prospectively added and amended) (see PARA 1161 note 8 post); (4) the determination under regulations under s 26 of the number of seated and standing passengers that a vehicle is constructed or adapted or fit to carry or that may be carried in a vehicle: Transport Act 1982 s 9 (as amended: see note 5 supra).

8 Ibid ss 8(1), 26. The provisions of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954 Pt II (ss 23-46) (as amended), which give security of tenure to business tenants (see LANDLORD AND TENANT vol 27(2) (2006 Reissue) PARA 701 et seq), do not apply to a tenancy granted by the Secretary of State in respect of premises to be occupied as a vehicle testing business (Transport Act 1982 s 14(1), (3)), and no enactment or rule providing for relief against forfeiture applies to any such tenancy (s 14(2)).

9 Ibid ss 8(3), 26. As to the requirement for the Secretary of State to consult before taking decisions relating to approved testing authorities see s 15(1), (2)(c)-(e), (4).

10 Ibid ss 8(4), 26. To the extent that the terms of his authorisation so provide, an authorised inspector has the duty to refuse any certificate or impose or remove any prohibition which he has power to refuse, impose or remove: s 10(1). The Secretary of State may by regulations provide for the exercise by authorised inspectors of specified functions in connection with the inspection and certification of vehicles under the European Agreement Concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Road (ADR) (Geneva, 30 September 1957; TS 83 (1968); Cmnd 3769) and the Convention on the International Transport of Goods under cover of TIR Carnets (Geneva, 14 November 1975; Misc 22 (1976); Cmnd 6492) (Transport Act 1982 s 12(1), (4)), and may designate premises as stations where such inspections may be carried out (s 12(2)). The regulations may provide for fees: s 12(3). A person who, with intent to deceive (as to which see PARA 1370 note 3 post), falsely represents himself to be an authorised inspector is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: s 25 (amended by virtue of the Criminal Justice Act 1982 s 46(1), (4)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. The Transport Act 1982 s 25 (as amended) extends to vehicles and persons in the public service of the Crown (as to which see PARA 1023 note 2 post): s 72(a). A person who, with intent to deceive, uses or lends to or allows to be used by any other person a document evidencing the authorisation of a person as an authorised inspector, or makes or has in his possession any document so closely resembling such a document as to be calculated to deceive, is liable on conviction on indictment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum: s 23(1). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 359 note 11 ante.

11 Ibid s 8(5).

12 Ibid s 8(6). Without prejudice to s 8(6), the Secretary of State may by regulations impose conditions to be complied with by approved testing authorities, authorised inspectors and approved assistants, and regulations under any enactment relating to any of the testing and surveillance functions may impose conditions to be complied with by authorised inspectors and approved assistants in executing any of those functions under the regulations: s 8(7) (prospectively amended by the Road Traffic (Vehicle Testing) Act 1999 s 1, Schedule para 1(1), (2)(b)).

13    Ie under the Transport Act 1982 s 8(6).

14    The addition of any new functions which may be exercised in the course of a vehicle testing business carried on by an approved testing authority is an extension of the testing and surveillance functions for the purposes of ibid s 8 (as amended), notwithstanding that other functions may be excluded from exercise in the course of that business at the same time as the new ones are added: s 8(11).

15    Ie (1) in the case of an authorisation to carry on a vehicle testing business, a notice indicating that the Secretary of State proposes to authorise the person in question to carry on such a business and specifying the testing and surveillance functions within the proposed terms of the authorisation (ibid s 8(10)(a)); and (2) in the case of an extension of functions, a notice indicating that the Secretary of State proposes to extend the functions which may be exercised in the course of the business carried on by the approved testing authority in question, and specifying the additional functions (s 8(10)(b)).

16    Ibid s 8(9).

17    Ie whether under ibid s 8(6), or by regulations made under or by virtue of s 8(7).

18    Ibid s 8(8)(a).

19    Ibid s 8(8)(b).

20    Ie made under the Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 45, 49, 61 (all as amended) (see PARAS 660, 679 ante, 711 post), or the Public Passenger Vehicles Act 1981 s 6(1A) (prospectively added and amended), s 10(4) (as amended), s 20(2A) (prospectively added and amended) (see PARAS 1141 note 6, 1143, 1161 note 8 post).

(4) TYPE APPROVAL

(i) Type Approval Certificates, Certificates of Conformity and Minister's Approval Certificates

A. IN GENERAL

700. Requirement to hold type approval certificates, certificates of conformity and Minister's approval certificates.

If:

- 267 (1) any person at any time on or after the day appointed by regulations made by the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> in relation to vehicles or vehicle parts<sup>2</sup> of a prescribed<sup>3</sup> class<sup>4</sup>, being vehicles or vehicle parts to which type approval requirements<sup>5</sup> prescribed by those regulations apply, uses on a road<sup>6</sup>, or causes or permits to be so used, a vehicle of that class or a vehicle to which is fitted a vehicle part of that class<sup>7</sup>; and
- 268 (2) it does not appear from one or more certificates then in force<sup>8</sup> that the vehicle or vehicle part complies with those requirements<sup>9</sup>, he is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>. For these purposes a vehicle is taken to comply with all relevant type approval requirements if an EC certificate of conformity<sup>11</sup> has effect with respect to the vehicle<sup>12</sup>.

If a plating certificate<sup>13</sup> has been issued for a goods vehicle<sup>14</sup>, but does not specify a maximum laden weight for the vehicle together with any trailer<sup>15</sup> which may be drawn by it, any person who on or after the relevant date<sup>16</sup> or, as the case may be, the day so appointed, uses the vehicle on a road for drawing a trailer, or causes or permits it to be so used, is guilty of an offence<sup>17</sup>.

Any person who uses a vehicle on a road, or causes or permits a vehicle to be so used, when an alteration has been made to the vehicle or its equipment which is required by regulations or directions<sup>18</sup> to be, but has not been, notified to the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority<sup>19</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>20</sup>.

The Secretary of State may make provision for securing that, subject to such restrictions and conditions as may be specified by or under the instrument by which the provision is made<sup>21</sup>:

- 269 (a) the use of vehicles is exempted from all or any of the preceding provisions for purposes specified in the instrument or in such an area as is so specified<sup>22</sup>;
- 270 (b) goods vehicles are exempted from the offence relating to plating certificates<sup>23</sup>; and
- 271 (c) there are issued in respect of vehicles or vehicle parts, in such circumstances as may be specified in the instrument, certificates of temporary exemption exempting the vehicles or vehicle parts from the requirements as to type approval certificates for such period as may be provided in the certificate<sup>24</sup>.

A number of regulations have been made or have effect under these provisions<sup>25</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 Different days may be appointed in relation to different classes of vehicles or vehicle parts: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 63(1). For the meaning of 'vehicle part' see PARA 695 note 1 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 660 note 5 ante. See note 25 infra.

4 As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante.

8 Ie under ibid ss 54-58 (as amended): see PARAS 702-706 post.

9 Ibid s 63(1)(b).

10 Ibid s 63(1). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

11 'EC certificate of conformity' means: (1) in the case of a light passenger vehicle, any certificate of conformity issued by a manufacturer under what are now the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/2051 (as amended), or under any provision of the law of a member state other than the United Kingdom giving effect to the light passenger vehicle type approval Directive art 6, which is expressed to be a certificate for a complete or completed vehicle; or (2) in the case of a vehicle to which the motorcycle type approval Directive applies, any certificate of conformity: (a) issued by a manufacturer under the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2920, reg 8(1), whether before, on or after 9 November 2003; or (b) issued by a manufacturer under any provision of the law of an EEA state other than the United Kingdom giving effect to the motorcycle type approval Directive art 7(1) or to EC Council Directive 92/61 (OJ L225, 10.8.92, p 72) relating to the type approval of two or three-wheeled motor vehicles art 7(1): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (definition added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, reg 16, Sch 2 para 5(2); and amended by the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2920, reg 19, Sch 2 paras 1, 4(1), (2); and the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) (Amendment) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1099, reg 3(a)).

For the meaning of 'certificate of conformity' see PARA 705 note 10 post. 'The light passenger vehicle type approval Directive' means EEC Council Directive 70/156 (OJ L42, 23.2.70, p 1) on the approximation of the laws of the member states relating to the type-approval of motor vehicles and their trailers, as amended by EEC Council Directive 87/403 (OJ L220, 8.8.87, p 44) and EEC Council Directive 92/53 (OJ L225, 10.8.92, p 1): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (definition added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, reg 16, Sch 2 para 5). 'The motor cycle type approval Directive' means European Parliament and Council Directive 2002/24 (OJ L124, 9.5.2002, p 1) relating to the type approval of two or three-wheel motor vehicles and repealing EC Council Directive 92/61, as corrected by a Corrigendum of 22 February 2003 (OJ L49, 22.2.2003, p 23): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (definition added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, Sch 2 para 5; and substituted by the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) (Amendment) Regulations 2003, SI 2003/1099, reg 3(b)). For the meaning of 'light passenger vehicle' see PARA 708 note 2 post.

As to the regulations implementing the provisions of Community law requiring the issue of EC type approval as a precondition of the granting of an EC certificate of conformity in respect of light passenger vehicles and motor cycles see the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/2051 (amended by SI 1999/778; SI 1999/2324; SI 2000/869; SI 2000/2730; SI 2001/2809; SI 2002/1835; SI 2002/2743; SI 2003/1019; SI 2003/2428; SI 2004/73; SI 2004/2186; SI 2005/2454; SI 2006/142; SI 2006/2816); and the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2920 (amended by SI 2001/368; SI 2001/1547; SI 2003/1099; SI 2004/1948; SI 2004/2539; SI 2006/2935; SI 2007/2656).

19 The reference to the 'prescribed testing authority' takes effect as from a day to be appointed: ibid s 63(3) (amended by the Transport Act 1982 s 10(7)(c) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4 Sch 2 Pt I para 4)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. For the meaning of 'prescribed testing authority' see PARA 676 note 11 post.

20 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 63(3) (prospectively amended: see note 19 supra). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I. In any proceedings for such an offence it is a defence to prove that the regulations were not or, as the case may be, the alteration was not, specified in the relevant certificate of conformity or Minister's approval certificate in accordance with regulations under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 59(3) (see PARA 707 ante): s 63(4). For the meaning of 'Minister's approval certificate' see PARA 706 post.

21 Ibid s 63(5) (substituted by the Transport Act 2000 s 264). Subject to the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 63(7) (as added), the power conferred by s 63(5) (as substituted) is exercisable by regulations: s 63(6) (s 63(6), (7) added by the Transport Act 2000 s 264). See note 25 infra. However, that power is exercisable by order in relation to: (1) specified vehicles; or (2) vehicles of specified persons; and an order under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 63(7) (as added) may be varied or revoked by a subsequent order of the Secretary of State: s 63(7) (as so added).

22 Ibid s 63(5)(a) (as substituted: see note 21 supra).

23 Ibid s 63(5)(b) (as substituted: see note 21 supra), which permits exception from s 63(2).

24 Ibid s 63(5)(c) (as substituted: see note 21 supra), which permits exception from s 63(1).

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(4) TYPE APPROVAL/(i) Type Approval Certificates, Certificates of Conformity and Minister's Approval Certificates/A. IN GENERAL/701. Sale of vehicles and parts without required certificate.

701. Sale of vehicles and parts without required certificate.

If any person at any time on or after the day appointed by regulations<sup>1</sup> supplies<sup>2</sup> a vehicle or vehicle part<sup>3</sup> of a class<sup>4</sup> to which those regulations apply, and it does not appear from one or more certificates in force at that time<sup>5</sup> that the vehicle or vehicle part complies with all the relevant type approval requirements<sup>6</sup> prescribed<sup>7</sup> by those regulations, he is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>. For this purpose a vehicle is to be taken to comply with all relevant type approval requirements if an EC certificate of conformity<sup>9</sup> has effect with respect to the vehicle<sup>10</sup>.

A person may not be convicted of such an offence in respect of the supply of a vehicle or vehicle part<sup>11</sup> if he proves:

- 272 (1) that it was supplied for export from Great Britain<sup>12</sup>;
- 273 (2) that he had reasonable cause to believe that it would not be used on a road<sup>13</sup> in Great Britain or, in the case of a vehicle part, that it would not be fitted to a vehicle used on a road in Great Britain or would not be so used or fitted until it had been certified<sup>14</sup>; or
- 274 (3) that he had reasonable cause to believe that it would only be used for purposes or in any area prescribed<sup>15</sup> by the Secretary of State<sup>16</sup>.

1 le under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 63(1) (see PARA 700 ante).

2 'Supply' includes sell, offer to sell or supply, and expose for sale: ibid s 65(2).

702. Type approval requirements.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may<sup>2</sup> by regulations prescribe<sup>3</sup> requirements ('type approval requirements'):

- 275 (1) with respect to the design, construction, equipment and marking of vehicles of any class<sup>4</sup>, being requirements which are applicable before, whether or not they are applicable after, vehicles of that class are used on a road<sup>5</sup>;
- 276 (2) with respect to the design, construction, equipment and marking of vehicle parts<sup>6</sup> of any class, being requirements which are applicable before, whether or not they are applicable after, vehicle parts of that class are fitted to a vehicle used on a road<sup>7</sup>.

Such regulations may provide for the determination, according to criteria or by methods prescribed by or determined under the regulations, of weights of any description which in the opinion of the Secretary of State should not be exceeded in the case of vehicles of any class<sup>8</sup>.

A number of regulations have been made, or take effect, under these provisions<sup>9</sup>.

Additionally, a number of type approval requirements are set by Community law, and these have also been implemented by regulations<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 This is without prejudice to the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 41 (see PARA 260 ante): see s 54(1).

3 See PARA 660 note 5 ante.

4 As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante.

5 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 54(1)(a). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

6 For the meaning of 'vehicle part' see PARA 695 note 1 ante. Subject to ibid s 54(5), ss 55-60 (as amended) apply in relation to parts of vehicles as they apply in relation to vehicles and, accordingly, any reference in ss 55-60 (as amended) to a vehicle, other than a reference to a goods vehicle, is to be read as including a reference to a vehicle part: s 54(4). Any provision which relates solely to goods vehicles or design weights does not apply in relation to parts of vehicles, but particular exclusions in ss 55-60 (as amended) do not affect the generality of this exclusion: s 54(5). As to design weights see note 8 infra. For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

7 Ibid s 54(1)(b).

8 Ibid s 54(2). In Pt II (ss 40A-86) (as amended), references to design weights are to be construed as references to weights determined by virtue of s 54(2): s 54(3).

9 The following regulations have effect partly under ibid s 54: the Motor Vehicles (Type Approval for Goods Vehicles) (Great Britain) Regulations 1982, SI 1982/1271 (amended by SI 1984/697; SI 1984/1402; SI 1985/46; SI 1986/427; SI 1986/1089; SI 1987/1508; SI 1988/1523; SI 1989/1579; SI 1991/1021; SI 1991/1970; SI 1992/25; SI 1992/1342; SI 1992/3084; SI 1993/2200; SI 1994/2191; SI 1995/1323; SI 1996/3014 (itself amended by SI 1997/1365); SI 1996/3221; SI 1997/2936; SI 1998/1006; SI 2003/582; SI 2003/1866; SI 2006/2565; SI 2007/361); the Motor Vehicles (Type Approval) (Great Britain) Regulations 1984, SI 1984/981 (amended by SI 1984/1401; SI 1984/1761; SI 1985/1651; SI 1986/739; SI 1987/1509; SI 1988/1522; SI 1989/1580; SI 1990/94; SI 1990/1839; SI 1991/1022; SI 1992/1341; SI 1992/2161; SI 1992/2908 (itself amended by SI 1992/3173); SI 1993/2201; SI 1994/2190; SI 1995/1322; SI 1996/2330; SI 1996/3015 (itself amended by SI 1997/1367); SI 1997/1502; SI 1997/2933; SI 1998/1005); the Motor Vehicles (Type Approval of Reduced Pollution Adaptations) Regulations 1998, SI 1998/3093 (amended by SI 2000/3275); and the Motor Vehicles (Approval) Regulations 2001, SI 2001/25 (amended by SI 2004/623). ### 703. Type approval certificates.

Where the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> is satisfied on application made to him by the manufacturer of a vehicle<sup>2</sup> of a class<sup>3</sup> to which type approval regulations<sup>4</sup> apply, and after examination of the vehicle, that:

- 277 (1) the vehicle complies with the relevant type approval requirements<sup>5</sup>; and
- 278 (2) adequate arrangements have been made to secure that other vehicles purporting to conform with that vehicle in the relevant aspects of design, construction, equipment and marking<sup>6</sup> will so conform in all respects or with such variations as may be permitted, he may approve that vehicle as a type vehicle<sup>7</sup>. Where he approves a vehicle as a type vehicle he must issue a certificate (a 'type approval certificate') stating that the vehicle complies with the relevant type approval requirements<sup>8</sup> and specifying:

- 279 (a) the permitted variations from the type vehicle<sup>9</sup>; and
- 280 (b) the design weights for vehicles so conforming in all respects and for vehicles so conforming with any such variations<sup>10</sup>.

A type approval certificate may be issued for a type vehicle where the Secretary of State is satisfied that one or more, but not all, of the relevant type approval requirements are complied with in the case of that vehicle<sup>11</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State determines on an application not to issue a type approval certificate in respect of a vehicle, he must give to the applicant a written notification of the determination, stating the grounds on which it is based<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

4 The regulations under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 54 (see PARA 702 ante).

5 For the meaning of 'type approval requirements' see PARA 702 ante.

6 In the Road Traffic Act 1988 Pt II (ss 40A-86) (as amended), 'the relevant aspects of design, construction, equipment and marking', in relation to any vehicle, means those aspects of design, construction, equipment and marking which are subject to the type approval requirements or which were used as criteria in determining design weights for that vehicle: s 54(6). As to references to 'design weights' see PARA 702 note 8 ante.

10 Ibid s 55(2)(b).

11 Ibid s 55(4). A further type approval certificate may be issued by virtue of s 55(4) on the application of any person who manufactures any part of the vehicle, or by whom the vehicle is finally assembled; and references in s 55(6)-(8) and in ss 56-59 (as amended) (see PARAS 704-707 post) to a manufacturer must be construed accordingly: s 55(5). For the meaning of 'vehicle part' see PARA 695 note 1 ante.

The first type approval certificate issued for a type vehicle by virtue of s 55(4) must specify the design weights for conforming vehicles, and accordingly:

1342 (1) so much of s 55(2) or s 57(1)-(3) (as amended) (see PARA 705 post) as requires the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority or a manufacturer to specify in any certificate under s 55 or s 57 (as amended) the design weights or plated weights for a vehicle or as requires the Secretary of State or a manufacturer to mark or secure the marking of the plated weights on a vehicle does not apply to a subsequent type approval certificate issued by virtue of s 55(4) or to the certificates of conformity issued in consequence of such a type approval certificate (s 55(6)(a) (prospectively amended, so as to refer to the prescribed testing authority, by the Transport Act 1982 s 17(1)(a) (amended by the Road Traffic Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 2 Pt I para 6));

- 1343 (2) so much of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 58(2) (see PARA 706 post) as requires the Secretary of State to specify in any certificate issued by him the design weights and plated weights for a vehicle or to secure that the plated weights are marked on a vehicle does not apply to a Minister's approval certificate issued by virtue of s 55(4) (s 55(6)(b)).

704. Conditions of, and cancellation or suspension of, type approval certificates.

- 281 (1) the inspection by officers of the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> of vehicles<sup>4</sup> purporting to conform<sup>5</sup> with the type vehicle<sup>6</sup> in the relevant aspects of design, construction, equipment<sup>7</sup> and marking and of parts<sup>8</sup> of such vehicles and their equipment, and the entry of premises where they are manufactured<sup>9</sup>; and
- 282 (2) the notification by the manufacturer<sup>10</sup> of differences of design, construction, equipment or marking (other than permitted variations) between any such vehicles and the type vehicle which might affect the type approval requirements<sup>11</sup> or the criteria for determining the design weights<sup>12</sup> of those vehicles<sup>13</sup>.

If it appears to the Secretary of State that there has been a breach of a condition subject to which a type approval certificate has been granted, or the Secretary of State ceases to be satisfied as to any other matter relevant to a type approval certificate, he may cancel or suspend the certificate, but the cancellation or suspension does not affect the validity of any certificate of conformity<sup>14</sup> previously issued in consequence of the type approval certificate<sup>15</sup>.

Where the Secretary of State cancels or suspends a certificate in pursuance of this provision, he must give a written notification of that fact to the holder of the certificate stating the grounds for the cancellation or suspension<sup>16</sup>.

705. Certificates of conformity.

The manufacturer<sup>1</sup> of a type vehicle<sup>2</sup> in respect of which a type approval certificate<sup>3</sup> is in force may issue, in respect of each vehicle<sup>4</sup> manufactured by him which conforms<sup>5</sup> with the type vehicle in such of the relevant aspects of design, construction, equipment<sup>6</sup> and marking as are mentioned in the type approval certificate, a certificate stating that it does so conform, and specifying the design weights<sup>7</sup> for the vehicle, and must in the case of goods vehicles<sup>8</sup> of such classes as may be prescribed specify in the certificate one or more of the plated weights<sup>9</sup> for the vehicle<sup>10</sup>. Where a manufacturer issues a certificate of conformity for a goods vehicle, the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup> or the prescribed testing authority<sup>12</sup> must on an application made by any person containing such information as the Secretary of State or that authority may require with respect to the proposed circumstances of operation of the goods vehicle, and on production of that certificate, specify in the certificate any plated weights for the goods vehicle not so specified by the manufacturer<sup>13</sup>. Where a manufacturer issues a certificate of conformity for a goods vehicle, then, if he is required<sup>14</sup> to specify any plated weights for the goods vehicle in the certificate, he must mark those weights on the goods vehicle by means of a plate fixed to it<sup>15</sup>, and in any other case the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority<sup>16</sup> must on an application for the purpose secure that those weights are so marked<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations require that prescribed<sup>2</sup> alterations in any of the relevant aspects of design, construction, equipment or marking<sup>3</sup>, or in any such aspect which affects the plated weight<sup>4</sup>, made to any vehicle<sup>5</sup> for which a certificate of conformity<sup>6</sup> or a Minister's approval certificate<sup>7</sup> is issued must, subject to any exemption granted under the following provision, be notified to the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority<sup>8</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by notice in writing given to the manufacturer<sup>9</sup> of vehicles or to the owner of a vehicle for which a Minister's approval certificate is issued<sup>10</sup>:

- 285 (1) direct that any specified alteration in any of the aspects mentioned above to a vehicle to which the direction relates must be notified to the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority<sup>11</sup>;
- 286 (2) exempt a vehicle to which the notice relates from all or any of the requirements of the regulations, subject to compliance with any conditions specified in the notice<sup>12</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations require that a certificate of conformity or Minister's approval certificate issued for any vehicle must specify<sup>13</sup>:

- 287 (a) the regulations, if any, applicable to the vehicle at the time of the issue of the certificate<sup>14</sup>;
- 288 (b) any additional alteration to that vehicle required by any direction to be notified to the Secretary of State or the prescribed testing authority<sup>15</sup>; and
- 289 (c) any exemption applicable to that vehicle<sup>16</sup>.

A certificate of conformity or a Minister's approval certificate specifying any plated weights are to be treated for the purposes of the provisions of Part II of the Road Traffic Act 1988<sup>17</sup> and any regulations made under them relating to plating certificates<sup>18</sup> as a plating certificate<sup>19</sup>.

D. LIGHT PASSENGER VEHICLES AND MOTOR CYCLES

708. Requirement to hold EC certificate of conformity for unregistered light passenger vehicle or motor cycle.

Subject to the following provisions, if a person uses on a road<sup>1</sup> a light passenger vehicle<sup>2</sup>, a motor cycle<sup>3</sup> or a tractor<sup>4</sup> which has not been registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>5</sup>, or under the law of a member state other than the United Kingdom, and in respect of which no EC certificate of conformity<sup>6</sup> has effect, he is guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>.

A person must not be convicted of such an offence in respect of the use of a light passenger vehicle<sup>8</sup> if he proves:

- 290 (1) that the vehicle was one in respect of which the grant of a licence under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 was not prohibited by regulations<sup>9</sup>; or 291 (2) in the case of a vehicle in respect of which duty is not chargeable under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994, that the vehicle was one whose registration<sup>10</sup> was not prohibited by such regulations<sup>11</sup>.

A person must not be convicted of such an offence in respect of the use of a motor cycle if he proves that the vehicle was one in respect of which the grant of a licence or nil licence under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 was not prohibited by regulation<sup>12</sup>.

The provisions described above do not apply:

- 292 (a) in relation to a vehicle brought temporarily into Great Britain by a person resident outside the United Kingdom<sup>13</sup>;
 293 (b) in relation to a vehicle in respect of which a Minister's approval certificate<sup>14</sup> has effect<sup>15</sup>;
 294 (c) to the use of a vehicle under a trade licence<sup>16</sup> in accordance with regulations<sup>17</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 'Light passenger vehicle' means any motor vehicle which:

- 1344 (1) has at least four wheels;
 1345 (2) is equipped with an internal combustion engine;
 1346 (3) is constructed or adapted for use for the carriage of passengers and is not a goods vehicle; 1347 (4) has no more than eight seats in addition to the driver's seat; and 1348 (5) has a maximum design speed exceeding 25 kmph,

but does not include a quadricycle within the meaning of the motor cycle type approval Directive art 1(3) or a vehicle used or intended for use for the purposes of any matter in relation to which a fire and rescue authority has functions (whoever uses it for those purposes) (see FIRE SERVICES): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 85 (definition added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, reg 16, Sch 2 para 5(2); and amended by the Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004 s 53(1), Sch 1 para 69). For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante. For the meaning of 'goods vehicle' see PARA 220 ante. For the meaning of 'the motor cycle type approval Directive' see PARA 700 note 11 ante.

3 Ie a vehicle to which the motor cycle type approval Directive applies. In the application of these provisions to a vehicle to which the motor cycle type approval Directive applies, any reference to a member state includes a reference to an EEA state: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 64A(6) (added by the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2920, reg 19, Sch 2 paras 1, 2(5)).

4 Ie a vehicle to which the tractor type approval Directive applies. 'The tractor type approval Directive' means European Parliament and EC Council Directive 2003/37 (OJ L171, 9.7.2003, p 1) on type-approval of agricultural or forestry tractors, their trailers and interchangeable towed machinery, together with their systems, components and separate technical units: Tractor etc (EC Type-Approval) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/390, reg 2(1).

5 Ie under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 21 (as amended) (see PARA 519 ante).

6 For the meaning of 'EC certificate of conformity' see PARA 700 note 11 ante.

7 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 64A(1) (s 64A added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, regs 1(2), 16, Sch 2 para 2; and the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 64A(1) amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 24(3); the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2920, Sch 2 para 2(2); and the Tractor etc (EC Type-Approval) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/390, reg 14).

A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, Sch 2 para 7; and amended by the Motor Cycles Etc (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/2920, Sch 2 para 5). TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(4) TYPE APPROVAL/(i) Type Approval Certificates, Certificates of Conformity and Minister's Approval Certificates/D. LIGHT PASSENGER VEHICLES AND MOTOR CYCLES/709. Sale of light passenger vehicles and motor cycles without EC certificate of conformity.

709. Sale of light passenger vehicles and motor cycles without EC certificate of conformity.

Any person who<sup>1</sup> supplies<sup>2</sup> a light passenger vehicle<sup>3</sup> or motor cycle<sup>4</sup> which has not been registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>5</sup>, or under the law of a member state other than the United Kingdom, and in respect of which no EC certificate of conformity<sup>6</sup> has effect, is guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>.

A person must not be convicted of such an offence in respect of the supply of a light passenger vehicle<sup>8</sup> if he proves:

- 295 (1) that the vehicle was one in respect of which the grant of a licence under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 was not prohibited by regulations<sup>9</sup>; or
- 296 (2) in the case of a vehicle in respect of which duty is not chargeable under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994, that the vehicle was one whose registration<sup>10</sup> was not prohibited by such regulations<sup>11</sup>.

A person must not be convicted of such an offence in respect of the supply of a motor cycle if he proves that the vehicle was one in respect of which the grant of a licence or nil licence under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 was not prohibited by regulations<sup>12</sup>.

A person cannot be convicted of such an offence in respect of the supply of a vehicle if he proves that it was supplied for export from the United Kingdom to a country which is not a member state, or that he had reasonable cause to believe that it would not be used on a road<sup>13</sup> in the United Kingdom or any other member state, or that it would not be so used until an EC certificate of conformity<sup>14</sup> had been issued in respect of it<sup>15</sup>.

The provisions described above do not apply in relation to the supply of a vehicle:

- 297 (a) to the Crown for naval, military or air force purposes<sup>16</sup>;

- 298 (b) for the purposes of the military forces of any country outside the United Kingdom<sup>17</sup>;
- 299 (c) to a police authority for police purposes<sup>18</sup>; or
- 300 (d) to any public authority in a member state outside the United Kingdom which has responsibilities for maintaining public order<sup>19</sup>, nor do they apply in relation to a vehicle in respect of which a Minister's approval certificate<sup>20</sup> has effect<sup>21</sup>.

1     Ie subject to the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 65A(3)-(6) (as added and amended) (see the text and notes 9-22 infra): see s 65A(1) (s 65A added by the Motor Vehicles (EC Type Approval) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/3107, regs 1(2), 16, Sch 2 para 3).

E. APPEALS AGAINST REFUSAL OF CERTIFICATES

710. Appeals.

The following provisions apply until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

with respect to design weights<sup>7</sup> or plated weights<sup>8</sup>, may within the prescribed<sup>9</sup> time and in the prescribed manner appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>. On the appeal the Secretary of State has the like powers and duties as he has on an original application for a type approval or a Minister's approval certificate or in respect of the plated weights to be included in a certificate of conformity<sup>11</sup>, may hold an inquiry in connection with it<sup>12</sup>, and may appoint an assessor for the purpose of assisting him with the appeal or any such inquiry<sup>13</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed, the following provisions apply in relation to appeals, instead of those described above<sup>14</sup>.

A person aggrieved by a determination made on behalf of the Secretary of State with respect to a type approval certificate, a certificate of conformity or Minister's approval certificate, including any determination with respect to design weights or plated weights, may appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>15</sup>. A person aggrieved by a determination made by the prescribed testing authority<sup>16</sup> with respect to the plated weights for any goods vehicle may appeal to the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>. Any such appeal must be made within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner<sup>18</sup>. Where the appeal is against a determination made by or on behalf of the Secretary of State<sup>19</sup>, the Secretary of State has the like powers and duties as he has on an original application for a type approval or Minister's approval certificate or in respect of the plated weights to be included in a certificate of conformity<sup>20</sup>. Where the appeal is against a determination made by the prescribed testing authority<sup>21</sup>, the Secretary of State has the like powers and duties as he would have had if the application in respect of the plated weights for the goods vehicle concerned had been made to him<sup>22</sup>. The Secretary of State may hold an inquiry in connection with any such appeal and may appoint an assessor for the purpose of assisting him with the appeal or any such inquiry<sup>23</sup>.

F. TESTING AND APPROVAL

711. Regulations for the approval of design, construction, equipment and marking of vehicles.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations for purposes relating to type approval<sup>2</sup>. Without prejudice to the generality of that power<sup>3</sup>, such regulations:

- 301 (1) may provide for the examination of any vehicle in respect of which a certificate of conformity<sup>4</sup> or a Minister's approval certificate<sup>5</sup> is in force in the event of an alteration being made to the vehicle which is notifiable<sup>6</sup> and, in particular, may empower a vehicle examiner<sup>7</sup> or an authorised inspector<sup>8</sup> to require the vehicle to be examined at a testing station<sup>9</sup>;
- 302 (2) may authorise the cancellation, suspension or amendment of a certificate of conformity or a Minister's approval certificate on an examination of any vehicle in pursuance of regulations made by virtue of head (1) above<sup>10</sup>;
- 303 (3) must give a right of appeal to any person aggrieved by a determination on any such examination and for that purpose may apply specified provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1988<sup>11</sup>;

- 304 (4) may contain the like provisions with respect to any such examination and any appeal brought by virtue of head (3) above as may be contained in certain regulations concerning testing and plating<sup>12</sup>;
- 305 (5) may require the payment of fees or other charges in connection with the provision by the Secretary of State of services or facilities or the issue by him of certificates and other documents<sup>13</sup>;
- 306 (6) may provide:
- 81
152. (a) for the authorisation of persons to carry out examinations, in connection with the issue of type approval certificates<sup>14</sup>, of vehicles or vehicle parts<sup>15</sup> of such classes<sup>16</sup> as may be specified in the regulations<sup>17</sup>;
153. (b) for the imposition of conditions to be complied with by persons so authorised<sup>18</sup>; and
154. (c) for the withdrawal of authorisations<sup>19</sup>;
- 82
- 307 (7) may make provision as to the form of, and particulars to be contained in, certificates of conformity and provide for the supply by the Secretary of State of forms for such certificates<sup>20</sup>;
- 308 (8) may provide for the issue of replacements for plates fixed to vehicles<sup>21</sup>, certificates of conformity and Minister's approval certificates which have been lost or defaced and provide for the payment of a fee for their issue<sup>22</sup>;
- 309 (9) may require persons empowered<sup>23</sup> to issue certificates of conformity to keep records of certificates of conformity issued by them, and of the vehicles or vehicle parts in respect of which such certificates are issued, and may authorise the inspection of such records by such persons and in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>24</sup>; and
- 310 (10) may make different provisions for different cases<sup>25</sup>.

As from a day to be appointed<sup>26</sup>, such regulations may<sup>27</sup> also provide:

- 311 (i) for the fees to be payable on any application for a determination by the prescribed testing authority<sup>28</sup> of any plated weights<sup>29</sup> for a goods vehicle<sup>30</sup>;
- 312 (ii) for the issue by the prescribed testing authority of plates for marking on goods vehicles any plated weights, whether determined by that authority or not (including in particular the issue of such plates on behalf of the Secretary of State)<sup>31</sup> and for the fees to be payable to that authority for the issue of any such plates<sup>32</sup>;
- 313 (iii) for the carrying out and supervision of private sector examinations<sup>33</sup>.

In certain cases, contravention of such regulations is an offence<sup>34</sup>.

A number of regulations have been made or take effect under the provisions described above<sup>35</sup>.

TESTING AND TYPE APPROVAL OF VEHICLES/(4) TYPE APPROVAL/(i) Type Approval Certificates, Certificates of Conformity and Minister's Approval Certificates/G. VEHICLES MANUFACTURED ABROAD/714. Application of approval marks.

714. Application of approval marks.

Where any international agreement to which the United Kingdom is a party or a Community obligation provides<sup>1</sup>:

- 317 (1) for markings to be applied:

83

155. (a) to motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> parts<sup>3</sup> of any description to indicate conformity with a type approved by any country<sup>4</sup>; or

156. (b) to a motor vehicle to indicate that the vehicle is fitted with motor vehicle parts of any description and either that the parts conform with a type approved by any country or that the vehicle is such that as so fitted it conforms with a type so approved<sup>5</sup>; and
- 84
- 318 (2) for motor vehicle parts or, as the case may be, motor vehicles bearing those markings to be recognised as complying with the requirements imposed by the law of another country<sup>6</sup>, the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup> may by regulations designate the markings as approval marks, and any markings so designated must be deemed for the purposes of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968<sup>8</sup> to be a trade description<sup>9</sup>.

Any person who, without being authorised by the competent authority<sup>10</sup> to apply any approval mark, applies that mark or a mark so nearly resembling it as to be calculated to deceive is guilty of an offence under the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, whether or not he would be guilty of such an offence apart from this provision<sup>11</sup>.

The conditions subject to which approval of any type may be given on behalf of the United Kingdom or the use of approval marks indicating conformity with a type approved by the United Kingdom may be authorised may include such conditions as to testing or inspection and the payment of fees as the Secretary of State may impose<sup>12</sup>.

2 'Motor vehicle' in this context means a mechanically propelled vehicle or a vehicle designed or adapted for towing by a mechanically propelled vehicle: ibid s 80(4).

3 'Motor vehicle part' means any article made or adapted for use as part of a mechanically propelled vehicle or a vehicle drawn by a mechanically propelled vehicle, or for use as part of the equipment of any such vehicle, and must be treated as including any equipment for the protection of drivers or passengers in or on a motor vehicle notwithstanding that it does not form part of, or of the equipment of, that vehicle: ibid s 80(4).

8 See SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 471 et seq.

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 80(1). The markings so designated must be deemed to be a trade description, whether or not the markings fall within the definition of the expression in the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 s 2 (see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 481): Road Traffic Act 1988 s 80(1).

At the date at which this volume states the law the Motor Vehicles (Designation of Approval Marks) Regulations 1979, SI 1979/1088 (amended by SI 1980/582; SI 1980/2027; 1981/126; SI 1981/1732; SI 1982/1479; SI 1983/1602; SI 1985/113; SI 1986/369; SI 1989/1014; SI 1990/1838; SI 1991/1979; SI 1992/634; SI 1992/3086; SI 1993/1710; SI 1995/3342; SI 1997/58; SI 1997/2971) have effect under this provision.

10 'The competent authority' means as respects any approval marks indicating conformity with a type approved by the United Kingdom, the Secretary of State, and as respects any approval marks indicating conformity with a type approved by any other country, the authority having power under the law of that country to authorise the use of that mark: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 80(4). For the meaning of 'United Kingdom' see PARA 224 note 5 ante.

11 Ibid s 80(2). As to offences under the Trade Descriptions Act 1968 see SALE OF GOODS AND SUPPLY OF SERVICES vol 41 (2005 Reissue) PARA 475 et seq.

12 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 80(3). Any sum received by the Secretary of State in pursuance of s 80 must be paid into the Consolidated Fund: s 84(4). As to the Consolidated Fund see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 711 et seq; PARLIAMENT vol 78 (2010) PARA 1028 et seq.

716. Alteration of plated weights for goods vehicles without examination.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations make provision:

- 319 (1) for the determination, in such circumstances as may be prescribed<sup>2</sup>, of the plated weights<sup>3</sup> (or any of the plated weights) for goods vehicles<sup>4</sup> of any prescribed class<sup>5</sup> otherwise than on an examination under specified regulations<sup>6</sup>; and
- 320 (2) for the amendment of any approval certificate<sup>7</sup> in force in respect of a vehicle of any such class, so as to specify the weights determined for that vehicle under the regulations in place of any weights superseded by those weights, or the cancellation of any such certificate and the issue in place of it of a different certificate specifying the weights so determined in place of any weights so superseded<sup>8</sup>.

Any person aggrieved<sup>9</sup> by a determination of plated weights for a goods vehicle under such regulations may appeal to the Secretary of State and on the appeal the Secretary of State must cause the vehicle to be examined by an officer of the Secretary of State appointed by him for the purpose and must make such determination on the basis of the examination as he thinks fit<sup>10</sup>. Without prejudice to the generality of the above provision, such regulations:

- 321 (a) may provide for the determination of any plated weights for a goods vehicle under the regulations to be made by the Secretary of State or by the prescribed testing authority<sup>11</sup>;
- 322 (b) may contain the like provisions with respect to any appeal<sup>12</sup> and any examination on any such appeal as may be contained in any regulations<sup>13</sup> and any examination on any such appeal<sup>14</sup>;
- 323 (c) may specify the manner in which, and the time before or within which, applications may be made for the determination of plated weights of vehicles under the regulations, and the information to be supplied and documents to be produced on any such application<sup>15</sup>;
- 324 (d) may make provision as to the fees to be paid on any such application<sup>16</sup>;
- 325 (e) may provide for the issue of replacements for any plates fixed to a vehicle specifying weights which have been superseded by weights specified in an approval certificate amended under the regulations or in any certificate issued under the regulations in place of an approval certificate, and for the payment of a fee for their issue<sup>17</sup>; and 326 (f) may make different provision for different cases<sup>18</sup>.

Any certificate issued in respect of a goods vehicle under such regulations in replacement of an approval certificate of any description must:

- 327 (i) be in the form appropriate for an approval certificate of that description<sup>19</sup>;
- 328 (ii) be identical in content with the certificate it replaces, save for any alterations in the plated weights authorised by the regulations<sup>20</sup>; and
- 329 (iii) be treated for the purposes of Part II of the Road Traffic Act 1988<sup>21</sup> (including this provision) and any regulations made under any provision of Part II as if it were the same certificate as the certificate it replaces<sup>22</sup>.

9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION

(1) IN GENERAL

(i) Legislation

718. The legislation.

The principal enactment relating to road traffic regulation is the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. With the exception of one provision<sup>1</sup>, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 came into force three months after it was enacted on 26 June 1984<sup>2</sup>. It consolidated earlier legislation<sup>3</sup> and has been extensively amended<sup>4</sup>.

Separate enactments relate to vehicle excise duty and the registration of vehicles<sup>5</sup>, the principal road safety provisions<sup>6</sup>, type approval and the construction and use of vehicles and their parts<sup>7</sup>, the licensing of drivers<sup>8</sup>, the licensing of the operation of public service vehicles<sup>9</sup> and of goods vehicles<sup>10</sup>. Road traffic regulation is also governed by numerous local statutes, particularly in London<sup>11</sup>.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 makes general provision for traffic regulation in<sup>12</sup> and outside Greater London<sup>13</sup>, including provision for experimental traffic schemes<sup>14</sup> and temporary suspensions<sup>15</sup>, and for traffic regulation in special cases<sup>16</sup>. There are also provisions relating to off-street parking and parking on roads without payment<sup>17</sup>, control of off-street parking<sup>18</sup>, parking on highways for payment<sup>19</sup>, the provision of parking places by parish or community councils<sup>20</sup>, special parking<sup>21</sup>, and parking attendants<sup>22</sup>. There are further provisions relating to crossings and playgrounds<sup>23</sup>, traffic signs<sup>24</sup>, speed limits<sup>25</sup>, bollards and other obstructions<sup>26</sup>, and control and enforcement of the provisions relating to road traffic regulation<sup>27</sup>.

Under the Transport Act 2000, provision is made as to road user charging and workplace parking<sup>28</sup>.

Under the Traffic Management Act 2004, local authorities have the duty to secure the expeditious movement of traffic on their road networks<sup>29</sup>.

A surcharge is charged under the Finance Act 2002 in respect of the use of roads by lorries<sup>30</sup>.

719. Crown application.

In relation to vehicles used for naval, military or air force purposes, while being driven<sup>4</sup> by persons for the time being subject to the orders of a member of the armed forces of the Crown, the Secretary of State<sup>5</sup> may by regulations<sup>6</sup> vary the provisions of any statutory<sup>7</sup> provision imposing a speed limit on motor vehicles<sup>8</sup>, but such regulations may provide that any variation made by the regulations is to have effect subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations<sup>9</sup>.

1 The provisions which so apply are: the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 1-5 (as amended) (see PARAS 742-746 post), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 post), s 10 (as amended) (see PARA 752 post), s 11 (as amended) (see PARA 753 post), s 12 (repealed), s 13 (repealed), s 13A (as added) (see PARA 754 post), s 14 (as substituted) (see PARA 755 post), s 15 (as substituted) (see PARA 756 post), s 16 (as amended) (see PARAS 757-758 post), s 16A (as added) (see PARA 759 post), s 16B (as added) (see PARA 760 post), s 16C (as added) (see PARAS 761-762 post), ss 21-26 (as amended) (see PARAS 769-778, 780 post), s 38 (as amended) (see PARA 795 post), s 42 (foreshore in Scotland), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 46A (as added) (see PARA 811 post), s 47 (as amended) (see PARA 812 post), s 48 (see PARA 813 post), s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 post), s 50 (repealed), s 51 (as substituted and amended) (see PARA 815 post), s 52(3) (see PARA 816 post), s 58 (as amended) (see PARA 824 post), s 59 (as amended) (see PARAS 823, 825 post), s 60 (see PARA 823 post), s 62 (see PARA 828 post), s 63 (see PARA 829 post), s 63A (as added and amended) (see PARA 869 post), s 64 (as amended) (see PARA 830 post), s 65 (as amended) (see PARA 831 post), s 66 (as amended) (see PARA 832 post), s 67 (as amended) (see PARA 833 post), s 69 (as amended) (see PARA 835 post), s 70 (as amended) (see PARA 836 post), s 71 (as amended) (see PARA 837 post), s 76 (repealed), s 77 (as amended) (see PARA 831 note 5 post), s 78 (repealed), s 79 (as amended) (see PARA 839 post), s 80 (as amended) (see PARA 831 note 1 post), s 81 (see PARA 847 post), s 82 (as amended) (see PARA 847 post), s 83 (as amended) (see PARA 847 post), s 84 (as amended) (see PARA 848 post), s 85 (as amended) (see PARA 849 post), s 86 (as amended) (see PARA 850 post), s 87 (see PARA 854 post), s 88 (see PARA 855 post), s 89 (see PARA 856 post), s 90 (repealed), s 99 (as amended) (see PARA 870 post), s 100 (as amended) (see PARA 870 post), s 104 (as amended) (see PARA 876 post), s 105 (as amended) (see PARA 877 post), s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 730 post) and s 126 (see PARAS 751, 833, 847-848, 855 post); and except in relation to vehicles and persons in the armed forces of the Crown when on duty, s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 post), s 7 (as amended) (see PARA 749 post) and s 8 (as amended) (see PARA 750 post): s 130(2) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 3(1), Sch 1 Pt I; the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 Pt II para 74; the Road Traffic

8 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

9 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 130(3).

Section 130(3) has effect in relation to motor vehicles used for salvage purposes pursuant to the Merchant Shipping Act 1995 Pt IX (ss 224-255) (as amended) (see SHIPPING AND MARITIME LAW vol 94 (2008) PARA 883 et seq) as it has effect in relation to vehicles used for naval, military or air force purposes while being driven as mentioned in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 130(3): s 133(1) (amended by the Merchant Shipping Act 1995 s 314(2), Sch 13 para 71). For these purposes, 'salvage' means the preservation of a vessel which is wrecked, stranded or in distress, or the lives of persons belonging to, or the cargo or apparel of, such a vessel: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 133(2).

Section 130(3) has effect in relation to vehicles used for the purposes of a visiting force or headquarters, while being driven by a person subject to the orders of a member of such a force or headquarters, as it has effect in relation to vehicles used for naval, military or air force purposes, while being driven as mentioned in that provision: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(3).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(i) Legislation/720. The making of regulations and orders.

720. The making of regulations and orders.

Any power conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 on the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup>, or on the Ministers<sup>2</sup> acting jointly, to make regulations is exercisable by statutory instrument<sup>3</sup>. Before making any regulations<sup>4</sup>, the Secretary of State or the Ministers acting jointly, as the case may be, must consult with such representative organisations as he or they think fit<sup>5</sup>. A statutory instrument whereby any such power<sup>6</sup> is exercised<sup>7</sup> is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>8</sup>. Regulations relating to speed limits for particular classes of vehicles<sup>9</sup> or the treating of certain vehicles as not being motor vehicles<sup>10</sup> do not have effect unless approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament<sup>11</sup>. No regulations containing supplementary provisions as to traffic wardens<sup>12</sup> may be made unless a draft has been laid before Parliament and has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 'The Ministers' means the Secretaries of State charged with general responsibility under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 in relation to England, Wales and Scotland respectively: s 142(1). See note 1 supra.

3 Ibid s 134(1). As from the day on which the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 3(2) comes into force in relation to England, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 134(1) is amended so as to refer also to the Lord Chancellor: see s 134(1) (amended by the Lord Chancellor (Modification of Functions) Order 2007, SI 2007/1756, art 3). The Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 3(2) came into force in relation to England for certain purposes on 23 July 2007 and is to come into force in relation to England for remaining purposes on 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A (as added) (see PARA 726 post) is exercisable by statutory instrument; and a statutory instrument containing any such order is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 124A(12) (s 124A added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 272). Such orders are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(i) Legislation/721. Regulations relating to exemptions for tramcars and trolley vehicles.

721. Regulations relating to exemptions for tramcars and trolley vehicles.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations<sup>2</sup> provide that certain provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984<sup>3</sup> as are specified in the regulations do not apply, or apply with modifications, to all tramcars<sup>4</sup> or to tramcars of any specified class, or to all trolley vehicles<sup>5</sup> or to trolley vehicles of any specified class<sup>6</sup>. Such regulations: (1) may make different provision for different cases<sup>7</sup>; (2) may include such transitional provisions as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient<sup>8</sup>; and (3) may make such amendments to any special Act<sup>9</sup> as appear to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient in consequence of the regulations or in consequence of the application to any tramcars or trolley vehicles of the specified provisions<sup>10</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 In the exercise of this power the Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, have been made. The modifications made by the Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, are set out in this title alongside the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante.

3 The provisions referred to in the text are the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 1-6 (as amended) (see PARAS 742-747 post), ss 7-11 (as amended) (see PARAS 749-753 post), s 12 (repealed), s 13 (repealed), s 13A (as added) (see PARA 754 post), s 14 (as substituted and amended) (see PARA 755 post), ss 16A-16C (as added) (see PARAS 759-762 post), s 18 (as amended) (see PARA 766 post), s 81 (see PARA 847 post), ss 82, 83 (as amended) (see PARA 847 post), s 84 (as amended) (see PARA 848 post), s 85 (as amended) (see PARA 849 post), s 86 (as amended) (see PARA 850 post), ss 87-89 (see PARAS 854-856 post): s 141A(2) (s 141A added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 46; and the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 141A(2) amended by the Road Traffic (Special Events) Act 1994 s 3(1), Schedule para 4).

4 For these purposes, 'tramcar' includes any carriage used on any road by virtue of an order under the Light Railways Act 1896: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 141A(4) (as added: see note 3 supra).

5 For these purposes, 'trolley vehicle' means a mechanically propelled vehicle adapted for use on roads without rails under power transmitted to it from some external source, whether or not there is in addition a source of power on board the vehicle: ibid s 141A(4) (as added: see note 3 supra).

7 Ibid s 141A(3)(a) (as added: see note 3 supra).

8 Ibid s 141A(3)(b) (as added: see note 3 supra).

9 For these purposes, 'special Act' means a local Act of Parliament passed before the commencement of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 141A (as added) (ie 1 July 1992) which authorises or regulates the use of tramcars or trolley vehicles: s 141A(4) (as added: see note 3 supra).

722. Application of statutory provisions to the Isles of Scilly.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may, after consultation with the Council of the Isles of Scilly, by order<sup>2</sup> made by statutory instrument provide that any provision of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 specified in the order is to apply to the Isles, subject to such modifications as may be so specified, as if the Isles were a separate county or a district<sup>3</sup>.

2 In exercise of this power the Isles of Scilly (Road Traffic Regulation) Order 1990, SI 1990/714, has been made.

3 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 135(1). Section 135(1) has effect without prejudice to the operation of the Local Government Act 1972 s 265 (which relates to the application of that Act to the Isles of Scilly: see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 36) or of any order made under s 265: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 135(2).

723. Saving for law of nuisance.

Nothing in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 authorises a person to use on a road<sup>1</sup> a vehicle so constructed or used as to cause a nuisance, whether public or private, or affects the liability, whether under statute or common law, of the driver<sup>2</sup> or owner<sup>3</sup> so using such a vehicle<sup>4</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(i) Legislation/724. Royal parks or highways in London affected by proposals relating to the other.

724. Royal parks or highways in London affected by proposals relating to the other.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> must not exercise any of his functions in relation to the management of roads<sup>2</sup> or traffic in a royal park<sup>3</sup> in such a way as to affect a highway in Greater London unless he has consulted the traffic authority<sup>4</sup> for the highway, and Transport for London<sup>5</sup>, about the exercise of those functions in that way<sup>6</sup>. Such a duty does not apply if it would not be reasonably practicable for the Secretary of State to consult the traffic authority or Transport for London before exercising functions, but, in such a case, as soon as practicable after so exercising functions the Secretary of State must inform the traffic authority and Transport for London that those functions have been so exercised<sup>7</sup>.

A traffic authority must not exercise any of its functions in relation to a highway in Greater London in such a way as to affect a royal park unless it has consulted the Secretary of State about the exercise of those functions in that way<sup>8</sup>. Such a duty does not apply if it would not be reasonably practicable for the traffic authority to consult the Secretary of State before exercising functions, but, in such a case, as soon as practicable after so exercising functions the highway authority must inform the Secretary of State that those functions have been so exercised<sup>9</sup>.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 For these purposes, 'royal park' means any park to which the Parks Regulation Act 1872 applies (see the Parks Regulation (Amendment) Act 1926 ss 1, 3 (s 1 as amended); and see OPEN SPACES AND COUNTRYSIDE vol 78 (2010) PARA 561 et seq); Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 132AA(5) (s 132AA added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 293). The Parks Regulation Act 1872 no longer applies to the royal parks specified in the Royal Parks (Regulation of Specified Parks) Order 2005, SI 2005/1522: see the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 s 162.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(ii) Types of Roads/725. Trunk roads, special roads, classified roads and GLA roads.

(ii) Types of Roads

725. Trunk roads, special roads, classified roads and GLA roads.

There are various types of roads referred to in road traffic legislation. These are dealt with in detail elsewhere in this work<sup>1</sup>. In this title particular reference is made to the following types of roads: (1) trunk roads<sup>2</sup>; (2) special roads<sup>3</sup>; (3) classified roads<sup>4</sup>; (4) GLA roads<sup>5</sup>.

1 See HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES.

2 A trunk road is a highway or proposed highway directed by the Secretary of State to be a trunk road by virtue of provisions in the Highway Act 1980 and orders made under it: see ss 10, 11, 19 (all as amended); and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARAS 50, 702 et seq. As to the constitution of trunk roads by statute and the continuance of trunk roads existing prior to 1980 see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARAS 702-703. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

3 A special road is a highway or proposed highway provided or to be provided in pursuance of a scheme under the Highways Act 1980, along a route prescribed by the scheme, for the use of traffic of any class prescribed by the scheme: see s 16; and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 731. As to the continuation of roads which were special roads before the commencement of the Highways Act 1980 see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 732. As to special roads generally see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 731 et seq.

4 A classified road is a highway or proposed highway classified by the Secretary of State by virtue of provisions in the Highways Act 1980 and orders made under it: see ss 12, 13; and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 26.

5 A GLA road is a highway or proposed highway so designated by the Secretary of State or by the Greater London Authority by virtue of an order made under provisions of the Highways Act 1980: see ss 14A, 14B (both as added); and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 822. See also PARA 726 note 6 post. As to the Greater London Authority see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 79 et seq.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(ii) Types of Roads/726. GLA side roads.

726. GLA side roads.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by order<sup>2</sup> designate roads<sup>3</sup> or proposed roads as roads which are to be GLA side roads<sup>4</sup>. Any road or proposed road so designated becomes a GLA side road on such date as may be specified in the order<sup>5</sup>. A road may only be a GLA side road if it has a junction with a GLA road<sup>6</sup> or another road which has a junction with a GLA road<sup>7</sup>. A road or proposed road is not a GLA side road if it is a trunk road<sup>8</sup> or other highway for which the Secretary of State is the highway authority<sup>9</sup>. A road may only be a GLA side road if and to the extent that the appropriate authority<sup>10</sup> considers it appropriate for the road to be a GLA side road in the interests of the management of traffic and the control of the waiting and loading of vehicles on or in the immediate vicinity of GLA roads<sup>11</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by order<sup>12</sup> make provision for or in connection with applying in relation to GLA side roads, with such modifications as he thinks fit, the provisions relating to orders changing what are GLA roads and the provisions relating to certification and records of GLA roads<sup>13</sup>.

Any functions conferred or imposed on the Greater London Authority in relation to GLA side roads are functions of the Authority which are exercisable by the Mayor of London acting on its behalf<sup>14</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

2 Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A (as added) is exercisable by statutory instrument; and a statutory instrument containing any such order is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 124A(12) (s 124A added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 272). Such orders are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(1) (as added: see note 2 supra). Any reference in any provision of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 or any other enactment to a GLA side road is to be construed as a reference to a road in Greater London which is for the time being a GLA side road by virtue of: (1) an order made by the Secretary of State under s 124A(1) (as added); or (2) an order made by the Greater London Authority under s 124B (as added) (see PARA 727 post): s 124A(9) (as so added; and amended by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (GLA Side Roads Amendment) Order 2000, SI 2000/2237, art 2(1), (3)); Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 292(1), (3)). As to the Greater London Authority see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 79 et seq.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(2) (as added: see note 2 supra).

6 Subject to ibid s 142(4) (as added), 'GLA road' has the same meaning as in the Highways Act 1980 (see s 14D(1) (as added), s 329(1) (definition as added); and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 822): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 292(1), (3)). Any reference in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to a GLA road includes a reference to a GLA side road: s 142(4) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 292(1), (4)). However, in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A (as added), notwithstanding s 142(4) (as added), a reference to a GLA road does not include a reference to a GLA side road: s 124A(11A) (s 124A as added (see note 2 supra); and s 124A(11A) added by the Greater London Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1353).

7 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(3) (as added: see note 2 supra)

8 'Trunk road' has the same meaning as in the Highways Act 1980 (see s 329(1); and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 50); Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 292(1), (3)).

9 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(4) (as added: see note 2 supra). As to highway authorities see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 49 et seq.

10 For these purposes, 'the appropriate authority' means: (1) in relation to an order under ibid s 124A(1) (as added) (see the text and notes 1-4 supra), the Secretary of State; (2) in relation to an order made under s 124B (as added) (see PARA 727 post), the Mayor of London; and (3) in relation to confirmation of such an order by the Secretary of State under that provision as applied, the Secretary of State: s 124A(8) (as added (see note 2 supra); and amended by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (GLA Side Roads Amendment) Order 2000, SI 2000/2237, art 2(1), (2)). As to the Mayor of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 81.

11 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(5) (as added: see note 2 supra).

12 In exercise of this power the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (GLA Side Roads Amendment) Order 2000, SI 2000/2237, has been made. See PARAS 727-728 post.

13 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(6) (as added: see note 2 supra). The provisions referred to in the text are the Highways Act 1980 ss 14B, 14C (both as added) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARAS 823-824); see the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124A(6) (as so added). The provision that may be made under s 124A(6) (as added) is subject to s 124A(3)-(5) (as added) (see the text and notes 6-7, 10-11 supra): s 124A(7) (as so added).

14 Ibid s 124A(10) (as added: see note 2 supra). Section 124A(10) (as added) does not apply in relation to any functions expressly conferred on the London Assembly: s 124A(11) (as so added). As to the London Assembly see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 82.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(ii) Types of Roads/727. Orders of the Greater London Authority changing what are GLA side roads.

727. Orders of the Greater London Authority changing what are GLA side roads.

The Mayor of London<sup>1</sup> must keep under review the roads<sup>2</sup> and proposed roads which have junctions with GLA roads<sup>3</sup> or with other roads having such junctions and must consider the extent to which such roads ought to be or cease to be GLA side roads<sup>4</sup>. If the Mayor of London considers it expedient:

- 330 (1) that any road or proposed road in Greater London, other than a trunk road<sup>5</sup> or other road for which the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> is the highway authority<sup>7</sup>, ought to become a GLA side road<sup>8</sup>; or
- 331 (2) that any GLA side road ought to cease to be such a road and ought to become a road for which the traffic authority is a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London<sup>9</sup>, the Greater London Authority<sup>10</sup> may by order direct that that road or proposed road is to become, or, as the case may be, that that GLA side road is to cease to be, a GLA side road as from such date as may be specified in that behalf in the order<sup>11</sup>. Where such an order directs that a road or proposed road is to become a GLA side road, it becomes such a road as from the date specified in that behalf in the order<sup>12</sup>. Where such an order directs that a GLA side road is to cease to be such a road, then, as from the date specified in that behalf in the order, the road ceases to be a GLA side road and the following authority, that is to say: (a) where the road is situated in a London borough, the council for the London borough<sup>13</sup>; and (b) where the road is situated in the City of London, the Common Council of the City of London<sup>14</sup>, becomes the traffic authority for the road<sup>15</sup>. Such an order is of no effect unless it is made with the consent of the relevant traffic authority<sup>16</sup> or, if that consent is refused, it is confirmed (with or without modification) by the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to the Mayor of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 81.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante. For these purposes, notwithstanding the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(4) (see PARA 726 note 6 ante), a reference to a GLA road does not include a reference to a GLA side road: s 124B(9) (s 124B added by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (GLA Side Roads Amendment) Order 2000, SI 2000/2237, art 2(1), (4), Schedule). As to the meaning of 'GLA side road' see PARA 726 note 4 ante.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124B(1) (as added: see note 3 supra). Where a GLA side road becomes a GLA road it ceases to be a GLA side road: s 124B(8) (as so added).

5 For the meaning of 'trunk road' see PARA 726 note 8 ante.

6 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

7 As to highway authorities see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 49 et seq.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124B(2)(a) (as added: see note 3 supra).

10 As to the Greater London Authority see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 79 et seq.

11 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124B(2) (as added: see note 3 supra). An order under s 124B(2) (as added) may vary, revoke or re-enact with or without modifications: (1) any other order under s 124B(2) (as added) (whether or not that other order was confirmed by the Secretary of State); or (2) an order of the Secretary of State under s 124A(1) (as added) (see PARA 726 ante): s 124B(7) (as so added).

12 Ibid s 124B(3) (as added: see note 3 supra).

13 Ibid s 124B(4)(a) (as added: see note 3 supra). As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq.

15 Ibid s 124B(4) (as added: see note 3 supra). As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 post.

16 For these purposes, the relevant traffic authority is: (1) in the case of an order directing that a road or proposed road is to become a GLA side road, the authority that is the traffic authority for the road or proposed road; and (2) in the case of an order directing that a GLA side road is to cease to be such a road, the authority that will become the traffic authority for the road in consequence of the order: ibid s 124B(6) (as added: see note 3 supra).

728. Certification and records of GLA side roads.

A certificate by or on behalf of Transport for London<sup>1</sup> that any road<sup>2</sup> or proposed road is, or is not, for the time being a GLA side road<sup>3</sup> is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate<sup>4</sup>. Such a certificate may describe the road or proposed road in question by reference to a map<sup>5</sup>.

Transport for London must prepare and maintain a record of the roads which are for the time being GLA side roads<sup>6</sup>. The record required to be prepared and maintained may consist of a list, a map, or both a list and a map<sup>7</sup>; and Transport for London must deposit a copy of that record with the Greater London Authority<sup>8</sup>, each of the London borough councils and the Common Council of the City of London<sup>9</sup>. Transport for London, the Greater London Authority, each of the London borough councils and the Common Council of the City of London must make the record, or, as the case may be, the copies of the record deposited with them, available for inspection by the public at all reasonable hours<sup>10</sup>.

729. Crown roads.

'Crown road' means a road<sup>1</sup>, other than a highway, to which the public has access by permission granted by the appropriate Crown authority<sup>2</sup> or otherwise granted by or on behalf of the Crown<sup>3</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> may, with the consent of the appropriate Crown authority or authorities concerned, by order<sup>5</sup> direct that all or any of the road traffic enactments<sup>6</sup> are to apply to all Crown roads, or to any specified Crown road or Crown roads, or to Crown roads of a specified class, as they apply in relation to other roads to which the public has access<sup>7</sup>.

Any such order with respect to any of the road traffic enactments may, in particular, include provision<sup>8</sup>:

- 332 (1) for enabling functions with respect to a road exercisable under the enactment in question by the local authority or the local traffic authority<sup>9</sup> to be

- exercised with respect to a Crown road by the appropriate Crown authority or by a particular local authority or local traffic authority<sup>10</sup>;
- 333 (2) for enabling power to make an order, regulation or scheme under the enactment in question with respect to a Crown road, which would otherwise be exercisable by a local authority or local traffic authority, to be exercised instead by the Secretary of State, and for requiring the consent of the Secretary of State to the variation or revocation by any other authority of such an order, regulation or scheme made by him<sup>11</sup>;
- 334 (3) for a certificate of the appropriate Crown authority or of the Secretary of State that the authority or Secretary of State has, or has not, consented to the doing of anything for which under the order or under these provisions the consent of the authority or, as the case may be, of the Secretary of State is required to be evidence of the facts stated<sup>12</sup>;
- 335 (4) for exempting from any provision of the enactment in question persons and vehicles on a Crown road in the service of the Crown or of an agent of the Crown<sup>13</sup>.

No order, regulation or scheme in relation to a Crown road may be made, varied or revoked under any of the road traffic enactments by virtue of such an order<sup>14</sup> except by, or with the consent of, the appropriate Crown authority<sup>15</sup>.

With a view to the avoidance of doubt, the road traffic enactments specified in such an order<sup>16</sup> may include any provision of those enactments notwithstanding that it would have applied in relation to Crown roads apart from the making of the order; and inclusion in the order of a provision which would so have applied does not prejudice anything done under that provision in relation to a Crown road before the coming into operation of the order<sup>17</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 For these purposes, and for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 132 (as amended) (see PARA 770 post), 'appropriate Crown authority', in relation to a Crown road:

1349 (1) in the case of a road on land belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown, means the Crown Estate Commissioners or other government department having the management of that land;

1350 (2) in the case of a road on land belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, means the Chancellor of the Duchy;

1351 (3) in the case of a road on land belonging to the Duchy of Cornwall, means such person as the Duke of Cornwall or the possessor for the time being of the Duchy of Cornwall appoints;

1352 (4) in the case of a road on land belonging to a government department or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department, means that department, and, if any question arises under this provision as to what authority is the appropriate Crown authority in relation to any Crown road, that question is to be referred to the Treasury, whose decision is final: s 131(7)(a). As to the Crown Estate Commissioners see CROWN PROPERTY vol 12(1) (Reissue) PARA 280 et seq. As to the Treasury see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARAS 512-517.

3 Ibid s 131(7)(b) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 75). This definition applies for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 131 (as amended) and s 132 (as amended) (see PARA 770 post): see s 131(7)(b).

4 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

5 In exercise of this power the Crown Roads (Royal Parks) (Application of Road Traffic Enactments) Order 1987, SI 1987/363, has been made.

6 For these purposes, and for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 132 (as amended) (see PARA 770 post), 'road traffic enactments' means enactments, whether passed before or after or contemporaneously with or contained in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, relating to road traffic, including the lighting and parking of vehicles, and any order or other instrument having effect by virtue of any such enactment: s 131(7)(c).

7 Ibid s 131(1). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 131(3) (see the text and notes 14-15 infra) and to such exceptions, adaptations and modifications appearing to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient as may be specified in the order: see s 131(1). Any power to make an order under s 131(1) is exercisable by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 131(5). Section 131(1) has effect without prejudice to the provisions of s 132 (as amended) (see PARA 770 post) in relation to certain Crown roads; and nothing in s 131 (as amended) prejudices any enactment, in addition to s 131 (as amended) and s 132 (as amended), which relates to Crown roads: s 131(6).

8 Ibid s 131(2). This provision is expressed to be without prejudice to the generality of s 131(1) (see the text and notes 1-7 supra) but subject to s 131(3) (see the text to notes 14-15 infra): see s 131(2).

For the purposes of the statutory provisions relating to orders similar to traffic regulation orders<sup>1</sup>, experimental traffic orders<sup>2</sup>, powers and duties of local traffic authorities in Greater London in respect of traffic signs<sup>3</sup>, directions that a road either ceases to be a restricted road or becomes one<sup>4</sup>, and speed limits on roads other than restricted roads<sup>5</sup>, where any part of the width of a road<sup>6</sup> is in Greater London, the whole width of the road is to be deemed to be in Greater London<sup>7</sup>.

Any powers which, under the statutory provisions relating to experimental traffic orders<sup>8</sup>, temporary prohibition or restriction on roads<sup>9</sup>, orders regulating the use of highways by public service vehicles<sup>10</sup>, powers of local authorities with respect to pedestrian crossings on roads other than trunk roads<sup>11</sup>, orders prohibiting traffic on roads to be used as playgrounds<sup>12</sup>, powers of local authorities to provide parking places<sup>13</sup>, general powers of parish or community councils for provision of parking places<sup>14</sup>, placing of traffic signs in connection with the exercise of other powers<sup>15</sup>, directions that a road either ceases to be a restricted road or becomes one<sup>16</sup>, and speed limits on roads other than restricted roads<sup>17</sup>, are exercisable by a local authority<sup>18</sup> as respects a road (including powers exercisable by such an authority as highway authority<sup>19</sup>) are, in the case of a road part of the width of which is in the area of one local authority and part in the area of another, to be exercisable by either authority with the consent of the other<sup>20</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(iii) Traffic Authorities/731. Meanings of 'traffic authority' and 'local traffic authority'.

(iii) Traffic Authorities

731. Meanings of 'traffic authority' and 'local traffic authority'.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> is the traffic authority for every highway for which he is the highway authority<sup>2</sup>.

'Local traffic authority' means a traffic authority other than the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>.

Transport for London<sup>4</sup> is the traffic authority for every GLA road<sup>5</sup>.

In Greater London, the council of the London borough or the Common Council of the City of London is the traffic authority for all roads in the borough or, as the case may be, in the City which are not GLA roads and for which the Secretary of State is not the traffic authority<sup>6</sup>.

Outside Greater London, the council of the county or metropolitan district is the traffic authority for all roads in the county or, as the case may be, the district for which the Secretary of State is not the traffic authority<sup>7</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

For these purposes, 'highway authority' means a highway authority within the meaning of the Highways Act 1980 (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 49 et seq): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 121A(1) (as so added and amended).

As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante. Note that since the definition of GLA road includes GLA side roads, Transport for London is also the traffic authority for GLA side roads. As to the meaning of 'GLA side road' see PARA 726 note 4 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(iii) Traffic Authorities/732. London borough council exercising powers so as to affect another traffic authority's control.

732. London borough council exercising powers so as to affect another traffic authority's control.

No London borough council<sup>1</sup> may exercise any power under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 in a way which will affect, or be likely to affect, a GLA road<sup>2</sup>, a strategic road<sup>3</sup>, or a road<sup>4</sup> in another London borough other than a GLA road or strategic road, unless certain requirements<sup>5</sup> have been satisfied<sup>6</sup>. The first requirement is that the council has given notice of the proposal to exercise the power in the way in question to Transport for London<sup>7</sup> and, in a case where the road concerned is in another London borough, to the council for that borough<sup>8</sup>. The second requirement is that:

- 336 (1) the proposal has been approved: (a) in the case of a GLA road, by Transport for London; (b) in the case of a strategic road, by Transport for London and, where the road concerned is in another London borough, the council for that borough; (c) in the case of a road in another London borough other than a GLA road or strategic road, by the London borough council concerned<sup>9</sup>; or
- 337 (2) the period of one month beginning with the date on which Transport for London and, where applicable, the council received notice of the proposal has expired without Transport for London or the council having objected to the proposal<sup>10</sup>; or
- 338 (3) any objection made by Transport for London or the council has been withdrawn<sup>11</sup>; or
- 339 (4) where an objection has been made by Transport for London or a London borough council and not withdrawn, the Greater London Authority<sup>12</sup> has given its consent to the proposal after consideration of the objection<sup>13</sup>.

If Transport for London has reason to believe: (i) that a London borough council is proposing to exercise a power under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 in a way which will affect, or be likely to affect, a GLA road, a strategic road, or a road in another London borough other than a GLA road or strategic road<sup>14</sup>; and (ii) that notice of the proposal is required to be, but has not been, given in accordance with the requirement<sup>15</sup>, Transport for London may give a direction to the council requiring it not to proceed with the proposal until the requirements<sup>16</sup> have been satisfied<sup>17</sup>.

If a London borough council exercises any power in contravention of these provisions, Transport for London may take such steps as it considers appropriate to reverse or modify the effect of the exercise of that power<sup>18</sup>; and, for these purposes, Transport for London has power to exercise any power of the London borough council on behalf of that council<sup>19</sup>. Any reasonable expenses incurred by Transport for London in taking any such steps are recoverable by Transport for London from the London borough council concerned as a civil debt<sup>20</sup>.

The Mayor of London may issue a direction dispensing with the requirements<sup>21</sup> in such circumstances as may be specified in the direction<sup>22</sup>. Such a direction may, in particular, dispense with those requirements as respects: (A) all or any of the London borough councils; (B) all or any of the GLA roads or strategic roads; (C) all or any of the roads which are not GLA roads, strategic roads or trunk roads<sup>23</sup>; (D) the exercise of such powers as may be specified in the direction in such manner or circumstances as may be so specified<sup>24</sup>. Such a direction may be varied or revoked by a further direction<sup>25</sup>.

1 For these purposes: (1) the City of London is to be treated as if it were a London borough; (2) the Common Council is to be treated as if it were the council for a London borough; and (3) the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple are to be treated as forming part of the City: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 121B(9) (s 121B added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 291).

2 As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante.

3 For these purposes, 'strategic road' has the meaning given by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 60: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 121B(13) (s 121B as added (see note 1 supra); and s 121B(13) added by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 63(1), (7)). ### 733. Functions of the Greater London Authority to be exercised by the Mayor.

The functions of the Greater London Authority ('GLA')<sup>1</sup> under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 are functions of the GLA which are exercisable by the Mayor of London<sup>2</sup> acting on behalf of the GLA<sup>3</sup>. However, this does not apply in relation to any function expressly conferred or imposed on, or made exercisable by, the London Assembly<sup>4</sup>.

734. Exercise of functions by local authorities.

It is the duty<sup>1</sup> of every local authority on which functions are conferred by or under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, so to exercise the functions conferred on it by that Act as, so far as practicable having regard to the following matters:

- 340 (1) the desirability of securing and maintaining reasonable access to premises<sup>2</sup>;
- 341 (2) the effect on the amenities of any locality affected and the importance of regulating and restricting the use of roads<sup>3</sup> by heavy commercial vehicles<sup>4</sup>, so as to preserve or improve the amenities of the areas through which the roads run<sup>5</sup>;
- 342 (3) the strategy prepared in respect of the national air quality strategy<sup>6</sup>;
- 343 (4) the importance of facilitating the passage of public service vehicles<sup>7</sup> and of securing the safety and convenience of persons using or desiring to use such vehicles<sup>8</sup>; and
- 344 (5) any other matters appearing to the local authority to be relevant<sup>9</sup>, to secure the expeditious, convenient and safe movement of vehicular and other traffic, including pedestrians, and the provision of suitable and adequate parking facilities on and off the highway<sup>10</sup>.

1 The duty imposed is subject to the provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) (parking in London: see PARA 889 post): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 122(3) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 81, Sch 7 para 7).

735. Prospective exercise of powers.

Any power under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to make an order or give a direction may be exercised before the road<sup>1</sup> to which it relates is open for public use, so as to take effect immediately on the road's becoming open for public use<sup>2</sup>.

The procedure for making an order or giving a direction applies in such a case with such modifications as may be prescribed<sup>3</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(iv) Special Provisions as to Certain Orders/736. Secretary of State's reserve powers.

(iv) Special Provisions as to Certain Orders

736. Secretary of State's reserve powers.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup>, after consultation with a local authority having power to make orders under certain provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984<sup>2</sup> (an 'authorised authority'), may<sup>3</sup> give to that authority a direction with respect to any of those provisions<sup>4</sup>, either:

- 345 (1) requiring the authorised authority to make an order under or by virtue of the provision or provisions in question for a specified purpose and coming into operation before the expiry of a specified period<sup>5</sup>; or
- 346 (2) prohibiting the authority (either generally, or without the consent of the Secretary of State, or for a specified period) from making or bringing into operation an order under or by virtue of the provision or provisions in question with respect to specified matters or a specified area<sup>6</sup>.

Any power to make an order conferred on an authorised authority by any of those provisions<sup>7</sup> is exercisable by the Secretary of State as well as by the authority<sup>8</sup>. However, no such order may be made<sup>9</sup> except for the purpose of securing the object of a direction<sup>10</sup> given to an authorised authority with which the authority has failed to comply<sup>11</sup>. Where the Secretary of State has made such an order<sup>12</sup>:

- 347 (a) so far as appears to him necessary in order to make the order effective, he, or<sup>13</sup> any other local authority with which he may make arrangements for the purpose, has power to do anything which the authorised authority would have had power to do if the order had been made by it<sup>14</sup>; and
- 348 (b) he may recover from the authorised authority any expenses incurred by him by virtue of head (a) above, such expenses to be so recoverable by him summarily as a civil debt<sup>15</sup>.

The Secretary of State, after giving notice to the authorised authority concerned and holding, if he thinks fit, a public inquiry, may by order vary or revoke any order made, or having effect as if made, under or by virtue of any of the provisions<sup>16</sup> referred to above<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State may not give any such direction<sup>18</sup> or make any such order<sup>19</sup> unless he is satisfied, having regard to any matters appearing to him to be relevant, that the duty as to the exercise of its functions<sup>20</sup> imposed on the authorised authority concerned is not being satisfactorily discharged by the authority, and that the giving of the direction or the making of the order is necessary to secure compliance with that duty<sup>21</sup>. The Secretary of State may, however, make such an order<sup>22</sup> notwithstanding that he is not so satisfied<sup>23</sup>, if he is satisfied, having regard to any matters appearing to him to be relevant, that there are special circumstances which make it expedient that the order should be made<sup>24</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 I.e. an order under or by virtue of any of the following provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, namely, s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 post), s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 post), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 post), s 14 (as substituted) (in so far as the power under that provision is exercisable by virtue of s 22C (as added and amended)) (see PARA 755 notes 5, 12 post), s 19 (as amended) (see PARA 767 post), s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 post), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 post), s 37 (as amended) (see PARA 794 post), s 38 (as amended) (see PARA 795 post), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 49(2), (4) (see PARA 814 post), s 53 (as amended) (see PARA 817 post), s 83(2) (as substituted) (see PARA 847 post) and s 84 (as amended) (see PARA 848 post).

3 I.e. subject to ibid s 124(1), Sch 9 para 8 (as amended) (see the text to note 21 infra) and Sch 9 para 26 (see PARA 738 post).

4 Ibid Sch 9 para 1 (substituted by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(39)(a); and amended by the Civil Contingencies Act 2004 s 32(1), Sch 2 Pt 3 para 16(1), (4)(a)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 1 (as substituted and amended) and Sch 9 paras 2-4 (as amended) (see the text and notes 5-15 infra) have effect in any case in which it appears to the Secretary of State that the council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London has failed in the exercise of the powers conferred on it by s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 post) to make such provision for the control of heavy commercial vehicles in its area as is appropriate for preserving or improving the amenities of its area, as if: (1) the power conferred by Sch 9 para 1 (as substituted and amended) to give a direction with respect to s 6 (as amended) were a duty to give such a direction; and (2) the power to make an order under s 6 (as amended) conferred by Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) (see the text to notes 8-11 infra) were a duty to make such an order or a similar order under s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante): Sch 9 para 5(1) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(39)(c)). Any reference in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to Sch 9 para 1 (as substituted and amended) or Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) is to be construed as including a reference to Sch 9 para 1 (as substituted and amended) or Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) as modified by Sch 9 para 5 (as amended): Sch 9 para 5(2). For the meaning of 'heavy commercial vehicle' see PARA 220 ante.

A power conferred upon the Secretary of State by Sch 9 (as amended), in so far as it relates to the exercise of a power under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 by virtue of s 22C (as added and amended) (see PARAS 742 notes 5-6, 747 note 4, 755 notes 5, 12 post), is exercisable in relation to Wales by the Welsh Ministers with the consent of the Secretary of State: Sch 9 para 12B (added by the Civil Contingencies Act 2004 Sch 2 Pt 3 para 6(4)(b)). See PARA 237 ante.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 2(a) (Sch 9 para 2 amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 102, Sch 17).

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 2(b) (as amended: see note 5 supra). Where the Secretary of State: (1) gives a direction under Sch 9 para 2 (as amended) requiring a county council or district council to make an order under s 32(1) (see PARA 784 post) or s 35(1) (as amended) (see PARA 790 post); or (2) makes such an order by virtue of Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) (see the text to notes 8-11 infra), the provisions of s 39(1)-(5) (as amended) (see PARAS 784-785, 787 post) do not apply in relation to anything done in pursuance of the direction or, as the case may be, in relation to the making of the order by the Secretary of State: Sch 9 para 10.

7 le by any of the provisions specified in ibid Sch 9 para 1 (as substituted): see the text to note 4 supra.

8 Ibid Sch 9 para 3(1) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 Sch 17). Where, by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 3 (as amended), a parking place has been designated under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post) by an order of the Secretary of State, then if, with the consent of the Treasury, the Secretary of State enters into an agreement with the local authority for the transfer to that authority of the operation of that parking place: (1) the operation of the parking place, and such apparatus or other things held by, and rights or liabilities of, the Secretary of State in connection with the parking place as may be specified in the agreement, is transferred as from such date and on such terms (including terms as to the making of payments to or by the Secretary of State) as may be so specified; (2) from the taking effect of any such transfer of the operation of the parking place, the order designating the parking place has effect subject to such modifications, if any, appearing to the Secretary of State to be requisite in consequence of the transfer as he may direct; and (3) the provisions of ss 45-49 (as amended) (see PARAS 808, 810-814 post) and s 55 (as amended) (see PARA 818 post) thereafter apply as if the parking place had been designated under s 45 (as amended) by an order made by the local authority: Sch 9 para 6(1) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 Sch 5 para 4(39)(b), (d), Sch 17).

For these purposes, 'local authority' has the meaning assigned to it by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(7) (as amended) (see PARA 808 note 1 post): Sch 9 para 6(2).

Where the Secretary of State: (a) gives a direction under Sch 9 para 2 (as amended) requiring a county council or metropolitan district council or parish or community council to make an order under s 35(1) (as amended) (see PARA 790 post) in relation to a parking place provided by a parish or community council; or (b) by virtue of Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) makes such an order in relation to such a parking place, neither s 59(4), (5) (as amended) (see PARA 823 post) nor s 59(7) (as amended) (see PARA 823 post) applies in relation to anything done in pursuance of the direction or, as the case may be, in relation to the making of the order by the Secretary of State: Sch 9 para 12 (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 Sch 5 para 4(39)(e)).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(iv) Special Provisions as to Certain Orders/737. Secretary of State's consent to orders.

737. Secretary of State's consent to orders.

Where, in the case of an order proposed to be made<sup>1</sup> by a local authority other than the council of a London borough and the Common Council of the City of London, it is proposed to include in the order any provision<sup>2</sup>:

- 349 (1) so prohibiting or restricting the use of a road<sup>3</sup> as to prevent, for more than eight hours in any period of 24 hours, access for vehicles of any class<sup>4</sup> to any premises situated on or adjacent to that road or any other premises accessible for vehicles of that class from, and only from, that road<sup>5</sup>; or
- 350 (2) applying to a road for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority<sup>6</sup>; or
- 351 (3) being, in the case of an order for restricting speed limits on roads other than restricted roads<sup>7</sup>:
- 85
- 157. (a) a provision applying to any road a speed limit of less than 30 miles per hour<sup>8</sup>; or
- 158. (b) a provision imposing a prohibition relating to speed limits on roads other than restricted roads<sup>9</sup>; or
- 86
- 352 (4) varying or revoking, within 12 months of its making, any order made by, or made in pursuance of a direction given by, the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>; or
- 353 (5) making provision as respects any length of road for any purpose within 12 months after the date when a previous order made as respects that length of road for a similar purpose was varied or revoked by an order made by, or made in pursuance of a direction given by, the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup>, the order may not be made<sup>12</sup> without the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>13</sup>.

Where in the case of certain orders<sup>14</sup> proposed to be made by the council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London, it is proposed to include in the order any provision such as is mentioned in heads (2) to (5) above, the order may not be made<sup>15</sup> except with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>16</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by order add to or remove from the orders for which his consent is required<sup>17</sup> such orders made by such local authorities for such purposes or in such circumstances as he may see fit to specify in his order<sup>18</sup>. However, no such order removing any order from the orders for which the consent of the Secretary of State is for the time being required may be made unless a draft of the order has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament<sup>19</sup>. Any other such order is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>20</sup>.

In consenting to any order submitted to him for his consent under the above provisions, the Secretary of State may consent to the order either in the form in which it is submitted to him or with such modifications as he thinks fit, which may include additions, exceptions, or other modifications of any description<sup>21</sup>. Where the Secretary of State proposes to consent to such an order with modifications which appear to him substantially to affect the character of the order as submitted to him, he must, before doing so, take such steps as appear to him to be sufficient and reasonably practicable for informing the local authority in question and other persons likely to be concerned<sup>22</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by order grant a general consent for the making of orders requiring his consent under the above provisions: (i) of such descriptions; or (ii) with respect to such matters only; or (iii) made by such local authorities, or by authorities of such classes of descriptions; or (iv) made in such circumstances; or (v) complying with such requirements, as may be specified in the order<sup>23</sup>. Any such order is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>24</sup>.

1     I.e. an order under or by virtue of any of the following provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, namely, s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 post), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 post), s 19 (as amended) (see PARA 767 post), s 29 (as substituted) (see PARA 782 post), s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 post), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 post), s 37 (as amended) (see PARA 794 post), s 38 (as amended) (see PARA 795 post), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 post), s 83(2) (as substituted) (see PARA 847 post) and s 84 (as amended) (see PARA 848 post).

738. Procedure as to certain orders.

Before making certain orders<sup>1</sup>, a local authority or Transport for London must consult with the chief officer of police<sup>2</sup> of any police area in which any road<sup>3</sup> or other place to which the order is to relate is situated; and, if the order in question has to be submitted to the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> for his consent<sup>5</sup>, the authority must so consult before submitting the order to the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>.

As respects orders<sup>7</sup> of a local authority other than the council of a London borough and the Common Council of the City of London, the Secretary of State may make regulations for providing the procedure to be followed in connection with the making of such orders, the submission of such orders for the consent of the Secretary of State or a county council where such submission is required, and the consideration by him or by the county council of any such order submitted to him or it, and the Secretary of State must by such regulations make such, if any, provision as he considers appropriate with respect to<sup>8</sup>: (1) the publication of any proposal for the making of such an order<sup>9</sup>; (2) the making and consideration of objections to any such proposal<sup>10</sup>; and (3) the publication of notice of the making of the order and of its effect<sup>11</sup>. Such regulations may<sup>12</sup> include provision<sup>13</sup>:

- 354 (a) as to the form of any such order<sup>14</sup>;
- 355 (b) for the holding of inquiries for the purposes of any such order and as to the appointment of the person by whom any such inquiry is to be held<sup>15</sup>;
- 356 (c) for the making of modifications<sup>16</sup> in any such order, whether in consequence of any objections or otherwise, before the order is made<sup>17</sup>;
- 357 (d) requiring any such order to include such exemptions for such purposes and subject to such exceptions as may be provided for by the regulations<sup>18</sup>;
- 358 (e) requiring the authority by which any such order is made to place and maintain, or cause to be placed and maintained, such traffic signs<sup>19</sup> in connection with that order as may be so provided for<sup>20</sup>.

1    le an order under or by virtue of any of the following provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, namely, s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 post), s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 post), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 post), s 19 (as amended) (see PARA 767 post), s 29 (as substituted) (see PARA 782 post), s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 post), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 post), s 37 (as amended) (see PARA 794 post), s 38 (as amended) (see PARA 795 post), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 post), s 61 (as amended) (see PARA 826 post), s 83(2) (as substituted) (see PARA 847 post) and s 84 (as amended) (see PARA 848 post).

2    As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

3    For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4    As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

5    le under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124(1), Sch 9 Pt II paras 13-19 (as amended) (see PARA 737 ante) or any other provision of that Act.

6    Ibid Sch 9 para 20(1) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 ss 8, 102, Sch 5 para 4(39)(h), Sch 7; the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), (2), Sch 8 para 80(1), (3), Sch 9; and the Greater London Highways and Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2000, SI 2000/1547, art 3(1), (2)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 20(1) (as amended) does not apply to an order made in pursuance of a direction under Sch 9 para 2 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante), and has effect without prejudice to any further requirements contained in any regulations made under the provisions of Sch 9 Pt III paras 20-26 (as amended): Sch 9 para 20(2).

The Secretary of State may make regulations with respect to the procedure in connection with the making by him: (1) of any order made by virtue of Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante) or made under Sch 9 para 7 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante); or (2) of any order which he is authorised to make with respect to roads for which he is the traffic authority under any of the provisions referred to in Sch 9 para 20(1) (as amended), or with respect to the procedure in connection with appeals to him by district councils under s 39 (as amended) (see PARAS 784-785, 787 post): Sch 9 para 24 (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 80(1), (5); and the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 22(1), Sch 7 para 38(11)). As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante. At the date at which this volume states the law no regulations had been made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 24 (as amended).

Any regulations under Sch 9 Pt III paras 20-26 (as amended) may make different provision for different orders or for different circumstances; and, where any such regulations require an authority to post any notice in a road, the authority may, whether or not it is the traffic authority, take such steps for that purpose as it thinks fit, including the use for that purpose of any lamp post, traffic sign or other structure whatsoever in the road, whether or not belonging to that authority: Sch 9 para 25 (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 80(1), (6)).

Before giving any authority a direction under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 2 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante) to make (with or without modifications) an order under any of the provisions referred to in Sch 9 para 20(1) (as amended) (see note 1 supra), in connection with which steps have already been taken in pursuance of regulations made under Sch 9 Pt IV (as amended), the Secretary of State must consider any objections made to that order: Sch 9 para 26(1). If the order is directed to be made with modifications which appear to the Secretary of State to affect substantially the character of the order, he must take such steps as appear to him to be sufficient and reasonably practicable for informing any local authority concerned and any other person likely to be concerned: Sch 9 para 26(2).

738 Procedure as to certain orders

NOTE 11--SI 1996/2489 amended: SI 2009/1116 (England).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(iv) Special Provisions as to Certain Orders/739. Variation or revocation of orders.

739. Variation or revocation of orders.

Any power to make an order as respects any road<sup>1</sup> or parking place<sup>2</sup> includes power for the authority for the time being having power to make such an order as respects that road or parking place to make an order varying or revoking any previous order as respects that road or parking place made, or having effect as if made, under or by virtue of the provision in question, whether the previous order was made by that or some other authority, and notwithstanding that the previous order was, and the order varying or revoking it is not, made in pursuance of a power exercisable by statutory instrument<sup>3</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 le conferred by or by virtue of any of the following provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, namely, s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 post), s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 post), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 post), s 14 (as substituted) (see PARA 755 post), s 16A (as added) (see PARA 759 post), s 19 (as amended) (see PARA 767 post), s 29 (as amended) (see PARA 782 post), s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 post), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 post), s 37 (as amended) (see PARA 794 post), s 38 (as amended) (see PARA 795 post), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 49(2), (4) (see PARA 814 post), s 50 (repealed), s 53 (as amended) (see PARA 817 ante), s 83 (as amended) (see PARA 847 post), s 84 (as amended) (see PARA 848 post) and Sch 9 para 7 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante).

3 Ibid s 124(1), Sch 9 para 27(1) (amended by the Road Traffic (Temporary Restrictions) Act 1991 s 1(4); the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), (2), Sch 8 para 80(1), (7), Sch 9; the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 3(1), Schedule para 5(2); and the Transport Act 2000 s 161, Sch 11 paras 6, 8(1), (2)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 27(1) (as amended) has effect subject to s 39(6) (as amended) (see PARA 784 post) and s 59(6) (as amended) (see PARA 823 post): Sch 9 para 27(2) (amended by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 ss 22(1), 66(8), Sch 7 para 38(11), Sch 18). Where an order is required for the provision of facilities pursuant to a quality partnership scheme made under the Transport Act 2000 Pt II (ss 108-162) (as amended) by more than one authority (see PARA 1200 et seq post): (1) it may not be varied or revoked by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 27 (as amended) by the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers unless he has or they have consulted the other authority or authorities who made the scheme; and (2) it may not be varied or revoked by virtue of Sch 9 para 27 (as amended) by any other authority without the consent of that other authority or those other authorities: Sch 9 para 27(3) (added by the Transport Act 2000 Sch 11 para 8(3)).

Subject to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 Pt II paras 13-19 (as amended) (see PARA 737 ante), the power to vary or revoke an order made under or by virtue of any of the provisions referred to in Sch 9 para 27(1) (as amended) (see note 2 supra) extends to the variation or revocation of any such order in connection with the provision in question as is mentioned in heads (1)-(5) infra, notwithstanding that it was made by, or by direction of, the Secretary of State:

1353 (1) an order made in pursuance of a direction under Sch 9 para 2 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante) (Sch 9 para 28(a));

1354 (2) except where the provision in question is s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 post) or s 53 (as amended) (see PARA 817 post), an order made by virtue of Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante) (Sch 9 para 28(b));

1355 (3) where the provision in question is s 45 (as amended), s 46 (as amended), s 49 (as amended) or s 53 (as amended), an order which is made by virtue of Sch 9 para 3 (as amended) and relates to a parking place for the time being controlled by the local authority within the meaning of s 45 (as amended) (Sch 9 para 28(c) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 102, Sch 17));

1356 (4) an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 7 (as amended) (see PARA 736 ante) (Sch 9 para 28(d) (amended by the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994 ss 39, 81, Sch 11 para 5, Sch 17)); or

740 Consultation with the traffic commissioners

TEXT AND NOTES 9-11--Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 9 para 31(b) further amended: Local Transport Act 2008 Sch 4 para 51.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(1) IN GENERAL/(iv) Special Provisions as to Certain Orders/741. Validity of orders.

741. Validity of orders.

If any person desires to question the validity of any of the following orders, or of any provision contained in any of them<sup>1</sup>:

- 361 (1) any traffic regulation order<sup>2</sup>;
- 362 (2) any traffic regulation order in Greater London<sup>3</sup>;
- 363 (3) any experimental traffic order<sup>4</sup>;
- 364 (4) an order regulating the use of highways by public service vehicles<sup>5</sup>;
- 365 (5) any order containing a prohibition or restriction on roads in connection with certain events<sup>6</sup>;
- 366 (6) any order providing parking spaces<sup>7</sup>;
- 367 (7) any order containing a general scheme of traffic control<sup>8</sup>;
- 368 (8) any order for a parking place to be used as a bus or coach station<sup>9</sup>; or
- 369 (9) any designation order<sup>10</sup>, on the grounds that the order is not within the relevant powers<sup>11</sup>, or that any of the relevant requirements<sup>12</sup> has not been complied with in relation to the order<sup>13</sup>, he may, within six weeks from the date on which the order is made, make an application for the purpose to the High Court<sup>14</sup>.

On any such application the court: (a) may, by interim order, suspend the operation of the order to which the application relates, or of any provision of that order, until the final determination of the proceedings<sup>15</sup>; and (b) if satisfied that the order, or any provision of the order, is not within the relevant powers, or that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by failure to comply with any of the relevant requirements, may quash the order or any provision of the order<sup>16</sup>. An order specified in heads (1) to (9) above, or a provision of any such order, may be so suspended or quashed either generally or so far as may be necessary for the protection of the interests of the applicant<sup>17</sup>.

Except as provided above<sup>18</sup>, such an order may not, either before or after it has been made, be questioned in any legal proceedings whatever<sup>19</sup>.

A. TRAFFIC REGULATION ORDERS OUTSIDE GREATER LONDON

742. Purposes for which traffic regulation orders may be made.

The traffic authority<sup>1</sup> for a road<sup>2</sup> outside Greater London may make an order (a 'traffic regulation order') in respect of the road where it appears to the authority making the order that it is expedient to make it<sup>3</sup>:

- 370 (1) for avoiding danger to persons or other traffic<sup>4</sup> using the road or any other road or for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising<sup>5</sup>; or
- 371 (2) for preventing damage to the road or to any building on or near the road<sup>6</sup>; or
- 372 (3) for facilitating the passage on the road or any other road of any class of traffic<sup>7</sup> (including pedestrians)<sup>8</sup>; or
- 373 (4) for preventing the use of the road by vehicular traffic of a kind which, or its use by vehicular traffic in a manner which, is unsuitable having regard to the existing character of the road or adjoining property<sup>9</sup>; or
- 374 (5) without prejudice to the generality of head (4) above, for preserving the character of the road in a case where it is specially suitable for use by persons on horseback or on foot<sup>10</sup>; or
- 375 (6) for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which the road runs<sup>11</sup>; or
- 376 (7) for certain purposes<sup>12</sup> relating to air quality<sup>13</sup>.

A traffic regulation order made by a local traffic authority<sup>14</sup> may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, extend to a road in relation to which he is the traffic authority if the order forms part of a scheme of general traffic control relating to roads of which at least one has a junction with the length of road in question<sup>15</sup>.

A local traffic authority may make a traffic regulation order in respect of a road in relation to which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority if: (a) the order is required for the provision of facilities pursuant to a quality partnership scheme<sup>16</sup>; and (b) the Secretary of State consents<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 1(1), 142(1) (s 1(1) amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), (2), Sch 8 para 17(2)). The power to make an order under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 1 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 1 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). Orders made under s 1 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

Section 1 (as amended) has effect in relation to tramcars and trolley vehicles so that such vehicles are exempt from any order made under it: see the Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, regs 3(1)(a), 5(1)(a), which are expressed to be subject to Pt IV (ie reg 11) (see PARAS 1629-1630 post). Nothing in reg 5(1) affects the operation of any provision in an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1 (as amended) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles or the loading or unloading of vehicles: Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, reg 5(2). For the meanings of 'tramcars' and 'trolley vehicles' see PARA 219 ante.

As to exemptions for disabled persons see, in relation to England, the Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (England) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/683; and, in relation to Wales, the Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (England and Wales) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/178 (amended by SI 1991/2709; SI 2000/683).

4 In relation to any footpath, bridleway, restricted byway or byway open to traffic, any reference in any provision of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, except s 127 (as amended), to traffic is to be construed as including a reference to pedestrians or any person driving, riding or leading a horse or other animal of draught or burden: s 127(1)(b), (2) (s 127(1) amended by the Restricted Byways (Application and Consequential Amendment of Provisions) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1177, reg 2, Schedule Pt I). For these purposes, 'footpath' does not include a highway over which the public has a right of way on foot only which is at the side of a public road; and 'byway open to all traffic' means a highway over which the public has a right of way for vehicular and all other kinds of traffic, but which is used by the public mainly for the purpose for which footpaths and bridleways are so used: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 127(3). A highway at the side of a river, canal or inland navigation is not to be excluded, for these purposes, from the definition of a footpath, bridleway, restricted byway or byway open to all traffic by reason only that the public has a right to use the highway for purposes of navigation, if the highway would fall within that definition if the public had no such right: s 127(4) (amended by the Restricted Byways (Application and Consequential Amendment of Provisions) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1177, Schedule Pt I). For the meaning of 'bridleway' see PARA 206 ante. 'Restricted byway' has the same meaning as in the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 Pt II (ss 47-72) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 603): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (definition added by the Restricted Byways (Application and Consequential Amendment of Provisions) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1177, Schedule Pt I). For the meaning of 'footpath' generally see PARA 206 ante.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1(1)(a). An order may be made under s 1(1)(a) for the purpose of avoiding or reducing, or reducing the likelihood of, danger connected with terrorism (for which purpose the reference to persons or other traffic using the road are to be treated as including a reference to persons or property on or near the road): s 22C(1) (s 22C added by the Civil Contingencies Act 2004 s 32(1), Sch 2 para 16). 'Terrorism' has the meaning given to it under the Terrorism Act 2000 s 1 (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 383): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 22C(6) (as so added). In Wales an order made, or notice issued, by virtue of s 22C (as added and amended) may be made or issued only with the consent of the Secretary of State if the traffic authority is the Welsh Ministers: s 22C(8) (as so added). See PARA 237 ante.

6 Ibid s 1(1)(b). An order may be made under s 1(1)(b) for the purpose of preventing or reducing damage connected with terrorism: s 22C(2) (as added: see note 5 supra).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(i) Traffic Regulation Orders and Schemes/A. TRAFFIC REGULATION ORDERS OUTSIDE GREATER LONDON/743. What a traffic regulation order may provide.

743. What a traffic regulation order may provide.

A traffic regulation order<sup>1</sup> may make any provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the use of a road<sup>2</sup>, or of any part of the width of a road, by vehicular traffic<sup>3</sup>, or by vehicular traffic of any class<sup>4</sup> specified in the order<sup>5</sup>: (1) either generally or subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the order or determined in a manner provided for by it<sup>6</sup>; (2) and subject to such exceptions as may be so specified or determined, either at all times or at times, on days or during periods so specified<sup>7</sup>. The provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order includes any provision<sup>8</sup>:

- 377 (a) requiring vehicular traffic, or vehicular traffic of any class specified in the order, to proceed in a specified direction or prohibiting its so proceeding<sup>9</sup>;
- 378 (b) specifying the part of the carriageway to be used by such traffic proceeding in a specified direction<sup>10</sup>;
- 379 (c) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles or the loading and unloading of vehicles<sup>11</sup>;
- 380 (d) prohibiting the use of roads by through traffic<sup>12</sup>; or
- 381 (e) prohibiting or restricting overtaking<sup>13</sup>.

The provision that may be made by a traffic regulation order also includes provision prohibiting, restricting or regulating the use of a road, or of any part of the width of a road, by, or by any specified class of, pedestrians<sup>14</sup> either generally or subject to exceptions specified in the order, and either at all times or at times, on days or during periods so specified<sup>15</sup>. A local traffic authority<sup>16</sup> may include in a traffic regulation order any such provision<sup>17</sup>:

- 382 (i) specifying through routes for heavy commercial vehicles<sup>18</sup>; or

- 383 (ii) prohibiting or restricting the use of heavy commercial vehicles (except in such cases, if any, as may be specified in the order) in such zones or on such roads as may be so specified<sup>19</sup>, as it considers expedient for preserving or improving the amenities of its area or of some part or parts of its area<sup>20</sup>.

- 10 Ibid s 2(2)(b).
- 11 Ibid s 2(2)(c) (as amended: see note 8 supra). In this context 'loading and unloading' means loading and unloading for commercial purposes, and although it may extend to cases where a private car is used for something which it would not have been reasonable to carry by hand, it does not extend to the case of a shopper who puts things into his car which are easily carried: Sprake v Tester (1955) 53 LGR 194, DC. It was held that although unloading might cover time taken to deliver the goods to their destination as well as the actual removal of the goods from the vehicle, it did not cover the delivery of goods which were not in the vehicle when it was parked: see Pratt v Hayward [1969] 1 All ER 1094, [1969] 1 WLR 832. The purpose of the exemption for loading or unloading is to exempt those vehicles where it is reasonably necessary to park the vehicle in order that the goods are delivered or collected; it does not include occasions when a vehicle was used by a driver for convenience and he could have reasonably have carried the goods on his person: see Richards v McKnight [1977] 3 All ER 625, [1977] 1 WLR 377, DC (the driver of a car parked it outside a bank to collect cash for wages). However, where a driver left his van with the engine running while unloading frozen goods, it was held that the court was unable to say that the justices' finding of fact that the vehicle was waiting only for so long as was necessary to complete unloading was wrong, bearing in mind that the load was frozen goods which could not be left on the pavement: Bulman v Godbold [1981] RTR 242, DC. Whether a person is boarding or alighting from a vehicle is a matter of common sense: see Clifford-Turner v Waterman [1961] 3 All ER 974, [1961] 1 WLR 1499.

- 14 In relation to any footpath, bridleway, restricted byway or byway open to all traffic any reference in ibid s 2(3) or s 14 (as substituted and amended) (see PARA 755 post) to pedestrians is to be construed as including a reference to any person driving, riding or leading a horse or other animal of draught or burden: s 127(1)(a), (2) (s 127(1) amended by the Restricted Byways (Application and Consequential Amendment of Provisions) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/1177, reg 2, Schedule Pt I). ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(i) Traffic Regulation Orders and Schemes/A. TRAFFIC REGULATION ORDERS OUTSIDE GREATER LONDON/744. Restrictions on traffic regulation orders.

744. Restrictions on traffic regulation orders.

A traffic regulation order<sup>1</sup> must not be made with respect to any road<sup>2</sup> which would have the effect<sup>3</sup> of preventing at any time access for pedestrians<sup>4</sup> or of preventing for more than eight hours in any period of 24 hours access for vehicles of any class<sup>5</sup> to any premises situated on or adjacent to the road, or to any other premises accessible for pedestrians, or (as the case may be) for vehicles of that class, from, and only from, the road<sup>6</sup>. However, restriction, so far as it relates to vehicles, does not have effect in so far as the authority making the order is satisfied, and it is stated in the order that it is satisfied, that<sup>7</sup>:

- 384 (1) for avoiding danger to persons or other traffic using the road to which the order relates or any other road<sup>8</sup>; or
- 385 (2) for preventing the likelihood of any such danger arising<sup>9</sup>; or
- 386 (3) for preventing damage to the road or buildings on or near it<sup>10</sup>; or
- 387 (4) for facilitating the passage of vehicular traffic on the road<sup>11</sup>; or
- 388 (5) for preserving or improving the amenities of an area by prohibiting or restricting the use on a road or roads in that area of heavy commercial vehicles<sup>12</sup>, it is requisite that the restriction should not apply to the order<sup>13</sup>.

Provision for regulating the speed of vehicles on roads may not be made by a traffic regulation order<sup>14</sup>.

A traffic regulation order<sup>1</sup> may make provision for identifying any part of any road<sup>2</sup> to which, or any time at which, or period during which, any provision contained in the order is for the time being to apply by means of a traffic sign<sup>3</sup> of a type or character specified in the order<sup>4</sup> and for the time being lawfully in place<sup>5</sup>. A traffic regulation order which imposes any restriction on the use by vehicles of a road, or the waiting of vehicles in a road, may include provision with respect to the issue and display of certificates or other means of identification of vehicles which are excepted from the restriction, whether generally or in particular circumstances or at particular times<sup>6</sup>. A traffic regulation order may also include provision with respect to the issue, display and operation of devices for indicating the time at which a vehicle arrived at, and the time at which it ought to leave, any place in a road in which waiting is restricted by the order, or one or other of those times, and for treating the indications given by any such device as evidence of such facts and for such purposes as may be prescribed by the order<sup>7</sup>.

746. Contravention of traffic regulation order.

A person who contravenes a traffic regulation order<sup>1</sup>, or who uses a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle to be used in contravention of a traffic regulation order, is guilty of an offence<sup>2</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'traffic regulation order' see PARA 742 ante.

A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 5(1) of using a vehicle in contravention of a traffic regulation order outside Greater London is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. #### 747. Orders similar to traffic regulation orders.

The traffic authority<sup>1</sup> for a road<sup>2</sup> in Greater London may make an order for controlling or regulating vehicular and other traffic<sup>3</sup> (including pedestrians)<sup>4</sup>. Any such order may be made so as to apply:

- 389 (1) to the whole area of a local authority, or to particular parts of that area, or to particular places or streets<sup>5</sup> or parts of streets in that area<sup>6</sup>;
- 390 (2) throughout the day, or during particular periods<sup>7</sup>;
- 391 (3) on special occasions only, or at special times only<sup>8</sup>;
- 392 (4) to traffic of any class<sup>9</sup>;
- 393 (5) subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the order or determined in a manner provided for by it<sup>10</sup>.

No such order may contain any provision for regulating the speed of vehicles on roads<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante. In the case of a road for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority, the power to make such an order is also exercisable, with his consent, by the local traffic authority: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6(2) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 21(3)). For the meaning of 'local traffic authority' see PARA 731 ante. As to the exercise of powers under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6(2) (as substituted) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 As to the meaning of 'traffic' see PARA 742 note 4 ante.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6(1) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 21(2)). Provision may, in particular, be made for any of the purposes, or with respect to any of the matters, mentioned in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 1 (see PARA 748 post), and for any other purpose which is a purpose mentioned in s 1(1)(a)-(g) (as amended) (see PARA 742 text and notes 1-13 ante): s 6(1)(a), (b) (s 6(1)(b) amended by the Environment Act 1995 s 120(1), Sch 22 para 36(2)). An order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) made for a purpose mentioned in s 1(1)(a) or (b) may be made for that purpose as qualified by s 22C(1) or (2) (as added) (see PARA 742 notes 5-6 ante): s 22C(3) (s 22C added by the Civil Contingencies Act 2004 s 32(1), Sch 2 para 16). See PARA 742 note 5 ante.

As to the exercise of powers under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6(1) (as amended) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante.

It has been held, in relation to a condition that certain heavy goods vehicles be fitted with brake noise suppressors, that: (1) the condition had been imposed to promote the policy of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (ie the protection of the environment) and was therefore valid in English law; and (2) the condition did not infringe either EEC Directive 71/320 (OJ L202, 6.9.71, p 37) (which harmonised technical requirements for brakes throughout the EEC) or EEC Directive 70/157 (OJ L042, 23.2.70, p 16) (which was concerned with maximum permitted levels of vehicle and exhaust noise) as neither was concerned with the control of noise or the regulation of traffic: Freight Transport Association Ltd v London Boroughs Transport Committee [1991] 3 All ER 915, sub nom London Boroughs Transport Committee v Freight Transport Association Ltd [1991] 1 WLR 828, HL.

The power to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 6 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). Orders made under s 6 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

In relation to controls on London lorries, the Secretary of State may by order vary an order under s 6 (as amended): see the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994 s 34.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) has effect in relation to tramcars and trolley vehicles so that such vehicles are exempt from any order made under it: Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, regs 3(1)(b), 5(1)(b), which are expressed to be subject to Pt IV (ie reg 11) (see PARAS 1629-1630 post). Nothing in reg 5(1) affects the operation of an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) in so far as it is made in respect of the matters referred to in Sch 1 para 15 (see PARA 748 text and note 22 post): Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, reg 5(3). For the meanings of 'tramcars' and 'trolley vehicles' see PARA 219 ante. The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), 2(a).

As to exemptions for disabled persons see, in relation to England, the Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (England) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/683; and, in relation to Wales, the Local Authorities' Traffic Orders (Exemptions for Disabled Persons) (England and Wales) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/178 (amended by SI 1991/2709; SI 2000/683).

5 In the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended), s 7 (as amended) (see PARA 749 post) and Sch 1 (see PARA 748 post), 'street' includes any highway, any bridge carrying a highway, and any lane, mews, footway, square, court, alley or passage whether a thoroughfare or not: s 6(6) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 21(5), Sch 9).

Matters for which orders similar to traffic regulation orders may be made.

748. Matters for which orders similar to traffic regulation orders may be made.

Orders similar to traffic regulation orders<sup>1</sup> may, in particular, be made for any of following purposes, or with respect to any of following matters<sup>2</sup>:

- 394 (1) for prescribing the routes to be followed by all classes of traffic<sup>3</sup>, or by any class or classes of traffic, from one specified point to another, either generally or between any specified times<sup>4</sup>;
- 395 (2) for prescribing streets<sup>5</sup> which are not to be used for traffic by vehicles, or by vehicles of any specified class<sup>6</sup> or classes, either generally or at specified times<sup>7</sup>;
- 396 (3) for regulating the relative position in the roadway of traffic of differing speeds or types<sup>8</sup>;
- 397 (4) for prescribing the places where vehicles, or vehicles of any class, may not turn so as to face in the opposite direction to that in which they were proceeding, or where they may only so turn under conditions prescribed by the order<sup>9</sup>;
- 398 (5) for prescribing the conditions subject to which, and the times at which, articles of exceptionally heavy weight or exceptionally large dimensions may be carried by road<sup>10</sup>;
- 399 (6) for prescribing the number and maximum size and weight of trailers<sup>11</sup> which may be drawn on streets by vehicles, or by vehicles of any class, either generally or on streets of any class or description, and for prescribing that a man ought to be carried on the trailer or, where more than one trailer is drawn, on the rear trailer for signalling to the driver<sup>12</sup>;
- 400 (7) for prescribing the conditions subject to which, and the times at which, articles may be loaded on to or unloaded from vehicles, or vehicles of any class, on streets<sup>13</sup>;
- 401 (8) for prescribing the conditions subject to which, and the times at which, vehicles, or vehicles of any class, delivering or collecting goods or merchandise, or delivering goods or merchandise of any particular class, may stand in streets, or in streets of any class or description, or in specified streets<sup>14</sup>;
- 402 (9) for prescribing the conditions subject to which, and the times at which, vehicles, or vehicles of any class, may be used on streets for collecting refuse<sup>15</sup>;
- 403 (10) for prescribing rules as to precedence to be observed as between vehicles proceeding in the same direction, in opposite directions, or when crossing<sup>16</sup>;
- 404 (11) for prescribing the conditions subject to which, and the times at which, horses, cattle, sheep and other animals may be led or driven on streets within Greater London<sup>17</sup>;

- 405 (12) for requiring the erection, exhibition or removal of traffic notices, and as to the form, plan and character of such notices<sup>18</sup>;
- 406 (13) broken down vehicles<sup>19</sup>;
- 407 (14) vehicles, or vehicles of any class, when unattended<sup>20</sup>;
- 408 (15) places in streets where vehicles, or vehicles of any class, may, or may not, wait, either generally or at particular times<sup>21</sup>;
- 409 (16) cabs and hackney carriages not hired and being in a street elsewhere than on a cab rank<sup>22</sup>;
- 410 (17) for restricting the use of vehicles and animals, and sandwichmen and other persons, in streets for the purposes of advertisement of such a nature or in such a manner as is to be likely to be a source of danger or to cause obstruction to traffic<sup>23</sup>;
- 411 (18) the lighting and guarding of street works<sup>24</sup>;
- 412 (19) the erection or placing or the removal of any works or objects likely to hinder the free circulation of traffic in any street or likely to cause danger to passengers or vehicles<sup>25</sup>;
- 413 (20) queues of persons waiting in streets<sup>26</sup>;
- 414 (21) priority of entry to public vehicles<sup>27</sup>;
- 415 (22) for enabling any police, local or other public authority to do anything which under the order a person ought to have done and has failed to do, and to recover from the person so in default, summarily as a civil debt, the expenses of doing it<sup>28</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(i) Traffic Regulation Orders and Schemes/B. ORDERS IN GREATER LONDON SIMILAR TO TRAFFIC REGULATION ORDERS/749. Provisions that may be included in orders similar to traffic regulation orders.

749. Provisions that may be included in orders similar to traffic regulation orders.

Any order similar to a traffic regulation order<sup>1</sup> may make provision for identifying any part of any road<sup>2</sup> to which, or any time at which, or period during which, any provision contained in the order is for the time being to apply by means of a traffic sign<sup>3</sup> of a type or character specified in the order<sup>4</sup> and for the time being lawfully in place<sup>5</sup>.

Any such order which imposes any restriction on the use by vehicles of streets in Greater London, or the waiting of vehicles in such streets, may include provision with respect to the issue and display of certificates or other means of identification of vehicles which are excepted from the restriction, whether generally or in particular circumstances or at particular times<sup>6</sup>.

Any such order may also include provision with respect to the issue, display and operation of devices for indicating the time at which a vehicle arrived at, and the time at which it ought to leave, any place in a street in which waiting is restricted by the order, or one or other of those times, and for treating the indications given by any such device as evidence of such facts and for such purposes as may be prescribed by the order<sup>7</sup>.

Any such order may provide for the suspension or modification, so long as the order remains in force, of any provisions of any Acts (whether public general or local or private, and including provisions contained in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984), byelaws or regulations dealing with the same subject matter as the order, or of any Acts conferring power to make byelaws or regulations dealing with the same subject matter, so far as such provisions apply to any place or street to which the order applies<sup>8</sup>.

No appeal lies to the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> from the traffic commissioner for the South-Eastern and Metropolitan Traffic Area<sup>10</sup> in the case of a decision of his with respect to a London local service licence if and so far as he certifies that the decision was necessary to secure conformity with any order<sup>11</sup> which prescribes<sup>12</sup>:

- 416 (1) the routes to be followed, or streets which are not to be used, by vehicles affected by the decision<sup>13</sup>; or
- 417 (2) the places in streets where such vehicles may or may not wait<sup>14</sup>; or
- 418 (3) the stopping places for such vehicles<sup>15</sup>.

Before the Secretary of State makes any such order which will impose new or additional duties on the police, he must consult the commissioner of police for any police area<sup>16</sup> in which is situated any road or part of a road to which the order is to relate<sup>17</sup>.

UPDATE

750 Contravention of orders similar to traffic regulation orders

NOTE 2--Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 8(1A) repealed: Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 12 Pt 1.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(i) Traffic Regulation Orders and Schemes/C. EXPERIMENTAL ORDERS AND SCHEMES/751. Experimental traffic orders and their time limits.

C. EXPERIMENTAL ORDERS AND SCHEMES

751. Experimental traffic orders and their time limits.

The traffic authority<sup>1</sup> for a road<sup>2</sup> may, for the purposes of carrying out an experimental scheme of traffic control, make an order (an 'experimental traffic order') making any such provision, as respects a road outside Greater London, as may be made by a traffic regulation order<sup>3</sup> and, as respects a road in Greater London, as may be made by an order under certain provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984<sup>4</sup>. An experimental traffic order made by a local traffic authority<sup>5</sup> outside Greater London may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, extend to a road in relation to which he is the traffic authority if the order forms part of a scheme of general traffic control relating to roads of which at least one has a junction with the length of road in question<sup>6</sup>. In the case of a road in Greater London for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority, the power to make such an order is also exercisable, with his consent, by the local traffic authority<sup>7</sup>.

An experimental traffic order may not continue in force for longer than 18 months<sup>8</sup>. Where an experimental traffic order has been made for a period of less than 18 months, and the order has not ceased to be in force, the authority by which the order was made may from time to time by order direct that it is to continue in force for a further period ending not later than 18 months after it first came into force<sup>9</sup>.

Where an experimental traffic order made by a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London has not ceased to be in force, and the Secretary of State is satisfied that:

- 419 (1) an order which the council proposes to make<sup>10</sup> has the sole effect of reproducing and continuing in force indefinitely the provisions of the experimental traffic order, whether or not that order has been varied, or has been modified or suspended<sup>11</sup>; and
- 420 (2) in consequence of the council causing a public inquiry to be held into the order so proposed to be made, it would be unable to make it so that it would come into operation before the experimental traffic order ceases to be in force<sup>12</sup>, the Secretary of State may, at the request of the council, from time to time direct that the experimental traffic order is to continue in force for a further period not exceeding six months from the date when it would otherwise cease to be in force<sup>13</sup>.

1 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

2 In the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (as amended) and s 10 (as amended) (see PARA 752 post), 'road', in relation to Greater London, includes any street as defined by s 6(6) (see PARA 747 note 5 ante): s 9(6). For the meaning of 'road' generally see PARA 206 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'traffic regulation order' see PARA 742 ante. An experimental traffic order under ibid s 9 (as amended) has been held to be valid only if there was a genuine and identified experiment which was designed to gather information by monitoring the working of a traffic scheme: UK Waste Management Ltd v West Lancashire District Council [1997] RTR 201, (1996) 95 LGR 484, DC.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 9(1), 142(1) (s9(1) substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 23(2); and amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 24). The orders referred to in the text are orders under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post), s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 post), or s 83(2) (as substituted) (see PARA 847 post) or by virtue of s 84(1)(a) (as substituted) (see PARA 848 post): see s 9(1)(b) (as so substituted and amended).

As to the exercise of powers under s 9 (as amended) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante.

The power to make an order under s 9 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 9 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. Orders made under s 9 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

In relation to controls on London lorries, the Secretary of State may by order vary an order under s 9 (as amended): see the Deregulation and Contracting Out Act 1994 s 34.

Any power which is exercisable in relation to any road under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (as amended), otherwise than by virtue of s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 730 ante), is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the width of the road: s 126.

So much of s 4(1) (see PARA 745 ante) or s 7(1) (see PARA 749 ante) as provides for a presumption that a traffic sign is lawfully placed applies for the purposes of an order under s 9 (as amended) making any such provision as is referred to in s 4(1) or s 7(1): s 9(5A) (added by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 23(4)). For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 post.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (as amended) has effect in relation to tramcars and trolley vehicles so that such vehicles are exempt from any order made under it: Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, regs 3(1)(c), 5(1)(c), which are expressed to be subject to Pt IV (ie reg 11) (see PARAS 1629-1630 post). For the meanings of 'tramcars' and 'trolley vehicles' see PARA 219 ante. Nothing in reg 5(1) affects the operation:

1358 (1) of any provision in an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (as amended) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles or the loading or unloading of vehicles (Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, reg 5(4));

1359 (2) of an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (as amended) as respects traffic on roads in Greater London in so far as it is made in respect of the matters referred to in Sch 1 para 15 (see PARA 748 text and note 22 ante) or imposes a speed limit (Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, reg 5(5)).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(i) Traffic Regulation Orders and Schemes/C. EXPERIMENTAL ORDERS AND SCHEMES/752. Provisions that may be contained in experimental traffic orders.

752. Provisions that may be contained in experimental traffic orders.

An experimental traffic order<sup>1</sup>: (1) may provide for the suspension or modification, while the order is in force, of any provision previously made by or under any enactment, if it is a provision that could have been made by the order<sup>2</sup>; and (2) to the extent that it is inconsistent with any provision subsequently made by or under any enactment, ceases to have effect<sup>3</sup>.

An experimental traffic order may include provision empowering a specified officer of the authority who made the order, or a person authorised by such a specified officer, to modify or suspend the operation of the order or any provision of it if it appears to him essential<sup>4</sup>: (a) in the interests of the expeditious, convenient and safe movement of traffic<sup>5</sup>; (b) in the interests of providing suitable and adequate on-street parking facilities<sup>6</sup>; or (c) for preserving or improving the amenities of the area through which any road traffic affected by the order runs<sup>7</sup>. The power conferred by such a provision must be exercised only after consulting the appropriate chief officer of police and giving such public notice as the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> may direct<sup>9</sup>. Any such power to modify an experimental traffic order as is mentioned above does not extend to making additions to the order or to designating additional on-street parking places<sup>10</sup> for which charges are made; but, subject to that, the modifications may be of any description<sup>11</sup>.

No appeal lies to the Secretary of State from the commissioner for the South-Eastern and Metropolitan Traffic Area<sup>12</sup> in the case of a decision of the commissioner with respect to a London local service licence if and so far as he certifies that the decision was necessary to secure conformity with an experimental traffic order prescribing<sup>13</sup>:

- 421 (i) the routes to be followed, or roads<sup>14</sup> which are not to be used, by vehicles affected by the decision<sup>15</sup>; or
- 422 (ii) the places in roads where such vehicles may or may not wait<sup>16</sup>; or
- 423 (iii) the stopping places for such vehicles<sup>17</sup>.

The Secretary of State may repay to a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London any expenses incurred by that council in connection with any experimental traffic order made by it<sup>18</sup>.

2 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 11(1) (renumbered by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 65(3)). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 11 (as amended) of breaching an experimental traffic order is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. ### 754. Temporary suspension of orders.

The Metropolitan Police Commissioner<sup>1</sup> or the City of London Police Commissioner<sup>2</sup> may temporarily suspend the operation of any provision of certain orders<sup>3</sup> so far as that provision relates to any road<sup>4</sup> or part of a road in Greater London which is within his area, in order to prevent or mitigate congestion or obstruction of traffic<sup>5</sup>, or danger to or from traffic in consequence of extraordinary circumstances<sup>6</sup>. The period of suspension must not continue for more than seven days<sup>7</sup>. If the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup> gives his consent to the period of suspension being continued for more than seven days, the suspension may continue until the end of such period as may be specified by the Secretary of State in giving his consent<sup>9</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(ii) Temporary Orders and Notices/755. Temporary prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads.

(ii) Temporary Orders and Notices

755. Temporary prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads.

If the traffic authority<sup>1</sup> for a road<sup>2</sup> is satisfied that traffic<sup>3</sup> on the road ought to be restricted or prohibited:

- 424 (1) because works are being or are proposed to be executed on or near the road<sup>4</sup>; or
- 425 (2) because of the likelihood of danger to the public, or of serious damage to the road, which is not attributable to such works<sup>5</sup>; or
- 426 (3) for the purpose of enabling the duty imposed by provisions relating to litter clearing and cleaning<sup>6</sup> to be discharged<sup>7</sup>, the authority may by order restrict or prohibit temporarily the use of that road, or of any part of it, by vehicles, or vehicles of any class<sup>8</sup>, or by pedestrians<sup>9</sup>, to such extent and subject to such conditions or exceptions as it may consider necessary<sup>10</sup>.

The traffic authority for a road may at any time by notice restrict or prohibit temporarily the use of the road, or of any part of it, by vehicles, or vehicles of any class, or by pedestrians, where it appears to it that it is: (a) necessary or expedient for the reason mentioned in head (1) above or the purpose mentioned in head (3) above<sup>11</sup>; or (b) necessary for the reason mentioned in head (2) above<sup>12</sup>, that the restriction or prohibition should come into force without delay<sup>13</sup>.

When considering the making of an order or the issue of a notice under these provisions an authority must have regard to the existence of alternative routes suitable for the traffic which will be affected by the order or notice<sup>14</sup>.

An order or notice may make any such provision as may be included in a traffic regulation order<sup>15</sup> or any provision restricting the speed of vehicles, but no such order or notice may be made or issued with respect to any road which would have the effect of preventing at any time access for pedestrians to any premises situated on or adjacent to the road, or to any other premises accessible for pedestrians from, and only from, the road<sup>16</sup>. Where any such order or notice is made or issued by an authority (the 'initiating authority') any such provision as is mentioned above<sup>17</sup> may be made as respects any alternative road<sup>18</sup>:

- 427 (i) if that authority is the traffic authority for the alternative road, by an order made by the initiating authority or by that notice<sup>19</sup>;
- 428 (ii) if the initiating authority is not the traffic authority for the alternative road, by an order made by the initiating authority with the consent of the traffic authority for the alternative road<sup>20</sup>.

An order or notice made or issued under the above provisions<sup>21</sup> may suspend certain provisions<sup>22</sup> or, may, for either of the reasons or for the purpose mentioned in heads (1) to (3) above<sup>23</sup> suspend any such provision without imposing any restriction or prohibition mentioned<sup>24</sup> above<sup>25</sup>.

Where traffic has been temporarily prohibited or restricted by an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted) for the purpose of enabling works to be carried out on a road, no private law rights exist in respect of the obstruction to the road caused by those works: Great House at Sonning Ltd v Berkshire County Council [1996] RTR 407, 95 LGR 350, CA.

See PARA 742 note 5 ante. As to the meaning of 'terrorism' see PARA 742 note 5 ante. The powers given by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted) do not authorise the prohibition of traffic in order to reduce pollution; these powers apply only to the risk of damage caused directly by vehicles by way of accidents: R v Greenwich London Borough Council, ex p Williams (1996) 160 JP 270, [1997] JPL 62.

The power to make an order under s 14 (as substituted) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 14 (as substituted) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. Orders made under s 14 (as substituted) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Section 14 (as substituted) has effect in relation to tramcars and trolley vehicles so that such vehicles are exempt from any order or notice made under it: Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, regs 4(1), 6(1). Nothing in reg 4(1) affects the operation of any provision in an order or notice under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted) restricting the speed of vehicles: Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, reg 4(2). Nothing under reg 6(1) affects the operation of any provision in an order or notice under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted): (1) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles or the loading and unloading of vehicles; (2) restricting the speed of vehicles; (3) prohibiting or restricting overtaking; or (4) prohibiting or restricting the use of a road or part of the width of a road by vehicular traffic or by any class of vehicular traffic: Tramcars and Trolley Vehicles (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1992, SI 1992/1217, reg 6(2). ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(ii) Temporary Orders and Notices/756. Duration of temporary restriction or prohibition of traffic on roads.

756. Duration of temporary restriction or prohibition of traffic on roads.

A temporary restriction or prohibition order<sup>1</sup> must not continue in force, if it is in respect of a footpath<sup>2</sup>, bridleway<sup>3</sup>, cycle track<sup>4</sup> or byway open to all traffic<sup>5</sup>, for more than six months and, in any other case, for more than 18 months, from the date on which it comes into force<sup>6</sup>. Where an order subject to the time limit of 18 months ('the temporary order') has not ceased to be in force and the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup> is satisfied that:

- 429 (1) an order which the authority that made the temporary order proposes to make under any other provision of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 has the sole effect of reproducing the provisions of the temporary order and continuing them in force<sup>8</sup>; and
- 430 (2) in consequence of the procedure required to be followed in connection with the making of the proposed order that authority would be unable to make it so that it would come into operation before the temporary order ceases to be in force<sup>9</sup>, the Secretary of State may from time to time direct that the temporary order is to continue in force for a further period not exceeding six months from the date on which it would otherwise cease to be in force<sup>10</sup>. Where the Secretary of State is not himself the authority that made the temporary order he must not give such a direction except at the request of that authority<sup>11</sup>. The Secretary of State may, at the request of an authority that has made an order subject to the time limit of six months, from time to time direct that the order is to continue in force for a further period from the date on which it would otherwise cease to be in force<sup>12</sup>. Where the Secretary of State refuses such a request in respect of an order no further order<sup>13</sup> may be made in respect of any length of road to which the previous order related unless the Secretary of State has consented to the making of the further order or at least three months have expired since the date on which the previous order ceased to be in force<sup>14</sup>.

A prohibition or restriction notice<sup>15</sup> must not continue in force:

- 431 (a) if issued because works are being or are proposed to be executed on or near the road<sup>16</sup> or for the purpose of enabling the duty to carry out litter clearing and cleaning to be discharged<sup>17</sup>, for more than five days from the date of the notice<sup>18</sup>;
- 432 (b) if issued because of the likelihood of danger to the public, or of serious damage to the road, which is not attributable to such works<sup>19</sup>, for more than 21 days from the date of the notice<sup>20</sup>, but the Secretary of State may by regulations alter the number of days for the time being so specified<sup>21</sup>.

1 le under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted): see PARA 755 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'footpath' does not include a highway over which the public has a right of way on foot only which is at the side of a public road: ibid s 15(9)(a) (s 15 substituted by the Road Traffic (Temporary Restrictions) Act 1991 s 1(1), Sch 1). For the meaning of 'footpath' generally see PARA 206 ante. For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'bridleway' see PARA 206 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'cycle track' has the same meaning as in the Highways Act 1980 (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 64): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 15(9)(b) (as substituted: see note 2 supra).

5 For these purposes, 'byway open to all traffic' means a highway over which the public has a right of way for vehicular and all other kinds of traffic but which is used by the public mainly for the purpose for which footpaths and bridleways are used: ibid s 15(9)(c) (as substituted: see note 2 supra). As to the meaning of 'traffic' see PARA 742 note 4 ante.

6 Ibid s 15(1) (as substituted: see note 2 supra). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 15(2), (3), (5) (as substituted): see s 15(1) (as so substituted). The time limit of 18 months in s 15(1) (as substituted) does not apply to an order made for the reason mentioned in s 14(1)(a) (as substituted) (see PARA 755 text and notes 1-4 ante) if the authority making it is satisfied, and it is stated in the order that it is satisfied, that the execution of the works in question will take longer; but in any such case the authority must revoke the order as soon as the works are completed: s 15(2) (as so substituted).

14 Ibid s 15(6) (as substituted: see note 2 supra).

15 Ie under ibid s 14 (as substituted): see PARA 755 ante.

16 Ie if the notice is issued for the reason mentioned in ibid s 14(1)(a) (as substituted): see PARA 755 head (1) ante.

17 Ie if the notice is issued for the purpose mentioned in ibid s 14(1)(c) (as substituted): see PARA 755 head (3) ante.

21 Ibid s 15(7) (as substituted: see note 2 supra). At the date at which this volume states the law no regulations had been made under s 15(7) (as substituted). As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante.

Provided that no restriction or prohibition imposed under s 14 (as substituted) (see PARA 755 ante) in respect of any length of road remains in force for more than the period applicable to an order in respect of the road under s 15(1) (as substituted) (except by virtue of s 15(2), (3) or (5) (as substituted) and subject to s 15(6) (as substituted)):

1360 (1) a restriction or prohibition imposed by an order under s 14 (as substituted) may be continued by a further order or further orders under s 14 (as substituted) (s 15(8)(a) (as so substituted)); and 1361 (2) a restriction or prohibition imposed by a notice under s 14 (as substituted) may be continued by an order under s 14 (as substituted) or, if the notice was issued for the reason mentioned in s 14(1)(b) (as substituted), by one (but not more than one) further notice under s 14 (as substituted) (s 15(8)(b) (as so substituted)).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(ii) Temporary Orders and Notices/758. Contravention of orders relating to temporary prohibitions or restrictions on roads.

758. Contravention of orders relating to temporary prohibitions or restrictions on roads.

A person who contravenes, or who uses or permits the use of a vehicle in contravention of, a restriction or prohibition<sup>1</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>2</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> may make payments in respect of the whole or any part of the expenditure of a public authority<sup>4</sup> in relation to the prevention or detection of such offences which consist in contraventions of restrictions on the speed of vehicles<sup>5</sup> or any enforcement action or proceedings in respect of such offences or any alleged such offences<sup>6</sup>.

1 I.e. imposed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted): see PARA 755 ante.

2 Ibid s 16(1). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary if committed in respect of a speed restriction; endorsement is obligatory if committed in respect of a speed restriction; and 3-6 penalty points (or 3, if a fixed penalty) may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2 paras 1, 2). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16(1) of using a vehicle in contravention of temporary prohibition or restriction of traffic in case of execution of works etc is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; as to disqualification see PARA 1057 et seq post; as to endorsement see PARA 1080 et seq post; as to penalty points see PARA 1048 et seq post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

As to the disapplication of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16(1) in relation to special parking areas outside London see PARA 821 post; and in relation to special parking areas in London see PARA 822 post.

3 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

4 'Public authority' means: (1) any highway authority (within the meaning of the Highways Act 1980: see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 495 et seq); (2) any police authority established under the Police Act 1996 s 3, the Metropolitan Police Authority or the Common Council of the City of London in its capacity as a police authority (see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 139); and (3) any body or other person not falling within heads (1), (2) supra and so far as exercising functions of a public nature: Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 s 38(5) (amended by the Courts Act 2003 s 109(1), (3), Sch 8 para 394, Sch 10).

5 le restrictions imposed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 (as substituted): see PARA 755 ante.

6 Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 s 38(1), (2)(a). Payments under s 38 (as amended) must be made to: (1) the public authority in respect of whose expenditure the payments are being made; or (2) any other public authority for payment, in accordance with arrangements agreed with the Secretary of State, to, or on behalf of, the public authority in respect of whose expenditure the payments are being made: s 38(3). They must be paid at such times, in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Secretary of State may determine: s 38(4). As from a day to be appointed, the Secretary of State may by regulations make provision for making to public authorities for road safety purposes payments calculated by reference to any amount by which the amount of the sums paid into the Consolidated Fund in consequence of the commission of offences to which s 38(2) applies, and which are detected by cameras, exceeds the amount of any payments made under s 38(1) (s 38(4A) (prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 2(1), (3))); and the Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 s 38(3), (4) are amended so as to refer to payments under s 38(1) instead of payments under s 38 (as amended) (s 38(3), (4) (prospectively amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 2(2))). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. As to the Consolidated Fund see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 711 et seq; PARLIAMENT vol 78 (2010) PARAS 1028-1031.

758 Contravention of orders relating to temporary prohibitions or restrictions on roads

NOTE 2--A person who contravenes a temporary speed restriction is prosecuted under the same regime as applies to the contravention of a general speed limit: DPP v Wells [2007] EWHC 3259 (Admin), [2008] RTR 288, [2007] All ER (D) 181 (Dec).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(iii) Special Events Orders/759. Prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads.

(iii) Special Events Orders

759. Prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads.

If the traffic authority<sup>1</sup> for a road<sup>2</sup> is satisfied that traffic on the road<sup>3</sup> ought to be restricted or prohibited for the purpose of:

- 433 (1) facilitating the holding of a relevant event<sup>4</sup>;
- 434 (2) enabling members of the public to watch a relevant event; or
- 435 (3) reducing the disruption to traffic likely to be caused by a relevant event, the authority may by order restrict or prohibit temporarily the use of that road, or any part of it, by vehicles or vehicles of any class<sup>5</sup> or by pedestrians, to such extent and subject to such conditions or exceptions as it may consider necessary or expedient<sup>6</sup>. Before making such an order the authority must satisfy itself that it is not reasonably practicable for the event to be held otherwise than on a road<sup>7</sup>.

The provision that may be made by such an order is:

- 436 (a) any specified provision relating to road traffic regulation orders<sup>8</sup>;
- 437 (b) any provision restricting the speed of vehicles<sup>9</sup>; or
- 438 (c) any provision restricting or prohibiting the riding of horses, or the leading or driving of horses, cattle, sheep or other animals<sup>10</sup>, but no such order may be made with respect to any road which would have the effect of preventing at any time access for pedestrians to any premises situated on or adjacent to the road, or to any other premises accessible for pedestrians from, and only from, the road<sup>11</sup>.

Such an order:

- 439 (i) may not be made in relation to any race or trial falling within the provision relating to motor racing on public ways<sup>12</sup>;
- 440 (ii) may not be made in relation to any competition or trial falling within the provision relating to the regulation of motoring events on public ways<sup>13</sup> unless the competition or trial is authorised by or under regulations under that provision<sup>14</sup>; and
- 441 (iii) may not be made in relation to any race or trial falling within the provision relating to the regulation of cycle racing on public ways<sup>15</sup> unless the race or trial is authorised by or under regulations made under that provision<sup>16</sup>.

Such an order may relate to the road on which the relevant event is to be held or to any other road<sup>17</sup>. In the case of a road for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority, the power to make such an order is also exercisable, with his consent, by the local traffic authority<sup>18</sup> or by any local traffic authority which is the traffic authority for any other road to which the order relates<sup>19</sup>. In the case of a road for which a local traffic authority is the traffic authority, the power to make such an order is also exercisable, with the consent of that local traffic authority, by a local traffic authority which is the traffic authority for any other road to which the order relates<sup>20</sup>.

When considering the making of such an order, an authority must have regard to the safety and convenience of alternative routes suitable for the traffic which will be affected by the order<sup>21</sup>. Such an order may suspend any statutory<sup>22</sup> provision to which this provision applies<sup>23</sup> or, for any of the purposes mentioned in heads (1) to (3) above<sup>24</sup>, suspend any such provision without imposing any such restriction or prohibition<sup>25</sup>.

1 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 The provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A (as added) relate only to special events on the road; they do not extend to special events in places, such as sports arenas, which are only served by the road. However, s 16A (as added) is applied (with modifications) to the London Olympics: see the London Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Act 2006 s 16(1).

4 'Relevant event' means any sporting event, social event or entertainment which is held on a road: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A(1) (s 16A added by the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 1(1)).

5 As to classes of vehicle see PARA 208 ante.

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A(2) (as added: see note 4 supra). The power to make an order under s 16A (as added) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 16A (as added) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2) (amended by the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 3(1), Schedule para 2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. Orders made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A (as added) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

7 Ibid s 16A(3) (as added: see note 4 supra).

8 Ibid s 16A(9)(a) (as added: see note 4 supra). The specified provisions referred to in the text are any such provision as is mentioned in s 2(1), (2) or (3) (as amended) (see PARA 743 ante) or s 4(1) (see PARA 745 ante): see s 16A(9)(a) (as so added). For the meaning of 'traffic regulation order' see PARA 742 ante.

9 Ibid s 16A(9)(b) (as added: see note 4 supra).

10 Ibid s 16A(9)(c) (as added: see note 4 supra).

11 Ibid s 16A(9) (as added: see note 4 supra).

20 Ibid s 16A(7) (as added: see note 4 supra).

21 Ibid s 16A(8) (as added: see note 4 supra).

22 For the meaning of 'statutory' see PARA 719 note 7 ante.

23 The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A(10) (as added) applies to:

1362 (1) any statutory provision of a description which could have been contained in an order under s 16A (as added) (s 16A(11)(a) (as added: see note 4 supra));

1363 (2) an order under s 32(1)(b) (see PARA 784 head (2) post), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 post), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 post), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 post) or s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 post) or any such order as is mentioned in Sch 10 para 11(1) (transitional and saving provisions) (s 16A(11)(b) (as so added)); and 1364 (3) an order under s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) so far as it designates any parking places in Greater London (s 16A(11)(c) (as so added)).

24 Ie mentioned in ibid s 16A(2) (as added): see the text to notes 5-6 supra.

759 Prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads

NOTES--Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in this paragraph are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(iii) Special Events Orders/760. Restrictions on orders for the prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads.

760. Restrictions on orders for the prohibition or restriction of traffic on roads.

A prohibition or restriction order on roads<sup>1</sup> in connection with certain events<sup>2</sup> must not continue in force for a period of more than three days beginning with the day on which it comes into force unless the order is made by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> as the traffic authority<sup>4</sup> for the road concerned, or before the order is made, he has agreed that it ought continue in force for a longer period<sup>5</sup>. Where such an order has not ceased to be in force and the relevant event<sup>6</sup> to which it relates has not ended, the Secretary of State may from time to time direct that the order is to continue in force for a further period not exceeding three days beginning with the day on which it would otherwise cease to be in force<sup>7</sup>. Such a direction may relate to all the roads to which such an order relates or only to specified roads<sup>8</sup>.

Where such an order relates only to roads for which the Secretary of State is not himself the traffic authority, he must not give such a direction except at the request of the traffic authority for any road to which the order relates<sup>9</sup>. Where such an order relates to any road for which the Secretary of State is not himself the traffic authority, he must not give such a direction affecting that road except with the consent of the traffic authority for that road<sup>10</sup>. Where such an order has been made in any calendar year, no further order may be made in that year so as to affect any length of road affected by the previous order, unless the further order is made by the Secretary of State as the traffic authority for the road concerned, or is made with his consent<sup>11</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 Ie an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A (as added): see PARA 759 ante. As to the events relevant to the operation of s 16A (as added) see PARA 759 note 4 ante.

3 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

4 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16B(1) (s 16B added by the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 1(1)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16B (as added) is disapplied in respect of a closure under s 16A (as added) (see PARA 759 ante) for the purposes of the London Olympics: see the London Olympic Games and Paralympic Games Act 2006 s 16(2).

6 For the meaning of 'relevant event' see PARA 759 note 4 ante.

7 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16B(2) (as added: see note 5 supra). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 16B(4), (5) (as added): see s 16B(2) (as so added).

8 Ibid s 16B(3) (as added: see note 5 supra).

9 Ibid s 16B(4) (as added: see note 5 supra).

10 Ibid s 16B(5) (as added: see note 5 supra).

11 Ibid s 16B(6) (as added: see note 5 supra). For the purposes of s 16B(6) (as added), a length of road is affected by an order under s 16A (as added) (see PARA 759 ante) if the order contains provisions prohibiting or restricting traffic on that length of road or suspending any statutory provision applying to traffic on that length of road: s 16B(7) (as so added). For the meaning of 'statutory' see PARA 719 note 7 ante.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(iii) Special Events Orders/761. Making of orders imposing prohibitions or restrictions of traffic on roads.

761. Making of orders imposing prohibitions or restrictions of traffic on roads.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations<sup>2</sup> with respect to the procedure to be followed in connection with the making of orders imposing prohibitions or restrictions on roads in connection with certain events<sup>3</sup> including provision for notifying the public of the exercise or proposed exercise of certain powers<sup>4</sup> and of the effect of orders made in the exercise of those powers<sup>5</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 At the date at which this volume states the law no such regulations had been made. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante.

3 I.e. an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A (as added): see PARA 759 ante. As to the events relevant to the operation of s 16A (as added) see PARA 759 note 4 ante.

4 I.e. powers conferred under ibid s 16A (as added): see PARA 759 ante.

5 Ibid s 16C(2) (s 16C added by the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 1(1)). Without prejudice to the generality of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16C(2) (as added), the Secretary of State may by regulations under s 16C(2) (as added) make, in relation to such orders as he thinks appropriate, provision: (1) for the making and consideration of representations relating to a proposed order; and (2) for any of the matters mentioned in s 124(1), Sch 9 para 22(1)(a), (c), (d) or (e) (see PARA 738 ante): s 16C(3) (as so added). Schedule 9 para 25 (as amended) (see PARA 738 ante) applies to regulations under s 16C(2) (as added) as it applies to regulations under Sch 9 Pt III paras 20-26 (as amended) (see PARA 738 ante): s 16C(3) (as so added).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(iii) Special Events Orders/762. Contravention of orders imposing prohibitions or restrictions of traffic.

762. Contravention of orders imposing prohibitions or restrictions of traffic.

A person who contravenes, or who uses or permits the use of a vehicle in contravention of, a restriction or prohibition imposed by prohibition or restriction orders<sup>1</sup> in connection with certain events<sup>2</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>3</sup>.

1    le under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16A (as added): see PARA 759 ante.

2    As to the events relevant to the operation of ibid s 16A (as added) see PARA 759 note 4 ante.

3    Ibid s 16C(1) (s 16C added by the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 1(1)). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry added by the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 1(2)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(iii) Special Events Orders/763. Temporary prohibitions in relation to special events in London.

763. Temporary prohibitions in relation to special events in London.

The relevant authority<sup>1</sup> for a road or part of a road within a special parking area<sup>2</sup> may, by notice, make a special temporary waiting<sup>3</sup> prohibition<sup>4</sup> in respect of that road or part of a road<sup>5</sup>. While a prohibition is in force, the waiting of vehicles on the part of the road to which it relates is prohibited and that prohibition is enforceable as if it had been imposed by an order<sup>6</sup>. A prohibition may not be made unless the relevant authority<sup>7</sup> is satisfied that waiting should be prohibited for the purpose of facilitating the holding of a special event<sup>8</sup>, or enabling members of the public to watch a special event, or reducing the disruption to traffic likely to be caused by a special event<sup>9</sup>. A prohibition may not last longer than three days<sup>10</sup>.

Such a notice must be displayed in a prominent place in the vicinity of the part of the road to which the prohibition relates for a period of not less than one day before the prohibition comes into effect and for the duration of the prohibition and must state that whilst the prohibition is in force the waiting of vehicles is prohibited in the part of the road to which the prohibition relates<sup>11</sup>, and state the maximum duration of the prohibition<sup>12</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>13</sup> may make regulations<sup>14</sup> with respect to the procedure to be followed in connection with the giving of notice including provision for notifying the public of the exercise, or proposed exercise, of the powers conferred<sup>15</sup> and the effect of notices made in the exercise of those powers<sup>16</sup>. Such regulations may make different provisions for different circumstances<sup>17</sup>. Where a relevant authority is required<sup>18</sup> to post a notice in a road, the authority may take such steps for that purpose as it thinks fit, including the use for that purpose of any lamp post, traffic sign or other structure whatsoever in the road, whether or not belonging to that authority<sup>19</sup>.

1    The 'relevant authority', in relation to a road or part of a road, in the case of a GLA road or GLA side road means Transport for London and in any other case means the participating council in whose area the road or part of a road lies: London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(1A) (added by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, art 2(1), Sch 1 paras 1, 3(1), (3)). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante; definition applied by the London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 2. As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante. As to the meaning of 'GLA side road' see PARA 726 note 4 ante.

2    For the meaning of 'special parking area' see PARA 779 note 3 post. As from a day to be appointed, for 'special parking area' there is substituted 'special enforcement area': London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(1) (prospectively amended by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 6(b)). 'Special enforcement area' means a special enforcement area designated by order of the Secretary of State under the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 10 (see PARA 888 post): London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 2 (definition prospectively added by the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 6(a)). The appointed day in relation to England is 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but at the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

3 'Waiting' means waiting for any purpose including the delivery or collection of goods or merchandise and the loading or unloading of vehicles: London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(8).

4 'Prohibition' means a special temporary waiting prohibition made under ibid s 9(1) (as amended) (see the text to note 5 infra): s 9(8).

5 Ibid s 9(1) (amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 1 para 3(2)).

7 See note 1 supra.

8 'Special event' means any individual event including any sporting event, social event, entertainment or funeral which in the opinion of the relevant authority concerned requires a prohibition to be made for the purpose of safety, relieving traffic congestion or facilitating the holding of the event: London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(8) (amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2007, SI 2007/2935, art 2).

9 London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(3)(a) (amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 1 para 3(4)).

10 London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(3)(b).

11 Ibid s 9(4)(a).

12 Ibid s 9(4)(b).

13 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

14 Ie the Secretary of State may make regulations subject to the London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 9(3), (4) (as amended): see the text and notes 8-12 supra. Regulations under s 9 (as amended) are made by statutory instrument subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 9(7). At the date at which this volume states the law no such regulations had been made.

15 Ie the powers conferred by ibid s 9(5): see the text to note 16 infra.

16 Ibid s 9(5).

17 Ibid s 9(6).

18 Ie required under ibid s 9 (as amended) or any regulations made thereunder.

(iv) Traffic Regulation in Particular Cases

764. Traffic regulation on special roads.

A special road<sup>1</sup> must not be used<sup>2</sup> except by traffic of a class<sup>3</sup> authorised to do so by a scheme made, or having effect as if made, under certain provisions<sup>4</sup> of the Highways Act 1980<sup>5</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> may make regulations<sup>7</sup> with respect to the use of special roads, and such regulations may, in particular<sup>8</sup>:

- 442 (1) regulate the manner in which and the conditions subject to which special roads may be used by traffic authorised to do so<sup>9</sup>;
- 443 (2) authorise, or enable such authority as may be specified in the regulations to authorise, the use of special roads on occasion or in an emergency or for the purpose of crossing, or for the purpose of securing access to premises abutting on or adjacent to the roads, by traffic other than that described in head (1) above<sup>10</sup>;
- 444 (3) relax, or enable any authority so specified to relax, any prohibition or restriction imposed by the regulations<sup>11</sup>;
- 445 (4) include provisions having effect in such places, at such times, in such manner or in such circumstances as may for the time being be indicated by traffic signs<sup>12</sup> in accordance with the regulations<sup>13</sup>.

Such regulations may make provision with respect to special roads generally, or may make different provision with respect to special roads provided for the use of different classes of traffic, or may make provision with respect to any particular special road<sup>14</sup>.

If a person uses a special road in contravention of these provisions or of such regulations, he is guilty of an offence<sup>15</sup>.

These provisions and any such regulations do not apply in relation to a road<sup>16</sup>, or part of a road, until the date declared by the traffic authority<sup>17</sup>, by notice published in the prescribed manner<sup>18</sup>, to be the date on which the road or part is open for use as a special road<sup>19</sup>. This does not prevent the making of regulations<sup>20</sup> before that date, so as to come into force in relation to that road or part on that date<sup>21</sup>.

1 'Special road' has the same meaning as in the Highways Act 1980 (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 731): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (definition substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 78(1), (3)-(6)).

2 For these purposes, 'use', in relation to a road, includes crossing: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 17(6) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), (2), Sch 8 para 28(5), Sch 9).

A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary, and endorsement is obligatory, if the offence is committed in respect of a motor vehicle otherwise than by unlawfully stopping or allowing the vehicle to remain at rest on a part of a special road on which vehicles are in certain circumstances permitted to remain at rest; and 3-6 penalty points (or 3, if a fixed penalty) may be attributed if the offence is committed in respect of a speed restriction, or 3 in any other case: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2 paras 1, 3). The entry relating to penalty points is prospectively amended, as from a day to be appointed, by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 17, to the effect that 2-6 or appropriate penalty points (fixed penalty) may be attributed if the offence is committed in respect of a speed limit, and 3 in any other case. At the date at which this volume states the law no such date had been appointed. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 17(4) of wrongful use of a special road is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. The Secretary of State may make payments (see PARA 758 ante) in respect of the whole or any part of the expenditure of a public authority in relation to the prevention or detection of offences under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 17(4) which consist in contraventions of restrictions on the speed of vehicles imposed under s 17 (as amended) or any enforcement action or proceedings in respect of such offences or any alleged such offences: Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 s 38(1), (2)(b).

On the date declared by the traffic authority<sup>1</sup>, by notice published in the prescribed manner<sup>2</sup>, to be the date on which a special road<sup>3</sup>, or a part of a special road, is open for use as a special road, any existing order<sup>4</sup> relating to that road or part ceases to have effect<sup>5</sup>. This is without prejudice to any power to make orders<sup>6</sup> in relation to the road or part as a special road, and any such power may be exercised before the date referred to above, so as to take effect on that date<sup>7</sup>. The procedure for making an order applies in such a case with such modifications as may be prescribed<sup>8</sup>.

766. One-way traffic on trunk roads.

Where the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> proposes to make an order<sup>2</sup> directing that a road<sup>3</sup> is to become a trunk road, and considers it expedient<sup>4</sup>: (1) that the road, when it becomes a trunk road<sup>5</sup>, ought to be used only for traffic passing in one direction<sup>6</sup>; and (2) that any other road which is a trunk road, or is to become a trunk road by virtue of the order, ought to be used only for traffic passing in the other direction<sup>7</sup>, the order may make provision for restricting the use of those roads accordingly as from such date as may be specified in the order<sup>8</sup>. A person who uses a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle to be used, in contravention of any provision made by virtue of the above provision is guilty of an offence<sup>9</sup>.

- 446 (1) for determining the highways in its area which may or may not be used by public service vehicles<sup>3</sup>;
- 447 (2) for fixing stands for public service vehicles on such highways<sup>4</sup>;
- 448 (3) as to the places at which public service vehicles may stop for a longer time than is necessary for taking up and setting down passengers<sup>5</sup>; and
- 449 (4) as to the manner of using such stands and places<sup>6</sup>.

Any such order may be made so as to apply only to public service vehicles of a specified class<sup>7</sup>, or so as to have effect as respects a limited period only or as respects only limited periods in the year, and may make different provision for different classes of public service vehicles<sup>8</sup>.

768. Prohibition or restriction of use of certain classes of vehicles on roads.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup>, if he is satisfied that it is desirable to do so, may by order<sup>2</sup> made by statutory instrument prohibit or restrict, subject to such exceptions and conditions as to occasional use or access to premises or otherwise as may be specified in the order, the driving<sup>3</sup> of vehicles on all roads<sup>4</sup> of any such class as may be specified in the order<sup>5</sup>. Such a prohibition or restriction may be imposed either generally or in relation to any class of vehicle<sup>6</sup>, and for these purposes the Secretary of State may classify roads in any manner he thinks fit, having regard to their character and situation or the nature of the traffic to which they are suited, and may determine in what class any particular road is to be included<sup>7</sup>. No such order may be made or apply in relation to a special road<sup>8</sup> on or after the date declared by the traffic authority<sup>9</sup>, by notice published in the prescribed manner<sup>10</sup>, to be the date on which the special road, or the relevant part of the special road, is open for use as a special road<sup>11</sup>. A statutory instrument by which such an order is made, revoked or varied does not have effect unless and until it has been approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament<sup>12</sup>. A person who drives a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle to be driven, in contravention of such an order is guilty of an offence<sup>13</sup>.

769. Permit for trailer to carry excess weight.

As regards any road<sup>1</sup> or bridge the appropriate authority<sup>2</sup> may, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit, grant a permit in respect of any trailer<sup>3</sup> specified in the permit, when drawn by a heavy locomotive or a light locomotive<sup>4</sup> on the road or bridge, to carry weights specified in the permit, notwithstanding that, when conveying such weights, the trailer does not comply with any regulations made, or having effect as if made, by the Secretary of State<sup>5</sup> as to the weight laden of trailers or as to the maximum weight which may be transmitted to the road or any part of it by trailers<sup>6</sup>. Where such a permit is granted in respect of a trailer it is not, so long as the conditions (if any) attached to the permit are complied with, an offence to carry on the road or bridge weights authorised by the permit by reason only that the trailer, when conveying them, does not comply with any such regulations<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'the appropriate authority' is: (1) in relation to a bridge for the maintenance of which a bridge authority is responsible, or a road passing over such a bridge, the bridge authority; and (2) in relation to any other road, the traffic authority and any other person responsible for the maintenance of the road: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 21(3) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 33). 'Bridge authority' means the authority or person responsible for the maintenance of a bridge: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1). As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(iv) Traffic Regulation in Particular Cases/770. Traffic regulation for special areas in the countryside and for conserving natural beauty.

770. Traffic regulation for special areas in the countryside and for conserving natural beauty.

The following provision applies to roads<sup>1</sup> in England and Wales which are in, or form part of, or are adjacent to or contiguous with<sup>2</sup>:

- 450 (1) a national park<sup>3</sup>;
- 451 (2) an area of outstanding natural beauty<sup>4</sup>;
- 452 (3) certain country parks<sup>5</sup>;
- 453 (4) an area in which Natural England is conducting an experimental scheme or the Countryside Council for Wales is conducting a scheme<sup>6</sup>;
- 454 (5) a nature reserve or an area subject to a specified agreement<sup>7</sup>;
- 455 (6) a long distance route<sup>8</sup>;
- 456 (7) land belonging to the National Trust which is held by the Trust inalienably<sup>9</sup>; or
- 457 (8) a site of special scientific interest<sup>10</sup>.

Natural England and the Countryside Council for Wales may each make submissions to the Secretary of State as to the desirability of a traffic regulation order being made in relation to a road to which this provision applies, whether or not it is a road for which he is the traffic authority<sup>11</sup>. Where such a submission is made as respects a road for which he is not the traffic authority, and the traffic authority for the road notifies him that it does not intend to make an order, the Secretary of State may by order make any such provision as he might have made by a traffic regulation order if he had been the traffic authority<sup>12</sup>. The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 applies to such an order as to an order made by the Secretary of State in relation to a road for which he is the traffic authority<sup>13</sup>.

As respects certain other roads<sup>14</sup>, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 has effect as if, in relation to the making of provision with respect to vehicular traffic, the list of purposes for which a traffic regulation order<sup>15</sup> may be made<sup>16</sup> included the purpose of conserving or enhancing the natural beauty of the area<sup>17</sup>.

Particular provision is made in relation to byways, bridleways, footpaths etc in national parks<sup>18</sup>.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 has effect as respects roads to which s 22 (as amended) applies as if the list of purposes for which a traffic regulation order may be made under s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 ante), as set out in s 1(1)(a)-(g) (as amended) and referred to in s 6(1)(b) (as amended) (see PARA 747 note 4 ante), included the purpose of conserving or enhancing the natural beauty of the area, or of affording better opportunities for the public to enjoy the amenities of the area, or recreation or the study of nature in the area: s 22(2) (amended by the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 s 66(2)). For the meaning of 'traffic regulation order' see PARA 742 ante. In the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 22(2) (as amended), the reference to conserving the natural beauty of an area is to be construed as including a reference to conserving its flora, fauna and geological and physiographical features: s 22(5) (added by the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000 s 66(3)).

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 ante), as applied for the purposes set out in s 22(2), has effect so as to authorise the making of a traffic regulation order as respects any Crown road; and an order (a 'traffic regulation order') may be made under s 22(3) (see the text and note 11 infra) as respects any Crown road: s 132(2). The consent of the appropriate Crown authority must be given before a traffic regulation order is so made as respects a Crown road: s 132(3). A traffic regulation order made by virtue of s 132(2) as respects a Crown road does not apply to vehicles or persons in the public service of the Crown, except so far as is expressly provided in the order; and the inclusion of any such express provision in an order not made by the Secretary of State requires his approval: s 132(4). If a traffic regulation order is, or is to be, made by virtue of s 132(2) as respects a Crown road, the traffic authority may, after consultation with the appropriate Crown authority, place and maintain, or cause to be placed and maintained, such traffic signs of any type prescribed or authorised under s 64 (as amended) (see PARA 830 post) as the traffic authority may consider necessary in connection with the order: s 132(5) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 76(1), (2)). The powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 132(5) (as amended) are exercisable subject to and in conformity with any general directions given under s 65(1) (see PARA 831 post); and any other power conferred by s 65 to give directions to a local traffic authority includes power to give the like directions to it as respects the Crown road, but after consultation with the appropriate Crown authority: s 132(5) (as so amended). For these purposes, references to a Crown road are references to a Crown road of a description mentioned in s 22(1)(a) (as amended): s 132(1). References in any enactment (including any enactment contained in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984) to the erection or placing of traffic signs include references to the display of traffic signs in any manner, whether or not involving fixing or placing: s 64(6). As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante. For the meaning of 'local traffic authority' see PARA 731 ante. For the meaning of 'Crown road' see PARA 729 ante. For the meaning of 'appropriate Crown authority' see PARA 729 note 2 ante. For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 post. As to where traffic signs may be placed see PARA 830 et seq post. ## (v) Network Management

A. GENERAL DUTIES RELATING TO NETWORK MANAGEMENT

771. The network management duty.

It is the duty of a local traffic authority<sup>1</sup> to manage its road network<sup>2</sup> with a view to achieving, so far as may be reasonably practicable having regard to its other obligations, policies and objectives, the following objectives:

- 458 (1) securing the expeditious movement of traffic<sup>3</sup> on the authority's road network; and
- 459 (2) facilitating the expeditious movement of traffic on road networks for which another authority is the traffic authority<sup>4</sup>.

The action which the authority may take in performing that duty includes, in particular, any action which it considers will contribute to securing:

- 460 (a) the more efficient use of its road network; or

- 461 (b) the avoidance, elimination or reduction of road congestion or other disruption to the movement of traffic on its road network or a road network for which another authority is the traffic authority; and may involve the exercise of any power to regulate or co-ordinate the uses made of any road (or part of a road) in the road network, whether or not the power was conferred on it in its capacity as a traffic authority<sup>5</sup>.

A local traffic authority must make such arrangements as it considers appropriate for planning and carrying out the action to be taken in performing the network management duty<sup>6</sup>. The arrangements must include provision for the appointment of a person (to be known as the 'traffic manager') to perform such tasks as the authority considers will assist it to perform its network management duty<sup>7</sup>. The traffic manager may, but need not, be an employee of the authority<sup>8</sup>.

The arrangements must also include provision for establishing processes for ensuring, so far as may be reasonably practicable, that the authority identifies things, including future occurrences, which are causing, or which have the potential to cause, road congestion or other disruption to the movement of traffic on its road network; and considers any possible action that could be taken in response to, or in anticipation of, anything so identified<sup>9</sup>.

The arrangements must also include provision for ensuring that the authority:

- 462 (i) determines specific policies or objectives in relation to different roads or classes of road in its road network;
- 463 (ii) monitors the effectiveness of the authority's organisation and decision-making processes, and the implementation of its decisions; and
- 464 (iii) assesses its performance in managing its road network<sup>10</sup>.

The authority must keep under review the effectiveness of the arrangements it has in place under these provisions<sup>11</sup>.

The appropriate national authority<sup>12</sup> may publish guidance to local traffic authorities about the techniques of network management or any other matter relating to the performance of the duties imposed above<sup>13</sup>, and in performing those duties a local traffic authority must have regard to any such guidance<sup>14</sup>.

1 'Local traffic authority' means a traffic authority other than the Secretary of State; 'traffic authority' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 731 ante); Traffic Management Act 2004 s 31. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 'Road network', in relation to a local traffic authority, means the network of roads for which the authority is the traffic authority; 'road' means any length of highway or of any other road to which the public has access, and includes bridges over which a road passes: ibid s 31.

3 'Traffic' includes pedestrians: ibid s 31.

4 Ibid s 16(1).

5 Ibid s 16(2).

6 Ibid s 17(1). For the purposes of Pt 2 (ss 16-31) 'network management duty', in relation to a local traffic authority, means its duty under s 16 (see the text and notes 1-4 supra): s 16(3).

7 Ibid s 17(2).

8 Ibid s 17(3).

9 Ibid s 17(4). However, nothing in s 17(4) is to be taken to require the identification or consideration of anything appearing to have only an insignificant effect, or potential effect, on the movement of traffic on an authority's road network: s 17(4).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(v) Network Management/A. GENERAL DUTIES RELATING TO NETWORK MANAGEMENT/772. Power to require information relating to network management.

772. Power to require information relating to network management.

The appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> may direct a local traffic authority<sup>2</sup> to provide it, within a specified period, with specified information connected with any aspect of the performance of its network management duties<sup>3</sup>. The information that may be specified in such a direction must be information which the authority has in its possession or can reasonably be expected to acquire, and includes, in particular, information relating to the management of a local traffic authority's road network<sup>4</sup>, or the use of its road network by different kinds of traffic<sup>5</sup> or the effects of that use<sup>6</sup>.

A direction under this provision may be given to two or more local traffic authorities or to local traffic authorities of a description specified in the direction<sup>7</sup>. A direction given to a London authority<sup>8</sup> must be copied to the Mayor<sup>9</sup>.

B. ENFORCEMENT OF NETWORK MANAGEMENT DUTIES

773. Intervention notices.

If the appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> considers that a local traffic authority<sup>2</sup> may be failing properly to perform any of its duties in relation to network management<sup>3</sup> it may give a notice stating that it is of that opinion (an 'intervention notice') to the authority<sup>4</sup>.

An intervention notice must give brief particulars of the grounds for giving the notice, and offer the local traffic authority the opportunity, within a specified period, to make representations or proposals about any matter raised by the notice<sup>5</sup>. The notice may also require the local traffic authority to provide the national authority, within the period specified above, with specified information<sup>6</sup>. Any information so specified must be information that the national authority considers will assist it in deciding what further action, if any, to take<sup>7</sup>.

The Secretary of State must consult the Mayor<sup>8</sup> before giving an intervention notice to a London authority<sup>9</sup> and, if such a notice is given, must give him a copy of it<sup>10</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(2) TRAFFIC REGULATION/(v) Network Management/B. ENFORCEMENT OF NETWORK MANAGEMENT DUTIES/774. Intervention orders.

774. Intervention orders.

If the appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> is satisfied that a local traffic authority<sup>2</sup> is failing properly to perform any of its duties in relation to network management<sup>3</sup> it may by order made by statutory instrument (an 'intervention order') make provision for or in connection with the appointment of a traffic director<sup>4</sup>.

An intervention order providing for the appointment of a traffic director must, among other things:

- 465 (1) state that the national authority is satisfied as mentioned above;
- 466 (2) give brief particulars of the grounds for appointing a traffic director;
- 467 (3) set out the objectives of the traffic director; and
- 468 (4) confer such general powers on the traffic director as the national authority considers appropriate for achieving those objectives<sup>5</sup>.

The general powers which may be conferred on the traffic director are powers authorising him:

- 469 (a) to monitor any matter<sup>6</sup>;
- 470 (b) to report on any matter<sup>7</sup>;
- 471 (c) to intervene in activities of the local traffic authority<sup>8</sup>; and
- 472 (d) to carry out functions of the local traffic authority<sup>9</sup>.

The order may require the traffic director to carry out functions of the local traffic authority<sup>10</sup>.
The order may:

- 473 (i) limit the scope of any general powers conferred on the traffic director or any duty imposed on him<sup>11</sup>;
- 474 (ii) confer ancillary powers on the traffic director;
- 475 (iii) provide for the circumstances in which any general or ancillary power may, or may not, be exercised;
- 476 (iv) impose conditions on the exercise of any general or ancillary power<sup>12</sup>;
- 477 (v) make incidental or supplementary provision;
- 478 (vi) make different provision for different circumstances<sup>13</sup>.

The appropriate national authority must consult the local traffic authority before making an intervention order which makes further provision in connection with the appointment of a traffic director under an earlier intervention order<sup>14</sup>. The Secretary of State must consult the Mayor before making an intervention order in relation to a London authority<sup>15</sup>.

The appropriate national authority may give guidance to traffic directors in relation to the performance of their duties<sup>16</sup>. Such guidance may be general or given to a particular traffic director<sup>17</sup>. In carrying out his duties a traffic director must have regard to any such guidance which is applicable to him<sup>18</sup>. The appropriate national authority must publish any guidance given under this provision<sup>19</sup>.

Where a traffic director has been appointed in respect of a local traffic authority, the appropriate national authority may recover from the local traffic authority such sum or sums as it may consider appropriate<sup>20</sup>. The amount recovered must not exceed the total expenditure of the national authority which is attributable to the appointment of the traffic director, including expenditure towards any costs incurred by the traffic director which are not met from any other source<sup>21</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'appropriate national authority' see PARA 771 note 12 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'local traffic authority' see PARA 771 note 1 ante.

3 ie its duties under the Traffic Management Act 2004 ss 16, 17 (see PARA 771 ante).

4 Ibid s 21(1). 'Traffic director' means a person appointed by the national authority with such objectives as the national authority considers will secure that the duty in question is properly performed: s 21(2). Where by virtue of an intervention order a traffic director is to be appointed in relation to a local traffic authority: (1) any person (including the national authority making the order, another local traffic authority, a passenger transport executive or any other public authority) may be appointed; (2) the appointment may be made on such terms as that national authority may consider appropriate; and (3) the appointment may be revoked by that national authority: s 22(1). The powers conferred by s 22(1) have effect subject to the provisions of the order: s 22(2). Notice of any appointment of a traffic director (or the revocation of an appointment) must be given to the local traffic authority and, in the case of a London authority, to the Mayor: s 22(3). For the meaning of 'London authority' see PARA 772 note 8 ante; for the meaning of 'Mayor' see PARA 772 note 9 ante. Any such notice of an appointment must be given before the traffic director begins to carry out any of his duties: s 22(4).

Where a traffic director is appointed in relation to a London authority: (a) a copy of any report made by a traffic director to the authority must be given to the Mayor; (b) in carrying out his duties the traffic director need not comply with, or have regard to, any directions or guidance given by the Mayor under the Greater London Authority Act 1999 Pt IV (ss 141-303) (as amended) (see LONDON GOVERNMENT); (c) the duty to comply with a direction given by the traffic director prevails, to the extent of any inconsistency, over the duty to comply with, or have regard to, any direction or guidance mentioned in head (b) supra: Traffic Management Act 2004 s 29(1)-(4). Where a traffic director is appointed in relation to Transport for London: (i) if the traffic director exercises the power of Transport for London under the Highways Act 1980 s 301A(3) (as added) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 827) to object to a proposal and does not withdraw that objection, or directs Transport for London to exercise the power to object to a proposal and not to withdraw the objection, that provision has effect as if s 301A(3)(d), (4) (as added) were omitted; (ii) if the traffic director exercises the power of Transport for London under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 121B(3) (as added and amended) (see PARA 732 ante) to object to a proposal and does not withdraw that objection, or directs Transport for London to exercise the power to object to a proposal and not to withdraw the objection, that provision has effect as if s 121B(3)(d), (4) (as added) were omitted; (iii) while the intervention order to which the appointment relates is in force the Mayor may not, without the consent of the traffic director, issue a direction under the Highways Act 1980 s 301A(9) (as added) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 827) or the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 121B(9) (as added) (see PARA 732 ante), dispensing with any of the requirements mentioned there (whether or not by varying an existing direction): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 29(5)-(8).

5 Ibid s 21(3). However, such an order may not be made unless: (1) reasonable notice of the grounds for appointing a traffic director has been given to the local traffic authority in an intervention notice under s 20 (see PARA 773 ante); and (2) the period specified in the notice under s 20(2) has expired; but if that period has expired an order may be made whether or not the local traffic authority has complied with any requirements specified under s 20(3): s 21(4).

6 The general powers which may be conferred by an intervention order under head (a) in the text are powers to monitor anything connected with the performance by the local traffic authority of its duties under ibid ss 16, 17 (see PARA 771 ante), including the use of its road network by different kinds of traffic or the effects of that use: s 23(1).

7 The general powers which may be conferred by an intervention order under head (b) in the text are powers to make reports about anything connected with the carrying out of the traffic director's objectives; or anything connected with the performance by the local traffic authority of its duties under ibid ss 16, 17 (see PARA 771 ante), including the use of its road network by different kinds of traffic or the effects of that use: s 23(2). The order may provide for such reports to be made to the appropriate national authority or the local traffic authority (or both): s 23(3).

8 Ibid s 24 explains the general powers which may be conferred by an intervention order under head (c) in the text: s 24(1). Such powers may authorise the traffic director to give to the local traffic authority directions with respect to the exercise of any specified function, including in particular directions: (1) to exercise (or to cease or refrain from exercising) such a function; (2) as to the way in which such a function is (or is not) to be exercised; (3) as to the policies to be adopted in the exercise of any function: s 24(2). The order may specify any function of the authority (whether or not conferred in its capacity as a traffic authority) the exercise of which appears to the appropriate national authority to be capable of contributing to, or interfering with, the achievement of the traffic director's objectives: s 24(3). Such powers may also authorise the traffic director, where it appears to him that the authority has failed to comply with a direction: (a) to take any steps which still remain to be taken by the authority to comply with the direction; and (b) to recover from the authority as a civil debt the costs reasonably incurred by him in taking those steps: s 24(4). Anything done by the traffic director under head (a) supra is to be treated as having been done by the authority: s 24(5). As to money recoverable summarily as a civil debt see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 826; and as to enforcement of civil debts see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 828.

9 Ibid s 21(5). Section 25 explains the general powers which may be conferred by an intervention order under head (d) in the text and the duty which may be imposed under s 21(6) (see the text to note 10 infra): s 25(1). The order may authorise or require the traffic director to take over from the authority the exercise of any specified function: s 25(2). The order may specify any function of the authority (whether or not conferred in its capacity as a traffic authority) the exercise of which appears to the appropriate national authority to be capable of contributing to, or interfering with, the achievement of the traffic director's objectives: s 25(3). The order may require the authority to take action to co-ordinate its activities with those of the traffic director in the exercise of functions specified under s 25(2), and to co-operate with the traffic director in the exercise of such functions:

s 25(4). Anything done by the traffic director in the exercise of a specified function is to be treated as having been done by the authority: s 25(5).

10 Ibid s 21(6).

11 Ie under ibid s 21(6) (see the text and note 10 supra).

12 For these purposes, 'ancillary power' means a power to do anything calculated to facilitate (or to be conducive or incidental to): (1) the exercise by the traffic director of his general powers; or (2) the performance of any duty imposed on him under s 21(6) (see the text and note 10 supra), including, in particular, power to require the local traffic authority to provide him with information and assistance: s 21(8).

775. Criteria for deciding whether to give an intervention notice or make an intervention order.

The appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> must give<sup>2</sup> guidance about the criteria which it proposes to apply for the purpose of deciding whether to give an intervention notice<sup>3</sup> or make an intervention order<sup>4</sup>. The guidance must be appended to an order made by the authority by statutory instrument<sup>5</sup>.

A statutory instrument containing such an order made by the Secretary of State is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>6</sup>.

A local traffic authority<sup>1</sup> may establish crossings for pedestrians on roads<sup>2</sup> for which it is the traffic authority<sup>3</sup>, and may alter or remove any such crossings<sup>4</sup>. Before establishing, altering, or removing a crossing a local traffic authority must consult the chief officer of police<sup>5</sup> about its proposal to do so, must give public notice of that proposal and must inform the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> in writing<sup>7</sup>. It is the duty of a local traffic authority to execute any works (including the placing, erection<sup>8</sup>, maintenance, alteration and removal of marks and traffic signs) required in connection with the establishment, alteration or removal of crossings in accordance with the pedestrian crossing regulations<sup>9</sup>, or in connection with the indication of crossings in accordance with such regulations<sup>10</sup>.

778. Pedestrian crossing regulations.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations<sup>2</sup> with respect to the precedence of vehicles and pedestrians respectively, and generally with respect to the movement of traffic (including pedestrians), at and in the vicinity of crossings<sup>3</sup>. Such regulations may be made: (1) prohibiting pedestrian traffic on the carriageway within 100 yards of a crossing<sup>4</sup>; and (2) with respect to the indication of the limits of a crossing, or of any other matter whatsoever relating to the crossing, by marks or devices on or near the roadway or otherwise, and generally with respect to the erection of traffic signs<sup>5</sup> in connection with a crossing<sup>6</sup>. Different regulations may be made in relation to different traffic conditions, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words) different regulations may be made in relation to crossings in the vicinity of, and at a distance from, a junction of roads<sup>7</sup>, and in relation to traffic which is controlled by the police, and by traffic signals, and by different kinds of traffic signals, and traffic which is not controlled<sup>8</sup>. Regulations may be made applying only to a particular crossing or particular crossings specified in the regulations<sup>9</sup>. A person who contravenes any such regulations is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(3) CROSSINGS AND PLAYGROUNDS/(i) Pedestrian Crossings/779. Stopping on or near pedestrian crossings in London.

779. Stopping on or near pedestrian crossings in London.

A driver of a vehicle must not at any time cause it to stop on a part of a road<sup>2</sup> in a special parking area<sup>3</sup> in the borough of a participating council<sup>4</sup> within the limits of a crossing or a crossing controlled area, and the prohibition is enforceable as if it had been imposed by an order<sup>5</sup>. However, this does not prohibit the driver of a vehicle from causing it to stop within the limits of a crossing<sup>6</sup> or a crossing controlled area<sup>7</sup> in circumstances where doing so would not contravene certain regulations<sup>8</sup>.

1 The London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4 is repealed, as from a day to be appointed, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1. The appointed day in relation to England is 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but at the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante; definition applied by the London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 2.

3 'Special parking area' means a special parking area designated by an order made under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(1) (as amended) (see PARA 822 post): London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 2.

4 'Participating council' means the Common Council of the City of London and the council of any London borough; and 'borough' and 'council' are to be construed accordingly: ibid s 2 (definition amended by the London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 27).

5 London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(1), (2). The order referred to in the text is an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(2). No penalty charge is payable pursuant to s 4(2) by the driver of a vehicle who causes it to stop contrary to that provision in any case where: (1) by reason of that stopping the vehicle is removed by, or under arrangements made by, a constable or traffic warden under regulations made pursuant to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99 (as amended) (see PARA 870 post); or (2) a notice is given to the driver under the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 54(2), (4) (as amended) (see PARA 1097 post) in respect of any offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 25 (see PARA 778 ante) constituted by that stopping; or (3) notification of an intention to prosecute the driver in respect of such an offence is given by the Commissioner, in the case of a crossing situated on a GLA road or GLA side road, to Transport for London or, in any other case, to the council of the borough in which the crossing is situated before the expiry of the period of 14 days, beginning with the day on which the stopping takes place: London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(4)(a) (amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, art 2(1) Sch 1, PARAS 1, 2). As to the meaning of 'Commissioner' see PARA 871 note 3 post. As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante; and as to the meaning of 'GLA side road' see PARA 726 note 4 ante.

Where the driver of a vehicle causes it to stop contrary to the London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(2), he is not liable to be prosecuted in respect of any offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 25 constituted by that stopping, unless the case falls within head (1), (2) or (3) supra: London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(4)(b).

Nothing in s 4(2) requires the placing of any traffic signs in connection with the prohibition thereby imposed: s 4(5). For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 post; definition applied by London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 2.

6 For these purposes, 'crossing' means a crossing for pedestrians established or having effect as if established pursuant to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 23 (as amended) (see PARA 776 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(6)(a).

7 For these purposes, 'crossing controlled area' means any area of the carriageway in the vicinity of a crossing being an area the presence and limits of which are indicated in accordance with regulations made or having effect as if made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 25 (see PARA 778 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(6)(b).

8 Ibid s 4(3). The regulations referred to are regulations made or having effect as if made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 25 (see PARA 778 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 4(3).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ### 780. Arrangements for patrolling school crossings.

Arrangements may be made by the appropriate authority<sup>1</sup> for the patrolling of places where children cross roads<sup>2</sup> on their way to or from school, or from one part of a school to another, by persons appointed by or on behalf of the appropriate authority, other than constables<sup>3</sup>. The functions of the appropriate authority for the purposes of such arrangements include the duty to satisfy itself of the adequate qualifications of persons appointed to patrol, and to provide requisite training of persons to be appointed<sup>4</sup>.

In taking decisions as to making such arrangements, the council of a county or metropolitan district must have regard to any representations made to it by local authorities for localities in the county or metropolitan district, as the case may be<sup>5</sup>. Before making such arrangements for the patrolling of places where children cross GLA roads<sup>6</sup>, a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London must consult Transport for London and take account of any representations made by Transport for London<sup>7</sup>. Any such arrangements if made by the council of the county, London borough or metropolitan district as respects places in the county, London borough or district, may include an agreement between that council and the police authority for the police area<sup>8</sup> in which those places are, for the performance by the police authority<sup>9</sup>, on such terms as may be specified in the agreement, of such functions for the purposes of the arrangements as may be so specified<sup>10</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 26 (as amended), in its application to England and Wales, the appropriate authority:

1365 (1) as respects places outside Greater London, is the council of the county or metropolitan district in which the places in question are (s 26(2)(a) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8(1), Sch 5 para 4(10)(a); and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 288(1), (2)(a));

1366 (2) as respects places in the City of London, is the Common Council of the City (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 26(2)(b)); and 1367 (3) as respects places in a London borough, is the council for the borough (s 26(2)(c) (substituted by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 288(1), (2)(a))).

UPDATE

780 Arrangements for patrolling school crossings

NOTE 2--SI 1997/2439 amended: SI 2008/2266.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(3) CROSSINGS AND PLAYGROUNDS/(ii) School Crossings/781. Stopping of vehicles at school crossings.

781. Stopping of vehicles at school crossings.

When a vehicle is approaching a place in a road<sup>1</sup> where a person is crossing or seeking to cross the road, a school crossing patrol<sup>2</sup> wearing a uniform approved by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> has power, by exhibiting a prescribed sign<sup>4</sup>, to require the person driving<sup>5</sup> or propelling the vehicle to stop it<sup>6</sup>. When a person has been so required to stop a vehicle: (1) he must cause the vehicle to stop before reaching the place where the person is crossing or seeking to cross and so as not to stop or impede his crossing<sup>7</sup>; and (2) the vehicle must not be put in motion again so as to reach the place in question so long as the sign continues to be exhibited<sup>8</sup>. A person who fails to comply with head (1) above, or who causes a vehicle to be so put in motion in contravention of head (2) above, is guilty of an offence<sup>9</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 'School crossing patrol' means a person authorised to patrol in accordance with arrangements under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 26 (as amended) (see PARA 780 ante): s 28(4)(b). As to the employment of traffic wardens as school crossing patrols see PARA 868 post.

3 For these purposes, where it is proved that a school crossing patrol was wearing a uniform, the uniform is to be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to be a uniform approved by the Secretary of State: ibid s 28(5) (b). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

4 'Prescribed sign' means a sign of a size, colour and type prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State or, if authorisation is given by the Secretary of State for the use of signs of a description not so prescribed, a sign of that description: ibid s 28(4)(a). Such regulations may provide for the attachment of reflectors to signs or for the illumination of signs: s 28(4). For the prescribed sign see the School Crossing Patrol Sign (England and Wales) Regulations 2006, SI 2006/2215. For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 post. The sign must be exhibited so that on coming traffic can see the wording on the sign even if the sign is not held full-face to the traffic: see Hoy v Smith [1964] 3 All ER 670, [1964] 1 WLR 1377, DC. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante.

For these purposes, where it is proved that a sign was exhibited by a school crossing patrol, it is to be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to be of a size, colour and type prescribed, or of a description authorised, under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 28(4)(b) (see note 2 supra), and, if it was exhibited in circumstances in which it was required by the regulations to be illuminated, to have been illuminated in the prescribed manner: s 28(5)(a).

5 For the meaning of 'driving' see PARA 207 ante.

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 28(1) (amended by the Transport Act 2000 ss 270(1), (3)(a), 274, Sch 31 Pt V(2)). Once the sign is properly exhibited, the driver of the vehicle is obliged to stop even though the pedestrians have cleared the section of the carriageway, and the obligation to stop cannot be released until the sign is no longer exhibited: Franklin v Langdown [1971] 3 All ER 662, [1971] RTR 471.

7 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 28(2)(a).

8 Ibid s 28(2)(b).

9 Ibid s 28(3). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary if committed in respect of a motor vehicle; endorsement is obligatory if committed in respect of a motor vehicle; and 3 penalty points may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; as to disqualification see PARA 1057 et seq post; as to endorsement see PARA 1080 et seq post; as to penalty points see PARA 1048 et seq post; as to fixed penalties see PARA 1089 et seq post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(3) CROSSINGS AND PLAYGROUNDS/(iii) Street Playgrounds/782. Power to prohibit traffic on roads to be used as playgrounds.

(iii) Street Playgrounds

782. Power to prohibit traffic on roads to be used as playgrounds.

For the purpose of enabling a road<sup>1</sup> for which it is the traffic authority<sup>2</sup> to be used as a playground for children, a local traffic authority<sup>3</sup> may make an order prohibiting or restricting the use of the road by vehicles, or by vehicles of any specified class<sup>4</sup>, either generally or on particular days or during particular hours<sup>5</sup>. The prohibition or restriction may be subject to such exceptions and conditions as to occasional use or otherwise as may be specified in the order<sup>6</sup>. Such an order must make provision for permitting reasonable access to premises situated on or adjacent to the road<sup>7</sup>. A person who uses a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle to be used, in contravention of such an order is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

2 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'local traffic authority' see PARA 731 ante.

4 As to classes of vehicle see PARA 208 ante.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 29(1) (s 29 substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 37). The power to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 29 (as substituted) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 29 (as substituted) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. Where an order is or has been made with respect to roads<sup>1</sup> used as playgrounds<sup>2</sup>, the local traffic authority<sup>3</sup> may make byelaws authorising the use of the road as a playground for children and making provision<sup>4</sup>:

- 479 (1) with respect to the admission of children to the road when used as a playground<sup>5</sup>;
- 480 (2) with respect to the safety of children so using the road and their protection from injury by vehicles using the road for access to premises situated on or adjacent to it or otherwise<sup>6</sup>; and
- 481 (3) generally with respect to the proper management of the road when used as a playground for children<sup>7</sup>.

Such byelaws are subject to confirmation by the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/784. Power of local authorities to provide parking places.

(4) PARKING

(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment

784. Power of local authorities to provide parking places.

Where for the purpose of relieving or preventing congestion of traffic it appears to a local authority<sup>1</sup> to be necessary to provide within its area suitable parking places<sup>2</sup> for vehicles, the local authority<sup>3</sup>:

- 482 (1) may provide off-street parking places<sup>4</sup> (whether above or below ground and whether or not consisting of or including buildings) together with means of entrance to and egress from them<sup>5</sup>; or
- 483 (2) may by order authorise the use as a parking place of any part of a road<sup>6</sup> within its area, not being a road the whole or part of the width of which is within Greater London<sup>7</sup>.

A local authority may adapt for use as, or for providing means of entrance to or egress from, a parking place any land acquired or appropriated by it for these purposes, and may, with the consent of the authority or person responsible for the maintenance of a road, adapt any part of it for the purpose of providing means of entrance to or egress from a parking place<sup>8</sup>.

The exercise by a local authority of its powers under the above provisions with respect to the use as a parking place of any part of a road does not render it subject to any liability in respect of the loss of or damage to any vehicle or the fittings or contents of any vehicle parked in the parking place<sup>9</sup>.

1 In the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 32 (as amended) and in ss 33-41 (s 34, s 35 as amended, ss 35A-35C as added, and ss 36-39 as amended) (see PARA 785 et seq post), 'local authority' means (subject to s 36(3) (as amended) (see note 7 infra)) the council of a county, London borough or district or the Common Council of the City of London: s 32(4)(a) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 102(2), Sch 17). As to local government areas and authorities see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 22 et seq; LONDON GOVERNMENT.

For the application of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to the Channel Tunnel system see the Channel Tunnel (Application of Road Traffic Enactments) (No 2) Order 1994, SI 1994/1667, which confers functions exercisable by local authorities on the Channel Tunnel Concessionaires.

2 In the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 32 (as amended) and in ss 33-41 (s 34, s 35 as amended, ss 35A-35C as added, and ss 36-39 as amended) (see PARA 785 et seq post), 'parking place' means a place where vehicles, or vehicles of any class, may wait: s 32(4)(b). As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante. For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

Any power conferred by s 32 (as amended) to provide a parking place includes power to maintain it (if below ground) and to maintain buildings comprised in it, and to provide and maintain any cloakroom or other convenience for use in connection with it; and references in other provisions of s 32 (as amended) to parking places are accordingly to be construed as including references to any such conveniences: s 32(3).

3 Ibid s 32(1). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 124(1), Sch 9 Pt I paras 1-12 (as amended), Sch 9 Pt II paras 13-19 (as amended) and Sch 9 Pt III paras 20-26 (as amended) (see PARAS 736-738 ante): see s 32(1). The power to make an order under s 32 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 32 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. Orders made under s 32 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. As to the exercise of powers under s 32(1) (as amended) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante.

A local authority may contribute towards the expenses incurred by any other authority in the exercise of its powers under s 32 (as amended): s 41.

Before exercising its powers under s 32(1), except in the case of the exercise of the power conferred by s 32(1) (b) (see the text and notes 6-7 infra) in relation to a road in England, a county council must consult with the council of the district in which the parking place is to be, or is, situated: s 39(1). A district council, other than a metropolitan district council, may not exercise its powers under s 32 (as amended) without the consent of the county council; and any consent given by the county council may be subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit: s 39(3) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(16)). A district council aggrieved by the refusal of the county council to give consent under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(3) (as amended) or by any conditions or restrictions subject to which any such consent is given, may appeal to the Secretary of State; and, on any such appeal, the Secretary of State may give such directions as he thinks fit, either dispensing with the need for consent or varying or revoking any such conditions, restrictions or modifications: s 39(5).

The power to vary or revoke an order made by a district council, other than a metropolitan district council, under s 32(1) is exercisable by the county council as well as by the district council: s 39(6) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 Sch 5 para 4(16)). Where, however, a county council proposes to make an order by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(6) (as amended), the county council must send a copy of the proposed order to the district council; and if, not later than six weeks after it has received such a copy from the county council, the district council serves notice on the county council and the Secretary of State of its objection to the making of the proposed order, and the objection is not withdrawn by a further notice served not later than six weeks after the service of the notice of objection, the county council must submit a copy of the proposed order to the Secretary of State, and may not make the order except with his consent: s 39(7). Section 39(7) does not apply in Wales: s 39(7A) (added by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 22(1), Sch 7 para 38(1)). If the Secretary of State consents to an order submitted to him for his consent under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(7), he may consent to the order either in the form in which it was submitted to him or with such modifications as he thinks fit, which may include additions, exceptions or other modifications of any description; but where he proposes to consent to the order with modifications which appear to him substantially to affect the character of the order as submitted to him, he must, before doing so, take such steps as appear to him to be sufficient and reasonably practicable for informing the county council and district council in question and any other persons likely to be concerned: s 39(8).

4 'Off-street parking place' refers to parking places on land which does not form part of a road: ibid s 142(1).

5 Ibid s 32(1)(a).

6 For the purposes of ibid s 32 (as amended) and in ss 33-41 (s 34, s 35 as amended, ss 35A-35C as added, and ss 36-39 as amended) (see PARA 785 et seq post), an underground parking place is not to be deemed to be part of a road by reason only of its being situated under a road: s 32(4).

7 Ibid s 32(1)(b). Subject to s 37 (as amended), no order under s 32(1)(b) may: (1) authorise the use of any part of a road so as unreasonably to prevent access to any premises adjoining the road or the use of the road by any person entitled to use it, or so as to be a nuisance; or (2) be made in respect of any part of a road without the consent of the authority or person responsible for the maintenance of the road: s 36(1). In relation to roads in England the power to make an order under s 32(1)(b) is not exercisable by non-metropolitan district councils: s 36(3) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(14)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 36(3) (as amended) does not affect the operation of the Local Government Act 1972 s 101(1) (arrangements for discharge of functions by local authorities: see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 370), which has effect as if the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 36(3) (as amended) were contained in an Act passed before the Local Government Act 1972: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 36(4).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/785. Power to arrange for management or provision of parking places.

785. Power to arrange for management or provision of parking places.

A local authority<sup>1</sup> may let for use as a parking place<sup>2</sup> any off-street parking place<sup>3</sup> provided by it; and, where the parking place is in a building, the local authority may let the parking place separately from the rest of the building or let the whole or any part of the building with the parking place<sup>4</sup>. A local authority also has power to enter into arrangements with any person under which, in consideration of the payment by him to the authority of a lump sum, or of a series of lump sums, he is authorised to collect and retain the charges made in respect of the parking of vehicles in an off-street parking place provided<sup>5</sup> by the authority<sup>6</sup>.

A local authority may, on such terms as it thinks fit:

- 484 (1) let land on which it could erect or adapt a building for the purpose of providing an off-street parking place with a view to its being provided by some other person<sup>7</sup>; or
- 485 (2) arrange with any person for him to provide such a parking place on any land of which he is the owner or in which he has an interest<sup>8</sup>.

As to the application of s 33(3) where a parking place is provided in a building for other purposes see PARA 787 post. As to the acquisition and appropriation of land for parking places see PARA 796 post.

A district council, other than a metropolitan district council, may not exercise its powers under s 33(3) or s 33(4) (see the text to notes 7-8 infra) without the consent of the county council; and any consent given by the county council may be subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit: s 39(3) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(16)). A district council aggrieved by the refusal of the county council to give consent under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(3) (as amended), or by any conditions or restrictions subject to which any such consent is given, may appeal to the Secretary of State; and, on any such appeal, the Secretary of State may give such directions as he thinks fit, either dispensing with the need for consent or varying or revoking any such conditions, restrictions or modifications: s 39(5). ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/789. Provision of access to premises through off-street parking place.

789. Provision of access to premises through off-street parking place.

Where it appears to a local authority<sup>1</sup> which proposes to provide, or has provided, an off-street parking place<sup>2</sup>:

- 486 (1) that it would relieve or prevent congestion of traffic on a highway if use were made of the parking place<sup>3</sup> to provide a means of access from the highway or road to premises adjoining, or abutting on, the parking place<sup>4</sup>; and
- 487 (2) that it would be possible to provide such access and at the same time ensure that vehicles using the parking place to obtain access to the premises in question would, while in the parking place, proceed in the direction in which other vehicles using the parking place are to be, or are, required to proceed<sup>5</sup>, the authority may provide such a means of access in accordance with the following provisions<sup>6</sup>.

A local authority may adapt for use as, or for providing, means of access under this provision: (a) an off-street parking place provided by it<sup>7</sup>; (b) any land acquired or appropriated by it for these purposes<sup>8</sup>; or (c) with the consent of the authority or person responsible for the maintenance of a road<sup>9</sup>, any part of that road<sup>10</sup>.

A local authority which proposes to provide, or has provided, a means of access to any premises under this provision:

- 488 (i) may enter into an agreement with the occupier of the premises with respect to the use of the means of access and for the making by him of contributions towards the expenses incurred by the authority in providing the means of access<sup>11</sup>;
- 489 (ii) may, for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed, grant to the occupier of the premises, or any other person having an interest in them, a right of way over any such part of the land comprised in the parking place as is to be used as the means of access, and such other rights (if any) incidental to, or connected with, the use of the means of access as it thinks it necessary or expedient to grant<sup>12</sup>.

Subject to the provisions of any agreement made by it under head (i) above and to any rights granted by it under head (ii) above, a local authority may stop up any means of access so provided by it<sup>13</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/790. Provisions as to use of parking places.

790. Provisions as to use of parking places.

As respects any parking place<sup>1</sup> provided by a local authority<sup>2</sup>, or provided under any letting or arrangements made by a local authority<sup>3</sup>, the local authority may by order make provision as to<sup>4</sup>:

- 490 (1) the use of the parking place, and in particular the vehicles or class of vehicles<sup>5</sup> which may be entitled to use it<sup>6</sup>;
- 491 (2) the conditions on which it may be used<sup>7</sup>;
- 492 (3) the charges to be paid in connection with its use (where it is an off-street one)<sup>8</sup>; and
- 493 (4) the removal from it of a vehicle left there in contravention of the order and the safe custody of the vehicle<sup>9</sup>.

The power under head (3) above to make provision as to the payment of charges includes power to make provision requiring those charges, or any part of them, to be paid by means of the hire or purchase in advance, or the use, of parking devices<sup>10</sup> in accordance with the order<sup>11</sup>.

Where a means of access to any premises has been provided by a local authority through an off-street parking place<sup>12</sup>, then the authority may by such an order<sup>13</sup> make provision as to the use of the parking place as the means of access and, in particular, as to the vehicles or class of vehicles which may be entitled to use the means of access and as to the conditions on which the means of access may be used<sup>14</sup>. Such an order may provide for a specified apparatus or device to be used:

- 494 (a) as a means to indicate the time at which a vehicle arrived at, and the time at which it ought to leave, a parking place, or one or other of those times<sup>15</sup>; or
- 495 (b) as a means to indicate the charges paid or payable in respect of a vehicle in an off-street parking place<sup>16</sup>; or
- 496 (c) as a means to collect any such charges<sup>17</sup>, and may make provision regulating the use of any such apparatus or device<sup>18</sup>. Such an order may also provide:

- 497 (i) for regulating the issue, use and surrender of parking devices<sup>19</sup>;
- 498 (ii) for requiring vehicles to display parking devices when left in any parking place in respect of which the parking devices may be used<sup>20</sup>;
- 499 (iii) without prejudice to the generality of head (ii) above, for regulating the manner in which parking devices are to be displayed or operated<sup>21</sup>;
- 500 (iv) for prescribing the use, and the manner of use, of apparatus designed to be used in connection with parking devices<sup>22</sup>;
- 501 (v) for treating the indications given by a parking device, or the display or the failure to display a parking device on or in any vehicle left in any parking place, as evidence of such facts as may be provided by the order<sup>23</sup>;
- 502 (vi) for the refund, in such circumstances and in such manner as may be prescribed in the order, of the whole or part of the amount of any charge paid in advance in respect of a parking device<sup>24</sup>;
- 503 (vii) for the payment of a deposit in respect of the issue of a parking device and for the repayment of the whole or any part of any such deposit<sup>25</sup>.

9 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(1)(iv).

10 In ibid s 35 (as amended) and s 35A (as added) (see PARA 791 post), 'parking device' means a card, disc, token, meter, permit, stamp or other similar device, whether used in a vehicle or not, which, being used either by itself or in conjunction with any such apparatus as is referred to in s 35(3A)(d) (as added and amended) (see the text and note 22 infra):

1368 (1) indicates, or causes to be indicated, the payment of a charge, and:

13. (a) the period in respect of which it has been paid and the time of the beginning or end of the period (s 35(3B)(a)(i) (s 35(3B) added by the Parking Act 1989 s 1(3))); or

13

14. (b) whether or not the period for which it has been paid or any further period has elapsed (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(3B)(a)(ii) (as so added)); or

14

15. (c) the period for which the vehicle in relation to which the parking device is used is permitted to park in the parking place, and the time of the beginning or end of the period(s 35(3B)(a)(iii) (as so added)); or

15

16. (d) whether or not the period for which the vehicle in relation to which the parking device is used is permitted to park in the parking place or any further period has elapsed (s 35(3B)(a)(iv) (as so added)); or

1369 (2) operates apparatus controlling the entry of vehicles to or their exit from the parking place, or enables that apparatus to be operated (s 35(3B)(b) (as so added)), or any other device of any such description as may from time to time be prescribed for the purposes of s 35 (as amended) and s 35A (as added) by order made by the Secretary of State: s 35(3B) (as so added; and amended by the Deregulation (Parking Equipment) Order 1996, SI 1996/1553, art 2(1)(a), Schedule)); Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (definition amended by the Parking Act 1989 s 4, Schedule para 8). An order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(3B) (as added) which revokes or amends a previous order under s 35(3B) (as added) may make such saving and transitional provision as appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient: s 35(3C) (added by the Parking Act 1989 s 1(3)). The power to make orders under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(3B) (as added) is exercisable by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 35(3D) (added by the Parking Act 1989 s 1(3)).

11 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(1) (amended by the Parking Act 1989 s 1(2)).

Before exercising its powers under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(1) (as amended), a county council must consult with the council of the district in which the parking place is to be, or is, situated: s 39(1).

A district council, other than a metropolitan district council, may not exercise its powers under s 35(1) (as amended) without the consent of the county council; and any consent given by the county council may be subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit: s 39(3) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(16)(a)). Where a non-metropolitan district council in England proposes to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35 (as amended), the council must submit a draft of the order to the county council, which, without prejudice to its power to give or withhold consent to the making of the order, may require such modifications of the terms of the proposed order as it thinks appropriate: s 39(4) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 ss 8, 102, Sch 5 para 4(16)(b), Sch 17; and the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 ss 22(1), 66(8), Sch 7 para 38(1), Sch 18). A district council aggrieved by the refusal of the county council to give consent under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(3) (as amended), or by any conditions or restrictions subject to which any such consent is given, or by any modifications required under s 39(4) (as amended), may appeal to the Secretary of State; and, on any such appeal, the Secretary of State may give such directions as he thinks fit, either dispensing with the need for consent or varying or revoking any such conditions, restrictions or modifications: s 39(5).

The power to vary or revoke an order made by a district council, other than a metropolitan district council, under s 35(1) (as amended) is exercisable by the county council as well as by the district council; and the powers of a county council under s 35 (as amended) apply in relation to a parking place: (1) provided by the council of a district in the county under s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 ante); or (2) provided under any letting or arrangements made by the council of such a district under s 33(4) (see PARA 785 ante), as they apply in relation to parking places provided by, or under any letting or arrangements made by, the county council: s 39(6) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 Sch 5 para 4(16)(a), (c)). Where, however, a county council proposes to make an order by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(6) (as amended), the county council must send a copy of the proposed order to the district council; and if, not later than six weeks after it has received such a copy from the county council, the district council serves notice on the county council and the Secretary of State of its objection to the making of the proposed order, and the objection is not withdrawn by a further notice served not later than six weeks after the service of the notice of objection, the county council must submit a copy of the proposed order to the Secretary of State, and may not make the order except with his consent: s 39(7). Section 39(7) does not apply in Wales: s 39(7A) (added by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 22(1), Sch 7 para 38(1)). If the Secretary of State consents to an order submitted to him for his consent under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 39(7), he may consent to the order either in the form in which it was submitted to him or with such modifications as he thinks fit, which may include additions, exceptions or other modifications of any description; but where he proposes to consent to the order with modifications which appear to him substantially to affect the character of the order as submitted to him, he must, before doing so, take such steps as appear to him to be sufficient and reasonably practicable for informing the county council and district council in question and any other persons likely to be concerned: s 39(8). As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/791. Offences and proceedings in connection with parking places.

791. Offences and proceedings in connection with parking places.

In the event of any contravention of, or non-compliance with, a provision of an order relating to the use of parking places<sup>1</sup> the person responsible is guilty of an offence<sup>2</sup>. A person who, with intent to defraud:

- 504 (1) interferes with any such apparatus or device<sup>3</sup> as is by an order<sup>4</sup> to be used for the collection of charges at an off-street parking place<sup>5</sup>, or operates or attempts to operate it by the insertion of objects other than current coins or bank notes of the appropriate denomination, or the appropriate credit<sup>6</sup> or debit cards<sup>7</sup>; or
- 505 (2) interferes with any apparatus designed to be used in connection with parking devices<sup>8</sup>, or interferes with a parking device<sup>9</sup>, or operates or attempts to operate any such apparatus or any parking device otherwise than in the manner prescribed<sup>10</sup>; or
- 506 (3) displays a parking device otherwise than in the manner prescribed<sup>11</sup>, is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup>.

An order relating to the use of parking places<sup>13</sup> may include provision:

- 507 (a) for determining the person responsible for any contravention of or non-compliance with the order<sup>14</sup>;
- 508 (b) for treating: (i) the indications given by any such apparatus or device<sup>15</sup> used in pursuance of the order<sup>16</sup>; or (ii) the indications given by any such apparatus designed to be used in connection with parking devices<sup>17</sup> used in pursuance of the order, or any tickets issued by it, or the absence of any such ticket from a vehicle left in a parking place, as evidence of such facts and for such purposes as may be provided by the order<sup>18</sup>;
- 509 (c) for applying with any appropriate adaptations any of the provisions in connection with offences relating to designated parking places<sup>19</sup>.

While a vehicle is within a parking place, it is not lawful for the driver<sup>20</sup> or conductor of the vehicle, or for any person employed in connection with it, to ply for hire or accept passengers for hire<sup>21</sup>. If a person acts in contravention of this provision he is guilty of an offence<sup>22</sup>.

1    le under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35(1) (as amended): see PARA 790 ante. For the meaning of 'parking place' see PARA 784 note 2 ante.

2    Ibid s 35A(1) (s 35A added by the Parking Act 1989 s 2). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding: (1) level 3 on the standard scale in the case of an offence committed by a person in a street parking place reserved for disabled persons' vehicles or in an off-street parking place reserved for such vehicles, where that person would not have been guilty of that offence if the motor vehicle in respect of which it was committed had been a disabled person's vehicle; or (2) level 2 on the standard scale in any other case: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (amended by the Parking Act 1989 s 4, Schedule para 11). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 35A(1) (as added) of breaching an order regulating the use etc of a parking place provided by a local authority, where the offence is committed in relation to a parking place provided on a road, is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3 (amended by the Parking Act 1989 Schedule para 12). As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/792. Display of information.

792. Display of information.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may make regulations<sup>2</sup> requiring local authorities<sup>3</sup> to display at off-street parking places<sup>4</sup> provided by them<sup>5</sup> such information about parking there as is specified in the regulations<sup>6</sup>. Such regulations may also:

- 510 (1) require the display of any orders<sup>7</sup> relating to the parking place<sup>8</sup>;
- 511 (2) specify the manner in which the information and orders are to be displayed<sup>9</sup>;
- 512 (3) exempt local authorities, in specified circumstances or subject to specified conditions, from the requirement to display information and orders, or to display them in the specified manner<sup>10</sup>; and
- 513 (4) provide, in relation to a parking place at which a local authority fails to comply with the regulations or with any specified provision of the regulations, that, except in any specified circumstances, any such order relating to the use of parking places<sup>11</sup> is to be of no effect in its application to that parking place in so far as it requires the payment of any charge in connection with use of the parking place while the failure to comply continues, and, as respects vehicles parked there when the failure to comply was remedied, during a specified period thereafter<sup>12</sup>.

Such regulations may make different provision for different circumstances and for different descriptions of parking place, and may exempt specified descriptions of parking place from any provision of the regulations<sup>13</sup>. In any proceedings for contravention of, or non-compliance with, such an order<sup>14</sup> relating to an off-street parking place, it must be assumed, unless the contrary is shown, that any relevant regulations were complied with at all material times<sup>15</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/793. Variation of charges at off-street parking places.

793. Variation of charges at off-street parking places.

Where an order<sup>1</sup> makes provision as to the charges to be paid in connection with the use of off-street parking places<sup>2</sup>, the authority making that order may vary those charges by notice<sup>3</sup>. The variation of any such charges by notice is not to be taken to prejudice any power to vary those charges by order<sup>4</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>5</sup> may by regulations<sup>6</sup> make provision as to the procedure to be followed by any local authority<sup>7</sup> giving such a notice<sup>8</sup>. The regulations may, in particular, make provision with respect to: (1) the publication, where an authority proposes to give notice, of details of its proposal<sup>9</sup>; (2) the form and manner in which notice is to be given<sup>10</sup>; and (3) the publication of notices<sup>11</sup>. In giving any such notice a local authority must comply with the regulations<sup>12</sup>.

793 Variation of charges at off-street parking places

NOTE 6--SI 1996/2489 amended: SI 2009/1116 (England).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/794. Extension of powers for purposes of general scheme of traffic control.

794. Extension of powers for purposes of general scheme of traffic control.

In the case of a traffic regulation order<sup>1</sup> and an order relating to the provision of parking places<sup>2</sup> by the council of a county or metropolitan district where the order is, and is stated to be, made by virtue of the following provisions and for the purposes of a general scheme of traffic control in a stated area, the following provisions apply<sup>3</sup>. No authority may make such an order unless it is satisfied that the general scheme of traffic control<sup>4</sup>:

- 514 (1) is adequate in point of area<sup>5</sup>;
- 515 (2) takes adequate account of the need for maintaining the free movement of traffic and of the need for maintaining reasonable access to premises<sup>6</sup>;
- 516 (3) takes adequate account of the effect of heavy commercial vehicles<sup>7</sup> on amenities<sup>8</sup>; and
- 517 (4) makes provision for street parking places<sup>9</sup>, and for regulating their use with the aid of apparatus or devices, which is suitable, regard being had to the extent to which off-street parking places<sup>10</sup> are available in the neighbourhood or their provision is likely to be encouraged by the scheme<sup>11</sup>.

1 Is an order made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1 (as amended): see PARA 742 ante. For the meaning of 'traffic regulation order' see PARA 742 ante.

2 Is under ibid s 32 (as amended): see PARA 784 ante. For the meaning of 'parking place' see PARA 784 note 2 ante.

3 Ibid s 37(1) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 41(2)).

The power to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 37 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 37 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. Orders made under s 37 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Without prejudice to s 124(1), Sch 9 Pt I paras 1-12 (as amended), Sch 9 Pt II paras 13-19 (as amended) and Sch 9 Pt III paras 20-26 (as amended) (see PARAS 736-738 ante), the following provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, ie s 3(1) (as amended) (see PARA 744 ante) so far as it relates to vehicles, s 3(2) (see PARA 744 ante), and s 36(1)(a) (see PARA 784 ante), do not apply to any order to which s 37 (as amended) applies, or to any order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 revoking or varying such an order: s 37(2). Any provision of an order to which s 37 (as amended) applies in so far as it has effect by virtue of s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 ante), or any provision of an order revoking or varying such an order in so far as the order revoked or varied has effect by virtue of s 1 (as amended), may, notwithstanding anything in s 1 (as amended), be made so as to apply to a road for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority: s 37(3) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 41(3)). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante. As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/795. Parking place for use as bus or coach station.

795. Parking place for use as bus or coach station.

Where, in pursuance of the powers of the local authority<sup>1</sup> to provide parking places<sup>2</sup>, a local authority provides a parking place<sup>3</sup> which may be used by public service vehicles<sup>4</sup>, the local authority may, if it thinks fit<sup>5</sup>:

- 518 (1) by order appoint that parking place as a station for, or for a specified class of, public service vehicles<sup>6</sup>;
- 519 (2) by regulation, declare that the statutory restriction on plying for hire or accepting passengers for hire<sup>7</sup> does not apply to public service vehicles, either absolutely or to such extent as may be specified in the regulation<sup>8</sup>.

A local authority by which a parking place is so appointed as a station for public service vehicles may:

- 520 (a) do all such things as are necessary to adapt the parking place for use as such a station, and in particular provide and maintain waiting rooms, ticket offices and lavatories and other similar accommodation in connection with it<sup>9</sup>;
- 521 (b) make reasonable charges for the use of, or let on hire to any person, any accommodation so provided<sup>10</sup>; and
- 522 (c) make regulations as to the use of any such accommodation<sup>11</sup>.

A local authority has power to make such reasonable charges for the use of a parking place (not being part of a road<sup>12</sup>) as a station for public service vehicles as may be fixed by the local authority<sup>13</sup>. If, however, the holder of a PSV operator's licence<sup>14</sup> in respect of any vehicles using the parking place as a station considers that the charges so fixed are unreasonable, then, in default of agreement between the licence holder and the local authority for a reduction of them, the charges in respect of those vehicles are to be such as may be determined by the appropriate traffic commissioner<sup>15</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(i) Provision of Off-street Parking and Parking on Roads without Payment/796. Acquisition of land: provisions as to parking places.

796. Acquisition of land: provisions as to parking places.

A local authority<sup>1</sup> may be authorised by the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> to purchase compulsorily land for purposes of providing parking spaces<sup>3</sup>, letting land on which it could erect or adapt a building for the purpose of providing an off-street parking place with a view to its being provided by some other person<sup>4</sup>, or providing access to premises through an off-street parking place<sup>5</sup>. Land compulsorily acquired by a local authority otherwise than for the purposes of an off-street parking place<sup>6</sup>, and not appropriated for a purpose other than that for which it was acquired, must not be used by it for providing an off-street parking place on it for a period exceeding 12 months except with the consent of the Minister of the Crown who, at the time when his consent is sought, is the minister concerned with the function for the purposes of which the land was acquired<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 784 note 1 ante.

(ii) Control of Off-street Parking

A. IN GREATER LONDON

797. In general.

Specific provisions relating to the control of off-street parking in Greater London<sup>1</sup> apply to any area in Greater London which the local authority<sup>2</sup> may by regulations designate as a controlled area for these purposes; and any such regulations<sup>3</sup>:

- 523 (1) in addition to including any such provision as is authorised<sup>4</sup>, may prescribe forms to be used for these purposes and any other matters<sup>5</sup> which are to be prescribed<sup>6</sup>;
- 524 (2) may include such supplementary, incidental and consequential provision as appear to the local authority to be necessary or expedient for these purposes<sup>7</sup>; and
- 525 (3) may make different provision as respects like matters in different circumstances<sup>8</sup>.

Such regulations so made by a local authority may include provision<sup>9</sup>:

- 526 (a) as to the maximum number of parking spaces to be made available at licensed parking places for all, or for any, of the following descriptions<sup>10</sup> of parking, namely, short term parking<sup>11</sup>, long term parking<sup>12</sup>, casual parking and regular parking or any particular category of regular parking in, or in any specified part of, any controlled area<sup>13</sup>;

- 527 (b) requiring that, in the case of licensed parking places in a particular controlled area or part of a controlled area, all or any of the specified matters<sup>14</sup> are or, as the case may be, are not to be the subject of conditions specified in the licence<sup>15</sup>;
- 528 (c) regulating the conditions which may be imposed with respect to any of the above matters<sup>16</sup>.

1     Ie the provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 43 (as amended): see notes 2-16 infra; and PARA 798 et seq post.

2     For these purposes, 'local authority' means the council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London: ibid s 43(14) (definition substituted by the Local Government Act 1985 ss 8, 102, Sch 5 para 4(17)(d), Sch 17). As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq. As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

For the application of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to the Channel Tunnel system see the Channel Tunnel (Application of Road Traffic Enactments) (No 2) Order 1994, SI 1994/1667, which confers functions exercisable by local authorities on the Channel Tunnel Concessionaires.

The provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 43(1), Sch 4 Pt I (as amended) (see PARA 798 post) apply to the making of any such regulations: s 43(1) (as amended). Orders and regulations made under s 43 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

The local authority for a controlled area must have regard to any regulations for the time being in force under s 43 (as amended) when exercising in that area any of its functions under ss 32-36, 39-41 (as amended) (see PARA 784 et seq ante); and, where a public off-street parking place is provided in a controlled area by the local authority under s 32 (as amended), any such regulations apply to the operation of that parking place with such modifications as may be prescribed for the purpose, being modifications appearing to the local authority to be necessary to ensure that the parking place is operated by or on behalf of the local authority with suitable provision as to the matters referred to in s 43(4)(b), (c)(i)-(iv) (see PARA 800 post) in like manner as if it were being operated under a licence granted by the local authority: s 43(13) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 Sch 5 para 4(17)(c)). For these purposes, 'public off-street parking place' means a place, whether above or below ground and whether or not consisting of or including buildings, where off-street parking accommodation is made available by any person to the public for payment; and references to operating, or to the operation of, or to the operator of, such a parking place are to be construed as references to making, or as the case may be to the person making, such parking accommodation at the parking place so available: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 43(14) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 43). 'Off-street parking accommodation' means parking accommodation for motor vehicles off the highway: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (added by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 78). For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/798. Procedure for making local authority regulations.

798. Procedure for making local authority regulations.

Before deciding to propose the making of regulations under the provisions relating to controlling off-street parking in Greater London<sup>1</sup> with respect to any matter, the local authority must consult with such representative organisations as it thinks fit<sup>3</sup>. If after such consultation the local authority decides to make such a proposal, it must cause to be published in the London Gazette and in one or more daily newspapers circulating throughout Greater London a notice stating that it proposes to make such regulations, giving a summary of their effect, and specifying:

- 529 (1) a place at which provisional draft regulations may be inspected at all reasonable hours and from which a copy of those draft regulations may be obtained on request<sup>4</sup>; and
- 530 (2) a date, not being earlier than six weeks after the date of publication of the notice, by which representations with respect to the draft regulations, which ought to include the grounds for any objection to it, must be sent in writing to the local authority<sup>5</sup>, and, on causing such a notice to be published, the local authority must send a copy of the notice and of the draft regulations to the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup>, and the local authority may not make any regulations in pursuance of the proposal to which the notice relates before the expiration of the period of 12 weeks beginning with the date when the notice is published<sup>7</sup>.

As soon as may be after the date specified by the notice for the making of representations with respect to the draft regulations, the local authority must send to the Secretary of State copies of all representations received by it by that date or, if no representations have been so received, must inform the Secretary of State in writing of that fact<sup>8</sup>.

In the case of any proposal, the Secretary of State may, at any time before the expiration of the period of 12 weeks, give to the local authority a direction in writing that, except with the consent of the Secretary of State, regulations are not to be made in pursuance of that proposal<sup>9</sup>: (a) with respect to all, or with respect to such as may be specified, of the matters to which the proposal relates<sup>10</sup>; or (b) in relation to, or to a specified part of, any specified area which has been or is proposed to be designated as a controlled area<sup>11</sup>. On any such direction being given, the Secretary of State must cause notice of it to be published in the London Gazette and the local authority must comply with that direction<sup>12</sup>.

Where, in the case of any proposal, the Secretary of State has given a direction, he must, as soon thereafter as he is in a position to do so, notify the local authority in writing with respect to each of the matters or areas to which the direction relates:

- 531 (i) that he consents to the making of regulations with respect to that matter or in relation to that area in pursuance of that proposal<sup>13</sup>; or
- 532 (ii) that he is not prepared in any circumstances to consent to the making of such regulations in pursuance of that proposal<sup>14</sup>; or
- 533 (iii) that he is prepared to consider consenting to the making of such regulations in pursuance of that proposal if a revised draft is submitted to him for the purpose of incorporating modifications of a specified nature or in other specified circumstances<sup>15</sup>, and, before deciding the notification to be so given to the local authority with respect to any matter or in relation to any area, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, appoint a person to hold any inquiry in connection with that matter or area<sup>16</sup>.

In the case of any proposal, the local authority may, if it thinks fit, at any time after the expiration of the period of 12 weeks make regulations in pursuance of that proposal with respect to any matter or in relation to certain areas<sup>17</sup>, being regulations either<sup>18</sup>:

- 534 (A) in the form of the provisional draft with any modifications necessary in consequence of any such direction with respect to any other matter or area<sup>19</sup>; or
- 535 (B) in the form of that draft modified in such manner as the local authority thinks fit, whether as a result of any representations<sup>20</sup> or otherwise<sup>21</sup>.

17 In any area which is not subject of a direction under ibid Sch 4 para 3 (as amended) (see the text and notes 9-12 supra), or which is the subject of such a consent under Sch 4 para 4(1)(a) (as amended) (see the text and note 13 supra).

18 Ibid Sch 4 para 5(1) (as amended: see note 8 supra). In deciding in the case of any proposal whether or not to make any regulations in pursuance thereof by virtue of Sch 4 para 5 (as amended), the local authority must have regard to any representations to which Sch 4 para 2 (see the text and note 8 supra) applies; and in deciding whether or not to give any consent under Sch 4 Pt I paras 1-6 (as amended) to the making of regulations by the local authority in pursuance of any such proposal, the Secretary of State must have regard to any such representations, to the report of any person appointed to hold an inquiry under Sch 4 para 4 (as amended) (see the text and notes 13-16 supra) in connection with the proposal in question, and to any such representations as are referred to in Sch 4 para 4(2) (see note 15 supra); and the Secretary of State must cause notice of the giving by him of any consent under Sch 4 Pt I (as amended) to be published in the London Gazette: Sch 4 para 6 (as amended: see note 8 supra).

19 Ibid Sch 4 para 5(1)(a).

20 In any representations to which ibid Sch 4 para 2 (as amended) applies: see the text to note 8 supra.

21 Ibid Sch 4 para 5(1)(b). The local authority may not make any regulations by virtue of Sch 4 para 5(1)(b) unless a draft of the regulations in the form in which they are to be made has been submitted to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of State has given his consent to their being made: Sch 4 para 5(2) (as amended: see note 8 supra).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/799. Application for a licence.

799. Application for a licence.

In a controlled area no person other than the local authority<sup>1</sup> may operate a public off-street parking place<sup>2</sup> of a prescribed<sup>3</sup> description except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of a licence<sup>4</sup> granted to that person by the local authority<sup>5</sup>. Any person who, in contravention of this restriction, operates a public off-street parking place without holding a licence for the purpose is guilty of an offence<sup>6</sup>.

An applicant for a licence in respect of any premises may apply either for a permanent licence or for a licence for such limited period not exceeding five years as the applicant may specify; and any application to the local authority for a licence must be accompanied by the prescribed fee appropriate to the type of licence applied for towards the administrative expenses of the local authority under these provisions<sup>7</sup>; and, on any such application, the local authority may at its discretion either grant the applicant a licence of the type applied for or refuse the application<sup>8</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 797 note 2 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'public off-street parking place' see PARA 797 note 3 ante.

3 See PARA 797 note 6 ante.

4 For these purposes, 'licence' means a licence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 43 (as amended): s 43(14).

5 Ibid s 43(2). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 43(15) (as amended): see s 43(2). The Secretary of State, after consultation with a local authority, may at any time, if it appears to him expedient so to do by reason of any emergency which appears to him to have arisen or to be likely to arise, by order (which must be laid before Parliament after being made) provide that s 43(15) is to apply either in relation to all areas for the time being designated by the local authority as controlled areas or in relation to such parts of any of those areas as may be specified in the order; and: (1) during the period while any such order is in force in relation to any controlled area or part of it, any public off-street parking place in that area or part may be operated as if that area or part were not, or, as the case may be, were not comprised in, a controlled area; and (2) nothing in s 43(10) (see PARA 803 post) or s 43(12) (see the text and note 6 infra) applies to anything done at any such parking place during that period: s 43(15) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(17) (e)). As to the contents of a licence see PARA 800 post. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. A person guilty of an offence under s 43(12) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

8 Ibid s 43(3). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 43(6) (see PARA 797 ante): see s 43(3). The provisions of Sch 4 Pt III paras 14-18 (as amended) (see PARA 804 post) and Sch 4 Pt IV paras 19-24 (as amended) (see PARA 805 post) have effect with respect to appeals and compensation in connection with certain decisions of a local authority under s 43 (as amended) (see further PARAS 797 ante, 800 et seq post); and every person who applies for or is the holder of a licence in respect of any premises must give to any other person known to him to be entitled to any interest in those premises information as soon as may be: (1) of the making of the application; and (2) of any decision of the local authority relating to the premises of which he is, or is deemed under Sch 4 para 14(2) (see PARA 804 notes 15-18 post) to have been, notified by the local authority; and (3) of the bringing, and of the determination or abandonment, of any appeal from any such decision brought by that person under Sch 4 Pt III (as amended): s 43(9) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 102, Sch 17).

800. Contents of a licence.

Every licence<sup>1</sup> must specify:

- 536 (1) the period of its duration, that is to say, whether it is a permanent licence or a licence for a limited period and, if for a limited period, the period for which it is granted<sup>2</sup>;
- 537 (2) the maximum number of parking spaces to be provided at the licensed parking place for all, and, if the local authority<sup>3</sup> thinks fit, for any, of the following

- descriptions of parking, namely, short term parking<sup>4</sup>, long term parking<sup>5</sup>, casual parking and regular parking or any particular category of regular parking<sup>6</sup>;
- 538 (3) any conditions, in addition to those specified in heads (i) and (ii) below, subject to which the licence is granted, being such conditions, if any, as the local authority may think fit with respect to all or any of the following matters<sup>7</sup>:
- 87
159. (a) the scale of charges<sup>8</sup>, or the minimum charges, or the maximum and minimum charges, to be made for the use of parking spaces at the licensed parking place for all, or for any, of the descriptions of parking referred to in head (2) above<sup>9</sup>;
160. (b) the proportion of parking spaces to be available respectively for casual parking and for, or for any specified category of, regular parking<sup>10</sup>;
161. (c) the times of opening and closing of the licensed parking place for the reception of vehicles<sup>11</sup>;
162. (d) the manner in which users of the licensed parking place are to be informed of the effect of the terms and conditions of the licence<sup>12</sup>;
163. (e) the keeping by the operator<sup>13</sup> of the licensed parking place as respects all, or as respects any, of the descriptions of parking referred to in head (2) above of records showing for each day the number of vehicles using parking spaces at the licensed parking place and the sums received by way of charges for the use of those parking spaces<sup>14</sup>.
- 88

It is a condition of every licence:

- 539 (i) that any person authorised in that behalf in writing by the local authority may, subject to production, if requested, of his authority, at all reasonable hours enter on and inspect the licensed parking place<sup>15</sup>; and
- 540 (ii) that the holder of the licence must, on being given reasonable notice for the purpose by any such person, produce to that person and permit him to examine and make copies of, or take extracts from, any records required by virtue of head (3)(e) above to be kept in connection with the operation of that parking place<sup>16</sup>, but, if any such person discloses to any other person, otherwise than in the performance of his duty, any information with regard to the operation of that parking place or to any trade secret obtained by him at that parking place or from any such examination, or if any member or officer of the local authority to which any such information is disclosed by reason of his official position discloses that information to any person, otherwise than in the performance of his duty, that person or, as the case may be, that member or officer is guilty of an offence<sup>17</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/801. Grant, refusal, transfer and revocation of licences generally.

801. Grant, refusal, transfer and revocation of licences generally.

Where the local authority<sup>1</sup> decides<sup>2</sup> to refuse an application for a licence<sup>3</sup> or to grant a licence subject to any conditions which it is not required<sup>4</sup> to impose with respect to any of the specified matters<sup>5</sup>, it must inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for its decision at the same time as it informs him of that decision<sup>6</sup>.

Where a licence has been granted:

- 541 (1) the local authority must, if so requested by a successor in title to the business (so far as it consists of the operation of the licensed parking place) of the person to whom the licence was granted, transfer the licence to that successor in title, but a licence is not otherwise transferable<sup>7</sup>;
- 542 (2) the holder of the licence may at any time surrender it by giving notice in writing for the purpose to the local authority which must include a statement certifying either that the holder is the only person entitled to any interest in the licensed premises or that, not less than 21 days before the date of the notice, the holder has notified all other persons known to him to be so entitled of his intention to serve the notice<sup>8</sup>;
- 543 (3) the local authority may at any time, on the application or with the agreement of the holder of the licence, vary any of the specified terms and conditions<sup>9</sup> in the licence<sup>10</sup>;
- 544 (4) in the case of a permanent licence, the local authority has further powers<sup>11</sup> of revocation or variation of the licence<sup>12</sup>.

Save as otherwise provided<sup>13</sup>, a licence may not be revoked<sup>14</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/802. Revocation or variation of permanent licences.

802. Revocation or variation of permanent licences.

The following provisions apply in relation to any permanent licence<sup>1</sup> granted by the local authority<sup>2</sup>.

If at any time it appears to the local authority expedient to do so in the interests of the proper planning of transport in its area, it may by not less than 12 months' notice in writing to the holder of the licence either revoke the licence or vary certain terms and conditions<sup>3</sup> of it<sup>4</sup>.

If at any time it appears to the local authority that the holder of a licence, whether the person for the time being holding that licence or a previous holder of it, has discontinued making parking spaces available to the public at the licensed parking place and that the discontinuance has lasted for a period of not less than two years, the local authority may, by notice in writing to the holder of the licence, revoke it<sup>5</sup>.

If at any time it appears to the local authority that for a period of not less than two years the person, or each of the persons, who was for the time being during that period the holder of a licence in respect of a licensed parking place has made available to the public at that parking place a substantially lower number of parking spaces than that authorised by the licence, the local authority may, by notice in writing to the holder of the licence, vary certain terms and conditions of the licence<sup>6</sup> so as to authorise the provision at the licensed parking place of only that number of parking spaces which it appears to the local authority was being provided at the date of the notice<sup>7</sup>.

If in the case of a licensed parking place which was ready for operation at the date of the grant of the licence the local authority is satisfied at any time that for a period of not less than two years beginning with that date the person, or each of the persons, who was for the time being during that period the holder of the licence has not made any significant number of parking spaces available to the public at the licensed parking place, the local authority may, by notice in writing to the holder of the licence, revoke it<sup>8</sup>.

Where at the date when the licence was granted, the development as a public off-street parking place<sup>9</sup> of the premises in respect of which the licence was granted had not been begun or had not been completed, then:

- 545 (1) if there has been a period of not less than three years since that date without that development being begun<sup>10</sup>; or
- 546 (2) if there has been a period of not less than seven years since that date without that development being completed<sup>11</sup>; or
- 547 (3) if for a period of not less than two years beginning with the date of the completion of that development the person, or each of the persons, who was for the time being during that period the holder of the licence has not made any significant number of parking spaces available to the public at the licensed parking place<sup>12</sup>, the local authority may, by notice in writing to the holder of the licence, revoke it<sup>13</sup>.

Where, however, notice under the above provisions<sup>14</sup> is given after the expiration of the relevant period referred to therein<sup>15</sup>, the notice is of no effect if it is given more than three months after the expiration of that period<sup>16</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/803. Failure to comply with the terms of a licence.

803. Failure to comply with the terms of a licence.

Any holder of a licence<sup>1</sup> who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the terms and conditions of the licence and who does not show that the contravention or failure was due to an act or omission of a person not connected with the operation of the licensed parking place which the persons so connected could not reasonably have been expected to prevent is guilty of an offence<sup>2</sup>. On the conviction of the holder of a licence of such an offence, the court before which he is convicted may make an order for the revocation of the licence, if on an application made for the purpose by the local authority<sup>3</sup> the court is satisfied that it is proper so to do by reason of the extent to which, or the period over which, or the frequency with which, the holder of the licence has contravened or failed to comply with the terms and conditions of the licence or by reason of the wilfulness of the offence<sup>4</sup>.

804. Rights of appeal.

If a person who is, or who proposes to become, the operator<sup>1</sup> of a public off-street parking place<sup>2</sup> in a controlled area or any other person entitled to an interest in the premises used or proposed to be used for the purposes of that parking place is aggrieved by a decision of the local authority<sup>3</sup>:

548 (1) to refuse an application for the grant of a licence<sup>4</sup> in respect of those premises<sup>5</sup>; or

549 (2) as to the terms and conditions to be specified<sup>6</sup> in a licence granted in respect of those premises<sup>7</sup>; or

- 550 (3) to refuse an application for a variation of the terms and conditions so specified in a permanent licence granted in respect of those premises<sup>8</sup>; or 551 (4) to revoke a licence granted in respect of those premises<sup>9</sup>; or 552 (5) to vary<sup>10</sup> any of the specified terms and conditions<sup>11</sup> in a permanent licence granted in respect of those premises<sup>12</sup>, he may, by notice served within such time (not being less than 28 days from the date of notification of the decision to which it relates) and in such manner as the Secretary of State may<sup>13</sup> direct, appeal to the Secretary of State from that decision<sup>14</sup>.

If, in a case where:

- 553 (a) a person makes an application to the local authority for a licence in respect of premises in respect of which a licence is not for the time being in force<sup>15</sup>; or 554 (b) the person who is the holder of a permanent licence in respect of any premises duly makes an application to the local authority for a specified variation<sup>16</sup> of the terms and conditions of the licence<sup>17</sup>, the local authority has not notified that person of its decision on his application by the expiration of the period of two months beginning with the date when it received the application or such longer period beginning with that date as may have been agreed for the purpose between that person and the local authority, the local authority is deemed for these purposes to have notified that person at the date of the expiration of that period that it has decided to refuse the application<sup>18</sup>.

The Secretary of State is not required to entertain an appeal under these provisions from any decision of a local authority if or to the extent that it appears to him that the decision was necessary in order to comply with the statutory requirements<sup>19</sup> or with any regulations made<sup>20</sup> by the local authority which are for the time being in force<sup>21</sup>.

Before determining such an appeal, the Secretary of State must, if either the appellant or the local authority so requests, afford to each of them an opportunity of appearing before, and being heard by, a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose<sup>22</sup>. If, however, the Secretary of State thinks fit in any case where such a request is made, he may, instead of complying with that request, appoint a person to hold an inquiry in connection with the appeal<sup>23</sup>.

The Secretary of State may by regulations<sup>24</sup> make provisions as to the procedure to be followed in connection with appeals under these provisions, including the procedure in connection with matters preparatory to, or subsequent to, the consideration of the appeal<sup>25</sup>.

On an appeal being brought under the above provisions from a decision of the local authority, the Secretary of State may either dismiss the appeal or substitute for that decision such other decision as he thinks fit; and the decision of the Secretary of State on the appeal is<sup>26</sup> final and is binding both on the appellant and on the local authority, and the local authority must take such steps as may be necessary to give effect to any such substituted decision<sup>27</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/805. Right to compensation in certain circumstances.

805. Right to compensation in certain circumstances.

If, on a claim made to the local authority in writing within the period of six months or such longer period as may be allowed<sup>1</sup> beginning with the date when the person who is (or who proposes to become) the operator of a public off-street parking place<sup>2</sup> is (or is deemed<sup>3</sup> to have been) notified of a decision of the local authority<sup>4</sup> relating to that parking place, that person or any other person entitled to an interest in the premises used or proposed to be used for the purposes of that parking place shows that the decision is a qualifying decision<sup>5</sup> and that the claimant has suffered damage<sup>6</sup> in consequence of that decision by depreciation of the value of his interests in those premises, or by being disturbed in his enjoyment of those premises, the local authority must pay the claimant compensation in respect of that damage<sup>7</sup>.

A qualifying decision is a decision:

- 555 (1) where a person who, at the date when the area is first designated as a controlled area by regulations of the local authority<sup>8</sup>, is the operator<sup>9</sup> of a public off-street parking place at premises in that area which have at that date been used as such a parking place for a continuous period of not less than six months duly makes an application to the local authority for a licence<sup>10</sup> in respect of those premises before the expiration of the period prescribed<sup>11</sup> for such applications in respect of parking places in operation at that date, and the local authority decides either to refuse the application or to grant the applicant a licence on terms and conditions<sup>12</sup> such that under the licence the applicant will not be able to operate the premises as a parking place to such advantage or potential advantage as immediately before he made his application<sup>13</sup>;

- 556 (2) where:

164. (a) at the date when notice of a proposal to make regulations<sup>14</sup> designating an area as a controlled area<sup>15</sup> is published by the local authority<sup>16</sup>: (i) planning permission has been granted for a development which consists of or includes the provision at any premises in that area of a public off-street parking place<sup>17</sup>; and (ii) that development involves substantial building or engineering operations<sup>18</sup>; and (iii) either one or more material operations<sup>19</sup> comprised in that development have begun to be carried out or a contract (other than a lease) has been entered into with a person carrying on a business consisting wholly or mainly of the execution of building operations or of building operations and engineering operations whereby that person has undertaken to erect in the course of that business at such premises a building or structure as a place for the provision of parking places for motor vehicles<sup>20</sup>; and

165. (b) at the date when the area is designated as a controlled area in pursuance of that proposal those premises have not been in use as such a parking place to the full extent provided for by the planning permission for a continuous period of not less than six months<sup>21</sup>; and

166. (c) the person operating or proposing to operate those premises as such a parking place duly makes application to the local authority for a licence in respect of those premises before the expiration of the period prescribed for such applications in respect of parking places in operation at the date referred to in head (2)(b) above<sup>22</sup>; and

167. (d) the local authority decides either to refuse the application or to grant the applicant a licence on terms and conditions<sup>23</sup> such that under the licence the applicant will not be able to operate the premises as such a parking place to such advantage or potential advantage as if the area had not been designated as a controlled area<sup>24</sup>; or

557 (3) made by the local authority:

168. (a) to revoke a permanent licence<sup>25</sup>; or

169. (b) to vary<sup>26</sup> any of the terms and conditions specified in a permanent licence<sup>27</sup> in such manner that the holder of the licence will not be able to operate the licensed parking place to such advantage or potential advantage as if the variation had not been made<sup>28</sup>; or

170. (c) to refuse an application by the holder of a permanent licence for a specified variation of the terms and conditions<sup>29</sup> in a case where<sup>30</sup>: (i) by reason of a happening beyond the control of the holder of the licence he cannot continue to operate the licensed parking place in accordance with the licence as for the time being in force to such advantage or potential advantage as before that happening<sup>31</sup>; and (ii) the making of that variation would wholly or partly mitigate the adverse effects of that happening without enabling the holder of the licence to operate the licensed parking place to greater advantage or potential advantage than before that happening<sup>32</sup>.

1 If within that period of six months any such person as is referred to in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 43(1), Sch 4 para 22(1) has made an application to the Secretary of State for that purpose and has given notice to the local authority of the making of that application, the Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit in the circumstances of the case, direct that Sch 4 para 22(1) is to apply in relation to the decision in question as if for the reference in Sch 4 para 22(1) to six months there were substituted a reference to such longer period as the Secretary of State thinks fit: Sch 4 para 22(2). For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 797 note 2 ante. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'public off-street parking place' see PARA 797 note 3 ante.

3 Ie under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 14(2): see PARA 804 ante.

4 Ie under ibid s 43 (as amended) (see PARA 797 et seq ante) or Sch 4 Pt II paras 7-13 (as amended) (see PARA 802 ante).

5 Ie under ibid Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) or Sch 4 para 20 (as amended) or Sch 4 para 21: see the text and notes 8-32 infra.

6 For the purpose of determining whether or not a claimant has suffered damage, there must be taken into account any alternative use to which the premises could reasonably be put, being a use in the case of which the local authority shows either:

1372 (1) that any necessary planning permission, whether conditional or unconditional, for that use has already been granted; or

1373 (2) that the local planning authority has given an undertaking that, if planning permission for that use is applied for, it will be granted either unconditionally or subject to specified conditions, and, in a case where this provision applies by virtue of ibid Sch 4 para 21(c) (see head 3(c) in the text) there must also be taken into account any alternative variation to that applied for by the holder of the licence in question which the local authority has undertaken to grant on an application being made for that purpose: Sch 4 para 22(3).

7 Ibid Sch 4 para 22(1). The Town and Country Planning Act 1990 s 117 (as amended) (see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(2) (Reissue) PARA 930) applies to any compensation payable under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 22(1) in respect of depreciation of the value of a claimant's interest in the premises concerned; and any question as to the right to, or the amount of, compensation under Sch 4 para 22(1) must be referred to and determined by the Lands Tribunal, and in relation to the determination of any such question the provisions of the Land Compensation Act 1961 s 2 (as amended) and s 4 (see COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF LAND vol 18 (2009) PARA 715 et seq) apply subject to any necessary modifications: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 22(4) (amended by the Planning (Consequential Provisions) Act 1990 s 4, Sch 2 para 64(2)(c)). As to the Lands Tribunal see COMPULSORY ACQUISITION OF LAND vol 18 (2009) PARA 720 et seq.

Where compensation has become payable under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 22(1) in respect of an interest in any premises and subsequently an order with respect to the use of those premises as a parking place is made under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 s 97 (as amended) (see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(1) (Reissue) PARA 541) or s 102 (as amended) (see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(1) (Reissue) PARA 546 et seq) or Sch 9 para 1 (as amended) (see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(2) (Reissue) PARAS 757-758), the amount of that compensation is to be taken into account in assessing any compensation on a claim by reason of expenditure, loss or damage in consequence of that order made in respect of that interest under s 107 (as amended) (see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(2) (Reissue) PARA 914) or, as the case may be, s 115 (see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(2) (Reissue) PARA 923): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 22(5) (amended by the Planning (Consequential Provisions) Act 1990 Sch 2 para 64(2)(c)).

Where notice of appeal from any such decision of the local authority as is referred to in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) (see head (1) in the text), Sch 4 para 20 (as amended) (see head (2) in the text) or Sch 4 para 21 (see head (3) in the text) has been duly given under Sch 4 Pt III paras 14-18 (as amended) (see PARA 804 ante): (1) Sch 4 para 22 (as amended) does not have effect in relation to that decision until that appeal is determined or abandoned; (2) the person who is, or who proposes to become, the operator of a public off-street parking place at the premises to which the decision relates is deemed, for the purposes of Sch 4 para 22 (as amended), to have been notified of the local authority's decision on the date when the appeal is determined or abandoned; and (3) if on that appeal the Secretary of State substitutes a different decision for that of the local authority, the local authority is deemed, for the purposes of Sch 4 para 22 (as amended) to have made that substituted decision and not its original decision: Sch 4 para 23.

Where, in the case of a decision of the local authority relating to any premises, Sch 4 para 22 (as amended) applies to that decision both by virtue of Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) (see head (1) in the text) and by virtue of Sch 4 para 20 (as amended) (see head (2) in the text), then: (a) on the person who is, or who proposes to become, the operator of a public off-street parking place at those premises making a claim in respect of that decision under Sch 4 para 22 (as amended) by virtue of either Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) or Sch 4 para 20 (as amended), any subsequent claim in respect thereof by that person by virtue of the other of Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) and Sch 4 para 20 (as amended), and any claim in respect thereof made whether before or after that person's claim by any other person by virtue of the other of Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) and Sch 4 para 20 (as amended), is of no effect; and (b) subject to head (a) supra, if a claim in respect of that decision is made under Sch 4 para 22 (as amended) by any person by virtue of either of Sch 4 para 19 (as amended) or Sch 4 para 20 (as amended), any subsequent claim in respect thereof by virtue of the other of Sch 4 paras 19 (as amended) and Sch 4 para 20 (as amended) is of no effect: Sch 4 para 24.

805 Right to compensation in certain circumstances

NOTE 7--Reference to the Lands Tribunal is now to the Upper Tribunal: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 4 para 22(4) (amended by SI 2009/1307).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/A. IN GREATER LONDON/806. Permissible periods of unlicensed operation of parking places.

806. Permissible periods of unlicensed operation of parking places.

Where, at the date when any area first becomes a controlled area, a person is operating<sup>1</sup> a public off-street parking place<sup>2</sup> in that area, he is not guilty of an offence<sup>3</sup> by reason of continuing to operate the parking place after that date without a licence<sup>4</sup>:

- 558 (1) at any time before the expiration of the period prescribed<sup>5</sup> for the making of applications for licences in respect of parking places in operation at that date<sup>6</sup>; or
- 559 (2) if during that period he duly makes an application for a licence in respect of the parking place, at any time after the expiration of that period but before the local authority<sup>7</sup> notifies him either that he has been granted a licence or that his application is refused<sup>8</sup>; or
- 560 (3) if the local authority notifies him that his application is refused, at any time thereafter before the expiration of the time for giving notice of appeal from that decision<sup>9</sup>; or
- 561 (4) if such a notice of appeal is duly given, at any time thereafter until either the local authority's decision becomes finally effective<sup>10</sup> or the licence is granted<sup>11</sup>.

Where, in pursuance of the application referred to in head (2) above, the person referred to therein is granted a licence, he is not guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup> by reason of contravening or failing to comply with any of the terms and conditions specified in the licence<sup>13</sup>:

- 562 (a) at any time before the expiration of the time for giving notice of appeal<sup>14</sup> from the decision of the local authority as to those terms and conditions<sup>15</sup>; or
- 563 (b) if such a notice of appeal is duly given, at any time thereafter until either the local authority's decision becomes finally effective<sup>16</sup> or the terms and conditions specified in the licence are varied as a result of that procedure<sup>17</sup>.

Where the operator of a public off-street parking place who is the holder of a licence in respect of that parking place granted for a limited period duly makes an application to the local authority before the date of expiry of that licence for a new licence, whether permanent or for a limited period, authorising the operation of that parking place for a further period after that date, then, if and for so long as he continues to operate that parking place after that date in accordance with the terms and conditions of the expired licence, other than the provision as to its date of expiry<sup>18</sup>:

- 564 (i) he is not guilty of an offence<sup>19</sup> by reason of operating the parking place after such date without a licence<sup>20</sup>;
- 93
- 171. (A) at any time before the local authority notifies him either that he has been granted a new licence in respect of the parking place or that his application is refused<sup>21</sup>; or
- 172. (B) if the local authority notifies him that his application is refused at any time thereafter before the expiration of the period for giving notice of appeal from that decision<sup>22</sup>; or
- 173. (C) if such a notice of appeal is duly given, at any time thereafter until either the local authority's decision becomes finally effective<sup>23</sup> or a new licence is granted<sup>24</sup>;
- 94
- 565 (ii) where he is granted a new licence in pursuance of the application, he is not guilty of an offence<sup>25</sup> by reason of contravening or failing to comply with any of the terms and conditions specified in that new licence<sup>26</sup>;

- 95
- 174. (A) at any time before the expiration of the time for giving notice of appeal<sup>27</sup> from the decision of the local authority as to those terms and conditions<sup>28</sup>; or
- 175. (B) if such a notice of appeal is duly given, at any time thereafter until either the local authority's decision becomes finally effective<sup>29</sup> or the terms and conditions specified in the new licence are varied<sup>30</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(ii) Control of Off-street Parking/B. OUTSIDE GREATER LONDON/807. Control of off-street licensed parking in controlled areas outside Greater London.

B. OUTSIDE GREATER LONDON

807. Control of off-street licensed parking in controlled areas outside Greater London.

With a view to providing further means of regulating traffic in urban areas, Her Majesty may by Order in Council provide for enabling the operation of public off-street parking places<sup>1</sup> to be regulated in English counties, by the county council or metropolitan district council, and in Welsh counties or county boroughs, by the county council or (as the case may be) county borough council, by the county council<sup>2</sup>. Such an Order may make any such provision for the remainder of England and Wales as is made for Greater London<sup>3</sup> and must be so framed as to conform with the London provisions<sup>4</sup> as respects all matters there dealt with, subject only to the modifications permitted or required by the following provision and other minor and incidental modifications<sup>5</sup>. The modifications referred to above are that the Order:

- 566 (1) must provide for controlled areas to be so designated that they comprise only premises to which there is no road access otherwise than (directly or indirectly) from one or more urban roads<sup>6</sup>;
- 567 (2) may in relation to non-metropolitan counties in England provide for certain functions of local authorities<sup>7</sup> under the London provisions in respect of areas designated as controlled areas to be conferred on district councils or on both county councils and district councils, and may in consequence of any such distribution of functions make such incidental and supplementary provision as appears to Her Majesty to be necessary or expedient<sup>8</sup>;
- 568 (3) may include, in place of references and requirements which are apposite only for London, corresponding references and requirements apposite for other areas of Great Britain<sup>9</sup>.

Any such Order must also require councils to consult organisations representative of the disabled before deciding to propose the designation of a controlled area under the Order<sup>10</sup> and, if representations are received from such organisations about the proposal, require councils to send to the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup> (together with copies of representations received from other organisations consulted) a statement of how parking requirements of the disabled arising from implementation of the proposal are met by existing facilities or, if in the opinion of the council they are not already so met, how it is intended to meet them<sup>12</sup>. Such an Order is subject to annulment by resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>13</sup>.

807 Control of off-street licensed parking in controlled areas outside Greater London

NOTE 2--SI 1978/1535, SI 1986/225 amended: SI 2009/1307.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/808. Designation of parking places in general.

(iii) Designated Parking Places

808. Designation of parking places in general.

A local authority<sup>1</sup> may by order designate parking places on highways in its area for vehicles or vehicles of any class<sup>2</sup> specified in the order, and the authority may make charges<sup>3</sup> for vehicles left in a parking place so designated<sup>4</sup>. The exercise of this power by a local authority in relation to a highway for which it is not the traffic authority<sup>5</sup> is subject to obtaining the consent of the traffic authority<sup>6</sup>. Such an order may designate a parking place for use (either at all times or at times specified in the order) only by such persons or vehicles, or such persons or vehicles of a class specified in the order, as may be authorised for the purpose by a permit from the authority operating the parking place or both by such persons or vehicles or classes of persons or vehicles and also, with or without charge and subject to such conditions as to duration of parking or times at which parking is authorised, by such other persons or vehicles, or persons or vehicles of such other class, as may be specified<sup>7</sup>; and

- 569 (1) in the case of any particular parking place and any particular vehicle, or any vehicle of a particular class, the authority operating the parking place may issue a permit for that vehicle to be left in the parking place while the permit remains in force, either at all times or at such times as may be specified in the permit<sup>8</sup>; and
- 570 (2) except in the case of a public service vehicle<sup>9</sup>, may make such charge in connection with the issue or use of the permit, of such amount and payable in such manner, as the authority by which the designation order was made may by order prescribe<sup>10</sup>.

In determining what parking places are to be so designated the authority concerned<sup>11</sup> must consider both the interests of traffic and those of the owners and occupiers of adjoining property, and in particular the matters to which that authority must have regard include<sup>12</sup>:

- 571 (a) the need for maintaining the free movement of traffic<sup>13</sup>;
- 572 (b) the need for maintaining reasonable access to premises<sup>14</sup>; and
- 573 (c) the extent to which off-street parking accommodation<sup>15</sup>, whether in the open or under cover, is available in the neighbourhood or the provision of such parking accommodation is likely to be encouraged there by the designation of parking places under this provision<sup>16</sup>.

The exercise by an authority of such functions does not render the authority subject to any liability in respect of the loss of or damage to any vehicle in a parking place or the contents or fittings of any such vehicle<sup>17</sup>.

Subject to certain statutory provisions<sup>18</sup>, where it appears to the authority concerned to be expedient to do so having regard to any objections duly made in respect of proposals made by that authority for a designation order it may, if it thinks fit, make an interim order pursuant to the proposals or application in respect of any one or more of the sites affected, or in respect of any part of any of those sites, and postpone for further consideration the making of any further order in pursuance of the proposals or application<sup>19</sup>.

1 For these purposes, and for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 46-55 (as amended) (see PARA 810 et seq post), 'local authority' in England means the council of a county, metropolitan district or London borough or the Common Council of the City of London or Transport for London; and in Wales means the council of a county or county borough: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(7)(a), (b) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(19)(b); the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 22(1), Sch 7 para 38(3); and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 281(1), (4)). For these purposes, and for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 46-55 (as amended) (see PARA 810 et seq post), 'the local authority' in relation to a parking place or proposed parking place on any site means the local authority (as defined above) in whose area the site is unless the site is in Greater London, in which case: (1) if the site is on a GLA road and the parking place is, or is proposed to be, designated by Transport for London, 'the local authority' means Transport for London; (2) if the site is on a GLA road and the parking place is, or is proposed to be, designated by the London local authority in whose area the site is, 'the local authority' means that London local authority; and (3) if the site is on a highway which is not a GLA road, 'the local authority' means the London local authority in whose area the site is: s 45(7) (amended by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 ss 22(1), 66(8), Sch 7 para 38(3), Sch 18; and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 281(1), (5)). For these purposes, 'London local authority' means the council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(8) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 281(1), (6)). For these purposes, and for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 46-55 (as amended) (see PARA 810 et seq post), Transport for London's area is to be taken to be Greater London: s 45(9) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 281(1), (6)). As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante. As to local government areas and authorities see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 22 et seq; LONDON GOVERNMENT. As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

2 As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante.

3 le of such amount as may be prescribed under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 46 (as amended): see PARA 810 post.

4 Ibid s 45(1) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 Pt II para 44(2)). 'Designation order' means an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45 (as amended), including any order so made by virtue of s 50(1) (repealed); and 'designated parking place' means a parking place designated by a designation order: s 142(1). Transport for London may not by virtue of s 45(1) (as substituted and amended) designate parking places on any highway which is not a GLA road: s 45(1A) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 281(1), (3)).

Nothing in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45 (as amended) can affect the operation of s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 32 (see PARA 784 ante): s 45(5).

The power to make an order under s 45 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 45 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. Orders and regulations made under s 45 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

10 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(2)(b).

11 It has been held that: (1) what is lawful to take into account in administering a given statutory scheme will depend on the policy and objects of the statute; (2) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 is not to be used to raise revenue; and (3) the process of consultation must be effective, and looked at as a whole it must be fair: Cran v Camden London Borough Council [1995] RTR 346, sub nom R v Camden London Borough Council, ex p Cran (1995) 94 LGR 8. This requires that consultation must take place while the proposals are still at a formative stage; those consulted must be provided with information which is accurate and sufficient to enable them to make a meaningful response; they must be given adequate time to do so; there must be adequate time for their responses to be considered; and the consulting party must consider the responses with a receptive mind and in a conscientious manner when reaching its decision.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/809. Parking outside designated parking places in London.

809. Parking outside designated parking places in London.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

In application to participating councils<sup>2</sup> and to Transport for London<sup>3</sup>, there is a prohibition on the waiting of vehicles in the following circumstances:

- 574 (1) where the vehicle is on the carriageway of a road<sup>4</sup> and wholly or partly within a special parking area<sup>5</sup>; and
- 575 (2) where no part of the vehicle is within 50 centimetres of the edge of the carriageway<sup>6</sup>; and

- 576 (3) where the vehicle is not wholly within a designated parking place or any other part of a road in respect of which the waiting of vehicles is specifically authorised<sup>7</sup>, and such prohibition is enforceable as if it had been imposed by an order under the provision<sup>8</sup> relating to orders similar to traffic regulation orders<sup>9</sup>.

However, this does not prohibit the driver of a vehicle from causing it to stop in the circumstances mentioned in heads (1) to (3) above<sup>10</sup>:

- 577 (a) if the driver is prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control or it is necessary for him to stop in order to avoid an accident<sup>11</sup>;
 578 (b) if the vehicle is stopped for the purpose of making a left or right turn<sup>12</sup>;
 579 (c) if the vehicle is being used for fire and rescue authority, ambulance or police purposes<sup>13</sup>;
 580 (d) for so long as may be necessary up to a maximum of 20 minutes for the delivery or collection of goods or merchandise or the loading or unloading of the vehicle at any premises if that cannot reasonably be carried out as respects those premises without stopping in the circumstances mentioned in heads (1) to (3) above<sup>14</sup>;
 581 (e) for so long as may be necessary to enable the vehicle, if it cannot be used for such purpose without stopping in the circumstances mentioned in heads (1) to (3) above, to be used in connection with any building operation, demolition or excavation, the collection of waste by any participating council, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of the road, or the laying, erection, alteration, repair or cleaning of any traffic sign or sewer or of any main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity, or of any telegraph or telephone wires, cables, posts or supports<sup>15</sup>;
 582 (f) for so long as may be necessary for the purpose of enabling persons to board or alight from the vehicle<sup>16</sup>.

1 The London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 5 (as substituted and amended) is repealed, as from a day to be appointed, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1. The appointed day in relation to England is 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but at the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

809 Parking outside designated parking places in London

TEXT AND NOTE 1--Repeal of 1995 Act s 5 deferred: SI 2007/2053 (amended by SI 2008/757).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/810. Charges at, and regulation of, designated parking places.

810. Charges at, and regulation of, designated parking places.

The authority by which a designation order<sup>1</sup> is made with respect to any parking place outside Greater London, and not in a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions<sup>2</sup>, must by order prescribe any charges to be paid for vehicles left in a parking place designated by the order, and any such charge may be prescribed either<sup>3</sup>: (1) as an amount (an 'initial charge') payable in respect of an initial period and an amount (an 'excess charge') payable, in addition to an initial charge, in respect of any excess over an initial period<sup>4</sup>; or (2) as an amount payable regardless of the period for which a vehicle is left<sup>5</sup>.

Where the authority by which a designation order is made with respect to any parking place in Greater London, or outside Greater London in a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions, imposes charges to be paid for vehicles left in a parking place designated by the order, those charges must be prescribed by the designation order or by a separate order made by the authority<sup>6</sup>.

The authority by which a designation order is made may<sup>7</sup> by order make such provision as may appear to that authority to be necessary or expedient for regulating or restricting the use of any parking place designated by the order, or otherwise for or in connection with the operation of such a parking place, and in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing words) it may make provision<sup>8</sup>:

- 583 (a) for regulating the time at which and the method by which any charge is to be paid and for requiring the use of apparatus (a 'parking meter') being apparatus designed either<sup>9</sup>: (i) to indicate whether any charge has been paid and whether the period for which it has been paid or any further period has elapsed<sup>10</sup>; or (ii) to indicate the time and to issue tickets indicating the payment of a charge and the period in respect of which it has been paid<sup>11</sup>;

- 584 (b) for treating the indications given by a parking meter or any ticket issued by it, or the absence of any such ticket from a vehicle left in a parking place, as evidence of such facts as may be provided by the order<sup>12</sup>;
- 585 (c) for prohibiting the insertion in a parking meter of coins or bank notes additional to those inserted by way of payment of any charge, or for prohibiting the insertion or re-insertion in a parking meter of a credit or debit card<sup>13</sup> additional to the original insertion of such a card<sup>14</sup>;
- 586 (d) for enabling the local authority<sup>15</sup> to determine, subject to any restrictions specified in the order, the number and dimensions of the spaces in which vehicles may be left in a parking place<sup>16</sup>;
- 587 (e) for authorising the alteration of the position in a parking place, or the removal from a parking place, of vehicles in respect of which any order relating to the parking place has been contravened or not complied with and for the safe custody of vehicles so removed<sup>17</sup>;
- 588 (f) for exempting from the payment of any charge any vehicle left in a parking place in such circumstances as may be specified in the order, and for treating any vehicle so exempted as having been left there, and the charge from which it is exempted as having been paid, at such time as may be so specified<sup>18</sup>;
- 589 (g) for prohibiting or restricting the carrying on of trade or other activities, or the doing of any other thing, at a parking place<sup>19</sup>;
- 590 (h) for conferring on the local authority powers of illuminating parking places, and of erecting notices or signs and carrying out work on or in the vicinity of a parking place<sup>20</sup>;
- 591 (i) for regulating the grant, revocation and surrender of any permit<sup>21</sup> and the issue, use and surrender of tokens indicating the holding of such a permit, or the payment of any charge in connection with the issue or use of the permit<sup>22</sup>;
- 592 (j) for requiring a vehicle to which such a permit applies to display the permit or such a token when left in a parking place to which the permit applies, and for treating the display of, or failure to display, the permit or such a token on any vehicle left at a parking place as evidence of such facts as may be provided by the order<sup>23</sup>;
- 593 (k) for the refund, in such circumstances and in such manner as may be prescribed by the order, of the amount of any charge paid in advance<sup>24</sup>.

Where provision is made for the use of parking meters it is the duty of the local authority to take such steps as appears to it to be appropriate for the periodical inspection of the meters and for dealing with any found to be out of order, for securing the testing of the meters, both before they are brought into force and afterwards, and for recording the date on which, and the person by whom, a meter has been tested<sup>25</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'designation order' see PARA 808 note 4 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'civil enforcement area for parking contraventions' has the same meaning as in the Traffic Management Act 2004 Pt 6 (ss 72-93) (as amended): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 46(6) (added by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 1(1), (4)). See PARA 888 post.

3 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 46(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 64(1)). ## 811. Variation of charges at designated parking places.

Where<sup>1</sup> any charges have been prescribed by a designation order<sup>2</sup> or by an order under the provisions relating to charges at, and the regulation of, designated parking places<sup>3</sup>, the authority making that order may vary those charges by notice<sup>4</sup>. The variation of any such charges by notice is not to be taken to prejudice any power to vary those charges by order under the provisions<sup>5</sup> relating to charges at, and the regulation of, designated parking places<sup>6</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>7</sup> may by regulations<sup>8</sup> make provision as to the procedure to be followed by any local authority<sup>9</sup> giving such notice<sup>10</sup>. The regulations may, in particular, make provision with respect to: (1) the publication, where an authority propose to give notice, of details of its proposal<sup>11</sup>; (2) the form and manner in which notice is to be given<sup>12</sup>; and (3) the publication of notices<sup>13</sup>. In giving any such notice a local authority must comply with the regulations<sup>14</sup>.

811 Variation of charges at designated parking places

NOTE 8--SI 1996/2489 amended: SI 2009/1116 (England).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/812. Offences relating to designated parking places outside Greater London.

812. Offences relating to designated parking places outside Greater London.

A person who:

- 594 (1) being the driver<sup>1</sup> of a vehicle, leaves the vehicle in a designated parking place<sup>2</sup> otherwise than as authorised by or under an order relating to the parking place, or leaves the vehicle in a designated parking place for longer after the excess charge<sup>3</sup> has been incurred than the time so authorised, or fails duly to pay any charge payable<sup>4</sup>, or contravenes or fails to comply with any provision of an order relating to the parking place as to the manner in which vehicles must stand in, or be driven into or out of, the parking place<sup>5</sup>; or
- 595 (2) whether being the driver of a vehicle or not, otherwise contravenes or fails to comply with any order relating to designated parking places<sup>6</sup>,

is guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>.

A person who, with intent to defraud, interferes with a parking meter<sup>8</sup>, or operates or attempts to operate a parking meter by the insertion of objects other than current coins or bank notes of the appropriate denomination, or the appropriate credit or debit cards<sup>9</sup>, is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

Where, in any proceedings for such an offence of failing to pay any charge, it is proved that the amount which has become due, or any part of that amount, has not been duly paid, the court must order the payment of the sum not paid, and any sum so ordered to be paid is recoverable as a penalty<sup>11</sup>. Where in any proceedings for such an offence of failing to pay an excess charge it is not proved that the excess charge had become due, but it is proved that an initial charge<sup>12</sup> has not been paid, the defendant may be convicted of an offence of failing to pay an initial charge<sup>13</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'designated parking place' see PARA 808 note 4 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'excess charge' see PARA 810 ante.

4 Ie under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45 (as amended): see PARA 808 ante.

5 Ibid s 47(1)(a). In relation to an offence under s 47(1)(a) of leaving a vehicle for longer after the excess charge has been incurred than the time authorised by an order relating to the parking place, or failing duly to pay any charge payable under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante), the reference in s 47(1)(a) to the driver of a vehicle is to be construed as a reference to the person driving the vehicle at the time when it was left in the parking place: s 47(2).

6 Ibid s 47(1)(b).

7 Ibid s 47(1). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 48 (see PARA 813 post): see s 47(1). A person guilty of an offence under s 47(1) is liable on summary conviction to: (1) a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale in the case of an offence committed by a person in a street parking place reserved for disabled persons' vehicles where that person would not have been guilty of that offence if the motor vehicle in respect of which was committed had been a disabled person's vehicle; or (2) a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale in any other case: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 47(1) of breaching a provision of a parking place designation order and other offences committed in relation to a parking place designated by such an order, except any offence of failing to pay an excess charge within the meaning of s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 ante) is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 47(1) (as amended) does not apply in relation to any designated parking place in Greater London: s 47(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 65(1)). This disapplication is repealed, in relation to England, with effect from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

As to the disapplication of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 47(1) (as amended) in relation to permitted parking areas outside London and special parking areas outside London see PARAS 820-821 post.

8 For the meaning of 'parking meter' see PARA 810 ante.

9 For the meanings of 'credit card' and 'debit card' see PARA 791 notes 6, 7 ante; definitions applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 46(5).

10 Ibid s 47(3) (amended by the Parking Act 1989 s 4, Schedule para 3). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I.

813. Acceptance of payment as a bar to proceedings.

Where a parking meter<sup>1</sup> relating to the space in which a vehicle is left in a designated parking place<sup>2</sup> indicates that the period for which payment was made for the vehicle by an initial charge<sup>3</sup> has expired, but the authority by which the parking place is controlled is satisfied that the initial charge was not paid, acceptance by the authority of payment of the excess charge<sup>4</sup> is a bar to proceedings for an offence<sup>5</sup> of failing to pay the initial charge<sup>6</sup>.

Where in the case of any vehicle:

- 596 (1) an authorisation by way of a certificate, other means of identification or device<sup>7</sup>, or a permit or token<sup>8</sup> has been issued with respect to the vehicle<sup>9</sup>; and
- 597 (2) the authority by which a designated parking place is controlled is satisfied that, in accordance with the terms on which the authorisation was issued, a charge has become payable and has not been paid in respect of any period for which the vehicle has been left in that parking place<sup>10</sup>, acceptance by that authority of payment of the amount of that charge is a bar to proceedings for an offence<sup>11</sup> of failing duly to pay the charge<sup>12</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/814. Supplementary provisions as to designation orders and designated parking places.

814. Supplementary provisions as to designation orders and designated parking places.

Where under a designation order<sup>1</sup> vehicles may not be left at all times in the designated parking place<sup>2</sup>:

- 598 (1) the parking place must for certain purposes<sup>3</sup> be treated, as respects any time during which vehicles may not be left there in pursuance of the order, as if it were not designated by the order<sup>4</sup>; and
- 599 (2) any vehicle left in the parking place which remains there at the beginning of a period during which vehicles may be left there in pursuance of the order must, for those purposes, be treated as if it had been left there at the beginning of that period, but without prejudice to any rights or liabilities in respect of anything done or omitted at any time before the beginning, or after the end, of that period<sup>5</sup>.

A designation order may revoke the designation of any place as a parking place<sup>6</sup> and such an order, or an order<sup>7</sup> containing a designation of a place as a parking place, may provide that the designation is not to have effect as respects any time in respect of which provision is made<sup>8</sup> for the leaving of vehicles in that place<sup>9</sup>.

The authority by which a parking place is designated<sup>10</sup> may by order empower the local authority<sup>11</sup>, the chief officer of police<sup>12</sup> or any other person specified by or under the order to provide for the moving, in case of emergency, of vehicles left in the parking place; to suspend the use of the parking place or any part of it on such occasions or in such circumstances as may be determined by or under the order; and to provide for the temporary removal of any parking meters<sup>13</sup> installed at the parking place<sup>14</sup>.

A constable<sup>15</sup>, or a person acting under the instructions (whether general or specific) of the chief officer of police, may suspend the use of a parking place so designated<sup>16</sup> for not more than seven days in order to prevent or mitigate congestion or obstruction of traffic, or danger to or from traffic, in consequence of extraordinary circumstances<sup>17</sup>. Any local authority may acquire, whether by purchase or by hiring, such parking meters and other apparatus as appear to the authority to be required or likely to be required for the purposes<sup>18</sup> of its statutory functions<sup>19</sup>.

815. Parking devices for designated parking places.

Any power of a local authority<sup>1</sup> to make charges<sup>2</sup> for vehicles left in a designated parking place<sup>3</sup> includes power to require those charges, or any part of them, to be paid by means of the hire or purchase in advance, or the use, of parking devices<sup>4</sup> in accordance with any relevant provision<sup>5</sup> of an order<sup>6</sup>. Any power of a local authority to make orders<sup>7</sup> includes power by any such order to make provision<sup>8</sup>:

- 600 (1) for regulating the issue, use and surrender of parking devices<sup>9</sup>;
- 601 (2) for requiring vehicles to display parking devices when left in any parking place in respect of which the parking devices may be used<sup>10</sup>;
- 602 (3) without prejudice to the generality of head (2) above, for regulating the manner in which parking devices are to be displayed or operated<sup>11</sup>;

- 603 (4) for prescribing the use, and the manner of use, of apparatus designed to be used in connection with parking devices<sup>12</sup>;
- 604 (5) for treating the indications given by a parking device, or the display or the failure to display a parking device on or in any vehicle left in any parking place, as evidence of such facts as may be provided by the order<sup>13</sup>;
- 605 (6) for the refund, in such circumstances and in such manner as may be prescribed in the order, of the whole or part of the amount of any charge paid in advance in respect of a parking device<sup>14</sup>;
- 606 (7) for the payment of a deposit in respect of the issue of a parking device and for the repayment of the whole or part of any such deposit<sup>15</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 808 note 1 ante.

2 le under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45 (as amended): see PARA 808 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'designated parking place' see PARA 808 note 4 ante.

4 In the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 51 (as substituted) and s 52 (as amended) (see PARA 816 post), 'parking device' means either a card, disc, token, meter, permit, stamp or other similar device, whether used in a vehicle or not, which, being used either by itself or in conjunction with any such apparatus as is referred to in s 51(2)(d) (as substituted) (see head (4) in the text), indicates, or causes to be indicated, the payment of a charge, and:

1374 (1) the period in respect of which it has been paid and the time of the beginning or end of the period; or

1375 (2) whether or not the period for which it has been paid or any further period has elapsed; or

1376 (3) the period for which the vehicle in relation to which the parking place is used is permitted to park in the parking place, and the time of the beginning or end of the period; or

1377 (4) whether or not the period for which the vehicle in relation to which the parking device is used is permitted to park in the parking place or any further period has elapsed, or any other device of any such description as may from time to time be prescribed for the purposes of s 51 (as substituted) and s 52 (as amended) by order made by the Secretary of State: ss 51(4), 142(1) (s 51 substituted by the Road Traffic Regulation (Parking) Act 1986 s 2(1); and the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 51(4) amended by the Parking Act 1989 s 4, Schedule para 4; and the Deregulation (Parking Equipment) Order 1996 SI 1996/1553, art 2(1)(a), Schedule). In relation to orders made before 12 June 1996 see the Deregulation (Parking Equipment) Order 1996 SI 1996/1553, art 3. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

An order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 51(4) (as substituted and amended) which revokes or amends a previous order under that provision may make such saving and transitional provision as appears to the Secretary of State to be necessary or expedient: s 51(4A) (s 51 as so substituted; and s 51(4A) added by the Parking Act 1989 s 4, Schedule para 4). The power to make orders under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 51(4) (as substituted and amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of resolution of either House of Parliament: s 51(4B) (s 51 as so substituted; and s 51(4B) added by the Parking Act 1989 Schedule para 4).

At the date at which this volume states the law no order had been made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 51(4) (as substituted and amended).

1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/817. Designation orders outside Greater London.

817. Designation orders outside Greater London.

A designation order<sup>1</sup> made in respect of highways in any area outside Greater London may include such provisions:

- 607 (1) for any of certain purposes relating to provisions which may be made by a traffic regulation order<sup>2</sup>; or
- 608 (2) for authorising the use without charge (subject to such, if any, conditions as may be specified in the order) of any part of a road<sup>3</sup> as a parking place for vehicles, or for vehicles of such classes<sup>4</sup> as may be specified in the order<sup>5</sup>, as the authority making the order may consider appropriate in connection with the designation order<sup>6</sup>.

A designation order making provision for any of the purposes referred to in head (1) above may vary or revoke any subsisting provision made for any of those purposes under the provisions relating to traffic regulation orders outside Greater London<sup>7</sup>. A person who uses a vehicle, or causes or permits a vehicle to be used, in contravention of any provision of a designation order having effect by virtue of head (1) above is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>.

A designation order making such provision as is mentioned in head (2) above may include provision for the removal, from any place authorised by virtue of that head to be used as a parking place, of any vehicle left there in contravention of the order, and for the safe custody of the vehicle<sup>9</sup>. In the event of a contravention of, or non-compliance with, a provision of a designation order having effect by virtue of head (2) above, the person responsible, as determined in accordance with the order, is guilty of an offence<sup>10</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'designation order' see PARA 808 note 4 ante.

2 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 53(1)(a). The purposes referred to in the text are the purposes specified in s 2(2)(a)-(c) (as amended) (see PARA 743 ante): s 53(1)(a). For the meaning of 'traffic regulation order' see PARA 742 ante.

6 Ibid s 53(1) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 45). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 47 (as amended) (see PARA 812 ante) does not apply to contraventions of, or failures to comply with, any provisions of a designation order having effect by virtue of s 53(1) (as amended): s 53(4).

The power to make an order under s 53 (as amended) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARAS 736-741 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 53 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). Orders made under s 53 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

7 Ibid s 53(2). The provisions relating to traffic regulation orders outside Greater London referred to in the text are the provisions of s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 ante): s 53(2).

8 Ibid s 53(5). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 53(5) of using a vehicle in contravention of any provision of a parking place designation order having effect by virtue of s 53(1)(a) (inclusion of certain traffic regulation provisions: see head (1) in the text) is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic

Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

As to the disapplication of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 53(5) in relation to permitted parking areas outside London see PARA 820 post.

9 Ibid s 53(3).

10 Ibid s 53(6). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 53(6) of breaching a provision of a parking place designation order having effect by virtue of s 53(1)(b) (use of any part of a road for parking without charge: see head (2) in the text) is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(iii) Designated Parking Places/818. Financial provisions relating to designated parking places.

818. Financial provisions relating to designated parking places.

A local authority<sup>1</sup> must keep an account of its income and expenditure in respect of parking places for which it is the local authority and which are, in the case of Transport for London<sup>2</sup>, the council of a London borough and the Common Council of the City of London, parking places on the highway, and, in the case of any other authority, designated parking places<sup>3</sup>.

At the end of each financial year any deficit in the account must be made good out of the general fund or, in Wales, council fund; and, subject to the following provision, any surplus must be applied for all or any of the following purposes<sup>4</sup>:

- 609 (1) the making good to the general fund or, in Wales, council fund of any amount charged to that fund<sup>5</sup> in the four years immediately preceding the financial year in question<sup>6</sup>;
- 610 (2) meeting all or any part of the cost of the provision and maintenance by the local authority of off-street parking accommodation<sup>7</sup>, whether in the open or under cover<sup>8</sup>;
- 611 (3) the making to other local authorities or to other persons of contributions towards the cost of the provision and maintenance by them, in the area of the local authority or elsewhere, of off-street parking accommodation, whether in the open or under cover<sup>9</sup>;
- 612 (4) if it appears to the local authority that the provision in its area of further off-street parking accommodation is unnecessary or undesirable, the following purposes: (a) meeting costs incurred, whether by the local authority or by some other person, in the provision or operation of, or of facilities for, public passenger transport services; (b) the purposes of a highway improvement project<sup>10</sup> in the local authority's area; (c) in the case of a London authority, meeting costs incurred by the authority in respect of the maintenance of roads maintained at the public expense by it; (d) the purposes of environmental improvement<sup>11</sup> in the local authority's area; and (e) in the case of such local authorities as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>, any other purposes for which the authority may lawfully incur expenditure<sup>13</sup>;
- 613 (5) in the case of a London authority<sup>14</sup>, meeting all or any part of the cost of the doing by the authority in its area of anything: (a) which facilitates the

- implementation of the London transport strategy<sup>15</sup>; and (b) which is for the time being specified in that strategy as a purpose for which a surplus may be applied by virtue of this provision<sup>16</sup>;
- 614 (6) in the case of a London authority, the making to any other London authority of contributions towards the cost of the doing by that other authority of anything towards the doing of which in its own area the authority making the contribution has power: (a) to apply any surplus on the account required to be kept<sup>17</sup>; or (b) to incur expenditure required to be brought into that account<sup>18</sup>.

In so far as it is not so applied, it must be appropriated to the carrying out of some specific project falling within those purposes and carried forward until applied to carrying it out<sup>19</sup>. If the local authority so determines, any amount not applied in any financial year, instead of being or remaining so appropriated, may be carried forward in the account so kept<sup>20</sup> to the next financial year<sup>21</sup>.

Transport for London, the council of each London borough and the Common Council of the City of London must, after each financial year, report to the Mayor of London on any action taken by them<sup>22</sup> in respect of any deficit or surplus in their accounts for the year<sup>23</sup>. Such a report must be made as soon after the end of the financial year to which it relates as is reasonably possible<sup>24</sup>.

820. Permitted parking areas outside London.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

Where an application for a permitted parking area order<sup>2</sup> is made to the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>:

617 (1) with respect to the whole, or any part, of its area, by a county council in England<sup>4</sup>;

618 (2) with respect to the whole, or any part, of its area, by a county council or county borough council in Wales<sup>5</sup>;

619 (3) with respect to the whole of its area, by a metropolitan district council<sup>6</sup>;

620 (4) with respect to the whole of their areas, by two or more metropolitan district councils acting jointly<sup>7</sup>;

621 (5) with respect to the whole, or any part, of the Isles of Scilly, by the Council of the Isles of Scilly<sup>8</sup>,

he may make an order designating the whole, or any part, of the area to which the application relates as a permitted parking area<sup>9</sup>. Before making any such order, the Secretary of State must consult the appropriate chief officer of police<sup>10</sup>.

1 The provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 43, Sch 3 (as amended) are repealed, as from a day to be appointed, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1. The appointed day in relation to England is 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but at the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

2 Any power to make an order conferred by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 43(1), Sch 3 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: Sch 3 para 4(1). Any such statutory instrument is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: Sch 3 para 4(2). Orders made under Sch 3 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

5 Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(1)(aa) (added by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 Sch 7 para 43, Sch 18).

6 Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(1)(b).

7 Ibid Sch 3 para 1(1)(c).

8 Ibid Sch 3 para 1(1)(f).

9 Ibid Sch 3 para 1(1). Where any vehicle which is stationary in a permitted parking area, in circumstances in which an offence would have been committed with respect to the vehicle but for Sch 3 para 1 (as amended), a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle by the owner of the vehicle: Sch 3 para 3(1), (2). An order under Sch 3 para 1 (as amended) designating a permitted parking area may: (1) provide for such provisions of Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate to apply, with such modifications (if any) as he considers appropriate, in relation to the permitted parking area in question; and (2) make such modifications of any enactment, including any provision of the Road Traffic Act 1991, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of the provisions of Sch 3 para 1 (as amended), Sch 3 para 3 or the order: Sch 3 para 3(3).

10 Ibid Sch 3 para 1(3). As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

While such an order is in force, the following provisions cease to apply in relation to the permitted parking area designated by the order:

1378 (1) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35A(1) (as added) (see PARA 791 ante), so far as it relates to the contravention of, or non-compliance with, any provision of an order made under s 35 (as amended) (use of parking places) (see PARA 790 ante) in relation to parking places provided under s 32(1)(b) (power of local authorities to provide free parking places on roads) (see PARA 784 ante) (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(4)(a));

1379 (2) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35A(1) (as added) (see PARA 791 ante), so far as it relates to the contravention of, or non-compliance with, any other provision of any order made under s 35 (as amended) (use of parking places) (see PARA 790 ante) applying in relation to a stationary vehicle (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(4)(ab) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Schedule 3) (England and Wales) Order 1996, SI 1996/500, art 2(2)));

1380 (3) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 47(1) (as amended) (see PARA 812 ante) in so far as it applies in relation to any designated parking place (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(4)(b)); and 1381 (4) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 53(5), (6) (see PARA 817 ante) so far as it applies in relation to stationary vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(4)(c) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Schedule 3) (England and Wales) Order 1996, SI 1996/500, art 2(2))).

The Secretary of State may by order amend the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(4) (as amended) by adding further provisions (but only in so far as they apply in relation to stationary vehicles): Sch 3 para 1(5). Before making an order under Sch 3 para 1(5), the Secretary of State must consult such representatives of chief officers of police, and such associations of local authorities (if any), as he considers appropriate: Sch 3 para 1(6).

821. Special parking areas outside London.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

Where an application for a special parking order<sup>2</sup> under this provision is made to the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>:

- 622 (1) with respect to the whole, or any part, of its area, by a county council in England<sup>4</sup>;
- 623 (2) with respect to the whole, or any part, of its area, by a county council or county borough council in Wales<sup>5</sup>;
- 624 (3) with respect to the whole, or any part, of its area, by a metropolitan district council<sup>6</sup>;
- 625 (4) with respect to the whole, or any part, of the Isles of Scilly, by the Council of the Isles of Scilly<sup>7</sup>, he may make an order designating the whole, or any part, of the area to which the application relates as a special parking area<sup>8</sup>. Before making such an order, the Secretary of State must consult the appropriate chief officer of police<sup>9</sup>.

1 The provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 43, Sch 3 (as amended) are repealed, as from a day to be appointed, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1. The appointed day in relation to England is 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but at the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

2 Any power to make an order conferred by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 43(1), Sch 3 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: Sch 3 para 4(1). Any such statutory instrument is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: Sch 3 para 4(2). Orders made under Sch 3 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

An order under Sch 3 para 2 (as amended) designating a special parking area may: (1) provide for such provisions of Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) as the Secretary of State considers appropriate to apply, with such modifications (if any) as he considers appropriate, in relation to the special parking area in question; and (2) make such modifications of any enactment, including any provision of the Road Traffic Act 1991, as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of the provisions of Sch 3 para 2 (as amended), Sch 3 para 3 or the order: Sch 3 para 3(3).

9 Ibid Sch 3 para 2(3). As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

While an order under Sch 3 para 2(1) (as amended) is in force, the following provisions cease to apply in relation to the special parking area designated by the order:

1382 (1) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 5 (as amended) (contravention of a traffic regulation order under s 1 (as amended) (see PARA 742 ante) to be an offence) (see PARA 746 ante), so far as it relates to the contravention of any provision of such an order prohibiting or restricting the waiting, or the loading and unloading, of vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(a));

1383 (2) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 11 (as amended) (contravention of, or failure to comply with, experimental traffic order under s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) to be an offence) (see PARA 753 ante), so far as it relates to the contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision of such an order prohibiting or restricting the waiting, or the loading and unloading, of vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(b));

1384 (3) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16(1) (contravention of temporary orders under s 14 (as substituted) (see PARA 755 ante) to be an offence) (see PARA 758 ante) so far as it relates to the contravention of any provision of an order or notice under s 14 (as substituted) prohibiting or restricting the waiting, or the loading and unloading, of vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(ba) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Schedule 3) (England and Wales) Order 1996, SI 1996/500, art 2(3)));

1385 (4) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(5) (prohibition of vehicles in loading areas) (see PARA 826 post) so far as it applies in relation to stationary vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(bb) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Schedule 3) (England and Wales) Order 1996, SI 1996/500, art 2(3)));

1386 (5) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 19 (parking of heavy vehicles on verges, central reservations and footpaths etc to be an offence) (see PARA 997 post) (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(d));

1387 (6) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 21 (prohibition of driving or parking on cycle tracks) (see PARA 998 post), so far as it makes it an offence to park a motor vehicle wholly or partly on a cycle track (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(e));

1388 (7) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(1) (failure to comply with traffic signs) (see PARA 643 ante), so far as it makes it an offence to fail to comply with an indication given by a traffic sign of a prohibition on causing a vehicle to stop on part of a road in England (but not in London) demarcated by that sign as a stopping area for a bus (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4)(f) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Special Parking Areas) (England) Order 2003, SI 2003/859, art 2(2))).

The Secretary of State may by order amend the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 2(4) (as amended) by adding further provisions (but only in so far as they apply in relation to stationary vehicles): Sch 3 para 2(5).

Before making an order under Sch 3 para 2(5), the Secretary of State must consult such representatives of chief officers of police, and such associations of local authorities (if any) as he considers appropriate: Sch 3 para 2(6).

Where a London authority<sup>2</sup> applies to the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> for an order<sup>4</sup> to be made, the Secretary of State may make an order designating the whole or any part of that authority's area as a special parking area<sup>5</sup>. While an order is in force certain statutory provisions cease to apply<sup>6</sup> in relation to the special parking area designated by the order<sup>7</sup>.

At any time when an order<sup>8</sup> designating the whole or any part of a London authority's area as a special parking area is in force, the Mayor of London<sup>9</sup> may by order amend the order so as to vary the area which for the time being constitutes the special parking area<sup>10</sup>.

1 The provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76 (as amended), s 76A (as added) and s 77 are repealed, as from a day to be appointed, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1. The appointed day in relation to England is 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but at the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed in relation to Wales.

2 'London authority' means: (1) as respects parking, or any matter connected with or relating to parking, on a GLA road (except in a designated parking place for which a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London is the local authority by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(7) (see PARA 808 note 1 ante), Transport for London; (2) as respects parking, or any matter connected with or relating to parking, in a parking place such as is referred to in head (1) supra or on any road other than a GLA road or a trunk road, a council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1) (definition substituted by the Greater London Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1353, art 8). As to the meaning of 'GLA road' for these purposes see PARA 726 note 6 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (3)). 'Trunk road' has the same meaning as in the Highways Act 1980 s 10 (as amended) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 50): Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1). As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq. For these purposes, 'London' means the area comprising the areas of the London boroughs, the City of London and the Temples: s 82(1). As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq; as to the City of London and the Temples see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 31-32; and as to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

3 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

4 le an order under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76 (as amended). Before making an order under s 76 (as amended), the Secretary of State must consult the relevant Commissioner or, if appropriate, both Commissioners: s 76(2). 'Commissioner' means the Metropolitan Police Commissioner or the City of London Police Commissioner: s 82(1). As to the Commissioners see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 183, 187.

An order under s 76 (as amended) designating a special parking area may make such modifications of any provision of Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended), or any provision amended by Pt II (as amended), as the Secretary of State considers appropriate in consequence of the provisions of s 76 (as amended) or s 77 or of the order: s 77(6).

5 Ibid s 76(1). An application for an order under s 76(1) may only be made: (1) by Transport for London, to the extent that the special parking area is to consist of GLA roads or trunk roads; or (2) by a London local authority, to the extent that the special parking area is to consist of roads other than GLA roads and trunk roads: s 76(1A) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 285). Special parking areas have been designated by the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684.

'London local authority' means any council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London: s 82(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (3)).

Orders made under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(1) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Section 76 (as amended), s 76A (as added) and s 77 may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

As to special parking areas outside London see PARA 821 ante. As to permitted parking areas outside London see PARA 820 ante.

6 The following provisions cease to apply:

1389 (1) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 8 (as amended) (contravention of, or failure to comply with, an order under s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) to be an offence) (see PARA 750 ante) so far as it relates to the contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision of such an order prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles on any road, or relating to any of the matters mentioned in Sch 1 para 7 or Sch 1 para 8 (conditions for loading, or delivery or collecting) (see PARA 748 ante) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(a));

1390 (2) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 11 (as amended) (contravention of, or failure to comply with, an experimental traffic order under s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) to be an offence) (see PARA 753 ante) so far as it relates to the contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision of such an order prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles on any road, or relating to any of the matters mentioned in Sch 1 para 7 or Sch 1 para 8 (conditions for loading, or delivery or collecting) (see PARA 748 ante) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(b));

1391 (3) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 16(1) (see PARA 758 ante) so far as it relates to the contravention of any provision of an order or notice under s 14 (as substituted) (see PARA 755 ante) prohibiting or restricting the waiting of vehicles on any road, or relating to any of the matters mentioned in Sch 1 para 7 or Sch 1 para 8 (see PARA 748 ante) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(c) (substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Section 76(3)) Order 1995, SI 1995/1437, art 2));

1392 (4) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 35A(1) (as added) (contravention of parking place orders) (see PARA 791 ante) so far as it applies in relation to stationary vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(ca) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Section 76(3)) Order 1995, SI 1995/1437, art 2));

1393 (5) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(5) (prohibition of vehicles in loading areas) (see PARA 826 post) so far as it applies in relation to stationary vehicles (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(cb) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Section 76(3)) Order 1995, SI 1995/1437, art 2));

1394 (6) the Greater London Council (General Powers) Act 1974 s 15 (as amended) (parking by vehicles on verges, central reservations and footpaths etc to be an offence) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(d));

1395 (7) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 19 (parking of heavy vehicles on verges, central reservations and footpaths etc to be an offence) (see PARA 997 post) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(e));

1396 (8) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 21 (prohibition of driving or parking on cycle tracks) (see PARA 998 post) so far as it makes it an offence to park a motor vehicle wholly or partly on a cycle track (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(f));

1397 (9) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36(1) (failure to comply with traffic signs) (see PARA 643 ante) so far as it makes it an offence to fail to comply with an indication given by a traffic sign of a prohibition on causing a vehicle to stop on part of a road in London demarcated by that sign as a stopping area for a bus (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3)(g) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Special Parking Areas) (England) Order 2003, SI 2003/859, art 2(1)).

The Secretary of State may by order amend the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3) (as amended) by adding further provisions (but only in so far as they apply in relation to stationary vehicles): s 76(4). Before making an order under s 76(4), the Secretary of State must consult the two Commissioners, and such associations of London authorities (if any) as he thinks appropriate: s 76(5).

As to the application of the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (as amended) to the armed forces and to visiting forces in relation to any vehicle see PARA 889 note 1 post.

7 Ibid s 76(3) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 (Amendment of Section 76(3)) Order 1995, SI 1995/1437, art 2). Where any vehicle which is stationary in a special parking area (but which is not in a designated parking place) in circumstances in which an offence would have been committed with respect to the vehicle but for the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76(3) (as amended), a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle by the owner of the vehicle: s 77(1), (2). Section 66 (see PARA 889 post) and Sch 6 (see PARA 891 post) apply in relation to penalty charges payable by virtue of s 77(2), but subject to such modifications (if any) as the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to make in the order designating the special parking area in question: s 77(3). For the meaning of 'designated parking place' see PARA 889 note 2 post; and see PARA 809 ante. As to penalty charges see PARA 889 post.

Where a parking attendant has reason to believe that a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle by virtue of s 77(2), he or another person acting under his direction may fix an immobilisation device to the vehicle: s 77(4). The provisions of s 69(2)-(8) (see PARA 892 ante) apply in relation to a device fixed to a vehicle under s 77(4), but subject to such modifications (if any) as the Secretary of State considers it appropriate to make in the order designating the special parking area in question: s 77(5). For the meaning of 'parking attendant' for these purposes see PARA 869 ante; definition applied by s 82(1). For the meaning of 'immobilisation device' see PARA 876 note 4 ante; definition applied by s 82(1).

8 le an order under ibid s 76 (as amended).

9 Any functions conferred or imposed on the Greater London Authority by or under ibid Pt II (as amended) are functions of the GLA which are exercisable by the Mayor acting on behalf of the GLA: s 82(1A) (s 82(1A), (1B) added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (4)). The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1A) (as added) does not apply in relation to any function expressly conferred or imposed on, or made exercisable by, the London Assembly: s 82(1B) (as so added). As to the Greater London Authority see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 79 et seq. As to the London Assembly see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 82. As to the Mayor of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 81.

10 Ibid s 76A(1) (s 76A added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 286). No order may be made under s 76A(1) (as added) without the consent of every London local authority which is the traffic authority for a road which the order has the effect of bringing within, or removing from, the special parking area concerned: s 76A(2) (as so added). An order under s 76A(1) (as added) must not be such as to bring within a special parking area: (1) any area specified in an order under s 76A (as added) made by the Secretary of State; or (2) the whole or any part of a royal park, except with the consent of the Secretary of State: s 76A(3) (as so added). No area may be specified in an order under head (1) supra, unless the Secretary of State is satisfied that it is expedient, on grounds of national security, that no part of that area should be included in a special parking area: s 76A(4) (as so added). For these purposes, 'royal park' means any park to which the Parks Regulation Act 1872 applies (see the Parks Regulation (Amendment) Act 1926 ss 1, 3 (s 1 as amended); and see OPEN SPACES AND COUNTRYSIDE vol 78 (2010) PARA 561); Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76A(5) (as so added).

The Greater London Highways and Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2000, SI 2000/1547, has been made under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 76A(3) (as added).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(v) Provision of Parking Places by Parish or Community Councils/823. General powers of parish or community councils for the provision of parking places.

(v) Provision of Parking Places by Parish or Community Councils

823. General powers of parish or community councils for the provision of parking places.

Where for the purposes of relieving or preventing congestion of traffic or preserving local amenities it appears to the council of a parish<sup>1</sup> in England or a community<sup>2</sup> in Wales to be necessary to do so, the council may<sup>3</sup>: (1) provide within its area and maintain suitable parking places for bicycles and motor cycles<sup>4</sup>; or (2) provide within its area and maintain suitable parking places, otherwise than on roads<sup>5</sup>, for vehicles of other descriptions or for vehicles generally<sup>6</sup>. However, no such order may authorise the use of any part of a road as a parking place so as unreasonably to prevent access to any premises adjoining the road, or the use of the road by any person entitled to use it, or so as to be a nuisance<sup>7</sup>.

For the purpose of providing and maintaining any such parking place, or for the purpose of providing means of entrance to and egress from any parking place so provided, a parish or community council may utilise and adapt any land purchased by the council for the purpose or appropriated for the purpose<sup>8</sup>, or in the case of a parking place provided under head (1) above (but subject to any provisions relating to consents<sup>9</sup>) adapt, and by order authorise the use of, any part of a road in the parish or community<sup>10</sup>. Any power<sup>11</sup> to provide and maintain parking places includes power to provide and maintain structures for use as parking places<sup>12</sup>.

Notwithstanding anything in any other enactment, a parish or community council may appropriate for the purpose of providing such a parking place<sup>13</sup>:

- 626 (a) any part of a recreation ground provided<sup>14</sup> by the council<sup>15</sup>;
- 627 (b) any part of an open space controlled or maintained by the council<sup>16</sup> other than a part which has been consecrated as a burial ground or in which burials have taken place<sup>17</sup>;
- 628 (c) any part of any land provided by the council as a playing field or for any other purpose and held by that council for the purposes of the provisions relating to recreational facilities<sup>18</sup>.

However, any part of a recreation ground, open space or other land so appropriated must not exceed one-eighth of its total area or 800 square feet, whichever is the less<sup>19</sup>.

A parish or community council may employ, with or without remuneration, such persons as may be necessary for the superintendence of parking places so provided by the council under the above provisions<sup>20</sup>.

A parish or community council may make byelaws, subject to confirmation by the Secretary of State<sup>21</sup>, as to the use of parking places provided under head (1) above, and in particular as to the conditions upon which any such parking place may be used and as to the charges to be paid to the council in connection with the use of any such parking place, not being part of a road; and a copy of any byelaws so made must be exhibited on or near every parking place to which they relate<sup>22</sup>.

A parish or community council may let for use as a parking place any parking place so provided by it (not being a part of a road); but, without prejudice to any power of a parish or community council under any other enactment to let a playing field or other land of which a parking place forms part, no single letting may be for a longer period than seven days<sup>23</sup>.

Such exercise by a parish or community council of its powers under these provisions with respect to the use as a parking place of any part of a road does not render it subject to any liability in respect of loss of or damage to any vehicle or the fittings or contents of any vehicle parked in such a parking place<sup>24</sup>.

A parish or community council may contribute towards: (i) the reasonable expenses incurred by any person in doing anything which, by virtue of the above provisions, that council has power to do<sup>25</sup>; and (ii) the expenses incurred by any other parish or community council in exercising its powers under the above provisions<sup>26</sup>.

Without prejudice to any other power of combination, a parish or community council may by agreement combine with any other parish or community council for the purpose of exercising powers under the above provisions<sup>27</sup>.

1 'Parish' or 'community', in relation to a common parish council or common community council acting for two or more grouped parishes or communities, means those parishes or communities: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 60(4). As to parishes see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 27 et seq; and as to communities see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 41 et seq. As to grouping of parishes see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 29; and as to grouping of communities see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 43.

2 See note 1 supra.

3 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 57(1). This provision is expressed to be subject to s 58 (as amended) (see PARA 824 post) and s 59 (as amended) (see PARA 825 post): see s 57(1). As to the exercise of powers under s 57(1), (2) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante.

Where before 17 July 1957 a parish council has provided anything which could be provided by a parish council under s 57, or where any other person has at any time provided anything which could be provided by a parish council under s 57, the parish or community council has the like power to maintain that thing as if it had been provided by it under s 57: s 60(3).

4 Ibid s 57(1)(a).

5 'Road' means a highway (including a public path) and any other road, lane, footway, square, court, alley or passage (whether a thoroughfare or not) to which the public has access, but does not include a road provided or to be provided in pursuance of a scheme made, or having effect as if made, under the Highways Act 1980 s 16 (which relates to special roads) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 731 et seq); Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 60(4). 'Public path' has the meaning assigned to it by the National Parks and Access to the Countryside Act 1949 s 27 (repealed): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 60(4). As to public paths generally see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 582 et seq.

6 Ibid s 57(1)(b).

Subject to s 59(4)-(6) (as amended), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 ante) applies in relation to a parking place provided under s 57(1)(b) as if: (1) the parish or community council were a local authority for the purposes of s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 ante) and s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 ante); and (2) the parking place were provided by the parish or community council under s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 ante): s 59(3). A parish or community council must not, by virtue of s 59(3), make an order under s 35(1) (as amended) (see PARA 790 ante) without the consent of the county council or metropolitan district council; and any consent given by the county council or metropolitan district council may be subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit: s 59(4) (s 59(4)-(7) amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(24)). Where, by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 59(3), a parish or community council proposes to make an order under s 35(1) (as amended), the council must submit a draft of the order to the county council or metropolitan district council, who (without prejudice to its power to give or withhold consent to the making of the order) may require such modifications of the terms of the proposed order as it thinks appropriate: s 59(5) (as so amended). The powers of a county council or metropolitan district council under s 35 (as amended) apply in relation to a parking place provided by a parish or community council under s 57(1)(b) as they apply in relation to a parking place provided by a county council or metropolitan district council; and the power to vary or revoke an order made by a parish or community council under s 35(1) (as amended) is exercisable by the county council or metropolitan district council as well as by the parish or community council: s 59(6) (as so amended). If, by virtue of s 59(6) (as amended), a county council or metropolitan district council proposes to make an order under s 35(1) (as amended) in relation to a parking place provided by a parish or community council, it must send a copy of the proposed order to the parish or community council: s 59(7) (as so amended).

Community Councils/824. Consents for provision of parking places by parish or community councils.

824. Consents for provision of parking places by parish or community councils.

A parish or community<sup>1</sup> council does not have power<sup>2</sup> to provide a parking place<sup>3</sup>:

- 629 (1) in a position obstructing or interfering with any existing access to any land or premises not forming part of a road<sup>4</sup>, except with the consent of the owner<sup>5</sup> and the occupier of the land or premises<sup>6</sup>; or
- 630 (2) in<sup>7</sup> a road which is not a highway, in a public path<sup>8</sup> or in a restricted byway<sup>9</sup>, except with the consent of the owner and the occupier of the land over which the road, path or way runs<sup>10</sup>; or
- 631 (3) in a trunk road or any other road maintained by the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup> or on land abutting on any such road, except with the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>12</sup>; or
- 632 (4) in a road which is a highway (other than a trunk road or a road maintained as mentioned in head (3) above or a public path) or on land abutting on any such road, except with the consent of the county council or metropolitan district council<sup>13</sup>; or
- 633 (5) in a road which is a highway belonging to and repairable by the persons carrying on any railway, dock, harbour, canal, inland navigation or passenger road transport undertaking and forming the approach to any station, dock, wharf or depot of theirs, except with the consent of the persons carrying on the undertaking concerned<sup>14</sup>; or
- 634 (6) on a bridge carrying a highway over a railway, dock, harbour, canal or inland navigation, or on the approaches to any such bridge, or under a bridge carrying a railway, canal or inland navigation over a highway, except with the consent of the persons carrying on the railway, dock, harbour, canal or inland navigation undertaking concerned<sup>15</sup>.

Any consent required in heads (3) to (6) above must not be unreasonably withheld, but may be given subject to any reasonable conditions, including a condition that the parish or community council must remove any thing to the provision of which the consent relates, either at any time or at or after the expiry of a period, if reasonably required to do so by the person giving the consent<sup>16</sup>.

Any dispute between a parish or community council and a person whose consent is required under heads (3) to (6) above, on the question whether that consent is unreasonably withheld or is given subject to reasonable conditions, or whether the removal<sup>17</sup> of any thing to the provision of which the consent relates in accordance with any condition of the consent is reasonably required, must<sup>18</sup>: (a) in the case of a dispute between the parish or community council and the Secretary of State, be referred to and determined by an arbitrator to be appointed, in default of agreement, by the President of the Institution of Civil Engineers<sup>19</sup>; and (b) in any other case, be referred to and determined by the Secretary of State, who may cause a public inquiry to be held for the purpose<sup>20</sup>.

1 For the meanings of 'parish' and 'community' see PARA 823 note 1 ante.

2 ie by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 57(1): see PARA 823 ante.

3 Ibid s 58(1). The Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1953 s 6 (as amended) (which makes provision as to access to telegraphic lines, sewers, pipe-subways, pipes, wires, and other apparatus) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 563) applies in relation to a parking place (including a structure for use as a parking place) provided by a parish or community council under the Road Traffic

Regulation Act 1984 s 57(1) (see PARA 823 ante), and in relation to the council by which the parking place is so provided, as it applies in relation to a shelter or other accommodation provided, and in relation to the local authority by which it is provided, under the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1953 s 4 (as amended) (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 561): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 58(4).

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 823 note 5 ante.

5 For these purposes, 'owner' has the meaning assigned to it by the Public Health Act 1936 s 343 (see ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH vol 45 (2010) PARA 116): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 60(4).

6 Ibid s 58(1)(a).

7 'In', in a context referring to things in a road, includes a reference to things under, over, across, along or upon the road: ibid s 60(4).

8 For the meaning of 'public path' see PARA 823 note 5 ante.

9 For the meaning of 'restricted byway' see PARA 742 note 4 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(4) PARKING/(v) Provision of Parking Places by Parish or Community Councils/825. Consents for, and provisions as to use of, certain parking places provided by parish or community councils.

825. Consents for, and provisions as to use of, certain parking places provided by parish or community councils.

A parish or community<sup>1</sup> council must not exercise certain powers relating to providing and maintaining suitable parking places<sup>2</sup> without the consent of the council of the county or metropolitan district in which the parish or community is situated; and any consent given by the county council or metropolitan district council may be subject to such conditions or restrictions as it thinks fit<sup>3</sup>. A parish or community council proposing to exercise those powers must:

- 635 (1) for the purpose of obtaining such consent of the county council or metropolitan district council, make an application in writing to that council giving details of the parking place which it proposes to provide<sup>4</sup>; and
- 636 (2) in the case of an application to a county council, send a copy of it to the council of the district in which the parish is situated<sup>5</sup>, and, in that case, the county council, in considering whether or not to give its consent, or to make its consent subject to any conditions or restrictions, must have regard to any representations made to it by that district council<sup>6</sup>.

(vi) Miscellaneous Parking Provisions

826. Loading areas.

If it appears to the council of a county, metropolitan district or London borough or the Common Council of the City of London that any land in its area which is not part of a highway has been set apart by the occupier of the land for use as a place where vehicles may be driven<sup>1</sup> and parked for the purpose of being loaded or unloaded in connection with a trade or business carried on or in the vicinity of the land, the council may, by an order made with the consent of the owner<sup>2</sup> and the occupier of the land<sup>3</sup>: (1) designate the land as an area to which the following provisions apply (a 'loading area')<sup>4</sup>; and (2) specify the trade or business in question<sup>5</sup>. A council which has made such an order<sup>6</sup>:

- 637 (a) may vary the order by a subsequent order made with the consent of the owner and the occupier of the land to which the order relates<sup>7</sup>;
- 638 (b) may revoke the order by a subsequent order made with the consent of the owner and the occupier of the loading area in question<sup>8</sup>; and
- 639 (c) must revoke the order by a subsequent order if requested in writing to do so by the owner and the occupier of the loading area in question<sup>9</sup>.

An order so made<sup>10</sup> may contain provisions prohibiting the parking, in the loading area to which the order relates, of vehicles of such kinds as are specified in the order, except authorised vehicles<sup>11</sup>, at all times or at times so specified, and may make different provision in pursuance of the preceding provisions for different parts of the area<sup>12</sup>.

Where an order has been made by a council<sup>13</sup> and traffic signs<sup>14</sup> are required to be placed<sup>15</sup> on the loading area to which the order relates, a person authorised in that behalf by the council may enter on the loading area for the purpose of placing any such traffic signs and for the purpose of maintaining or removing the signs<sup>16</sup>.

A person who, without reasonable excuse, causes a vehicle to be in any part of a loading area at a time when the parking of it there is prohibited by an order so made<sup>17</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'owner', in relation to any land, means a person who, either on his own account or as agent or trustee for another person, is receiving the rackrent of the land or would be entitled to receive it if the land were let at a rackrent: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(8).

3 Ibid s 61(1) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8(1), Sch 5 para 4(25)). This provision is expressed to be subject to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 124(1), Sch 9 Pt III paras 20-26 (as amended) (see PARA 738 ante): see s 61(1). Orders made under s 61 (as amended) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

4 Ibid s 61(1)(a).

5 Ibid s 61(1)(b).

6 Ie an order in pursuance of ibid s 61(1) (as amended): see the text and notes 1-5 supra. References in s 61(2)-(5) to an order made in pursuance of s 61(1) (as amended) include, in the case of such an order which has been varied in pursuance of s 61(2)(a) (see head (a) in the text), references to the order as so varied: s 61(6).

9 Ibid s 61(2)(c).

10 Ie in pursuance of ibid s 61(1) (as amended) or s 61(2)(a): see the text and notes 1-7 supra.

11 'Authorised vehicle', in relation to a loading area, means a goods vehicle (as defined by the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 192(1): see PARA 220 ante) which is in the area for the purpose of being loaded or unloaded in connection with the trade or business specified in the order designating the area: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(3) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 3 para 25(2)).

12 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(3) (as amended: see note 11 supra).

13 Ie in pursuance of ibid s 61(1) (as amended): see the text and notes 1-5 supra. See also note 6 supra.

14 Any reference to a traffic sign, in relation to any land which is not a road, includes a reference to any object, device, line or mark which would be a traffic sign (as defined by ibid s 64 (as amended): see PARA 830 post) if the land were a road: s 61(8). For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

15 Ie by virtue of ibid Sch 9 para 22(1)(e): see PARA 738 text and notes 19-20 ante. As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante.

16 Ibid s 61(4).

17 See note 13 supra.

18 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(5). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

As to the disapplication of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(5) in relation to special parking areas outside London see PARA 821 ante; and in relation to special parking areas in London see PARA 822 ante.

The provisions of the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976 s 44(3)-(5) (as amended) (which contain ancillary provisions for the purposes of Pt I (ss 1-44) (as amended): see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 1 et seq) have effect as if the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61 (as amended) were included in the Local Government (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1976 Pt I (as amended): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(7).

827. Nuisance parking offences.

A person is guilty of an offence if at any time: (1) he leaves two or more motor vehicles<sup>1</sup> parked within 500 metres of each other on a road<sup>2</sup> or roads where they are exposed or advertised for sale; or (2) he causes two or more motor vehicles to be so left<sup>3</sup>. A person is not to be convicted of such an offence if he proves to the satisfaction of the court that he was not acting for the purposes of a business of selling motor vehicles<sup>4</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine<sup>5</sup>.

A person who carries out restricted works<sup>6</sup> on a motor vehicle on a road is guilty of an offence, subject as follows<sup>7</sup>. A person is not to be convicted of such an offence in relation to any works if he proves to the satisfaction of the court that the works were not carried out: (a) in the course of, or for the purposes of, a business of carrying out restricted works; or (b) for gain or reward<sup>8</sup>, unless the carrying out of the works gave reasonable cause for annoyance to persons in the vicinity<sup>9</sup>. A person is also not to be convicted of such an offence in relation to any works if he proves to the satisfaction of the court that the works carried out were works of repair which: (i) arose from an accident or breakdown in circumstances where repairs on the spot or elsewhere on the road were necessary; and (ii) were carried out within 72 hours of the accident or breakdown or were within that period authorised to be carried out at a later time by the local authority<sup>10</sup> for the area<sup>11</sup>. A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine<sup>12</sup>.

Where any of the above offences is committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly<sup>13</sup>. Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, the above provision<sup>14</sup> applies in relation to the acts or defaults of a member in connection with his functions of management as if he were a director of the body<sup>15</sup>.

(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS

(i) In general

830. The meaning of 'traffic sign' and general provisions as to traffic signs.

A 'traffic sign' means<sup>1</sup> any object or device (whether fixed or portable) for conveying to traffic<sup>2</sup> on roads<sup>3</sup> or any specified class of traffic<sup>4</sup>, warnings, information, requirements, restrictions or prohibitions of any description<sup>5</sup> specified by regulations<sup>6</sup> or authorised by the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>, and any line or mark on a road for so conveying such warnings, information, requirements, restrictions or prohibitions<sup>8</sup>.

Traffic signs are to be of the size, colour and type prescribed by regulations except where the Secretary of State authorises the erection or retention of a sign of another character; and for these purposes illumination, whether by lighting or by the use of reflectors or reflective material, or the absence of such illumination, are to be part of the type or character of the sign<sup>9</sup>.

Regulations may be made to apply generally or in such circumstances only as may be specified in the regulation<sup>10</sup>.

No traffic sign may be placed<sup>11</sup> on or near a road except<sup>12</sup>: (1) a notice in respect of the use of a bridge<sup>13</sup>; (2) a traffic sign placed, in pursuance of powers conferred by a special Act of Parliament or order having the force of an Act, by the owners or operators of a tramway, light railway or trolley vehicle undertaking, a dock undertaking or a harbour undertaking<sup>14</sup>; or (3) a traffic sign placed on any land: (a) by a person authorised to place the sign on a road<sup>15</sup>; and (b) for a purpose for which he is authorised to place it on a road<sup>16</sup>.

830 The meaning of 'traffic sign' and general provisions as to traffic signs

NOTES--Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in this paragraph are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

NOTE 9--SI 2002/3113 further amended: SI 2008/2177.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(i) In general/831. Powers and duties of highway authorities as to placing of traffic signs.

831. Powers and duties of highway authorities as to placing of traffic signs.

The traffic authority<sup>1</sup> may cause or permit traffic signs<sup>2</sup> to be placed<sup>3</sup> on or near a road<sup>4</sup>, subject to and in conformity with such directions as may be given by the Secretary of State<sup>5</sup>. The power to give such general directions includes power to require equipment used in connection with traffic signs to be of a type approved in accordance with the directions<sup>6</sup>.

The Secretary of State may give directions<sup>7</sup> to a local traffic authority<sup>8</sup> for the placing of a traffic sign of any prescribed type<sup>9</sup> or authorised character<sup>10</sup> specified in the directions<sup>11</sup>, or for replacing a sign so specified by, or converting it into, a sign of another prescribed type or authorised character so specified<sup>12</sup>.

No charge may be made by a highway authority<sup>13</sup> which is the council of a county, metropolitan district or London borough or the Common Council of the City of London<sup>14</sup> with respect to the exercise of its power<sup>15</sup> to permit a traffic sign to be placed on or near any road in its area if: (1) the sign conveys information of a temporary nature or is otherwise intended to be placed only temporarily<sup>16</sup>; and (2) the sign is to be placed by a body which is prescribed for these purposes as being a body appearing to the Secretary of State to be representative of the interests of road users or any class of road users<sup>17</sup>.

1 References to a traffic authority in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65 (as amended) (see the text and notes 2-17 infra) and ss 68-73 (as amended) (see PARAS 834-840 post) are to be construed as including references to any person who, not being a traffic authority, is responsible for the maintenance of a road: s 80 (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 Pt II para 58). As to traffic authorities in general see PARA 731 ante; and see PARA 844 post.

2 For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 ante.

3 As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65(1) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 48). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

The following directions have been made partly under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65 (as amended): the Zebra, Pelican and Puffin Pedestrian Crossings Regulations and General Directions 1997, SI 1997/2400 (amended by SI 1998/901; SI 2003/2155; SI 2004/3168; SI 2005/2929; SI 2006/594) (see PARA 778 note 2 ante); and the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002, SI 2002/3113 (amended by SI 2003/393; SI 2003/2155; SI 2004/1275; SI 2004/3168; SI 2005/1670; SI 2005/2929; SI 2005/3225; SI 2006/2083). The following directions are to be treated as if they had been made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65 (as amended): the 'Pelican' Pedestrian Crossings General Directions 1987 (set out in the 'Pelican' Pedestrian Crossings Regulations and General Directions 1987, SI 1987/16, Pt III) (revoked with savings).

In relation to a road for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65(1) (as substituted) has effect with the omission of references to directions, and the provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 relating to directions for the placing, replacing, conversion and removal of traffic signs, notices, objects or devices are not to apply except in relation to a bridge repairable by a person other than the Secretary of State: s 77 (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 Pt II para 56).

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65(1A) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 29).

7 The power to give such general directions is exercisable by statutory instrument: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65(3).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(i) In general/832. Traffic signs for giving effect to local traffic regulations.

832. Traffic signs for giving effect to local traffic regulations.

1 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq.

2 As to the chief officer of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

3 As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante. For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 Re prescribed by regulations under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 64: see PARA 830 ante.

6 Re authorised under ibid s 64: see PARA 830 ante.

7 Ibid s 66(1) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 Pt II para 49). Notwithstanding anything in the Explosives Act 1875 (see EXPLOSIVES) or in any other enactment, a constable who is for the time being engaged in the regulation of traffic in a road or any person acting under his authority may, on or in the vicinity of the road, light and use a flare for the purpose of regulating the traffic: Road Traffic Act 1974 s 18(1). For the purposes of s 18, 'flare' means a firework or other device designed to produce a light by a process of combustion: s 18(2). Section 18 is repealed by the Fireworks Act 2003 s 15, Schedule, as from a day to be appointed under s 18(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 66(1)(a). The enactments referred to in the text are:

1398 (1) the Metropolitan Police Act 1839 s 52 (as amended) (which relates to prevention of obstruction on public occasions or in the neighbourhood of public buildings in the metropolitan police district) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 66(2)(a));

1399 (2) the City of London Police Act 1839 s 22 (which makes similar provision in relation to the City of London) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 66(2)(b));

1400 (3) the Town Police Clauses Act 1847 s 21 (as amended) (which likewise makes similar provision for areas to which that Act is applied) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 66(2)(c)).

9 Ibid s 66(1)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 3 para 25(4)). The directions referred to in the text are those given under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 31(4) (which enables directions to be given in consequence of the holding of an authorised race or trial of speed: see PARA 995 post): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 66(1)(b) (as so amended).

833. Emergencies and temporary obstructions.

A constable<sup>1</sup>, or a person acting under the instructions (whether general or specific) of the chief officer of police<sup>2</sup>, may place<sup>3</sup> on a road<sup>4</sup>, or on any structure on a road, traffic signs<sup>5</sup> (of any size, colour and type prescribed<sup>6</sup> or authorised<sup>7</sup>), indicating prohibitions, restrictions or requirements relating to vehicular traffic, as may be necessary or expedient to prevent or mitigate congestion or obstruction of traffic, or danger to or from traffic, in consequence of extraordinary circumstances<sup>8</sup>. This power to place signs includes power to maintain a sign for a period of seven days or less from the time when it was placed, but no longer<sup>9</sup>.

2 As to the chief officer of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

8 Ibid s 67(1) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 Pt II para 50). For these purposes, 'extraordinary circumstances' includes terrorism or the prospect of terrorism within the meaning of the Terrorism Act 2000 s 1 (see CRIMINAL LAW, EVIDENCE AND PROCEDURE vol 11(1) (2006 Reissue) PARA 383): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 67(1A)(a) (s 67(1A) added by the Civil Contingencies Act 2004 s 32(1), Sch 2 Pt 3 para 16(1), (3)).

9 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 67(1) (as amended: see note 8 supra). However, in the application of s 67(1) in connection with terrorism or the prospect of terrorism, the reference to seven days is to be taken as a reference to 28 days: s 67(1A)(b) (as added: see note 8 supra).

The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36 (as amended) (drivers to comply with traffic directions: see PARA 643 ante) applies to signs placed in the exercise of the powers conferred by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 67(1) (as amended): s 67(2) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 3 para 25(5)).

Regulations under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 64 (as amended) prescribing any type of object or device for warning traffic of a temporary obstruction may include provisions for authorising (subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations) persons not otherwise authorised to do so to place an object or device of that type on or near roads, or on or near any description of road so specified, in such circumstances and for such periods as may be so specified: s 67(3). Any power which is exercisable in relation to any road under s 67(3), otherwise than by virtue of s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 415 ante), is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the width of the road: s 126.

The Traffic Signs (Temporary Obstructions) Regulations 1997, SI 1997/3053, have been made partly under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 67(3).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(i) In general/834. Placing of traffic signs in connection with exercise of certain powers.

834. Placing of traffic signs in connection with exercise of certain powers.

Any authority having the power to make certain orders<sup>1</sup> may<sup>2</sup> place and maintain, or cause to be placed and maintained<sup>3</sup>, such traffic signs<sup>4</sup>, of any type prescribed or character authorised<sup>5</sup>, as the authority may consider necessary in connection with any order made by the authority as respects any road<sup>6</sup> or, in the case of a traffic authority<sup>7</sup> having power to make an order<sup>8</sup>, as the authority may consider necessary in connection with any order made or notice issued by it<sup>9</sup>. However, if the order is made or, as the case may be, the notice is issued by an authority other than the traffic authority for the road, the authority by which the order is made or, as the case may be, the notice is issued<sup>10</sup> must consult with the traffic authority as to the placing of the signs<sup>11</sup>, and unless the traffic authority is unwilling to do so, must enter into arrangements with the traffic authority for the signs to be placed and maintained by the traffic authority<sup>12</sup>.

1 The orders to which the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 68 (as amended) applies are:

1401 (1) an order under or by virtue of any of the following provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984: ss 1-4 (as amended) (see PARAS 742-745 ante), s 14 (as substituted) (see PARA 755 ante), s 16A (as added) (see PARA 759 ante), s 19 (as amended) (see PARA 767 ante), s 29 (as substituted) (see PARA 782 ante), s 32 (as amended) (see PARA 784 ante), s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 ante), s 37 (as amended) (see PARA 794 ante), s 38 (as amended) (see PARA 795 ante), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante), s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 ante) and s 49(2), (4) (see PARA 814 ante) (s 68(1)(a) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), (2), Sch 8 para 51(2), Sch 9; and the Road Traffic Regulation (Special Events) Act 1994 s 3(1), Schedule para 1)); or

1402 (2) an order as respects a road outside Greater London under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) (s 68(1)(b)); or 1403 (3) an order to which s 68(1) applies by virtue of any provision of Pt VI (ss 81-89) (as amended) (see PARAS 846-856 post) (s 68(1)(c)).

2 Ie without prejudice to any powers conferred by or under any other provision of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, but subject to s 68(3) (as amended) (see note 12 infra).

3 As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante.

835. Removal of signs.

The traffic authority<sup>1</sup> may by notice in writing require the owner or occupier of any land on which there is an object or device (whether fixed or portable) for the guidance or direction of persons using the road<sup>2</sup> to remove it<sup>3</sup>. If a person fails to comply with such a notice, the traffic authority may itself effect the removal, doing as little damage as may be<sup>4</sup>. The expenses incurred by the traffic authority in doing so are recoverable by it from the person in default, and are so recoverable summarily as a civil debt<sup>5</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> may give directions to a local traffic authority<sup>7</sup> requiring the authority to remove, or cause to be removed, any traffic sign<sup>8</sup> or any such object or device<sup>9</sup>.

836. Default powers of Secretary of State as to traffic signs.

If a local traffic authority<sup>1</sup> or an authority having power to make certain orders<sup>2</sup> fails to comply with a direction<sup>3</sup>, the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> may himself carry out the work required by the direction, and the expenses incurred by him in doing so are recoverable by him from the authority, and are so recoverable summarily as a civil debt<sup>5</sup>. Any such direction, if relating to a road<sup>6</sup>, is enforceable on the application of the Secretary of State by a mandatory order<sup>7</sup>.

837. Power to enter land in connection with traffic signs.

A local traffic authority<sup>1</sup> or an authority having the power to make certain orders<sup>2</sup> or the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup> may enter any land and exercise such other powers as may be necessary for the purpose of the exercise and performance of powers and duties of placing<sup>4</sup>, replacing, converting and removing traffic signs<sup>5</sup> or powers and duties<sup>6</sup> as to the removal of signs<sup>7</sup>.

838. Powers exercisable by parish or community councils.

A parish or community council may, with the permission of the highway authority<sup>1</sup> and subject to any conditions imposed by that authority, provide on or near any road<sup>2</sup> other than a footpath<sup>3</sup> or bridleway<sup>4</sup>, or may contribute, either wholly or in part, towards the cost of providing on or near any such road, traffic signs<sup>5</sup> indicating<sup>6</sup>:

640 (1) a stopping place for public service vehicles<sup>7</sup>;

- 641 (2) a warning of the existence of any danger<sup>8</sup>; or 642 (3) the name of the parish or community or of any place in it<sup>9</sup>.

A parish or community council may provide, or may contribute, either wholly or in part, towards the cost of providing, on or near any footpath or bridleway, any object or device (not being a traffic sign) for conveying to users of that footpath or bridleway a warning of the existence of danger<sup>10</sup>. No traffic sign, object or device so provided by a parish or community council in pursuance of this provision may be placed<sup>11</sup> on any land (not being a road or part of a road) without the consent of the owner and occupier of the land<sup>12</sup>. A parish or community council may warn the public of any danger in or apprehended in its area subject to the restrictions mentioned above<sup>13</sup>.

(ii) Provisions as to Greater London

840. Powers and duties of authorities in Greater London in respect of traffic signs.

In connection with certain orders<sup>1</sup> made or proposed by it, Transport for London<sup>2</sup>, the council of a London borough or the Common Council of the City of London<sup>3</sup> may, as respects any road<sup>4</sup> for which it is the traffic authority<sup>5</sup> affix any traffic sign<sup>6</sup> to any lamp post or other structure in the highway<sup>7</sup>, whether or not belonging to Transport for London or the council<sup>8</sup>. In connection with any GLA road<sup>9</sup>, Transport for London may: (1) exercise as respects any road in Greater London which is neither a trunk road<sup>10</sup> nor a GLA road, any powers exercisable by the traffic authority for that road in connection with the placing of traffic signs<sup>11</sup> on or near that road<sup>12</sup>; and (2) affix any such sign to any lamp post or other structure in the highway, whether or not belonging to Transport for London<sup>13</sup>. As respects any traffic sign lawfully in place in Greater London which is required in connection with an order<sup>14</sup>, it is the duty of the appropriate traffic authority<sup>15</sup> to take such steps to maintain, and to make such alteration of, that sign as may be necessary or expedient in connection with any relevant order<sup>16</sup>, and to remove the sign if it ceases to be required in connection with the order<sup>17</sup>.

1 I.e. an order made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante).

2 As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

3 As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'traffic authority' for these purposes see PARA 831 note 1 ante. As to traffic authorities in general see PARA 731 ante; and see PARA 844 post.

6 For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 ante.

7 As to highways generally see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 73(1) (substituted by the Local Government Act 1985 ss 8(1), 102(2), Sch 5 para 4(26), Sch 17; and amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 Pt II para 55; and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 ss 273, 423, Sch 34 Pt VI). As to the exercise of powers in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante.

9 As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante.

10 For the meaning of 'trunk road' see PARA 726 note 8 ante.

11 As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante.

12 Ie in pursuance of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65 (as amended) (see PARA 831 ante): s 73(1A) (a) (s 73(1A)-(1C) added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 273(1), (3)).

13 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 73(1A)(b) (as added: see note 12 supra). The powers conferred by s 73(1A) (as added) are exercisable: (1) in connection with any order under s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) made or proposed to be made by Transport for London; or (2) in any other circumstances: s 73(1B) (as so added). Before exercising the power given by s 73(1A) (as added), Transport for London must consult the traffic authority for the road on or near which Transport for London proposes to place the traffic sign: s 73(1C) (as so added).

The powers of Transport for London under s 73(1A) (as added) by virtue of s 73(1B)(b) (as added) extend to the removal or repositioning of any traffic sign on or near the road in question, whether placed by Transport for London or not: s 73(6) (s 73(6)-(8) added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 273(1), (6)). On the removal or repositioning by Transport for London of any such sign placed by another authority, the traffic sign will vest in Transport of London: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 73(7) (as so added).

Except with the consent of Transport for London or in pursuance of a direction under s 65(2) (as amended) (see PARA 831 ante), the traffic authority for the road must not remove, alter or interfere with any traffic signs placed by Transport for London by virtue of s 73(1B) (as added): s 73(8) (as so added).

14 Ie an order under ibid s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or an order under s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante).

15 Ibid s 73(2) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8(1), Sch 5 para 4(26)(b); and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 273(1), (4)). For these purposes, the 'appropriate traffic authority' in the case of any traffic sign, is the authority which is the traffic authority for the road as respects which the order under s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) is made in connection with which the traffic sign is required: s 73(2A) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 273(1), (5)).

16 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 73(2)(a). For these purposes, 'relevant order' in relation to a traffic sign means an order under s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) in connection with which the traffic sign is required: s 73(2).

17 Ibid s 73(2)(b). The order referred to in the text is an order under s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante): see note 16 supra.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(ii) Provisions as to Greater London/841. Fixing of traffic signs to walls.

841. Fixing of traffic signs to walls.

For the purpose of placing<sup>1</sup> traffic signs<sup>2</sup> on or near any road<sup>3</sup> in its area<sup>4</sup>, Transport for London<sup>5</sup> and the council of a London borough each has power<sup>6</sup> to affix a traffic sign to any external wall of a building<sup>7</sup> having a frontage to, or constructed over, any such road<sup>8</sup>. A council may not affix a traffic sign to the external wall of a building without the consent of the owner<sup>9</sup> of the building<sup>10</sup>. Where in the opinion of a London borough council any consent required<sup>11</sup> is unreasonably withheld, the council may apply to the appropriate authority<sup>12</sup>, who may either allow the affixing of the traffic sign subject to such conditions, if any, as to rent or otherwise as the appropriate authority thinks fit, or disallow the affixing of the traffic sign<sup>13</sup>.

Where any traffic sign has been so affixed by a council to a building:

- 643 (1) the council has the right, as against any person having an interest in the building, to alter or remove it, or to repair or maintain it<sup>14</sup>; but
- 644 (2) the owner of the building must give the council not less than 14 days' notice requiring it at its own expense temporarily to remove the sign where necessary during any reconstruction or repair of the building<sup>15</sup>.

If any person suffers damage by or in consequence of the affixing of a traffic sign by a council, or by or in consequence of the exercise by a council of rights mentioned in head (1) above<sup>16</sup>, he is entitled to be paid by the council such compensation as may be agreed with the council, or in default of agreement, determined by arbitration<sup>17</sup>.

1 As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'traffic sign' includes any apparatus required for the illumination of a traffic sign which forms part of the sign: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(9).

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 In pursuance of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65 (as amended) (see PARA 831 ante), s 68 (as amended) (see PARA 834 ante) or s 73 (as amended) (see PARA 840 ante).

5 As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

6 This provision is stated to be subject to the provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(2)-(7), which apply in relation to Transport for London as they apply in relation to a London borough council (s 74(1A) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 274(1), (3))); however, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(2) has been repealed by the Local Government Act 1985 s 102, Sch 17.

7 For these purposes, 'building' includes a structure and a bridge or aqueduct over a street: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(9).

8 Ibid s 74(1) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 ss 8, 102, Sch 5 para 4, Sch 17; and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 274(1), (2)(a), (b)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(1) (as amended) has effect subject to the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 s 2 (as amended) (under which scheduled monument consent is required for the execution of certain works affecting scheduled monuments: see NATIONAL CULTURAL HERITAGE vol 77 (2010) PARA 1010 et seq): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(7).

Nothing in s 74 (as amended) can derogate from the powers of Transport for London or the council of a London borough to enter on land for the placing of traffic signs in pursuance of s 71 (as amended) (see PARA 837 ante) or to carry out work for the improvement of a highway in pursuance of the Highways Act 1980 s 62 (as amended) (general power of improvement: see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 484): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(8) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 102, Sch 17; and the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 274(1), (4)).

9 For these purposes, 'owner', in relation to a building occupied under a tenancy for a term of years of which five years or more remain unexpired, means the occupier of the building; and in relation to any other building, means the person for the time being receiving the rackrent of the building, whether on his own account or as agent or trustee for any other person, or who would so receive it if the building were let at a rackrent: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74(9).

11 In any consent required under ibid s 74(3).

12 For these purposes, 'appropriate authority' means a magistrates' court, except that, in relation to certain buildings it means the specified minister: see ibid s 74(9), Sch 5 (amended by the Coal Industry Act 1987 s 1(3); the Water Act 1989 s 190(1), Sch 25 para 69; the Coal Industry Act 1994 ss 67(1), (8), 68(3), Sch 9 para 30, Sch 11 Pt IV; the Environment Act 1995 (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1996, SI 1996/593, reg 2, Schedule; and the Transfer of Functions (Transport, Local Government and the Regions) Order 2002, SI 2002/2626, art 20, Sch 2 para 11). 'Magistrates' court' has the same meaning as in the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 (see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 583): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 142(1) (amended by the Access to Justice Act 1999 s 76(2), Sch 10 para 38). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(ii) Provisions as to Greater London/842. London borough councils and the London traffic control system.

842. London borough councils and the London traffic control system.

If a London borough council requests Transport for London<sup>1</sup> to provide any new traffic light installations<sup>2</sup> for a road in Greater London<sup>3</sup> which is neither a GLA road<sup>4</sup> nor a trunk road<sup>5</sup>, Transport for London must approve and carry out the work unless it considers that there are reasonable grounds for refusing to do so<sup>6</sup>. If Transport for London and a London borough council so agree, Transport for London may make a scheme transferring to the council<sup>7</sup> any part of the London traffic control system<sup>8</sup> and the power to maintain and operate that part of the system<sup>9</sup>. A London borough council may, with the approval of Transport for London, buy, own, maintain and operate new traffic light installations for any road in the borough other than a trunk road<sup>10</sup>. Any exercise of such powers<sup>11</sup> is subject to the agreement of financial arrangements between Transport for London and the council concerned<sup>12</sup>.

Before Transport for London:

- 645 (1) changes the operating cycle, or the timing of the operating cycle, of any traffic light installations provided on a road in Greater London which is neither a GLA road nor a trunk road<sup>13</sup>; or
- 646 (2) provides new traffic light installations for such a road<sup>14</sup>, it must consult the council of the London borough in which the installations are or are to be provided<sup>15</sup>.

1 As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

2 For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74A (as added), 'traffic light installations' means: (1) traffic signs which are light signals for controlling the movement of vehicular traffic or of pedestrians; or (2) any installations or apparatus used in connection with the operation of any such traffic signs: s 74A(7) (s 74A added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 276).

3 As to Greater London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 29.

4 As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'trunk road' see PARA 726 note 8 ante.

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74A(1) (as added: see note 2 supra). For these purposes: (1) the City of London is to be treated as if it were a London borough (s 74A(8)(a) (as so added)); (2) the Common Council of the City of London is to be treated as if it were the council for a London borough (s 74A(8)(b) (as so added)); and (3) the Inner Temple and the Middle Temple are to be treated as forming part of the City of London (s 74A(8)(c) (as so added)).

7 Ibid s 74A(2) (as added: see note 2 supra).

8 Ibid s 74A(2)(a) (as added: see note 2 supra). For the purposes of s 74A (as added), 'London traffic control system' means the traffic control system which Transport for London has power to operate by virtue of the functions transferred to it: (1) by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 275 (transfer of London traffic control system to Transport for London); or (2) by a scheme under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74B(1) (as added) or s 74B(3) (as added) transferring functions of the Secretary of State to Transport for London: s 74A(7) (as so added). For the purposes of s 74A (as added), 'traffic control system' means a system for controlling the movement of vehicular traffic or of pedestrians by means of traffic light installations: s 74A(7) (as so added). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

9 Ibid s 74A(2)(b) (as added: see note 2 supra). Where the powers conferred by s 74A(2) (as added) are exercised, the London borough council concerned is to be, as respects the traffic signs comprised in the part of the London traffic control system transferred by the scheme under s 74A(2) (as added), treated (to the exclusion of Transport for London) as the traffic authority for all roads in Greater London (other than trunk roads) on or near which those traffic signs are placed: see s 74A(4)(a) (as so added). As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante; and see PARA 844 post.

10 Ibid s 74A(3) (as added: see note 2 supra). Where the powers conferred by s 74A(3) (as added) are exercised, the London borough council concerned is to be, as respects the traffic signs comprised in the traffic light installations referred to in s 74A(3) (as added), treated (to the exclusion of Transport for London) as the traffic authority for all roads in Greater London (other than trunk roads) on or near which those traffic signs are placed: see s 74A(4)(b) (as so added).

11 Ie any exercise of powers conferred by ibid s 74A(1)-(3) (as added): see the text and notes 1-10 supra.

12 Ibid s 74A(5) (as added: see note 2 supra).

13 Ibid s 74A(6)(a) (as added: see note 2 supra).

14 Ibid s 74A(6)(b) (as added: see note 2 supra).

15 Ibid s 74A(6) (as added: see note 2 supra).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(ii) Provisions as to Greater London/843. Transfer of traffic control systems between Secretary of State and Transport for London.

843. Transfer of traffic control systems between Secretary of State and Transport for London.

If the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> and Transport for London<sup>2</sup> so agree, the Secretary of State may make a scheme transferring to Transport for London<sup>3</sup>: (1) the traffic control system<sup>4</sup> for a trunk road<sup>5</sup> in Greater London<sup>6</sup>; and (2) the power to maintain and operate that system<sup>7</sup>. If Transport for London and the Secretary of State so agree, Transport for London may make a scheme transferring to the Secretary of State<sup>8</sup>: (a) the London traffic control system<sup>9</sup>; and (b) the power to maintain and operate that system<sup>10</sup>. If, in a case where a traffic control system has been transferred<sup>11</sup>, the transferee and the transferor so agree, the transferee may make a scheme transferring back to the transferor the system and the power to maintain and operate it<sup>12</sup>.

Such a scheme<sup>13</sup> may make provision for the transferee to be treated (to the exclusion of the transferor), as respects the traffic signs<sup>14</sup> comprised in the traffic control system transferred, as the traffic authority<sup>15</sup> for specified roads in Greater London on or near which those traffic signs are placed<sup>16</sup>.

Any exercise of the powers conferred<sup>17</sup> is subject to the agreement of financial arrangements between the Secretary of State and Transport for London<sup>18</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(ii) Provisions as to Greater London/844. The traffic authority for traffic signs.

844. The traffic authority for traffic signs.

In the application of certain statutory provisions<sup>1</sup> to traffic signs<sup>2</sup> in Greater London which are light signals for controlling the movement of vehicular traffic or of pedestrians, Transport for London is at all times to be deemed to be the traffic authority<sup>3</sup> for all roads in Greater London other than trunk roads<sup>4</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74C (as added) has effect for the purposes of s 65 (as amended) (see PARA 831 ante), s 73 (as amended) (see PARA 840 ante), s 74 (as amended) (see PARA 841 ante), s 74A (as added) (see PARA 842 ante), s 74B (as added) (see PARA 843 ante), s 75 (as amended) (see PARA 845 post): s 74C(1) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 278).

2 For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 ante; and see PARA 842 ante.

3 As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 74C(2) (as added: see note 1 supra). Without prejudice to the powers of the traffic authority for the road in question, Transport for London is also to be deemed to be the traffic authority for any road in Greater London for which it is not in fact the traffic authority for the purposes of the exercise by it as respects that road under s 73(1A) (as added) (see PARA 840 ante) of any powers exercisable by the traffic authority for that road: s 74C(3) (as so added).

The provisions of s 74C(2), (3) (as added) are subject to any provision to the contrary made by or under s 74A (as added) (see PARA 842 ante) or s 74B (as added) (see PARA 843 ante): s 74C(4) (as so added).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(5) TRAFFIC SIGNS/(ii) Provisions as to Greater London/845. Provisions applicable in City of London.

845. Provisions applicable in City of London.

For the purpose of placing<sup>1</sup> traffic signs<sup>2</sup> on or near any road<sup>3</sup> in the City of London<sup>4</sup> or any apparatus required for illumination forming part of any such sign, the Corporation<sup>5</sup>, has power to affix any such sign or apparatus to the external wall of any building fronting any such road<sup>6</sup>. However, this does not authorise the Corporation, without the consent of the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup>, to affix any traffic sign or apparatus forming part of any such sign to<sup>8</sup>:

- 647 (1) any building for the time being included in a list published by the Secretary of State under any enactments for the time being in force with respect to ancient monuments<sup>9</sup>; or
- 648 (2) any building for the time being included in a list of buildings of special architectural or historic interest compiled by the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup> not being a building to which head (1) above applies<sup>11</sup>.

1 As to the placing of traffic signs see PARA 770 note 2 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 Ie placing signs in pursuance of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 65 (as amended): para 831 ante.

5 For these purposes, 'the Corporation' means the Mayor and commonalty and citizens of the City of London acting by the Common Council: ibid s 75(5).

6 Ibid s 75(1). This is expressed to be subject to s 75(2) and s 75(3) (as amended) (see the text and notes 7-11 infra). The City of London (Various Powers) Act 1900 s 53 (as amended) (which, in relation to things affixed for the public lighting of streets, provides for compensation for injury and makes special provision as to railway property and Crown property) applies in relation to the affixing of any traffic sign or apparatus under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 75(1) as it applies to the affixing of brackets, wires, pipes, lamps and apparatus for the public lighting of streets, and so applies as if in the City of London (Various Powers) Act 1900 s 53 (as amended), 'street' included any road within the meaning of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984: s 75(2).

7 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 75(3).

9 Ibid s 75(3)(a).

10 Ie under the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990 s 1: see TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING vol 46(3) (Reissue) PARA 1092.

11 Ibid s 75(3)(b) (amended by the Planning (Consequential Provisions) Act 1990 s 4, Sch 2 para 64(1)). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 75(3) (as amended) is without prejudice to the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act 1979 s 2 (as amended) (under which scheduled monument consent is required for the execution of certain works affecting scheduled monuments: see NATIONAL CULTURAL HERITAGE vol 77 (2010) PARA 1010 et seq): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 75(4).

(6) SPEED LIMITS

846. In general.

The statutory limits of the speed at which motor vehicles<sup>1</sup> may lawfully be driven on roads<sup>2</sup> are additional to limits at which vehicles may lawfully be driven as regards civil liability for negligence or driving offences under the Road Traffic Act 1988<sup>3</sup>. The statutory limits relate to different types of roads (restricted roads<sup>4</sup>, special roads<sup>5</sup> and other classes of roads<sup>6</sup>) and different types of vehicles<sup>7</sup>. Provision has been made by the Transport Act 2000 as to quiet lanes and home zones, in which the speed of motor vehicles maybe restricted<sup>8</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

847. General speed limit for restricted roads.

It is not lawful for a person to drive<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> on a restricted road at a speed exceeding 30 miles per hour<sup>3</sup>. For these purposes, a road is restricted<sup>4</sup> if there is provided on it a system of street lighting furnished by means of lamps placed not more than 200 yards apart<sup>5</sup>. The traffic authority<sup>6</sup> for a road<sup>7</sup> may direct that a road which is a restricted road<sup>8</sup> is to cease to be a restricted road<sup>9</sup>, or that a road which is not a restricted road<sup>10</sup> is to become a restricted road<sup>11</sup>.

A special road is not a restricted road<sup>12</sup> on or after the date declared by the traffic authority, by notice published in the prescribed manner<sup>13</sup>, to be the date on which the special road<sup>14</sup>, or the relevant part of the special road, is open for use as a special road<sup>15</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 81(1). The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament increase or reduce the rate of speed fixed by s 81(1), either as originally enacted or as varied under s 81(2): s 81(2). At the date at which this volume states the law no such order had been made. Any power which is exercisable in relation to any road under s 81, otherwise than by virtue of s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 730 ante), is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the width of the road: s 126. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

4 I.e. subject to the provisions of ibid s 82 (as amended) and s 84(3) (as amended) (see PARA 848 note 5 post).

5 Ibid s 82(1)(a) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 59). Minor excesses over the distance of 200 yards have been held not to cause the road to be other than a restricted road: Briere v Hailstone (1968) 112 Sol Jo 767, [1969] Crim LR 36 (where the excess was 18 inches); Spittle v Kent County Constabulary [1986] RTR 142, DC (where the excess was 12 yards).

11 Ibid s 82(2)(b) (as amended: see note 9 supra). As to the exercise of powers under s 82(2) (as amended) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante. A direction under s 82(2) (as amended) by the Secretary of State is to be given by means of an order made by the Secretary of State after giving public notice of his intention to make an order: s 83(1) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 60(2)).

A direction under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 82(2) (as amended) by a local traffic authority is to be given by means of an order made by the authority: s 83(2) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 60(3)). The power to make an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 83(2) (as substituted) is also exercisable by the Secretary of State: see PARA 736 ante. Any power of the Secretary of State to make an order under or by virtue of s 83 (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 124(2). Orders made under s 83(2) (as substituted) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. Section 68(1)

(c) (see PARA 834 note 1 ante) applies to any order made under s 83(2) (as substituted): s 83(3). For the meaning of 'local traffic authority' see PARA 731 ante.

Any power which is exercisable in relation to any road under s 83 (as amended), otherwise than by virtue of s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 730 post), is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the width of the road: s 126.

848. Speed limits on roads other than restricted roads.

An order made<sup>1</sup> as respects any road<sup>2</sup> may prohibit:

- 649 (1) the driving<sup>3</sup> of motor vehicles<sup>4</sup> on that road at a speed exceeding that specified in the order<sup>5</sup>;
- 650 (2) the driving of motor vehicles on that road at a speed exceeding that specified in the order during periods specified in the order<sup>6</sup>; or
- 651 (3) the driving of motor vehicles on that road at a speed exceeding the speed for the time being indicated by traffic signs<sup>7</sup> in accordance with the order<sup>8</sup>.

An order made by virtue of head (3) above may make provision restricting the speeds that may be indicated by traffic signs or the periods during which the indications may be given<sup>9</sup>, and provide for the indications to be given only in such circumstances as may be determined by or under the order<sup>10</sup>. However, any such order must comply with regulations made under heads (a) to (c) below<sup>11</sup>, except where the Secretary of State<sup>12</sup> authorises otherwise in a particular case<sup>13</sup>. The Secretary of State may make regulations governing the provision which may be made by orders of local authorities under head (3) above<sup>14</sup>, and any such regulations may in particular<sup>15</sup>:

- 652 (a) prescribe the circumstances in which speed limits may have effect by virtue of an order<sup>16</sup>;
- 653 (b) prescribe the speed limits which may be specified in an order<sup>17</sup>; and
- 654 (c) make transitional provision and different provision for different cases<sup>18</sup>.

The power to make an order under s 84(1) (as substituted) is exercisable by the traffic authority, who must before exercising it give public notice of its intention to do so: s 84(2) (substituted by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 61). As to traffic authorities see PARAS 731-735 ante.

Any power which is exercisable in relation to any road under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 84 (as amended), otherwise than by virtue of s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 730 ante), is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the width of the road: s 126. As to the exercise of powers under s 84 (as amended) in respect of the width of a road see PARA 730 ante.

Section 68(1)(c) (see PARA 834 note 1 ante) applies to any order made under s 84(1) (as substituted): s 84(5).

Orders made under s 84(1) (as substituted) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante. Ibid s 84 (as amended) does not apply to any part of a special road which is open for use as a special road: s 84(4). ### 849. Traffic signs for indicating speed restrictions.

For the purpose of securing that adequate guidance is given to drivers<sup>1</sup> of motor vehicles<sup>2</sup> as to whether any, and if so what, limit of speed is to be observed on any road<sup>3</sup>, it is the duty of the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup>, in the case of a road for which he is the traffic authority<sup>5</sup>, to erect<sup>6</sup> and maintain traffic signs<sup>7</sup> in such positions as may be requisite for that purpose<sup>8</sup>. In the case of any other road, it is the duty of the local traffic authority<sup>9</sup> to erect and maintain traffic signs in such positions as may be requisite in order to give effect to general or other directions given by the Secretary of State for that purpose<sup>10</sup>, and to alter or remove traffic signs as may be requisite in order to give effect to such directions, either in consequence of the making of an order by the Secretary of State or otherwise<sup>11</sup>. If a local traffic authority makes default in executing any works required for the performance of that duty<sup>12</sup>, the Secretary of State may himself execute the works; and the expense incurred by him in doing so is recoverable by him from the local authority summarily as a civil debt<sup>13</sup>.

Where by regulations made under provisions relating to traffic regulation on special roads<sup>14</sup> a limit of speed is to be observed, then, if it is to be observed<sup>15</sup>:

- 655 (1) on all special roads<sup>16</sup>; or
- 656 (2) on all special roads provided for the use of particular classes of traffic<sup>17</sup>; or
- 657 (3) on all special roads other than special roads of such description as may be specified in the regulations<sup>18</sup>; or
- 658 (4) as mentioned in head (1), (2) or (3) above, except for such lengths of special road as may be so specified<sup>19</sup>, this provision<sup>20</sup> does not apply in relation to that limit (but without prejudice to its application in relation to any lower limit of maximum speed or, as the case may be, any higher limit of minimum speed, required by any such regulations to be observed on any specified length of any specified special road)<sup>21</sup>.

10 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 85(2)(a) (as amended: see note 9 supra).

11 Ibid s 85(2)(b) (as amended: see note 9 supra). Where no such system of street or carriageway lighting as is mentioned in s 82(1) (as amended) (see PARA 847 ante) is provided on a road, but a limit of speed is to be observed on the road, a person is not to be convicted of driving a motor vehicle on the road at a speed exceeding the limit, unless the limit is indicated by means of such traffic signs as are mentioned in s 85(1) (as amended) or s 85(2) (as amended): s 85(4) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 62). For the meaning of 'driving' see PARA 207 ante.

In any proceedings for a contravention of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 81 (see PARA 847 ante), where the proceedings relate to driving on a road provided with such a system of street or carriageway lighting, evidence of the absence of traffic signs displayed in pursuance of s 85 (as amended) to indicate that the road is not a restricted road for the purposes of s 81 is evidence that the road is a restricted road for those purposes: s 85(5) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 Sch 8 para 62). For the meaning of 'restricted roads' see PARA 847 ante.

The power to give general directions under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 85(2) (as amended) is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 85(7). ## UPDATE

849 Traffic signs for indicating speed restrictions

NOTE 11--SI 2002/3113 further amended: SI 2008/2177. See Peake v Director of Public Prosecutions [2010] EWHC 286 (Admin), [2010] All ER (D) 223 (Feb), DC (needed to asked whether there was compliant signing so that anyone caught speeding at point of enforcement would have been given adequate guidance of appropriate limit).

850. Speed limits for particular classes of vehicles.

It is not lawful for a person to drive<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> of any class<sup>3</sup> on a road<sup>4</sup> at a speed greater than the speed specified<sup>5</sup> as the maximum speed in relation to a vehicle of that class<sup>6</sup>. The Secretary of State does not have power under this provision to impose a speed limit, as respects driving<sup>7</sup> on roads which are not restricted roads<sup>8</sup>, on a vehicle which<sup>9</sup>:

- 659 (1) is constructed solely for the carriage of passengers and their effects<sup>10</sup>;
- 660 (2) is not adapted to carry more than eight passengers exclusive of the driver<sup>11</sup>;
- 661 (3) is neither a heavy motor car<sup>12</sup> nor an invalid carriage<sup>13</sup>;
- 662 (4) is not drawing a trailer<sup>14</sup>; and
- 663 (5) is fitted with pneumatic tyres on all its wheels<sup>15</sup>.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 As to classes of vehicles see PARA 208 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 The speed specified in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 86, Sch 6 (as amended): see PARA 851 et seq post. A vehicle falling in two or more classes specified in Sch 6 Pt I (as amended) (see PARA 851 post), Sch 6 Pt II (see PARA 852 post) or Sch 6 Pt III (see PARA 853 post) is to be treated as falling within the class for which the lower or lowest speed limit is specified: s 86(1), Sch 6 Pt IV para 4. Schedule 6 (as amended) does not apply to a vehicle which is being used for the purpose of experiments or trials under the Road Improvements Act 1925 s 6 (repealed) or the Highways Act 1980 s 283 (see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 55): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 6 Pt IV para 1. As to the exemption of fire and rescue authority, ambulance and police vehicles from speed limits see PARA 854 post; as to temporary speed limits see PARA 855 post; and as to speeding offences generally see PARA 856 post. The Secretary of State may by regulations vary, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the regulations, the provisions of Sch 6 (as amended) (s 86(2)), but he does not have power under s 86 to vary the speed limit imposed by s 81 (see PARA 847 ante) (s 86(5)). Regulations under s 86 may make different provision as respects the same class of vehicles in different circumstances: s 86(3). As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante. The Motor Vehicles (Variation of Speed Limits) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/1175, have been made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 86(2), (3).

851. Speed limits for vehicles fitted with pneumatic tyres on all wheels.

The speed limits for motor vehicles<sup>1</sup>, not being track-laying vehicles<sup>2</sup>, every wheel<sup>3</sup> of which is fitted with a pneumatic tyre<sup>4</sup> and to such vehicles drawing one or more trailers<sup>5</sup>, not being track-laying vehicles, every wheel of which is fitted with a pneumatic tyre are as follows<sup>6</sup>:

- 664 (1) for a passenger vehicle<sup>7</sup>, motor caravan<sup>8</sup> or dual-purpose vehicle<sup>9</sup> not drawing a trailer being a vehicle with an unladen weight<sup>10</sup> exceeding 3.05 tonnes or adapted to carry more than eight passengers, and not exceeding 12 metres in overall length, the maximum speed is 70 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway<sup>11</sup>, 60 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual

- carriageway road<sup>12</sup> not being a motorway and 50 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>13</sup>; but, if exceeding 12 metres in overall length, the maximum speeds are 60 miles per hour, 60 miles per hour, and 50 miles per hour respectively<sup>14</sup>;
- 665 (2) for an invalid carriage<sup>15</sup>, the maximum speed while it is being driven on a dual carriageway road not being a motorway is 20 miles per hour and on any other road, other than a motorway, 20 miles per hour<sup>16</sup>;
- 666 (3) for a passenger vehicle, motor caravan, car-derived van<sup>17</sup> or dual-purpose vehicle drawing one trailer, the maximum speed is 60 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 60 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 50 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>18</sup>;
- 667 (4) for a passenger vehicle, motor caravan, car-derived van or dual-purpose vehicle drawing more than one trailer, the maximum speed is 40 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 20 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 20 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>19</sup>;
- 668 (5) for a goods vehicle<sup>20</sup> having a maximum laden weight<sup>21</sup> not exceeding 7.5 tonnes and which is not an articulated vehicle<sup>22</sup> or drawing a trailer or a car-derived van, the maximum speed is 70 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 60 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 50 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>23</sup>;
- 669 (6) for a goods vehicle which is an articulated vehicle having a maximum laden weight not exceeding 7.5 tonnes or a motor vehicle, other than a car-derived van, which is drawing one trailer where the aggregate maximum laden weight of the motor vehicle and the trailer does not exceed 7.5 tonnes, the maximum speed is 60 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 60 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 50 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>24</sup>;
- 670 (7) for a goods vehicle which is an articulated vehicle having a maximum laden weight exceeding 7.5 tonnes, a motor vehicle having a maximum laden weight exceeding 7.5 tonnes and not drawing a trailer, or a motor vehicle drawing one trailer where the aggregate maximum laden weight of the motor vehicle and the trailer exceeds 7.5 tonnes, the maximum speed is 60 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 50 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 40 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>25</sup>;
- 671 (8) for a motor vehicle, other than a car-derived van, drawing more than one trailer, the maximum speed is 40 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 20 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 20 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>26</sup>;
- 672 (9) for a motor tractor<sup>27</sup> (other than an industrial tractor<sup>28</sup>), a light locomotive<sup>29</sup> or a heavy locomotive<sup>30</sup>, if the specified provisions about springs and wings<sup>31</sup> are complied with and the vehicle is not drawing a trailer, or if those provisions are complied with and the vehicle is drawing one trailer which also complies with those provisions, the maximum speed is 40 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 30 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 30 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>32</sup>; and, in any other case, the maximum speed is 20 miles per hour, 20 miles per hour and 20 miles per hour respectively<sup>33</sup>;
- 673 (10) for a works truck<sup>34</sup>, the maximum speed is 18 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 18 miles per hour if the vehicle is being

- driven on a dual-carriageway road not being a motorway, and 18 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>35</sup>;
- 674 (11) for an industrial tractor, the maximum speed is 18 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual carriageway road not being a motorway, and 18 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road not being a motorway<sup>36</sup>;
- 675 (12) for an agricultural motor vehicle<sup>37</sup> the maximum speed is 40 miles per hour while the vehicle is being driven on a motorway, 40 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on a dual carriageway road not being a motorway, and 40 miles per hour if the vehicle is being driven on any other road<sup>38</sup>.

852. Speed limits for vehicles not fitted with pneumatic tyres on all wheels.

The speed limits for vehicles, other than motor vehicles<sup>1</sup> which are a track-laying vehicles<sup>2</sup> or motor vehicles which are not track-laying vehicles but which are drawing one or more trailers<sup>3</sup> any one of which is a track-laying vehicle are as follows<sup>4</sup>:

- 676 (1) for a motor vehicle, or in the case of a motor vehicle drawing one or more trailers, the combination, where every wheel<sup>5</sup> is fitted with a resilient tyre<sup>6</sup>, or at least one wheel is fitted with a resilient tyre and every wheel which is not fitted with a resilient tyre is fitted with a pneumatic tyre<sup>7</sup>, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 20 miles per hour<sup>8</sup>;
- 677 (2) for a motor vehicle, or in the case of a motor vehicle drawing one or more trailers, the combination, where any wheel is not fitted with either a pneumatic tyre or a resilient tyre, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 5 miles per hour<sup>9</sup>.

The speed limit for a motor vehicle<sup>1</sup> which is a track-laying vehicle<sup>2</sup> and a motor vehicle of any description which is drawing one or more trailers<sup>3</sup>, any one or more of which is a track-laying vehicle, is as follows<sup>4</sup>:

- 678 (1) for a motor vehicle being a track-laying vehicle which is fitted with springs between its frame and its weight-carrying rollers, and resilient material between the rims of its weight-carrying rollers and the surface of the road, and which is not drawing a trailer, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road<sup>5</sup> is 20 miles per hour<sup>6</sup>;
- 679 (2) for a vehicle as specified in head (1) above drawing one or more trailers each one of which is either a track-laying vehicle fitted with springs and resilient material as mentioned in that head, or not a track-laying vehicle and each wheel of which is fitted with either a pneumatic tyre<sup>7</sup> or a resilient tyre<sup>8</sup>, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 20 miles per hour<sup>9</sup>;
- 680 (3) for a vehicle as specified in head (1) above drawing one or more trailers any one of which is either a track-laying vehicle not fitted with springs and resilient material as mentioned in that head, or not a track-laying vehicle and at least one wheel of which is not fitted with either a pneumatic tyre or a resilient tyre, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 5 miles per hour<sup>10</sup>;
- 681 (4) for a motor vehicle being a track-laying vehicle which is not fitted with springs and resilient material as mentioned in head (1) above, whether drawing a trailer or not, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 5 miles per hour<sup>11</sup>;
- 682 (5) for a motor vehicle not being a track-laying vehicle, which is drawing one or more trailers any one or more of which is a track-laying vehicle if every wheel of the motor vehicle and of any non-track-laying trailer is fitted with a pneumatic tyre or with a resilient tyre, and every trailer which is a track-laying vehicle is fitted with springs and resilient material as mentioned in head (1) above, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 20 miles per hour; and, in any other case, the maximum speed while the vehicle is being driven on a road is 5 miles per hour<sup>12</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(6) SPEED LIMITS/854. Exemption of fire and rescue authority, ambulance and police vehicles from speed limits.

854. Exemption of fire and rescue authority, ambulance and police vehicles from speed limits.

The following provisions apply until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>. No statutory provision imposing a speed limit on motor vehicles<sup>2</sup> is to apply to any vehicle on an occasion when it is being used for fire and rescue authority, ambulance or police purposes<sup>3</sup>, if the observance of that provision would be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the purpose for which it is being used on that occasion<sup>4</sup>.

The following provisions apply as from a day to be appointed<sup>5</sup>. No statutory provision imposing a speed limit on motor vehicles is to apply to any vehicle on an occasion when:

- 683 (1) it is being used for fire and rescue authority purposes, for ambulance purposes or for police or Serious Organised Crime Agency purposes;
- 684 (2) it is being used for other prescribed<sup>6</sup> purposes in such circumstances as may be prescribed; or
- 685 (3) it is being used for training persons to drive vehicles for use for any of the purposes mentioned in head (1) or head (2) above, if the observance of that provision would be likely to hinder the use of the vehicle for the purpose for which it is being used on that occasion<sup>7</sup>. This does not apply unless the vehicle is being driven by a person who: (a) has satisfactorily completed a course of training in the driving of vehicles at high speed provided in accordance with regulations under these provisions; or (b) is driving the vehicle as part of such a course<sup>8</sup>. The Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> may by regulations make provision about courses of training in the driving of vehicles at high speed<sup>10</sup>. The regulations may include<sup>11</sup>:

- 686 (i) provision about the nature of courses<sup>12</sup>;
- 687 (ii) provision for the approval by the Secretary of State of persons providing courses or giving instruction on courses and the withdrawal of approvals (including provision for appeals against refusal and withdrawal of approvals)<sup>13</sup>;
- 688 (iii) provision specifying the maximum fees that a person may be required to pay for a course<sup>14</sup>;
- 689 (iv) provision for the training or assessment, or the supervision of the training or assessment, of persons providing courses or giving instruction on courses<sup>15</sup>;
- 690 (v) provision for the evidencing of the successful completion of courses<sup>16</sup>;
- 691 (vi) provision authorising the Secretary of State to make available information about persons providing courses or giving instruction on courses<sup>17</sup>; and
- 692 (vii) provision treating courses of training in the driving of vehicles at high speed which have been completed before the coming into force of the regulations as if they had been provided in accordance with the regulations<sup>18</sup>.

The regulations may include provision for the charging of reasonable fees in respect of any function conferred or imposed on the Secretary of State by the regulations<sup>19</sup>. The regulations may make different provision for different classes of vehicle, for different descriptions of persons or otherwise for different circumstances<sup>20</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 87 is substituted by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 19, as from a day to be appointed under s 61(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

3 A police driving instructor driving a vehicle during an exercise for police purposes is within the exemption: R v Abraham (Mansel) [1980] RTR 471, CA. The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 87(1) (as amended) applies in relation to a vehicle being used: (1) for Serious Organised Crime Agency purposes; or (2) for training persons to drive vehicles for use for Serious Organised Crime Agency purposes, as it applies in relation to a vehicle being used for police purposes: s 87(2) (s 87(2), (3) added by the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 s 59, Sch 4 para 42(1), (3)). However, except where it is being used for training the person by whom it is being driven, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 87(1) (as amended) does not apply in relation to a vehicle by virtue of s 87(2) (as added) unless it is being driven by a person who has been trained in driving vehicles at high speeds: s 87(3) (as so added).

855. Temporary or general speed limits.

Where it appears to the Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> desirable to do so in the interests of safety or for the purpose of facilitating the movement of traffic, he may, after giving public notice of his intention to do so, by order prohibit, for a period not exceeding 18 months, the driving of motor vehicles<sup>2</sup>:

- 693 (1) on all roads<sup>3</sup>, or on all roads in any area specified in the order, or on all roads of any class so specified, or on all roads other than roads of any class so specified, or on any road so specified, at a speed greater than that specified in the order<sup>4</sup>; or
- 694 (2) on any road specified in the order, at a speed less than the speed specified in the order, subject to such exceptions as may be so specified<sup>5</sup>.

Any such prohibition may be imposed either generally, or at times, on days or during periods specified in the order<sup>6</sup>. The power of the Secretary of State to impose temporary or general speed limits does not apply to any part of a special road<sup>7</sup> which is open for use as a special road<sup>8</sup>.

If a person drives<sup>9</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>10</sup> on a road in contravention of an order under head (2) above, he is guilty of an offence, but he is not to be liable to be convicted of so driving<sup>11</sup> solely on the evidence of one witness to the effect that, in the opinion of the witness, he was driving the vehicle at a speed less than that specified in the order<sup>12</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 88(1). For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 88(1)(a). For the purposes of an order under s 88(1)(a), roads may be classified by reference to any circumstances appearing to the Secretary of State to be suitable for the purpose, including their character, the nature of the traffic to which they are suited or the traffic signs provided on them: s 88(3). For the meaning of 'traffic sign' see PARA 830 ante.

5 Ibid s 88(1)(b). The first order to be made under s 88(1)(b) must not be made until a draft of the order has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament: s 88(8). Where by virtue of an order under s 88 a speed limit is to be observed, then:

1404 (1) if it is to be observed on all roads, on all roads of any class specified in the order or on all roads other than roads of any class so specified, s 85 (as amended) (see PARA 849 ante) does not apply in relation to that limit (s 88(5)(a));

1405 (2) if it is to be observed on all roads in any area and, at all points where roads lead into the area, is indicated as respects the area as a whole by means of such traffic signs as are mentioned in s 85(1) or (2) (as amended) (see PARA 849 ante), the limit must, for the purposes of s 85(4) (as amended) (see PARA 849 ante), be taken as so indicated with respect to all roads in the area (s 88(5)(b)).

The provisions of any order under s 88(1) may be continued, either indefinitely or for a specified period, by an order of the Secretary of State made by statutory instrument, which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: s 88(4).

Any power which is exercisable in relation to any road under s 88, otherwise than by virtue of s 125 (as amended) (see PARA 730 ante), is exercisable with respect to the whole or any part of the width of the road: s 126.

Orders made under s 88 are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work. However, by virtue of the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2)(b), the following order has effect under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 88: the 70 miles per hour, 60 miles per hour and 50 miles per hour (Temporary Speed Limit) Order 1977, SI

1977/6, continued in force indefinitely by the 70 miles per hour, 60 miles per hour and 50 miles per hour (Temporary Speed Limit) (Continuation) Order 1978, SI 1978/1548.

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 88(2). However, the provisions of such an order must not, except in so far as provided by the order, affect ss 81-84 (as amended) (see PARAS 846-848 ante) relating to speed limits: s 88(2).

7 As to the meaning of 'special road' see PARA 764 note 1 ante.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 88(6).

9 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

856. Speeding offences generally.

A person who drives<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> on a road<sup>3</sup> at a speed exceeding a limit imposed by or under certain enactments<sup>4</sup> is guilty of an offence<sup>5</sup>. A person prosecuted for such an offence is not liable to be convicted solely on the evidence of one witness to the effect that, in the opinion of the witness, the person prosecuted was driving<sup>6</sup> the vehicle at a speed exceeding a specified limit<sup>7</sup>.

If a person who employs other persons to drive motor vehicles on roads publishes or issues any timetable or schedule, or gives any directions, under which any journey, or any stage or part of any journey, is to be completed within some specified time, and it is not practicable in the circumstances of the case for that journey (or that stage or part of it) to be completed in the specified time without the commission of such an offence<sup>8</sup>, the publication or issue of the timetable or schedule, or the giving of the directions may be produced as prima facie evidence that the employer procured or (as the case may be) incited the persons employed by him to drive the vehicles to commit such an offence<sup>9</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'drive' see PARA 207 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 The enactments to which the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 89 applies are:

1406 (1) any enactment contained in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 except s 17(2) (as amended) (see PARA 764 ante) (s 89(3)(a));

1407 (2) the Parks Regulation (Amendment) Act 1926 s 2 (as amended) (see PARA 828 ante; and OPEN SPACES AND COUNTRYSIDE vol 78 (2010) PARAS 562-563) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 89(3)(b)); and 1408 (3) any enactment not contained in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, but passed after 1 September 1960, whether before or after the passing of Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (s 89(3)(c)).

5 Ibid s 89(1). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary; endorsement is obligatory; and 3-6 penalty points (or 3, if a fixed penalty) may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 9, s 28 (as substituted), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2 paras 1, 3, 4). As from a day to be appointed, this provision is amended by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 17(b), so as to refer to '2-6 or appropriate penalty points (fixed penalty)' instead of '3-6 penalty points (or 3, if a fixed penalty)'. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 89(1) of speeding under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 or other Acts is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3. As to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; as to disqualification see PARA 1057 et seq post; as to endorsement see PARA 1080 et seq post; as to penalty points see PARA 1048 et seq post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

The Secretary of State may make payments in respect of the whole or any part of the expenditure of a public authority in relation to the prevention or detection of offences under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 89(1) or any enforcement action or proceedings in respect of such offences or any alleged such offences: Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 s 38(1), (2)(d). As to such payments see further PARA 758 ante.

6 For the meaning of 'driving' see PARA 207 ante.

7 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 89(2). In Crossland v DPP [1988] 3 All ER 712, [1988] RTR 417, DC, a police constable reached the scene of an accident shortly after it had occurred and inspected the skid marks and damage to the defendant's car; he carried out certain tests, and deduced that the defendant had been driving at not less than 41 mph before she applied her brakes; the defendant was convicted of driving in excess of the speed limit of 30 mph, and on appeal it was held that although the constable's evidence included a significant element of expert opinion, his evidence did not amount solely to opinion, as he had also described the objectively determinable phenomena on which his opinion was based. In Swain v Gillett [1974] RTR 446, [1974] Crim LR 433, DC, it was held that where evidence is given on the operation of a stop-watch, speedometer or other instrument it is not necessary to prove that the instrument has been tested.

8 Is an offence as is mentioned in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 89(1): see the text and notes 1-5 supra.

857. Quiet lanes and home zones.

A local traffic authority<sup>1</sup> may designate any road<sup>2</sup> for which it is the traffic authority as a quiet lane or a home zone<sup>3</sup>.

The appropriate national authority<sup>4</sup> may make regulations authorising local traffic authorities who have designated roads as quiet lanes or home zones to make use orders<sup>5</sup> and speed orders<sup>6</sup> of such descriptions as are prescribed by the regulations in relation to any roads designated by them as quiet lanes or home zones<sup>7</sup>.

The appropriate national authority may also make regulations specifying procedures for the making, variation and revocation of: (1) designations; and (2) use orders and speed orders, including procedures for confirmation (whether by the appropriate national authority or any other body)<sup>8</sup>. The appropriate national authority may give guidance to local traffic authorities about matters to which they must have regard in determining whether or not to designate a road as a quiet lane or home zone<sup>9</sup>.

Regulations made under these provisions must be made by statutory instrument and may make different provision for different cases or areas<sup>10</sup>. A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Secretary of State under these provisions is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>11</sup>.

1 'Local traffic authority' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 731 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 268(8).

2 'Road' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 206 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 268(8).

3 Ibid s 268(1).

4 'The appropriate national authority' in relation to England is the Secretary of State: ibid s 268(8). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

5 A use order is an order permitting the use of a road for purposes other than passage (ibid s 268(3)), but a use order may not permit any person: (1) wilfully to obstruct the lawful use of a road by others; or (2) to use a road in a way which would deny reasonable access to premises situated on or adjacent to the road (s 268(4)).

6 A speed order is an order authorising the local traffic authority by which it is made to take measures with a view to reducing the speed of motor vehicles or cycles (or both) on a road to below that specified in the order: ibid s 268(5). 'Motor vehicle' means a mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on roads; and 'cycle' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Act 1988 (see PARA 409 note 3 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 268(8).

7 Ibid s 268(2).

8 Ibid s 268(6).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(7) BOLLARDS AND OTHER OBSTRUCTIONS/858. Bollards and other obstructions outside Greater London.

(7) BOLLARDS AND OTHER OBSTRUCTIONS

858. Bollards and other obstructions outside Greater London.

Where the passage, or the passage in any direction, of vehicles, or of vehicles of any class<sup>1</sup>, is prohibited at any point of a road<sup>2</sup> outside Greater London<sup>3</sup> by an order<sup>4</sup>, the traffic authority<sup>5</sup> may place, or authorise or require to be placed, at or near that point such bollards or other obstructions as it considers appropriate for preventing their passage<sup>6</sup>. The bollards or other obstructions that may be so placed include obstructions of any description whatsoever<sup>7</sup> and may be either fixed or moveable<sup>8</sup>, and may be placed so as to prevent the passage of vehicles at all times or at certain times only<sup>9</sup>. The bollards or other obstructions so authorised<sup>10</sup> must generally be placed on the road by the traffic authority<sup>11</sup>. Any power under these provisions to place an obstruction includes power to maintain or light it<sup>12</sup>.

Where the above powers<sup>13</sup> have been exercised with respect to two or more points of a road, so that the passage of vehicles along a stretch of that road is prevented, those powers extend to placing, or authorising the placing of, further obstructions on that stretch of road<sup>14</sup>. However, any obstructions placed under those powers must not be so placed as to prevent at any time the passage of pedestrians past the point or along the stretch of road in question, and must not be of such a nature that the re-opening of the road to vehicles would be unreasonably difficult or so as to alter the nature of the surface of the road<sup>15</sup>.

Where by virtue of such an order the Secretary of State<sup>16</sup> has power to place bollards or other obstructions at a point on a road, he may authorise or require the traffic authority for any other road leading into or crossing that road at that point to place the bollards or other obstructions on that other road<sup>17</sup>. The Secretary of State may authorise or require a local traffic authority<sup>18</sup> which has placed bollards or other obstructions on a road<sup>19</sup> to remove them<sup>20</sup>. Any power so conferred to authorise or require an authority to place an obstruction includes power to authorise or require the authority to maintain or light it<sup>21</sup>. If a local traffic authority fails to comply with any requirement so imposed to carry out any such work, the Secretary of State may himself carry out the work, and the expense incurred by him in doing so is recoverable by him from the authority summarily as a civil debt<sup>22</sup>. Any requirement so imposed is enforceable on the application of the Secretary of State by a mandatory order<sup>23</sup>.

Bollards and other obstructions in Greater London.

859. Bollards and other obstructions in Greater London.

Where an order similar to traffic regulation orders<sup>1</sup> or an experimental traffic order<sup>2</sup> is made or proposed to be made by the Secretary of State<sup>3</sup>, he may, to such extent as he considers necessary in connection with the order, authorise or require any person who is responsible for the maintenance of any road<sup>4</sup> in Greater London for which he is not the traffic authority<sup>5</sup>:

- 695 (1) to place on the carriageway such bollards or other obstructions as the Secretary of State may consider appropriate for preventing the passage of vehicles, or vehicles of any class<sup>6</sup>, at any point at which their passage (whether in any - direction or in one direction only) is prohibited by any such order, and to maintain and light those obstructions<sup>7</sup>; or

- 696 (2) to remove any obstruction placed by that person in pursuance of such an authorisation or requirement<sup>8</sup>.

Where such an order is made or proposed to be made by a London borough council<sup>9</sup>, it may, to such extent as it considers necessary in connection with the order, authorise or require any person who is responsible for the maintenance of any road in its area for which neither it nor the Secretary of State is the traffic authority<sup>10</sup>:

- 697 (a) to place on the carriageway such bollards or other obstructions as it may consider appropriate for preventing the passage of vehicles, or vehicles of any class, at any point at which their passage (whether in any direction or in one direction only) is prohibited by any such order, and to maintain and light those obstructions<sup>11</sup>; or
- 698 (b) to remove any obstruction placed by that person in pursuance of such an authorisation or requirement<sup>12</sup>.

To such extent as the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, a London borough council may consider necessary in connection with such an order, whether made or proposed to be made by the Secretary of State or that council<sup>13</sup>:

- 699 (i) the Secretary of State may do with respect to any road for which he is the traffic authority anything which he might under head (1) above require to be done with respect to any other road<sup>14</sup>; and
- 700 (ii) a London borough council may do with respect to any road in its area for which it is the traffic authority anything which it might under head (a) above require to be done with respect to a road for which it is not the traffic authority<sup>15</sup>.

If a person fails to comply with a requirement to carry out any such work, the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the London borough council may carry out the work, and the expenses incurred by the Secretary of State or that council in doing so are recoverable summarily as a civil debt from that person<sup>16</sup>.

(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT

(i) In general

860. Information as to identity of driver or rider.

Where the driver<sup>1</sup> of a vehicle is alleged to be guilty of an offence to which this provision applies<sup>2</sup>:

- 701 (1) the person keeping the vehicle must give such information as to the identity of the driver as he may be required to give by or on behalf of a chief officer of police<sup>3</sup> or, in the case of certain offences<sup>4</sup>, by or on behalf of a chief officer of police or, in writing, by or on behalf of the local authority for the parking place in question<sup>5</sup>; and
- 702 (2) any other person must, if required as mentioned in head (1) above, give any information which it is in his power to give and which may lead to the identification of the driver<sup>6</sup>.

A person who fails to comply with the requirements of head (1) above is guilty of an offence unless he shows to the satisfaction of the court that he did not know, and could not with reasonable diligence have ascertained, who was the driver of the vehicle or, as the case may be, the rider of the bicycle or tricycle; and a person who fails to comply with the requirements of head (2) above is also guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'driver' see PARA 207 ante. For these purposes, references to the 'driver of a vehicle' include references to the person riding a bicycle or tricycle (not being a motor vehicle): see the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 112(3). For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

2 Ibid s 112 (as amended) applies to any offence under ss 1-111 (as amended) except:

1409 (1) s 43 (as amended) (see PARA 797 ante), s 52 (as amended) (see PARA 816 ante), s 88(7) (see PARA 855 ante), s 104 (as amended) (see PARA 876 post), s 105 (as amended) (see PARA 877 post) and s 108 (see PARA 885 post) (s 112(1)(a));

5 Ibid s 112(2)(a)(ii) (amended by the Parking Act 1989 s 4, Schedule para 6). In relation to an offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 61(5) (see PARA 826 ante), s 112(2)(a) (as amended) has effect as if, for s 112(2)(a)(i), (ii), there were substituted the words 'by a notice in writing given to him by a local authority in whose area the loading area in question is situated': s 112(3)(b). In s 112(2)(a) (as modified by s 112(3)(b)), 'local authority' means any of the following: a county council, a district council, a London borough council and the Common Council of the City of London: s 112(3) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 102(2), Sch 17). - 704 (2) makes or has in his possession anything so closely resembling any such thing as is mentioned in head (1) above as to be calculated to deceive<sup>7</sup>.

A person who knowingly makes a false statement for the purpose of procuring the grant or issue to himself or any other person of any such authorisation is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>.

If any person authorised in that behalf by or under a designation order<sup>9</sup> has reasonable cause to believe that a document or article carried on a vehicle, or by the driver<sup>10</sup> or person in charge of a vehicle, is a document or article in relation to which an offence has been committed<sup>11</sup>, he may detain that document or article, and may for that purpose require the driver or person in charge of the vehicle to deliver up the document or article; and if the driver or person in charge of the vehicle fails to comply with that requirement, he is guilty of an offence<sup>12</sup>. When a document or article has been so detained and:

- 705 (i) at any time after the expiry of six months from the date when that detention began no person has been charged since that date with an offence in relation to the document or article<sup>13</sup>; and 706 (ii) the document or article has not been returned to the person to whom the authorisation in question was issued or to the person who at the date was the driver or person in charge of the vehicle<sup>14</sup>, then, on an application made for the purpose to a magistrates' court<sup>15</sup>, the court must make such order respecting disposal of the document or article and award such costs as the justice of the case may require<sup>16</sup>. Any of the following, but no other, persons are entitled to make such an application<sup>17</sup> with respect to a document or article<sup>18</sup>:

- 707 (A) the person to whom the authorisation was issued<sup>19</sup>;
 708 (B) the person who, at the date when the detention of the document or article began, was the driver or person in charge of the vehicle<sup>20</sup>; and 709 (C) the person for the time being having possession of the document or article<sup>21</sup>.

862 Wrongful use of disabled person's badge

NOTES 3, 9, 10, 13--Amendments made by Disability Discrimination Act 2005 in force 30 March 2008 in relation to Wales: SI 2007/3285.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Traffic Officers/863. Introduction.

(ii) Traffic Officers

863. Introduction.

Provision<sup>1</sup> has been made for the designation<sup>2</sup> of individuals as traffic officers<sup>3</sup> by, or under an authorisation given by, the Secretary of State<sup>4</sup> or the Welsh Ministers<sup>5</sup>. The duties assigned to traffic officers must be connected with, or intended to facilitate or to be conducive or incidental to: (1) the management of traffic on the relevant road network<sup>6</sup>; or (2) the performance of any other functions of the appropriate national authority<sup>7</sup> (in its capacity as a traffic authority<sup>8</sup> or highway authority<sup>9</sup>). Traffic officers have special powers<sup>10</sup> for use in connection with the performance of their duties<sup>11</sup>.

1    Ie the Traffic Management Act 2004 Pt 1 (ss 1-15).

The provisions dealt with in this paragraph have been brought into force in relation to England (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1 and Transitional Provision) (England) Order 2004, SI 2004/2380, art 2(a)), but at the date at which this volume states the law no day had been appointed for their commencement in relation to Wales.

2    'Designation' means designation as a traffic officer under the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 2 (see PARA 864 post): s 15.

3    'Traffic officer' means an individual designated under ibid s 2: s 15.

4    As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

5    See the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 1(1). As to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. As to the power to acquire land for the purpose of providing buildings or facilities needed for traffic management purposes see s 13; and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 80.

6    For this purpose, 'relevant road network' means the network of relevant roads in England (in the case of traffic officers designated by, or under an authorisation given by, the Secretary of State) or the network of relevant roads in Wales (in the case of traffic officers designated by, or under an authorisation given by, the Welsh Ministers): ibid s 1(3). In Pt 1, 'relevant road' means a road in England for which the Secretary of State is the traffic authority or a road in Wales for which the Welsh Ministers are the traffic authority: s 1(5). 'Road' means any length of highway or of any other road to which the public has access, and includes bridges over which a road passes: s 15.

7    'The appropriate national authority' means the Secretary of State, as respects England, or the Welsh Ministers, as respects Wales: ibid s 15. The appropriate national authority may, at the request of any person, agree to arrange for the services of a traffic officer to be provided to that person subject to the payment of a charge: s 12.

8    'Traffic authority' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 731 ante): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 15.

9    Ibid s 1(2). As to highway authorities see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 50 et seq.

10   Ie the powers referred to in ibid s 5(1): see PARA 866 post.

11   Ibid s 1(4).

UPDATE

863-867 Traffic Officers

These provisions in force 1 May 2009 in relation to Wales: SI 2009/1095.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Traffic Officers/864. Designation of traffic officers.

864. Designation of traffic officers.

The appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> may: (1) designate individuals as traffic officers; and (2) authorise another person to designate individuals as traffic officers<sup>2</sup>. Such a designation or authorisation must be given (and may be varied or withdrawn) in writing, and may be given subject to such limitations and conditions as the appropriate national authority thinks appropriate<sup>3</sup>. The designation of an individual as a traffic officer must be made (and may be withdrawn) in writing<sup>4</sup>. A designation may provide that it is to remain in force (unless it is withdrawn or otherwise ceases to have effect) for a specified period<sup>5</sup>. A traffic officer designated under an authorisation must be employed by, or by a person providing services to, the authorised person<sup>6</sup>. An individual designated under an authorisation ceases to be a traffic officer if the person who appointed him either withdraws his designation or ceases to be authorised<sup>7</sup>. The appropriate national authority may direct an authorised person to withdraw immediately the designation of all or any of the individuals who have been designated by that person<sup>8</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'appropriate national authority' see PARA 863 note 7 ante.

2 Traffic Management Act 2004 s 2(1).

The provisions dealt with in this paragraph have been brought into force in relation to England (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1 and Transitional Provision) (England) Order 2004, SI 2004/2380, art 2(a)), but at the date at which this volume states the law no day had been appointed for their commencement in relation to Wales.

The appropriate national authority may give financial assistance to an authorised person, in such form and on such terms as it considers appropriate, in respect of the traffic officers designated by that person (including financial assistance in respect of equipment, accommodation or other facilities provided for those traffic officers): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 14.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Traffic Officers/865. Jurisdiction and duties of traffic officers.

865. Jurisdiction and duties of traffic officers.

A traffic officer<sup>1</sup> has jurisdiction over any relevant road<sup>2</sup> in England<sup>3</sup> or Wales<sup>4</sup>, unless his designation provides that he does not have such jurisdiction<sup>5</sup>, in which case he has jurisdiction only over such relevant roads, or relevant roads of such descriptions, as may be specified in his designation<sup>6</sup>. A traffic officer must, when carrying out his duties, comply with any direction of a constable<sup>7</sup>. Subject to that requirement, a traffic officer designated by an authorised person<sup>8</sup> must, when carrying out his duties, comply with any direction of the appropriate national authority<sup>9</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'traffic officer' see PARA 863 note 3 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'relevant road' see PARA 863 note 6 ante.

UPDATE

863-867 Traffic Officers

These provisions in force 1 May 2009 in relation to Wales: SI 2009/1095.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(ii) Traffic Officers/866. Special powers.

866. Special powers.

A traffic officer<sup>1</sup> has special powers<sup>2</sup> which may only be exercised for one or more of the following purposes: (1) maintaining or improving the movement of traffic on a relevant road<sup>3</sup> over which the traffic officer has jurisdiction<sup>4</sup>; (2) preventing or reducing the effect of anything causing (or which has the potential to cause) congestion or other disruption to the movement of traffic on such a road; (3) avoiding danger to persons or other traffic using such a road (or preventing risks of any such danger arising); and (4) preventing damage to, or to anything on or near, such a road, or for a purpose incidental to any of those purposes<sup>5</sup>. Subject to those restrictions, a traffic officer's special powers may be exercised: (a) on or in relation to any relevant road over which the traffic officer has jurisdiction to act<sup>6</sup>; or (b) provided that the traffic officer is acting at the direction of the chief officer of police for the area in which the road is situated or with the consent of the traffic authority<sup>7</sup> for the road, on or in relation to any other road in England and Wales<sup>8</sup>. A traffic officer may not exercise his special powers on a road unless he is in uniform<sup>9</sup>.

A traffic officer has the power: (i) when he is engaged in the regulation of traffic in a road, to direct a person driving or propelling a vehicle to stop the vehicle or to make it proceed in, or keep to, a particular line of traffic; (ii) for the purposes of a traffic survey of any description which is being carried out on or in the vicinity of a road, to direct a person driving or propelling a vehicle: (A) to stop the vehicle; (B) to make it proceed in, or keep to, a particular line of traffic; or (C) to proceed to a particular point on or near the road on which the vehicle is being driven or propelled<sup>10</sup>; (iii) when the traffic officer is engaged in the regulation of vehicular traffic in a road, to direct persons on foot (or such persons and other traffic) to stop; and (iv) to direct a person driving a mechanically propelled vehicle, or riding a cycle, on a road to stop the vehicle or cycle<sup>11</sup>. A traffic officer has the powers of a constable in the case of emergencies and temporary obstructions to place and temporarily maintain traffic signs on a road or on any structure on a road<sup>12</sup>.

The appropriate national authority may by order made by statutory instrument confer further special powers on traffic officers<sup>13</sup>; but the national authority may not confer a further special power on traffic officers unless it is satisfied that the power is necessary for the purpose of facilitating the performance of any duties which may be assigned to traffic officers<sup>14</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'traffic officer' see PARA 863 note 3 ante.

2 The powers conferred: (1) by the Traffic Management Act 2004 ss 6, 7 (see the text and notes 10-12 infra); (2) by orders under s 8 (see the text and notes 13-14 infra); and (3) by or under any other Act which are expressed to be special powers for the purposes of s 5: s 5(1).

The provisions dealt with in this paragraph have been brought into force in relation to England (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1 and Transitional Provision) (England) Order 2004, SI 2004/2380, art 2(a)), but at the date at which this volume states the law they are only partly in force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2) (a); and note 8 infra). The remaining provisions are to be brought into force in Wales as from a day to be appointed under the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 99(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

3 For the meaning of 'relevant road' see PARA 863 note 6 ante.

12 le the powers under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 67(1) (as amended) (see PARA 833 ante): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 7(1).

13 Ibid s 8(1). The order may: (1) provide for the enforcement of any special power conferred by the order (whether by the creation of a summary offence or otherwise); and (2) make supplemental, incidental, transitional or consequential provision (including provision amending any Act or subordinate legislation): s 8(3). An order under s 8 may not be made by the Secretary of State unless a draft of the order has been laid before and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament: s 8(4).

14 Ibid s 8(2). As to the power under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99 (as amended) to make regulations in relation to the removal of vehicles by traffic officers see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 9; and PARA 870 post.

867. Offences.

A person who assaults a traffic officer<sup>1</sup> in the execution of his duties is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment or to a fine or to both<sup>2</sup>.

A person who resists or wilfully obstructs a traffic officer in the execution of his duties is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment or to a fine or to both<sup>3</sup>.

A person who, with intent to deceive: (1) impersonates a traffic officer; (2) makes any statement or does any act calculated falsely to suggest that he is a traffic officer; or (3) makes any statement or does any act calculated falsely to suggest that he has powers as a traffic officer that exceed the powers he actually has, is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment or to a fine or to both<sup>4</sup>.

A person who: (a) a traffic officer reasonably believes to have been the driver of a vehicle at a time of a failure to comply with: (i) a direction given in relation to that vehicle under a power to stop or direct traffic<sup>5</sup>; or (ii) the indication given by a traffic sign placed under a power to place such a sign<sup>6</sup>; and (b) fails to give his name and address to a traffic officer in uniform on being required to do so by that officer, is guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'traffic officer' see PARA 863 note 3 ante.

2 Traffic Management Act 2004 s 10(1). The penalty is imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or both: see s 10(1). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. In the case of offences committed before the commencement of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 s 281(5) (which introduces a maximum term of 51 weeks for certain offences), the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 10(1) applies as if for '51 weeks' there were substituted 'six months': s 10(6). At the date at which this volume states the law no commencement date had been appointed for the Criminal Justice Act 2003 s 281(5).

The Traffic Management Act 2004 s 10 is in force in relation to both England and Wales: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1 and Transitional Provision) (England) Order 2004, SI 2004/2380, art 2(a); and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(a).

3 Traffic Management Act 2004 s 10(2). The penalty is imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks or a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale or both: see s 10(2). In the case of offences committed before the commencement of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 s 281(5) (see note 2 supra), the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 10(2) applies as if for '51 weeks' there were substituted 'one month': s 10(6).

4 Ibid s 10(3). The penalty is imprisonment for a term not exceeding 51 weeks or a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or both: see s 10(3). In the case of offences committed before the commencement of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 s 281(5) (see note 2 supra), the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 10(3) applies as if for '51 weeks' there were substituted 'six months': s 10(6).

UPDATE

863-867 Traffic Officers

These provisions in force 1 May 2009 in relation to Wales: SI 2009/1095.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(iii) Traffic Wardens/868. Appointment of traffic wardens.

(iii) Traffic Wardens

868. Appointment of traffic wardens.

A police authority<sup>1</sup> may appoint<sup>2</sup> persons to discharge, in aid of the police, functions normally undertaken by the police in connection with the control and regulation of, or the enforcement of the law relating to, traffic (including pedestrians) or stationary vehicles<sup>3</sup>. Persons so appointed are to act under the direction of the chief officer of police<sup>4</sup>, but are to be deemed to be employed by the police authority<sup>5</sup>. Persons so employed are known as 'traffic wardens'<sup>6</sup>.

A police authority employing traffic wardens for these purposes may also<sup>7</sup> employ them to act, under the direction of the chief officer of police, for other purposes connected with the control and regulation of traffic (including pedestrians) or stationary vehicles<sup>8</sup>. Where the police authority provides school crossing patrols<sup>9</sup>, whether as being the appropriate authority or by agreement with the appropriate authority, traffic wardens may be employed to act as school crossing patrols<sup>10</sup>. The police authority may, under arrangements made with a local authority or with the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup>, employ the traffic wardens to act as parking attendants<sup>12</sup> at street parking places<sup>13</sup> provided or controlled by the local authority or, as the case may be, by the Secretary of State<sup>14</sup>.

Traffic wardens are not to be employed to discharge functions other than those prescribed as appropriate for the purpose by order of the Secretary of State made by statutory instrument<sup>15</sup>.

A police authority must not employ as a traffic warden any person who is a constable<sup>16</sup>, and must take steps to ensure that only persons adequately qualified are appointed traffic wardens, and that they are suitably trained before undertaking their duties<sup>17</sup>. Traffic wardens must wear such uniform as the Secretary of State may determine, and must not act as traffic wardens when not in uniform<sup>18</sup>.

The expenses incurred for these purposes or in connection with these functions of a police authority must be defrayed as if those expenses were expenses incurred for the purposes of the police force maintained by the authority<sup>19</sup>.

Any power to acquire, or authorise the acquisition of, land for the purposes of a police force includes power to acquire, or authorise the acquisition of, land for the purposes of the functions of the police authority under the above provisions<sup>20</sup>; and any land occupied for the purposes of those functions is deemed to be occupied for the purposes of the police force<sup>21</sup>.

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(1).

6 Ibid s 95(3). Neither regulations under the Superannuation Act 1972 s 7 (superannuation of persons employed in local government service, etc) nor any local Act scheme within the meaning of s 8 applies to traffic wardens by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95 (as amended) or s 96 (as amended); but, in relation to such traffic wardens as the police authority may determine, those regulations (or, if the expenses of the police authority are paid by a local Act authority, the local Act scheme) apply, subject to such adaptations, modifications and exceptions as the Secretary of State may by regulations prescribe: s 97(1) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 ss 325, 423, Sch 27 para 48(1), (2), Sch 34 Pt VII). At the date at which this volume states the law no regulations had been made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 97(1) (as amended).

11 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

12 As to parking attendants see PARA 869 post.

13 For the meaning of 'street parking place' see PARA 752 note 10 ante.

14 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(4)(b). For these purposes, 'Transport for London' is a local authority: s 95(4A) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 290).

15 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(5). No order may be so made unless a draft of the order has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament: s 95(5). At the date at which this volume states the law no order had been made under s 95(5) but, by virtue of the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2)(b), the Functions of Traffic Wardens Order 1970, SI 1970/1958 (amended by SI 1986/1328; SI 1993/1334; SI 2002/2975) has effect as if so made.

An order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(5) may provide that, for the purposes of any functions which traffic wardens are authorised by the order to discharge, but subject to the provisions of s 96(3) (as amended), references to a constable or police constable in all or any of the enactments specified below includes references to a traffic warden: s 96(1). The enactments referred to in s 96(1) are:

- 1412 (1) the Metropolitan Police Act 1839 s 52 (as amended), so far as it relates to the giving by the commissioner of directions to constables for preventing obstructions (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(a));
- 1413 (2) the City of London Police Act 1839 s 22, so far as it makes similar provision with respect to the City of London (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(b));
- 1414 (3) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 100(3) (see PARA 870 post) (which relates to the interim disposal of vehicles removed under s 99 (see PARA 870 post)) (s 96(2)(bb)(i) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 31));
- 1415 (4) the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104 (as amended) (see PARA 876 post) and s 105 (as amended) (see PARA 877 post) (which relate to the immobilisation of illegally parked vehicles) (s 96(2)(bb)(ii) (as so added));
- 1416 (5) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 35(1) (see PARA 642 ante), s 36 (as amended) (see PARA 643 ante) and s 37 (see PARA 644 ante) (which relate to compliance with traffic directions given by police constables) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(c)(i) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 s 4, Sch 3 para 25));
- 1417 (6) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 67(3) (see PARA 684 ante) (which relates to the power of a constable in uniform to stop vehicles for testing) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(c)(ia) (added by the Police Reform Act 2002 ss 44(1), (2), 108(10)(a)));
- 1418 (7) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 163 (as amended) (see PARA 646 ante) (which relates to the power of a constable to stop vehicles) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(c)(ii) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 Sch 3 para 25));
- 1419 (8) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1), (2), (6) (as amended) (see PARA 647 ante) (which relates to the power of a constable to require the production of a driving licence in certain circumstances) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(c)(iii) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 Sch 3 para 25));
- 1420 (9) the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended) (see PARA 648 ante) and s 169 (see PARA 644 ante) (which relate to the powers of constables to obtain names and addresses of drivers and others and to require production of evidence of insurance or security and test certificates) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(c)(iv) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 Sch 3 para 25(6), (7))); and
- 1421 (10) the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 11 (as amended) (see PARA 1035 post) (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(d) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 Sch 3 para 25)).

Where an order has been made pursuant to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(bb)(i) (as added), in s 100(3) (see PARA 870 post) the words 'chief officer of the police force to which the constable belongs' are deemed to include a reference to a chief officer of police under whose direction a traffic warden acts: s 96(4) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 31). Any order made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 95(5) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case, or in respect of different areas: s 96(5) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 31).

16 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. Any power of a constable for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 164(1), (2), (6) (as amended) and s 165 (as amended) is to be exercisable by a traffic warden under an order made by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(1) only where:

- 1422 (1) the traffic warden is assisting a constable (s 96(3)(a) (amended by the Road Traffic (Consequential Provisions) Act 1988 Sch 3 para 25));

1423 (2) the traffic warden has reasonable cause to believe that an offence has been committed of a description specified in relation to the provision in question for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(3)(b) (as amended) by the order, and, in the case of a power for the purposes of the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 165 (as amended), the order authorises the use of that power in relation to that offence (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(3)(b) (as so amended; and further amended by the Police Reform Act 2002 ss 44(1), (3), 107(2), 108(10) (a), Sch 8)).

868 Appointment of traffic wardens

NOTES--Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in this paragraph are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(iv) Parking Attendants/869. Parking attendants.

(iv) Parking Attendants

869. Parking attendants.

A local authority<sup>1</sup> may provide for the supervision of parking places<sup>2</sup> within its area by individuals known as parking attendants<sup>3</sup>. Parking attendants also have such other functions in relation to stationary vehicles as may be conferred by or under any other enactment<sup>4</sup>. A parking attendant is an individual employed by the authority, or where the authority has made arrangements with any person for these purposes, an individual employed by that person to act as a parking attendant<sup>5</sup>. Parking attendants in an area that is a civil enforcement area<sup>6</sup> for parking contraventions<sup>7</sup>, when exercising prescribed<sup>8</sup> functions, must wear such uniform as may be determined by the enforcement authority<sup>9</sup> in accordance with guidance issued by the appropriate national authority<sup>10</sup>, and must not exercise any of those functions when not in uniform<sup>11</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 784 note 1 ante; definition applied by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(5) (s 63A added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 44(1)). For these purposes, Transport for London is also a local authority: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(5) (as so added; and amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 289(1), (3)). For these purposes, the area of Transport for London is Greater London: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(6) (s 63A as so added; and s 63A(6) added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 289(1), (4)). As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

2 For the meaning of 'parking place' see PARA 784 note 2 ante; definition applied by virtue of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(5) (as added: see note 1 supra).

3 Ibid s 63A(1) (as added: see note 1 supra).

4 Ibid s 63A(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

5 Ibid s 63A(3) (as added: see note 1 supra).

6 As to civil enforcement areas see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 74, Sch 8; applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(4) (as added (see note 1 supra); and s 63A(4) substituted by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 2). See PARA 888 post.

7 As to parking contraventions see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 73, Sch 7 Pt 1; applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(4) (as substituted: see note 6 supra). See PARA 888 post.

8 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 735 note 3 ante.

9 For the meaning of 'enforcement authority' see the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 8; applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(4) (as substituted: see note 6 supra). See PARA 888 note 5 post.

10 For the meaning of 'appropriate national authority' see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 92(1); applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A(4) (as substituted: see note 6 supra).

11 Ibid s 63A(4) (as substituted: see note 6 supra). The Parking Attendants (Wearing of Uniforms) (London) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/1450, prescribe for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 63A (as added and amended) functions conferred by or under s 99 (as amended) (see PARA 870 post).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/870. Removal of vehicles illegally, obstructively or dangerously parked, or abandoned or broken down.

(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles

870. Removal of vehicles illegally, obstructively or dangerously parked, or abandoned or broken down.

The Secretary of State<sup>1</sup> may by regulations make provision for the removal of vehicles<sup>2</sup> which have been permitted to remain at rest<sup>3</sup>:

- 714 (1) on a road<sup>4</sup> in contravention of any statutory<sup>5</sup> prohibition or restriction<sup>6</sup>; or
- 715 (2) on a road in such a position or in such condition or in such circumstances as to cause obstruction to other persons using the road or as to be likely to cause danger to such persons<sup>7</sup>; or
- 716 (3) on a road, or on any land in the open air, in such a position or in such condition or in such circumstances as to appear, to an authority empowered by the regulations to remove such vehicles, to have been abandoned without lawful authority<sup>8</sup>, or which have broken down on a road<sup>9</sup>. Such regulations may provide: (a) in the case of a vehicle which may be removed from a road, for the moving of the vehicle from one position on a road to another position on that or another road<sup>10</sup>; and (b) for repealing byelaws dealing with the same subject matter as the regulations, and for suspending, while the regulations remain in force, any power of making such byelaws<sup>11</sup>.

Where it appears to an authority which is otherwise empowered<sup>12</sup> to remove a vehicle in pursuance of such regulations, that the vehicle is on land other than a road which is occupied by any person, the authority must give him notice in the prescribed<sup>13</sup> manner that it proposes to remove the vehicle in pursuance of the regulations, and is not entitled to remove it if he objects to the proposal in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period<sup>14</sup>.

Any vehicle<sup>15</sup> removed by the council of a non-metropolitan district in England under such regulations is to be delivered by it to the council of the county comprising the district in accordance with such arrangements (including arrangements as to the sharing of any expenses incurred or sums received by the two councils<sup>16</sup>) as may be agreed between the two councils or, in default of agreement, as may be determined by the Secretary of State<sup>17</sup>. Any vehicle removed by a constable<sup>18</sup> in pursuance of any such regulations and appearing to him to have been abandoned may be delivered by the chief officer of the police force to which the constable belongs<sup>19</sup> to a local authority<sup>20</sup>, with the consent of that authority<sup>21</sup>. While a vehicle is in the custody of an authority in pursuance of these provisions or of such regulations<sup>22</sup>, other than a vehicle which in the opinion of that authority is in such a condition that it ought to be destroyed, it is the duty of that authority to take such steps as are reasonably necessary for the safe custody of the vehicle<sup>23</sup>.

Where a vehicle has been removed from a road in Greater London by a parking attendant<sup>24</sup> acting on behalf of Transport for London or a participating council<sup>25</sup>, an authorised officer<sup>26</sup> may, at any time after the removal of the vehicle and before the vehicle is lawfully removed from the custody of the relevant authority or is disposed of<sup>27</sup>, enter the vehicle for the purpose of removing anything in it in the interests of the safety of persons or property outside the vehicle or for the prevention of damage to or loss of the vehicle or any of its contents<sup>28</sup>. The relevant authority must retain and keep safe anything so removed and must deliver it to any person claiming it who satisfies the relevant authority that he is the owner of it or of the vehicle in question<sup>29</sup>. However, where the vehicle from which anything is so removed is disposed of<sup>30</sup> the relevant authority may also, in any manner it thinks fit, dispose of the thing removed if it has not been claimed by any person who satisfies the relevant authority that he is its owner<sup>31</sup>.

1 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

2 For these purposes, 'vehicle' means any vehicle, whether or not it is in a fit state for use on roads, and includes any chassis or body, with or without wheels, appearing to have formed part of such a vehicle, and any load carried by, and anything attached to, such a vehicle: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99(5).

3 Ibid s 99(1).

4 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'statutory' see PARA 719 note 7 ante.

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99(1)(a).

7 Ibid s 99(1)(b).

8 Ibid s 99(1)(c). It is the appearance of abandonment, not whether the vehicle is in fact abandoned, which is crucial: Clarke v Chief Constable of West Midlands Police [2001] EWCA Civ 1169, [2002] RTR 30.

9 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99(1). As to the regulations made see the Removal and Disposal of Vehicles Regulations 1986, SI 1986/183 (amended by SI 1993/278; SI 1993/1595; SI 1993/1708; SI 1994/1503; SI 1996/1008; SI 2002/746; SI 2002/2777; SI 2005/3252). As to the modification of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99 (as amended) and s 100 (as amended) by regulations in relation to loading areas see PARA 875 post. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante.

The powers to remove parked vehicles may in specified circumstances be exercised by a constable, a traffic warden, a local authority and a parking attendant: see the Removal and Disposal of Vehicles Regulations 1986, SI 1986/183, reg 4, reg 4A (as added), reg 4B (as added), reg 5 (as amended), reg 5A (as added, substituted and amended) and reg 5B (as added). As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. As to traffic wardens see PARA 868 ante. As to parking attendants see PARA 869 ante.

The power to remove parked vehicles may now also be exercised by civilians designated or accredited by a chief officer of police for such purpose under the Police Reform Act 2002 Sch 4 para 10 (community support officers: see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 529 et seq) or Sch 5 para 7 (accredited persons: see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 533): see the Removal and Disposal of Vehicles Regulations 1986, SI 1986/183, reg 4A (added by SI 1993/278; and amended by SI 2002/2777).

The power to make regulations under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99 (as amended) includes, in relation to the removal of vehicles by traffic officers, power to make consequential provision: Traffic Management Act 2004 s 9(1). The provision which may be so made includes, in particular, provision: (1) amending; or (2) applying, in relation to vehicles removed by traffic officers (with or without modifications), any provision of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 100-102 (as amended) (see the text and notes 15-23 infra; and PARAS 871-874 post): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 9(2). As to traffic officers see PARA 863 et seq ante. Section 9 has been brought into force in relation to England (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1 and Transitional Provision) (England) Order 2004, SI 2004/2380), but at the date at which this volume states the law no day had been appointed for its commencement in relation to Wales.

18 For the purpose of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 100(3) (see the text to note 21 infra), references to constables or police constables include references to traffic wardens: Functions of Traffic Wardens Order 1970, SI 1970/1958, art 3(2)(f) (added by SI 1993/1334).

19 Where an order has been made pursuant to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 96(2)(bb)(i) (as added) (see PARA 868 ante), in s 100(3) (see the text to note 21 infra) the words 'chief officer of the police force to which the constable belongs' are deemed to include a reference to a chief officer of police under whose direction a traffic warden acts: s 96(4) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 31). As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

20 For these purposes, 'local authority' means:

1424 (1) in relation to England, the council of a county, metropolitan district or London borough, the Common Council of the City of London or Transport for London (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 100(5)(a) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4(31)(b); and by the Greater London Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1353, arts 2, 4));

1425 (2) in relation to Wales, means the council of a county or county borough (Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 100(5)(b) (amended by the Local Government (Wales) Act 1994 s 22(1), Sch 7 para 38(8))).

For the application of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 to the Channel Tunnel system see the Channel Tunnel (Application of Road Traffic Enactments) (No 2) Order 1994, SI 1994/1667, which confers functions exercisable by local authorities on the Channel tunnel Concessionaires.

Traffic Management Act 2004 s 9 in force 1 May 2009 in relation to Wales: SI 2009/1095.

TEXT AND NOTES 15-21--1984 Act s 100(3A) (interim disposal of vehicles removed under s 99 by traffic officers) added: SI 2008/2367 (England). As to the meaning of 'traffic officer' see 1984 Act s 100(5) (definition added by SI 2008/2367 (England)).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/871. Disposal of vehicles abandoned and removable.

871. Disposal of vehicles abandoned and removable.

A competent authority<sup>1</sup> may, in such manner as it thinks fit, dispose of a vehicle which appears to it to be abandoned and which has been, or could at any time be, removed in pursuance of certain orders or certain regulations<sup>2</sup>. The time at which a competent authority may so dispose of a vehicle is as follows<sup>3</sup>:

- 717 (1) in the case of a vehicle which in its opinion is in such a condition that it ought to be destroyed, any time after its removal<sup>4</sup>;
- 718 (2) in the case of a vehicle, not falling within head (1) above, which: (a) does not display a licence<sup>5</sup> (whether current or otherwise and whether or not the vehicle is required to display a licence); and (b) does not display any registration mark (whether indicating registration within or outside the United Kingdom), at any time after its removal<sup>6</sup>;
- 719 (3) in any other case, any time after such steps as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup> have been taken by a competent authority (or partly by one competent authority and partly by the other) to find a person appearing to the authority taking such steps to be the owner<sup>8</sup> of the vehicle and either<sup>9</sup> it has failed to find such a person<sup>10</sup>, or he has failed to comply with a notice served on him in the prescribed manner by a competent authority requiring him to remove the vehicle from its custody within the prescribed period<sup>11</sup>.

If, before a vehicle found outside Greater London is disposed of by an authority in pursuance of such provisions, the vehicle is claimed by a person who satisfies the authority that he is its owner and pays such sums in respect of its removal and storage as may be prescribed to the authority entitled to those sums, the authority is to permit him to remove the vehicle from its custody within such period as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>. If, before a vehicle found in Greater London is disposed of by an authority in pursuance of such provisions, the vehicle is claimed by a person who satisfies the authority that he is its owner and pays<sup>13</sup>:

- 720 (a) any penalty charge payable in respect of the parking of the vehicle in the place from which it was removed<sup>14</sup>; and
- 721 (b) such sums in respect of the removal and storage of the vehicle as the authority may require, or in the case of sums payable to a competent authority which is not a local authority, as may be prescribed<sup>15</sup>, the authority must permit him to remove the vehicle from its custody within such period as it may specify or, in the case of sums payable to a competent authority which is not a local authority, as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>.

If, before the end of the period of one year beginning with the date on which a vehicle found outside Greater London is sold by an authority in pursuance of these provisions, any person satisfies that authority that at the time of the sale he was the owner of the vehicle, that authority must pay him any sum by which the proceeds of sale exceed the aggregate of such sums in respect of the removal, storage and disposal of the vehicle as may be prescribed<sup>17</sup>. If, before the end of the period of one year beginning with the date on which a vehicle found in Greater London is sold by an authority in pursuance of these provisions, any person satisfies that authority that at the time of the sale he was the owner of the vehicle, that authority must pay him any sum by which the proceeds of sale exceed the aggregate of<sup>18</sup>:

- 722 (i) any penalty charge payable in respect of the parking of the vehicle in the place from which it was removed<sup>19</sup>; and
- 723 (ii) such sums in respect of the removal, storage and disposal of the vehicle as the authority may require, or in the case of sums payable to a competent authority which is not a local authority, as may be prescribed<sup>20</sup>.

The Secretary of State<sup>21</sup> may by regulations require an authority by which a vehicle is disposed of in pursuance of these provisions to give such information relating to the disposal as may be prescribed to such persons as may be prescribed<sup>22</sup>.

1 For these purposes, 'competent authority' in relation to a vehicle means: (1) the chief officer of the police force in whose area is the place from which the vehicle has been removed or could at any time be removed; (2) the local authority (other than Transport for London) in whose area that place is or to which the vehicle has been delivered by the chief officer of a police force; or (3) Transport for London, where the vehicle has been removed by a parking attendant on its behalf: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(8) (amended by the Greater London Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1353, arts 2, 5). For the meaning of 'vehicle' for these purposes see PARA 870 note 2 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(8). For the meaning of 'local authority' for these purposes see PARA 870 note 20 ante; definition applied by s 101(8). For the meaning of 'parking attendant' see PARA 869 ante.

2 Ibid s 101(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 67(2); and the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 3(1)(a)). The amendment made by the Traffic Management Act 2004, which makes the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(1) (as amended) subject to s 101(3) (as amended) (see the text and note 3 infra) and s 101A (as added) (see PARA 872 post), has been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 3(1)(a) is to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101 (as amended) applies to the following orders: (1) any order under s 35 (as amended) (see PARA 790 ante); (2) any order relating to a parking place designated under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante); and (3) any order containing a provision having effect by virtue of s 53(3) (see PARA 817 ante): s 101(2). The regulations referred to in the text are those made under s 99 (as amended): see PARA 870 ante.

3 Ibid s 101(3) (amended by the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 ss 16(1), (4), 107, Sch 5 Pt 3). The London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 6(2) has effect with respect to the time at which a competent authority may dispose of a vehicle under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101 (as amended) where the place from which the vehicle has been removed or could at any time be removed is in the borough of a participating council or the vehicle has been delivered by the Commissioner to a participating council: London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 6(1). In such circumstances, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(3) (as amended) has effect as though: (1) at the end of s 101(3)(b) (see the text to note 6 supra) there were added 'or after the expiry of a period of three months beginning with the removal, whichever is the sooner'; and (2) at the end of s 101(3) there were added 'or the expiry of a period of three months beginning with the removal, whichever is the sooner': London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 6(2). For the purposes of the London Local Authorities Act 1995, 'Commissioner' means the Metropolitan Police Commissioner or, in the City of London, the City of London Police Commissioner: s 2.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(3)(a) (amended by the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 ss 16(1), (2), 107, Sch 5 Pt 1).

5 For these purposes, 'licence' in relation to a vehicle means a licence issued for the vehicle under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (including a nil licence within the meaning of that Act) (see PARA 518 et seq ante): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(8) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 18(1); and the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 s 16(1), (5)).

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(3)(b) (substituted by the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 s 16(3)).

7 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 735 note 3 ante.

8 For these purposes, 'owner', in relation to a vehicle which is the subject of a hiring agreement or hire-purchase agreement, includes the person entitled to possession of the vehicle under the agreement: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(8). If in the case of any vehicle it appears to the authority in question that more than one person is or was its owner at the relevant time, such one of them as the authority thinks fit will be treated as its owner for the purposes of s 101(4)-(5A) (as amended): s 101(6) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 67(7)). This provision is repealed, as from a day to be appointed, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 ss 91, 98, Sch 11 para 3(1)(b), Sch 12; this repeal has been brought into effect in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)), and is to have effect in relation to England as from 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

871 Disposal of vehicles abandoned and removable

NOTE 1--Definitions of 'competent authority' and 'local authority' amended: SI 2008/2367 (England).

NOTE 22--SI 1986/183 further amended: SI 2007/3484 (England), SI 2008/612 (Wales). SI 1989/744 (as amended) replaced: Removal, Storage and Disposal of Vehicles (Prescribed Sums and Charges) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/2095 (amended by SI 2008/3013).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/872. Right of owner to recover vehicle or proceeds of sale.

872. Right of owner to recover vehicle or proceeds of sale.

If before a vehicle is disposed of by an authority<sup>1</sup> it is claimed by a person who: (1) satisfies the authority that he is its owner<sup>2</sup>; and (2) pays the relevant charges<sup>3</sup>, the authority must permit him to remove the vehicle from its custody within such period as it may specify or, in the case of an authority other than a local authority, as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>. If before the end of the period of one year beginning with the date on which a vehicle is sold by an authority<sup>5</sup> a person satisfies the authority that at the time of the sale he was the owner of the vehicle, the authority must pay him any sum by which the proceeds of sale exceed the amount of the relevant charges<sup>6</sup>.

1    Ie under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101 (as amended): see PARA 871 ante. As to the competent authorities see PARA 871 note 1 ante.

2    For the meaning of 'owner' for these purposes see PARA 871 note 8 ante; definition applied by ibid s 101A(6) (s 101A added by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 3(2)). If in the case of any vehicle it appears to the authority in question that more than one person is or was its owner at the relevant time, such one of them as the authority thinks fit is to be treated as its owner for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101A (as added): s 101A(5) (as so added).

Section 101A (as added) has been brought into effect in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)), and is to have effect in relation to England as from 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

3    In the case of a vehicle found in an area that is a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions, the relevant charges are: (1) any penalty charge payable in respect of the parking of the vehicle in the place from which it was removed; (2) such unpaid earlier penalty charges relating to the vehicle as may be prescribed; and (3) such sums in respect of the removal and storage of the vehicle: (a) as the authority may require in accordance with the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 9 (setting the level of charges in relation to civil enforcement: see PARA 888 note 3 post); or (b) in the case of an authority other than a local authority, as may be prescribed: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101A(3) (as added: see note 2 supra). In any other case, the relevant charges are such sums in respect of the removal and storage of the vehicle as may be prescribed: s 101A(4) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'civil enforcement area for parking contraventions' see PARA 810 note 2 ante; and for the meaning of 'penalty charge' see PARA 889 note 5 ante (definitions applied by s 101A(6) (as so added)).

4    Ibid s 101A(1) (as added: see note 2 supra).

5    Ie under ibid s 101 (as amended): see PARA 871 ante.

6    Ibid s 101A(2) (as added: see note 2 supra).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-

1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/873. Representations and appeals.

873. Representations and appeals.

The Lord Chancellor may make regulations entitling a person who in the case of a vehicle found in an area that is a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions<sup>1</sup>: (1) is required to pay an amount on recovering the vehicle<sup>2</sup>; or (2) receives a sum in respect of the vehicle<sup>3</sup> or is informed that the proceeds of sale did not exceed the aggregate amount from the proceeds of sale, to make representations to the authority concerned and to appeal to an adjudicator<sup>4</sup> if his representations are not accepted<sup>5</sup>. The regulations may make such provision in connection with the rights conferred as appears to the Lord Chancellor to be appropriate, and may in particular make provision:

- 724 (a) requiring the authority<sup>6</sup> to give a person notice of the rights conferred by the regulations;
- 725 (b) as to the grounds on which, and time within which, representations may be made;
- 726 (c) requiring supporting evidence in such circumstances as may be specified;
- 727 (d) as to the duties of the authority when representations are received;
- 728 (e) as to the circumstances in which there is a right of appeal to an adjudicator;
- 729 (f) generally as to the making, determination and effect of, and procedure in connection with, such appeals; and
- 730 (g) enabling an adjudicator to review any decision made on, or in the course of, an appeal<sup>7</sup>.

The regulations may include provision authorising an adjudicator to require a person: (i) to attend to give evidence at the hearing of an appeal; and (ii) to produce any documents in his custody or under his control relating to any matter relevant for the purposes of the appeal, and making it a criminal offence to fail to comply with such a requirement<sup>8</sup>. The regulations may include provision authorising an adjudicator to make an order for the payment of costs and expenses by a party to an appeal in such circumstances as may be specified<sup>9</sup>.

3 Ie under ibid s 101A(2) (as added): see PARA 872 ante.

4 As to parking adjudicators see PARAS 894-895 post. The functions of adjudicators under ibid s 101B (as added) are to be discharged by the persons appointed as adjudicators for the purposes of the Traffic Management Act 2004 Pt 6 (ss 72-93) (as amended) (civil enforcement of road traffic contraventions: see PARA 888 post), and any arrangements made for the discharge of their functions under Pt 6 (as amended) also have effect for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101B (as added): s 101B(5) (s 101B added by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 3(2)).

5 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101B(1) (as added: see note 4 supra). As from the day on which the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 3(2) comes into force in relation to England, the provisions of s 89(1)-(3) (see PARA 888 post) apply to regulations under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101B (as added) as they apply to regulations under the Traffic Management Act 2004 Pt 6 (as amended) (see PARA 888 post): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101B(6) (s 101B as so added; and s 101B(6) added by the Lord Chancellor (Modification of Functions) Order 2007, SI 2007/1756, art 2). The Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 3 came into force in relation to England, to the extent that it inserts the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101B (as added and amended), on 23 July 2007 and is to come into force in relation to England for remaining purposes on 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053, arts 1-3.

TEXT AND NOTES--As to regulations made under these provisions see Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (England) Representations and Appeals Regulations 2007, SI 2007/3482, which must be read in conjunction with the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (England) General Regulations 2007, SI 2007/3483 (see PARA 888); and the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (Representations and Appeals) Removed Vehicles (Wales) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/615, which must be read in conjunction with the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (General Provisions) (Wales) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/614, the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (Representations and Appeals) (Wales) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/608, and the Civil Enforcement of Parking Contraventions (Penalty Charge Notices, Enforcement and Adjudication)(Wales) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/609.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/874. Charges for removal, storage and disposal of vehicles.

874. Charges for removal, storage and disposal of vehicles.

Where a vehicle is removed<sup>1</sup> from a parking place in pursuance of an order<sup>2</sup>, or is removed from a road<sup>3</sup>, or from land in the open air, in pursuance of regulations<sup>4</sup>:

- 731 (1) the appropriate authority<sup>5</sup> is entitled to recover, from any person responsible<sup>6</sup>, such charges as may be prescribed<sup>7</sup> in respect of the removal of the vehicle<sup>8</sup>;
- 732 (2) the chief officer of a police force or a local authority other than a London authority<sup>9</sup> in whose custody any such vehicle is during any period is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, charges ascertained by reference to a prescribed scale in respect of that period<sup>10</sup>;
- 733 (3) the chief officer of a police force or a local authority other than a London authority who disposes of any such vehicle<sup>11</sup> is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, charges determined in the prescribed manner in respect of its disposal<sup>12</sup>; and
- 734 (4) a London authority is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, such charges in respect of the removal, storage and disposal of a vehicle removed from a designated parking place<sup>13</sup> or otherwise provided or controlled by that authority as it may require<sup>14</sup>.

Any sum so recoverable is recoverable as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction or, in the case of a sum not exceeding £20, summarily as a civil debt<sup>15</sup>. Where, however, by virtue of head (1) or head (2) above any sum is recoverable in respect of a vehicle by the chief officer of a police force or a local authority in whose custody the vehicle is, the chief officer or local authority is entitled<sup>16</sup> to retain custody of it until that sum has been paid<sup>17</sup>. Any sum so recovered by the chief officer of a police force must be paid into the police fund<sup>18</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102 (as amended), a vehicle removed, as mentioned in s 102(1), by the council of a non-metropolitan district in England is to be treated as in the custody of the council of the county comprising that district while it is in the custody of the district council by which it was so removed: s 102(6) (amended by the Local Government Act 1985 s 8, Sch 5 para 4). The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102 (as amended) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(a).

2 In an order to which the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101 (as amended) applies: see PARA 871 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(1). The text refers to regulations under s 99 (as amended): see PARA 870 ante.

5 For these purposes, 'appropriate authority': (1) in relation to a vehicle removed by a constable or a person acting in aid of a police force, means the chief officer of the police force to which the constable belongs or in whose aid that person was acting; and (2) in relation to a vehicle removed (by a person other than a constable or person acting in aid of a police force) from a place outside Greater London, which is a parking place provided or controlled by a local authority, or from a place (not being a parking place) on a road or land in the open air, means the local authority in whose area that place is: ibid s 102(8) (definition amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 68(1), (3), 83, Sch 8). For the purposes of head (2) supra, a parking place provided under a letting or arrangements made by a local authority in pursuance of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 33(4) (see PARA 785 ante) is to be treated as provided by that authority: see s 102(9) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 68(1), (4); and amended by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 4(1), (4)). The amendment made by the Traffic Management Act 2004 (making reference to the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(2A) (as added) (see note 8 infra) instead of s 102(2)(d)), has been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England the provisions of the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 4(1), (4) are to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053). As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

For the meaning of 'local authority' see PARA 870 note 20 ante (but note that, for these purposes, it does not include Transport for London); definition applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(8) (amended by the Greater London Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1353, arts 2, 6(a)). As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

6 For these purposes, 'person responsible' in relation to a vehicle means: (1) the owner of the vehicle at the time when it was put in the place from which it was removed as mentioned in ibid s 102(1), unless he shows that he was not concerned in, and did not know of, its being put there; (2) any person by whom the vehicle was put in that place; (3) any person convicted of an offence under the Refuse Disposal (Amenity) Act 1978 s 2(1) (as amended) (see ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH vol 46 (2010) PARA 742) in consequence of the putting of the vehicle in that place: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(8) (definition amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 68(1), (3), 83, Sch 8). For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante.

The court by which a person is convicted of an offence under the Refuse Disposal (Amenity) Act 1978 s 2(1) (as amended) in respect of a motor vehicle may, on the application of an authority and in addition to any other order made by the court in relation to that person, order him to pay to the authority any sum which, in the opinion of the court, the authority is entitled to recover from him under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102 (as amended) in respect of the vehicle: s 102(5). For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

7 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 735 note 3 ante. The relevant charges are prescribed by the Removal, Storage and Disposal of Vehicles (Prescribed, Sums and Charges etc) Regulations 1989 SI 1989/744 (amended by SI 1991/366; SI 1993/550; SI 1993/1415).

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(2)(a).

Section 102(2) (as amended) is substituted, and s 102(2A) is added, by the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 4(1), (2), as set out below. These amendments have been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England the provisions of the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 4(1), (2) are to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053). If the place from which the vehicle is removed is in an area that is not a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions: (1) the appropriate authority is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, such charges as may be prescribed in respect of the removal of the vehicle; (2) the chief officer of a police force or a local authority in whose custody the vehicle is during any period is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, charges ascertained by reference to a prescribed scale in respect of that period; and (3) the chief officer of a police force or a local authority who disposes of the vehicle in pursuance of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101 (as amended) is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, charges determined in the prescribed manner in respect of its disposal: s 102(2) (as so substituted). If the place from which the vehicle is removed is in an area that is a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions, the enforcement authority is entitled to recover, from any person responsible, such charges in respect of the removal, storage and disposal of the vehicle as it may require in accordance with the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 9 (setting the level of charges in relation to civil enforcement: see PARA 888 note 3 post): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(2A) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'civil enforcement area for parking contraventions' see PARA 810 note 2 ante; and as to the meaning of 'enforcement authority' see PARA 869 note 9 ante (definitions applied by s 102(8) (amended by the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 11 para 4(1), (3)). The amendment made by the Traffic Management Act 2004 has been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England the provisions of the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 91, Sch 11 para 4(1), (3) are to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

9 For these purposes, 'London authority' means any London borough council, the Common Council of the City of London or Transport for London: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(8) (definition added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 68(1), 83, Sch 8; and amended by the Greater London Road Traffic (Various Provisions) Order 2001, SI 2001/1353, art 6(b)). This definition is repealed, in relation to England, as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053. As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq. As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

10 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(2)(b) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 68(2)(a), 83, Sch 8). As to the substitution of this provision see note 8 supra.

11 Ie in pursuance of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101 (as amended): see PARA 871 ante.

12 Ibid s 102(2)(c) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 68(2)(a)). As to the substitution of this provision see note 8 supra.

13 Ie designated under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 748 ante), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante), or s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante).

14 Ibid s 102(2)(d) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 68(2)(b)). As to the substitution of this provision see note 8 supra.

For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(2)(d) (as added), a parking place provided under a letting or arrangements made by a local authority in pursuance of s 33(4) (see PARA 785 ante) is to be treated as provided by that authority: see s 102(9) (as added and amended: see note 5 supra). As to the modification of s 102 (as amended) by regulation in relation to loading areas see PARA 875 post. As to the modification of s 102(2)(d) (as added) in relation to designated special parking areas see the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684.

15 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 102(3). As to money recoverable summarily as a civil debt see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 826; and as to enforcement of civil debts see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 828.

874 Charges for removal, storage and disposal of vehicles

NOTE 5--Definition of 'appropriate authority' amended: SI 2008/2367 (England).

NOTE 7--SI 1989/744 (as amended) replaced: Removal, Storage and Disposal of Vehicles (Prescribed Sums and Charges) Regulations 2008, SI 2008/2095 (amended by SI 2008/3013).

TEXT AND NOTES 9-12--1984 Act s 102(2ZA) (charges for removal, storage and disposal of vehicles by traffic officers) added: SI 2008/2367 (England).

TEXT AND NOTES 16, 17--1984 Act s 102(4A) added: SI 2008/2367 (England).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/875. Supplementary provisions as to the removal of vehicles.

875. Supplementary provisions as to the removal of vehicles.

Regulations may provide that, in relation to any vehicle which is or was in any part of a loading area<sup>1</sup> while the parking of it in that area is or was prohibited<sup>2</sup>, the relevant statutory provisions<sup>3</sup> are to have effect with such additions, omissions and amendments as are prescribed by the regulations<sup>4</sup>. A local authority<sup>5</sup> must in exercising any of its functions in relation to the removal or immobilisation of vehicles<sup>6</sup> have regard to any guidance given to it for the purpose by: (1) the Secretary of State, in the case of a local authority in England; (2) the Welsh Ministers, in the case of a local authority in Wales<sup>7</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'loading area' see PARA 826 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 103(2).

2 Ie by virtue of ibid s 61 (as amended): see PARA 826 ante.

3 Ie ibid ss 99-102 (as amended): see PARAS 870-874 ante.

4 Ibid s 103(1). Regulations made under ss 99-102 (as amended) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case or in respect of different areas: s 103(3) (substituted by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 33). The Removal and Disposal of Vehicles (Loading Areas) Regulations 1986, SI 1986/184 (amended by SI 1996/1008) have been made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 103 (as amended) and, by virtue of the Interpretation Act 1978 s 17(2)(b), the Removal and Disposal of Vehicles (Loading Areas) (Modification of Enactments) Regulations 1978, SI 1978/889, have effect as if so made. As to the making of regulations generally see PARA 720 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'local authority' for these purposes see PARA 870 note 20 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 103(5) (added by the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 s 17).

6 Ie under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 99-102 (as amended).

7 Ibid s 103(4) (added by the Clean Neighbourhoods and Environment Act 2005 s 17). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 103 (as amended) does not apply to a person or vehicle in the service of a visiting force or headquarters: Visiting Forces and International Headquarters (Application of Law) Order 1999, SI 1999/1736, art 8(1)(b), (2)(a).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/876. Immobilisation of vehicles illegally parked otherwise than following the issue of a penalty charge notice.

876. Immobilisation of vehicles illegally parked otherwise than following the issue of a penalty charge notice.

Where a constable<sup>1</sup> finds on a road<sup>2</sup> a vehicle which has been permitted to remain at rest there in contravention of any prohibition or restriction imposed by or under any enactment, he may<sup>3</sup>:

- 735 (1) fix an immobilisation device<sup>4</sup> to the vehicle while it remains in the place in which he finds it<sup>5</sup>; or
- 736 (2) move it from that place to another place on the same or another road and fix an immobilisation device to it in that other place<sup>6</sup>, or he may authorise another person to take under his direction any action he could himself take by virtue of the above provisions<sup>7</sup>. On any occasion when an immobilisation device is fixed to a vehicle in accordance with these provisions, the constable or other person fixing the device must also affix to the vehicle a notice<sup>8</sup>:

- 737 (a) indicating that such a device has been fixed to the vehicle and warning that no attempt should be made to drive<sup>9</sup> it or otherwise put it in motion until it has been released from that device<sup>10</sup>;
- 738 (b) specifying the steps to be taken in order to secure its release<sup>11</sup>; and
- 739 (c) giving such other information as may be prescribed<sup>12</sup>.

A vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been so fixed may only be released from that device by or under the direction of a person authorised to give such a direction by the chief officer of police<sup>13</sup> within whose area the vehicle in question was found<sup>14</sup>. A vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been so fixed must be released from that device on payment in any manner specified in the notice affixed to the vehicle<sup>15</sup> of such charge in respect of the release as may be prescribed<sup>16</sup>.

A notice so affixed to a vehicle must not be removed or interfered with except by or under the authority of the person in charge of the vehicle or the person by whom it was put in the place where it was found by the constable; and any person contravening this provision is guilty of an offence<sup>17</sup>. Any person who, without being authorised to do so, removes or attempts to remove an immobilisation device so fixed to a vehicle is guilty of an offence<sup>18</sup>. Where a vehicle is so moved before an immobilisation device is fixed to it, any power of removal under regulations for the time being in force<sup>19</sup> which was exercisable in relation to that vehicle immediately before it was moved are to continue to be exercisable in relation to that vehicle while it remains in the place to which it was so moved<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. For the purpose of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104 (as amended), references to constable or police constable include references to traffic wardens: Functions of Traffic Wardens Order 1970, SI 1970/1958, art 3(2)(g) (added by SI 1993/1334). As to traffic wardens see PARA 868 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

3 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104(1).

4 For these purposes, 'immobilisation device' means any device or appliance designed or adapted to be fixed to a vehicle for the purpose of preventing it from being driven or otherwise put in motion, being a device or appliance of a type approved by the Secretary of State for use for that purpose in accordance with ibid s 104 (as amended): s 104(9). As to the fixing of an immobilisation device following the issue of a penalty charge notice see PARA 892 post. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

14 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104(3) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 34(1), (2)).

15 If affixed to the vehicle under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104(2): see the text and notes 8-12 supra.

16 Ibid s 104(4), which is expressed to be subject to s 104(3) (as amended) (see the text and notes 13-14 supra). Any sum received by virtue of s 104(4) must be paid into the police fund: s 104(11).

Regulations under s 104(2) (see the text and notes 8-12 supra) or s 104(4) may make different provision for different cases or classes of case or in respect of different areas: s 104(12) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 34(1), (3)).

17 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104(5). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

18 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104(6). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I.

19 If under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 99 (as amended): see PARA 870 ante.

20 Ibid s 104(7). In relation to any vehicle which is removed in pursuance of any such regulations or under the Refuse Disposal (Amenity) Act 1978 s 3 (as amended) (duty of local authority to remove abandoned vehicles: ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH vol 46 (2010) PARA 743 et seq) from a place to which it was moved in accordance with the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104 (as amended), references in the definition of 'person responsible' in s 102(8) (see PARA 874 note 6 ante) and the Refuse Disposal (Amenity) Act 1978 s 5 (as amended) (recovery from person responsible of charges and expenses in respect of vehicles removed: ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY AND PUBLIC HEALTH vol 46 (2010) PARA 745) to the place from which the vehicle was removed are to be read as references to the place in which it was immediately before it was moved in accordance with the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104 (as amended): s 104(8).

For the purposes of s 104 (as amended), the suspension under s 13A (as added) (see PARA 754 ante) or s 49 (as amended) (see PARA 814 ante) of the use of a parking place is a restriction imposed under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984: s 104(12A) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 4 para 35).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/877. Exemptions.

877. Exemptions.

The power of a constable<sup>1</sup> to immobilise a vehicle which is illegally parked<sup>2</sup> does not apply in relation to a vehicle found<sup>3</sup> by a constable if<sup>4</sup>:

- 740 (1) a current disabled person's badge<sup>5</sup> is displayed on the vehicle<sup>6</sup>;
- 741 (2) a current recognised badge<sup>7</sup> is displayed on the vehicle<sup>8</sup>; or
- 742 (3) the vehicle is in a meter bay<sup>9</sup> within a parking place designated<sup>10</sup> by a designation order<sup>11</sup>.

The exemption under head (3) above does not apply in the case of any vehicle found otherwise than in Greater London, if<sup>12</sup>:

- 743 (a) the meter bay in which it was found was not authorised for use<sup>13</sup> as such at the time when it was left there ('the time of parking')<sup>14</sup>; or
- 744 (b) an initial charge<sup>15</sup> was not duly paid at the time of parking<sup>16</sup>; or
- 745 (c) there has been since that time any contravention in relation to the relevant parking meter of any relevant provision<sup>17</sup>; or
- 746 (d) more than two hours have elapsed since the end of any period for which an initial charge was duly paid at the time of parking or, as the case may be, since the end of any unexpired time in respect of another vehicle available on the relevant parking meter<sup>18</sup> at the time of parking<sup>19</sup>.

The exemption under head (3) above does not apply in the case of any vehicle found in Greater London if the meter bay in which it was found was not authorised for use as such at the time when it was left there<sup>20</sup>.

1 As to constables see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARA 101 et seq. For the purpose of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105 (as amended), references to constables or police constables include references to traffic wardens: Functions of Traffic Wardens Order 1970, SI 1970/1958, art 3(2)(g) (added by SI 1993/1334). As to traffic wardens see PARA 868 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'disabled person's badge' see PARA 862 note 6 ante. See also the Disabled Persons (Badges for Motor Vehicles) Regulations 1982, SI 1982/1740 (amended by SI 1991/2708; SI 1992/200; SI 2000/682).

6 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(1)(a). In any case where s 104(1) (see PARA 876 ante) would apply in relation to a vehicle but for s 105(1)(a), the person guilty of contravening the prohibition or restriction mentioned in s 104(1) is also guilty of an offence if the conditions mentioned in s 105(6) (as amended) are met: s 105(5). Those conditions are that, at the time when the contravention occurred: (1) the vehicle was not being used in accordance with regulations under the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21 (as amended) (badges for display on motor vehicles used by disabled persons: see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 1071); and (2) he was not using the vehicle in circumstances falling within the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 117(1)(b) (as substituted) (see PARA 862 ante): s 105(6)(a), (b) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 48, Sch 4 para 36). A person guilty of an offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(5) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(1)(aa) (added by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 s 19(1), Sch 1 paras 42, 43(1), (2)). At the date at which this volume states the law this provision had not been brought into force in relation to Wales.

In any case where the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104(1) (see PARA 876 ante) would apply in relation to a vehicle but for s 105(1)(aa) (as added), the person guilty of contravening the prohibition or restriction mentioned in s 104(1) is also guilty of an offence under s 105(6A) (as added) if the conditions mentioned in s 105(6B) (as added) are met: s 105(6A) (s 105(6A), (6B) added by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 Sch 1 para 43(3)). Those conditions are that, at the time when the contravention occurred: (1) the vehicle was not being used in accordance with regulations under the Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21A (as added) (see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE); and (2) he was not using the vehicle in circumstances falling within the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 117(1A)(b) (as added) (see PARA 862 text to note 12 ante): s 105(6B)(a), (b) (as so added). A person guilty of an offence under s 105(6A) (as added) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I (amended by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 Sch 1 para 45(1), (2)). At the date at which this volume states the law these provisions had not been brought into force in relation to Wales.

9 For these purposes, 'meter bay' means a parking space equipped with a parking meter: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(7). For the meaning of 'parking meter' see PARA 810 ante.

10 For the meaning of 'designated parking place' see PARA 808 note 4 ante.

11 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(1)(b). For the meaning of 'designation order' see PARA 808 note 4 ante.

12 Ibid s 105(2) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 81, Sch 7 para 6(2)).

13 For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(2) (as amended) and s 105(2A) (as added) (see the text and note 20 infra), a meter bay in a parking place designated by a designation order is not authorised for use as such at any time when: (1) by virtue of s 49(1)(a) (see PARA 814 ante), the parking place is treated for the purposes of s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 ante) and s 47 (as amended) (see PARA 812 ante) as if it were not designated by that order; or (2) the use of the parking place or of any part of it that consists of or includes that particular meter bay is suspended: s 105(3) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 81, 83, Sch 7 para 6(4), Sch 8).

14 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 105(2)(a).

15 For the meaning of 'initial charge' see PARA 810 ante. In relation to any vehicle found in a meter bay within a parking place designated by a designation order, references in ibid s 105(2) (as amended) to an initial charge are references to an initial charge payable in respect of that vehicle under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante) or s 50 (repealed): s 105(4).

16 Ibid s 105(2)(b).

17 Ibid s 105(2)(c). The reference to any relevant provision is a reference to any provision made by virtue of s 46(2)(c) (as added) (see PARA 810 ante): s 105(2)(c).

18 For these purposes, references to the 'relevant parking meter' are references to the parking meter relating to the meter bay in which the vehicle in question was found: ibid s 105(7).

19 Ibid s 105(2)(d).

1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/878. Initial experimental period for immobilisation of vehicles.

878. Initial experimental period for immobilisation of vehicles.

The statutory provisions relating to the immobilisation of vehicles<sup>1</sup> extend only to such areas as the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> may by order<sup>3</sup> specify; and the power of the Secretary of State to extend those provisions to any area is subject to the following restrictions<sup>4</sup>. Any such order extending the statutory provisions relating to the immobilisation of vehicles to any area may be made for a limited period or without limit of time (subject to variation or revocation by a further order)<sup>5</sup>. The Secretary of State must not by such an order (including any order varying an existing order) extend the statutory provisions relating to the immobilisation of vehicles to any area for the first time unless requested to do so by the local traffic authority<sup>6</sup>. The power of the Secretary of State to make any such order is exercisable by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>7</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/879. Immobilisation of vehicles in London without experimental period.

879. Immobilisation of vehicles in London without experimental period.

The statutory provisions relating to the immobilisation of vehicles<sup>1</sup> extend throughout Greater London if the Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> makes an order to that effect<sup>3</sup>. The power of the Secretary of State to make such an order is exercisable by statutory instrument which is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>4</sup>.

1    I.e. the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104 (as amended) (see PARA 876 ante) and s 105 (as amended) (see PARA 877 ante).

2    As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

3    Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 106A(1) (s 106A added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 75). If such an order is made, the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 106 (as amended) (see PARA 878 ante) ceases to apply in relation to Greater London when the order comes into force: s 106A(2) (as so added). Before such an order comes into force, the Secretary of State must not by such an order (including any order varying an existing order) extend the statutory provisions relating to the immobilisation of vehicles to any area for the first time unless requested to do so by the local traffic authority or by the Traffic Director for London: s 106(7) (amended by the New Roads and Street Works Act 1991 s 168(1), Sch 8 para 69); modified by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 106A(3) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 75). Before making such an order at the request of the Traffic Director for London, the Secretary of State must consult the appropriate local authority: Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 106(7A) (added by s 106A(3) (as so added)).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(v) Removal or Immobilisation of Vehicles/880. Unpaid charges in relation to the removal or release of vehicles in London.

880. Unpaid charges in relation to the removal or release of vehicles in London.

The provisions relating to unpaid charges on release or removal of a vehicle<sup>1</sup> apply in Greater London where a vehicle has been removed by a parking attendant<sup>2</sup> acting on behalf of Transport for London or a participating council<sup>3</sup> or an immobilisation device has been fixed to a vehicle by a parking attendant or another person acting under his direction<sup>4</sup> and the owner or person in charge of the vehicle<sup>5</sup> lawfully removes it from the custody of a participating council or Transport for London or secures its release from the immobilisation device but does not, at the time the vehicle is so removed or released, pay any charges allegedly incurred<sup>6</sup>.

The removal or release of a vehicle in such circumstances does not affect the liability of the owner or person in charge of the vehicle ('the relevant person') to pay the charges allegedly incurred but when the relevant person removes the vehicle or secures its release he must be informed of his right to make representations relating to unpaid charges<sup>7</sup> to the council and of the effect of the provisions concerning appeals relating to unpaid charges<sup>8</sup> and charge certificates relating to unpaid charges<sup>9</sup>. The participating council must give that information, or cause it to be given, in writing<sup>10</sup>.

A person who makes any representation under the provisions concerning representations relating to unpaid charges<sup>11</sup> or appeals relating to unpaid charges<sup>12</sup> which is false in a material particular and does so recklessly or knowing it to be false in that particular is guilty of an offence<sup>13</sup>.

1 I.e. the London Local Authorities Act 2000 ss 9, 10 (both as amended) (effect of release or removal), s 11 (as amended) (representations relating to unpaid charges), s 12 (as amended) (appeals relating to unpaid charges), s 13 (as amended) (charge certificates relating to unpaid charges), and s 14 (miscellaneous provisions relating to unpaid charges). These provisions are all repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

5 For the purposes of the London Local Authorities Act 2000 Pt II (ss 3-16) (as amended), the owner of a vehicle is taken to be the person by whom the vehicle is kept: s 3(2). In determining, for the purposes Pt II (as amended), who was the owner of a vehicle at any time, it is presumed that the owner was the person in whose name the vehicle was at that time registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (see PARA 518 et seq ante): London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 3(3).

13 London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 14(2)(a). Any person convicted of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: s 14(2)(b). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 66(7), Sch 6 (which provides, among other things, for parking penalties) (see PARA 891 post) does not apply in relation to penalty charge notices issued in any case where the provisions of the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 14 apply: s 14(1).

UPDATE

880 Unpaid charges in relation to the removal or release of vehicles in London

NOTE 1--Repeal of London Local Authorities Act 2000 ss 9-14 deferred: SI 2007/2053 (amended by SI 2008/757).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/881. Liability of vehicle owner in respect of excess parking charge.

(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges

881. Liability of vehicle owner in respect of excess parking charge.

This provision applies where: (1) an excess charge<sup>1</sup> has been incurred in pursuance of an order<sup>2</sup>; (2) notice of the incurring of the excess charge has been given or affixed as provided in the order<sup>3</sup>; and (3) the excess charge has not been duly paid in accordance with the order<sup>4</sup>. For the purposes of the institution of proceedings in respect of the excess charge offence against any person as being the owner<sup>5</sup> of the vehicle at the relevant time<sup>6</sup>, and in any proceedings in respect of the excess charge offence brought against any person as being the owner of the vehicle at the relevant time<sup>7</sup>, it is to be conclusively presumed (notwithstanding that that person may not be an individual) that he was the driver<sup>8</sup> of the vehicle at that time and, accordingly, that acts or omissions of the driver of the vehicle at that time were his acts or omissions<sup>9</sup>.

1 For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 107-111 (ss 110, 111 as amended), 'excess charge offence' means the offence under s 47 (as amended) (see PARA 812 ante) of failing duly to pay the excess charge: see s 107(1). For the meaning of 'excess charge' in general see PARA 810 ante.

2 Ibid s 107(1)(a). The orders referred to in the text are orders made under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante) and s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 ante): s 107(1)(a).

3 Ibid s 107(1)(b).

4 Ibid s 107(1)(c).

5 For the purposes of ibid ss 107-109, the owner of a vehicle is to be taken to be the person by whom the vehicle is kept; and for the purpose of determining, in the course of any proceedings brought by virtue of ss 107-109 (the 'specified sections'), who was the owner of the vehicle at any time, it is to be presumed that the owner was the person who was the registered keeper of the vehicle at that time: s 111(1), (3). References in s 111 (as amended) to the person who was or is the registered keeper of a vehicle at any time are references to the person in whose name the vehicle was or is at that time registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (see PARA 518 et seq ante): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 111(7) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 18(1)). Notwithstanding the presumption in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 111(3), it is open to the defence in any proceedings to prove that the person who was the registered keeper of a vehicle at a particular time was not the person by whom the vehicle was kept at that time, and it is open to the prosecution to prove that the vehicle was kept by some other person at that time: s 111(4).

6 Ibid s 107(2)(a). For the purposes of ss 107-109, 'relevant time', in relation to an excess charge, means the time when the vehicle was left in the parking place concerned, notwithstanding that the period in respect of which the excess charge was incurred did not begin at that time: s 111(1), (2).

7 Ibid s 107(2)(b).

8 For the purposes of ibid ss 107-109, 'driver', in relation to an excess charge and in relation to an offence of failing duly to pay such a charge, means the person driving the vehicle at the time when it is alleged to have been left in the parking place concerned: s 111(1), (2). For the meaning of 'driver' in general see PARA 207 ante.

9 Ibid s 107(2). Section 107(2) does not apply in relation to any person unless, within the period of six months beginning on the day on which the notice of the incurring of the excess charge was given or affixed as mentioned in s 107(1)(b), a notice under s 108 (see PARA 885 post) has been served on him: (1) by or on behalf of the authority which is the local authority for the purposes of s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante) and s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 ante) in relation to the parking place concerned; or (2) by or on behalf of the chief officer of police: s 107(3). As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

The presumption in s 107(2) will not apply in any proceedings brought against any person as being the owner of the vehicle at the relevant time if, in those proceedings, it is proved:

1426 (a) that at the relevant time the vehicle was in the possession of some other person without the consent of the accused (s 107(5)(a)); or 1427 (b) that the accused was not the owner of the vehicle at the relevant time and that he has a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with the notice under s 108 (see PARA 885 post) served on him in accordance with s 107(3) (s 107(5)(b)).

If the person on whom a notice under s 108 (see PARA 885 post) is served in accordance with s 107(3) was not the owner of the vehicle at the relevant time, s 107(2) does not apply in relation to him if he furnishes a statutory statement of ownership to that effect in compliance with the notice: s 107(4). As to a statutory statement of ownership see PARA 882 post.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/883. Statutory statement of hiring.

883. Statutory statement of hiring.

A statutory statement of hiring<sup>1</sup> is a statement in the prescribed form<sup>2</sup>, signed by the person furnishing it, being the person by whom a statement of liability<sup>3</sup> was signed and stating<sup>4</sup>:

- 749 (1) whether at the relevant time<sup>5</sup> the vehicle was let to him under the hiring agreement<sup>6</sup> to which the statement of liability refers<sup>7</sup>; and 750 (2) if it was not, the date on which he returned the vehicle to the possession of the vehicle-hire firm<sup>8</sup> concerned<sup>9</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/885. Notice in respect of excess parking charge.

885. Notice in respect of excess parking charge.

A notice in respect of an excess parking charge must be in the prescribed form<sup>1</sup>, must give particulars of the excess charge<sup>2</sup> and must provide that, unless the excess charge is paid before the expiry of the appropriate period<sup>3</sup>, the person on whom the notice is served<sup>4</sup>:

- 751 (1) is required, before the expiry of that period, to furnish to the authority or chief officer of police by or on behalf of whom the notice was served a statutory statement of ownership<sup>5</sup>; and
- 752 (2) is invited, before the expiry of that period, to furnish to that authority or chief officer of police a statutory statement of facts<sup>6</sup>.

If, in any case where such a notice has been served on any person, and the excess charge specified in the notice is not paid within the appropriate period, the person so served fails without reasonable excuse to comply with the notice by furnishing a statutory statement of ownership, he is guilty of an offence<sup>7</sup>. If, in compliance with or in response to such a notice any person furnishes a statement which is false in a material particular, and does so recklessly or knowing it to be false in that particular, he is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>.

Where such a notice has been served on any person in respect of any excess charge<sup>9</sup>:

- 753 (a) payment of the charge by any person before the date on which proceedings are begun for the excess charge offence, or, as the case may be, for an offence in respect of a failure to comply with the notice<sup>10</sup>, discharges the liability of that or any other person (under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 or any other enactment) for the excess charge offence or, as the case may be, for the offence in respect of failure to comply with the notice<sup>11</sup>;
- 754 (b) conviction of any person of the excess charge offence discharges the liability of any other person (under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 or any other enactment) for that offence and the liability of any person for an offence in respect of failure to comply with the notice<sup>12</sup>; and
- 755 (c) conviction of the person so served of an offence in respect of a failure to comply with the notice discharges the liability of any person for the excess charge offence<sup>13</sup>.

A notice in respect of an excess parking charge may be served on any person by delivering it to him or by leaving it at his proper address<sup>14</sup>, or by sending it to him by post<sup>15</sup>; and, where the person on whom such a notice is to be served is a body corporate, it is duly served if it is served on the secretary or clerk of that body<sup>16</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 735 note 3 ante.

2 For the meaning of 'excess charge' see PARA 810 ante.

3 For the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 ss 107-109, 'appropriate period', in relation to a notice under s 108, means the period of 14 days from the date on which the notice is served, or such longer period as may be specified in the notice or as may be allowed by the chief officer of police or authority by or on behalf of whom the notice is served: s 111(1), (2). As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

5 Ibid s 108(1)(a). For the meaning of 'statutory statement of ownership' see PARA 882 ante.

6 Ibid s 108(1)(b). For the meaning of 'statutory statement of fact' see PARA 884 ante.

7 Ibid s 108(2). A person guilty of an offence under s 108(2), or that provision as modified by s 109(2), (3) (see PARA 886 post), is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I. As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

8 Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 108(3). A person guilty of an offence under s 108(3), or that provision as modified by s 109(2), (3) (see PARA 886 post), is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I.

Proceedings in England or Wales for an offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 108(3) may be brought within a period of six months from the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the prosecutor to warrant the proceedings came to his knowledge; but no such proceedings may be brought by virtue of s 110 (as amended) more than three years after the commission of the offence: s 110(1). For the purpose of s 110(1) a certificate signed by or on behalf of the prosecutor or the local authority, and stating the date on which evidence such as is mentioned in s 110(1) came to his or its knowledge, is conclusive evidence of that fact; and a certificate stating that matter and purporting to be so signed is deemed to be so signed unless the contrary is proved: s 110(3).

12 Ibid s 108(4)(b). Except as provided by s 108(4), nothing in s 107 (see PARA 881 ante) or s 108 affects the liability of any person for the excess charge offence: s 108(4).

13 Ibid s 108(4)(c).

14 Ibid s 111(5)(a).

15 Ibid s 111(5)(b).

16 Ibid s 111(5). For the purposes of s 111(5) and of the Interpretation Act 1978 s 7 (references to service by post) in its application to the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 111(5), the proper address of any person on whom such a notice is to be served is, in the case of the secretary or clerk of a body corporate, that of the registered or principal office of that body or the registered address of the person who is the registered keeper of the vehicle concerned at the time of service, and, in any other case, is the last known address of the person to be served: s 111(6). As to the registered keeper of a vehicle see PARA 881 note 5 ante.

For the purposes of the Magistrates' Courts Act 1980 ss 1(2), 2(1) (as amended) (power to issue summons or warrant and jurisdiction to try offences: see MAGISTRATES vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 522 et seq), any offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 108(2) must be treated as committed at any address which at the time of service of the notice under s 108 to which the offence relates was the accused's proper address (in accordance with s 111(6)) for the service of any such notice as well as at the address to which any statutory statement furnished in response to that notice is required to be returned in accordance with the notice: s 111(8).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/886. Modifications for excess parking charge notices in relation to hired vehicles.

886. Modifications for excess parking charge notices in relation to hired vehicles.

Where a notice in respect of an excess parking charge<sup>1</sup> has been served on a vehicle-hire firm<sup>2</sup>, and at the relevant time<sup>3</sup> the vehicle in respect of which the notice was served was let to another person by the vehicle-hire firm under a hiring agreement to which this provision applies<sup>4</sup>. Where this provision applies, it is to be a sufficient compliance with the notice served on the vehicle-hire firm if the firm furnishes to the chief officer of police<sup>5</sup> or local authority by or on behalf of whom the notice was served a statement in the prescribed form, signed by or on behalf of the vehicle-hire firm, stating that at the relevant time the vehicle concerned was hired under a hiring agreement to which this provision applies<sup>6</sup>, together with a copy of that hiring agreement<sup>7</sup>, and a copy of a statement of liability<sup>8</sup> in the prescribed form, signed by the hirer under that hiring agreement<sup>9</sup>.

Where, in compliance with a notice in respect of an excess parking charge<sup>10</sup>, a vehicle-hire firm has furnished copies of a hiring agreement and statement of liability<sup>11</sup>, a person authorised in that behalf by the chief officer of police or local authority to whom the documents are furnished may, at any reasonable time within six months after service of that notice, and on production of his authority, require the production by the firm of the originals of those documents; and if, without reasonable excuse, a vehicle-hire firm fails to produce the original of a document when required to do so, the firm is to be treated as not having complied with the notice<sup>12</sup>.

1    Ie under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 108: see PARA 885 ante.

2    Ibid s 109(1)(a). For these purposes, 'vehicle-hire firm' means any person engaged in hiring vehicles in the course of a business: s 109(7).

3    For the meaning of 'relevant time' see PARA 881 note 6 ante.

4    Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 109(1)(b). Section 109 applies to a hiring agreement, under the terms of which the vehicle concerned is let to the hirer for a fixed period of less than six months (whether or not that period is capable of extension by agreement between the parties or otherwise); and any reference in s 109 to the currency of the hiring agreement includes a reference to any period during which, with the consent of the vehicle-hire firm, the hirer continues in possession of the vehicle as hirer, after the expiry of the fixed period specified in the agreement, but otherwise on terms and conditions specified in it: s 109(5).

For these purposes, 'hiring agreement' refers only to an agreement which contains such particulars as may be prescribed and does not include a hire-purchase agreement within the meaning of the Consumer Credit Act 1974 (see CONSUMER CREDIT vol 9(1) (Reissue) PARA 55): Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 109(7). For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 735 note 3 ante.

5    As to chief officers of police see POLICE vol 36(1) (2007 Reissue) PARAS 165, 178 et seq.

6    Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 109(2).

7    Ibid s 109(2)(a).

8    For these purposes, 'statement of liability' means a statement made by the hirer under a hiring agreement to which ibid s 109 applies to the effect that the hirer acknowledges that he will be liable, as the owner of the vehicle, in respect of any excess charge which, during the currency of the hiring agreement, may be incurred with respect to the vehicle in pursuance of an order under s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante) and s 46 (as amended) (see PARA 810 ante): s 109(6). For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante. For the meaning of 'excess charge' see PARA 810 ante.

9    Ibid s 109(2)(b). Accordingly, in relation to the vehicle-hire firm on which the notice was served, the reference in s 108(2) (see PARA 885 text to note 7 ante) to a statutory statement of ownership is to be construed as a reference to a statement under s 109(2) together with the documents specified in s 109(2)(a), (b): s 109(2). For the meaning of 'statutory statement of ownership' see PARA 882 ante.

If, in a case where s 109 applies, the vehicle-hire firm has complied with the notice served on the firm by furnishing the statement and copies of the documents specified in s 109(2), then s 107 (see PARA 881 ante) and s 108 (see PARA 885 ante) have effect as if in those provisions: (1) any reference to the owner of the vehicle were a reference to the hirer under the hiring agreement; and (2) any reference to a statutory statement of ownership were a reference to a statutory statement of hiring: s 109(3). For the meaning of 'statutory statement of hiring' see PARA 883 ante.

10   Ie a notice under ibid s 108: see PARA 885 ante.

11   Ie as mentioned in ibid s 109(2): see the text and notes 5-9 supra.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/887. Evidence in proceedings for certain offences.

887. Evidence in proceedings for certain offences.

Where any person is charged with the offence of failing to pay an excess charge<sup>1</sup>, and the prosecutor produces to the court any statutory statement<sup>2</sup> or a copy of a statement of liability<sup>3</sup> purporting<sup>4</sup>:

- 756 (1) to have been furnished in compliance with or in response to a notice in respect of an excess parking charge<sup>5</sup>; and 757 (2) to have been signed by the accused<sup>6</sup>, the statement must be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to have been signed by the accused and is evidence in the proceedings of any facts stated in it tending to show that the accused was the owner<sup>7</sup>, the hirer or the driver<sup>8</sup> of the vehicle concerned at a particular time<sup>9</sup>.

1 For the meaning of 'excess charge' see PARA 810 ante.

2 Ie any of the statutory statements in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 Sch 8: see PARAS 882-884 ante.

3 Ie a statement of liability within the meaning of ibid s 109 (see PARA 886 ante): s 110(4).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/888. Civil penalties for road traffic contraventions.

888. Civil penalties for road traffic contraventions.

The appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> may make provision by regulations<sup>2</sup> for or in connection with: (1) the imposition of penalty charges<sup>3</sup> in respect of road traffic contraventions that are subject to civil enforcement<sup>4</sup>, and are committed in an area that is a civil enforcement area<sup>5</sup> for contraventions of that description<sup>6</sup>; and (2) the payment of such penalty charges<sup>7</sup>. An enforcement authority may provide for the enforcement of road traffic by civil enforcement officers<sup>8</sup>.

Regulations may be made by the Lord Chancellor regarding the notification of penalty charges<sup>9</sup>, and by the appropriate national authority in connection with the fixing of immobilisation devices<sup>10</sup>. Further, the Lord Chancellor may make regulations as to representations to the authority and appeals to an adjudicator<sup>11</sup> against the imposition of penalty charges<sup>12</sup>.

Regulations may be made by the Lord Chancellor regarding the enforcement of penalty charges, including the creation of criminal offences, and the recovery of sums under county court orders ('traffic contravention debts')<sup>13</sup>.

Particular provision is made in relation to the prohibition of double parking<sup>14</sup>, or parking at dropped footways, etc<sup>15</sup>, in special enforcement areas<sup>16</sup>.

These provisions do not apply to vehicles used for the purposes of the armed forces or visiting forces<sup>17</sup>, but do generally apply to vehicles or persons in the service of the Crown<sup>18</sup>.

1 The appropriate national authority is, as regards England, the Secretary of State: Traffic Management Act 2004 s 92(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante. The appropriate national authority may publish guidance to local authorities about any matter relating to their functions in connection with the civil enforcement of traffic contraventions, and local authorities must have regard to such guidance: s 87(1), (2).

2 As to the making of regulations under ibid Pt 6 (ss 72-93) (as amended) see s 89. The regulations must include provision specifying the person or persons by whom a penalty charge in respect of a contravention is to be paid (who may be the owner of the vehicle involved in the contravention, its driver at the time of the contravention, or any other appropriate person): s 72(2). The regulations must include provision in respect of any description of conduct for which a penalty charge may be imposed: (1) prohibiting criminal proceedings or the issuing of a fixed penalty notice in respect of conduct of that description; or (2) securing that a penalty charge is not required to be paid, or is refunded, where the conduct is the subject of criminal proceedings or of a fixed penalty notice: s 72(3). The regulations may include provision prohibiting the imposition of a penalty charge except on the basis of: (a) a record produced by an approved device; or (b) information given by a civil enforcement officer as to conduct observed by him: s 72(4). The regulations may: (i) specify exemptions from penalty charges; and (ii) make provision for discounts or surcharges, or both: s 72(5). 'Fixed penalty notice' has the meaning given by the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 52(1) (see PARA 1094 post): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 92(1). 'Approved device' means a device of a description specified in an order made by the appropriate national authority: s 92(1).

3 As to the setting of levels of penalty charges (and other associated charges) see ibid s 77, Sch 9.

4 As to the road traffic conventions that are subject to civil enforcement see ibid s 73. They are: parking contraventions (see s 73(2)(a), Sch 7 Pt 1); bus lane contraventions (s 73(2)(b), Sch 7 Pt 2); London lorry ban contraventions (s 73(2)(c), Sch 7 Pt 3); and moving traffic contraventions (s 73(2)(d), Sch 7 Pt 4).

5 As to civil enforcement areas for different descriptions of road traffic contravention, and the enforcement authorities in relation thereto, see ibid s 74, Sch 8. Specific provision is made in relation to Greater London by Sch 8 Pt 1 paras 1-7, and for the rest of England and Wales by Sch 8 Pt 2 paras 8-10. These provisions have been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 74 and Sch 8 paras 1-3, 8 are to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053), but no day has been appointed for the commencement of the remaining provisions.

The appropriate national authority may require a local authority to make an application under the Traffic Management Act 2004 Sch 8 for an order designating the whole or part of the local authority's area as a civil enforcement area for parking contraventions: see s 75. This provision has been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 75 is to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

As to the financial provision that may be made by regulations in respect of the exercise of enforcement authorities' functions see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 88(1)-(4).

6 Ibid s 72(1)(a).

7 Ibid s 72(1)(b).

8 See ibid s 76(1). See further s 76(2)-(5). Officers may only act when in uniform: see s 76(3).

9 See ibid s 78(1). See further s 78(2)-(6). Regulations may not confer power to stop vehicles: s 76(4). Regulations may create criminal offences: s 78(6).

10 See ibid s 79(1)-(3), (6). Regulations may provide for criminal offences: s 79(4). Exceptions are provided in relation to vehicles displaying current disabled persons' badges: see s 79(5), (5A), (7) (s 79(5A) added by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 s 19(1), Sch 1 Pt 2 para 48(1), (2)). At the date at which this volume states the law no day had been appointed for the commencement of the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 79(5A) (as added) in relation to Wales.

11 As to the appointment, functions and funding of adjudicators see ibid s 81 (amended by the Lord Chancellor (Transfer of Functions and Supplementary Provisions) (No 2) Order 2006, SI 2006/1016, art 2, Sch 1, PARAS 18, 19).

12 See the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 80.

13 See ibid s 82(1), (2). The Lord Chancellor may by order provide for warrants of execution in respect of traffic contravention debts to be executed by certificated bailiffs: s 82(3), (4). As to certificated bailiffs see s 83.

14 See ibid s 85(1)-(7). This prohibition is enforceable as if imposed by an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1 or s 6 (as amended) (see PARAS 742, 748 ante): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 85(8). Section 85 has been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England it is to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

15 See the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 86(1)-(8). This prohibition is enforceable as if imposed by an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1 or s 6 (as amended) (see PARAS 742, 748 ante): see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 86(9). Section 86 has been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England it is to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

16 As to the designation of special enforcement areas see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 84, Sch 10. These provisions have been brought into force in relation to Wales (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2006, SI 2006/2826, art 2(1), (2)(c)); in relation to England they are to come into force on 31 March 2008 (see the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053).

17 See the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 90(1).

18 See ibid s 90(2). However, the provisions do not apply to Crown roads unless applied by order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 131 (as amended) (see PARA 729 ante): Traffic Management Act 2004 s 90(3).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/889. Parking penalties in London.

889. Parking penalties in London.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

Where, in the case of a stationary vehicle<sup>2</sup> in a designated parking place<sup>3</sup>, a parking attendant<sup>4</sup> has reason to believe that a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle<sup>5</sup>, he may<sup>6</sup>:

- 758 (1) fix a penalty charge notice<sup>7</sup> to the vehicle<sup>8</sup>; or
- 759 (2) give such a notice to the person appearing to him to be in charge of the vehicle<sup>9</sup>.

A penalty charge notice fixed to a vehicle must not be removed or interfered with except by or with the authority of<sup>10</sup>: (a) the owner, or person in charge, of the vehicle<sup>11</sup>; or (b) the London authority for the place in which the vehicle in question was found<sup>12</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 66, 77, 79 (as amended), Sch 3 and the London Local Authorities Act 2000 ss 4, 5 (as amended) are repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 Nothing in the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) applies in relation to any vehicle which:

1428 (1) at the relevant time is used or appropriated for use for naval, military or airforce purposes (s 79(1)(a));

1429 (2) belongs to any visiting forces (within the meaning of the Visiting Forces Act 1952: see ARMED FORCES VOL 2(2) (Reissue) PARA 140) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 79(1)(b)); or 1430 (3) at the relevant time is used or appropriated for use, by any such forces (s 79(1)(c)).

3 'Designated parking place' means a parking place in London which is designated as a parking place under an order made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante), s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante): Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1). See also PARA 809 ante. For the meaning of 'London' see PARA 822 note 2 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'parking attendant' for these purposes see PARA 869 ante; definition applied by ibid s 82(1).

5 A penalty charge is payable with respect to a vehicle by the owner of the vehicle if:

1431 (1) the vehicle has been left otherwise than as authorised by or under any order relating to the designated parking place or beyond the period of parking which has been paid for (ibid ss 66(2)(a), 82(1)); or

1432 (2) no parking charge payable with respect to the vehicle has been paid (ss 66(2)(b), 82(1)); or 1433 (3) there has, with respect to the vehicle, been a contravention of, or failure to comply with, any provision made by or under any order relating to the designated parking place (ss 66(2)(c), 82(1)).

The owner of a vehicle is taken to be the person by whom the vehicle is kept: s 82(2). In determining who was the owner of a vehicle at any time, it is presumed that the owner was the person in whose name the vehicle was at that time registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (see PARA 518 et seq ante): Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(3). See R v Parking Adjudicator, ex p Wandsworth London Borough Council [1998] RTR 51, [1997] COD 155, CA.

In determining, for the purposes of any provision of the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (as amended), whether a penalty charge has been paid before the end of a particular period, it is to be taken to be paid when it is received by the London authority concerned: s 82(5).

6 Ibid ss 66(1), 82(1).

Section 66 applies to vehicles in the public service of the Crown which are required to be registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (other than those which are exempted by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 79(1) (see note 2 supra)) and persons in the public service of the Crown: s 79(2) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 29). As to the modification of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 79(2) (as amended) in relation to a vehicle found in a special parking area see the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684.

The Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 66, 79 (as amended) may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

In relation to any vehicle which is stationary in a special parking area in London (but which is not in a designated parking place) in circumstances in which an offence would have been committed with respect to the vehicle but for s 76(3) (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 822 ante), a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle by the owner of the vehicle: see s 77(1), (2).

In relation to any vehicle which is stationary in a permitted parking area outside London, or special parking area outside London, in circumstances in which an offence would have been committed with respect to the vehicle but for Sch 3 para 1 (as amended) or (as the case may be) Sch 3 para 2 (as amended), a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle, by the owner of the vehicle: see Sch 3 para 3(1), (2); and PARAS 820-821 ante.

7 A penalty charge notice must state:

1434 (1) the grounds on which the parking attendant believes that a penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle (ibid ss 66(3)(a), 82(1));

1435 (2) the amount of the penalty charge which is payable (ss 66(3)(b), 82(1));

- 1436 (3) that the penalty charge must be paid before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of the notice (ss 66(3)(c), 82(1));
- 1437 (4) that, if the penalty charge is paid before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date of the notice, the amount of the penalty charge will be reduced by the specified proportion (ss 66(3)(d), 82(1));
- 1438 (5) that, if the penalty charge is not paid before the end of the 28 day period, a notice to the owner may be served by the London authority on the person appearing to it to be the owner of the vehicle (ss 66(3)(e), 82(1)); and
- 1439 (6) the address to which payment of the penalty charge must be sent (ss 66(3)(f), 82(1)).

For these purposes, 'specified proportion' means such proportion, applicable to all cases, as may be determined by the London authorities acting through the Joint Committee: ss 66(4), 82(1). In the borough of a participating council, if the amount to be paid after the penalty charge has been reduced by the specified proportion under s 66(3)(d) (see head (4) supra) is not a whole number of pounds, an authority may reduce the amount further to the nearest pound: s 66(4A) (added by the London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 8). For the meaning of 'participating council' see PARA 779 note 4 post.

8 Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 66(1)(a), 82(1).

9 Ibid ss 66(1)(b), 82(1).

In London, where a parking attendant attempts to issue a penalty charge notice in accordance with s 66(1), but is prevented from doing so by any person, Transport for London, if the parking attendant was acting on its behalf, or in any other case the council on whose behalf the attendant was acting, may serve a penalty charge notice on the person appearing to it to be the owner of the vehicle, but a penalty charge notice may not be served after the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the penalty charge allegedly became payable: London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 5(1), (2) (s 5(1) substituted, and s 5(2) amended, by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, art 3(1), Sch 2 paras 1, 3(1)-(3)). Such a notice may be served in the same manner as a notice to owner under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 66(7), Sch 6 para 10 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 891 post): London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 5(5). Subject to certain modifications, the provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1991 apply to a notice so served as if it had been issued under s 66(1): see the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 5(3), (4) (s 5(4) amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 2 para 3(4)). For the meaning of 'parking attendant' see PARA 869 ante; definition applied by virtue of the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 3(1). As to the owner of a vehicle see PARA 880 note 5 ante. The 'issue' of a ticket occurs at the moment a ticket is either affixed to the windscreen of a vehicle, or the moment a ticket is given to the driver; the 'attempt' starts either at the point when an attendant inserts details into his handheld computer or notebook to generate a ticket, or the point when he removes the ticket and approaches the car or the driver in question: the mere preparatory step of jotting down details of the car and/or of a driver cannot amount to attempts to issue a ticket; further, the mere fact that a driver has driven away to prevent the issue of a ticket is sufficient to satisfy the words 'prevented from doing so by any person': see R (on the application of Transport for London) v Parking Adjudicator [2007] All ER (D) 429 (Mar).

Where a participating council, on the basis of information provided by the use of a camera or any other device, has reason to believe that a penalty charge is payable under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (as amended) in respect of a vehicle which is stationary, in a designated parking place for which the council is the local authority within the meaning of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(7) (see PARA 808 note 1 ante), or on a road, other than a GLA road or side road, in a special parking area in the area of the council, the council may serve a penalty charge notice on the person appearing to it to be the owner of the vehicle: London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 4(2) (s 4(2) substituted, and s 4(2A) added, by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 2 para 2(1), (2)). Where Transport for London, on the basis of information provided by the use of a camera or other device, has reason to believe that a penalty charge is payable under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (as amended) in respect of a vehicle which is stationary on a GLA road or a GLA side road in a designated parking place for which Transport for London is the local authority within the meaning of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 45(7) or on a GLA road or GLA side road in a special parking area but not in a designated parking place, Transport for London may serve a penalty charge notice on the person appearing to it to be the owner of the vehicle: London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 4(2A) (as so added). As to the meaning of 'GLA road' see PARA 726 note 6 ante; and as to the meaning of 'GLA side road' see PARA 726 note 4 ante.

A penalty charge notice may not be served after the expiry of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the penalty charge allegedly became payable: s 4(3) (amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 2 para 2(3)). Such a notice may be served in the same manner as a notice to an owner under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6 para 10 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 891 post): London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 4(6). Subject to certain modifications, the provisions of the Road Traffic Act 1991 apply to a notice so served as if it had been issued under s 66(1): see the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 4(4), (5) (s 4(5) amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 2 para 2(4)). For these purposes, 'designated parking place' means a parking place in the area of a participating council which is designated as a parking place under an order made under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante), s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante) or s 45 (as amended) (see PARA 808 ante); London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 3(1).

10 Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 66(5), 82(1).

11 Ibid ss 66(5)(a), 82(1).

12 Ibid ss 66(5)(b), 82(1). A person who contravenes s 66(5) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: ss 66(6), 82(1). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/890. Fixing of certain parking and other charges for London.

890. Fixing of certain parking and other charges for London.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

It is the duty of Transport for London<sup>2</sup>, so far as relating to trunk roads<sup>3</sup> or GLA roads<sup>4</sup>, and it is the duty of the London local authorities<sup>5</sup>, so far as relating to other roads<sup>6</sup>, to set the levels of additional parking charges<sup>7</sup> to apply in London<sup>8</sup>. Before setting the level of any charges, Transport for London must consult the London local authorities<sup>9</sup>. Different levels may be set for different areas in London and for different cases or classes of case<sup>10</sup>. Transport for London and the London local authorities must submit to the Mayor of London, for his approval, the levels of additional parking charges which they propose to set<sup>11</sup>. However, if Transport for London or, as the case may be, the London local authorities fail to discharge this duty<sup>12</sup>, or the Mayor of London does not approve the levels of additional parking charges proposed by the London local authorities<sup>13</sup>, the levels of additional parking charges<sup>14</sup> for trunk roads or GLA roads or (as the case may be) other roads<sup>15</sup> are to be set by order made by the Mayor of London<sup>16</sup>.

It is the duty of Transport for London and the London local authorities to impose additional parking charges at the levels set in accordance with these provisions<sup>17</sup>. Transport for London and the London local authorities must publish, in such manner as the Mayor of London may determine, the levels of additional parking charges which have been so set<sup>18</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74 (as substituted) is repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

3 As to the meaning of 'trunk road' see PARA 822 note 2 ante.

4 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74(1)(a) (s 74 substituted by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 284). As to the meaning of 'GLA road' for these purposes see PARA 726 note 6 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (3)). Any reference to a GLA road includes a reference to a GLA side road: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1C) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (4)). The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74 (as substituted) may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

5 For the meaning of 'London local authority' see PARA 822 note 5 ante. The functions conferred on London local authorities by ibid s 74 (as substituted) or s 74A (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 896 post) are to be discharged by the Joint Committee: s 74(9) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). No person who represents Transport for London or the Joint Committee is to take any part in any proceedings of the Joint Committee so far as relating to the discharge by the Joint Committee of any functions under s 74 (as substituted) or s 74A (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 896 post): s 74(10) (as so substituted). As to the Joint Committee see PARA 895 post.

The Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 122 (as amended) (exercise of functions by local authorities) (see PARA 734 ante) applies in relation to Transport for London, the London local authorities, and the Mayor of London, and functions conferred on them by or under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74 (as substituted), as it applies to local authorities and functions conferred on them by or under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74(11) (as so substituted).

Any functions conferred or imposed on the Greater London Authority by or under Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) are functions of the Authority which are exercisable by the Mayor acting on its behalf: s 82(1A) (s 82(1A), (1B) added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (4)). The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1A) (as added) does not apply in relation to any function expressly conferred or imposed on, or made exercisable by, the London Assembly: s 82(1B) (as so added). As to the Greater London Authority see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 79 et seq. As to the London Assembly see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 82. As to the Mayor of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 81.

6 Ibid s 74(1)(b) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

7 For these purposes, 'additional parking charges' means: (1) penalty charges (see PARA 889 ante); (2) charges made by London authorities for the removal, storage and disposal of vehicles (see PARA 874 ante); and (3) charges in respect of the release of vehicles from immobilisation devices fixed under ibid s 69 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 892 post): s 74(12) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). As to the application of Pt II (as amended) to the armed forces and to visiting forces in relation to any vehicle see PARA 889 note 1 ante. As to the modification of s 74(12) (as substituted) in relation to special parking areas see the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684.

8 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74(1) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). For the meaning of 'London' see PARA 822 note 2 ante.

9 Ibid s 74(2) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

10 Ibid s 74(3) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

11 Ibid s 74(4) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

12 Ibid s 74(5)(a) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). The duties referred to in the text are those under s 74(1) (as substituted): s 74(5)(a) (as so substituted).

13 Ibid s 74(5)(b) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

14 The levels of additional parking charges set in accordance with ibid s 74 (as substituted) may only come into force in accordance with s 74A (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 896 post): s 74(6) (as substituted: see note 4 supra).

15 Ie the roads referred to in ibid s 74(1)(a), (b) (as substituted): see the text and notes 4-6 supra.

16 Ibid s 74(5) (as substituted: see note 4 supra). Orders made under s 74(5) (as substituted) are local in nature, and are not recorded in this work.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/891. Penalty charge notices, notices to owners and charge certificates in London.

891. Penalty charge notices, notices to owners and charge certificates in London.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

Where a penalty charge notice<sup>2</sup> has been issued with respect to a vehicle<sup>3</sup> and the period of 28 days for payment of the penalty charge has expired without that charge being paid<sup>4</sup>, the London authority<sup>5</sup> concerned may serve a notice to owner<sup>6</sup> on the person who appears to it to have been the owner of the vehicle when the alleged contravention occurred<sup>7</sup>.

Where it appears to the recipient that certain grounds<sup>8</sup> are satisfied, he may make representations<sup>9</sup> to that effect to the London authority who served the notice on him<sup>10</sup>. It is the duty of the authority to which representations are duly made<sup>11</sup>: (1) to consider them and any supporting evidence which the person making them provides<sup>12</sup>; and (2) to serve on that person notice of its decision as to whether it accepts that the ground in question has been established<sup>13</sup>.

Where such representations are made<sup>14</sup> and the London authority concerned accepts that the ground in question has been established, it must<sup>15</sup> cancel the notice to owner<sup>16</sup>; and state in the notice served<sup>17</sup> that the notice to owner has been cancelled<sup>18</sup>.

Where such representations<sup>19</sup> are made, but the London authority concerned does not accept that a ground has been established, the notice served<sup>20</sup> (the 'notice of rejection') must<sup>21</sup>:

- 760 (a) state that a charge certificate may be served<sup>22</sup> unless before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of service of the notice of rejection the penalty charge is paid or the person on whom the notice is served appeals to a parking adjudicator against the penalty charge<sup>23</sup>;
- 761 (b) indicate the nature of a parking adjudicator's<sup>24</sup> power to award costs against any person appealing to him<sup>25</sup>; and
- 762 (c) describe in general terms the form and manner in which an appeal to a parking adjudicator must be made<sup>26</sup>, and may contain such other information as the authority considers appropriate<sup>27</sup>.

Where an authority serves notice<sup>28</sup> that it does not accept that a ground on which representations were made has been established, the person making those representations may<sup>29</sup>, before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of service of that notice<sup>30</sup>, or such longer period as a parking adjudicator may allow<sup>31</sup>, appeal to a parking adjudicator against the authority's decision<sup>32</sup>. A person who, in response to a notice to owner served under these provisions, makes any representation<sup>33</sup> which is false in a material particular and does so recklessly or knowing it to be false in that particular is guilty of an offence<sup>34</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 66 and Sch 6 and the London Local Authorities Act 2000 ss 7, 8 (both as amended) are repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 As to penalty charge notices see PARA 889 note 7 ante. As to penalty charges see PARA 889 ante. Any charge certificate, or notice under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6, may be served by post, and where the person on whom it is to be served is a body corporate, is duly served if it is sent by post to the secretary or clerk of that body: s 66(7), Sch 6 para 10.

3 Ibid Sch 6 para 1(1)(a). The penalty charge referred to in the text is one issued under s 66: Sch 6 para 1(1)(a). As to the application of Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) to the armed forces and to visiting forces in relation to any vehicle see PARA 889 note 1 ante.

4 Ibid Sch 6 para 1(1)(b).

5 For the meaning of 'London authority' see PARA 822 note 2 ante.

6 A notice to owner must state:

- 1440 (1) the amount of the penalty charge payable (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6 para 1(2)(a));
- 1441 (2) the grounds on which the parking attendant who issued the penalty charge notice believed that a penalty charge was payable with respect to the vehicle (Sch 6 para 1(2)(b));
- 1442 (3) that the penalty charge must be paid before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the notice to owner is served (Sch 6 para 1(2)(c));
- 1443 (4) that failure to pay the penalty charge may lead to an increased charge being payable (Sch 6 para 1(2)(d));
- 1444 (5) the amount of that increased charge (Sch 6 para 1(2)(e));
- 1445 (6) that the person on whom the notice is served ('the recipient') may be entitled to make representations under Sch 6 para 2 (see the text and notes 8-13 infra) (Sch 6 para 1(2)(f)); and
- 1446 (7) the effect of Sch 6 para 5 (appeal to parking adjudicator) (see the text and notes 28-32 infra) (Sch 6 para 1(2)(g)).

The Secretary of State may prescribe additional matters which must be dealt with in any notice to owner: Sch 6 para 1(3). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

7 Ibid Sch 6 para 1(1). Schedule 6 may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

In London, a notice to owner under Sch 6 para 1(1) or the London Local Authorities Act 1996 Sch 1 (as amended) (see PARA 897 post) (which makes provision relating to the enforcement of the provisions in that Act relating to bus lanes) may not be served after the expiry of the period of six months from the date on which the relevant penalty charge notice was issued: see the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 7(1) (s 7 amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, art 3(1), Sch 2 paras 1, 5). Where a notice to owner has been cancelled or is deemed to have been cancelled, a fresh notice to owner may not be served after certain time limits: see the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 7(2) (as so amended). Where a relevant authority (ie a council or Transport for London) has, within a certain time limit, made a request to the Secretary of State for the supply of relevant particulars relating to the identity of the owner of the vehicle contained in the register of mechanically propelled vehicles maintained by him under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (see PARA 519 ante) and those particulars have not been supplied to the relevant authority before the date after which the relevant authority would not be entitled to serve a notice to owner or fresh notice to owner by virtue of the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 7(1) or (2) (as amended), the relevant authority continues to be entitled to serve a notice to owner or fresh notice to owner for a further period of nine months beginning with that date: see s 7(3) (as so amended).

8 The grounds are that:

- 1447 (1) the recipient: (a) never was the owner of the vehicle in question (Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6 para 2(4)(a)(i)); (b) had ceased to be its owner before the date on which the alleged contravention occurred (Sch 6 para 2(4)(a)(ii)); or (c) became its owner after that date (Sch 6 para 2(4)(a)(iii));
- 1448 (2) the alleged contravention did not occur (Sch 6 para 2(4)(b));
- 1449 (3) the vehicle had been permitted to remain at rest in the parking place by a person who was in control of the vehicle without the consent of the owner (Sch 6 para 2(4)(c));
- 1450 (4) the relevant designation order is invalid (Sch 6 para 2(4)(d));
- 1451 (5) the recipient is a vehicle-hire firm and the vehicle in question was at the material time hired from that firm under a vehicle hiring agreement (Sch 6 para 2(4)(e)(i)), and the person hiring it had signed a statement of liability acknowledging his liability in respect of any penalty charge notice fixed to the vehicle during the currency of the hiring agreement (Sch 6 para 2(4)(e)(ii));
- 1452 (6) the penalty charge exceeded the amount applicable in the circumstances of the case (Sch 6 para 2(4)(f)).

For the meaning of 'hiring agreement' and 'vehicle-hire firm' for these purposes see PARA 1110 notes 2, 4 post; definitions applied by s 82(1).

Where the ground mentioned in Sch 6 para(2)(4)(a)(ii) (see head (1) supra) is relied on in any representations made under Sch 6 para 2, those representations must include a statement of the name and address of the person to whom the vehicle was disposed of by the person making the representations (if that information is in his possession): Sch 6 para 2(5). Where the ground mentioned in Sch 6 para 2(4)(a)(iii) (see head (1) supra) is relied on in any representations made under Sch 6 para 2, those representations must include a statement of the name and address of the person from whom the vehicle was acquired by the person making the representations (if that information is in his possession): Sch 6 para 2(6). As to the modification of Sch 6 para 2(4) in relation to a vehicle found in a special parking area see the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684. A parking adjudicator's power to consider grounds for appealing against a penalty charge is strictly confined to those laid down in the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6 para 2(4): R (on the application of Westminster City Council) v Parking Adjudicator [2002] EWHC 1007 (Admin), [2003] RTR 1.

9 Any such representations must be made in such form as may be specified by the London authorities, acting through the Joint Committee: Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6 para 2(2). As to the Joint Committee see PARA 895 post. The authority may disregard any such representations which are received by it after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the notice to owner was served: Sch 6 para 2(3).

10 Ibid Sch 6 para 2(1).

11 Ibid Sch 6 para 2(7).

12 Ibid Sch 6 para 2(7)(a).

13 Ibid Sch 6 para 2(7)(b).

14 Ie representations under ibid Sch 6 para 2: see the text and notes 8-13 supra.

15 Ibid Sch 6 para 3(1).

16 Ibid Sch 6 para 3(1)(a).

17 Ie under ibid Sch 6 para 2(7): see the text to notes 11-13 supra.

18 Ibid Sch 6 para 3(1)(b). The cancellation of a notice to owner under Sch 6 para 3(1) is not to be taken to prevent the London authority concerned serving a fresh notice to owner on another person: Sch 6 para 3(2).

Where the ground that is accepted is that mentioned in Sch 6 para 2(4)(e) (see note 8 head (5) supra), the person hiring the vehicle is deemed to be its owner for the purposes of Sch 6: Sch 6 para 3(3).

19 Ie representations under ibid Sch 6 para 2: see the text and notes 8-13 supra.

20 Ie under ibid Sch 6 para 2(7): see the text to notes 11-13 supra.

21 Ibid Sch 6 para 4(1).

22 Where a notice to owner is served on any person and the penalty charge to which it relates is not paid before the end of the relevant period, the authority serving the notice may serve on that person a charge certificate to the effect that the penalty charge in question is increased by 50%: ibid Sch 6 para 6(1). The relevant period, in relation to a notice to owner, is the period of 28 days beginning:

1453 (1) where no representations are made under Sch 6 para 2 with the date on which the notice to owner is served (Sch 6 para 6(2)(a));

1454 (2) where: (a) such representations are made (Sch 6 para 6(2)(b)(i)); (b) a notice of rejection is served by the authority concerned (Sch 6 para 6(2)(b)(ii)); and (c) no appeal against the notice of rejection is made (Sch 6 para 6(2)(b)(iii)), with the date on which the notice of rejection is served (Sch 6 para 6(2)(b)); or 1455 (3) where there has been an unsuccessful appeal against a notice of rejection, with the date on which notice of the adjudicator's decision is served on the appellant (Sch 6 para 6(2)(c)).

Where an appeal against a notice of rejection is made but is withdrawn before the adjudicator gives notice of his decision, the relevant period in relation to a notice to owner is the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the appeal is withdrawn: Sch 6 para 6(3).

As to the procedure applicable to proceedings for the recovery of increased penalty charges provided for in parking charge certificates issued under Sch 6 para 6 see CPR Pt 75 (added by SI 2002/2058; and amended by SI 2005/3515); and Practice Direction--Traffic Enforcement PD 75 (as amended).

Where a charge certificate has been served on any person and the increased penalty charge provided for in the certificate is not paid before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date on which the certificate is served, the authority concerned may, if a county court so orders, recover the increased charge as if it were payable under a county court order: Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 6 para 7. Where a county court makes such an order, the person against whom it is made makes a statutory declaration complying with Sch 6 para 8(2) and that declaration is, before the end of the period of 21 days beginning with the date on which notice of the county court's order is served on him, served on the county court which made the order (Sch 6 para 8(1)), the statutory declaration must state that the person making it:

1456 (i) did not receive the notice to owner in question (Sch 6 para 8(2)(a));

1457 (ii) made representations to the London authority concerned under Sch 6 para 2, but did not receive a rejection notice from that authority (Sch 6 para 8(2)(b)); or 1458 (iii) appealed to a parking adjudicator under Sch 6 para 5 against the rejection by that authority of representations made by him under Sch 6 para 2, but had no response to the appeal (Sch 6 para 8(2)(c)).

Where it appears to a district judge, on the application of a person on whom a charge certificate has been served, that it would be unreasonable in the circumstances of his case to insist on him serving his statutory declaration within the period of 21 days allowed for by Sch 6 para 8(1) (Sch 6 para 8(3)), the district judge may allow such longer period for service of the statutory declaration as he considers appropriate (Sch 6 para 8(4)). Where a statutory declaration is served under head (i) supra, the order of the court is deemed to have been revoked; the charge certificate is deemed to have been cancelled; in the case of a declaration under head (ii) supra, the notice to owner to which the charge certificate relates is deemed to have been cancelled; and the district judge must serve written notice of the effect of service of the declaration on the person making it and on the London authority concerned (Sch 6 para 8(5)).

Service of a declaration under head (ii) supra does not prevent the London authority serving a fresh notice to owner: Sch 6 para 8(6). Where a declaration has been served under head (ii) or head (iii) supra, the London authority must refer the case to the parking adjudicator who may give such direction as he considers appropriate: Sch 6 para 8(7).

In London, any charge certificate or notice under Sch 6 may be served by a participating council or Transport for London by transmission by the making of a facsimile copy of a document by the transmission of electric signals, or by certain other means of electronic data transmission: see the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 8 (amended by the Transport for London (Consequential Provisions) Order 2005, SI 2005/56, Sch 2 para 6). For the meaning of 'participating council' see PARA 870 note 25 ante.

29 Ibid Sch 6 para 5(1).

30 Ibid Sch 6 para 5(1)(a).

31 Ibid Sch 6 para 5(1)(b).

32 Ibid Sch 6 para 5(1). On an appeal under Sch 6 para 5, the parking adjudicator must consider the representations in question and any additional representations which are made by the appellant on any of the grounds mentioned in Sch 6 para 2(4) (see note 8 supra) and may give the London authority concerned such directions as he considers appropriate: Sch 6 para 5(2). It is the duty of any authority to which a direction is given under Sch 6 para 5(2) to comply with it forthwith: Sch 6 para 5(3).

33 Ie under ibid Sch 6 para 2 or Sch 6 para 5(2): Sch 6 para 9(1).

34 Ibid Sch 6 para 9(1). Any person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: Sch 6 para 9(2). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

UPDATE

891 Penalty charge notices, notices to owners and charge certificates in London

NOTE 22 CPR Pt 75 further amended: SI 2008/3327.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/892. Immobilisation of vehicles in London following the issue of a penalty charge notice.

892. Immobilisation of vehicles in London following the issue of a penalty charge notice.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

Where in the case of a stationary vehicle<sup>2</sup> in a designated parking place<sup>3</sup> a parking attendant<sup>4</sup> has reason to believe that the vehicle has been permitted to remain at rest there in certain circumstances<sup>5</sup> he, or another person acting under his direction, may fix an immobilisation device<sup>6</sup> to the vehicle<sup>7</sup>. On any occasion when an immobilisation device is so fixed to a vehicle in accordance with this provision, the person fixing the device must also fix to the vehicle a notice<sup>8</sup>:

- 763 (1) indicating that such a device has been fixed to the vehicle and warning that no attempt should be made to drive it or otherwise put it in motion until it has been released from that device<sup>9</sup>;
- 764 (2) specifying the steps to be taken in order to secure its release<sup>10</sup>; and
- 765 (3) giving such other information as may be prescribed<sup>11</sup>.

A vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been fixed may only be released from that device by or under the direction of a person authorised by the relevant authority<sup>12</sup> to give such a direction<sup>13</sup>. A vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been fixed will be released<sup>14</sup> from that device on payment in any manner specified in the notice fixed to the vehicle<sup>15</sup> of the penalty charge<sup>16</sup> payable in respect of the vehicle<sup>17</sup>, and such charge in respect of the release as may be required by the relevant authority<sup>18</sup>. A notice fixed to a vehicle must not be removed or interfered with except by or with the authority<sup>19</sup> of the owner<sup>20</sup> or person in charge of the vehicle<sup>21</sup>, or the relevant authority<sup>22</sup>.

However, these provisions regarding the immobilisation of vehicles do not apply in relation to a vehicle if<sup>23</sup>:

- 766 (a) a current disabled person's badge<sup>24</sup> is displayed on the vehicle<sup>25</sup>;
- 767 (b) a current recognised badge<sup>26</sup> is displayed on the vehicle<sup>27</sup>;
- 768 (c) not more than 15 minutes have elapsed since the end of any period for which the appropriate charge was duly paid at the time of parking<sup>28</sup>; or 769 (d) not more than 15 minutes have elapsed since the end of any expired time (in respect of another vehicle) which is available at the relevant parking meter<sup>29</sup> at the time of parking<sup>30</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 69, 70, 79 (ss 70, 79 both as amended) are repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 As to the application of the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) to the armed forces and to visiting forces in relation to any vehicle see PARA 889 note 1 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'designated parking place' see PARA 889 note 2 ante; and see PARA 779 ante.

4 For the meaning of 'parking attendant' for these purposes see PARA 869 ante; definition applied by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1).

5 Ie the circumstances specified in ibid s 66(2)(a), (b) or (c) (prospectively repealed): see PARA 889 ante.

6 For the meaning of 'immobilisation device' see PARA 876 note 4 ante; definition applied by ibid s 82(1).

7 Ibid s 69(1). As regards the fixing of an immobilisation device where a penalty charge notice has not been issued see PARA 876 ante. Sections 69, 70 (see the text and notes 23-30 infra) apply to vehicles in the public service of the Crown which are required to be registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (other than those which are exempted by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 79(1) (see PARA 889 note 1 ante)) and persons in the public service of the Crown: s 79(2) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 29). The Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 69, 70 (as amended) may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

8 Ibid s 69(2).

9 Ibid s 69(2)(a).

10 Ibid s 69(2)(b).

11 Ibid s 69(2)(c). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations made by the Secretary of State: s 82(1). Any power to make an order or regulations conferred by Pt II (as amended) on a Minister of the Crown is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 82(6) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (5)). Any statutory instrument so made is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(7).

12 For these purposes, 'relevant authority' means the London authority for the place in which the vehicle in question was found: ibid s 69(8). For the meaning of 'London Authority' see PARA 822 note 2 ante.

13 Ibid s 69(3). Any person who, without being authorised to do so, removes or attempts to remove an immobilisation device fixed to a vehicle in accordance with s 69 is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: s 69(7). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

14 Ie subject to ibid s 69(3): see the text to note 13 supra.

15 Ibid s 69(4).

16 As to penalty charges see PARA 889 ante.

17 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 69(4)(a).

18 Ibid s 69(4)(b).

19 Ibid s 69(5).

20 As to the meaning of 'owner of a vehicle' see PARA 889 note 5 ante.

21 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 69(5)(a).

22 Ibid s 69(5)(b). A person contravening s 69(5) is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: s 69(6).

23 Ibid s 70(1). See note 7 supra.

24 For the meaning of 'disabled person's badge' for these purposes see PARA 862 note 6 ante; definition applied by ibid s 70(3).

25 Ibid s 70(1)(a). In any case in which s 69(1) would apply to a vehicle but for s 70(1)(a) and the vehicle was not, at the time at which it was parked, being used:

1459 (1) in accordance with regulations under the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21 (as amended) (see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 1071) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 70(2)(a)); and

1460 (2) in circumstances falling within the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 117(1)(b) (as substituted) (use where a disabled person's concession would be available) (see PARA 862 ante) (Road Traffic Act 1991 s 70(2)(c)), the person in charge of the vehicle at that time is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale (s 70(2)).

As to the modification of s 70 (as amended) in relation to a vehicle found in a special parking area see the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684.

The Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 28 (as amended) (power to define 'disability' and other expressions: see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 1063) applies in relation to the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (as amended) as it applies to the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(4).

26 Ie within the meaning given by the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21A (as added): see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE.

27 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 70(1)(aa) (added by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 s 19(1), Sch 1 para 46(1), (2)). In any case in which the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 69(1) would apply to a vehicle but for s 70(1)(aa) (as added) and the vehicle was not, at the time at which it was parked, being used: (1) in accordance with regulations under the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21A (as added) (see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE); and (2) in circumstances falling within the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 117(1A)(b) (as added) (see PARA 862 text to note 12 ante), the person in charge of the vehicle at that time is guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 70(2A) (added by the Disability Discrimination Act 2005 Sch 1 para 46(3)).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/893. Representations in relation to the removal or immobilisation of vehicles in London.

893. Representations in relation to the removal or immobilisation of vehicles in London.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

The owner or person in charge of a vehicle<sup>2</sup> who:

770 (1) removes it from the custody of a London authority<sup>3</sup>;

- 771 (2) receives any sum<sup>4</sup> in respect of the vehicle<sup>5</sup>; 772 (3) is informed that the proceeds of sale of the vehicle did not exceed the aggregate amount<sup>6</sup>; or 773 (4) secures its release from an immobilisation device<sup>7</sup>, must be informed of his right to make representations to the relevant authority<sup>8</sup> and of the effect of an appeal to the parking adjudicator in relation to decisions under this provision<sup>9</sup>. Any such person may make representations<sup>10</sup> to the relevant authority on one or more specified grounds<sup>11</sup>. It is the duty of an authority, to which representations are duly made, before the end of the period of 56 days beginning with the date on which it receives the representations<sup>12</sup>:

- 774 (a) to consider them and any supporting evidence which the person making them provides<sup>13</sup>; and 775 (b) to serve on that person notice<sup>14</sup> of its decision as to whether it accepts that the ground in question has been established<sup>15</sup>.

A person who makes any representation<sup>16</sup> which is false in a material particular and does so recklessly or knowing it to be false in that particular is guilty of an offence<sup>17</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 ss 71, 79 (as amended) are repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 For the meaning of 'owner of a vehicle' see PARA 889 note 5 ante. As to the application of the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) to the armed forces and to visiting forces in relation to any vehicle see PARA 889 note 1 ante. Section 71 applies to vehicles in the public service of the Crown which are required to be registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (other than those which are exempted by virtue of the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 79(1) (see PARA 889 note 1 ante)) and persons in the public service of the Crown: s 79(2) (amended by the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 s 63, Sch 3 para 29).

3 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 71(1)(a). The reference to the removal of a vehicle is a reference to removal in accordance with the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(4A) (as added; prospectively repealed) (ultimate disposal of vehicles abandoned and removable under that Act) (see PARA 871 ante): Road Traffic Act 1991 s 71(1)(a). For the meaning of 'London authority' see PARA 822 note 2 ante. Section 71 may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

4 I.e. a sum under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(5A) (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 871 ante): Road Traffic Act 1991 s 71(1)(b).

5 Ibid s 71(1)(b).

6 Ibid s 71(1)(c). The reference to the aggregate amount is a reference to the amount mentioned in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(5A) (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 871 ante): Road Traffic Act 1991 s 71(1)(c).

7 Ibid s 71(1)(d). The reference to the release from an immobilisation device is a reference to a release in accordance with s 69(4) (prospectively repealed): see PARA 892 ante. For the meaning of 'immobilisation device' see PARA 876 note 4 ante; definition applied by s 82(1).

8 For the meaning of 'relevant authority' for these purposes see PARA 892 note 11 ante; definition applied by ibid s 71(14).

9 Ibid s 71(1). Such appeals are made under s 72 (prospectively repealed): see PARA 894 post. The relevant authority must give that information, or must cause it to be given, in writing: s 71(2).

10 An authority may disregard any representations which are received by it after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date on which the person making them is informed, under ibid s 71(1), of his right to make representations: s 71(5).

11 Ibid s 71(3). The grounds are:

- 1461 (1) that there were no reasonable grounds for the parking attendant concerned to believe that the vehicle had been permitted to remain at rest in the parking place in circumstances specified in s 66(2)(a)-(c) (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 889 ante) (s 71(4)(a));
- 1462 (2) that the vehicle had been permitted to remain at rest in the parking place by a person who was in control of the vehicle without the consent of the owner (s 71(4)(b));
- 1463 (3) that the place in which the vehicle was at rest was not a designated parking place (s 71(4)(c));
- 1464 (4) in a case within s 71(1)(d) (see the text and note 7 supra), that, by virtue of an exemption given by s 70 (prospectively repealed), s 69 (prospectively repealed) did not apply to the vehicle at the time in question (s 71(4)(d)); or
- 1465 (5) that the penalty or other charge in question exceeded the amount applicable in the circumstances of the case (s 71(4)(e)).

For the meaning of 'parking attendant' for these purposes see PARA 869 ante; definition applied by s 82(1). For the meaning of 'designated parking place' see PARA 889 note 2 ante; and see PARA 809 ante.

As to the modification of s 71(4) in relation to a vehicle found in a special parking area see the Road Traffic (Special Parking Area) (GLA Roads and GLA Side Roads) Order 2004, SI 2004/2684.

12 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 71(6).

13 Ibid s 71(6)(a).

14 Any notice required to be served under ibid s 71 may be served by post: s 71(12). Where the person on whom any document is required to be served by s 71(6) is a body corporate, the document is duly served if it is sent by post to the secretary or clerk of that body: s 71(13).

15 Ibid s 71(6)(b). Where an authority serves notice under s 71(6)(b) that it accepts that a ground has been established it must (when serving that notice) refund any sums: (1) paid under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 101(4A) (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 871 ante) when the vehicle was removed from the custody of the authority; (2) deducted from the proceeds of sale of the vehicle under s 101(5A) (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 871 ante); or (3) paid under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 69(4) (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 892 ante) when the vehicle was released, except to the extent (if any) to which those sums were properly paid or deducted: s 71(7).

Where an authority serves notice under s 71(6)(b) that it does not accept that a ground has been established, that notice must: (a) inform the person on whom it is served of his right to appeal to a parking adjudicator under s 72 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 894 post); (b) indicate the nature of a parking adjudicator's power to award costs against any person appealing to him under that provision; and (c) describe in general terms the form and manner in which such an appeal is required to be made: s 71(8).

Where an authority fails to comply with s 71(6) before the end of the period of 56 days mentioned in the text it is deemed to have accepted that the ground in question has been established and to have served notice to that effect under s 71(7); and s 71(7) will have effect as if it required any refund to be made immediately after the end of that period: s 71(9).

16 Ie under ibid s 71 or s 72 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 894 post): s 71(10).

17 Ibid s 71(10). Any person convicted of an offence under s 71(10) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale: s 71(11). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/894. Parking adjudicators.

894. Parking adjudicators.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

Where an authority serves notice<sup>2</sup> that it does not accept that a ground on which representations were made has been established, the person making those representations may<sup>3</sup> before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of service of that notice<sup>4</sup>, or before such longer period as a parking adjudicator may allow<sup>5</sup>, appeal to a parking adjudicator against the authority's decision<sup>6</sup>. On an appeal, the parking adjudicator must consider the representations in question and any additional representations which are made by the appellant on any such grounds<sup>7</sup> and, if he concludes<sup>8</sup> that any of the representations are justified<sup>9</sup>, and that the relevant authority<sup>10</sup> would have been under a duty<sup>11</sup> to refund any sum if it had served notice that it accepted that the ground in question had been established<sup>12</sup>, he must direct that authority to make the necessary refund<sup>13</sup>. It is the duty of any authority to which such a direction is given to comply with it forthwith<sup>14</sup>.

894 Parking adjudicators

NOTE 1--See also SI 2007/3174 (Wales).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/895. Appointment of parking adjudicators.

895. Appointment of parking adjudicators.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

The London local authorities<sup>2</sup> and Transport for London<sup>3</sup> ('the appointing authorities') have established a single Joint Committee<sup>4</sup>. The functions conferred on the appointing authorities in relation to the appointment of parking adjudicators are to be discharged by the Joint Committee<sup>5</sup>. The appointing authorities must<sup>6</sup>:

- 776 (1) with the consent of the Lord Chancellor, appoint persons to act as parking adjudicators<sup>7</sup> for the purposes of Part II of the Road Traffic Act 1991<sup>8</sup>;
- 777 (2) provide accommodation and administrative staff for the parking adjudicators<sup>9</sup>; and
- 778 (3) determine the places at which parking adjudicators are to sit<sup>10</sup>.

To be qualified for appointment as a parking adjudicator, a person must have a five year general qualification<sup>11</sup>. Each parking adjudicator is to be appointed for such term, not exceeding five years, as the appointing authorities may specify in relation to his appointment<sup>12</sup>. On the expiry of his term of appointment, a parking adjudicator is eligible for re-appointment<sup>13</sup>. A parking adjudicator may be removed from office only for misconduct or on the ground that he is unable or unfit to discharge his functions but is otherwise to hold and vacate office in accordance with the terms of his appointment<sup>14</sup>.

The expenses of the Joint Committee incurred in the discharge of functions conferred on the appointing authorities are to be defrayed by the appointing authorities in such proportions as they may decide or, in default of a decision by them, as may be determined by an arbitrator nominated by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators on the application of the Joint Committee<sup>15</sup>.

The Secretary of State is required to make provision by regulations as to the procedure to be followed in relation to proceedings before parking adjudicators<sup>16</sup>. Subject to any provision made by the regulations, a parking adjudicator may regulate his own procedure<sup>17</sup>.

If any person who is required to attend a hearing held by a parking adjudicator, or to produce any document to a parking adjudicator in accordance with such regulations<sup>18</sup>, fails without reasonable excuse to do so, he is guilty of an offence<sup>19</sup>.

In accordance with such requirements as may be imposed by the Joint Committee, each parking adjudicator is to make an annual report to the Joint Committee on the discharge of his functions<sup>20</sup>. Similarly the Joint Committee is to make and publish an annual report in writing to the Secretary of State on the discharge by the parking adjudicators of its functions<sup>21</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73 (as amended) is repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 For the meaning of 'London local authority' see PARA 822 note 5 ante.

3 As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

4 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(1) (substituted by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (2)). The Joint Committee was established on 4 September 2000 under the Local Government Act 1972 s 101(5) (see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARA 380): see the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(1) (as so substituted). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

For the purposes of s 73(1) (as substituted), the provisions of the Local Government Act 1972 ss 101(5), 102 (see LOCAL GOVERNMENT vol 69 (2009) PARAS 371, 380) are to have effect as if Transport for London were a local authority: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(1A) (added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (2)).

The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73 (as amended) may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

- 5 Ibid s 73(2) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 ss 283(1), (3), (4), 423, Sch 34 Pt VI).
- 6 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(3) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (4)).
- 7 As to parking adjudicators see PARA 894 ante.
- 8 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(3)(a).
- 9 Ibid s 73(3)(b).
- 10 Ibid s 73(3)(c).
- 11 Ibid s 73(4). A person has a 'general qualification' if he has a right of audience in relation to any class of proceedings in any part of the Supreme Court, or all proceedings in county courts or magistrates' courts: Courts and Legal Services Act 1990 s 71(3)(d). Any reference in any enactment, measure or statutory instrument to a person having such a qualification of a particular number of years' length is to be construed as a reference to a person who: (1) for the time being has that qualification; and (2) has had it for a period (which need not be continuous) of at least that number of years: s 71(5). Any period during which a person had a right of audience but was, as a result of disciplinary proceedings, prevented by the authorised body concerned from exercising it is not to count towards the period mentioned in head (2) supra: s 71(6) (substituted by the Access to Justice Act 1999 s 43, Sch 6 paras 4, 9).
- 12 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(5) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (4)).
- 13 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(6).
- 14 Ibid s 73(7).
- 15 Ibid s 73(8) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (4)). The costs of any reference to arbitration under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(8) (as amended) is to be borne by the appointing authorities in equal shares: s 73(9) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (4)). Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that there has been, or is likely to be, a failure on the part of the appointing authorities to agree on the proportions in which the expenses of the Joint Committee are to be defrayed by them under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(8) (as amended), he may give the Joint Committee such directions as he considers appropriate in order to require it to refer the matter to arbitration: s 73(10) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 283(1), (4)).
- 16 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(11). The regulations may, in particular, include provision:
  - 1466 (1) as to the manner in which appeals to parking adjudicators are to be made or withdrawn (s 73(12)(a));
  - 1467 (2) authorising an appeal to a parking adjudicator to be disposed of on the basis of written representations unless the appellant requests an oral hearing (s 73(12)(b));
  - 1468 (3) prescribing the procedure to be followed before the hearing of an appeal by a parking adjudicator (s 73(12)(c));
  - 1469 (4) requiring any such hearing to be held in public except in prescribed circumstances (s 73(12)(d));
  - 1470 (5) as to the persons entitled to appear and be heard on behalf of the parties (s 73(12)(e));
  - 1471 (6) requiring persons to attend to give evidence and to produce documents (s 73(12)(f));
  - 1472 (7) as to evidence at the hearing (s 73(12)(g));
  - 1473 (8) as to the adjournment of hearings (s 73(12)(h));
  - 1474 (9) for the award of costs in prescribed circumstances (s 73(12)(i));
  - 1475 (10) for the settlement of costs, by taxation (and in particular by taxation in a county court) or by some other prescribed method (s 73(12)(j));

- 1476 (11) authorising decisions of parking adjudicators to be reserved (s 73(12)(k));
- 1477 (12) authorising or requiring parking adjudicators:
17. (a) to revise or set aside decisions (s 73(12)(l)(i));
17
18. (b) to revoke or vary orders made by them (s 73(12)(l)(ii));
18
- 1478 (13) requiring decisions of, and orders made by, parking adjudicators, to be recorded (s 73(12)(m));
- 1479 (14) as to the proof of decisions of, and orders made by, parking adjudicators (s 73(12)(n));
- 1480 (15) authorising the correction of clerical errors in records kept in accordance with the requirements of the regulations (s 73(12)(o));
- 1481 (16) requiring service of:
19. (a) notice of decisions of parking adjudicators (s 73(12)(p)(i));
19
20. (b) copies of any orders made by such adjudicators (s 73(12)(p)(ii)); or 20
21. (c) notice of any corrections made by parking adjudicators in their decisions or orders (s 73(12)(p)(iii)).
21

Any power to make an order or regulations conferred by Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) on a Minister of the Crown is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 82(6) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (5)). Any statutory instrument so made is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(7). As to the regulations made under s 73(11), (12) see the Road Traffic (Parking Adjudicators) (London) Regulations 1993, SI 1993/1202 (amended by SI 1999/1205); and the Road Traffic (Parking Adjudicators) (England and Wales) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/1918.

As to the procedure applicable to proceedings for the recovery of amounts payable by a person other than an authority under an adjudication of a parking adjudicator pursuant to the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73 (as amended) see CPR Pt 75 (added by SI 2002/2058; and amended by SI 2005/3515); and Practice Direction--Traffic Enforcement PD 75 (as amended).

18 Ie under ibid s 73(11): see the text to note 16 supra.

19 Ibid s 73(14). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: s 73(14). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

Any amount which is payable under an adjudication of a parking adjudicator is, if a county court so orders, recoverable by the person to whom the amount is payable as if it were payable under a county court order: s 73(15). Section 73(15) does not apply to a penalty charge which remains payable following an adjudication under Sch 6 para 5 (see PARA 891 ante): s 73(16).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/896. Additional parking charges in London and reserve powers of the Secretary of State.

896. Additional parking charges in London and reserve powers of the Secretary of State.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

Where the Mayor of London<sup>2</sup> approves<sup>3</sup> any levels of additional parking charges<sup>4</sup>, or sets any such levels<sup>5</sup>, he must notify the Secretary of State<sup>6</sup> of the levels of charges so approved or set<sup>7</sup>. Where notification of any levels of charges is required to be given<sup>8</sup>, the levels of charges are not to come into force until after the expiration of<sup>9</sup> the period of one month beginning with the day on which the notification is given<sup>10</sup>, or such shorter period as the Secretary of State may allow<sup>11</sup>. If, before the expiration of that period, the Secretary of State gives notice to the Mayor of London that he objects to the levels of charges on the grounds that some or all of them are or may be excessive, those levels of charges will not come into force unless and until the objection has been withdrawn<sup>12</sup>.

If, at any time before the levels of charges required to be notified to the Secretary of State have come into force, the Secretary of State considers that some or all of them are excessive, he may make regulations setting the levels of charges<sup>13</sup>. Such regulations are without prejudice to the duties imposed on Transport for London and the London local authorities to set the level of additional parking charges<sup>14</sup>. However, where the Secretary of State makes any such regulations, Transport for London (if the regulations relate to GLA roads or trunk roads<sup>15</sup>) or the London local authorities (if the regulations relate to other roads<sup>16</sup>) must not make any further submission to the Mayor of London<sup>17</sup> until after the expiration of the period of 12 months beginning with the day on which the regulations are made<sup>18</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74A (as added) is repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 Any functions conferred or imposed on the Greater London Authority by or under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended) are functions of the Authority which are exercisable by the Mayor acting on its behalf: s 82(1A) (s 82(1A), (1B) added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (4)). The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(1A) (as added) does not apply in relation to any function expressly conferred or imposed on, or made exercisable by, the London Assembly: s 82(1B) (as so added). As to the Greater London Authority see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 79 et seq. As to the London Assembly see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 82. As to the Mayor of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 81.

3 le on a submission under ibid s 74(4) (as substituted; prospectively repealed): see PARA 890 ante.

4 Ibid s 74A(1)(a) (s 74A added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 284). As to additional parking charges see PARA 890 ante. The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74A (as added) may by order be applied with modifications to permitted and special parking areas outside London: see PARAS 820-821 ante.

5 Ibid s 74A(1)(b) (as added: see note 4 supra). The levels referred to in the text are those set under s 74(5) (as substituted; prospectively repealed): see PARA 890 ante.

6 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

7 Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74A(1) (as added: see note 4 supra).

8 le under ibid s 74A(1) (as added): see the text to notes 4-7 supra.

9 Ibid s 74A(2) (as added: see note 4 supra).

10 Ibid s 74A(2)(a) (as added: see note 4 supra).

11 Ibid s 74A(2)(b) (as added: see note 4 supra).

12 Ibid s 74A(3) (as added: see note 4 supra).

13 Ibid s 74A(4) (as added: see note 4 supra). Levels of charges set under s 74A(4) (as added) must be no higher than those notified under s 74A(1) (as added) (see the text and notes 1-7 supra); s 74A(5) (as so added). The provisions of s 74(7), (8) (as substituted; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 890 ante) are to apply in relation to levels of charges set under s 74A(4) (as added) as if those levels of charges had been set in accordance with the provisions of s 74A(4) (as added) by Transport for London, so far as relating to GLA roads or trunk roads, or by the London local authorities, so far as relating to other roads: s 74A(6) (as so added). As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq. As to the meaning of 'GLA road' for these purposes see PARA 726 note 6 ante; definition applied by s 82(1) (definition added by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (3)). As to the meaning of 'trunk road' see PARA 822 note 2 ante. For the meaning of 'London local authority' see PARA 822 note 5 ante.

The functions conferred on London local authorities by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74A (as added) are to be discharged by the Joint Committee: see s 74(9) (as substituted; prospectively repealed); and PARA 890 note 4 ante. Any power to make an order or regulations conferred by Pt II (as amended) on a Minister of the Crown is exercisable by statutory instrument: s 82(6) (amended by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 287(1), (5)). Any statutory instrument so made is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament: Road Traffic Act 1991 s 82(7).

18 Ibid s 74A(7) (as added: see note 4 supra).

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/897. Penalty charge notices in relation to bus lanes in London.

897. Penalty charge notices in relation to bus lanes in London.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

Where:

- 779 (1) in relation to any GLA road or GLA side road, Transport for London<sup>2</sup> or the relevant council<sup>3</sup>;
- 780 (2) in relation to any other road in Greater London, the relevant council or Transport for London<sup>4</sup>, on the basis of information provided by the use of a prescribed device<sup>5</sup>, has reason to believe that a penalty charge<sup>6</sup> is payable<sup>7</sup> with respect to a vehicle<sup>8</sup> by the owner of the vehicle, that council or Transport for London, may serve a penalty charge notice<sup>9</sup> on the person appearing to it to be the owner of the vehicle<sup>10</sup>.

For these purposes, a penalty charge is payable with respect to a vehicle, by the owner of the vehicle, if the person in charge of the vehicle acts in contravention of or fails to comply with certain orders<sup>11</sup> or regulations<sup>12</sup> in so far as provision is made for the reservation of all or part of a carriageway of a road<sup>13</sup> as a bus lane<sup>14</sup>, and the penalty charge must be paid: (a) where the contravention or failure is in respect of a GLA road or a GLA side road, to Transport for London; (b) in any other case, to the council in whose area the contravention or failure occurs<sup>15</sup>.

The functions of traffic adjudicators<sup>16</sup> are discharged by persons appointed as parking adjudicators<sup>17</sup>. No penalty charge is payable<sup>18</sup> in respect of any conduct where: (i) a notice is given to the driver<sup>19</sup> in respect of a bus lane offence<sup>20</sup> constituted by that conduct<sup>21</sup>; or (ii) notification of an intention to prosecute the driver in respect of such an offence is given by the Metropolitan Police Commissioner or the City of London Police Commissioner, where the alleged offence took place on a GLA road or a GLA side road, to Transport for London, and in any other case, to the council of the borough<sup>22</sup> in which the alleged offence took place, before the expiry of the period of 14 days, beginning with the day on which the alleged offence takes place<sup>23</sup>.

Provision has been made for enforcement notices<sup>24</sup>, representations against enforcement notices<sup>25</sup>, cancellation of penalty charge notices or enforcement notices<sup>26</sup>, rejection of representations against enforcement notices<sup>27</sup>, adjudication by the traffic adjudicator<sup>28</sup>, admissibility of certain evidence<sup>29</sup>, charge certificates<sup>30</sup>, enforcement of charge certificates<sup>31</sup>, invalid notices<sup>32</sup>, the offence of giving false information<sup>33</sup>, service by post<sup>34</sup> and financial matters<sup>35</sup>.

1 The London Local Authorities Act 1996 Pt II (ss 3-9) (as amended) is repealed by the Transport Act 2000 s 274, Sch 31 Pt II as from a day to be appointed under s 75(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

2 'Transport for London' means the body established by the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 154 (see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 270); London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 2 (definition added by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, art 2, Schedule para 1(b)).

3 London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 4(1)(a) (s 4(1) substituted, and s 4(1A)-(1C) added, by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, Schedule para 2(a)). The relevant council must not exercise the power under the London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 4(1)(a) (as substituted) unless it has obtained the consent in writing of Transport for London: s 4(1A) (as so added). For these purposes, 'relevant council' means the council in whose area the contravention or failure occurred: s 4(1C) (as so added).

As to GLA roads and GLA side roads see PARAS 725 note 5, 726 note 6 ante; and HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 822.

4 London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 4(1)(b) (as added: see note 3 supra). Transport for London must not exercise the power conferred by s 4(1)(b) (as added) unless it has obtained the consent in writing of the relevant council: s 4(1B) (as so added).

5 'Prescribed device' means a device prescribed under the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 20(9) (see PARA 1042 post) or a device of a description specified in regulations made for the purposes of the London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3 by the Secretary of State: s 3(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

6 The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74 (as substituted; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 890 ante) applies in relation to the levels of penalty charges under the London Local Authorities Act 1996 Pt II (as amended) as it applies in relation to the levels of penalty charges (among other charges) under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended): London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 8 (amended by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, art 2, Schedule para 3).

For provision as to civil penalties for bus lane contraventions see PARA 898 post.

7 ie payable under the London Local Authorities Act 1996 Pt II (as amended).

8 'Vehicle' means a mechanically propelled vehicle intended or adapted for use on roads: ibid s 3(1). No provision in Pt II (as amended) applies to any vehicle on an occasion when it is being used for fire brigade, ambulance or police purposes: s 5.

9 A penalty charge notice under ibid Pt II (as amended) must state:

1482 (1) the grounds on which the council or Transport for London believes that the penalty charge is payable with respect to the vehicle (s 4(3)(a) (amended by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, Schedule para 2(c));

1483 (2) the amount of the penalty charge which is payable (London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 4(3)(b));

1484 (3) that the penalty charge must be paid before the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the date of the notice (s 4(3)(c) (amended by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, Schedule para 2(c));

1485 (4) that if the penalty charge is paid before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the date of the notice, the amount of the penalty charge will be reduced by the specified proportion (London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 4(3)(d));

1486 (5) that, if the penalty charge is not paid before the end of the 28 day period, an enforcement notice may be served by the council or Transport for London on the person appearing to it to be the owner of the vehicle (s 4(3)(e));

1487 (6) the address to which payment of the penalty charge must be sent (s 4(3)(f)); and 1488 (7) the effect of s 4 (as amended), s 6, Sch 1 para 2 (as amended) (s 4(3)(f)).

In head (4) supra, 'specified proportion' means such proportion, applicable in all cases, as may be determined for the purposes of s 4 (as amended) by the appointing authorities acting through the Joint Committee: s 4(4) (amended by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, Schedule para 2(d)). 'Joint Committee' means the Joint Committee established under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 895 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3(1).

10 Ibid s 4(1) (substituted by the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, Schedule para 2(a)). For these purposes, 'owner of a vehicle' is taken to be the person by whom the vehicle is kept: London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3(2). In determining who the owner of a vehicle was at any time, it is presumed that the owner was the person in whose name the vehicle was at that time registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 (see PARA 518 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3(3).

11 Ie an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 6 (as amended) (see PARA 747 ante) or s 9 (as amended) (see PARA 751 ante).

12 Ie under ibid s 12 (repealed).

13 For the meaning of 'road' for these purposes see PARA 206 ante; definition applied by the London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3(1).

14 As to bus lanes see the Traffic Signs Regulations and General Directions 2002, SI 2002/3113, reg 23; applied by the London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3(1).

15 Ibid s 4(2) (amended by the London Local Authorities Act 2000 s 48, Sch 2 para 1; and the Transport for London (Bus Lanes) Order 2001, SI 2001/690, Schedule para 2(b)).

16 Ie under the London Local Authorities Act 1996 Sch 1 (as amended).

17 See ibid s 6(1). The reference to persons appointed as parking adjudicators is a reference to persons so appointed under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73 (as amended; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 895 ante): London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 6(1). Regulations under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(11) (prospectively repealed) (provision as to procedure to be followed in relation to proceedings before parking adjudicators) (see PARA 895 text to note 15 ante) may make provision with respect to proceedings before parking adjudicators when exercising the functions of traffic adjudicators: London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 6(2). Any regulations under the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(11) (prospectively repealed) in force at the coming into operation of the London Local Authorities Act 1996 Pt II (as amended) apply, with any necessary modifications, in relation to proceedings before parking adjudicators: s 6(2). As to the regulations made see the Road Traffic (Parking Adjudicators) (London) (Amendment) Regulations 1999, SI 1999/1205.

The references to a parking adjudicator or parking adjudicators in the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 73(13)-(15), (17), (18) (prospectively repealed) include references to a parking adjudicator or parking adjudicators exercising the functions of traffic adjudicators, but s 73(15) (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 895 note 18 ante) does not apply to a penalty charge under the London Local Authorities Act 1996 Pt II (as amended), which remains payable following an adjudication under Sch 1 para 6: s 6(3).

18 Ibid under ibid Pt II (as amended).

19 Ibid under the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 54(2) or s 54(4) (as amended): see PARA 1097 post.

20 'Bus lane offence' means an offence under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 8 (as amended) (see PARA 750 ante), s 11 (as amended) (see PARA 753 ante) or s 13 (repealed) or the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 36 (as amended) (see PARA 643 ante), which relates to the contravention of or failure to comply with an order or traffic sign, in so far as it makes provision for or indicates a reservation of all or part of a carriageway of a road as a bus lane: London Local Authorities Act 1996 s 3(1).

21 Ibid s 9(a).

22 'Borough council' means London borough council and includes the Common Council of the City of London; and 'borough' and 'council' are to be construed accordingly: ibid s 2. As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq. As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

897-898 Penalty charge notices in relation to bus lanes in London, Civil penalties for bus lane contraventions

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

897 Penalty charge notices in relation to bus lanes in London

NOTE 30--CPR Pt 75 further amended: SI 2008/3327.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/898. Civil penalties for bus lane contraventions.

898. Civil penalties for bus lane contraventions.

The following provisions have effect until a day to be appointed<sup>1</sup>.

The relevant national authority<sup>2</sup> may by regulations make provision for or in connection with: (1) the imposition of penalty charges in respect of bus lane contraventions<sup>3</sup>; and (2) the payment of such penalty charges<sup>4</sup>. Such regulations may provide for the imposition of penalty charges: (a) by approved local authorities<sup>5</sup>; or (b) both by approved local authorities and by Transport for London<sup>6</sup> or London local authorities<sup>7</sup> or both<sup>8</sup>. The roads in relation to which regulations may authorise the imposition of penalty charges are, in the case of an approved local authority, roads in its area; in the case of Transport for London, roads in Greater London of a description prescribed by such regulations or all roads in Greater London; and in the case of a London local authority, roads in its area of a description prescribed by such regulations or all roads in its area<sup>9</sup>.

Regulations must include provision:

- 781 (i) specifying the person by whom a penalty charge in respect of any contravention is to be paid (who may be the registered keeper<sup>10</sup> of the motor vehicle involved in the contravention, its driver at the time of the contravention, or any other appropriate person);
- 782 (ii) permitting the imposition of a penalty charge only on the basis of a record produced by an approved device<sup>11</sup>;
- 783 (iii) securing that a penalty charge in respect of a contravention is not required to be paid, or is refunded, where the conduct constituting the contravention is the subject of criminal proceedings or where a fixed penalty notice<sup>12</sup> has been given in respect of that conduct; and
- 784 (iv) as to the application of sums paid by way of penalty charges<sup>13</sup>.

Regulations must include provision for the level of penalty charges in the case of approved local authorities to be set by the authorities subject to the approval of the relevant national authority<sup>14</sup>. Regulations may specify exemptions from penalty charges, make provision for discounts or surcharges (or both), and make provision about the keeping of accounts, and the preparation and publication of statements of account, relating to sums paid by way of penalty charges<sup>15</sup>. The Lord Chancellor may make regulations about the notification, adjudication and enforcement of penalty charges<sup>16</sup>. Regulations under these provisions made by the Secretary of State or the Lord Chancellor may make provision in respect of Greater London different from that in respect of the rest of England<sup>17</sup>.

1 The Transport Act 2000 s 144 is repealed by the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1 as from a day to be appointed under s 99(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

2 In the Transport Act 2000 s 144, 'relevant national authority' means, as respects England, the Secretary of State: s 144(14). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

3 A bus lane contravention is a contravention of any such provision of: (1) a traffic regulation order; (2) an experimental traffic order; or (3) a temporary traffic restriction order, as relates to the use of an area of road which is or forms part of a bus lane: ibid s 144(4). 'Traffic regulation order' means an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 1 or s 6 (see PARAS 742, 747 ante); Transport Act 2000 s 144(14). 'Experimental traffic order' means an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 9 (see PARA 751 ante); Transport Act 2000 s 144(14). 'Temporary traffic restriction order' means an order under the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 14 or s 16A (as added) (see PARAS 755, 759 ante); Transport Act 2000 s 144(14). 'Road' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 206 ante); Transport Act 2000 s 144(14). An area of road is or forms part of a bus lane if the order provides that it may be used: (a) only by buses (or a particular description of bus); or (b) only by buses (or a particular description of bus) and some other class or classes of vehicular traffic: s 144(5). 'Bus' includes a tramcar (within the meaning of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 141A (as added): see PARA 1624 note 2 post) and a trolley vehicle (within the meaning of s 141A (as added): see PARA 1629 note 2 post); Transport Act 2000 s 144(14).

4 Ibid s 144(1). See the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2757, which apply to England exclusive of Greater London. As to regulations under the Transport Act 2000 Pt II (ss 108-162) (as amended) see generally para 1226 post.

5 An authority is an approved local authority if: (1) an order designating the whole or any part of its area has been made under the Road Traffic Act 1991 Sch 3 para 1(1) or Sch 3 para 2(1) (permitted and special parking areas outside Greater London: see PARAS 820-821 ante); and (2) the relevant national authority has made an order specifying it as an approved local authority for the purposes of the Transport Act 2000 s 144: s 144(3). See the Bus Lane Contraventions (Approved Local Authorities) (England) Order 2005, SI 2005/2755 (amended by SI 2005/3406; SI 2006/593; SI 2006/1447; SI 2006/1516; SI 2006/2632; SI 2006/2820; SI 2006/3212; SI 2006/3419; SI 2006/3425; SI 2007/551; SI 2007/647; SI 2007/1512; SI 2007/1585; SI 2007/2323; SI 2007/2536; SI 2007/2838).

6 As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq.

7 'London local authority' means a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London: Transport Act 2000 s 144(14). As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq. As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

8 Ibid s 144(2). See the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2757, regs 3-6.

9 Transport Act 2000 s 144(6). Before making any regulations by virtue of head (ii) or head (iii) in the text the Secretary of State must consult: (1) Transport for London; and (2) the London local authorities affected by the regulations: s 144(7).

10 'Registered keeper', in relation to a contravention involving a motor vehicle, means the person in whose name the motor vehicle was registered under the Vehicle Registration and Excise Act 1994 at the time of the contravention: Transport Act 2000 s 144(14). 'Motor vehicle' has the meaning given in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 185(1) (see PARA 210 ante), except that s 189 (exception for certain pedestrian controlled vehicles and electrically assisted pedal cycles: see PARA 210 ante) applies as it applies for the purposes of the Road Traffic Acts (as to which see PARA 202 note 1 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 144(14).

11 'Approved device' means a device of a description specified in an order made by the relevant national authority: ibid s 144(14). See the Bus Lanes (Approved Devices) (England) Order 2005, SI 2005/2756. As to orders under the Transport Act 2000 Pt II (as amended) see generally para 1226 post.

12 'Fixed penalty notice' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Pt III (ss 51-90) (as amended) (see PARA 1094 post): Transport Act 2000 s 144(14).

13 Ibid s 144(8). As to the application of sums paid by way of penalty charges see the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2757, reg 36.

14 Transport Act 2000 s 144(9). See the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2757, reg 4. The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 74 (prospectively repealed) (see PARA 890 ante) and s 74A (as added; prospectively repealed) (see PARA 896 ante) apply to penalty charges in the case of Transport for London and London local authorities as they apply to additional parking charges: Transport Act 2000 s 144(9).

15 Ibid s 144(10). As to accounts see the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2757, reg 36.

16 Transport Act 2000 s 144(11). Regulations under s 144(11) may include: (1) provision creating criminal offences, to be triable summarily and punishable with a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale or such lower amount as is prescribed by the regulations; and (2) provision for or in connection with permitting evidence of a fact to be given by the production of a record produced by an approved device with a certificate as to the circumstances in which the record was produced, but may not confer power to stop motor vehicles: s 144(12). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante.

For regulations as to notification of, and representations about, penalty charges see the Bus Lane Contraventions (Penalty Charges, Adjudication and Enforcement) (England) Regulations 2005, SI 2005/2757, regs 7-10. As to adjudication and appeals see regs 11-31, Schedule. As to enforcement see regs 32-35.

899. Enforcement of debts.

The following provisions have effect until 31 March 2008<sup>1</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor may by order make provision:

- 785 (1) for warrants of execution in respect of Part II debts<sup>2</sup>, or such class or classes of Part II debts as may be specified in the order, to be executed by certificated bailiffs<sup>3</sup>;
- 786 (2) as to the requirements which must be satisfied before any person takes, with a view to enforcing the payment of a Part II debt<sup>4</sup>, or such class or classes of Part II debts as may be so specified<sup>5</sup>, any other step of a kind specified by the order<sup>6</sup>.

The Lord Chancellor may by regulations make provision in connection with the certification of bailiffs and the execution of warrants of execution by such bailiffs<sup>7</sup>. The regulations may, in particular, make provision<sup>8</sup>:

- 787 (a) as to the security (if any) to be required from certificated bailiffs<sup>9</sup>;
- 788 (b) as to the fees and expenses payable with respect to executions by certificated bailiffs<sup>10</sup>; and
- 789 (c) for the suspension or cancellation of certificates issued with respect to the effect of any such suspension or cancellation<sup>11</sup>.

Any person who is not a certificated bailiff but who purports to levy a distress as such a bailiff, and any person authorising him to levy it, is deemed to have committed a trespass<sup>12</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1991 s 78 is repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 For these purposes, 'Part II debt' means any sum which is: (1) payable under, or by virtue of, any provision of the Road Traffic Act 1991 Pt II (ss 64-82) (as amended); and (2) recoverable as if it were payable under a county court order: s 78(1).

3 Ibid s 78(2)(a). For these purposes, 'certificated bailiff', means any person authorised to act as such under s 78(6): s 78(1). For these purposes, a person is a certificated bailiff if he is authorised to act as such by a certificate signed: (1) by a judge assigned to a county court district; or (2) in such circumstances as may be specified in regulations made by the Lord Chancellor, by a district judge: s 78(6). As to certificated bailiffs in general see DISTRESS vol 13 (2007 Reissue) PARA 944 et seq.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vi) Parking Charges and Penalty Charges/900. Recovery of unpaid penalty charges.

900. Recovery of unpaid penalty charges.

The Secretary of State<sup>2</sup> may make regulations<sup>3</sup> for securing<sup>4</sup> that: (1) where a vehicle found in the borough of a participating council<sup>5</sup> is in the custody of a competent authority<sup>6</sup> and a person claiming the vehicle<sup>7</sup> is liable for the payment of any earlier penalty charge<sup>8</sup> relating to that vehicle which remains unpaid, the claimant is not entitled to remove the vehicle from the authority's custody unless, in addition to the penalty charge and other specified sums<sup>9</sup>, he also pays the earlier penalty charge<sup>10</sup>; and (2) where a vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been fixed<sup>11</sup> is in the borough of a participating council, there is no obligation to release the vehicle from that device<sup>12</sup> unless, in addition to the charges payable<sup>13</sup>, there is paid any unpaid earlier penalty charge relating to that vehicle for the payment of which the person making that payment and, if not the same person, the person in charge of the vehicle at the time the immobilisation device was fixed, is liable<sup>14</sup>.

Such regulations may: (a) make provision for appeals to the parking adjudicator<sup>15</sup> in respect of unpaid penalty charges<sup>16</sup>; and (b) contain such exemptions and exceptions as appear to the Secretary of State to be appropriate and are in any event to make provision whereby there is no requirement for the payment of an earlier penalty charge in order to permit the removal of a vehicle from the custody of a competent authority or, as the case may be, to secure the release of a vehicle from an immobilisation device if<sup>17</sup>: (i) representations have been made in relation to that charge to the relevant authority<sup>18</sup> within the relevant period of time<sup>19</sup> and have not yet been considered by that authority<sup>20</sup>; or (ii) an appeal has been made in relation to that charge to the adjudicator<sup>21</sup> within the relevant period of time<sup>22</sup> and has not yet been considered by the adjudicator<sup>23</sup>.

1 The London Local Authorities Act 1995 s 7 is repealed as from 31 March 2008: see the Traffic Management Act 2004 s 98, Sch 12 Pt 1; and the Traffic Management Act 2004 (Commencement No 5 and Transitional Provisions) (England) Order 2007, SI 2007/2053.

2 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

A. ROAD USER CHARGING

901. Charging schemes.

Charges imposed in respect of any motor vehicle<sup>1</sup> by a charging scheme<sup>2</sup> must be paid: (1) by the registered keeper<sup>3</sup> of the motor vehicle; or (2) in circumstances specified in regulations made by the appropriate national authority<sup>4</sup>, by such person as is so specified<sup>5</sup>. A charging scheme may be made: (a) by a non-metropolitan local traffic authority<sup>6</sup> ('a local charging scheme')<sup>7</sup>; (b) jointly by more than one non-metropolitan local traffic authority ('a joint local charging scheme')<sup>8</sup>; (c) jointly by one or more non-metropolitan local traffic authorities and one or more London traffic authorities<sup>9</sup> ('a joint local-London charging scheme')<sup>10</sup>; or (d) by the Secretary of State or the Welsh Ministers ('a trunk road charging scheme')<sup>11</sup>.

1 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200), 'motor vehicle' has the meaning given in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 185(1) (see PARA 210 ante), except that s 189 (exception for certain pedestrian controlled vehicles and electrically assisted pedal cycles: see PARA 210 ante) applies as it applies for the purposes of the Road Traffic Acts (as to which see PARA 202 note 1 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 198(1).

The provisions of Pt III Ch I (ss 163-177) relating to road user charging are in force in relation to England. They are in force in relation to Wales only in respect of the powers to make specified regulations (see the Transport Act 2000 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2001, SI 2001/2788); the remaining provisions are to be brought into force in relation to Wales as from a day to be appointed under the Transport Act 2000 s 275(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

2 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III, 'Charging scheme' means a scheme for imposing charges in respect of the use or keeping of motor vehicles on roads: ss 163(1), 198(1). 'Road' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 206 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 198(1). As to the interoperability of electronic road user charging and road tolling systems see the Road Tolling (Interoperability of Electronic Road User Charging and Road Tolling Systems) Regulations 2007, SI 2007/58. As to tolls generally see HIGHWAYS, STREETS AND BRIDGES vol 21 (2004 Reissue) PARA 210 et seq.

3 'Registered keeper', in relation to a charge imposed in respect of motor vehicle, means the person in whose name the vehicle was registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 at the time of the act, omission, event or circumstances in respect of which the charge is imposed: Transport Act 2000 s 198(1).

4 'The appropriate national authority' means: (1) the Secretary of State in relation to charging schemes and licensing schemes relating only to England; (2) the Welsh Ministers in relation to charging schemes and licensing relating only to Wales; and (3) the Secretary of State and the Welsh Ministers, acting jointly, in relation to charging schemes and licensing schemes relating to both England and Wales: ibid s 198(1). 'Licensing scheme' has the meaning given by s 178(1) (see PARA 916 note 1 post): s 198(1). As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

5 Ibid s 163(2).

6 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III references to a non-metropolitan local traffic authority are to a local traffic authority for an area outside Greater London: ss 163(4), 198(1). 'Local traffic authority' has the same meaning as in the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (see PARA 731 ante): Transport Act 2000 s 198(1).

7 Ibid s 163(3)(a). See PARA 902 post.

8 Ibid s 163(3)(b). See PARA 903 post.

9 'London traffic authority' means Transport for London, a London borough council or the Common Council of the City of London: ibid s 198(1). As to Transport for London see PARA 246 ante; and LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 269 et seq. As to London boroughs and their councils see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 30, 35 et seq. As to the Common Council of the City of London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 51 et seq.

10 Ibid s 163(3)(c). See PARA 904 post. The power to make joint local-London charging schemes conferred by Pt III does not limit any of the powers in the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 295, Sch 23 (as amended) (road user charging in Greater London: see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 338 et seq): Transport Act 2000 s 163(6).

11 Ibid s 163(3)(d). As to trunk road charging schemes see PARA 905 post.

UPDATE

901 Charging schemes

TEXT AND NOTES--The appropriate national authority may direct a local traffic authority, Integrated Transport Authority (see PARA 247A) or combined authority (see TRADE AND INDUSTRY vol 97 (2010) PARA 1002 et seq), to provide it, within a specified period, with specified information connected with any aspect of the performance or proposed performance of its functions under the Transport Act 2000 Pt III Ch I: Transport Act 2000 s 177A(1) (added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 117(1), and amended by Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 Sch 6 para 111). The information that may be specified in such a direction must be information which the authority has in its possession or can reasonably be expected to acquire: Transport Act 2000 s 177A(2). A direction under s 177A may be given to two or more authorities or to authorities of a description specified in the direction: s 177A(3).

NOTES--Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in this paragraph are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

TEXT AND NOTES 6-11--A charging scheme may also be made (1) jointly by an Integrated Transport Authority (see PARA 247A), or combined authority and one or more eligible local traffic authorities; or (2) jointly by an Integrated Transport Authority, or combined authority, one or more eligible local traffic authorities and one or more London traffic authorities: Transport Act 2000 s 163(3)(bb), (cc) (added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 103(2), and amended by Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 Sch 6 para 102). 'Eligible local traffic authority' means, in relation to any Integrated Transport Authority for an integrated transport area, or combined authority, a local transport authority which is a council falling within the Transport Act 2000 s 163(4B) for (a) an area which lies within the Authority's area; (b) an area which adjoins the Authority's area; or (c) an area which adjoins an area falling within head (b): s 163(4A) (s 163(4A), (4B) added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 103(3); Transport Act 2000 s 163(4A) amended by the Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 Sch 6 para 102). The councils are (i) a county council in England; (ii) a council for a non-metropolitan district comprised in an area for which there is no county council; and (iii) a metropolitan district council: Transport Act 2000 s 163(4B).

NOTE 10--Transport Act 2000 s 163(6) amended: Local Transport Act 2008 s 109, Sch 5 para 2.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/9. ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Road User Charging and Workplace Parking Levy/A. ROAD USER CHARGING/902. Local charging schemes.

902. Local charging schemes.

A local charging scheme<sup>1</sup> may only be made in respect of roads<sup>2</sup> for which the charging authority<sup>3</sup> is the traffic authority<sup>4</sup>. A local charging scheme may only be made if it appears desirable for the purpose of directly or indirectly facilitating the achievement of policies in the charging authority's local transport plan<sup>5</sup>.

1 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200), 'local charging scheme' is to be construed in accordance with s 163(3)(a) (see PARA 901 ante): s 198(1). As to commencement of the provisions dealt with in this paragraph see PARA 901 note 1 ante.

2 As to the meaning of 'road' see PARA 901 note 2 ante.

3 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III, 'the charging authority', in relation to a charging scheme under Pt III made or proposed to be made by one authority, means the authority by which the charging scheme is or is proposed to be made (ss 163(5)(a), 198(1)); and 'the charging authorities', in relation to a charging scheme under Pt III made or proposed to be made jointly by more than one authority, means the authorities by which the charging scheme is or is proposed to be made (ss 163(5)(b), 198(1)). For the meaning of 'charging scheme' see PARA 901 note 2 ante.

4 Ibid s 164(1).

5 Ibid s 164(2). Any reference in Pt III to an authority's local transport plan is, where the authority is the council of a metropolitan district, to be construed as a reference to the local transport plan made jointly by the passenger transport authority for the passenger transport area in which the district is included and the councils for the metropolitan districts comprised in that area: s 198(2). As to passenger transport authorities see PARA 247 ante. As to the equivalent provisions in respect of Greater London see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARAS 336-337.

904 Joint local-London charging schemes

TEXT AND NOTES--A joint local-London charging scheme which has effect partly within an integrated transport area, or an area of a combined authority (see TRADE AND INDUSTRY vol 97 (2010) PARA 1002 et seq), may only be made if it appears desirable for the purpose of directly or indirectly facilitating the achievement of (1) local transport policies of the non-metropolitan local traffic authority, or the non-metropolitan local traffic authorities, by which the scheme is made; (2) local transport policies of the Integrated Transport Authority for the integrated transport area (see PARA 247A), or, as the case may be, the combined authority; and (3) policies and proposals set out in the transport strategy prepared and published by the Mayor of London under the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 142 (see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 263): Transport Act 2000 s 166(3) (s 166(3), (4) added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 107(3); Transport Act 2000 s 166(3) amended by Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 Sch 6 para 106). The Transport Act 2000 s 164(4) (see PARA 902) has effect for the purposes of s 166: s 166(4). A joint ITA-London charging scheme may only be made (a) in respect of roads falling within the Transport Act 2000 s 166A(2); and (b) if at least one of the roads in respect of which it is made is within the integrated transport area of the Integrated Transport Authority, or as the case may be, the area of the combined authority: s 166A(1) (s 166A added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 108; Transport Act 2000 s 166A(1) amended by Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 Sch 6 para 107). The roads are (i) roads for which the eligible local traffic authority, or any of the eligible local traffic authorities, by which the scheme is made are the traffic authority; and (ii) roads in respect of which the London traffic authority, or any of the London traffic authorities, by which the scheme is made may impose charges by a scheme under the Greater London Authority Act 1999 Sch 23 (see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 338 et seq) without the consent of the Secretary of State: Transport Act 2000 s 166A(2). A joint ITA-London charging scheme may only be made if it appears desirable for the purposes of directly or indirectly facilitating the achievement of (A) local transport policies of the eligible local traffic authority, or the eligible local traffic authorities, by which the scheme is made; (B) local transport policies of the Integrated Transport Authority, or combined authority, by which the scheme is made; and (C) policies and proposals set out in the transport strategy prepared and published by the Mayor of London under the Greater London Authority Act 1999 s 142: Transport Act 2000 s 166A(3) (amended by Local Democracy, Economic Development and Construction Act 2009 Sch 6 para 107).

906. Charging schemes to be made by order.

A charging scheme<sup>1</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>2</sup> is made by order of the charging authority<sup>3</sup> or of the charging authorities (acting jointly)<sup>4</sup>. The charging authority or the charging authorities (acting jointly) may by order vary a charging scheme, and the charging authority or any of the charging authorities may by order revoke such a scheme; but where a trunk road charging scheme<sup>5</sup> is made at the request of a local traffic authority<sup>6</sup> or Transport for London<sup>7</sup>, it must not be varied or revoked unless the local traffic authority, or Transport for London, has been consulted about its variation or revocation<sup>8</sup>. The appropriate national authority<sup>9</sup> may make regulations about orders making, varying or revoking charging schemes, including (in particular): (1) provision specifying the form of orders; (2) provision about the publication of proposals for orders making or varying such charging schemes and the making and consideration of objections to such proposals; and (3) provision about the publication of notice of orders and of their effect<sup>10</sup>.

908. Charging schemes: consultation and inquiries.

The charging authority<sup>1</sup> or the charging authorities (acting jointly) may at any time before an order making, varying or revoking a charging scheme<sup>2</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>3</sup> is made, consult other persons about the charging scheme, variation or revocation<sup>4</sup>. The charging authority or the charging authorities (acting jointly): (1) may cause an inquiry to be held in relation to a charging scheme, or the variation or revocation of such a scheme; and (2) may appoint the person or persons by whom such an inquiry is to be held<sup>5</sup>. The appropriate national authority<sup>6</sup> may at any time either before an order making or varying a charging scheme (other than a trunk road charging scheme<sup>7</sup>) is made or (where such an order has to be confirmed) before it is confirmed, consult other persons, or require the charging authority or authorities to consult other persons, about the charging scheme or variation<sup>8</sup>. The appropriate national authority may cause an inquiry to be held in relation to a charging scheme (other than a trunk road charging scheme) or the variation of such a scheme, and may appoint the person or persons by whom such an inquiry is to be held<sup>9</sup>. In the case of a joint local-London charging scheme<sup>10</sup>: (a) the Greater London Authority<sup>11</sup> may, at any time before an order making, varying or revoking the charging scheme is confirmed by that Authority, consult other persons, or require the charging authorities to consult other persons, about the charging scheme, variation or revocation; and (b) the Secretary of State<sup>12</sup> must not cause an inquiry to be held in relation to the charging scheme, or the variation of the charging scheme, or appoint the person or persons by whom such an inquiry is to be held, without the consent of the Greater London Authority<sup>13</sup>. Where an inquiry is held by virtue of these provisions in relation to a charging scheme, or the variation or revocation of such a scheme, the costs of the inquiry must be paid in the case of a trunk road charging scheme<sup>14</sup> by the local traffic authority<sup>15</sup> which requested the making of the scheme (or Transport for London<sup>16</sup>, if it did), and in any other case, by the charging authority or authorities; and the parties at the inquiry must bear their own costs<sup>17</sup>.

909. Matters to be dealt with in charging schemes.

A charging scheme<sup>1</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>2</sup> must: (1) designate the roads<sup>3</sup> in respect of which charges are imposed; (2) specify or describe the events by reference to the happening of which a charge is imposed in respect of a motor vehicle<sup>4</sup> being used or kept on a road; (3) specify the classes of motor vehicles<sup>5</sup> in respect of which charges are imposed; (4) specify the charges imposed; and (5) state whether or not the charging scheme is to remain in force indefinitely and, if it is not to remain in force indefinitely, the period for which it is to remain in force<sup>6</sup>. Any charge imposed by a charging scheme in respect of the keeping of a motor vehicle on a road must also have effect in respect of the use of the motor vehicle on that road<sup>7</sup>.

A charging scheme may make provision in relation to the manner in which charges are to be made, collected, recorded and paid<sup>8</sup>. The charges that may be imposed by a charging scheme include different charges (which may be no charge) for different cases, including (in particular): (a) different days; (b) different times of day; (c) different roads; (d) different distances travelled; and (e) different classes of motor vehicles<sup>9</sup>. In setting the charges imposed by a charging scheme, regard may be had to the purposes for which any of the net proceeds of the charging scheme may be applied<sup>10</sup>. A charging scheme may contain provision requiring: (i) documents to be displayed while a motor vehicle is on a road in respect of which charges are imposed; or (ii) equipment to be carried in or fitted to a motor vehicle while it is on such a road<sup>11</sup>.

910 Charging schemes: [supplementary provision as to contents]

TEXT AND NOTES--The appropriate national authority may by regulations (1) make provision requiring charging schemes under the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200) to provide that, in specified circumstances (a) persons of a specified description may pay; and (b) where those persons so choose, the charging authorities must collect, the charges imposed by such schemes in a specified manner; and (2) make provision for or in connection with the arrangements to be made by charging authorities with any person for the purpose of enabling charges to be paid, and collected, as mentioned in head (1): Transport Act 2000 s 172(2A) (added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 113(2)). As to the suspension of charging schemes, see the Transport Act 2000 s 172A; and PARA 910A.

TEXT AND NOTES 5-7--A road will not be subject to (1) charges imposed by more than one charging scheme under the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200) at the same time; or (2) charges imposed by such a charging scheme and a scheme under the Greater London Authority Act 1999 Sch 23 (see LONDON GOVERNMENT vol 29(2) (Reissue) PARA 338 et seq) at the same time, except with the consent of the Authority: Transport Act 2000 s 172(3) (substituted by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 113(3)).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Road User Charging and Workplace Parking Levy/A. ROAD USER CHARGING/910A. Suspension of charging schemes.

910A. Suspension of charging schemes.

The charging authority or the charging authorities, acting jointly, may suspend the operation of a charging scheme under the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200) if they consider that it is necessary to do so (1) in the event of an emergency, to enable or facilitate any action taken in response to the emergency; or (2) to enable or facilitate a temporary event to take place: Transport Act 2000 s 172A(1) (s 172A added by the Local Transport Act 2008 s 114). In the case of a suspension under head (1), the charging authority or authorities must keep under review the need for the suspension to continue, and may increase or reduce the period of the suspension, but they may not increase it so as to suspend the scheme for a period of more than 30 days: Transport Act 2000 s 172A(6). A suspension under s 172A is for such period as the charging authority or authorities consider necessary (a) in the case of an emergency, to enable or facilitate the response to the emergency, but in any event no longer than 30 days; and (b) in the case of a temporary event, to enable or facilitate the event to take place, together with any associated works undertaken before or after it: s 172A(2). A charging scheme may be suspended under s 172A in whole or in part, and if a scheme is suspended in part that suspension may be in respect of (i) any road in respect of which charges are imposed; (ii) any event by reference to the happening of which a charge is imposed; or (iii) any class of motor vehicle in respect of which charges are imposed: s 172A(3). The charging authority or authorities must publish a notice of any suspension under s 172A: s 172A(4). A notice under s 172A(4) (A) must be published in such manner as the charging authority or authorities consider appropriate to bring the suspension to the attention of all persons who are likely to be affected by it; and (B) must state the period for which the scheme is to be suspended: s 172A(5).

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Road User Charging and Workplace Parking Levy/A. ROAD USER CHARGING/911. Penalty charges.

911. Penalty charges.

The appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> may by regulations make provision for or in connection with the imposition and payment of charges ('charging scheme penalty charges') in respect of acts, omissions, events or circumstances relating to or connected with charging schemes<sup>2</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>3</sup>. The regulations may include provision for or in connection with setting the rates of charging scheme penalty charges (which may include provision for discounts or surcharges)<sup>4</sup>. Charging scheme penalty charges in respect of any motor vehicle<sup>5</sup> must be paid: (1) by the registered keeper<sup>6</sup> of the motor vehicle; or (2) in circumstances specified in regulations made by the appropriate national authority, by such person as is so specified<sup>7</sup>. The Lord Chancellor may make regulations about the notification, adjudication and enforcement of charging scheme penalty charges<sup>8</sup>.

A person commits an offence if with intent to avoid payment of, or being identified as having failed to pay, a charge imposed by a charging scheme: (a) he interferes with any equipment used for or in connection with charging under the charging scheme; or (b) he causes or permits the registration plate of a motor vehicle to be obscured<sup>9</sup>. A person commits an offence if he makes or uses any false document with intent to avoid payment of, or being identified as having failed to pay, charges imposed by a charging scheme or charging scheme penalty charges<sup>10</sup>. A person commits an offence if he removes a notice of a charging scheme penalty charge which has been fixed to a motor vehicle in accordance with regulations under these provisions unless: (i) he is the registered keeper of the vehicle or a person using the vehicle with his authority; or (ii) he does so under the authority of the registered keeper or such a person or of the charging authority<sup>11</sup> or any of the charging authorities<sup>12</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Road User Charging and Workplace Parking Levy/A. ROAD USER CHARGING/912. Examination, entry, search and seizure.

912. Examination, entry, search and seizure.

The appropriate national authority<sup>1</sup> may by regulations make provision enabling or requiring charging schemes<sup>2</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>3</sup> to confer powers on persons specified in, or determined in accordance with, the regulations for or in connection with examining a motor vehicle<sup>4</sup> for ascertaining: (1) whether any document required to be displayed while the motor vehicle is on a road<sup>5</sup> in respect of which charges are imposed is so displayed; (2) whether any equipment required to be carried in or fitted to the motor vehicle while the motor vehicle is on such a road is carried or fitted, is in proper working order or has been interfered with, with intent to avoid payment of, or being identified as having failed to pay, a charge; or (3) whether any conditions relating to the use of any such equipment are satisfied<sup>6</sup>.

The appropriate national authority may by regulations make provision enabling or requiring charging schemes to confer power on any person authorised in writing by the charging authority<sup>7</sup>, or any of the charging authorities, to enter a motor vehicle where he has reasonable grounds for suspecting that: (a) any equipment required to be carried in or fitted to it while it is on a road in respect of which charges are imposed has been interfered with, with intent to avoid payment of, or being identified as having failed to pay, a charge imposed by the charging scheme; or (b) there is in the motor vehicle a false document which has been made or used with intent to avoid payment of, or being identified as having failed to pay, such a charge<sup>8</sup>. A person commits an offence if he intentionally obstructs a person exercising any power conferred on him by a charging scheme by virtue of the above provision<sup>9</sup>.

The appropriate national authority may by regulations make provision enabling or requiring charging schemes to confer power on any person authorised in writing by the charging authority, or any of the charging authorities, to seize anything (if necessary by detaching it from a motor vehicle) and detain it as evidence of the commission of an offence<sup>10</sup>. A charging scheme may not authorise an examination of, or entry into, a motor vehicle unless it is on a road<sup>11</sup>.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Road User Charging and Workplace Parking Levy/B. WORKPLACE PARKING LEVY/916. Licensing schemes: preliminary.

B. WORKPLACE PARKING LEVY

916. Licensing schemes: preliminary.

Charges imposed in respect of any premises by a licensing scheme<sup>1</sup> under the Transport Act 2000 must be paid: (1) by the occupier of the premises; or (2) in circumstances specified in regulations made by the appropriate national authority<sup>2</sup>, by such person as is so specified<sup>3</sup>. A licence relating to premises must cover the provision at the premises of the number of workplace parking places requested by the applicant for the licence<sup>4</sup>. A licensing scheme may be made: (a) by a non-metropolitan local traffic authority<sup>5</sup> ('a local licensing scheme')<sup>6</sup>; (b) jointly by more than one non-metropolitan local traffic authority ('a joint local licensing scheme')<sup>7</sup>; or (c) jointly by one or more non-metropolitan local traffic authorities and one or more London traffic authorities<sup>8</sup> ('a joint local-London licensing scheme')<sup>9</sup>.

1 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200), 'licensing scheme' means a scheme for imposing charges in respect of the provision of workplace parking places at premises in the area covered by the scheme, to be paid on licences covering the provision of a maximum number of such parking places at the premises: ss 178(1), 198(1). 'Workplace parking place' is to be construed in accordance with s 182 (see PARA 920 post): s 198(1). 'Licence' means a licence under a licensing scheme under Pt III: ss 178(3), 198(1).

The provisions of Pt III Ch II (ss 178-190) relating to workplace parking levy are in force in relation to England. They are in force in relation to Wales only in respect of the powers to make specified regulations (see the Transport Act 2000 (Commencement No 1) (Wales) Order 2001, SI 2001/2788); the remaining provisions are to be brought into force in relation to Wales as from a day to be appointed under the Transport Act 2000 s 275(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION/(8) CONTROL AND ENFORCEMENT/(vii) Road User Charging and Workplace Parking Levy/B. WORKPLACE PARKING LEVY/920. Workplace parking places.

920. Workplace parking places.

For the purposes of the Transport Act 2000<sup>1</sup>, a workplace parking place is provided at any premises at any time if a parking place provided at the premises is at that time occupied by a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> (other than an exempt vehicle<sup>3</sup>) used:

- 790 (1) by a relevant person<sup>4</sup>;
- 791 (2) by an employee<sup>5</sup>, agent, supplier<sup>6</sup>, business customer<sup>7</sup> or business visitor<sup>8</sup> of a relevant person;
- 792 (3) by a pupil or student attending a course of education or training provided by a relevant person; or
- 793 (4) where a body whose affairs are controlled by its members is a relevant person, by a member of the body engaged in the carrying on of any business of the body, for attending a place at which the relevant person carries on business at or in the vicinity of the premises<sup>9</sup>. The appropriate national authority<sup>10</sup> may make regulations amending the preceding provisions for the purpose of adding, removing or varying cases where a workplace parking place is provided<sup>11</sup>.

1 le for the purposes of the Transport Act 2000 Pt III (ss 163-200).

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 901 note 1 ante.

3 In the Transport Act 2000 Pt III, 'exempt vehicle', in relation to a licensing scheme, means a motor vehicle exempt from licensing under the scheme by virtue of regulations under s 187(1) (see PARA 925 post) or provision included in the scheme by virtue of s 187(2): s 198(1). For the meaning of 'licensing scheme' see PARA 916 note 1 ante. As to commencement of the provisions dealt with in this paragraph see PARA 916 note 1 ante.

4 In ibid s 182, 'relevant person' means: (1) the person who provides the parking place in question ('the provider'); (2) any person with whom the provider has entered into arrangements to provide the parking place (whether or not for that person's own use); or (3) any person who is associated with the provider or a person within head (2) supra: s 182(2). For the purposes of head (3) supra any two persons are associated if and only if: (a) one is a company of which the other (directly or indirectly) has control; or (b) both are companies of which a third person (directly or indirectly) has control: s 182(3).

5 For the purposes of ibid s 182, 'employee' means a person employed under a contract of service or apprenticeship, whether express or implied, and (if express) whether oral or in writing: s 182(4).

6 For the purposes of ibid s 182, 'supplier', in relation to a relevant person, means: (1) a person supplying, or seeking to supply, goods or services to the relevant person for the purposes of a business carried on by the relevant person; or (2) any agent or sub-contractor of such a person: s 182(4). 'Business' includes: (a) any trade, profession, vocation or undertaking; (b) the functions of any office holder; (c) the provision of any course of education or training; and (d) the functions of, or any activities carried on by, a government department or a local authority or other statutory body: s 182(4).

7 For the purposes of ibid s 182, 'business customer', in relation to a relevant person, means a client or customer of the relevant person who is attending at any premises occupied by the relevant person for the purposes of a business carried on by that client or customer: s 182(4).

8 For the purposes of ibid s 182, 'business visitor', in relation to a relevant person, means an individual who: (1) in the course of his employment; or (2) in the course of carrying on a business or for the purposes of a business carried on by him, is visiting the relevant person or any premises occupied by the relevant person: s 182(4).

922. Confirmation of licensing schemes.

A licensing scheme<sup>1</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>2</sup> does not come into force unless the order making it has been submitted to and confirmed by the appropriate national authority<sup>3</sup>; and a variation of such a licensing scheme does not take effect until the order making the variation has been so submitted and confirmed<sup>4</sup>. A joint local-London licensing scheme<sup>5</sup> does not come into force unless the order making it has been submitted to and confirmed by the Greater London Authority<sup>6</sup>; and a variation or revocation of such a licensing scheme does not take effect until the order making the variation or revocation has been so submitted and confirmed<sup>7</sup>. Where confirmation of an order is required by these provisions, the order may be confirmed with or without modifications<sup>8</sup>. Where confirmation by both the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> and the Greater London Authority of an order making a joint local-London licensing scheme, or a variation of such a licensing scheme, is required by these provisions: (1) the order must not be submitted to the Secretary of State until it has been confirmed by the Greater London Authority; (2) if the order has been confirmed by the Greater London Authority with modifications it is the modified order that must be submitted to the Secretary of State; and (3) the order may not be confirmed with modifications by the Secretary of State until the modifications have been confirmed by the Greater London Authority<sup>10</sup>.

923. Licensing schemes: consultation and inquiries.

The licensing authority<sup>1</sup> or the licensing authorities (acting jointly) may at any time before an order making, varying or revoking a licensing scheme<sup>2</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>3</sup> is made, consult other persons about the licensing scheme, variation or revocation<sup>4</sup>. The licensing authority or the licensing authorities (acting jointly): (1) may cause an inquiry to be held in relation to a licensing scheme, or the variation or revocation of such a scheme; and (2) may appoint the person or persons by whom such an inquiry is to be held<sup>5</sup>. The appropriate national authority<sup>6</sup> may at any time before an order making or varying a licensing scheme is made, or (where such an order has to be confirmed) before it is confirmed, consult other persons, or require the licensing authority or authorities to consult other persons, about the licensing scheme or variation<sup>7</sup>.

The appropriate national authority may cause an inquiry to be held in relation to a licensing scheme or the variation of such a scheme, and may appoint the person or persons by whom such an inquiry is to be held<sup>8</sup>. In the case of a joint local-London licensing scheme<sup>9</sup>: (a) the Greater London Authority<sup>10</sup> may, at any time before an order making, varying or revoking the licensing scheme is confirmed by that Authority, consult other persons, or require the licensing authorities to consult other persons, about the licensing scheme, variation or revocation; and (b) the Secretary of State<sup>11</sup> must not cause an inquiry to be held in relation to the licensing scheme, or the variation of the licensing scheme, or appoint the person or persons by whom such an inquiry is to be held, without the consent of the Greater London Authority<sup>12</sup>. Where an inquiry is held by virtue of the above provisions in relation to a licensing scheme or the variation or revocation of such a scheme the costs of the inquiry must be paid by the licensing authority or authorities, and the parties at the inquiry must bear their own costs<sup>13</sup>.

924. Matters to be dealt with in licensing schemes.

A licensing scheme<sup>1</sup> under the Transport Act 2000<sup>2</sup> must: (1) designate the area covered by the licensing scheme ('the licensing area'); (2) state the days on which, and hours during which, a licence<sup>3</sup> is required; (3) specify the charges payable on licences (expressed as a specified sum of money for each licensed unit<sup>4</sup>); and (4) state whether or not the licensing scheme is to remain in force indefinitely and, if it is not to remain in force indefinitely, the period for which it is to remain in force<sup>5</sup>. The designation by a licensing scheme of the boundaries of the licensing area must be such as the licensing authority<sup>6</sup> or authorities may determine<sup>7</sup>. The charges that may be imposed by a licensing scheme include different charges (which may be no charge) for different cases, including (in particular): (a) different days; (b) different times of day; (c) different parts of the licensing area; (d) different classes of motor vehicles<sup>8</sup>; and (e) different numbers of licensed units<sup>9</sup>. In setting the charges imposed by a licensing scheme, regard may be had to the purposes for which any of the net proceeds of the licensing scheme may be applied<sup>10</sup>. A licensing scheme may include provision for or in connection with: (i) the making of an application for a licence; (ii) the grant of a licence; (iii) the issue of a licence; and (iv) the variation or revocation of a licence<sup>11</sup>.

F. APPLICATION TO CROWN

934. Application to Crown.

The provisions of the Transport Act 2000 as to road user charging<sup>1</sup> apply in relation to Crown roads<sup>2</sup> as in relation to other roads<sup>3</sup>. The provisions of the Transport Act 2000 as to road user charging and workplace parking levy and of regulations and schemes under those provisions<sup>4</sup> bind the Crown<sup>5</sup>. No contravention by the Crown of any of those provisions makes the Crown criminally liable, but: (1) the High Court may, on the application of a charging authority<sup>6</sup>, declare unlawful any act or omission of the Crown which constitutes such a contravention; and (2) those provisions apply to motor vehicles<sup>7</sup> or persons in the public service of the Crown as they apply to other motor vehicles or persons<sup>8</sup>. No power of entry<sup>9</sup> is exercisable in relation to any motor vehicle in the public service of the Crown or any premises held or used by or on behalf of the Crown<sup>10</sup>. Nothing in these provisions affects Her Majesty in her private capacity<sup>11</sup>.

935. Power to make regulations and orders.

Any power to make regulations under the provisions of the Transport Act 2000 concerning road user charging and workplace parking levy<sup>1</sup>: (1) is exercisable by statutory instrument; (2) includes power to make different provision for different cases; and (3) may be exercised so as to make incidental, consequential, supplementary or transitional provision or savings<sup>2</sup>. The power to make an order making, varying or revoking a trunk road charging scheme<sup>3</sup> is exercisable by statutory instrument<sup>4</sup>. Regulations under certain provisions<sup>5</sup> must not be made without the consent of the Treasury<sup>6</sup>. Regulations must not be made by the Secretary of State<sup>7</sup> under certain provisions unless a draft of the regulations has been laid before, and approved by a resolution of, the House of Commons<sup>9</sup>. A statutory instrument containing regulations made by the Secretary of State or the Lord Chancellor under any other provision<sup>10</sup> is subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament<sup>11</sup>.

(viii) Lorry Road-user Charge

936. Lorry road-user charge.

A tax, to be known as lorry road-user charge, is to be charged in respect of use of roads by lorries; and such charge is under the care and management of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs and is administered and enforced in accordance with such provisions as Parliament may determine<sup>1</sup>. All money and securities for money collected or received for or on account of lorry road-user charge must, if collected or received in Great Britain, be placed to the general account of the Commissioners of Revenue and Customs kept at the Bank of England<sup>2</sup>.

1 Finance Act 2002 s 137(1), (4) (s 137(4) amended by virtue of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 s 50(1), (7)). The persons by whom lorry road-user charge is to be payable, the rates at which it is to be charged, and the lorries, roads and use in respect of which it is to be charged, are to be such as Parliament may determine: Finance Act 2002 s 137(2). The amount of the charge made in respect of the use of any roads by a lorry is to be calculated in such manner as Parliament may determine, by reference to the distance travelled on those roads by the lorry: s 137(3). A Minister of the Crown or a government department may: (1) incur expenditure in connection with preparations for lorry road-user charge (including any fuel credit to be paid in respect of fuelling of lorries chargeable in respect of lorry road user charge); (2) enter into contracts in respect of the development or provision of equipment, systems or services to be used in connection with lorry road-user charge (including any fuel credit): s 137(7) (substituted by the Finance Act 2005 s 100). As to the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs see CUSTOMS AND EXCISE vol 12(3) (2007 Reissue) PARA 900 et seq.

2 Finance Act 2002 s 137(5)(a) (s 137(5) substituted by the Finance Act 2004 s 292; and amended by virtue of the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs Act 2005 s 50(1), (7)). For the meaning of 'Great Britain' see PARA 205 note 3 ante. As to the Bank of England see FINANCIAL SERVICES AND INSTITUTIONS vol 49 (2008) PARA 793 et seq. Sums collected or received in Northern Ireland must be paid into the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom in such manner as the Treasury may direct: Finance Act 2002 s 137(5)(b) (as so substituted). As to the Consolidated Fund see CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND HUMAN RIGHTS vol 8(2) (Reissue) PARA 711 et seq; PARLIAMENT vol 78 (2010) PARAS 1028-1031.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131; VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/10. INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(1) REQUIREMENT FOR INSURANCE/937. Users of motor vehicles to be insured or secured against third party risks.

10. INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES

(1) REQUIREMENT FOR INSURANCE

937. Users of motor vehicles to be insured or secured against third party risks.

A person must not:

- 794 (1) use<sup>1</sup> a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> on a road<sup>3</sup> or other public place unless there is in force in relation to the use of the vehicle by that person such a policy of insurance<sup>4</sup> or such a security in respect of third party risks as complies with the statutory requirements<sup>5</sup>; or
- 795 (2) cause or permit<sup>6</sup> any other person to use a motor vehicle on a road or other public place unless there is in force in relation to the use of the vehicle by that other person such a policy of insurance or such a security in respect of third party risks as complies with the statutory requirements<sup>7</sup>.

If a person acts in contravention of the requirements in head (1) or head (2) above, he is guilty of an offence<sup>8</sup>. However, a person charged with using a motor vehicle in contravention of the above provisions must not be convicted if he proves<sup>9</sup>: (a) that the vehicle did not belong to him and was not in his possession under a contract of hiring or of loan<sup>10</sup>; (b) that he was using the vehicle in the course of his employment<sup>11</sup>; and (c) that he neither knew nor had reason to believe that there was not in force in relation to the vehicle such a policy of insurance or security<sup>12</sup>.

Failure to comply is also actionable at the suit of a person injured by an uninsured vehicle<sup>13</sup>.

1 'To use' means to have the use of a motor vehicle on a road: Williamson v O'Keefe [1947] 1 All ER 307, 176 LT 274, DC.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

4 'Policy of insurance' includes a cover note: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 161(1). As to insurance generally see INSURANCE.

5 Ibid s 143(1)(a) (amended by the Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/726, reg 2(1), (2)(a)). The statutory requirements are contained in the Road Traffic Act 1988 Pt VI (ss 143-162) (as amended): see PARA 938 et seq post. Section 143(1)(a) (as amended) does not apply to use of an invalid carriage: s 143(4). As to the exceptions from the requirement of third party insurance or security see PARA 938 post.

6 For the meaning of 'cause or permit' see PARA 261 note 6 ante.

7 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143(1)(b) (amended by the Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 2000, SI 2000/726, reg 2(1), (2)(b)). As to the statutory requirements see note 5 supra. The Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143(1)(b) (as amended) does not apply to use of an invalid carriage: s 143(4).

8 Ibid s 143(2). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale; disqualification is discretionary; endorsement is obligatory; and 6-8 penalty points may be attributed: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 28 (as substituted) (see PARA 1049 post), s 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 26, Sch 2). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. An offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143 (as amended) is a fixed penalty offence: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 s 51, Sch 3 (entry added by the Fixed Penalty Offences Order 2003, SI 2003/1253, art 2(3) (b)). As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; as to disqualification see PARA 1057 et seq post; as to endorsement see PARA 1080 et seq post; as to penalty points see PARA 1048 et seq post; as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post; as to fixed penalty offences see PARA 1093 post; and as to fixed penalties generally see PARA 1089 et seq post.

The Secretary of State may make payments to police authorities in relation to the prevention, detection and enforcement of offences under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143 (as amended): see the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 s 155. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante.

As to the disclosure of information to the police about the insurance status of vehicles see PARA 939 post.

There is no such offence of using a 'motor vehicle and trailer' without having in force a policy of insurance covering the use, although the offence of using a motor vehicle while uninsured is committed if an insurance relating to the motor vehicle is invalidated by the attachment to it of a trailer: see Rogerson v Stephens [1950] 2 All ER 144, DC; Kerridge v Rush [1952] 2 Lloyd's Rep 305, DC; cf Leggate v Brown [1950] 2 All ER 564, DC (policy endorsed so as to enable tractor to be used with two trailers; illegal to draw two laden trailers; policy may nevertheless insure against negligent driving and thus be valid under the statute). No such offence is committed if the person who is in effective control of the vehicle is covered by insurance, even though another person is in the driving seat: see R v Wilkins (1951) 115 JP 443; Langman v Valentine [1952] 2 All ER 803, DC; cf Evans v Walkden [1956] 3 All ER 64, [1956] 1 WLR 1019, DC (where the person covered by insurance was not in effective control); Thompson v Lodwick [1983] RTR 76, DC (where a person supervising a learner driver was held not to be permitting uninsured use). Notice to produce the policy is not required, and secondary evidence may be given by a police officer of the contents of an insurance certificate: Bracegirdle v Apter (1951) 49 LGR 790, DC. Once it has been shown that the accused used a motor vehicle on a road, the onus is on him to prove that he was covered by insurance (Leathley v Drummond [1972] RTR 293, DC), even though, because he was not the owner, production of the owner's certificate or policy of insurance might be difficult (Davey v Towle [1973] RTR 328, DC). Cf Howey v Bradley [1970] RTR 112, DC (where the question was left open whether the onus is on the prosecution to prove that use of the vehicle is not covered by insurance once the accused has produced a policy which prima facie shows that he is covered).

A local authority has power to prosecute for an offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143 (as amended): Middlesbrough Borough Council v Safeer [2001] EWHC 525 (Admin), [2001] 4 All ER 630, DC.

Following a conviction under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143 (as amended), a magistrate is entitled to find that there are so-called 'special reasons' which do not justify the imposition of penalty points: DPP v Heritage [2002] EWHC 2139 (Admin), 166 JP 772 (shortness of distance travelled constituted 'special reason').

9 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143(3). Section 143(3) does not apply to use of an invalid carriage: see s 143(4); and PARA 938 post.

10 Ibid s 143(3)(a).

11 Ibid s 143(3)(b).

12 Ibid s 143(3)(c).

13 See INSURANCE vol 25 (2003 Reissue) PARA 758. As to the duty to give a claimant information relating to the policy or security see PARA 954 post.

The victim of an uninsured driver also has rights under the agreement by which the Motor Insurance Bureau has agreed to satisfy any unsatisfied judgment arising from any liability required by statute to be covered by a policy of insurance and to compensate victims of untraced drivers: see INSURANCE vol 25 (2003 Reissue) PARA 757 et seq.

It has been held that a dependant of a passenger killed in a road traffic accident may claim even if the deceased knew that the driver was uninsured: see Phillips v Rafiq [2007] EWCA Civ 74, [2007] 2 All ER (Comm) 484.

1 le under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 143 (as amended): see PARA 937 ante.

2 The prescribed sum is £500,000: see ibid s 144(1) (amended by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 20). The Secretary of State may by order made by statutory instrument substitute a greater sum for the sum for the time being specified in the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144(1) (as amended): s 144(1A) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 20(3)). However, no order may be so made unless a draft of it has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144(1B) (added by the Road Traffic Act 1991 s 20(3)). At the date at which this volume states the law no such order had been made. As to the making of orders generally see PARA 243 ante. As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

3 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144(1) (as amended: see note 2 supra). This provision is amended, as from a day to be appointed, by the Constitutional Reform Act 2005 s 59(5), Sch 11 Pt 2 para 4(1), (3), so as to substitute for the reference to the Accountant General of the Supreme Court a reference to the Accountant General of the Senior Courts. At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

For these purposes, 'under the owner's control' means, in relation to a vehicle, that it is being driven by the owner or by a servant of the owner in the course of his employment or is otherwise subject to the control of the owner: Road Traffic Act 1988 s 161(1). For the meaning of 'owner' see PARA 207 ante.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(2) OFFENCES AND PENALTIES/941. Offence of keeping vehicle which does not meet insurance requirements.

(2) OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

941. Offence of keeping vehicle which does not meet insurance requirements.

The following provisions are not yet in force<sup>1</sup>.

If a motor vehicle<sup>2</sup> registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>3</sup> does not meet the insurance requirements, the person in whose name the vehicle is registered is guilty of an offence<sup>4</sup>. For these purposes, a vehicle meets the insurance requirements if: (1) it is covered by a such a policy of insurance or such a security in respect of third party risks as complies with the statutory requirements<sup>5</sup>; and (2) either of the following conditions is satisfied<sup>6</sup>, namely: (a) the policy or security, or the certificate of insurance or security which relates to it, identifies the vehicle by its registration mark as a vehicle which is covered by the policy or security<sup>7</sup>; and (b) the vehicle is covered by the policy or security because: (i) the policy or security covers any vehicle, or any vehicle of a particular description, the owner of which is a person named in the policy or security or in the certificate of insurance or security which relates to it; and (ii) the vehicle is owned by that person<sup>8</sup>.

Where on any occasion the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup> has reason to believe that a person has committed an offence under the above provisions, the Secretary of State may give the person a notice offering him the opportunity of discharging any liability to conviction for that offence by payment of a fixed penalty to the Secretary of State<sup>10</sup>. Where a person is given such a notice in respect of such an offence: (A) no proceedings may be instituted for that offence before the end of the period of 21 days following the date of the notice; and (B) he may not be convicted of that offence if he pays the fixed penalty before the end of that period<sup>11</sup>.

Regulations<sup>12</sup> may make provision as to any matter incidental to the operation of these provisions, and in particular as to the form of a notice, as to the information to be provided in a notice, and as to any further information to be provided in a notice<sup>13</sup>. Regulations may make provision for treating a fixed penalty payable under these provisions as having been paid if a lesser amount is paid before the end of a prescribed period<sup>14</sup>. In any proceedings a certificate which purports to be signed by or on behalf of the Secretary of State, and states that payment of a fixed penalty was or was not received by a date specified in the certificate, is evidence of the facts stated<sup>15</sup>.

A person authorised by the Secretary of State for these purposes may on behalf of the Secretary of State conduct and appear in any proceedings by or against the Secretary of State in connection with the enforcement of an offence under the above provisions or under regulations<sup>16</sup> in a magistrates' court<sup>17</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 144A-144D, Sch 2A (added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(1), (3)) are to be brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Road Safety Act 2006 s 61(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

2 For the meaning of 'motor vehicle' see PARA 210 ante.

3 As to registration see PARA 518 et seq ante.

4 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144A(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(6), (7)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

The Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A (as added) makes provision about the immobilisation of vehicles as regards which it appears that an offence under s 144A (as added) is being committed and about their removal and disposal: s 144D(1) (as so added); and see PARAS 942-943 post. As to exceptions to the offence see PARA 944 post.

5 In the requirements of ibid Pt VI (ss 143-162) (as amended): see PARAS 937-938 ante, 945 et seq post. For the purposes of s 144A (as added), a vehicle is covered by a policy of insurance or security if the policy of insurance or security is in force in relation to the use of the vehicle: s 144A(5) (as so added).

6 Ibid s 144A(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

7 Ibid s 144A(3) (as added: see note 1 supra).

8 Ibid s 144A(4) (as added: see note 1 supra).

9 As to the Secretary of State see PARA 236 ante. As to the transfer of certain functions of the Secretary of State, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, to the Welsh Ministers see PARA 237 ante.

10 Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144C(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). A notice under s 144C (as added) must give such particulars of the circumstances alleged to constitute the offence as are necessary for giving reasonable information of the offence: s 144C(3) (as so added). Such a notice must also state: (1) the period during which, by virtue of s 144C(2) (as added) (see the text to note 11 infra), proceedings will not be taken for the offence; (2) the amount of the fixed penalty; and (3) the person to whom and the address at which the fixed penalty may be paid: s 144C(4) (as so added).

11 Ibid s 144C(2) (as added: see note 1 supra). The fixed penalty payable under s 144C (as added) is, subject to s 144C(9) (as added), £100: s 144C(8) (as so added). Regulations may substitute a different amount for the amount for the time being specified in s 144C(8) (as added): s 144C(9) (as so added).

Without prejudice to payment by any other method, payment of the fixed penalty may be made by pre-paying and posting a letter containing the amount of the penalty (in cash or otherwise) to the person mentioned in s 144C(4)(c) (as added) (see note 10 head (3) supra) at the address so mentioned: s 144C(5) (as so added). Where a letter is sent in accordance with s 144C(5) (as added), payment is to be regarded as having been made at the time at which that letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post: s 144C(6) (as so added).

12 'Regulations' means regulations under ibid s 160 (see PARA 962 post): s 160(1).

13 Ibid s 144C(7) (as added: see note 1 supra).

14 Ibid s 144C(10) (as added: see note 1 supra). 'Prescribed' means prescribed by regulations under s 160 (see PARA 962 post): s 160(1).

15 Ibid s 144C(11) (as added: see note 1 supra).

16 In regulations made under ibid s 160 (see PARA 962 post) by virtue of Sch 2A (as added).

17 Ibid s 144D(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

Certain persons or indorsements mentioned in these paragraphs are specified for the purposes of Regulatory Enforcement and Sanctions Act 2008 s 37, Schs 5, 6 (meaning of 'regulator' for the purposes of imposing civil sanctions): see ADMINISTRATIVE LAW vol 1(1) (2001 Reissue) PARA 196A.

Halsbury's Laws of England/ROAD TRAFFIC (VOLUME 40(1) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 201-650; VOLUME 40(2) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 651-1131); VOLUME 40(3) (2007 REISSUE) PARAS 1132-1663)/10. INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(2) OFFENCES AND PENALTIES/942. Immobilisation, removal and disposal of vehicles.

942. Immobilisation, removal and disposal of vehicles.

The following provisions are not yet in force<sup>1</sup>.

Regulations<sup>2</sup> may make provision with respect to any case where an authorised person<sup>3</sup> has reason to believe that, on or after such date as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>, an offence of not meeting the insurance requirements for a vehicle<sup>5</sup> is being committed as regards a vehicle which is stationary on a road<sup>6</sup> or other public place<sup>7</sup>. The regulations may provide that the authorised person or a person acting under his direction may: (1) fix an immobilisation device<sup>8</sup> to the vehicle while it remains in the place where it is stationary; or (2) move it from that place to another place on the same or another road or public place and fix an immobilisation device to it in that other place<sup>9</sup>. The regulations may provide that on any occasion when an immobilisation device is fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations the person fixing the device must also fix to the vehicle a notice: (a) indicating that the device has been fixed to the vehicle and warning that no attempt should be made to drive it or otherwise put it in motion until it has been released from the device; (b) specifying the steps to be taken to secure its release; and (c) giving such other information as may be prescribed<sup>10</sup>.

The regulations may provide that a vehicle to which an immobilisation device has been fixed in accordance with the regulations may only be released from the device by or under the direction of an authorised person, but subject to that, must be released from the device if the first and second requirements specified below are met<sup>11</sup>. The first requirement is that such charge in respect of the release as may be prescribed is paid in any manner specified in the immobilisation notice<sup>12</sup>. The second requirement is that, in accordance with instructions specified in the immobilisation notice, there is produced such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that any person who proposes to drive the vehicle away will not in doing so be guilty of an offence of using, or causing or permitting the use of, a vehicle in relation to which the statutory insurance requirements are not fulfilled<sup>13</sup>, and that the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 is not guilty of an offence of keeping a vehicle which does not meet the insurance requirements<sup>14</sup> as regards the vehicle<sup>15</sup>.

The regulations may provide that they do not apply in relation to a vehicle if: (i) a current disabled person's badge<sup>16</sup> is displayed on the vehicle<sup>17</sup>; or (ii) such other conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled<sup>18</sup>.

The regulations may provide that an immobilisation notice is not to be removed or interfered with except by or on the authority of a person falling within a prescribed description<sup>19</sup>.

The regulations may make provision about the proceedings to be followed where a dispute occurs as a result of the regulations, and may in particular make provision for an application to be made to a magistrates' court or for a court to order a sum to be paid by the Secretary of State<sup>20</sup>.

As regards anything falling to be done under the regulations (such as receiving payment of a charge or other sum) the regulations may provide that it may be done either by an authorised person, or by an authorised person or a person acting under his direction<sup>21</sup>.

The regulations may make provision for the application of any or all of specified provisions of the Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988<sup>22</sup> to an offence for which provision is made by the regulations<sup>23</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 144A-144D, Sch 2A (added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(1), (3)) are to be brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Road Safety Act 2006 s 61(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

2 For the meaning of 'regulations' see PARA 941 note 12 ante.

3 The regulations may make provision as to the meaning in the regulations of 'authorised person': Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144D(1), Sch 2A para 9(1) (as added: see note 1 supra). In particular, the regulations may provide that: (1) references to an authorised person are to a person authorised by the Secretary of State for the purposes of the regulations; (2) an authorised person may be a local authority or an employee of a local authority or a member of a police force or some other person; and (3) different persons may be authorised for the purposes of different provisions of the regulations: Sch 2A para 9(2) (as so added).

4 For the meaning of 'prescribed' see PARA 941 note 14 ante.

5 Ie an offence under the Road Traffic Act 1988 s 144A (as added): see PARA 941 ante.

6 For the meaning of 'road' see PARA 206 ante.

7 Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A para 1(1) (as added: see note 1 supra).

8 For these purposes, references to an immobilisation device are to a device or appliance which is an immobilisation device for the purposes of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 104 (as amended) (immobilisation of vehicles illegally parked) (see PARA 876 ante): Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A para 10(a) (as added: see note 1 supra).

9 Ibid Sch 2A para 1(2) (as added: see note 1 supra).

10 Ibid Sch 2A para 1(3) (as added: see note 1 supra).

11 Ibid Sch 2A para 1(4) (as added: see note 1 supra). The regulations may provide that a person who, without being authorised to do so in accordance with provision made under Sch 2A para 1 (as added), removes or attempts to remove an immobilisation device fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations is guilty of an offence: Sch 2A para 2(2) (as so added). Contravention of a provision of regulations made by virtue of Sch 2A para 2(2) (as added) prohibiting the removal or attempted removal of immobilisation device (which is declared by the regulations to be an offence) is punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 ss 9, 33(1), Sch 2 Pt I (entry prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(6), (8)). As to the standard scale see PARA 230 note 3 ante. As to the prosecution of offences see PARA 1027 post; and as to legal proceedings generally see PARA 1023 et seq post.

12 Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A para 1(5) (as added: see note 1 supra). In Sch 2A (as added), references to an immobilisation notice are to a notice fixed to a vehicle in accordance with the regulations: Sch 2A para 10(b) (as so added).

13 Ie an offence under ibid s 143 (as amended): see PARA 937 ante.

14 Ie under ibid s 144A (as added): see PARA 941 ante.

15 Ibid Sch 2A para 1(6) (as added: see note 1 supra). The regulations may provide that where: (1) a person makes a declaration with a view to securing the release of a vehicle from an immobilisation device purported to have been fixed in accordance with the regulations; (2) the declaration is that no offence under s 144A (as added) is or was being committed as regards the vehicle; and (3) the declaration is to the person's knowledge either false or in any material respect misleading, he is guilty of an offence: Sch 2A para 2(4) (as so added). Contravention of a provision of regulations made by virtue of Sch 2A para 2(4) (as added) prohibiting the making of a false or misleading declaration to secure the release of a vehicle from an immobilisation device (which is declared by the regulations to be an offence) is punishable: (a) on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum; and (b) on conviction on indictment with imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine or both: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I (entry prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(8)). As to the statutory maximum see PARA 359 note 11 ante.

16 'Disabled person's badge' means a badge issued, or having effect as if issued, under any regulations for the time being in force under the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21 (as amended) (see SOCIAL SERVICES AND COMMUNITY CARE vol 44(2) (Reissue) PARA 1071); Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A para 1(7) (as added: see note 1 supra).

17 Ibid Sch 2A para 1(7)(a) (as added: see note 1 supra). The regulations may provide that where they would apply in relation to a vehicle but for provision made under Sch 2A para 1(7)(a) (as added) and the vehicle was not, at the time it was stationary, being used: (1) in accordance with regulations under the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 s 21 (as amended); and (2) in circumstances falling within the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 s 117(1)(b) (as substituted) (use where a disabled person's concession would be available: see PARA 862 ante), the person in charge of the vehicle at that time is guilty of an offence: Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A para 2(3) (as so added). Contravention of a provision of regulations made by virtue of Sch 2A para 2(3) (as added) about the display of a disabled person's badge (which is declared by the regulations to be an offence) is punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I (entry prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(8)).

18 Road Traffic Act 1988 Sch 2A para 1(7)(b) (as added: see note 1 supra).

19 Ibid Sch 2A para 1(8) (as added: see note 1 supra). The regulations may provide that a person contravening provision made under Sch 2A para 1(8) (as added) is guilty of an offence: Sch 2A para 2(1) (as so added). Contravention of a provision of regulations made by virtue of Sch 2A para 2(1) (as added) prohibiting the removal of or interference with an immobilisation notice (which is declared by the regulations to be an offence) is punishable on summary conviction with a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale: Road Traffic Offenders Act 1988 Sch 2 Pt I (entry prospectively added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(8)).

943. Removal and disposal of vehicles.

The following provisions are not yet in force<sup>1</sup>.

The regulations<sup>2</sup> may make provision with respect to any case where: (1) an authorised person<sup>3</sup> has reason to believe that an offence of keeping a vehicle which does not meet the statutory insurance requirements<sup>4</sup> is being committed as regards a vehicle which is stationary on a road<sup>5</sup> or other public place, and such conditions as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup> are fulfilled; or (2) an authorised person has reason to believe that such an offence was being committed as regards a vehicle at a time when an immobilisation device<sup>7</sup> which is fixed to the vehicle was fixed to it in accordance with the regulations, and such conditions as may be prescribed are fulfilled<sup>8</sup>.

The regulations may provide that the authorised person, or a person acting under his direction, may remove the vehicle and deliver it into the custody of a person who is identified in accordance with prescribed rules, and who agrees to accept delivery in accordance with arrangements agreed between that person and the Secretary of State<sup>9</sup>; and the arrangements may include provision as to the payment of a sum to the person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered<sup>10</sup>. The regulations may provide that the person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered may dispose of it, and may in particular make provision as to the time at which the vehicle may be disposed of and the manner in which it may be disposed of<sup>11</sup>.

The regulations may make provision allowing a person to take possession of the vehicle if he claims it before it is disposed of and any prescribed conditions are fulfilled<sup>12</sup>. Such conditions may include conditions as to: (a) satisfying the person with custody that the claimant is the vehicle's owner; (b) the payment of prescribed charges in respect of the vehicle's release, removal and custody; (c) the production of such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that in driving the vehicle away the claimant will not be guilty of an offence of using, or causing or permitting the use of, a vehicle in relation to which the statutory insurance requirements are not fulfilled<sup>13</sup>; and (d) the production of such evidence as may be prescribed establishing that the person in whose name the vehicle is registered under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994 is not guilty of an offence of keeping a vehicle which does not meet the insurance requirements<sup>14</sup> as regards the vehicle<sup>15</sup>.

The regulations may provide for a sum of an amount arrived at under prescribed rules to be paid to a person if: (i) he claims after the vehicle's disposal to be or to have been its owner<sup>16</sup>; (ii) the claim is made within a prescribed time of the disposal; and (iii) any other prescribed conditions are fulfilled<sup>17</sup>.

The regulations may provide that the Secretary of State, or a person into whose custody the vehicle is delivered under the regulations, may recover from the vehicle's owner<sup>18</sup> (whether or not a claim is made for possession or for compensation after disposal of the vehicle<sup>19</sup>) such charges as may be prescribed in respect of all or any of the following, namely its release, removal, custody and disposal<sup>20</sup>.

1 The Road Traffic Act 1988 ss 144A-144D, Sch 2A (added by the Road Safety Act 2006 s 22(1), (3)) are to be brought into force as from a day to be appointed under the Road Safety Act 2006 s 61(1). At the date at which this volume states the law no such day had been appointed.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(2) OFFENCES AND PENALTIES/944. Exceptions to offence of keeping vehicle not meeting insurance requirements.

944. Exceptions to offence of keeping vehicle not meeting insurance requirements.

The following provisions are not yet in force<sup>1</sup>.

A person ('the registered keeper') in whose name a vehicle which does not meet the insurance requirements<sup>2</sup> is registered at any particular time ('the relevant time') does not commit an offence<sup>3</sup> at that time if any of the following conditions are satisfied<sup>4</sup>:

- 812 (1) that at the relevant time (whether or not at the relevant time it is being driven as described in the relevant statutory provision) the vehicle is owned: (a) by a person meeting the requirements as to the prescribed deposit<sup>5</sup>; or (b) by a specified<sup>6</sup> authority or body<sup>7</sup>;
- 813 (2) that at the relevant time the vehicle is owned with the intention that it should be used as described in a specified<sup>8</sup> manner<sup>9</sup>;
- 814 (3) that the registered keeper: (a) is not at the relevant time the person keeping the vehicle; and (b) if previously he was the person keeping the vehicle, he has by the relevant time complied with any requirements to furnish particulars<sup>10</sup> that he is required to have complied with by the relevant or any earlier time<sup>11</sup>;
- 815 (4) that (a) the registered keeper is at the relevant time the person keeping the vehicle; (b) at the relevant time the vehicle is not used on a road<sup>12</sup> or other public place; and (c) the registered keeper has by the relevant time complied with any requirements to furnish particulars<sup>13</sup> that he is required to have complied with by the relevant or any earlier time<sup>14</sup>;
- 816 (5) that (a) the vehicle has been stolen before the relevant time; (b) the vehicle has not been recovered by the relevant time; and (c) any requirements to furnish particulars<sup>15</sup> that, in connection with the theft, are required to have been complied with by the relevant or any earlier time have been complied with by the relevant time<sup>16</sup>.

Regulations<sup>17</sup> may make provision: (i) requiring a person in whose name a vehicle is registered to furnish such particulars and make such declarations as may be prescribed, and to do so at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed<sup>18</sup>; and (ii) as to the persons to whom, the times at which and the manner in which the theft of a vehicle is to be notified<sup>19</sup>.

Regulations may make provision amending these provisions for the purpose of providing for further exceptions to the offence of being the registered keeper of a vehicle which does not meet the insurance requirements (or varying or revoking any such further exceptions)<sup>20</sup>.

A person accused of an offence under the above provisions is not entitled to the benefit of an exception conferred by or under the provisions unless evidence is adduced that is sufficient to raise an issue with respect to that exception; but where evidence is so adduced it is for the prosecution to prove beyond reasonable doubt that the exception does not apply<sup>21</sup>.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(3) REQUIREMENTS AS TO INSURANCE POLICIES AND SECURITIES/945. Requirements in respect of policies of insurance.

(3) REQUIREMENTS AS TO INSURANCE POLICIES AND SECURITIES

945. Requirements in respect of policies of insurance.

In order to comply with the statutory requirements relating to compulsory insurance or security<sup>1</sup>, a policy of insurance<sup>2</sup> must satisfy certain conditions<sup>3</sup>.

The policy must be issued by an authorised insurer<sup>4</sup>. In addition, it must:

- 817 (1) insure such person, persons or classes of persons as may be specified in the policy in respect of any liability which may be incurred by him or them in respect of the death of or bodily injury to any person or damage to property caused by, or arising out of, the use of the vehicle on a road<sup>5</sup> or other public place in Great Britain<sup>6</sup>; and
- 818 (2) in the case of a vehicle normally based in the territory of another member state, insure him or them in respect of any civil liability which may be incurred by him or them as a result of an event related to the use of the vehicle in Great Britain if:
- 103 184. (a) according to the law of that territory, he or they would be required to be insured in respect of a civil liability which would arise under that law as a result of that event if the place where the vehicle was used when the event occurred were in that territory<sup>8</sup>; and
185. (b) the cover required by that law would be higher than that required by head (1) above<sup>9</sup>; and
- 104 819 (3) in the case of a vehicle normally based in Great Britain, insure him or them in respect of any liability which may be incurred by him or them in respect of the use of the vehicle and of any trailer<sup>10</sup>, whether or not coupled, in the territory other than Great Britain and Gibraltar of each of the member states of the Communities according to<sup>11</sup>:
- 105 186. (a) the law on compulsory insurance against civil liability in respect of the use of vehicles of the state in whose territory the event giving rise to the liability occurred<sup>12</sup>; or
187. (b) if it would give higher cover, the law which would be applicable if the place where the vehicle was used when that event occurred were in Great Britain<sup>13</sup>; and
- 106 820 (4) also insure him or them in respect of any liability which may be incurred by him or them<sup>14</sup> relating to payment for emergency treatment<sup>15</sup>.

The policy is not, by virtue of head (1) above, required<sup>16</sup>:

- 821 (i) to cover liability in respect of the death, arising out of and in the course of his employment, of a person in the employment of a person insured by the policy or of bodily injury sustained by such a person arising out of and in the course of his employment<sup>17</sup>;
- 822 (ii) to provide insurance of more than a specified amount<sup>18</sup> in respect of all such liabilities as may be insured in respect of damage to property caused by, or arising out of, any one accident<sup>19</sup> involving the vehicle<sup>20</sup>;
- 823 (iii) to cover liability in respect of damage to the vehicle<sup>21</sup>;
- 824 (iv) to cover liability in respect of damage to goods<sup>22</sup> carried for hire or reward in or on the vehicle or in or on any trailer, whether or not coupled, drawn by the vehicle<sup>23</sup>;
- 825 (v) to cover any liability of a person in respect of damage to property in his custody or under his control<sup>24</sup>; or
- 826 (vi) to cover any contractual liability<sup>25</sup>.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(3) REQUIREMENTS AS TO INSURANCE POLICIES AND SECURITIES/946. Requirements in respect of securities.

946. Requirements in respect of securities.

In order to comply with the statutory requirements relating to compulsory insurance or security<sup>1</sup>, a security must satisfy certain conditions<sup>2</sup>.

The security must be given either by an authorised insurer<sup>3</sup> or by some body of persons which carries on in the United Kingdom<sup>4</sup> the business of giving securities of a like kind and has deposited and keeps deposited with the Accountant General of the Supreme Court a specified sum<sup>5</sup> in respect of that business<sup>6</sup>.

The security must consist of an undertaking by the giver of the security to make good, subject to any conditions specified in it, any failure by the owner<sup>7</sup> of the vehicle or such other persons or classes of persons as may be specified in the security duly to discharge any liability which may be incurred by him or them, being a liability required<sup>8</sup> to be covered by a policy of insurance<sup>9</sup>. In the case of liabilities arising out of the use of a motor vehicle on a road<sup>10</sup> or other public place in Great Britain<sup>11</sup> the amount secured need not, however, exceed, in the case of an undertaking relating to the use of public service vehicles<sup>12</sup>, £25,000, and, in any other case, £5,000<sup>13</sup>.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(3) REQUIREMENTS AS TO INSURANCE POLICIES AND SECURITIES/947. Issue and surrender of certificates of insurance and of security.

947. Issue and surrender of certificates of insurance and of security.

A policy of insurance<sup>1</sup> is of no effect<sup>2</sup> unless and until there is delivered by the insurer to the person by whom the policy is effected a certificate of insurance in the prescribed<sup>3</sup> form and containing such particulars of any conditions subject to which the policy is issued and of any other matters as may be prescribed<sup>4</sup>.

A security is of no effect<sup>5</sup> unless and until there is delivered by the person giving the security to the person to whom it is given a certificate of security in the prescribed form and containing such particulars of any conditions subject to which the security is issued and of any other matters as may be prescribed<sup>6</sup>.

Different forms and different particulars may be prescribed for the above purposes in relation to different cases or circumstances<sup>7</sup>.

Where a certificate has been so delivered<sup>8</sup> and the policy or security to which it relates is cancelled by mutual consent or by virtue of any provision in the policy or security, the person to whom the certificate was delivered must, within seven days from the taking effect of the cancellation<sup>9</sup>:

- 827 (1) surrender the certificate to the person by whom the policy was issued or the security was given<sup>10</sup>; or
- 828 (2) if the certificate has been lost or destroyed, make a statutory declaration to that effect<sup>11</sup>.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(3) REQUIREMENTS AS TO INSURANCE POLICIES AND SECURITIES/948. Avoidance of certain exceptions to policies or securities.

948. Avoidance of certain exceptions to policies or securities.

Where a certificate of insurance<sup>1</sup> or certificate of security<sup>2</sup> has been delivered<sup>3</sup> to the person by whom a policy has been effected or to whom a security has been given, so much of the policy or security as purports to restrict the insurance of the persons insured by the policy or the operation of the security, as the case may be, by reference to any of the matters referred to in heads (1) to (8) below is, as respects such liabilities as are required to be covered by a policy<sup>4</sup>, of no effect<sup>5</sup>. The matters referred to above are:

- 829 (1) the age or physical or mental condition of persons driving<sup>6</sup> the vehicle<sup>7</sup>;
- 830 (2) the condition of the vehicle<sup>8</sup>;
- 831 (3) the number of persons that the vehicle carries<sup>9</sup>;

- 832 (4) the weight or physical characteristics of the goods<sup>10</sup> that the vehicle carries<sup>11</sup>;
- 833 (5) the time at which or the areas within which the vehicle is used<sup>12</sup>;
- 834 (6) the horsepower or cylinder capacity or value of the vehicle<sup>13</sup>;
- 835 (7) the carrying on the vehicle of any particular apparatus<sup>14</sup>; or
- 836 (8) the carrying on the vehicle of any particular means of identification other than any means of identification required to be carried by or under the Vehicle Excise and Registration Act 1994<sup>15</sup>.

Any sum paid by an insurer or the giver of a security in or towards the discharge of any liability of any person which is covered by the policy or security<sup>16</sup> is recoverable by the insurer or giver of the security from that person<sup>17</sup>.

A condition in a policy or security issued or given for the purposes of the statutory provisions relating to compulsory insurance or security<sup>18</sup> providing:

- 837 (a) that no liability is to arise under the policy or security<sup>19</sup>; or
- 838 (b) that any liability so arising is to cease<sup>20</sup>, in the event of some specified thing being done or omitted to be done after the happening of the event giving rise to a claim under the policy or security, is of no effect in connection with such liabilities as are required to be covered by a policy of insurance<sup>21</sup>.

Notwithstanding anything in any enactment, a person issuing a policy of insurance<sup>22</sup> is liable to indemnify the persons or classes of persons specified in the policy in respect of any liability which the policy purports to cover in the case of those persons or classes of persons<sup>23</sup>.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(4) RELATIONS WITH THIRD PARTIES/951. Duty of insurers or persons giving security to satisfy judgment against persons insured or secured against third party risks.

(4) RELATIONS WITH THIRD PARTIES

951. Duty of insurers or persons giving security to satisfy judgment against persons insured or secured against third party risks.

The following provisions<sup>1</sup> apply where, after a certificate of insurance<sup>2</sup> or certificate of security<sup>3</sup> has been delivered<sup>4</sup> to the person by whom a policy has been effected or to whom a security has been given, a judgment relating to a liability with respect to any matter where liability with respect to that matter is required to be covered by a policy of insurance<sup>5</sup> is obtained<sup>6</sup>. In addition, the liability must be either:

- 846 (1) a liability covered by the terms of the policy or security<sup>7</sup> to which the certificate relates, and the judgment is obtained against any person who is insured by the policy or whose liability is covered by the security, as the case may be<sup>8</sup>; or
- 847 (2) a liability, other than an excluded liability<sup>9</sup>, which would be so covered if the policy insured all persons or, as the case may be, the security covered the liability of all persons, and the judgment is obtained against any person other than one who is insured by the policy or, as the case may be, whose liability is covered by the security<sup>10</sup>.

Notwithstanding that the insurer may be entitled to avoid or cancel, or may have avoided or cancelled, the policy or security, he must<sup>11</sup> pay to the persons entitled to the benefit of the judgment<sup>12</sup>:

- 848 (a) as regards liability in respect of death or bodily injury, any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability, together with any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on that sum<sup>13</sup>;
- 849 (b) as regards liability in respect of damage to property, any sum required to be paid<sup>14</sup>; and
- 850 (c) any amount payable in respect of costs<sup>15</sup>.

Where an insurer becomes liable<sup>16</sup> to pay an amount in respect of a liability of a person who is insured by a policy or whose liability is covered by a security, he is entitled to recover from that person that amount<sup>17</sup> or, in a case where that amount exceeds the amount for which he would, apart from these provisions<sup>18</sup>, be liable under the policy or security in respect of that liability, the excess<sup>19</sup>.

Where an insurer becomes liable<sup>20</sup> to pay an amount in respect of a liability of a person who is not insured by a policy or whose liability is not covered by a security, he is entitled to recover the amount from that person or from any person who is insured by the policy, or whose liability is covered by the security, by the terms of which the liability would be covered if the policy insured all persons or, as the case may be, the security covered the liability of all persons, and caused or permitted the use of the vehicle which gave rise to the liability<sup>21</sup>.

'Insurer' includes a person giving a security: s 151(9)(a). In deciding for the purposes of s 151(2) whether a liability is or would be covered by the terms of a policy or security, so much of the policy or security as purports to restrict, as the case may be, the insurance of the persons insured by the policy or the operation of the security by reference to the holding by the driver of the vehicle of a licence authorising him to drive it is to be treated as of no effect: s 151(3).

8 Ibid s 151(2)(a).

9 For these purposes, 'excluded liability' means a liability in respect of the death of, or bodily injury to, or damage to the property of, any person who, at the time of the use which gave rise to the liability, was allowing himself to be carried in or on the vehicle and knew or had reason to believe that the vehicle had been stolen or unlawfully taken, not being a person who: (1) did not know and had no reason to believe that the vehicle had been stolen or unlawfully taken until after the commencement of his journey; and (2) could not reasonably have been expected to have alighted from the vehicle: ibid s 151(4). The reference to a person being carried in or on a vehicle includes a reference to a person entering or getting on to, or alighting from, the vehicle: s 151(4). 1490 (2) where that total exceeds £1,000,000, either such proportion of any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability as £1,000,000 bears to that total, together with the same proportion of any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on that sum, or the difference between the total of any amounts already paid under the policy or security in respect of such damage and £1,000,000, together with such proportion of any sum which, by virtue of any enactment relating to interest on judgments, is payable in respect of interest on any sum payable under the judgment in respect of the liability as the difference bears to that sum (Road Traffic Act 1988 s 151(6)(b) (as so amended)),

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(4) RELATIONS WITH THIRD PARTIES/952. Exceptions to the duty of insurers or persons giving security to satisfy judgment against persons insured or secured against third party risks.

952. Exceptions to the duty of insurers or persons giving security to satisfy judgment against persons insured or secured against third party risks.

No sum is payable by an insurer under the provisions relating to the duty of insurers or persons giving security to satisfy judgment against persons insured or secured against third party risks<sup>1</sup>:

- 851 (1) in respect of any judgment unless, before or within seven days after the commencement of the proceedings in which the judgment was given, the insurer had notice of the bringing of the proceedings<sup>2</sup>;
  - 852 (2) in respect of any judgment, so long as execution on the judgment is stayed pending an appeal<sup>3</sup>; or
  - 853 (3) in connection with any liability if, before the happening of the event which was the cause of the death or bodily injury or damage to property giving rise to the liability, the policy or security was cancelled by mutual consent or by virtue of any provision contained in it, and also<sup>4</sup>:
- 109
- 191. (a) before the happening of that event the certificate was surrendered to the insurer, or the person to whom the certificate was delivered made a statutory declaration stating that the certificate had been lost or destroyed<sup>5</sup>; or
  - 192. (b) after the happening of that event, but before the expiration of a period of 14 days from the taking effect of the cancellation of the policy or security, the certificate was surrendered to the insurer, or the person to whom it was delivered made a statutory declaration stating that the certificate had been lost or destroyed<sup>6</sup>; or
  - 193. (c) either before or after the happening of that event, but within that period of 14 days, the insurer has commenced proceedings<sup>7</sup> in respect of the failure to surrender the certificate<sup>8</sup>.

No sum is payable by an insurer<sup>9</sup> if, in an action commenced before, or within three months after, the commencement of the proceedings in which the judgment was given, he has obtained a declaration<sup>10</sup>:

- 854 (i) that, apart from any provision contained in the policy or security, he is entitled to avoid it on the ground that it was obtained by the non-disclosure of a material<sup>11</sup> fact or by a representation of fact which was false in some material particular<sup>12</sup>; or
- 855 (ii) if he has avoided the policy or security on that ground, that he was entitled so to do apart from any provision contained in it<sup>13</sup>.

An insurer who has obtained a declaration<sup>14</sup> in an action does not by reason of that become entitled to benefit<sup>15</sup> as respects any judgment obtained in proceedings commenced before the commencement of that action unless before, or within seven days after, the commencement of that action he has given notice of it to the person who is the claimant in those proceedings specifying the non-disclosure or false representation on which he proposes to rely<sup>16</sup>.

A person to whom notice of such an action is given is entitled, if he thinks fit, to be made a party to it<sup>17</sup>.

INSURANCE AGAINST THIRD PARTY LIABILITIES/(4) RELATIONS WITH THIRD PARTIES/953. Bankruptcy etc of insured or secured persons not to affect claims by third parties.

953. Bankruptcy etc of insured or secured persons not to affect claims by third parties.

Where, after a certificate of insurance<sup>1</sup> or certificate of security<sup>2</sup> has been delivered<sup>3</sup> to the person by whom a policy has been effected or to whom a security has been given, any of the specified events<sup>4</sup> happens, the happening of that event does not affect any such liability of that person as is required to be covered by a policy of insurance<sup>5</sup>.

In the case of the person by whom the policy was effected or to whom the security was given, the specified events are:

- 856 (1) he becomes bankrupt<sup>6</sup> or makes a composition or arrangement with his creditors<sup>7</sup> or his estate is sequestrated or he grants a trust deed for his creditors<sup>8</sup>;
- 857 (2) he dies and his estate falls to be administered in accordance with an order under the Insolvency Act 1986<sup>9</sup> or an award of sequestration of his estate is made<sup>10</sup>;
- 858 (3) if that person is a company, a winding-up order<sup>11</sup> is made with respect to the company or the company enters administration<sup>12</sup>, or a resolution for a voluntary winding-up<sup>13</sup> is passed with respect to the company, or a receiver or manager of the company's business or undertaking is duly appointed<sup>14</sup>, or possession is taken, by or on behalf of the holders of any debentures<sup>15</sup> secured by a floating charge, of any property comprised in or subject to the charge<sup>16</sup>.

Nothing in the above provisions affects any rights conferred by the Third Parties (Rights Against Insurers) Act 1930<sup>17</sup> on the person to whom the liability was incurred, being rights so conferred against the person by whom the policy was issued or the security was given<sup>18</sup>.
